He was married, Feb. 26, 1856, to Almedia B., born 1829, died 1908, daughter of Jacob, born 1792, died 1877, and Ansenith (Benedict) Lance,* born 1802, died 1835, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), and their children are: (1), Frank E., born Nov. 29, 1857, married, Sept. 10, 1891, to Esther, born Oct. 20, 1866, daughter of James A. and Margaret (Young) Bryden; (2), Charlie D., born 1860, died 1863; (3), Will A., born Aug. 20, 1863, married to Olive, born 1870, died 1910, daughter of George Rowley, of Carbondale, Pa.; (4), Gertrude A., born Jan. 24, 1866, married to Eugene Healey, of Scranton, Pa.

HARRY SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 991—(998)

Harry, son of Jacob I. and Mary Margaret (Sharps) Shoemaker, was born in West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 15, 1880, and attended the West Wyoming public schools and Wyoming Seminary, at Kingston, Pa. He learned the trade of a carpenter. At the time of his marriage he was in the employ of James Fowler and Sons, merchant millers, at Pittston, Pa. He later was in the employ of his father, and now (1919) is again in the service of James Fowler and Sons. He is a member of Wyoming Lodge, No. 468, F. and A. M., of Wyoming, Pa., of the Bloomsburg, Pa., Consistory and of Irem Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He was married, in his newly furnished home, at Pittston, Pa., by the Rev. W. T. Blair, Sept. 10, 1902, to Josie, born April 17, 1885, daughter of Amos and Alice Fidelia (Larrish) Giberson. They first established their home in Pittston, Pa., and later removed to West Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa. A few months after the death of Mrs. Mary Margaret (Sharps) Shoemaker, Harry and Josie (Giberson) Shoemaker removed to the home of his father, Jacob I. Shoemaker, where they reside.

Amos, son of William and Barbara (Van Sickle) Giberson, was born at Cole's Creek, Columbia Co., Pa., July 4, 1853, and was married, Oct. 28, 1876, to Alice Fidelia, born April 10, 1854, daughter of Cyrus and Mary Jane (Stevens) Larrish. Their children are: 1, Winifred, born Aug. 20, 1877, died July 25, 1890; 2, Virgie Blanche, born Oct. 20, 1879, married, Feb. 6, 1901, to I. SAMUEL RAUB SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 992—(981)

Samuel Raub, son of Isaac Countryman and Catharine Ann (Shoemaker) Shoemaker, was born at New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 1, 1841, and was baptised June 8, 1848, by the Rev. Thomas H. Pearne of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In childhood he attended the "Shoemaker District" School and in young manhood he was a student in Wyoming Seminary at Kingston, Pa. While attending the latter institution he first made his home with Dr. Reuben Nelson and later with his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth (Chapin) Shoemaker of Kingston. After leaving the seminary he entered the employ of his father at Wyoming and, April 1, 1862, when nearly of age, he became a member of the firm of I. C. Shoemaker and Sons, his father, Isaac C. Shoemaker, and his brother, Jacob I. Shoemaker, being associated with him in the operation of the farm, grist mill and woolen factory. He was later a member of the firm of Shoemaker and Tripp and, still later, of the firm of Shoemaker and Frantz, operating the grist mill. The firm of I. C. Shoemaker and Sons continued in business until the death of I. C. Shoemaker, in 1875, when the firm of I. C. Shoemaker's Sons was organized to carry on the various enterprises of the former firm. This partnership of Jacob I. Shoemaker and Samuel R. Shoemaker continued until the time of the settlement of the estate of Isaac C. Shoemaker. In the settlement of that estate Samuel R. Shoemaker acquired title to the eastern half of the Isaac C. Shoemaker farm and to 146 acres of the Morning Star farm in Exeter Township. He bought from Gilbert Taylor and Mary Ann (Jones) Taylor, (Family No. 35—Taylor) about one acre of land, formerly owned by Mrs. Josephine (Shoemaker) Goodwin. (Family No. 1229.) The title to this property had passed from John Goodwin to William S. Shoemaker, and from the latter to Moses B. Goodwin. He sold it to Shiffer and Thompson of Pittston, and Dec. 17, 1863, Jeremiah B. Shiffer and

*I. John, born 1716, died, at Canaan, Conn., Aug. 20, 1800, and Keziah (Pierce) Franklin; II, Samuel, born May 10, 1759, died June 1, 1828, (Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa.), and Polly (Ransom) Franklin, born May 20, 1772, died Sept. 18, 1825; III, William, born Nov. 28, 1792, died June 15, 1829, and Ann (Hann) Franklin, born March 6, 1797, died Oct. 10, 1855, probably daughter of Philip Hann, born Feb. 30, 1773, died March 16, 1855, (Waterton Cemetery); IV, William A., born 1817, died April 1906, and Ann E. (McDaniels) Franklin; V, John Everett and Cora E. (Hull) Franklin, (Family No. 1041—Franklin).

Almeda B. (Lance) Shiffer, his wife, and Abel C. Thompson and Catharine S. (Brown) Thompson, his wife. (Family No. 33—Blanchard—Shiffer, Family No. 14—Thompson, Family No. 1328—Brown), sold it to Gilbert Taylor. The house on this lot which was doubtless built by John Goodwin (2d) and was the residence of John and Josephine (Shoemaker) Goodwin, became the residence of Samuel R. and Mary Jane (Carver) Shoemaker. They resided there, with the exception of two years, until Dec. 30, 1889, when Mr. Shoemaker bought the residence of Stephen Sharps on Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, when they removed to the latter location.

The Shoemaker addition to what is now the borough of West Wyoming, Pa., was laid out by Samuel R. Shoemaker and William Swetland Shoemaker, his uncle, in 1883. On March 3 of that year they entered into an agreement to lay out a road between what is now Shoemaker avenue and the "L. and B." (D., L. & W. R. R.) tracks, in what is now West Wyoming, for the purpose of laying out building lots. This road, laid out in 1883, is now Sixth street, West Wyoming. Dec. 31, 1888, Samuel R. Shoemaker and his wife, Mary Jane, executed a deed by which they conveyed to John A. Hutchins, Mary Jane Hutchins, his wife, and William Chesworth, title to one acre of land in one tract and also to the 146 acre Morning Star farm in Exeter Township. In 1885 Samuel R. Shoemaker removed to Williamsport, Pa., where he was engaged in business two years. In 1887 he returned to Wyoming.

Samuel R. Shoemaker was a stockholder in the Ferry Bridge Company of Pittston and also in the People's Savings Bank of Pittston. He was a member of the Wyoming Methodist Episcopal Church and a charter member of Wyoming Lodge, No. 468,* F. and A. M., of which he was later elected Worshipful Master. He was also a member of Chapter No. 242, Royal Arch Masons, of Pittston, and of Dieu Le Veut Commandery, No. 45, Knights Templar, of Wilkes-Barre. In 1880 he was Treasurer of Wyoming Lodge, No. 2130, Knights of Honor.

Samuel Raub Shoemaker was married, Jan. 7, 1868, to Mary Jane, born March 7, 1850, daughter of Rufus and Nancy (Harding) Carver, (Carver family later, Family No. 992—Captain Stephen Harding) and their children were: 1, Archibald Carver, born Aug. 18, 1869, and 2, Amy, born Feb. 17, 1871, died Aug. 28, 1872, (Forty Fort Cemetery). Samuel Raub Shoemaker died at Wyoming, May 2, 1901, and is buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. His widow, Mrs. Mary Jane (Carver) Shoemaker, resides at Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. (1919.)

*Wyoming Lodge, No. 468, F. and A. M., was instituted in May, 1870, with the following charter members and first officers: Colonel Harry A. Laycock, Worshipful Master; Peter H. Polen, Senior Warden; Samuel R. Shoemaker, Junior Warden; Stephen J. Sharps, Secretary; Henry Polen, Treasurer; Robert H. Laycock, Miller Patterson, W. J. Bennet and John J. Breese.

THE CARVER FAMILY

Jonathan Carver, of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., was probably born in Windham, Conn., Dec. 18, 1741, a son of Jonathan and Eunice (Downer) Carver.* (Bib.-134.) He was married, in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., Nov. 5, 1767-8, to Mary Waller. At least six of their children were born in Kent. The marriage of Jonathan Carver and Mary Waller and the dates of the birth of five of their children are recorded in the Town Records of Kent. The baptisms of six of their children are recorded in the Records of the First Congressional Church of Kent, Rev. J. Bardwell, Pastor. Professor Frederick C. Church of State College, Pa., has kindly furnished the writer original copies of these records. After June, 1781, and before 1789 Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver and their family removed to the Wyoming Valley and settled in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was a resident of Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790 and then had in family, living at home, himself, two males under 16 and six females, presumably including two sons, five daughters and his wife. His son, Samuel Carver, was also a resident there in that year and had in family himself and wife. In 1792 Jonathan and Samuel Carver were assessed in Kingston Township and again in 1796. Jonathan Carver bought, Sept. 2, 1796, from Benjamin Dorrance of Kingston, one-half of Lot No. 27, of the Fourth Division of lots in Kingston, estimated at about 104 acres.

One-half of Lot 27 was owned by the estate of Nero Matthewson, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, (Family No. 1313—Matthewson) and was sold by Elisha Matthewson, administrator of the estate, to Arnold Colt, of Wilkes-Barre, by whom it was sold, July 15, 1799, to Nathan Mulford, Sr., who, June 15, 1815, sold it to his son, Nathan Mulford, Jr. Nathan Mulford, Jr., born March 21, 1784, died Jan. 26, 1850, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery), and his wife, Jamima, born in July, 1794, died Feb. 3, 1864, sold it, Aug. 25, 1849, to Asa Munson. The other half of Lot No. 27 was part of the estate of Peter Tifft† of Foster, R. I., and Kingston, Pa. Johannah Fish, whose name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists

*1. John Carver of Marshfield, Mass., born about 1638, died June 23, 1679, was married, Nov. 4-5, 1658, to Millicent, daughter of William Ford. She was married (2), March 9, 1681, to Thomas Drake of Weymouth, Mass.

David, son of John and Millicent (Ford) Carver, removed to Weymouth, Mass., and was married (1) to Ruth —, and was married (2), in 1709, to Hannah, daughter of Joseph Dyer of Weymouth. April 23, 1718, he sold his property in Weymouth to Benjamin Dyer, and removed to Canterbury, Conn. The children of David and Ruth Carver were: 1, Ruth, born Dec. 10, 1700; 2, Samuel, born Nov. 4, 1704. Some of those of David and Hannah (Dyer) Carver were: 3, Jonathan, born April 13, 1710; 4, David, born Sept. 15, 1713; 5, Hannah, born Oct. 25, 1717, married to David French; 6, Sarah, born March 2, 1720, married to Rev. Solomon Paine of Canterbury. (Bib.-106, Vol. LV, p. 221.)

2. Jonathan Carver, Captain in 1760, of a Company of Colonel John Whitcomb's Regiment, and in 1755 in the campaigns against Montreal and Quebec, and who in 1766 set out from Boston to explore the Northwest territory, is said to have died in Jan., 1780, leaving a widow and the following children: 1, Martha, living in England; 2, Jonathan; 3, Rufus; 4, Sarah (Carver) Church, a widow; 5, Abigail (Carver) Goss; 6, Mary (Carver) King; 7, Mindwell (Carver) Gunn. (Bib.-213-214.)

3. David Carver, probably of Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N. Y., June 12, 1771, was then a member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and at a meeting of that company, held at Windham, June 12, 1771, it was "Voted that James Hannah, Philip Goss, David Carver, Andrew Graham, John Bacon, Jr., Thomas Fanning, Benjamin Dorchester, Ebenezer Learned and Jonathan Buck, 'Nine Partners,' be added to the committee for collecting the last $2 tax that was granted and pay the same to the Treasurer." (Bib.-1, p. 691.)

David and Samuel Carver are named by Dr. Miner (Bib.-4) as proprietors, in June, 1772, of the Town of Charlestown, on the west branch of the Susquehanna River, which was ruthlessly destroyed by the Pennsylvania authorities.

4. Dec. 5, 1775, "One Carver, one of the New England people, settled in Wyoming," a prisoner in the custody of "Charles Stewart of the Jerseys and one Garrett Brodhead, Esq., of Smithfield," (Northampton Co., Penn.) was seen at the house of Manuel Consolis, (Family No. 995—Overfield) in Lower Smithfield, by Harmanus Brink of Skippekunk, Sussex Co., N. J. This Carver had been arrested because Stewart was afraid he would "carry news to the Lackaway people of the party that was going against them." Mr. Brink secured his release. (See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., p. 855, for copy of affidavit.)

†Peter Tifft owned Third Division, Kingston, Lots Nos. 6, 7, and 8, a ten acre tract he had bought from Elias Roberts (Family No. 988—Roberts) and the whole of Fourth Division Lot No. 27. John Pierce (or Peirce) was appointed administrator of his estate and May 24, 1788, sold all these lands, about 468 acres, to Rosewell Wells of Wilkes-Barre. This deed conveyed the whole of Lot 27, Fourth Division, 208 acres, one-half of which Rosewell Wells sold June 11, 1788, to Elisha Matthewson, brother of Nero Matthewson. It also describes Peter Tifft as late of Kingston. May 28, 1788, Rosewell Wells sold Lot 7, Third Division, Kingston, 82 acres, to Arthur Eick of Morris Co., N. J., and May 28, 1788, sold to John Pierce (or Peirce), described as now of Kingston, Lot No. 8, Third Division, Kingston, the ten acres sold by Elias Roberts to Peter Tifft, and one-half of Lot 27, Fourth Division, containing 208 acres in the whole. Aug. 13, 1790, John Pierce (or Peirce), then of Plainfield, Windham Co., Conn., sold Lot 8, Third Division, Kingston, bounded on the north by lands of Luke Swetland, to Aaron Roberts, (Family No.

for 1780, and Nancy Dorrance signed the deed from Benjamin Dorrance to Jonathan Carver, as witnesses. The name of Jonathan Carver appears as warrantee of half of Lot 27, for which a Commissioner's Certificate was issued to his son-in-law, William Church. It appears, however, that before 1801 Jonathan Carver had conveyed title to about 50 acres of Lot 27 to his son, Addison Carver, who was assessed, in 1801, as owning 50 acres of land in Kingston, while Jonathan Carver was assessed as owning 54 acres in that year. Addison Carver sold part of Lot No. 27 to Charles Stout, who before April 29, 1817, had conveyed title to Walter Munson. Dec. 21, 1815, William and Lucinda (Carver) Church sold 50 acres of the farm to Nehemiah Monroe, and April 29, 1817, Nehemiah Monroe and his wife, Anna, sold 50 acres, adjoining lands sold by Addison Carver to Charles V. Stout, owned, April 29, 1817, by Walter Munson to John Honeywell, Jr., of Dallas. This land is described by William Church as situated on the public road leading from Jacob Rice's Mill to Bennett's saw mill. May 9, 1853, William Church sold 25 acres of Lot No. 27 to Asa and George Munson, described as situated on the road from Trucksville to Heffts' Mill. May 30, 1818, John, Jr., and Elsa Honeywell sold 18 acres of 27 to Stephen Robins. Benjamin Honeywell bought about 35 acres of Lot 27, owned by John Honeywell, Jr., at Sheriff's sale, Jan. 12, 1828, and, July 5, 1830, Benjamin and Sally Honeywell sold 35 acres of 27 to Horatio Mann. This same property was sold, Aug. 25, 1849, by Nathan, Jr., and Jamima Mulford to Asa Munson.

Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver established their home in Kingston Township, near the site of the Asa Munson residence, perhaps on the opposite side of the road. The name of Jonathan Carver appears on the Tax List for Kingston as late as 1811. He probably died in 1811 or 1812. It appears that the date of his death as well as that of his wife has not been preserved. On the hillside, above a sharp depression of the land below the road, and opposite the Asa Munson residence, under the shade of some very old trees there is a family burial plot in which the writer found, in 1917, traces of several graves, some of which are still marked with plain stones. This is without any doubt the last resting place of Jonathan Carver and several members of his family. The children of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver were: 1, Samuel, born Sept. 28, 1768, birth recorded at Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn.; 2, Eunice, born Aug. 18, 1771, birth recorded at Kent, Conn.; 3, Addison (1), born Feb. 22, 1774, birth recorded at Kent, Conn., baptised with Samuel and Eunice, by Rev. J. Bardwell, First Congregational Church, Kent, Conn., in July, 1774, died there Sept. 8, 1776; 4, Rebekah, born Sept. 21, 1776, recorded at Kent, baptised by Rev. J. Bardwell, in Dec., 1776, died in Eaton Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., Sept. 21, 1851, (Eatonville, Pa., Cemetery), married to Asahel, Jr., son of Asahel Atherton (Family No. 992—Atherton), whose son, Jonathan, was married to Rebecca, daughter of Lewis and Nancy (Montanye) Mullison, (Family No. 1217—Montanye, No. 992—Mullison); 5, Betta, or Betty, born Nov. 5, 1778, birth recorded at Kent, baptised by Rev. J. Bardwell, in Jan., 1779, probably living in 1790, but no further record found by writer; 6, Addison (2), baptised at Kent, Conn., in June, 1781, probably born in 1780, owned real estate in 1801; 7, Anor, not married, owned a house and lot in Kingston Township, in 1835, later lived with her sister, Mrs. Ann (Carver) Mullison, and was buried in the Mullison plot in Forty Fort Cemetery; 8, Jabez, born Feb. 8, 1787; 9, Ann, born Jan. 14, 1790; 10, Lucinda, born Aug. 8, 1793, died June 20, 1848.

III. (1). Rev. Samuel Carver, a noted local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., a carpenter and a successful farmer, was born in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., Sept. 28, 1768, and was baptised by the Rev. J. Bardwell of the First Congregational Church of Kent, in July, 1774. He was the oldest son of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver and, probably before 1789, came with his parents to the Wyoming Valley. He was one of the Proprietors of Kingston Township Dec. 18, 1790, and attended a meeting of the Proprietors on that day. He was married to Jane, born June 10, 1773, died May 2, 1844, daughter of John Montanye of Kingston. (Family No. 1217—Montanye.) They established their home on half of Lot No. 36 of the Fourth Division in Kingston, which he bought from Lawrence Myers, July 4, 1794. This half of Lot No. 36 had been drawn for 988—Roberts). July 7, 1796, still of Plainfield, he sold one-half of Lot 27, Fourth Division, to Benjamin Dorrance, for $94.00. July 22, 1795, Daniel Potter and his wife, Naomy, of Cranston, Providence Co., R. I., and Freelove Tift, a single woman, of Foster, R. I., executed a power of attorney to Daniel Burrows of Guilford, Windham Co., Vt., "a Taylor," pertaining to lands lying in the Susquehanna Purchase. Naomy Potter and Freelove Tift are described as daughters and heirs of Peter Tift, Esq., of Foster, R. I.

Meadow Lot No. 33 by Ezekiel Peirce and was sold by him to John Peirce, and John Peirce, administrator of John Peirce, sold it, June 2, 1788, to Lawrence Myers. Jan. 29, 1801, he bought from Nathan Dennison one-half of Lot 37, 105 acres. This deed refers to a road that "leads by Carver's house," and to another highway "that divides the First tier from the Second in the last Division." Lot 37 of the Fourth Division was owned by Caleb Brundage of Kingston, Feb. 14, 1800, when he sold it to Nathan Dennison. The whole section of Kingston Township in which Samuel Carver settled became known, and is known today, as Carverton. The Carverton Methodist Episcopal Church stands on Carver land, also the old part of the cemetery there was set apart by him, for burial purposes, in his will. He and his father, Jonathan Carver, were early members of the pioneer Ross Hill class of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Plymouth Township, (Bib.-96) and the home of Samuel Carver was one of the regular preaching places of the early Methodist preachers. The Carverton, Pa., Methodist Episcopal Church grew out of a class which is said to have been organized by Gilbert Carpenter. (Family No. 14—Carpenter.) Samuel Carver was a member of the Kingston Moral Society. He served as administrator of several estates and was evidently one of the most useful men of his day in Kingston Township. Feb. 5, 1815, Samuel Carver and Jane, his wife, sold to John Kelly, born April, 1749, died Jan. 17, 1830, with his son, John, born Dec., 1790, died April 22, 1821, and his daughter, Sarah, born Oct. 7, 1794, died July 31, 1832, married to John Eaton, born 1790, died Oct. 14, 1837, buried in Carverton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery, 30 acres of Lot 37, Fourth Division in Kingston. The will of Samuel Carver was made in Kingston, May 6, 1835, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, May 29, 1835. It names his wife, Jane, his son Isaac, his daughter Jane, and refers to his grandsons, children of his daughter, Jane, and, also, names his grandson, Samuel Carver. He appointed his brother, Jabez Carver, of Eaton, Pa., and Dr. John Smith, of Kingston, executors. He died May 26, 1835, and is buried in the Forty Fort Cemetery, at the point nearest to the pulpit in the historic Forty Fort Church, where he had officiated for many years as a preacher of the Gospel. His widow, Mrs. Jane (Montanye) Carver, survived him nearly nine years and died May 2, 1844. (Forty Fort Cemetery.) The Samuel Carver homestead of 193 acres was sold May 22, 1838, by John Smith, executor, to Jabez Carver, and, Oct. 9, 1837, Joseph, Jr., and Marilla Montanye (Family No. 1217—Montanye) sold to Jane Carver, for the term of her natural life, and to the right heirs and legal representatives of Samuel Carver, part of Fourth Division Lots 36 and 37, in Kingston. Some of the children of Samuel and Jane (Montanye) Carver were: 1, Isaac, born Dec. 26, 1791, died Jan. 3, 1843, (see later); 2, Jane, born about 1812, died April 22, 1833, married to Hiram, born Oct. 14, 1802, died Nov. 25, 1836, son of Belding and Sally (Gay) Swetland (Family No. 3—Swetland), whose children were: (1), Samuel, married to Harriet, daughter of Eli and Margaret (Bird) Swetland; (2), Uriah, who is said to have died in the Civil War. Hiram and Jane (Carver) Swetland are buried in the Swetland plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

IV. (1). Isaac, son of Samuel and Jane (Montanye) Carver, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Dec. 26, 1791, and died in Lemon Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., Jan. 3, 1843. He was married to Lydia, born June 10, 1787, died March 28, 1863, daughter of Joseph Brace. They are buried in Lemon Cemetery. Aug. 23, 1839, Isaac Carver sold to Anson Atherton and William Church a farm of 142 acres in Tunkhannock Township and on the same day also sold to them all his interest in the estate of his father, Samuel Carver. April 9, 1830, Samuel Carver sold to Isaac Carver 61 acres of Lot 36, Fourth Division, Kingston, which he sold later, to Samuel Jackson. The children of Isaac and Lydia (Brace) Carver were: 1, Margaret, born March 4, 1812, not married, died May 1, 1863, (Lemon Cemetery); 2, Samuel, born Oct. 7, 1813, died May 2, 1883, married (1) to Sarah ———, married (2) to Mrs. Mary (Stemple) Harris, widow of Henry Harris; 3, Ann, born April 6, 1815, died Dec. 11, 1855, (Lemon Cemetery), married to Joseph B., born Aug. 20, 1815, died April 10, 1893, son of Thomas and Martha (McNamara) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding); 4, Mary, born May 20, 1816, died Dec. 31, 1879, married, Jan. 17, 1835, to Robert S., born April 1, 1813, died Dec. 19, 1869, (Newton Center, Lackawanna Co., Pa., Cemetery), son of Levi Chapman, born April 23, 1798, died Sept. 6, 1881, and Hannah Shay Lewis*, born Jan. 13, 1802, died Sept. 18, 1872, and grandson of Oliver Lewis, born April 31, 1774, died Jan. 4, 1857, (Mt. Zion Cemetery). Robert S. Lewis removed from Exeter to Newton Township. Two of the children of Robert S. and Mary (Carver) Lewis were: (1), Corporal Levi, born March 16, 1842, Company K, 11th Pennsylvania Cavalry, in the Civil War, killed in the service May 12, 1863; (2), Anson C., born Oct. 17, 1852, died Sept. 5, 1884, (Newton Centre Cemetery); 5, Loretta B., born Jan. 25, 1818, died Feb. 4, 1897, married, Jan. 23, 1840, to David K. Brown; 6, Jabez, born 1822, died Aug. 10, 1886; 7, Benjamin P., born April 23, 1823, died Dec. 27 1880, (see later); 8, Fannie, born April 24, 1825, died Sept. 1, 1880, married to Lawrence Clouse.

*Levi Chapman Lewis and Isaac Stephens of Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 5, 1852, conveyed to Robert S. Lewis and John A. Lewis about 35 perches of land in Exeter, exclusively for burial purposes, now a part of Mount Zion Cemetery.

V. (7). Benjamin P., son of Isaac and Lydia (Brace) Carver, was born April 23, 1823, and died Dec. 27, 1880. He was married, Dec. 19, 1850, to Emilia, born Jan. 23, 1825, died May 7, 1900, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Harding) Mitchell. (Family No. 992—Mitchell.) The family burial plot is in Gravel Hill Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa. Their children were: 1, William M., born Aug. 25, 1851, died Oct. 2, 1858; 2, Helen A., born June 5, 1853, died June 5, 1871; 3, Jabez, born Feb. 2, 1856, died Oct. 3, 1858; 4, Jessye C., born Sept. 5, 1859, died Dec. 4, 1909, married, June 23, 1885, to Louis F. Camp; 5, Nellie, born July 23, 1862, married, Oct. 25, 1882, to Hon. John Montgomery Garman, born Thompsontown, Juniata Co., Pa., Sept. 1, 1851, son of John Levi and Margaret (Graham) Garman, Judge of the Luzerne Co., Pa., Court and long an eminent leader in the Democratic party, whose children are: (1), Jessie Carver, born Nov. 29, 1883, married, Jan. 22, 1913, to Dr. Charles Wilson Lamme; (2), John Montgomery, Jr., born Dec. 28, 1885, died July 8, 1886; (3), Emilia Carver, born Dec. 28, 1889, died Nov. 17, 1892; (4), John Theorus, born Sept. 1, 1892, died June 28, 1906.

III. (2). Eunice, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver, was born in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., Aug. 18, 1771, and was baptised in July, 1774, by the Rev. J. Bardwell, of the First Congregational Church of Kent. She removed, with her parents, to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1787-9, and was married to Elisha, born Feb. 28, 1765, died April 9, 1817, son of James and Elizabeth (probably Dormant) Atherton.* She died in Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 14, 1845, and, with her husband, is buried in the Atherton plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

*The Atherton family name appears in various records pertaining to the early history of the Wyoming Valley, Pa. Some of the members of that family whose names thus appear are: 1, James Atherton, Sr., and his sons, Asahel, James, Jr., and Elisha, (see later); 2, Caleb Atherton; 3, Jabez Atherton; 4, Joel Atherton; 5, Cornelius Atherton.

2. Caleb Atherton was a member of the company which assembled at Forty Fort, in Kingston District, in the town of Westmoreland, March 6, 1776, and signed an agreement to "Engage in the common cause as soldiers in the defense of liberty." (Bib.-1, p. 870.) He was also a member of Captain Samuel Ransom's Company, the Second Independent Company of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, which served in the Connecticut Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution, and was a resident of Plymouth District. It appears probable that he died before 1790, his name not appearing in the Federal Census of that year. He had a son, Moses Atherton, a blacksmith by trade, of whom a personal sketch may be found in Colonel Wright's Historical Sketches of Plymouth, Pa., p. 397. The property described by Colonel Wright as the home of Moses Atherton was doubtless a part of the estate of Samuel Roberts, Sr., which Benjamin Roberts, the oldest son of Samuel Roberts, Sr., sold to Moses Atherton, May 5, 1791, (Family No. 988—Roberts) and which Moses Atherton and his wife, Ruth, conveyed to his son, Caleb Atherton, Jan. 11, 1836. Describing 98 perches of this property as part of Lot 1 of the Lower Tier of House Lots in Plymouth and as adjoining lands of Chauncey A. Reynolds, Caleb Atherton and his wife, Ann, conveyed about 10 perches square of the lot to James C. Helme, (Family No. 1312) June 26, 1844, including the water privileges (Wadham's Creek—formerly Wittlesey) and the right to operate a tannery. The name of Moses Atherton appears on the tax list for Plymouth in 1792. One of the sons of Moses Atherton was: 1, Caleb, born Jan. 11, 1794, died Nov. 6, 1867, who was elected High Sheriff of Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1838. His first wife's name was Ann ———. His second wife, Elizabeth, born Oct. 23, 1820, died Oct. 1, 1901, is buried beside him in the Shickshinny, Pa., Cemetery. Another son of Moses Atherton was, 2, Truman Atherton, who was married to Clarrissa, daughter of Benajah and Catharine Fuller, of Plymouth Township, (Family No. 1010—Fuller). He had a son, Green Atherton. Truman Atherton was Postmaster, and merchant, miller and farmer at Huntsville, Pa., and served as a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives in 1852-3. May 1, 1856, with his wife, Clarissa, and Evert Bogardus and his wife, Louisa, he sold his Huntsville property to Anson Atherton, reserving the land occupied by the Christian Meeting House. He removed to Monroeville, Huron Co., Ohio, about 1856-7. Another son of Moses Atherton was, 3, Adnah, living in Wyoming Co., Pa., in 1871, and a fourth son was, 4, Stephen, living in Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1871. (Bib.-55.) Nov. 3, 1795, Moses Atherton sold to Joseph Reynolds (Family No. 1010—Reynolds) two and one half acres of Lot No. 1, Lower Tier of House Lots in Plymouth.

3. Jabez Atherton was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He is said to have been a son of Cornelius Atherton, (see later).

4. Joel Atherton, who may have been a son of Asahel Atherton (see later), was of Tunkhannock Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in March, 1789, when he was appointed Constable in place of Gideon Osterhout. (Bib.-320.) He was apparently of Kingston, April 4, 1788, when he signed, as a witness with William Wortman, a deed conveying lands from John Swift to John Pierce

II. (6). Addison, (2) son of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver, was baptised in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., by the Rev. J. Bardwell, in June, 1781, and while very young was brought by his parents to Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. It appears that, soon after he attained his majority, his father conveyed to him part of the Carver homestead farm in Kingston Township. This land he sold to Charles Stout who, before April 29, 1817, had sold to Walter Munson. Oct. 12, 1803, he was of Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., when he bought from Stephen Hollister, of Kingston, one-half of Lot 29, Fourth Division, of Kingston, 100 acres. Daniel

(or Peirce). April 8, 1793, he bought from Asahel Bush 50 acres of land in the Exeter-Lackawanna-Pittston Gore upon which he, Joel Atherton, then lived, and which he had sold to Asahel Bush. This farm extended from the "Exeter line to the farm Thomas Smith bought from Caleb Bates." The name of Joel Atherton appears as a witness on the will of James Atherton of Kingston, March 3, 1789, (see later). He probably removed from the Wyoming Valley to New York. He sold his farm in the "Gore" April 8, 1793, to John Halstead. A Joel Atherton and a John Atherton served as privates in Captain William Water's Company of the Third Regiment, Massachusetts Continental Line. (Collections New York Historical Society, 1914, p. 228.)

5. Cornelius Atherton, said to have been born in Massachusetts in 1736, died in South Bainbridge, now Afton, Chenango Co., N. Y., Dec. 4, 1809. In the unabridged edition of Smith's History of Dutchess Co., N. Y., he is said to have been a son of James Atherton, came to Amenia, N. Y., from Canterbury, Conn., was an iron manufacturer and had a contract with the government, during the Revolution, "to make firearms for the soldiers," and that "during the early part of the war he removed to Wyoming and with his family barely escaped death at the time of the massacre," (p. 339). In the abridged edition of the same history (p. 121) it is recorded that "Cornelius Atherton, engaged in the steel works in this town, in Sept., 1776, petitioned the New York Council for the exemption from military duty of his workmen engaged in the manufacture of firearms in his contract with Congress." On page 493 of the same history his name appears as one of the signers of the Associators pledge at Amenia in July, 1775, and on page 73 there is a reference to Cornelius Atherton, Dr. Chamberlain and C. Marsh, appraising guns delivered to Captain Childs.

The earliest reference to Cornelius Atherton discovered by the writer, in the Wyoming Valley Records, appears in the minutes of the Court of Quarter Sessions, at Wilkes-Barre, in the June term of 1788, when Samuel Allen, Rufus Lawrence, Hezekiah Roberts, William Reynolds, James Bidlack and Cornelius Atherton were named viewers, and Luke Swetland, as surveyor of roads in Plymouth Township. Sept. 16, 1788, he bought from Benjamin Bailey 800 acres of land in the "Gore," described as lying between Pittston and Providence, and as lands laid out to Colonel John Durkee, original proprietor, and sold to Benjamin Bailey by John Durkee. It appears that this same tract was sold, June 5, 1791, by Thomas Dyer, administrator of the estate of John Durkee, to Stephen Gardner and was deeded, the same day, by Stephen Gardner to Thomas Dyer. Feb. 23, 1789, Cornelius Atherton sold one-third of the tract to his son, John Atherton, stipulating that the division was to be made on the east side of said tract and so to be run as not to interfere with the mill-seat, whereon the said Cornelius now (1789) lives, nor to hinder the obstruction of the mill pond. Apparently he had also sold to his son, Eleazer Atherton, before April 20, 1793, one-third of the tract. On that date he sold to John Chamberlain, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., eighty-two and one-half acres of the Durkee-Bailey tract, beginning at the southeast corner of lands of Eleazer Atherton; thence up the river 40 rods; thence parallel with line of Eleazer Atherton, to make eighty-two and one-half acres. John Chamberlain, of Poughkeepsie, sold his land to Jacob Bedford. Mary Atherton and Jabez Chamberlain signed the deed from Cornelius Atherton to John Chamberlain, and Moses Atherton and Parthena Atherton signed that from Cornelius Atherton to his son, John, as witnesses. In 1792 the names of Cornelius, John, Eleazer and Joel Atherton appear on the tax list for Providence Township. In 1804 Cornelius Atherton, a blacksmith, owning 229 acres of land; John Atherton, a blacksmith, owning 233 acres of land, and Eleazer Atherton, a farmer, owning 233 acres of land, were assessed in Providence. In 1809 the assessment remained the same, but noted Cornelius Atherton as living in New York. In 1811-12 the heirs of Cornelius Atherton were assessed as owning lands in Providence.

Cornelius Atherton was married (1) to Mary Delano, who died in 1774. He was married (2) to Miss Johnson. They removed from Providence Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., to South Bainbridge, now Afton, Chenango Co., N. Y., where he died Dec. 4, 1809. Some of the children of Cornelius and Mary (Delano) Atherton were: 1, probably Jabez, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 2, John, born about 1760, died April 18, 1841, some of whose children were apparently: (1), Jabez, a single man, on the tax list in 1809, removed in 1812; (2), Jacob, on the tax list in 1809; (3), John, Jr., born Dec. 14, 1790, died Jan. 16, 1873, married to Catharine Ward, born April 7, 1797, died April 11, 1879, (Taylor, Pa., Cemetery); (4), Matthias, married, June 4, 1829, to Phebe Griffin; (5), Ann, married, in April, 1822, to Henry Taylor; (6), Parthena G., married, Sept. 6, 1829, to Samuel Drake of Palmyra, Pike Co., Pa.; (7), Elisha, born March 24, 1798, died Nov. 16, 1880, married, July 14, 1822, by Deodat Smith, Esq., to Catharine Dilts, born Aug. 9, 1804, died April 27, 1888, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery); (9), perhaps Cornelius, referred to in sketch of history of lands of Wyoming Methodist Episcopal Church in Family No. 987; 3, Eleazer A., born in Dec., 1764, died March 3, 1852, married to Martha Kanaan, born March 13, 1773, died May 31, 1859, (Taylor, Pa., Cemetery), some of whose children were: (1), Thomas Y., born Sept. 22, 1792, died May 15, 1868, (Taylor, Pa., Cemetery), not married; (2), Margaret, born Dec. 11, 1793, died March 23, 1863, (Taylor, Pa., Cemetery), not married; (3), Sarah, born April 27, 1795, died Jan. 12, 1858, married to Elisha Blackman, born Dec. 15, 1791, died Oct. 17, 1881, as his third wife, (see Family No. 993—Searl); (4), Mary; (5), Elisha, married to Sarah ———, whose son, Thomas, born April 24, 1838, died Dec. 1, 1849, (Taylor, Pa., Cemetery); (6), Joseph, born Feb. 17, 1800, died March 3, 1845, (Taylor, Pa., Cemetery), married (1) to Phebe Vosburgh, born 1809, died June 25, 1836, married (2) to Harriet Merchant; (7), John M., married to Rebecca Skinner; (8), Martha, born April 16, 1813, died Aug. 1, 1842, not married; (9), Eleazer H., born 1816, married, in 1845, to Phebe A. Lewis; 4, Jacob; 5, Margaret; 6, Parthena, born in 1771, died Sept. 24, 1845, Weeks at this time owned the half of 28 adjoining 29, having bought it Aug. 18, 1799, from William and Sarah (Sawyer) Slocum, and Charles Harris owned the other half of 29. May 2, 1804, he bought from Ebenezer Roberts, who was doubtless a son of Ebenezer Roberts, private in Captain Samuel Ransom's Company of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, in the War of the American Revolution, (Family No. 988—Roberts) 40 acres in Bedford described as lying between lands of Ephraim McCoy (Family No. 1041—Marvine-McCoy) and Ebenezer Roberts. Nov. 9, 1804, he sold to Eleam Spencer (Family No. 988—Jenkins-Spencer) part of Lot 4 in at Wilkes-Barre, married to James Augustus Gordon, who was deceased in July, 1797, when his widow was named to administrate his estate. Mrs. Parthena (Atherton) Gordon was an early school teacher in Providence Township and about 1802-4 is said to have taught in the school house that stood then where the Laycock Hotel, at Wyoming, Pa., now stands. Later she engaged in business in Wilkes-Barre. Nov. 22, 1813, she bought from Benjamin and Susannah Drake a part of a lot of land which Isaac Carpenter (Family No. 1311—Carpenter) sold to Daniel Collings, April 24, 1811, and was conveyed to Benjamin Drake by Daniel Collings, March 11, 1812. She sold, Jan. 24, 1811, to Jacob J. Dennis, a lot of land in Wilkes-Barre known as "Ardee" and described as part of Lot No. 7, Second Division. This lot was situated on what is now West Market street, Wilkes-Barre. Three of the children of James Augustus and Parthena (Atherton) Gordon were: (1), George Gordon; (2), J. Milton, and (3), James A. Gordon, Jr., Esq., who was married, Sept. 22, 1822, to Hannah Wall, who died in Feb., 1853, and some of whose children were: (i), Elizabeth, married to John Gendall; (ii), Captain Henry M., Company F, 143d Regiment, P. V. I., in the Civil War, died Nov. 8, 1909, married, July 23, 1865, to Henrietta, daughter of Captain Williams A. and Elizabeth (Henritzy) Tubbs, (Family No. 1041—Tubbs; (iii), William; (iv), Rosaline, married, May 14, 1845, to Lot Search, Jr.; (v), Emily, not married; (vi), Mary, died aged 3 years; (vii and viii), Alice and Josephine, twins, died in infancy, (order of birth not known to writer). Some of the children of Cornelius Atherton and his second wife, Miss Johnson, were: 7, Humphrey, born 1787, died Dec. 11, 1849, married to a Mrs. Wicks; 8, Charles, born 1793, died May 13, 1869, married to a Miss Bramhall; 9, Hiram, born 1797, died March 19, 1870, married to Lovina Sisson; 10, William, married to Jane E. Hamlin; 11, Cornelius, Jr., all of whom lived in Chenango Co., N. Y. (Bib.-167.)

Jonathan Atherton, Jr., born in Franklin Co., Mass., was married to Huldah Chamberlain and some of their children were: 1, Susan; 2, Martha; 3, Alva; 4, Almeda; 5, Ralph, married to Mary, who settled in what is now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., about 1829-30, was a shoemaker there for a number of years. He lived on a part of Lot No. 34, Third Division, in Kingston Township, situated on what is now Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., which he bought in 1832, from Henry Breese, and which was part of the Solomon Chapin estate. It was later owned by Henry Hice, (Family No. 1216—Chapin, No. 988—Hice). April 1, 1841, he bought from James Jenkins thirty-two acres of Lot No. 3, Exeter, which Sept. 4, 1843, he and his wife, Mary, sold to William Schooley. (Family No. 1314—Schooley.) Ralph and Mary Atherton removed to De Kalb Co., Ill. Their son, Philip, born in Aug., 1833, died Oct. 20, 1838, is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery; 6, Maria; 7, Permelia; 8, Jonathan A., born April 19, 1810, who came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1835-6 and, in 1837, bought from John J. Hyde, the lot on which the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Wyoming now stands. (1919.) Oct. 4, 1838, with his wife, Ellen Sophia, he sold this property to Dr. Alfred Brace of Wyoming, and removed to Providence, now Lackawanna Co., Pa., where a number of his descendants now reside; 9, Zora. (See Bib.-58, p. 339.)

I. James Atherton, born about 1715, died in Kingstown Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Oct. 28, 1798, evidently came to the Wyoming Valley from Amenia Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y. He was one of the original settlers who came under the auspices of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., in 1762, and his name appears on various lists of settlers and on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777, 1778 and 1780-1, as a resident of Kingston District. It appears that he was the original owner of the following lots in Kingston District: 1, House Lot No. 27, five acres, "That fell to me in the draught of said town of which I was one of the original proprietors," which he sold Aug. 11, 1786, to Elijah Harris; 2, Meadow Lot, Second Division, No. 40, adjoining the Plymouth line; 3, Back Lot No. 10, Third Division; 4, Fourth Division, No. 8, Back Lot No. 10, he sold to his son, Elisha Atherton, Oct. 13, 1798; of Fourth Division Lot No. 8 he sold one-half June 5, 1798, to Zachariah Hartsough, and the other half, Oct. 13, 1798, to his son, Elisha Atherton. It appears probable that he settled originally on Meadow Lot No. 40, adjoining the Plymouth line, and that his home was situated at or near the junction point of Road No. 1, Road No. 2, Main Road No. 4, and Road No. 5, as they were designated in 1788. Road No. 1, in Kingston Township, two rods wide, began at the Yarrington Ferry and extended to the corner of "Thomas Drake's (alias Belding's) lot," and was laid out "one rod on each side of the dividing line between the towns of Kingston and Plymouth." The house of Thomas Drake, who, with Asahel Drake, was assessed in Kingston in 1792, stood on this latter lot in 1788. The Drake or Belding lot was Lot No. 1 of the Third Division of Lots in Kingston and adjoined Lot No. 40, Second Division, on the south and the Plymouth line on the west. It was owned by Ezra Belding of Berlin, Hartford Co., Conn., who was deceased June 24, 1788, when Leonard and Jonathan Belding of Berlin sold it, together with Meadow Lot No. 11, Kingston, to Gideon Roberts of Bristol, Hartford Co., Conn. (Family No. 988—Roberts.) The lot was owned later by William Gallup. Road No. 5, in Kingston Township, was laid out to extend from Thomas Drake's lot and from near Thomas Drake's house, along the Kingston-Plymouth line, two rods wide, to the corner of the Township, virtually an extension of Road No. 1, but laid out at the same time as a separate road. Main Road No. 4, laid out six rods wide, began at the corner of Belding's lot, and at the Kingston-Plymouth line, and ran "Thence on the head of the Meadow (Lots) north 42° east one and one-half miles and 20 rods to the upper corner of Meadow Lot No. 17, owned by Mary, widow of Peter Harris, Sr., (Family No. 1021—Harris); thence north 36° east, three-quarters of a mile (through the Town Plot) to the lower corner of Peleg Comstock's Meadow Lot, No. 16; thence north 33½° east, 296 rods to the bridge on Abraham's Creek at Tuttle's Mill; thence north 70½° east, 112 rods to the lower corner of Benjamin that town. (Bib.-16.) The southwest corner of Lot 4 in Bedford Township is the junction-point of the present Kingston, Dallas and Jackson Township lines.

Addison Carver became one of the pioneer settlers of Delaware Co., Ohio, and was probably one of the considerable company of substantial citizens of Luzerne Co., Pa., who removed to that county in Ohio about 1807-10. In 1815 he was a Justice of the Peace in Delaware Co., Ohio, and on May 8, of that year, James Carpenter (Family No. 14—Carpenter) acknowledged a power of attorney before him, empowering David Perkins and Lazarus Dennison to sell certain lands in Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was initiated, Oct. 5, 1818, doubtless while upon a visit to the Smith's Meadow Lot No. 7; thence north $73\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ east to the upper corner of Richard Brockway's Meadow Lot No. 6; thence north 45 degrees east 51 rods to the lower corner of Ira Stevens' Meadow Lot No. 4; thence north 48 degrees east one mile and 34 rods to the Exeter line. This Main Road No. 4 now, and for many years, known as Wyoming avenue, has always from the time of the first survey, been the dividing line between 37 of the 40 Third Division Lots and the Second Division Lots of Kingston Township. Road No. 2 also began at the "corner of Mr. Thomas Drake's house on Belding's lot and apparently approximated the course of the branch of Toby's Creek that crossed Meadow Lots 38 to 19 inclusive, in a huge bow, and had its head in the heart of the Public Lands of the Third Division. The line ran from the corner of Mr. Thomas Drake's house on Belding's lot on the line between Kingston and Plymouth, S. 80° E. 99 perches and 22 links to the corner between the late Asa Gore (Meadow Lot No. 37) and Winchester Matthewson (Meadow Lot No. 36) (Family No. 1313—Matthewson), the road to be on the south side; thence S. $33\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E. 48 rods upon the line of division between said Gore and Matthewson to the bank of the creek, the road to lie on the land of the said Gore. Following several changes in its course the line came to a stake in the road on the northeast side of Widow Harris' lot and ran thence 28 rods to the Town Plot and thence one mile and five rods to the upper corner of the Town Plot. The last of these courses lay along the northern end of the lots in the Town Plot. Road No. 2 and Main Road No. 4 intersected at the head of House Lot No. 18, Main Road No. 4 passing through the Town Plot from that point. At the point of intersection a triangular plot was formed containing about eight and three-quarters acres of land. This triangular plot, including part of a two rod road, was sold by Charles and Maria (Scovel) Fuller to the Rev. Ebenezer H. Snowden, of Kingston, Pa., Oct. 3, 1839. Road No. 2 has been vacated for many years. Road No. 3, in Kingston, was laid out between Lots No. 14 and 15 in the Town Plot, and ran about 106 rods till it intersected Main Road No. 4. Benjamin Carpenter, Abel Peirce, James Sutton, Laurence Myers and John Dorrance were appointed viewers in 1788. Benjamin Smith was evidently added to the committee and served with the others named above. They presented their report Sept. 8, 1788. These were doubtless all old roads laid out originally by the first settlers. It appears that Road No. 5, laid out from near the house of Thomas Drake and extending along the Kingston-Plymouth line in 1788, was not opened and Jan. 18, 1792, Ebenezer Parrish and others of Plymouth petitioned the Court of Quarter Sessions for the appointment of viewers to lay out a road from where James Atherton lives and on the town line until it comes to the house of Josiah Ives, to begin at the corner of James Atherton's lot near the house which he lately occupied and running north $33\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ W. 71 rods, on the lines which will intersect the road running from Lawrence Myers, Esq., to Plymouth, near the house of Josiah Ives. Arnold Colt, Jabez Fish, Jehoida Pitt Johnson, Abel Yarrington, Nathan Cary and Jonathan Stevens were appointed viewers. The five first named viewers made their report April 6, 1792, locating the road as beginning at a stake at the corner of James Atherton's lot near the house which he lately occupied.....to intersect the road from L. Myers, Esq., to Plymouth, near the home of Josiah Ives.

James Atherton bought from Jacob or Joab Enos, Aug. 7, 1786, a five acre House Lot in Kingston which Enos had bought from Joseph Washburne and which Joseph Washburne had secured on an execution against Isburn Hatch (Family No. 992—Church). He also bought from Peleg and Margaret Comstock (Family No. 1021—Comstock) the upper half of Back Lot No. 9, Kingston, Jan. 9, 1789. Oct. 13, 1798, James Atherton sold to his son, Elisha Atherton, one-half of Lot No. 40, Second Division, and five acres of 40, bounded south on lands he had sold to Abel Yarrington, and north on the "Water course from the upper to the lower ponds," one-half of Lot 9, Third Division, and Lot 10, Third Division. Oct. 19, 1798, he sold to his son, James Atherton, Jr., part of Second Division Lot No. 40, beginning at a stake near the middle of the lot on the Kingston-Plymouth road, and running southwest about 100 rods to a stake at the bottom of the hill near the water course that runs from the upper pond to the lower one; thence easterly 20 rods to lands of William Gallup; thence northerly about 100 rods; thence across the lot to the beginning. Feb. 16, 1789, James Atherton sold to Abel Yarrington for £8, a strip of land eight rods deep, the full width of Lot 40, Second Division, and lying along the Susquehanna River. The deed stipulates that, "If the river shall by any means hereafter take away the said acre of land or any part thereof the said Abel Yarrington is to lose it, or if it adds to the said acre of land said Abel Yarrington is to have it."

Abel Yarrington, on the 18th day of Feb., 1789, bought from Nathaniel Landon (Family No. 1025—Landon) one acre of Meadow Lot No. 38 eight rods deep, the full width, 20 rods of the lot and lying along the Susquehanna River. Jan. 14, 1790, he bought from Hallet Gallup two acres of Lot No. 39, 16 perches deep and the full width of the lot, 20 perches, and lying along the Susquehanna River. Nov. 11, 1791, Abel Yarrington sold this property to William Todd, a student in physick, of New Britain, Bucks Co., Pa., for £50. Feb. 28, 1794, William Todd, a physician of Downing's Town, Chester Co., Pa., sold it, together with a Town Lot in Wilkes-Barre, adjoining Middle street and lands of Rev. Jacob Johnson and Ebenezer Slocum, which Jesse and Hannah Fell sold to William Todd, April 23, 1792, to Ebenezer Bowman and Jesse Fell of Wilkes-Barre. May 15, 1794, Ebenezer Bowman sold his interest in the Kingston property to Jesse Fell, and Oct. 8, 1795, Jesse and Hannah Fell sold the property to Ebenezer Bowman, Esq., of Philadelphia, who was assessed in Kingston in 1804, as a ferryman. Oliver Helm (Family No. 1312—Helm), who was assessed in Kingston in 1801 as a tavern keeper and ferryman, doubtless operated the Wilkes-Barre-Kingston Ferry at that time. Oct. 29, 1799, Ebenezer Bowman Wyoming Valley, a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (Bib.-3.) He was deceased before June, 1831, when his widow, Sally, and Samuel Leonard, administrators of his estate, presented a petition, pertaining to his real estate, to the Delaware Co., Ohio, Chancery Court. The children of Addison Carver named in this petition were: 1, Samuel; 2, Charles; 3, Mary, married to William Skinner; 4, Anor; 5, Elisha; 6, Anson; 7, Addison, Jr., of whom Anor, Elisha, Anson and Addison, Jr. were minors in June, 1831.

II. (8). Jabez, son of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver, was born Feb. 8, bought from William Gallup, Sr., and Hallet Gallup four and one-half acres of Lot No. 39, adjoining lands Hallet Gallup sold to Abel Yarrington.

Abel Yarrington, the heroic ferryman, who operated the Wilkes-Barre-Kingston Ferry at the time of the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, probably succeeded Parshall Terry, who, May 25, 1773, by a meeting of settlers held at Wilkes-Barre, was appointed to operate the ferry from the west (Kingston) side of the river and Thomas Robinson to operate it from the east side. Sept. 25, 1773, Parshall Terry kept the ferry on both sides of the river. The rates fixed in 1773 were: 3 pence for man and horse and 1½ pence for single man in summer, and 4 pence for man and horse in winter and 2 pence for single man in winter. Aug. 4, 1806, the Court of Quarter Sessions in Wilkes-Barre fixed the rates as follows: Single person across 3 cents, man and horse 6 cents, cart or wagon with two horses or oxen 25 cents, cart or wagon with four horses or oxen 37 cents, every chair (?) with one horse 20 cents. (Bib.-1 and Bib.-320.) Abel Yarrington came to the Wyoming Valley as early as 1772 from Norwich, Conn. In 1776 his name appears on the Westmoreland Tax List as a resident of Wilkes-Barre. In April, 1778, he bought from Joseph Crooker one-half of House Lot No. 31, in Wilkes-Barre. In Dec., 1788, he was recommended by the Luzerne Co. Court of Quarter Sessions to the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania as a fit person to keep a house of public entertainment in Wilkes-Barre. He was assessed in Kingston in 1796 and as tavern keeper and ferryman in Kingston in 1799. Deacon Abel Yarrington, as he was sometimes described, was born about 1739 and died June 30, 1824, aged 85 years. With his wife, Rebecca, born in Oct., 1751, died March 27, 1808, he is now buried in City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, having been removed from the Old Wilkes-Barre Cemetery. Some of the children of Abel and Rebecca Yarrington were: 1, Lucinda, born about 1765, died Dec. 28, 1830. (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), married to Arnold, born about 1759, died Sept. 30, 1832, son of Harris Colt of Lyme, Conn., who, Feb. 23, 1788, conveyed to his beloved son, Arnold Colt, a right of land in Wilkes-Barre; 2, Peter, born Jan. 13, 1770, died Nov. 26, 1826, a blacksmith, in Wilkes-Barre, married to Naomi Flint, in Sept., 1802. She was born April 29, 1778, and died Aug. 13, 1826, (City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre). Some of whose children were: (1), Dilton, born Oct. 8, 1803, died at Carbondale, Pa., Nov. 24, 1890, who wrote many interesting sketches of early Wilkes-Barre history, for the Wilkes-Barre newspapers, married, Dec. 23, 1827, to Rebecca Lambert, born June 20, 1808; (2), Alanson, born about 1804, died April 18, 1896, aged 92 years; (3), Sinton; (4), Lucinda; (5), Ann E.; (6), Martha H., married to John Geary; 3, Rebecca, born about 1775, died July 26, 1844, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married to Seth Wilson, born about 1785, died May 3, 1825, (Forty Fort), some of whose children were: (1), Frances H., married (1) to Frederick McAlpine, who died in 1854, and married (2), in 1856, to Wesley Johnson. (Family No. 1021—Johnson); (2), Andrew Beaumont; (3), Henry Colt, born Sept. 29, 1818, died Feb. 13, 1892, at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, (Forty Fort Cemetery), married (1), March 27, 1845, to Mary Anna Seeley, (Family No. 1025—Seeley) married (2) to Sarah Johnson, born March, 1824, died April 20, 1903, at Columbus, Ohio, (Forty Fort Cemetery). (See Family No. 1021—Johnson); 4, Luther, born about 1780, died Dec. 25, 1836, married, Sept. 9, 1807, to Hannah, born about 1788, died May 23, 1858, daughter of Philip and Ann (Hewitt) Abbott (Family No. 35—Abbott), some of whose children were: (1), Mary Ann, married, June 12, 1829, to Hugh S. Jackson; (2), Rebecca K., born 1815, died Nov. 5, 1850; (3), Belle, born 1829, died Nov. 2, 1846, (City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.). June 8, 1801, Abel Yarrington sold to John Yarrington, a blacksmith, of Union, Tioga Co., N. Y., Lot No. 28, 200 acres in Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

In the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, Vol. XXXIII, p. 46, in Amenia, N. Y., records, there appear the following marriage records: Mary Atherton and Ezekiel Sackett, Nov. 13, 1759; James Atherton and Elizabeth Dormant, July 26, 1764; Eunice Atherton and Samuel Waters, July 5, 1765; Prudence Atherton and John Sackett, Oct. 26, 1769. Mary Atherton and Prudence Atherton were undoubtedly daughters of James Atherton, Sr., and Elizabeth Dormant was without much doubt his second wife, and the mother of his son, Elisha Atherton. The will of James Atherton refers to Elizabeth Atherton, his widow, as the mother of Elisha Atherton. According to Dr. H. E. Heyden James Atherton was married (1) to Elizabeth Borden. The will of James Atherton, Sr., which was signed by Joel Atherton, John Knickerbocker and Luke Swetland, witnesses, was made in Kingston Township, March 3, 1789, and a codicil was added June 10, 1795. It was probated at Wilkes-Barre June 25, 1804. He died Oct. 28, 1798. His wife, Elizabeth, born in Aug., 1717, died March 25, 1802. They are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. The inscription on the James Atherton stone announces the date of his death as Oct. 28, 1798, and his age as 83 years. The inscription on the tombstone of his wife, the face of which flaked off in 1917, read: "In memory of Elizabeth Atherton, who departed this life March 25, 1802, aged 84 years, 7 months." The children of James A. Atherton, as named in his will, were (order of birth not known): 1, Asahel, (see later); 2, Mary, married Nov. 13, 1759, Amenia, N. Y., to Ezekiel Sackett, name appears as Mary Sackett in will; 3, a daughter, married to ——— Lacy, (Aaron Lacy died before June 10, 1795, and Joshua Lacy named as grandsons in will); 4, Chloe, married to ——— Webster, named as Chloe Webster in will; 5, Anna, married to ——— Trumbull, named as Anna Trumbull in will with reference to her children; 6, Prudence, married Oct. 26, 1769, to John Sackett, at Amenia, N. Y., name as Prudence Sackett in will; 7, James, Jr., born Sept. 19, 1751, died May 5, 1828, (see later); 8, Elisha, born Feb. 28, 1765, died April 9, 1817.

II. (1). Asahel, son of James and Elizabeth (Borden) Atherton, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., as early as 1769. His name appears in Mr. Harvey's list of the "First Forty" Settlers at Wyoming in 1769. It also appears in the Lists of Settlers July 15 to Aug. 19, 1771, Oct., 1771, and May, 1772, as well as in the List of the Proprietors of the Five Townships of Westmoreland, June 17, 1770. He owned a full right of land in Wilkes-Barre and, on or about Sept. 30, 1772, drew House Lot No. 40, Meadow Lot No. 39, and Fourth Division Lot No. 29. (Bib.-1.) He evidently disposed of these lots and in 1776 was a resident of Plymouth District, his name appearing on the Westmoreland Tax List for Plymouth in that year. In 1777 and 1778 he was a resident of Kingston District and his name appears on the Kingston Lists for those years. His name appears also in an affidavit, of June 3, 1777, made before Nathan Dennison, Justice of the Peace, by James Atherton and James Atherton, Jr., which may be found in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, page 922. Asahel Atherton, after 1778, became a Proprietor and one of the early settlers of Putnam Township. He owned Lot No. 44 in that township, which, in 1811, was owned by George Miller (Family No. 1017—Miller), who sold 170 acres of it, Nov. 30, 1811, to Jesse Lee (Family No. 994), which became the Jesse Lee homestead, described as situated on the banks of Bowman's Creek. He also owned a tract of land "which was appropriated to me as an addition to No. 44 in the division of said town," (Putnam), which he, with his wife, Amy, sold Dec. 3, 1793, to Thomas Smiley of Plymouth Township, James Roberts and Samuel Roberts signing the deed as witnesses. Thomas Smiley and his wife, Nancy, sold the property to Samuel Roberts, Jan. 17, 1794. This farm is described as situated in Putnam, bounded on the south by the North Branch of the Susquehanna River, on the east by lands of Solomon Avery and on the north by the town line. March 5, 1788, he was appointed Overseer of the Poor in the Fourth District of Luzerne Co., which extended from Buttermilk Falls Creek to Meshoppen Creek. In Sept., 1788, Zebulon Marcy, Gideon Osterhout, Benjamin Jones, Jr., Joseph Arthur, Isaac Adams and Asahel Atherton were appointed viewers to lay out a road from Pittston through Putnam, and, in Jan., 1792, Asahel Atherton, Elisha Harding, John Harding, Stephen Jenkins, Joseph Earl and John Jenkins were appointed viewers to lay out a road from about one-half mile above Justice Jones' Mill, on Buttermilk Falls Creek, to the line of Wyalusing Township. In 1790 Asahel Atherton had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16, and four females, probably including his wife, three sons and two daughters. Asahel Atherton appeared as a complainant in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne Co., Pa., March 12, 1791, charging that Zebulon Marcy had challenged him to fight a duel. (Bib.-320.) This was undoubtedly an action resulting from the Yankee-Pennamite war in the course of which, in 1788, the Mansion House of Zebulon Marcy was torn down by certain members of the Yankee party. (Bib.-320.) April 27, 1798, with his wife, Amy, and John and Martha Williams and Charles and Amy (Williams) Townsend he sold to Lawrence Myers, Meadow Lot 5, lying opposite Toby's Island in Plymouth. Nov. 9, 1797, with his wife, Amy, described as late widow of Rufus Williams, and John and Martha Williams and Charles and Amy (Williams) Townsend, he sold to Darius Williams and Simon Park, of Plymouth, Meadow Lot No. 3, Plymouth, 21 acres. April 7, 1798, the same parties sold to Darius Williams part of Meadow Lot 5, Plymouth, William Atherton and Jonathan Jenkins signing the latter deed as witnesses. The name of the first wife of Asahel Atherton is not known by the writer. Apparently three of their sons were: Joel Atherton, (see above); 2, William Atherton, whose name with that of Asahel Atherton, appears on the Tunkhannock Tax List in 1792, and who signed, as a witness, in the deed of Nov. 9, 1797, referred to above; 3, Asahel Atherton, Jr., (see later). The second wife of Asahel Atherton was Mrs. Amy (Jenkins) Williams, born Jan. 12, 1757, died March 24, 1834, widow of Rufus Williams, (Family No. 994—Williams) and daughter of Judge John and Lydia (Gardner) Jenkins. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.) Asahel Atherton, Sr., was living in 1812.

1787, and died July 26, 1846. He was of Tunkhannock Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 6, 1814, when he bought from Thomas Mitchell (Family No. 992—Mitchell), of the same township, 143 acres of land situated on the bank of Bowman's Creek, "beginning at the corner of lands formerly owned by Asahel Atherton." This farm was part of a tract called "Jesse's Dale," patented to Jesse Fell, July 17, 1806, and sold by him to Thomas Mitchell, Sept. 17, 1812. Jabez Carver sold it, Feb. 25, 1815, to Reuben Mullison (Family No. 992—Mullison), and later bought from Naphtali

Asahel, Jr., son of Asahel Atherton, died before April 8, 1817. He was married to Rebecca, born in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., Sept. 21, 1776, died in Eaton Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., Sept. 21, 1851, (Eatonville, Pa., Cemetery) daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver. (Family No. 992—Carver.) They had a son, Jonathan Atherton, who was married to Rebecca, daughter of Lewis and Nancy (Montanye) Mullison, (Family No. 992—Mullison, No. 1217—Montanye.) Jan. 14, 1812, Asahel Atherton, Jr., bought from Jesse and Hannah Fell of Wilkes-Barre, 214 acres of land on Bowman's Creek, which had been patented to Jesse Fell, July 17, 1806, and was known as "Jesse's Dale." He sold 120 acres of this tract, June 5, 1812, to Eli and Elijah Edwards of Tunkhannock, and 70 acres of it, Oct. 9, 1812, by his attorney, Peter Bapp, of Providence, Pa., to Philip Frantz of Providence. Eli Edwards and Hannah, his wife, and Elijah Edwards and Ruth, his wife, Aug. 11, 1813, sold to James Brown and Jesse Lee their 120 acres of the lot, and Aug. 9, 1814, James Brown sold his interest in the property to Jesse Lee. The "Jesse's Dale" tract of 214 acres was later sold by Naphtali Hurlburt, Sheriff, to Jabez Carver, upon suit of Jesse Fell versus Asahel Atherton, Jr. It appears that Elisha Atherton shared in this latter purchase. In his will he ordered that his share in the property be released to the widow, Rebecca Atherton, who, Jan. 1, 1841, sold to Jonathan Atherton for $5 one undivided part of a tract of land bequeathed to Rebecca Atherton in the last will of Elisha Atherton, describing the land as situated on Bowman's Creek, 80 acres. Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Harding) Mitchell (Family No. 992—Mitchell) was married to ——— Atherton, who was doubtless a descendant of Asahel Atherton, Sr. She is named Sarah Atherton in the will of her father.

II. (7). James, Jr., son of James and Elizabeth (Borden) Atherton, was born Sept. 19, 1751, and died May 5, 1828. He came to the Wyoming Valley as early as 1769, his name appearing on the List of Settlers "actually on the ground" June 2, 1769. It also appears on the List of Settlers Sept. 5, 1771, and on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778, as well as on the Westmoreland Tax List for 1780-1. He was a member of Captain John Franklin's Company in the service of the United States at the Post of Wyoming in April-

Hurlburt, Sheriff, 214 acres, also a part of "Jesse's Dale," sold to Asahel Atherton, Jr., by Jesse Fell, Jan. 14, 1812, and sold, at the suit of Jesse Fell versus Asahel Atherton, Jr. (Family No. 992—Atherton.) May 22, 1838, Jabez Carver bought from John Smith, executor of the will of Samuel Carver, his brother, the 193 acre homestead of the Rev. Samuel Carver, in Kingston Township, and removed from Tunkhannock to Carverton, Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Feb. 19, 1841, he bought from John Snyder 170 acres, part of Lots 7 and 8 in Dallas and Lehman Townships, and adjoining lands of Lewis I. Baldwin and Isaac Fuller.

May, 1780. (Bib.-1.) James Atherton, Jr., bought, June 29, 1795, from Luke and Joseph Swetland the lower half of Lot No. 9, Third Division of Kingston, owned originally by John Comstock, (Family No. 1021—Comstock) and sold by Peleg and Margaret Comstock to Luke Swetland, June 9, 1789. He also owned Lot No. 8, Third Division, Kingston, which was owned originally by Elias Roberts, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming. Elias Roberts, Jr., Peter Tift, Rosewell Wells and John Peirce were successive owners of the lot which was sold by John Peirce of Plainsfield, Windham Co., Conn., to Aaron, son of Samuel Roberts of Plymouth, (Family No. 988—Roberts). Aug. 13, 1790, Lot 8 and one-half of Lot 9 became the homestead of James Atherton, Jr. George Price (Family No. 36—Cooper) owned at least 45 acres of it Nov. 10, 1848, when he sold 25 acres of 8 and 9 to Dr. Reuben Nelson. The Dr. Reuben Nelson house, now owned by a son of Frank Helm, rebuilt by Dr. Nelson, and enlarged by Frank Helm, retains a part of the house James Atherton, Jr., lived in previous to 1801. April 24, 1801, James Atherton, Jr., sold one-half of Lot 9 and the whole of Lot 8 to his brother, Elisha Atherton, and it appears, at about that time, established his home above the "Stone Bridge" on what is now Wyoming avenue. April 24, 1801, he bought, from Elisha Atherton, Third Division Lot, Kingston, No. 26, 147 acres, and Second Division Lot, Kingston, No. 8, lying across the present Wyoming avenue from Lot 26. These two lots were part of the settling right of Curtis Spalding and were sold May 12, 1780, and July 28, 1781, respectively, by Dennison, son of Curtis Spalding, of Halifax, Cumberland Co., Vt., to Rufus Shepard of Halifax, Vt., who was of Pittstown, Albany Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1795, when he sold them to John Allyn of Watertown, Litchfield Co., Conn. The latter sold them Feb. 6, 1800, to Benjamin Allyn, of Watertown, who sold them April 14, 1801, to Elisha Atherton. April 27, 1801, James Atherton, Jr., bought from Aaron Roberts Lot No. 28, Third Division, Kingston, 169 acres, owned originally by Thomas Bennett and, in succession by Andrew Bennett, Philip Myers, March 26, 1790, and Aaron Roberts. Part of this lot was later the Rev. Thomas P. Hunt homestead. Dec. 29, 1801, James Atherton, Jr., bought from Samuel and Hannah (Pierson) Breese, Lot 27, Third Division, 162 acres, Kingston, and on the same day sold to Samuel Breese 20 acres of Lot 8 of the Second Division, running the full width of the lot, excepting one-half rod in width adjoining lands of Benjamin Smith, "the lower line of said piece being square across the lot." James Atherton, Jr., apparently sold one-half of 28 and the whole of 27 to his son, Elisha Atherton, 2d, who, Nov. 9, 1813, sold them to James Atherton, Jr. The latter sold Lot No. 27, Oct. 24, 1826, to his other son, Valentine Cook Atherton, who, with his wife, Sarah (Miller) Atherton, sold it to George Gore, March 12, 1835. Lot 27 was owned originally by John Perkins and was owned successively by David, son of John Perkins, Peter Shales, Peter Shales, Jr., Solomon Chapin and Samuel Breese.

James Atherton, Jr., was married, May 3, 1774, to Lydia Washburn, born May 16, 1757, died June 20, 1847. They, later in life, removed to Galena, Delaware Co., Ohio. Some of their children were: 1, Elisha, born May 7, 1786, (see later); 2, Ruth, married, Feb. 11, 1816, to William Dennis; 3, Esther, married, Jan. 20, 1817, to Daniel Roberts; 4, Valentine Cook, married to Sarah, daughter of Christian and Sarah Miller, (Family No. 988—Miller) of New Troy, now Wyoming, Pa., and living in Delaware Co., Ohio, Aug. 1, 1848. In 1790 the family of James Atherton, Jr., consisted of himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and six females. (Bib.-10.)

III. (1). Elisha, son of James and Lydia (Washburn) Atherton, known for many years as Elisha Atherton, 2d, was born May 7, 1786, and died April 2, 1853. He was married (1) to Zibia, born Aug. 21, 1790, died Aug. 3, 1825, daughter of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins, and was married (2), Feb. 3, 1828, to Mrs. Caroline Ann (Ross) Maffitt, daughter of General William and Elizabeth (Sterling) Ross. (Family No. 1010—Ross.) The children of Elisha and Zibia (Perkins) Atherton were: 1, Sally, born Oct. 21, 1814, died July 23, 1895, married to William Henry, born Aug. 15, 1794, died May 23, 1878; 2, Thomas Ferrier, born Dec. 8, 1816, died April 27, 1870, married to Sarah E., born 1824, died 1886, daughter of John and Eunice (Miller) Perkins, (Family No. 988—Miller, No. 1313—Perkins); 3, Lydia Washburn, born March 19, 1819, died Feb. 7, 1881, not married; 4, James Perkins, born Aug. 30, 1821, died Feb. 25, 1881, married, Feb. 19, 1845, to Martha, daughter of Jonathan Hancock. (Family No. 948—Hancock.) The only child of Elisha and Caroline Ann (Ross) Maffitt—Atherton was Eliza Ross, who was married, Jan. 23, 1853, to Charles Abbott Miner of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. The Elisha Atherton family burial plot is in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

II. (8). Elisha, son of James and Elizabeth (probably Dormant) Atherton, was born Feb. 28, 1765, and died April 9, 1817. He was married to Eunice, born Aug. 18, 1772, died May 14, 1845, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver. July 15, 1791, he bought from Arthur Eick, of Kingston, Lot No. 7, Third Division, Kingston, excepting four acres which Arthur Eick sold to John Kelly. This four acre piece of Lot 7 was described in 1791, "as four acres lying on the ridge," and in a deed of Feb. 17, 1789, the survey began on the partition line of 6 and 7 and ran northeast 24 perches. John Kelly, who probably kept a tavern on this piece of land for a few years, sold this four acres Feb. 17, 1789, to Malachi La Bar of Northampton Co., Pa., who, July 14, 1795, sold it to Aaron Roberts. It appears strongly probable to the writer that Elisha Atherton established his home, soon after his marriage, on Lot No. 7, and that he built the "Colonial House" for many years known as the Pringle house in Kingston. (See reference in sketch Peter Sharp. Family No. 988.) This house stood on the northeast side of Pringle street, and at the head of Chestnut street, in Kingston. It appears, from certain deeds, that the line between Lots Nos. 8 and 9 runs through the old Dr. Nelson homestead, now Helmes homestead, in Kingston, and that the Pringle house evidently stood on Lot No. 7. Thomas Pringle bought part of Lots 5, 6 and 7 from Jacob (2) and Mary Ann (Schooley) Sharps, March 31, 1840. This Jabez Carver was married, about 1809, to Polly Young, who was born Oct. 22, 1781, and died June 8, 1854. They were buried in the Carver Cemetery in Kingston Township. Their children were: 1, Ruth Ann, born Feb. 18, 1810, died April 29, 1843, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married, Aug. 13, 1834, as first wife, to Samuel, born March 30, 1805, died April 7, 1888, (Carver Cemetery, Kingston Township), son of William and Sophia (Squirrel) Jackson, whose children were: (1), Sarah Jennie, born Feb. 5, 1836, living in Kingston Township in 1919, married, Aug. 10, 1866, to Eli, son of William and Eleanore (Swetland) Parrish (Family No. 3—Swetland, No. 994—Parrish), of Kingston Township; (2), Earl B., born July 23, 1837, living in Detroit, Mich., 1919, married, Feb. 12, 1867, to Mary Ann Keller, born May 19, 1843, died Feb.

Jacob (2) Sharps' grandfather, Jacob Sharps, Sr., bought 311 acres of Lots 7, 8, 9 and 10, June 18, 1821, from Eunice Atherton and Samuel Carver, administrators of the estate of Elisha Atherton. Jacob Sharps, Sr., later sold to his son, Peter Sharps, 53 acres of Lots 7 and 8. "Beginning at a stake on the Main road, nine perches from the corner of Lot No. 6." This undoubtedly included the site of the Pringle house. It is probable that when Peter Sharps removed to Tunkhannock he sold his Kingston land to his brother, John Sharps. Dec. 3, 1838, John Sharps sold to his son, Jacob Sharps (2) part of Lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, and May 31, 1840, Jacob Sharps (2) and his wife, Mary Ann, sold the property to Thomas Pringle. (Family No. 988—Sharps.) Oct. 13, 1798, James Atherton, Sr., deeded to his son, Elisha, one-half of Lot 9 and the whole of Lot 10, both Third Division, one-half (18 acres), and four acres of Lot 40, Second Division, Kingston, and one-half of Lot 8, Fourth Division, Kingston. April 24, 1801, Elisha Atherton bought from James Atherton, Jr., Lot No. 8 and one-half of Lot No. 9, both Third Division, Kingston, and in exchange with his brother, James Atherton, Jr., sold to him on the same day Meadow Lot 8, Second Division, Kingston, and Back Lot 26, Third Division, which he bought April 10, 1801, from Benjamin Allyn of Watertown, Litchfield Co., Conn. April 27, 1800, he bought from Josiah Ives 20 acres of Meadow Lot 8, Plymouth, adjoining the Kingston Plymouth highway and lands of Asahel Drake, Jr., and Lawrence Myers. Lot No. 7, referred to above, was part of the estate of Peter Tift, of Foster, R. I., and Kingston, Pa., and was sold by John Peirce, administrator of the estate of Peter Tift, May '24, 1788, to Rosewell Wells, of Wilkes-Barre, by whom it was sold, May 28, 1788, to Arthur Eicke, of Morris Co., N. J. April 3, 1800, Elisha Atherton leased, for the term of 999 years, from Benjamin Carpenter and others, trustees for the Proprietors of Kingston Township, 91 acres of Public Lot 4, Kingston lands, and April 15, 1815, he bought from Philip and Margaret Jackson, parts of House Lots Nos. 21, 22 and 23 of the Forty Fort Town Lots, lying northwest of the Main road. House Lots Nos. 21 and 22 belonged to John Swift, April 4, 1788, when he sold the north end of them to John Peirce. Public Lot 4 was sold June 18, 1821, by Eunice Atherton and Samuel Carver, administrators of the estate of Elisha Atherton, to Elisha Atherton (2), son of James and Lydia (Washburn) Atherton, and he, with his wife, Caroline Ann, sold it Jan. 31, 1832, to David Corey, (see later). After the death of David Corey, in 1833, Elisha Atherton (2) and Nathan Patterson, administrators of his estate, sold Public Lot No. 4 to Abiel Abbott, by whose heirs, James W. and Olinda C. (Lattimer) Abbott, John J. and Celinda (Abbott) Smith, Edwin W. and Amelia L. Abbott and Louise N. Abbott, it was sold Oct. 17, 1859, to Isaac Tripp of Kingston. Under the terms of the will of his father, James Atherton, Elisha Atherton inherited about 250 acres of land in Northmoreland. In 1802-3-4-5-8-9-10 and 1811 Elisha Atherton was appointed Fence Viewer of Kingston Township, and in 1806, 1808 and 1810 served on the Committee of Freeholders. His will was made in Kingston, April 8, 1817, and was probated in Wilkes-Barre, April 16, 1817, and named his wife, Eunice, and his brother-in-law, Samuel Carver, executors. He died in his 53d year and, with his wife and a number of their descendants, is buried in the Atherton plot in Forty Fort Cemetery. The children of Elisha and Eunice (Carver) Atherton, all named in his will, were (order of birth not certain): 1, Elizabeth, born about 1792, not married, died Dec. 24, 1852; 2, Celinda, born about 1795, died July 2, 1817, married, Oct. 22, 1813, to Abiel, born Oct. 7, 1790, died Oct. 2, 1838, son of Philip and Anna (Hewitt) Abbott, (see Family No. 35—Abbott) whose children were: (1), Jacob Dormant, born Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 1815, died Feb. 5, 1833, at Bethlehem, Pa.; (2), Celinda, born 1817, and died with her mother; 3, Rebecca, born Feb. 29, 1796, died May 15, 1827, married to David, born Jan. 15, 1794, died April 24, 1833, son of John and Phebe (How) Coray, of Kingston, later of Providence, Pa., (see Family No. 946—Coray); 4, Anson A., born April 5, 1800, died April 27, 1864, owned 100 acres of the Elisha Atherton estate in Kingston, lying in the rear of the George Price and Dr. Nelson homestead, and other lands in Kingston. May 1, 1856, he bought the Huntsville, Pa., Mills from Truman Atherton and Evert Bogardus. June 28, 1852, Charles Hefft, of Kingston, sold to Anson Atherton, John Brees, James W. Abbott, Almon Church, Daniel Gore and John Bartholomew, School Directors of Kingston Township, 80 square perches of land for Maple Grove Sub-District No. 11. July 15, 1856, Anson Atherton sold to Isaac Tripp, William S. Shoemaker and David Morgan for $20,032, part of Lots 8, 9 and 10, Third Division, Kingston. The survey ran from the west corner of Isaac Tripp's land (Dr. Nelson homestead) on the line of lands of Thomas Pringle 304 perches along Pringle's land. Thence northeast on line Mountain Tier and lands of Thomas Davis 54 perches; thence south 34° E. along lands of Andrew Raub and Jacob Sharps, 304 perches; thence S. 41° W. by lands of George Price and Isaac Tripp to beginning. Anson Atherton was married to Sarah Mitchell, born July 2, 1806, died Jan. 2, 1831, and some of their children were (order of birth not certain): (1), Thomas M., born 1827, died Oct. 23, 1891, married to Elizabeth J. Gilmore, in 1850; (2), Mary, married, Nov. 22, 1855, to Captain Edwin R. Peckens; (3), David C., born March 5, 1834, died April 18, 1852; (4), daughter, married to B. F. Filmore; (5), daughter, married to M. E. Jackson; (6), Caroline, born Dec. 21, 1840, died Jan. 6, 1904, married to Peter V. Walmbold, born March 19, 1829, died April 23, 1879; (7), George C., Corporal Company H, 52d Pa. Vol. Inf., Civil War, born Sept., 1843, died in Washington, D. C., Dec. 14, 1861; (8), James N., born April, 1846, married, March 29, 1870, to Delia Morris; 5, James, married to Nancy, daughter of Andrew and Moriah (Metler) Raub, (Family No. 947—Raub); 6, Mehetable; 7, Thomas, born July 1809, died April 19, 1830; 8, Mary. Anson A. Atherton was for a number of years a Justice of the Peace in Kingston Township.

19, 1895, (Carver Cemetery) of Kingston Township; (3), Almira, born Dec. 10, 1842, died July 1, 1843; (4), Jabez Carver, born March 22, 1839, died Nov. 10, 1919, (Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War) living at Harvey's Lake, Pa., 1919, married, Dec. 7, 1870, to Samantha, daughter of John and Ann (Stroh) Mathers, (Family No. 947—Mathers) of Kingston Township; (5), William Henry Harrison, born March 13, 1841, veteran of Civil War, Pa. Vol. Inf., died in West Pittston, Pa., married, Sept. 26, 1865, to Emeline Frantz of Kingston Township. Samuel Jackson was married (2), Feb. 1, 1844, to Sarah, born July 8, 1805, died Nov. 7, 1895, (Carver Cemetery), daughter of Matthew and Mary (May) Phenix, (Family No. 1016—Phenix); 2, Mary, born Nov. 14, 1811, died Aug. 6, 1888, married to Charles M. Woolbert; 3, Eunice, born Feb. 3, 1814, died Nov. 15, 1888, married to Rev. John, born April 7, 1809, died May 26, 1873, (Union Hill Cemetery, Mehoopany, Pa.), son of William Jayne, of Eatonville, Pa., (Family No. 1021—Jayne); 4, Jane, born March 15, 1816, died Aug. 10, 1838; 5, Charles, born Jan. 29, 1818, died July 3, 1820; 6, Rufus, born June 20, 1820, died May 21, 1866, (see later); 7, Ann, born March 12, 1822, died May 17, 1900, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married to Richard May; 8, Marilla, born April 18, 1825, married to Thomas May, Company B, 12th Pa. Vol. Inf., Civil War, buried in Monroe Cemetery, Beaumont, Wyoming Co., Pa.

III. (6). Rufus, son of Jabez and Polly (Young) Carver, was born June 20, 1820, and died May 21, 1866, (Forty Fort Cemetery). He was married, Oct. 20, 1846, by Elder William Frear, to Nancy, born Dec. 24, 1824, died Feb. 16, 1887, daughter of Elisha, Jr., and Amy (Jenkins) Harding (Family No. 992—Harding), and their children were: 1, Amy Elizabeth, born July 16, 1847, died Feb. 9, 1861, and 2, Mary Jane, born March 7, 1850, married to Samuel R., son of Isaac Countryman and Catharine Ann (Shoemaker) Shoemaker. Aug. 24, 1846, Rufus Carver bought the interest of four of his sisters, Mary Woolbert, Eunice Jayne, Ann and Marilla Carver, in the estate of their father, and established his home on the Samuel Carver homestead. April 7, 1860, he bought from Thomas and Ann (Harris) Hutchins, one-half an acre of land, bounded on the southwest by lands of Samuel Bardoll. This land is situated on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, and was part of the five acre tract of Lot No. 37, Third Division, which Isaac and Betsey (Chapin) Shoemaker sold, April 29, 1830, to Archibald Knight, in trust for Elizabeth Landon, (Family No. 1025—Hutchins, No. 1025—Landon). Rufus Carver bought the Presbyterian Chapel, which stood, for a number of years, on the upper corner of lands now owned by the Shoemaker heirs in the Wyoming Cemetery, and remodelled it into the residence in which he lived the remainder of his life. In 1853, with his wife, Nancy, he executed a deed, which was acknowledged, Jan. 25, 1854, conveying title to Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of the forty perches of land on which the Carverton Methodist Episcopal Church was built. May 6, 1861, there was organized at Wyoming, Pa., a company of Volunteer Militia that was known by the name of the "Minute Men of Wyoming," and at the organization the following officers were elected: Captain, Rufus Carver; First Lieutenant, Milton G. Phillips; Second Lieutenant, Henry Chapin; Third Lieutenant, Robert K. Laycock; First Corporal, Hiram Bardoll; Second Corporal, C. B. Caswell; Third Corporal, J. T. La France; Fourth Corporal, Abel Marcy; First Sergeant, W. S. Hopkins; Second Sergeant, George S. Jenkins; Third Sergeant, Millary Williams; Fourth Sergeant, Jacob I. Shoemaker. Rufus Carver died at Wyoming, Pa., in his 46th year, May 21, 1866. His wife, Mrs. Nancy (Harding) Carver, was married (2) to Jameson Hunlock,* who died May 6, 1887. She died Feb. 16, 1887, (Forty Fort Cemetery).

*Jonathan Hunlock died about 1779. His widow, Margaret, was appointed administratrix of his estate. Their three children were: 1, Abigail, married to Daniel Wheeler, before Jan. 8, 1807; 2, Jonathan, born June 23, 1777, (see later); 3, Hannah, born July 11, 1779, died March 16, 1851, (Hanover Green Cemetery), married about 1800, to Dr. Samuel Jameson, born July 11, 1779, died March 6, 1851, (Hanover Green Cemetery, Pa.), son of Lieutenant John, born June 17, 1749, killed by Indians, July 8, 1782, and Abigail, born 1750, died 1795, daughter of Major Prince Alden. Mrs. Margaret Hunlock, widow of Jonathan Hunlock, was married (2), before Jan. 8, 1807, to Andrew Blanchard (Family No. 33—Blanchard), and she, as wife of Andrew Blanchard, and the three children named above, are all named in Orphans' Court proceedings at Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 9, 1807. II. (1). Jonathan, Jr., son of Jonathan and Margaret Hunlock, was born June 23, 1777, and died Oct. 29, 1860. April 30, 1800, he bought from David Rees of East Buffalo Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., "for a valuable consideration," a certain undivided half of 200 acres of land at the lower end of the Huntington Flats. July 12, 1810, he bought from Hannah Hunlock all "my estate real, lying and being in Huntington." He was married to Mary, born about 1782, died Sept. 13, 1818, sister of Dr. Samuel Jameson. (See above.) Jonathan, Jr., and Mary (Jameson) Hunlock are buried in the Hunlock's Creek Cemetery. Their children were: 1, John, Jr., born Sept. 12, 1801, died at Easton, Pa., Dec. 15, 1825; 2, Andrew, born July 13, 1803, married to Fanny Millard; 3, Samuel, born Feb. 6, 1805, died July 2, 1876, married to Nancy, daughter of

III. (9). Ann, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver, was born Jan. 14, 1790, and died Jan. 14, 1873. She was married to Reuben, Jr., born Feb. 29, 1792, died Aug. 1, 1857, son of Reuben and Asea Mullison. He bought a farm on Bowman's Creek, in 1815, from his brother-in-law, Jabez Carver, where they lived for a number of years. They subsequently removed to a farm in Lehman Township. Their burial plot is in Forty Fort Cemetery. Some of their children were (order of birth not known to writer): 1, William C., born April 9, 1817, died Dec. 31, 1885, married to Elizabeth, born July 24, 1817, died Sept. 23, 1888, daughter of Elihu and Elizabeth (Pierce) Parrish, (Family No. 994—Parrish); 2, Elisha A., married to Caroline Sands; 3, Samuel C., born 1821, died 1890, married to Lucinda, born 1824, died Jan. 14, 1899, daughter of Otis Allen, (Family No. 1010—Allen); 4, David, married to Sarah Allen; 5, Anor, married to Abraham Van Over; 6, Isaac R., born March, 1835, died Oct., 1842. March 4, 1850, Samuel C. Mullison bought from his father, Reuben Mullison,* Jr., part of Lot No. 8, in Lehman Township.

Henry H. and Lucy (Harding) Fuller, (Family No. 1010—Fuller); 4, Jameson, died May 6, 1887, married (1), Dec. 28, 1836, to Anna Maria, daughter of George Henry and Eleanor (Holgate) Royal, married (2) to Mrs. Nancy (Harding) Carver, widow of Rufus Carver.

*Reuben Mullison, or Mollison, and his second wife, Asea, or Axsas, are buried in the Dixon Cemetery in Wyoming Co., Pa. He was born about 1751 and died Sept. 9, 1813, aged 62 years. She was born about 1771 and died Sept. 10, 1828, aged 57 years. The name of Lewis Mullison, son of Reuben Mullison, appears on the Kingston Tax List in 1792. Dec. 25, 1792, Reuben Mullison bought from John Coray 70 acres of Lot No. 34, Third Division of Kingston. This tract of land included the whole width of Lot No. 34 from Abraham's Creek, near the present 1918 line of the Lackawanna Railroad at Wyoming, Pa., to the middle of Abraham's Creek, where it crosses Eighth street near the West Wyoming Town Hall, and a strip 13 rods wide, the eastern half of the western half of the north end of Lot 34, extending to the "Middle line of Kingston Township." On this lot and in a house later occupied by Comfort Shaw, Solomon Chapin, Henry Hice, Holden Tripp and others, and which is still in service as a tenement, on another lot, Reuben Mullison established his home. One of the Coreys, probably John Corey, (Family No. 946—Corey) occupied this old house. June 28, 1794, Reuben Mullison sold to his son, Lewis Mullison, "part of the lot I now live on." The land bought by Lewis Mullison included the site of the house on Shoemaker avenue, known for many years as the Samuel Raub house. This was the residence of Lewis Mullison for a number of years. Nov. 1, 1794, Reuben Mullison sold the remainder of his lands, 57 acres, on Lot 34, to Comfort Shaw of Putnam Township, and removed to Putnam and settled on Tunkhannock Creek. The name of the first wife of Reuben Mullison is not known by the writer. Some of their children were: 1, Lewis, born 1771, (see later); 2, Mary, born 1773, died July 21, 1853, married (1) to Jasper Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings), married (2) to Nathan Stark, (Family No. 1016—Stark); perhaps 3, Sophia, married to Roswell Capwell. Some of the children of Reuben and Asea or Axsas Mullison were: 4, Reuben, Jr., born Feb. 29, 1792, died Aug. 1, 1857, married to Ann, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver; 5, John, born March, 1795, died May 11, 1817, probably not married, will made April 28, 1817, was probated July 6, 1817, and names his mother, Axsas, brothers Reuben and George W., and his sisters Rhoda Mullison and Mary Billings; 6, Joseph, born 1793, died March 4, 1810; 7, Rhoda (Mullison) Phelps, born Nov. 10, 1801, died May 5, 1875, described on her tombstone in Dixon Cemetery, "Aunt Rhoda Phelps, sister of George Mullison;" 8, George W., born July 4, 1805, died Oct. 23, 1871, not married, probably. The will of Reuben Mullison, Sr., was made in Tunkhannock Township, May 12, 1813, and was probated Sept. 15, 1813. It names his wife, Asea, his daughter Rhoda, his son Reuben, Jr., his son George, his daughter Sophia, wife of Roswell Capwell, his son John.

Lewis, son of Reuben Mullison, was a resident of Kingston Township in 1792. In 1794 he bought from his father a part of Lot No. 34, Third Division of Kingston Township, and established his home on what is now Shoemaker avenue, West Wyoming, on what was later known as the Samuel Raub property. His homestead included a tract of land 32 rods long, on what is now Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., and extending the full width of Lot No. 34, 52 rods, and lying between Abraham's Creek, as it was in 1794, and a point 32 rods southeast from the creek, and also a tract 32 rods long and 13½ rods wide extending across what is now Shoemaker avenue from the bank of Abraham's Creek (as in 1794). The property consisted of 13 acres and was owned by Solomon Chapin Oct. 29, 1801, when he sold it to Jacob Bedford. May 20, 1797, he bought from Joseph Pearce a strip of Lot 34, 6½ rods wide extending from the southern corner of his own strip of land, 13½ rods wide to the middle line of the township, about 17 acres. May 16, 1798, he bought from Gilbert Carpenter 6 acres 21 rods wide and 40 rods long adjoining lands sold by Alexander Swartwood to Jacob Bedford and lands of Benjamin Carpenter 2d, part of Lot 33. He also bought on the same day from Gilbert Carpenter 5½ acres of Lot 35, 16 rods square, along the line of Benjamin Carpenter. This latter lot was later owned by Samuel Shoemaker (Family No. 947). Samuel Carver was appointed administrator of the estate of Lewis Mullison, who, it appears, died in Tunkhannock Township, and Jacob Bedford executed a deed confirming, to Samuel Carver, "executor" of the estate of Lewis Mullison, of Tunkhannock Township, title to 4¾ acres of Lot 34, bounded north by lands of Samuel Breese, east by Samuel Shoemaker, south by Christian Miller, west by Samuel Breese. Nov. 15, 1832, Samuel Breese sold to Samuel Carver in trust for the heirs of Lewis Mullison 20 acres of Lot 35, for many years known as the residence of Richard Newman, situated on what is now West Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., and owned by J. I. Shoemaker. Lewis Mullison was born in 1771 and died Sept. 2, 1804. He was apparently married twice and had at least one son by his first marriage. In June, 1807, his son, James Mullison, appeared in the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre and declared that his father and mother were both dead and chose Samuel Carver as his guardian. Lewis Mullison was married (2) to Nancy, daughter of John Montanye, of Kingston. (Family No. 1217—Montanye.) She was born Aug. 14, 1777, and died Aug. 26, 1857, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery). She was married (2) to Richard Newman. The children of Lewis Mullison

The children of William C. and Elizabeth (Parrish) Mullison are: 1, Jabez Carver, born Aug. 11, 1839, died early; 2, Ann Elizabeth, born Sept. 13, 1840, died March 19, 1870, married, Dec. 5, 1861, to William Anderson; 3, Mary J., born March 28, 1842, married, Aug. 16, 1874, to Harris Gay; 4, Lucinda Allen, born April 12, 1844, married, as second wife, Nov. 6, 1864, to James English, whose first wife was Ellen O'Neill; 5, Lucinda Carver, born April 12, 1844, married, Nov. 12, 1867, to George Dailey; 6, Elihu B., born June 27, 1844, married, Feb. 9, 1880, to Lizzie A. Parks; 7, Martha Armena, born Sept. 4, 1854, married (1), Feb. 9, 1880, to Andrew Morris Hunlock, born Jan. 23, 1842, died Oct. 9, 1880, married (2), Oct. 11, 1888, to William H. Woodruff, born 1848, died 1901; 8, Merritt W., born Nov. 16, 1859, married, Feb. 8, 1887, to Kate, daughter of Isaac Kirkendall, born May, 1820, died Jan. 18, 1881, and his wife, Catharine (Hawk) Kirkendall, born 1822, died 1910. (Carver-ton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery.)

III. (10). Lucinda, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 8, 1793, and died June 20, 1848. She was married, about 1810, to William, born Aug. 20, 1791, died March 29, 1864, son of Gideon and Abigail (Harris) Church* of Kingston Township. They are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

were, by his first marriage: 1, James, born Dec. 9, 1793, died Dec. 30, 1837, married to Elizabeth Van Fleet, born Sept. 7, 1798, died Oct. 27, 1874, buried in the private plot on the Benjamin Jenkins farm toward Vosburgh from Tunkhannock. The other children of Lewis Mullison were: 2, John, married to Luna or Juna, daughter of Charles and granddaughter of Captain Caleb Bates, (Family No. 1328—Bates). He was probably married (2), before April 15, 1833, to Margaret —; 3, Sally, married to — Rosencrans; 4, Reuben, whose will, probated in Lancaster Co., Pa., Nov. 5, 1853, named James Mullison as executor; 5, Rebecca, married to Jonathan, son of Asahel, Jr., and Rebecca (Carver) Atherton; 6, Betsey. Lewis Mullison is buried beside his father, Reuben Mullison, Sr., in Dixon Cemetery, Wyoming Co., Pa., where his brothers, Joseph, John and George and his sister Rhoda (Mullison) Phelps, are also buried. In the same cemetery may be found the grave of Mary (Mullison) Billings-Stark.

*I. Samuel Church was married at Stonington, Conn., Nov. 27, 1700, to Mary Edwards, and three of their children, born there, were: 1, Samuel, Jr., born Jan. 3, 1703-4; 2, Daniel, born April 18, 1707; 3, Mary, born Oct. 23, 1708.

II. (2). Daniel, son of Samuel and Mary (Edwards) Church, born at Stonington, Conn., April 18, 1707, was married, in 1731, to Eunice Winter of Killingsworth, born 1711, died 1750. He was married (2), in Sept., 1751, to Elizabeth, widow of Joseph Mygatt of Danbury, and after her death, Oct. 4, 1771, he was married (3) to Abigail —, died at Danbury, March 1, 1793. His name appears in the list of taxables of Danbury in 1794, where he was made a Freeman, April 13, 1778. Of the following named children of Daniel and Eunice (Winter) Church the first three were baptised at Killingly and the others were born at Coventry: 1, Rachel, baptised May 30, 1731; 2, Elias, baptised July 9, 1732, (see later); 3, Caleb, baptised Sept. 16, 1733; 4, Gideon, born at Coventry, Nov. 23, 1734; 5, Asa, born Feb. 29, 1735-6; 6, Eunice, born Jan. 29, 1737-8; 7, Samuel, born May 21, 1739; 8, Daniel, born Feb. 21, 1740-1; 9, Thomas, born July 15, 1742; 10, Rachel, born July 3, 1744; 11 and 12, Triphena and Christiana, born Sept. 17, 1745; 13, Deliverance, born June 4, 1747; 14, Rebekah, born May 2, 1749.

III. (2). Elias, son of Daniel and Eunice (Winter) Church, baptised at Killingly, Conn., July 9, 1732, was of Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., Dec. 16, 1754, when his father, Daniel Church, "for and in consideration of the parental love and affection which I have and do bare to my well-beloved son, Elias," gave him land "vallewed five hundred pounds, which is the full of his portion oute of my estate." Jan. 13, 1773, Elias Church deeded lands in Kent to Timothy St. John. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., previous to 1774 and his name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777 and 1778 as a resident of Kingston District. March 2, 1774, he was chosen to serve as a Grand Juror in Westmoreland. (Bib.-1, p. 795.) About 1776 he was one of the settlers who contributed toward the establishment of a Post to Hartford, Conn., of which Prince Bryant was the post-rider for nine months. In 1778, previous to Oct. 1, of that year, he had served one month and fifteen days in the detachment of the 24th Regiment of Connecticut Militia commanded by Colonel Zebulon Butler. (Bib.-1, p. 910, p. 1096—and Bib.-4.) Elias Church was married, about 1752, to Elizabeth, born at Tolland, Dec. 10, 1731, daughter of Captain Nathaniel and Rebecca (Hatch) Berry of Tolland, and later of Kent, Conn., and their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born about 1753, baptised at Kent, Conn., in June, 1761, married to Ezburn (or Isburn) Hatch, whose name appears in the text of a deed, Aug. 7, 1786, conveying to James Atherton of Wyoming, from Joab Enes, title, for a certain House Lot in Kingston, which had been owned by Isburn Hatch, from whom title had passed to Joseph Washburn on an execution, and which Joseph Washburn sold to Joab Enos. The name of Eglon Hatch, perhaps meant for Ezburn Hatch, appears on the Westmoreland Tax List for Kingston District in 1776; 2, Gideon, born about 1755, baptised at Kent, Conn., in June, 1761, (see later); 3, Nathaniel, born about 1757, a private in Captain Samuel Ransom's Company, the Second Independent Company of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, served in the Connecticut Continental Line, in the war of the American Revolution, and later in the command of Captain Simon Spalding in the same service. He died before April 10, 1781; 4, Jonathan, born in Kent, Conn., June 4, 1759, died at Wethersfield, Conn., in 1801; 5, Joel, born in Kent, June 24, 1761, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 6, Joshua, born in 1763; 7, Josiah, born in Danbury, Conn., April 26, 1768; 9, Elman, born in Kent, Conn., June 3, 1771, (see later); 10, Rebecca; 11, John, perhaps member of Captain Simon Spalding's Company of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, in the War of the American Revolution, named by Dr. Miner (Bib.-4, p. 57) as a member of Captain Samuel Ransom's Company. John Church is said to have gone to Ohio.

IV. (2). Gideon, son of Elias and Elizabeth (Berry) Church, was born about 1755 and was baptised at Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., in June, 1761. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa.,

THE HARDING FAMILY (HARDEN-HARDIN)

I. Stephen Harding, who was probably a brother of Abraham Harding, of Massachusetts, (sketch in Family No. 459), owned land and lived in the Town of Providence in the Colony of Rhode Island, before Feb. 27, 1663, when, at a Town Meeting, he presented a petition praying that he be granted a small piece of land situated between where he lived and the Meadows of Roger Williams and Henry Right. This land was granted to him at a Town Meeting held March 28, 1664, and before 1776 and in that year was a resident of Kingston District and a taxpayer there, his name appearing on the Westmoreland Tax List for 1776. He was a private in Captain Samuel Ransom's Second Independent Company of the 24th Connecticut Militia, Connecticut Continental Line, in the War of the American Revolution, and later also served in the company of Captain Simon Spalding in the same service. His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax List for 1780-1. He was an active member of the Yankee party in the fierce Yankee-Pennamite struggle following the War of the Revolution, was captured at Laurel Hill in 1784 and was sent with other prominent Yankees to the Easton jail. He is said also to have been involved in the kidnapping of Timothy Pickering. He served on the Grand Jury for Luzerne Co., Pa., in June, 1788. In 1790 he was one of the Proprietors of Kingston Township and in 1792 his name appeared on the Kingston Tax List. March 3, 1791, he bought from Benjamin Dorrance, then of Newtown Point, Montgomery Co., N. Y., all of his interest in the real estate of Colonel George Dorrance. It appears that he sold this interest to Elisha Drake of Kingston, before Sept. 1, 1792. In 1790 he was returned in the Federal Census as the head of a family consisting of himself, one male over 16 and three females, which perhaps included some members of his father's family. He was married, about 1786, to Abigail, born in November, 1759, died June 9, 1839, aged 79 years and 7 months, (Forty Fort Cemetery) daughter of Peter and Mary Harris of Kingston Township, and, doubtless, formerly of Plainfield, Conn. (Family No. 1021-Harris.) Their son, William, was born Aug. 20, 1791, and died March 29, 1864. Almon Church, brother of Gideon Church, was appointed administrator of his estate Jan. 3, 1793, with John Hageman and Wilmot Munson on his bond in $200. He is said to have owned lands in Bradford Co., Pa., and Mr. Heverly claims that he resided in that county (then Luzerne Co., Pa.) (See Bib.-31.) He died in the latter part of the year 1792. For some reason, to the writer unknown, his widow, Mrs. Abigail (Harris) Church, who inherited Meadow Lots No. 17 and 18, near the Town Plot in Kingston, had these lots patented to her in her maiden name, Abigail Harris. They were surveyed to her April 6, 1802, and the Commissioner's Certificate was issued March 16, 1811. These lands are referred to in various road surveys as the lands of Mary Harris (widow of Peter, and mother of Abigail).

V. (1). William, son of Gideon and Abigail (Harris) Church, was born Aug. 20, 1791, and died in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 29, 1864. He was married, about 1810, to Lucinda, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver, of Kingston Township. He acquired title to part of Lot No. 27, Fourth Division, Kingston, the Jonathan Carver homestead and, Dec. 21, 1815, a Commissioner's Certificate for one-half of Lot 27 was issued to him (see reference to Lot 27 above). He inherited Meadow Lots No. 17 and 18, Second Division, Kingston, from his mother, Mrs. Abigail (Harris) Church. Aug. 23, 1839, with Anson Atherton he bought the interest of Isaac Carver in the estate of his father, the Rev. Samuel Carver. He owned 50 acres of land described as situated on the road from Falls to Dallas, which his administrator sold to John, Philip B. and Nathaniel Honeywell. This was probably the property sold Oct. 9, 1837, by Joseph, Jr., and Marilla Montanye to Jane (Montanye) Carver, widow of Samuel Carver, for the term of her natural life. Nov. 27, 1855, he bought from Elijah and Marian (Harris) Harris (Family No. 1021-Harris) 116 acres, of Lots 12 and 13, Fourth Division, Kingston, a part of the original Elijah Harris homestead. On this farm he lived the remainder of his life. It contained 161 acres, including part of Lot 11. May 12, 1865, his heirs sold it to Amos Barnum (Family No. 1001-Barnum), describing the farm as consisting of "Four contiguous tracts, and the farm on which William Church lived at the time of his decease." He bought the "Hatter Shop Corner" at what is now the junction of Shoemaker avenue and Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., from D. R. and Helen W. (Shoemaker) Prendergast, June 30, 1863. His administrator, Almon Church, sold it, Feb. 3, 1865, to David Maginnis. He also owned lands in the Borough of Kingston, Pa., which he sold to Helen M. Prendergast, July 1, 1863. (Family No. 1050.) The children of William and Lucinda (Carver) Church were: 1, Almon, born Aug. 10, 1812, died Nov. 1, 1877; 2, Addison Carver, born July 24, 1814, died Jan. 30, 1860; 3, Abigail Atherton, born July 7, 1816, died July 21, 1875, married, Oct. 30, 1833, to Thomas Campbell Reese, born about 1807, died Nov. 15, 1867 (Forty Fort Cemetery), two of whose children, (1), Samuel, died Feb. 23, 1838, aged 6 months, and (2), Mary, died Sept. 25, 1839, aged 4 months, 27 days, are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery; 4, Anson Atherton, born May 15, 1818, died Sept. 6, 1897; 5, Eunice Atherton, born May 12, 1820, died, not married, Feb. 3, 1858; 6, Jabez Carver, born April 7, 1822, died May 30, 1899; 7, Austin H., died Oct. 18, 1888, married to Mary M., daughter of Isaac Monroe of Catawissa, Pa., was a noted railway contractor. Three of their children were: (1), Elizabeth, married to Hendrick W. Search; (2), I. Monroe, born April 29, 1869; (3), Ellen M.; 8, and 9, two infant daughters, died in 1830 and 1833.

VI. (1). Almon, son of William and Lucinda (Carver) Church, born Aug. 10, 1812, died Nov. 1, 1887, served as administrator of his father's estate. He was married (1) to Ruth Ann, born March 10, 1816, died Oct. 24, 1856, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Breese) Jenkins, (Family No. 989-Breese, No. 988-Jenkins), whose children were: 1, James William, born Feb. 3, 1837, died Nov. 23, 1851; 2, Mary Elizabeth, born July 17, 1842, died Feb. 22, 1895, married, Dec. 19, 1867, to Robert K. Laycock, of Wyoming, Pa., (Family No. 1025-Laycock); 3, Steuben Jenkins, Superintendent, Spring Brook Water Company, born Oct. 14, 1847, married, Sept. 1, 1873, to Jennie A., daughter of Charles and Sarah (Barnes) Scovel, (Family No. 1021-Scovel); 4, George Almon, born Aug. 19, 1856. Almon Church was married (2), Feb. 23, 1859, to Permellia Detrick, born July 7, 1820, died Oct. 16, 1880, and their children were: 5, Nellie Detrick, born Aug. 12, 1860, married, Aug. 10, 1880, to W. F. Pier, M. D.; 6, Ruth Ann, born July 21, 1862, died Oct. 27, 1907, (Forest Hill Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.), married to Walter L. Schlager of Scranton, Pa.

at Town Meetings held April 27, 1664; Oct. 27, 1665; Nov. 6, 1667, and April 27, 1674, additional lands were also granted to him. Aug. 7, 1669, he bought from John Joanes and Mary, his wife, one-half a right of "Commoning, on ye east side of ye division called Wayunkeake Division," and Nov. 16, 1674, he bought from Enstance Thomas and Thomas Enstance one-half of a right of Common land, which they had bought from John Rice. In this deed he is described as Stephen Harding, Senior. April 10, 1693, Stephen Harding and Bridget, his wife, of Providence, R. I., executed a deed of gift, "For the natural affection we bare unto our son, Abraham Harding.....All the remaining part of our homestead lot or house lott....."

VI. (2). Addison Carver, son of William and Lucinda (Carver) Church, was born July 24, 1814, and died Jan. 30, 1860. He was married, April 7, 1836, to Mary Johnsten, of Knowlton, Sussex Co., N. J., lived in Forty Fort, Luzerne Co., Pa., and their children were: 1, Lucinda Carver, born May 3, 1837, died Dec., 1876, (Forty Fort Cemetery), married, March 30, 1874, to Dr. George Marsland of New York, N. Y.; 2, William F., now, and for many years, a druggist at Kingston, Pa.; born June 28, 1845, married, Sept. 7, 1876, to Ann Hoyt, born July 4, 1851, daughter of Rev. Charles Chapin Corss, of East Smithfield, Pa. Their children are: (1), Herbert Kenneth, born Sept. 27, 1877; (2), Mary Lucinda, born Feb. 17, 1879; (3), Elizabeth Hoyt, born May 26, 1881, married, Oct. 22, 1915, to Oswald Drew Ingall, of East Norton, Mass.; (4), Charles Corss, born April 10, 1883; (5), Frederick Corss, born Oct. 3, 1885, now (1917) of the Department of History, Political Science and Economics of Pennsylvania State College at State College. Mr. Frederick Corss Church has in course of preparation, a genealogy of the Church family, and his notes have supplied the greater portion of the material in this sketch of the Church family.

VI. (4). Anson Atherton, son of William and Lucinda (Carver) Church, was born May 15, 1818, and died Sept. 6, 1897. He was married, Nov. 10, 1840, to Fanny, daughter of Peirce and Adah (Jenkins) Smith. She was born July 3, 1822, and died in 1906. Their children were: 1, Addison Carver, born Sept. 25, 1841, died April 3-4, 1913, married, Dec. 15, 1868, to Deborah, born June 25, 1835, died May 1-2, 1914, daughter of Andrew and Moriah (Metler) Raub, (Family No. 947—Raub), whose children were: (1), Harry Raub, born June 29, 1871, and (2), Laura, born May 29, 1874, married to F. M. Davenport, M. D., of Scranton, Pa.; 2, Wealthy Ann, born Oct. 31, 1842, married, Jan. 30, 1867, to Marion F. (Frances Marion), son of Charles and Surrenda (Raub) Mathers, (Family No. 947—Mathers); 3, Ada Minerva, born Nov. 23, 1846, married, Nov. 21, 1866, to Leander Smith; 4, Eunice Celinda, born May 26, 1853, married, Dec. 10, 1873, to Payne Pettebone.

VI. (6). Jabez Carver, son of William and Lucinda (Carver) Church, was born April 7, 1822, and died May 30, 1899. He was married, Dec. 21, 1843, to Mary Ann Turn, born Feb. 4, 1825, died Feb. 6, 1890. They lived near Lehman Centre, Luzerne Co., Pa., and their children were: 1, Lucinda M., born Sept. 14, 1845, married, Jan. 3, 1867, to Theodore D., son of Clark and Althea (Goss) Wolfe, who live (1918) in Wyoming, Pa.; 2, Phileana B., born Nov. 3, 1851, died March 17, 1917, married, Aug. 4, 1872, to Lafayette F. Hann; 3, Elizabeth H., born Dec. 2, 1853, married to Miles Wesley; 4, Rufus J. C., born July 13, 1857, married to Addie Kittle; 5, Almon, born Aug. 2, 1859, married to Martha, daughter of Josiah Ruggles; 6, Mary Harriet, born May 19, 1862, married to John Barnes.

IV. Elmon or Almon, son of Elias and Elizabeth (Berry) Church, was born in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., June 3, 1771. He probably came to the Wyoming Valley with his parents about 1772-3, and was apparently a member of the household of his brother, Gideon, in 1790. May 30, 1793, he sold to Ebenezer Farnham of Luzerne Co., Pa., 200 acres of land in the "Township of Allensburgh, so-called: Lot No. 10, in Allensburgh, together with the undivided lands belonging." May 12, 1798, with Richard Loomis, he bought from Samuel Allen, two-thirds of Lot No. 6 in Bedford Township. April 9, 1812, he sold, to Philip Shupp, 112 acres of Lots 45 and 46, Third Division of Lots in Plymouth, called Mayfield, which John and Elizabeth Anderson had sold to Josiah Ives, Dec. 13, 1808. April 4, 1828, with his wife, Elizabeth, he sold to Fayette Allen, 33 acres of Lot 6, Dallas, (formerly Bedford) and May 5, 1830, he sold to Ziba Davenport, of Exeter, Lot No. 38, Fourth Tier, Plymouth, which he held by deed from the heirs of Ebenezer Gaylord. April 10, 1813, Almon Church and Nehemiah Ide leased to Michael Rafferty, of Wilkes-Barre, for a term of 999 years and for a rental of one cent per acre per year together with the taxes, two School Lots No. 27, 400 acres each, in the town of Bedford. Michael Rafferty is described as a bricklayer. Dec. 23, 1818, Nehemiah Ide, Almon Church and Rosewell Wells, trustees for the Proprietors of Bedford, sold to Michael Rafferty, described as of Danville, Columbia Co., Pa., for $700, 400 acres of Lot 27. June 24, 1824, Almon and Betsey Church sold to Benjamin Reynolds and Henderson Gaylord, "Part of School Lot No. 27 called a School Lot," 800 acres, which had been sold to Almon Church by Jonathan Buckley, Sheriff.

In Jan., 1814, Almon Church, Major Church and Rebecca Church were witnesses present when Jared Baldwin made his will, and Almon Church, Griffin Lewis and Eden Ruggles were arbitrators who reported, July 14, 1819, on matters pertaining to the estate of Jared Baldwin. Edwin Church and Thomas Irwin signed the deed of April 4, 1828, (see above) as witnesses. It appears probable that the first wife of Almon Church was a daughter of Amariah Watson and a sister of Eleanor, wife of Jude, son of Jared Baldwin. The only recorded deeds executed by Almon Church in which the name of his wife appears are those of June 24, 1824, where the name of Betsey, his wife, appears, and April 4, 1828, where the name of Elizabeth appears. Elizabeth probably died before 1830. The name of Almon Church appears on the Kingston Tax Lists for 1792 and 1796, and on the Plymouth Tax Lists for 1799. His home, after May 12, 1798, was on Lot No. 6, now Dallas Township, formerly Bedford Township, and near the present (1919) junction-point of the Dallas, Jackson and Lehman Township lines. Lot No. 7, Dallas, lies in the southwestern corner of that township and Lot No. 6 adjoins it on the east. He was an Ensign in Captain Benjamin Smith's Company, First Battalion, Second Regiment, Luzerne Co., Pa., Militia in 1794. (Bib.-20.)

which is not already in possession of our son, Abraham, before." This deed is signed by Stephen Harding and Bridget Harding and by Abraham Harding and Deborah Harding, and was recorded Dec. 11, 1703. Jan. 15, 1694-5, Stephen Harding conveyed eight and one-quarter acres of land "To my son, Abraham." Stephen Harding, of Providence, was deceased April 12, 1698, when John Harden of Newport, R. I., exhibited an "Inventory of the estate of his deceased father," Stephen Harding, of Providence, and was appointed administrator of his father's estate.

Stephen Harding, of Providence, whose wife, Bridget, was living April 10, 1693, had, at least, the following children:

1. Stephen Harding, Jr., who apparently was born before 1652 (reference to Stephen, Senior, 1674, above), and who was married, in Providence, Jan. 28, 1678-9, by John Whipple, Assistant, to Mercy, died 1680, daughter of Samuel Winsor, Sr.* Stephen Harding, Jr., and his wife, Mercy (Winsor) Harding, "both departed this life in the year 1680," (Bib.-253) and their "burials are enrolled in ye Old Book of Ye Brass Clasps of Ye Town of Providence." The will of Stephen Harding, Jr., of Providence, was made April 19, 1680, and was probated May 31, 1680. It names neither wife nor child. He bequeathed all his household goods to his father, his house and orchard to his brother, Abraham. Reference is made to his sisters and to his brother-in-law, Samuel Winsor. His brother, Abraham Harding, was named executor. It is apparent that his wife preceded him in death and that they had no children.

2. Abraham Harding, blacksmith, of Providence, was a taxpayer in 1680. He was married to Deborah ———. Feb. 18, 1700, William Hawkins, Jr., of the Town of Providence, executed a deed confirming title to the heirs of Abraham Hardin, blacksmith, of certain lands which he had sold to Abraham Harding in his lifetime. Abraham Harding died Nov. 23, 1694. His widow, Mrs. Deborah Harding, was married (2), before March 3, 1695, to Moises Bartlett. She and her second husband were appointed administrators of his estate. Some of the children of Abraham and Deborah Harding, of Providence, probably were: 1, Stephen Harding, elected Constable of Providence at a Town Meeting held June 5, 1710; a cooper by trade, Jan. 28, 1716-17, when Samuel Aldrich was "Impowered to bind out Joseph Aldrich, an apprentice to Stephen Harding to learn the trade of a cooper; appointed by Town Council, July 27, 1723, to serve as "Surveyor for repairing highways; 2, probably Mercy, married, Jan. 7, 1702-3; by Joseph Williams, Assistant, to Samuel Winsor, Jr.; 3, Lydia, married, Dec. 2, 1713, to Job P. Whipple; 4, Deborah, married, Dec. 3, 1719, by Joseph Jenckes, Deputy Governor, to Joshua Winsor; 5, Thomas, elected Constable, June 1, 1724, but who declined to serve, married, April 2, 1721, by Samuel Wilkinson, Justice, to Alice Smith.

3. John, (see later).

4. Priscilla, married, by Joseph Jenckes, to Thomas Estance, who was deceased in Dec., 1708, when an inventory of his estate was exhibited. At that time he had a daughter, Mary, married to Josiah Owen, Jr., and a daughter, Mercy Estance.

5. Probably Jamima Harding.

II. (3). John Harding, son of Stephen and Bridget Harding, of Providence, settled in the Town of Newport, R. I., and was a residence there, May 6, 1684, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony of Rhode Island. He was of Newport, April 12, 1698, when, at Providence, he exhibited an inventory of the estate of his deceased father, Stephen Harding, of Providence, and was appointed administrator of his estate. One of the children of John Harding, of Newport, was probably, 1, Stephen Harding, of Newport.

A Captain John Harding commanded the ship Expedition, sailing between London, England, the Barbadoes Islands and Virginia, in March-April, 1678-1679. (Bib.-246.)

III. (1). Stephen Harding, of Newport, R. I., who was doubtless a son of John Harding, of Newport, was admitted a Freeman of the Colony of Rhode Island, May 4, 1714. He was probably the Captain Stephen Harding who, for a number of years, commanded a ship engaged in the West Indies trade and who, perhaps, removed to

*Samuel Winsor, Sr., died in Providence, R. I., Sept. 19, 1705. His son, Samuel Winsor, Jr., born about 1674, known as Elder Samuel Winsor, died Nov. 17, 1758, in his 81st year, was married to Mercy Harding, by Joseph Williams, Assistant, Jan. 7, 1702-3. She was doubtless a daughter of Abraham and Deborah Harding, (see later), and their children were: 1, Martha, born Dec. 10, 1703; 2, Mary, born Aug. 8, 1707; 3, Lydia, born Aug. 5, 1709; 4, Hannah, born Aug. 26, 1711; 5, Joseph, born Oct. 4, 1713; 6, Deborah, born Oct. 12, 1715; 7, Freeloove, born Sept. 1, 1720; 8, Rev. Samuel, born Nov. 1, 1723, died Jan. 26, 1803.

Warwick and settled later in New London, Conn., where he owned property. Among his holdings there was the Mohegan Farm, formerly owned by Colonel John Livingstone, and sold by him to Mrs. Sarah Knight, the mother of his second wife, Elizabeth, who sold it to Colonel John Livingstone's wife, from whom it was bought by Captain Stephen Harding, of Warwick. (Bib.-255—See Diary of Joshua Hempstead, Bib.-260.)

Some of the children of Captain Stephen Harding were probably: 1, John; 2, Abraham, probably Abraham of Connecticut, whose name appears as owner of a one-half right in the Indian Deed of 1754, conveying lands to the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, (see Pittston Hardings); 3, Israel, who was a soldier in the Connecticut service between May 26, 1755, and March 1760, serving in the French and Indian War. He was a private May 26, 1755, to Nov. 26, 1755, in the Second Company of Colonel John Pitkin's Regiment, a Sergeant Nov., 1755, to May, 1756, in Captain Noah Grant's Company, a Lieutenant in Captain John Slapp's Company from March to Oct. 1756, (at which time Robert Durkee was also a Lieutenant in the same company), a Lieutenant March 27, 1758, to Nov. 21, 1758, and on March 25, 1759, in the regiment commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Spencer, and in March, 1760, was a First Lieutenant in Captain Wells' Company of Colonel Nathan Whiting's Second Connecticut Regiment; 4, Thomas, who served in Captain Wells' Company of Colonel Lynn's Regiment in 1757, and in May, 1760, was an Ensign in the Second New London Company of the Third Connecticut Regiment; 5, Lemuel, who served from Sept. 10, 1755, to Dec. 11, 1755, in the Company of the Third Connecticut Regiment commanded by Captain Ebenezer Leach; 6, Stephen, Jr., born in Rhode Island in 1723; 7, probably Henry. (Bib.-339.)

Abraham Harding, son of Captain Stephen Harding, was married (1), Sept. 12, 1734, by Joshua Hempstead, at North Parrish, New London Co., Conn., to Marcy Vibber. (Bib.-260.) According to the History of Montville, Conn., (Beb.-183) she was born Jan. 9, 1715, and died Jan. 19, 1754, and was a daughter of John and Johanna (Williams) Vibber, and a sister of Margaret Vibber, who was married to John Comstock. (Family No. 1021—Comstock.) Thomas Harding, son of Captain Stephen Harding, was married, by Joshua Hempstead, March 17, 1744-5, to Mary, daughter of Israel Richards of North Parrish. One of their children died Oct. 21, 1751. (Bib.-260.)

THE HARDINGS OF PITTSTON, PA.

1. Thomas Harding was a resident of Pittstown District in 1776, 1777 and 1778, his name appearing in the Westmoreland Tax Lists of those years.

2. Stephen Harding was a resident of Pittstown District in 1776, his name appearing in the Westmoreland Tax List of that year, while in the list of the same year the names of Stephen and Stephen Harding, Jr., appear as residents of the North District (Exeter and Providence). Stephen Harding, of Pittston, was deceased before Sept. 11, 1793, when Henry Harding was appointed administrator of his estate with Daniel Dimock and Jabez Fish on his bond in $300. He was the original owner of certain lands in Pittston, including Lot No. 57 of the Second Division, which Abraham and Henry Harding sold, May 22, 1793, to William Miller, describing the land as originally owned by Stephen Harding, late of Pittstown. He also probably owned Lot No. 46 of the First Division in Pittston.

3. Abraham Harding's name is on the List of Settlers at Wyoming in June, 1772, and on the petition praying for the erection of a county in that year. He was named as a Fence Viewer in the Town of Westmoreland, March 1, 1774, and was a resident of Pittstown District in 1776, 1777, and 1778, his name appearing on the Westmoreland Tax Lists. He, with Daniel Cass and Isaiah Halstead, served as the Committee of Proprietors of Pittstown District in 1777, and on May 1 of that year sold a mill seat and other lands on the Lackawanna River, at the mouth of Spring Brook, to Isaac Finch. (See Family No. 14—Finch.) He also served on that committee in 1790, with John Phillips and David Brown. In 1792 he was assessed as a resident of Lackawanna (Pittston and Providence). He was evidently an heir of Stephen Harding of Pittston District. (See above.) He owned (1) one-half of Meadow Lot No. 7 and one-half a lot in the last division, (the latter on the right of Isaiah Halstead), which he sold Nov. 19, 1789, to Alexander McKay; (2), Lot No. 32 of the First Division of Pittston, 100 acres, which he sold April 27, 1789, to Enos Brown, (Family No. 36—Swallow-Brown); (3), one-half of two Meadow Lots, 6 and 8, and one-half of the 50 acre lot, (on which he lived in 1790, probably Lot 46), which was bounded by lands of James Benedict on the south, and on the north by lands of Mr. Sanford, and which he sold, Nov. 22, 1790, to Henry Harding, together with his one-half right in the undivided lands in Pittston. He had removed to Minisink, Orange Co., N. Y., before June 18, 1794, when he sold to Osman Ensign of Minisink, twenty-five acres of Lot 46, First Division of Pittston, bounded on the south by lands of Isaac Finch, on the east by lands of Eton Jones*, on the north by lands of Mr. Sanford, and on the west by the road from Wilkes-Barre up the river. This lot was situated only a short distance from Pittston Fort.

None of the land records appear to contain any reference to the name of the wife of Abraham Harding. It appears probable to the writer that one of these Pittston Hardings had been married to Lydia, born Sept. 6, 1762, died Dec. 4, 1840, daughter of Job Tripp, (Family No. 1001—Tripp) who was Mrs. Lydia (Tripp) Harding, of Deer Park, Orange Co., N. Y., Nov. 17, 1816, when she was married (2), by Elder John Miller, to Deacon John Phillips, (Family No. 1009—Phillips) of Pittston and Abington, Pa. She was evidently married (1) to a Harding who had lived in the Wyoming Valley and removed to the Minisink.

4. Henry Harding of Pittstown is the only representative of the family whose name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1780 and 1781. He was assessed in Lackawanna (Providence) in 1792. He served as a private in Captain Robert Durkee's First Independent Westmoreland Company and in that of Captain Spalding in the War of the American Revolution, which doubtless accounts for the fact that his name does not appear in the earlier Westmoreland Tax Lists. He was evidently an heir of Stephen Harding of Pittston, (see above). Feb. 4, 1793, he bought from Stephen Wilcox (Family No. 1016—Wilcox) Lot No. 31, of the First Division of Pittston, which he sold, March 30, 1793, to Daniel David, Sr., of Pittston. He had removed to Minisink, Orange Co., N. Y., before June 20, 1794, when he sold one-fourth of Lot 46, bounded by lands of Eaton Jones, lands formerly of Abraham Harding, lands of John Benedict and the road up the river from Wilkes-Barre, to Osman Ensign of Minisink, N. Y. With Abraham Harding of Pittston he sold, May 22, 1793, Lot No. 57 of the Second Division of Pittston to William Miller of Pittston, describing the lot as having been owned originally by Stephen Harding, late of Pittstown. His widow, Nancy Harding, and David Dimock were appointed administrators of his estate, June 16, 1795, with John Davis and William Miller on the bond in $200. His widow, Mrs. Nancy Harding, was married (2) to a Mr. Atwater and in the January term of the Court of Common Pleas in 1799, David Dimock and Hannah Atwater, late Hannah Harding, administrators of Henry Harding, brought suit against Osman Ensign. Hannah Atwater, late Hannah Harding, is also named in Orphans' Court proceedings of Jan. 23, 1801, pertaining to the estate of Henry Harding.

5. Lemuel Harding's name appears on the List of Settlers at Wyoming in May, 1772, and on the petition for the erection of a county in that year. He was appointed in the "Articles of Agreement," (see Harvey's Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley, p. 765) June 2, 1773, with Captain Caleb Bates and James Brown, "Directors of the District of Pittstown," and at a meeting of the settlers, held at Wilkes-Barre, March 2, 1774, was named as a member of the Grand Jury. His name appears in the Westmoreland Tax Lists of 1776, 1777 and 1778, as a resident of the North District (Exeter and Providence, 1776 and 1777), and of the Exeter District in 1778. He was deceased before Nov. 12, 1796, when his daughter, Phebe, the wife of James Ellsworth, sold to James Sutton all her interest, as tenant in common with the other heirs, in the lands of her father, Lemuel Harding. Lemuel Harding served as a drummer in the 3d Company of the Second Connecticut Regiment, Major Joseph Spencer commanding, in Nov., 1758. (Bib.-339.) He also served as a private, in 1755, in Captain Leach's Company of the Third Connecticut Regiment. (Bib.-339.)

*Eton Jones was a resident of Pittstown District in 1776-7-8, his name appearing on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for those years. He was a blacksmith and May 20, 1777, Noah Adams, of Pittstown, sold to him two acres of land in Pittstown. The land is described in part as follows, in the survey: "Beginning on the west side of Noah's House, near the north end, being the corner between William Williams' lot and Noah's; thence on the line between Noah and Williams N. 73° W. 19 rods to a stake on the north side of a brook running through Noah's land to the great river, being the northeast corner of the lot originally owned by Stephen Harden; thence as Harden's line run 9½ rods to a stake on Harden's line; thence S. 65° E. on the line between Colonel Hogaboom and Noah, 17½ rods; thence S. 15° W. four rods on a line between Colonel Hogaboom and Noah to a stake; thence S. 73° E. through Noah's land 9 rods to the east side of the great road as it is now trod from Lackawanna Ferry to Isaac Baldwin's, to a stake; thence N. 18° 30' E. 17 rods east of said road and through said Noah's lands to a stake on the bank, south of the bridge," etc. The deed also conveyed to Eton Jones, for an added consideration of eight dollars, the privilege of flowing so much of my land "up the brook as may happen to be flowed by a dam raised at or below the bridge, for the purpose of 'turning a wheel' for a blacksmith forge and malting business," etc.

THE HARDINGS OF EXETER, PA.

III. (1). Captain Stephen Harding (or Harden) of Warwick, R. I., and later of New London, Conn., probably had six sons: 1, Stephen, born in Rhode Island in 1723; 2, Abraham; 3, John; 4, Thomas; 5, Israel; 6, Lemuel. (See above.)

IV. (1). Captain Stephen, son of Captain Stephen Harding, was born in Rhode Island in 1723, and was married, in 1747, to Amy, born Feb. 17, 1725, died in 1806, daughter of Stephen and Frances (Congdon) Gardner. (Family No. 988—Gardner.) He served, as a private, in Captain Thomas Pierce's Twelfth Company, of the Second Connecticut Regiment, commanded by Colonel Nathan Whiting, in the campaign of 1760, in the French and Indian War. His name appears on the Indian Deed, of July 11, 1754, which conveyed title to the Wyoming lands to the members of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. He was probably a member of the company of original settlers, who, in 1762, attempted to make a settlement in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and also was doubtless one of the "First Forty" Settlers in 1769. He became one of the early victims of the Pennamite outrages and was one of the company placed under arrest, taken to Easton, Pa., and committed to jail. Released from jail, under bail, he returned to his home in Connecticut and remained there until Nov. or Dec., 1771. His name appears in the "List of Settlers" at Wyoming, in Dec., 1771, and with that of his son, Stephen, Jr., in the list of May, 1772, and in the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777, and 1778. He settled in Exeter Township as early as 1774, having become a Proprietor when the township or district was erected in Nov., 1772. When the 24th Regiment of Connecticut Militia at Wyoming, was organized, Stephen Harding was established and commissioned Captain of the Seventh Company. In May, 1778, he was commissioned Justice of the Peace in and for the County of Westmoreland, and in May, 1779, he was reappointed. After the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, Captain Harding, two of whose sons were killed by Indians, in Exeter, June 30, 1778, went with his family to Colchester, Conn., whence they returned to Exeter in 1784. He died Oct. 11, 1789, and his son, Stephen, Jr., was appointed administrator of his estate, Feb. 2, 1790, with Thomas Joslin and Richard Gardner on his bond in $600. His widow, Amy, who was returned as Amelia in the Federal Census of 1790, and who then apparently had one daughter living at home, died in 1806. They are buried in the Jenkins-Harding Cemetery at West Pittston with their two sons, Benjamin and Stukeley, who were killed by Indians June 30, 1778. The children of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding were: 1, Amy, born 1744, died 1762; 2, Lydia, born 1745, married to Thomas Chapman; 3, Jamima, born 1747, married to Ebon (or Ebenezer) Williams; 4, Stephen, Jr., born 1749, (see later); 5, Thomas, born 1751, died 1813, (see later); 6, Benjamin,* born 1753, killed by Indians in Exeter, Pa., June 30, 1778, (Jenkins-Harding Cemetery), West Pittston, Pa., with his brother, Stukeley; 7, Stukeley, born 1755, killed by Indians, June 30, 1778; 8, Israel, born 1756, died May 7, 1835, (see later); 9, Esther, born 1759, (see later); 10, Micajah, (see later); 11, Elisha, born 1763, (see later); 12, John, born 1765, (see later); 13, William, born 1787, (see later); 14, Elizabeth, married to Clark Gardner. (Bib.-1 in part.)

V. (4). Captain Stephen, Jr., son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was born about 1749 and came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., in 1772. He enlisted and served as private in Captain Robert Durkee's Company, the First Westmoreland Independent Company, in the War of the American Revolution. He became one of the Proprietors of Exeter when that town was erected in 1772 and settled there in 1774. He later served as Captain in the Pennsylvania Militia. He died Aug. 4, 1816, and was probably the first person buried in the historic Harding Cemetery in Exeter. This resting place of many of the earlier settlers was recently put in splendid condition and it is now a source of credit to the whole community. (1918.) The will of Captain Stephen Harding, Jr., was made July 20, 1816, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 27, 1816. It names his wife, Jain, and his brother Elisha, executors, and names the following children: 1. Amy, born March 2, 1767, died Oct. 5, 1851, married to Andrew, born March 12, 1766, died Dec. 24, 1851, son of John Montanye, (Family No. 1217—Montanye); 2, David, (see later); 3, Hannah, married to Abner, son of Henry and Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, of Kingston Township, (Family No. 1174—

*It is not known by the writer whether Benjamin, son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was married or not. In the Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa., standing next to the stone of Captain Stephen Harding, Jr., is a large marble slab dedicated to the memory of Christian Harding, who died Sept. 10, 1824, in the 68th year of her age. Nov. 29, 1793, Stephen Harding, a minor over 14 years of age, (born between 1771 and 1779) appeared in the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre and chose Dr. Oliver Bigelow as his guardian. He was doubtless a grandson of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, and perhaps a son of Benjamin Harding.

Tuttle); 4, Jemima; 5, Fanny (Harding) Roberts, died before July 20, 1816, and left children; 6, Prudence, married to Zephaniah, son of Levi and Rebecca (Jones) Townsend, of Falls Township, was deceased before July 20, 1816, and her husband died before Feb. 19, 1827, (Family No. 994—Townsend); 7, Liddie (Harding) Smith, who was deceased before July 20, 1816, leaving one daughter.

VI. (2). David, son of Captain Stephen Harding, Jr., bought Nov. 7, 1794, from Oliver and Esther (Harding) Bigelow, all their interest in the estate of Captain Stephen Harding, Sr. He also bought the interest of his uncle, Israel Harding, in the same estate. Jan. 20, 1801, he executed a deed to Joseph Horsefield, of Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Pa., in which he described the property as bounded by lands of Stephen Harding and the Susquehanna River, and extending 67 perches on the river, and including 180 acres, also described as lands he, David Harding, lived on, formerly owned by Oliver Bigelow and Esther and Israel Harding. Nabby Harding signed the deed as the wife of David Harding.

V. (5). Thomas, son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was born in 1751, and died in 1812–13. He is said to have been married (1) to a Miss Rogers and (2) to Hannah Stark. In 1794 he sold to Moses Scovel 160 acres of land, in Exeter Township, bounded 320 rods along lands of Scovel, 160 rods along the Kingston line; 320 rods along lands of Ezra Olds, who, in 1792, was assessed in Exeter as a wheelwright, and for whom Olds' Hill was named. Thomas Harding removed to Harford, now Susquehanna Co., Pa. He was deceased May 11, 1813, when Elisha Harding, Esq., and Stephen Harding, Jr., were appointed administrators of his estate in the Town of Law. The Orphans' Court Docket of Susquehanna Co., Pa., describes him as late of the town of Harford. Some of the children of Thomas Harding were: 1, Amos, or Amasa, (see later); 2, Stephen; 3, Benjamin; 4, Thomas, Jr., (see later); 5, Perry; 6, Jesse; 7, perhaps Elisha.*

VI. (1). Amos, son of Thomas Harding, was married to Phebe, probably daughter of Isaac and Eleanor (Frear) Tripp, of Clifford, Pa. (Family No. 1001—Tripp.) Before April 1, 1815, Amos Harding had deeded his property to his three sons, Salmon E., Mordecai and Ebenezer S., "for the support of himself, wife and younger children until 14 years of age." (Bib.—360.) April 1, 1815, his three sons deeded his lands back to him. Amos and Phebe Harding were living in Clifford, Oct. 15, 1818, when they sold lands in Clifford and Greenfield Townships to James Finn. (Family No. 988—Finn.) Benjamin Harding and A. Dimock signed this deed as witnesses. They were of Clifford June 1, 1820, when they sold to Nathan Callender 223 acres of land, less 50 acres sold to James Stevens and Tryon Harding. Amos Harding had bought this tract of land from Redmond and Elizabeth Conyngnam, Dec. 1, 1816. Some of the children of Amos Harding were: 1, Salmon E.; 2, Mordecai; 3, Ebenezer S.; Tryon, or George Tryon, (see later); Mrs. James Stevens; Mrs. Joseph Barber.

VII. (4). Tryon, or George Tryon, son of Amos and Phebe (Tripp) Harding, was married and lived in Clifford, Susquehanna Co., Pa., but removed to Morrow Co., Ohio. He was living in Clifford, Sept. 2, 1822, when he deeded six acres of land to Jacob Bedford. (Family No. 986—Bedford.) He died in Morrow Co., Ohio, Jan. 9, 1860. He had one son, Charles A., and several daughters. Charles A. Harding, born in Clifford, Pa., April 8, 1820, was married to Mary A., born in Aug., 1826, daughter of Joshua Crawford. He died April 3, 1878, and had eight daughters and one son, Dr. George Tryon Harding. The latter was married, May 7, 1864, to Phebe Dickerson, born Dec. 21, 1843, daughter of Isaac and Charity (Van Kirk) Dickerson, and their children were: 1, HON. WARREN GAMALIEL HARDING, born in Blooming Grove, Morrow Co., Ohio, Nov. 2, 1865, UNITED STATES SENATOR, from Ohio, and PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, died 1923, married, July 8, 1891, to Florence Kling; 2, Chattie M.; 3, Mary C.; 4, Priscilla A.; 5, Daisy; 6, Charles A.

VI. (4). Thomas, Jr., son of Thomas Harding, was born about 1786, and died at the home of his son, Stedman Harding, Eaton, Wyoming Co., Pa., in 1853. He was married to Martha McNamara, and some of their children were: 1, Stedman, born Dec. 11, 1808, died March 12, 1891, married to Martha, born March 21, 1812,

*An Elisha Harding, of Herrick, Susquehanna Co., Pa., made his will July 16, 1849, and it was probated, at Montrose, Pa., Sept. 30, 1850. It names his wife, Elizabeth, and the following: Elisha Harding and his son, William Harris Harding; Rufus and Clarissa A. Kent and their daughter, Emeline; George L. and Mary E. Avery and their son, Austin; Hannah S. Stephens, wife of Ziba Stevens; Lucinda, wife of George L. Avery; Martha, wife of Erastus Norton; youngest daughter, Electa, not 21 years of age; son, Addison C. Harding; son, Charles A. Harding, the last named inheriting the homestead.

died Jan. 27, 1901, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Harding) Mitchell, (Family No. 992—Mitchell), (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.), some of whose children were: (1), William, 143d Regiment, P. V. I., Civil War, killed in Battle of the Wilderness; (2), Frank; (3), Thomas; (4), Merret Slocum, born Oct. 20, 1839, died April 7, 1907, married to Martha S., daughter of Joseph and Violetta (Kisbaugh) Miller, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre); (5), Horace; (6), Esther, married (1) to ———— Wilson, married (2) to ———— Carpenter; 2, Curtis, born Aug. 6, 1812, died Dec. 28, 1890, married to Martha, born July 20, 1812, died July 31, 1845, (Clark Cemetery, Orcutt's, Wyoming Co., Pa.), daughter of Elihu and Elizabeth (Pierce) Parrish, (Family No. 994—Parrish); 3, Sarah, married to Samuel Frutchy of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; 4, Joseph, born Aug. 20, 1815, died April 10, 1893, married to Anna, born 1814, died Dec. 2, 1855, daughter of Isaac and Lydia (Brace) Carver, (Family No. 992—Carver); 5, probably Davis, died before Jan. 25, 1850, when at Tunkhannock, Pa. Stedman Harding was appointed administrator of his estate with Adam Wheelcock and Thomas Mitchell on his bond in $400, and some of whose children were: 1, Stukeley, born 1837, died Jan. 25, 1895, private Company E, 203, P. V. I., in the Civil War, (Union Hill Cemetery, Mehoopany, Pa.); 2, Warren; 3, Elizabeth.

V. (8). Israel, son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was born about 1755, and died in Eaton, Wyoming Co., Pa., May 6, 1835. He enlisted and served as a private in Captain Durkee's First Independent Westmoreland Company and afterward served in Captain Simon Spalding's Company in the War of the American Revolution. He sold his interest in his father's estate to his nephew, David Harding. He was married to Lydia Reed and settled in what is now Eaton Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. She was born about 1760 and died in Oct., 1847, aed. 87 years. They are buried in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville, Wyoming Co., Pa. His name was placed on the Pension Rolls May 20, 1818, with an allowance of $96 per year. Some of the children of Israel and Lydia (Reed) Harding were: 1, Benjamin, whose wife, Eunice, born 1794, died Nov. 7, 1843, is buried in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville, Pa., whose daughter, Nancy, born 1815, died 1887, was married to Abner Rosengrant, born 1810, died 1897, and whose son, Reed, born Nov. 12, 1816, died Nov. 5, 1876, and his wife, Nancy M., born June 11, 1817, died Dec. 12, 1876, are buried in the same cemetery; 2, James; 3, Stephen, born Dec. 28, 1800, died Dec. 1, 1879, (see later); 4, Israel, Jr.; 6, Clara; 7, Lydia, probably married to Henry Millard; 8, Amy; 9, Sally, born Nov. 22, 1803, died Sept. 21, 1832, married to Stephen Montanye, born March 9, 1798. (Family No. 1217—Montanye.)

VI. (3). Stephen, son of Israel and Lydia (Reed) Harding, was born Dec. 28, 1800, and died Dec. 1, 1879. He was married to Elcy Wyman, born March 16, 1801, died Sept. 6, 1882, (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.). Some of their children were: 1, Palmer, born 1822, died 1910, married, July 1, 1847, to Mary A. Seward, born 1828, died 1906, (M. E. Cemetery, Orange, Pa.); 2, Isaac Baldwin, born Dec. 16, 1823, married to Abigail Cook; 3, Sarah E., born 1826, married to Daniel Bursell; 4, Mary C., born 1827, married to Josiah Beidler, Wilkes-Barre; 5, John W., born Jan. 5, 1830, died Nov. 27, 1898, married to Elizabeth Wood, born Sept. 2, 1832, died May 22, 1911, (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.); 6, Jane L., born 1834, married to William Tabor, Canton, Pa.; 7, Eleanor C., born 1837, married to Abraham Houck; 8, William A., born Dec. 19, 1840, Corporal Company G, 143d Regiment, P. V. I., instantly killed at Hatcher's Run, Va., Feb. 6, 1865.

V. (9). Esther, daughter of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was married to Dr. Oliver Bigelow. Nov. 7, 1794, they sold their interest in the estate of Captain Stephen Harding to their nephew, David Harding. Dr. Oliver Bigelow was for some years a physician in Kingston and Plymouth Townships and owned various tracts of land in both townships. He owned Meadow Lot No. 19, Back Lots 19 and 20, and Lot No. 3 in the Fourth Division in Kingston and also certain lands in Plymouth. He lived in Plymouth Township Feb. 4, 1790, when Samuel Allen of Plymouth sold to him part of House Lot No. 9 in the Upper Tier of Plymouth. This lot is described in part as follows: "Beginning at a stake on the north side of a small spring brook between the two roads running from Kingston down to Plymouth, viz.: the two roads lying nearest to Toby's Creek and the upper flats in Plymouth, and running across the hill commonly known as Ross Hill, running from the above stake placed in the line between Lots Nos. 8 and 9, up the hill and across to the second road from Toby's Creek on the line between the House Lots 8 and 9 N. 30° w. 46 rods exclusive of the mentioned road, four rods wide, to a stake, placed on top of the hill," etc. The purchase included half of the width of Lot 9, about seven rods, and contained two acres, and is further described as the "Place or lot where the said Bigelow's house and barn now stands." It was formerly part of the Perrin Ross estate. Jan. 1, 1798, Dr. Oliver Bigelow,* of Kingston, announced in the Wilkes-Barre Gazette that he had deposited his books with Lawrence Myers for immediate collection, etc. In 1801 he sold his Meadow Lot and two Back Lots in Kingston to Oliver Pettebone, and probably at about this time removed to (1) what later became Susquehanna Co., Pa., (Harding authority) or to Palmyra, N. Y. (Steuben Jenkins.) See Vol. IX Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Wilkes-Barre.

V. (10). Micajah, son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was married to Sally ———. In 1790 he was a resident of Luzerne Co., Pa., and had in family, living at home, himself, two sons under 16 years of age and two females. In 1792 he was assessed as a farmer in Exeter Township. Feb. 10, 1794, he bought from William Harding, his brother, 175 acres of Lot 12 in Exeter, improved with a log mansion house and a log barn. Jan. 16, 1797, he bought from William Hadsell†

*Dr. Oliver Bigelow was born in Colchester, Conn., Dec. 23, 1759, and died in Johnstown, Licking Co., Ohio, Oct. 2, 1817. He was a son of John, born Sept. 2, 1737, and Hannah (Douglass) Bigelow, a grandson of John, born March 15, 1709, died Jan. 17, 1789, and Sarah (Bates) Bigelow, and a great-grandson of Lieutenant John and Hannah Bigelow of Colchester, Conn. Two of the children of Dr. Oliver and Esther (Harding) Bigelow were: Oliver, Jr., and Mary. (Bib.-341.)

†James Hadsell, apparently a member of the Society of Friends, was a son of Joseph and Rachel Hadsell of Westerly, R. I. He was married, according to the rites of the Society of Friends, the 12th day of the 8th month, 1752, to Content, daughter of Peter and Rebecca Worden. At the time of his marriage his mother and the father of his bride were both deceased. (Kingstown Friends Record Bib.-257.)

James Hadsell came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Stonington, Conn., as early as 1770. In June of that year he was one of the Proprietors of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. He was one of the earliest settlers of Exeter Township, which was laid out in 1772, and, at the time of his death, owned 600 acres of land in the vicinity of Sutton's Creek, in Exeter, and a 100 acre lot (No. 22) in Pittston District. In 1776, in partnership with James Sutton, he built a saw mill and grist mill, the earliest in Exeter Township, on Sutton's Creek, where he also owned and operated a tannery. These mills were destroyed by the Tories and Indians about the time of the battle of Wyoming, early in July or late in June, 1778. James Hadsell and his son-in-law, Daniel Carr, were captured by Indians near his home, in Exeter, June 30, 1778. He was taken to a point about one mile east of the present village of Orange, Franklin Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was subjected to excruciating tortures from which he died. (Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, pp. 988, 989.) He was survived by his widow, Content (or Constant), who was married (2), as second wife, to Samuel Daily of Exeter Township. (Family No. 988—Dailey.) She was living May 9, 1803, when Benjamin Gardner of Pittston sold to Edward Hadsell of Exeter, 14 acres of land in Exeter, which William Hadsell of Exeter, Jan. 19, 1802, sold as part of his father's estate, to Benjamin Gardner. The deed from Benjamin Gardner (Family No. 988—Gardner) recites that it is "Understood, nevertheless, that Content Daily is to enjoy the benefit and income of this piece of land, during her natural life." Jan. 7, 1794, Samuel Daily, John Hadsell, Edward and Joseph Hadsell of Exeter, heirs of James Hadsell, sold to Cornelius Nephew, of Pittston, 100 acre Lot No. 22, containing 90 acres. John Hadsell, Samuel Daily, Edward Hadsell, Content Daily, Hannah Hadsell, Abigail Hadsell and Joseph Hadsell signing the deed. In Orphans' Court proceedings of July 7, 1792, the survivors of James Hadsell were named as his widow, Constant (probably Content) and the following named children: 1, Amy, married to Daniel Carr; 2, John Hadsell; 3, Edward Hadsell; 4, Stephen Hadsell; 5, Content, married to Ebenezer Reynolds; 6, Joseph Hadsell; 7, William Hadsell. His son, 8, James Hadsell, Jr., was killed by the Tories and Indians June 30, 1778. Jan. 2, 1804, there was granted by the Commissioners to John Hadsell as trustee for John McMillen, Joseph Black, Edward Hadsell, Content Daily, Samuel Hadley and James Sutton, a certificate confirming title to 278 acres of the estate of James Hadsell, Sr. John Hadsell sold his interest in this certificate Feb. 11, 1805, to John Harding of Exeter, who, Aug. 9, 1813, sold it to William Woodbridge. Jan. 21, 1804, John Hadsell was granted a certificate by the Commissioner for 169 acres of Lot No. 15, of Exeter, also a part of the James Hadsell estate. Feb. 11, 1805, he sold this certificate to John Harding, who, Aug. 9, 1813, sold it to William Woodbridge. John Hadsell, according to the Exeter Tax List for 1806, had removed from Exeter. Edward Hadsell, according to the same authority, had removed from that portion of Exeter in 1806, and, according to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1), had removed to Martinville, Ohio. His son, James, born March 20, 1786, was living in Franklin Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1880. Lewis Jones, who kept a tavern and store on part of the Hadsell property, about 1806, probably bought some land from Edward Hadsell. Stephen Hadsell was of Stonington, New London Co., Conn., Jan. 30, 1796, when he sold to Lieutenant Joseph Black of Exeter his interest in the lands of James Hadsell as heir, together with the widow's third being in whole one-seventh, except my share of a lot in Pittston which I have before sold to Joseph Black. He returned to Exeter Township and, according to Mr. Harvey, settled in what is now Monroe Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. The Exeter Tax List for 1814 has the names of Stephen Hadsell, Stephen Hadsell, Jr., Hubbard Hadsell and John Hadsell. The Federal Direct Tax List for 1815 has the names of Stephen Hadsell, Stephen Hadsell, Jr., and Hurlbutt Hadsell. Stephen Hadsell, born about 1766, died Jan. 17, 1847. His son, Stephen Hadsell, Jr., was appointed administrator of his estate, at Tunkhannock, Pa., Nov. 26, 1847, with Robert Caton on his bond in $1,000. The will of his son, Stephen, was made in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Aug. 20, 1864, and was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., Sept. 20, 1869, and names his wife, Margaret, and refers to children not named. Ebenezer Reynolds, who was married to Content Hadsell, who was wounded near Sutton's Creek, June 30, 1778, by the Tories and Indians, but escaped and succeeded, after wandering all night, in reaching Jenkins Fort the 84 acres of Lot No. 15 in Exeter. He lived on this lot Jan. 28, 1801, when he sold it to Joseph Horsefield* of Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Pa. He was a Captain in the Pennsylvania Militia after 1800. He is said to have removed to Ontario Co., N. Y., about 1805 and from thence to La Grange Co., Ind., where he died in 1845.

V. (11). Elisha, son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was born Aug., 1763, and died in Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., Aug. 1, 1839. He was married to Martha, born Feb. 4, 1766, died April 23, 1838, daughter of Joseph Rider.† Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding settled in 1789, in what is now Eaton Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. In 1790 he had in family himself, his wife and one daughter. In 1792 he was assessed as a resident of Tunkhannock Township. Nov. 20, 1796, he bought lands there from James Tobias of Tunkhannock Township, and on the same day also bought from him a farm of 150 acres, on Bowman's Creek, which Calvin and Henry Tobias of Sharon, Conn., sold to James Tobias of Tunkhannock Township, Feb. 20, 1796. Jan. 8, 1795, he bought from John Harding an island in Bowman's Creek and Lot No. 42, in Putnam, 300 acres he also bought from John Harding, March 6, 1795. Lot 42 is described as bounded on the north by lands of John McCord (Family No. 1017—McCord), on the south by the lands on which John Harding then lived, on the east by the river and on the west by lands of Gideon Osterhout. (Family No. 50—Osterhout.)

Elisha Harding helped build Fort Jenkins in Exeter Township in 1777, and at the time of the British-Indian invasion of the Wyoming Valley was, in 1778, in the fort with other members of his father's family, and with them fled to Connecticut after the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He returned to Wyoming Valley in 1784. He served as a Justice of the Peace from 1799 until 1812 and, in 1804, was elected one of the Commissioners of Luzerne Co., Pa. (Bib.-1.) The children of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding were: 1, Mary, born July, 1787, died Aug. 21, 1880; 2, Elisha, Jr., born Nov. 15, 1790, died Feb. 23, 1874; 3, Samuel J., born May 5, 1794, died July 8, 1856; 4, Martha, born Sept. 21, 1796, died April 1, 1850; 5, Esther, born May 27, 1798, died Dec. 22, 1877, married to Alfred Hine, Esq., born Feb. 25, 1795, died June 28, 1868; 6, Jesse, born Sept. 11, 1802, died April 24, 1891; 7, Stephen Gardner, born 1805, died 1868. Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding are buried in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville, Wyoming Co., Pa.

VI. (1). Mary, born July, 1787, died Aug. 21, 1880, daughter of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, was married, June 21, 1804, by Elder Davis Dimock, to Thomas, born Feb. 20, 1780, died Jan. 20, 1874, son of David and Sarah (Patterson) following morning, was a farmer in Exeter Township in 1792, his name appearing on the Exeter Tax List for that year. Ebenezer and Content (Hadsell) Reynolds sold their interest in the estate of James Hadsell, Sr., to John Harding, before April 19, 1793, conveying title to about 84 acres and one equal share in the widow's third after her decease. This interest John Harding sold to Joseph Hadsell, April 19, 1793. Joseph Hadsell sold 41 acres of the east corner of the Hadsell lot to John McMillen, May 17, 1800. His name appears as that of a single freeman on the Exeter Tax Lists for 1792. William Hadsell was a blacksmith. Jan. 16, 1797, he sold to Micajah Harding for £80 all his interest in 84 acres of Lot 15, Exeter, part of the estate of James Hadsell. Jan. 19, 1802, he sold to Benjamin Gardner for £66 14 acres of his father's estate and 50 acres "laid out to Stephen Harding, to size his river lot equal to the other lots," which he had bought from Micajah Harding, Sept. 24, 1800. This tract of 50 acres was bounded north by lands of James Sutton. According to the Exeter Tax List for 1806, William Hadsell had then removed from Exeter Township. The statement appears on the Exeter Tax List for 1806 that John, Edward and William Hadsell had removed from Exeter Township, title to their lands having passed to John Harding and Lewis Jones.

*Joseph Horsefield of Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Pa., whose name appears as warrantee on various tracts of land in Luzerne Co., Pa., and who bought many other farms in the Wyoming Valley and in the surrounding country, was a son of Timothy Horsefield of Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Pa., whose will was made in Bethlehem, Pa., Aug. 4, 1772, and probated at Easton, Pa., May 7, 1773. It names his wife, Mary; his sister, Ann Ledbetter of New York Province, and his children, Timothy, Israel, Joseph, Elizabeth and Ann Mary. The will of Timothy Horsefield, Jr., son of Timothy and Mary, was made at Bethlehem, Pa., June 6, 1789, was probated at Easton, Pa., June 15, 1789, and names his wife Juliana, his brother Joseph, and William and Thomas, sons of Joseph. (Bib.-280.)

†Joseph Rider had at least two sons, Benjamin and Isaiah, and one daughter, Martha, who was married to Elisha Harding. Sept. 26, 1798, Charles and Jamima Stark sold to Asa and Martha Rider, children of Isaiah Rider, 80 acres of a farm which Joseph Rider had sold to his two sons, Benjamin and Isaiah, and which had been sold from Benjamin Rider to Elemeul Cary. The consideration named in the deed from Charles and Jamima Stark to Asa and Martha Rider was the furniture, household goods and cattle of Isaiah Rider. Isaiah Rider was deceased before Aug. 21, 1798, when Joseph Rider petitioned the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre praying that Elisha Harding be appointed guardian of his grandchildren, Asa and Martha Rider, children of Isaiah Rider. As administrator of the estate of Isaiah Rider, Elisha Harding presented his report March 8, 1802. The farm referred to above was situated on the waters of Tunkhannock Creek.

Mitchell.* They lived and died in Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., and are buried in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville. His will was made Jan. 15, 1866, a codicil was added June 7, 1866, and it was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., Feb. 19, 1874. Stedman Harding was named executor. The children of Thomas and Mary (Harding) Mitchell, named in his will, were (order of birth not certain): 1, Sarah (Mitchell) Atherton; 2, Elisha Harding, born Jan. 20, 1810, died Dec. 23, 1880, married, in 1839, to Elizabeth, born July 18, 1815, died Sept. 12, 1882, (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.), daughter of Eli and Margaret (Bird) Swetland, (Family No. 3—Swetland), some of whose children were: (1), Thomas Z., born Jan. 4, 1850, married, March 17, 1883, to Sarah W. Dana; (2), Margaret; (3), Mary; (4), Virginia; (5), Benjamin; 3, Martha Ann, born March 21, 1812, died Jan. 27, 1901, married, in 1834, to Stedman, born Dec. 11, 1808, died March 12, 1891, son of Thomas and Patty (McNamara) Harding; 4, David; 5, Abner; 6, Rev. Thomas, Jr., born about 1818, living at Troy, Pa., 1910; 7, Esther; 8, Mary E.; 9, Emelia, born Jan. 23, 1825, died May 7, 1900, married, Dec. 19, 1850, to Benjamin P., born April 22, 1823, died Dec. 27, 1880, son of Isaac and Lydia (Brace) Carver. (Family No. 992—Carver.)

VI. (2). Elisha, Jr., born Nov. 15, 1790, died Feb. 23, 1874, son of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, lived and died in Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa. He was married (1) to Amy, born Dec. 9, 1795, died Feb. 10, 1831, daughter of Stephen and Elizabeth (Jaques) Jenkins. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.) He was married (2) to Nancy, born March 7, 1807, died July 11, 1880, daughter of Dr. Nathan, born Oct. 30, 1770, died April 30, 1853, and Unity Willard Jackson,† born May 25, 1775, died Jan. 27, 1839. (Jackson Cemetery, La Grange, Wyoming Co., Pa.) Elisha Harding, Jr., was a Justice of the Peace for thirty years. He is buried, with his wives and some of their children, in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville. The children of Elisha, Jr., and Amy (Jenkins) Harding were: 1, Hugh, who lived and died, aged 90 years, in Chicago, Ill.; 2, Lysander, married to Angeline Manley, born 1821, died 1912, (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville); 3, William, born June 25, 1814, died Oct. 6, 1833; 4, Benjamin Franklin, married to Lida Knox, removed to Oregon, represented Oregon in the United States Senate in the XXXVIIth Congress, (Bib.-1); 5, Elisha Jenkins, lived in Oregon; 6, Jabez B.; 7, Emma, born Nov. 6, 1818, died March 5, 1906, married to George, born May 14, 1814, died Nov. 9, 1892, son of David and Sarah (Mitchell) Osterhout, (Jackson Cemetery, La Grange, Pa.), (see Family No. 50—Osterhout); 8, Elizabeth, married to George Whipple, lived in Mehoopany, Wyoming Co., Pa., whose children were: W. VI. (4). Martha, daughter of Elisha and Amy (Jenkins) Harding, was born Sept. 21, 1796, and died April 1, 1850. She was married to Elisha Newman, born Sept. 2, 1792, died Feb. 28, 1893, aged 100 years, 5 months and 26 days, (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.). He was a son of Ezekiel and Temperance (Stewart) Newman.

Ezekiel Newman, born Feb. 27, 1750, in Stamford, Conn., died July 30, 1836, in Smithboro, Tioga Co., N. Y., was of Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., in May, 1776, when he enlisted in the Westchester Co., N. Y., Militia in the American Revolution. He was married, in 1771, to Temperance, born 1752, died 1840, daughter of Lemuel, born Dec. 20, 1725, died Dec. 25, 1819, and Rachel Stewart, born Oct. 25, 1725, died Aug. 27, 1798. The children of Ezekiel and Temperance (Stewart) Newman were: 1, Sarah, born Feb. 28, 1773; 2, Deborah, born April 7, 1779; 3, Rachel, born March 27, 1781; 4, Benjamin, born Feb. 9, 1783; 5, Abigail, born April 5, 1785; 6, Ezekiel, Jr., born July 3, 1787; 7, Alche, born July 29, 1789; 8, Elisha, born Sept. 27, 1792, died Feb. 28, 1893; 9, Jonah, born July 12, 1794; 10, James Elliot, born March 8, 1796; 11, Samantha, of whose estate Elisha Newman was appointed administrator March 30, 1852.

Elisha, son of Ezekiel and Temperance (Stewart) Newman, born Sept. 2, 1792, died Feb. 28, 1893, aged 100 years, 5 months and 26 days, was married to Martha, born Sept. 21, 1796, died April 1, 1850, daughter of Elisha and Amy (Jenkins) Harding. They are buried in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville, Wyoming Co., Pa. Their children were: 1, Samuel Harding, born 1818, died 1892, married, in 1840, to Abby Manley, born 1819, died 1862, whose children were: (1), Albert Scott, born 1842, died 1916, married, June 10, 1865, to Caroline, born 1842, died 1917, daughter of John and ——— (Reynolds) McDougal, whose only child (a), Helen M., born 1866, died 1916, was married, in 1884, to James Harkness, born Dec. 14, 1858, son of Israel and Helen (Harkness) Phillips. Their only child, Carrie Helen, born June 20, 1890, was married, June 30, 1910, to Norman, born Nov. 18, 1884, son of Reuben and Mirira (Riker) Thurston. They live in Canton, Bradford Co., Pa., and have one daughter, Margaret Helen, born Feb. 4, 1913; (2), Emma; (3), Martha; (4), Samuel; (5), Walter; (6), Fannie; 2, Benjamin, married to Helen, daughter of George and Sally (Avery) Miller, (Family No. 1017—Miller); 3, Walter S., born May 30, 1816, died in March, 1917, at Canton, Pa., aged 100 years and 10 months, married, in 1869, to Artemisia Hicks, and had one son, Frank, born Aug., 1870, died Jan. 14, 1881; 4, Ezekiel, living in Bradford Co., Pa., in 1880; 5, Edward, born in 1822, living in Canton, Bradford Co., Pa., (1918) in his 96th year, married to Lois Spaulding; 6, Elisha, Jr., living in Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1880; 7, Martha, born 1826, died March 14, 1910, aged 84 years, married to Dr. Gideon Underwood*, Jr., born Dec. 3, 1819, died Jan. 30, 1896, (Forty Fort Cemetery, Luzerne Co., Pa.); 8, Mary, married to Asa Brown, living in Herrickville, Bradford Co., in 1880; 9, Helen, born Feb. 7, 1829, died July 7, 1902, at Nanticoke, Pa., married to John J. H. Giddings, living in Chesterfield, Va., in 1880.

VI. (5). Esther, daughter of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, was born May 27, 1798, and died Dec. 22, 1877. She was married to Alfred Hine, Esq., born Feb. 25, 1795, died June 28, 1868. His will was made July 15, 1867, and was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., July 4, 1868, and names his wife Esther, and the five children of his brother, Samuel Hine, viz.: Edward, Grace, Sarah, William and Mary Hine. The residue of the estate he gave to his adopted son, Charles Whitman Hine. Irene, wife of Lewis Whipple, is also named in the will. Alfred and Esther (Harding) Hine are buried in the Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.

VI. (6). Jesse, son of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, was born Sept. 11, 1802, and died April 24, 1891. He was married, May 1, 1826, by Elder John Miller, to Nancy, born Nov. 5, 1800, died Sept. 22, 1871, daughter of George and Chloe (Brown) Miller, (Family No. 1017—Miller), and some of their children were: 1, George W., born Aug. 30, 1829, died May 8, 1860; 2, William, born Nov. 7, 1832, died Nov. 12, 1860; 3, Jesse, born Oct. 15, 1840, died Sept. 1, 1846; 4, Chloe A., born Nov. 20, 1842, died Jan. 27, 1899, married, April 6, 1859, to Bowman L. Hunter born Dec. 18, 1834, died Oct. 7, 1882. A notice of the death of Jesse Harding in Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. IV, p. 115, states that he read the poem at the Anniversary Exercises held at the Wyoming Monument in 1878. He was a Justice of the Peace from 1840 to 1850. With his wife he is buried in the Harding Cemetery at Eatonville, Pa.

VI. (7). Stephen Gardner, son of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, was born in 1805, and died in 1868. He was married to Ruth, born 1811, died 1880, daughter of Jabez and Pamela (Barnum) Jenkins (Family No. 988—Jenkins), and their children were: 1, Pamela, born Jan. 17, 1834, died Sept. 19, 1876, married to J. D. Rogers, whose children, living in 1880, were: Stephen, Benjamin and Amy; 2, Amy E., born 1835, died 1866; 3, Martha, born 1839, died 1868, married to ——— Townsend, whose children, living in 1880, were: John and James Townsend; 4, Stephen Jenkins, born 1841, married to Matilda Bullock, born 1838, died 1914; 5, Frances, born 1843, died 1863; 6, Mary Esther, born 1845, died 1883, married to E. Stephen Gardner and Ruth (Jenkins) Harding are buried in the Eatonville, Pa., Cemetery.

V. (12). John, son of Captain Stephen and Amy (Gardner) Harding, was born about 1764, and died in his 63d year, June 26, 1826. He was married to Mrs. Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins, widow of Benjamin, son of Hon. John and Lydia (Gardner) Jenkins. Benjamin Jenkins died in March, 1787. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.) John Harding probably settled in Tunkhannock Township soon after his marriage. He was assessed as a resident of that township in 1792 and was not assessed in Exeter in that year. In 1795 he owned at least two lots in the township of Putnam (Tunkhannock) and Jan. 8, 1795, sold to Elisha Harding three acres, part of 43. March 6, 1795, he sold to him Lot No. 42, 300 acres, in Putnam. Lot 42 was bounded on the north by lands of John McCord, on the south by the lot John Harding lived on, on the east by the river and on the west by lands of Gideon Osterhout. In 1790 he kept a tavern, presumably in Putnam Township, his brother, Stephen Harding, Jr., having one in Exeter the same year. Sept. 5, 1797, John Harding sold to Davis Dimock a certain tract of land in Exeter, bounded on the east by the Susquehanna River, which formerly belonged to John Jenkins, deceased, and, in the heirship following, to Benjamin Jenkins. The consideration named in the quit claim deed was $1.00. This was doubtless the farm owned and occupied by Benjamin Jenkins, the first husband of the wife of John Harding. John Harding removed from Tunkhannock Township to Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa. He acquired possession of Lot 16 and at least part of Lot 17, and there operated the famous "Red Tavern," which is said by some authorities to have been built in 1806, a short distance below the Peter Sharps homestead. He had also bought, Feb. 11, 1805, from John Hadsell 169 acres of Lot 15, which he sold, Aug. 9, 1813, to William Woodbridge. Dec. 26, 1818, he sold Lot 16, 127 perches, on the river, and containing 295 acres and 80 acres of Lot 17 to John Harding, Jr., and Isaac Harding, his sons, who, Aug. 30, 1819, sold to their brother, Hiram, an undivided third interest in Lot 16. Seventy acres of Lot 17 were sold, Sept. 30, 1847, by John and Mary Baldwin to Aaron Brown together with 30 acres of Lot 18. These parcels of land had fallen to Mrs. Mahala Bolles, daughter of John, Jr., and Mahala (Barnum) Harding, and granddaughter of John Harding. The Aaron Brown farm house stood on the River road between the road leading from the River road, through the Montanye neighborhood, to Lockville, and the Harding Cemetery. Isaac Harding kept the "Red Tavern" until Sept. 5, 1839, when he sold "The farm Isaac Harding lives on," 105 acres of Lots 16 and 17, Exeter, to Solomon Brown, who kept the tavern for a number of years. In the deed from Isaac Harding to Solomon Brown there is a reservation of half an acre, on the east side of the road, for reasons and purposes not stated, but which was probably the original Harding Cemetery.

*Gideon Underwood, doubtless a son of Israel Underwood, of Kingston Township, was born in March, 1773, and died, in Kingston, Dec. 16, 1859. With his wife, Sarah (Brown) Underwood, born in Feb., 1780, died May 25, 1854, he is buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. Some of their children were: 1, Sarah Ann, born Aug., 1802, died May 23, 1833, married to Christopher Buskirk; 2, William, married to Margaret, born June 27, 1807, died July 18, 1896, daughter of Belding and Sally (Gay) Swetland, (Family No. 3—Swetland); 3, Lyman, born 1806, died Jan. 12, 1834; 4, Israel, born March 13, 1808, died Dec. 26, 1849; 5, Jesse L., born 1813, died Oct. 28, 1846; 6, Caroline, born July 30, 1815, died Nov. 4, 1850; 7, Dr. Gideon, Jr., born Dec. 3, 1819, died Jan. 30, 1896, married to Martha Newman; 8, Jane, born 1823, died Aug. 19, 1847.

The children of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins Harding were (order of birth not certain): 1, John J., born Feb. 11, 1789, died April 23, 1832; 2, Isaac, born about 1791; 3, Affa, born Jan. 7, 1795, died Aug. 23, 1841, married to Colonel Abel, born July 24, 1782, died Dec. 27, 1850, son of Zebulon and Jerusha (Conant) Marcy, (Family No. 1001—Marcy); 4, Celinda, born Sept. 6, 1796, died Sept. 13, 1853, married, Jan. 23, 1817, by David Perkins, Esq., to Elisha, born Dec. 24, 1793, died July 23, 1858, son of Peter Harris, (Family No. 1021—Harris), (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.); 5, George, born about 1797, living in 1851; 6, Hiram, married to Hannah, daughter of James and Christian (Richards) Harding (see foot note later), three of whose little children, who died in June, 1832, are buried in Harding Cemetery, Exeter, viz.: i, Caroline, died in June, 1832, aed. 5 years; ii, Martha, died June 21, 1832, aed. 3 years, 10 months; iii, Nehemiah, died in June, 1832, aged 2 years; 7, Harry, born 1801, died March 18, 1868. John Harding and his wife, who was born about 1761 and died March 23, 1832, are buried in the Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.

VI. (1). John, Jr., son of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins-Harding, was born Feb. 11, 1789, and died April 23, 1832. He was married (1), Dec. 30, 1810, to Mahala, born about 1791, died April 4, 1813, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), daughter of Stephen and Ruth Barnum. (Family No. 1001—Barnum.) Their daughter, Mahala, born about 1813, died Nov. 21, 1883, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), was married to Dr. A. H. Bolles. John Harding, Jr., was married (2) to Mary, daughter of Major Isaac and Elizabeth (Patrick) Slocum, (Family No. 1001—Slocum), and their children were: 1, Zura; 2, Harriet; 3, Isaac Slocum; 4, John; 5, William B., born Oct. 17, 1837, died Oct. 8, 1897, married, Jan., 1861, to Mrs. Cynthia Vosburg, daughter of John Ward, who was born July 28, 1823, and died July 18, 1900 (Sunny Side Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.); 6, Elizabeth, born Feb. 15, 1830, died July 1, 1832, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.). John Harding, Jr., is buried in Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa. His widow, Mrs. Mary (Slocum) Harding, was married (2) to Lord N. Reid, born Dec. 4, 1806, died Feb. 16, 1852. (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.)

VI. (2). Isaac, son of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins-Harding, was born about 1791, and was married to Nancy, daughter of James and Christian (Richards) Harding.* They settled in Exeter, when Isaac Harding and his brother, John, Jr.,

*An Isaac S. Harding was married to Elvira, daughter of Oliver Payne. She died at Gibson, Pa., in Nov., 1848. Harriet E. Harding, of Exeter, was married, Aug. 9, 1841, to Silas E. Craig. A John Harding, born Jan. 25, 1818, died April 27, 1905, and his two wives, Margaret, born Feb. 25, 1815, died Sept. 25, 1856, and Mary A., born March 20, 1810, died April 8, 1894, are buried in Light Street Cemetery, near Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa.

IV. (4). Thomas Harding, born May 16, 1727, died Feb. 20, 1804, was the fourth son of Captain Stephen Harding of Warwick, R. I., and New London, Conn. He was married, bought, Dec. 26, 1818, from their father, John Harding, Lot 16 and 80 acres of Lot 17. He was commissioned, Dec. 15, 1818, a Justice of the Peace and from 1825 to 1828 was one of the Commissioners of Luzerne Co. Sept. 5, 1839, he sold his farm, 105 acres of Lots 16 and 17,* Exeter, including the Red Tavern, which he kept for a number of years, to Solomon Brown (Family No. 1328—Brown) of Pittston, Pa. He reserved "one-half acre on the east side of the road," which was probably the original Harding Cemetery. About 1846 Isaac Harding and several of his children removed to Paw Paw Grove, Lee Co., Ill. He served as one of the Judges of the County Court of Lee Co. He died there in 1854. Some of the children of Isaac and Nancy (Harding) Harding were (order of birth not certain): 1, Isaac B., born Dec., 1812, died Sept. 3, 1819; 2, Lester, married, April 28, 1842, to Jerusha, daughter of Jonathan Hall, removed to Lee Co., Ill.; 3, Caroline, born April 3, 1816, died July 20, 1820; 4, Nancy, married, Nov. 2, 1840, by Elder John Miller, to William, son of John and Mary (Gardner) Thompson, of Abington, Pa., (Family No. 14—Gardner-Thompson); 5, John, born July, 1823, died June 5, 1826; 6, James, born Jan. 21, 1825, died Sept. 5, 1842; 7, Hon. Garrick Mallory, born July 12, 1827, died May 19, 1904, married, Oct. 12, 1852, at Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., to Maria Miller Slosson, born 1829, died 1887, (see History Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys, Kulp's Wyoming Valley Families and Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre); 8, Lucy, born March 18, 1829, died July 3, 1832. Isaac (2) removed to Lee Co., Ill. The children of Isaac Harding,† who died

March 29, 1745, to Mary, daughter of Jeremiah and Mary Richards‡ of Waterford, Conn., (see the Pittston Hardings), and they were parents of nine children of whom James, born March 11, 1762, was the fifth. (Bib.-69.)

III. (5). James, son of Thomas and Mary (Richards) Harding, was born March 11, 1762, and was married to his cousin, Christian Richards. They removed from Waterford, Conn., to Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1807. Mrs. Christian (Richards) Harding was born in April, 1772, and died Sept. 10, 1831. James Harding and his wife are buried in Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa. Their children were (order of birth not certain): Rev. Charles, living in La Salle Co., Ills., about 1836; 2, Lucy, born Nov. 6, 1798, died Feb. 25, 1826, (Centermoreland Cemetery, Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa.), married to Henry H., son of Jehiel Fuller of Northmoreland, Pa., (Family No. 1010—Fuller) whose children were: (1), Nancy, married to Samuel, born Feb. 6, 1805, died July, 1876, son of Jonathan and Mary (Jameson) Hunlock, (Family No. 992—Hunlock), lived in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa.; (2), Caroline, died, aged 67 years, married to Dr. John C. Morris of Northmoreland, Pa., who died, aged 84 years; (3), Mary, married to William H. Butler, of Wyoming Township, Stark Co., Ill., in 1848; (4), Isaac, who was a mariner, whereabouts not known in 1848; 3, Daniel, born Dec. 16, 1801, died April 17, 1880, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.), married (1), Dec. 2, 1831, to Nancy, born Aug. 22, 1813, died July 12, 1848, daughter of Gould and Mary Whitlock, (Family No. 994—Lee—Whitlock), married (2) to Nancy, born Oct. 27, 1829, died May 17, 1858, daughter of Ashbel and Hannah (Wilson) Lee, (Family No. 994—Lee), married (3) to Abigail, born Nov. 16, 1811, died April 15, 1885, daughter of George and Phebe (Harris) Sutton, (Family No. 1021—Sutton); 4, James, born May 13, 1804, died Oct. 25, 1875, and his wife, Hannah S., born April 20, 1805, died April 18, 1866, are buried in Gravel Hill Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.; 5, Hannah, married to Hiram, son of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins—Harding, living in La Salle Co., Ill., in 1835; 6, Nancy, married to Isaac, son of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins—Harding, removed to Paw Paw Grove, Lee Co., Ill.; 7, Eliza, born about 1806, died July 19, 1839, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.), married to George, son of George and Phebe (Harris) Sutton. (Family No. 1021—Sutton.)

*Lot 14 in Exeter was owned by James Sutton and on this lot or the adjoining lot he built with James Hadsell the first grist mill in Exeter Township. (See Family No. 43—Sutton.) Lot 15 in Exeter was owned by James Hadsell (see Family No. 992—Hadsell), and is the lot on which Sutton's Creek enters the Susquehanna River. The island, opposite this lot, probably also belonged to him. Lot 16 in Exeter was a Gardner lot, of which Thomas Gardner was the owner of at least half in 1800. A few years later it was owned by John Harding. Lot 17 in Exeter was, evidently, owned originally by Stephen Harding, Jr., or Stephen, Sr. It was owned, Jan. 6, 1795, by Benjamin Kinyon of Clinton, Dutchess Co., N. Y., who on that day deeded it, for a consideration of love and good will and affection to his loving son, Comfort Kinyon, of Exeter, Pa. The lot is described as bounded on the south by Thomas Gardner's land, and on the north by lands of Stephen Harding, and lay 120 rods along the river and 100 chains deep. March 28, 1799, Benjamin and Rhoda Kinyon and Comfort Kinyon sold 50 acres, adjoining Thomas Gardner's lands, to Reuben Culver, who, Sept. 9, 1799, sold it to Joseph Hadsell. Dec. 2, 1795, Comfort Kinyon for a consideration of love he bore for his son, Benjamin Kinyon, deeded to him 100 acres of Lot 17, bounded on the north by lands of Stephen Harding, which, Nov. 18, 1796, Benjamin Kinyon sold to Samuel Hadley. The whole lot was subsequently owned by Thomas Wright, who sold the part lying along the river to Davis Dimock, (180 acres) Dec. 3, 1800. Lot 18 in Exeter was owned originally by Captain Stephen Harding, Sr. The half of it adjoining Lot 17 was owned by Stephen Harding, Jr., and the other half by Israel Harding and Esther (Harding) Bigelow, children of Captain Stephen Harding, Sr.

†Two other children of Isaac and Nancy (Harding) Harding were: Elizabeth G., married to Jacob D., son of Elihu Rogers (Family No. 988—Rogers), and Christiana, married to James, son of Major Ezekiel and Margaret (Thompson) Goble. Both families went to Lee Co., Ill. Mrs. Christiana (Harding) Goble lost her life in a bridge disaster at Dixon, Ill., May 4, 1873. (Bib.-327.)

in childhood, are buried in Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa. Hon. Garrick Mallory Harding and his wife are buried in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

VI. (5). George, son of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins-Harding, was married (1) to Mary, born in Nov., 1799, died Feb. 20, 1833, (Gardner Memorial Cemetery, Ransom, Pa.), daughter of John and Mary (Heron) Gardner. (Family No. 988—Gardner.) He was married (2) to Mary D. ———, whose will, made in Tunkhannock, Pa., Sept. 9, 1851, and probated there March 1, 1860, names her husband, George Harding, executor of her estate. She bequeathed half of her estate to her children, Eliza T. Harding, Thomas G. Harding and Jeremiah S. Harding, and to her children, Samuel, Fanny and Lucy. (Perhaps children by a former marriage.) The other half of her estate she bequeathed to the children of her husband, George Harding. She gave to her husband, George Harding, the use of her farm and mansion house.

ARCHIBALD CARVER SHOEMAKER, D. D. S.; FAMILIES NOS. 993—(992)

Archibald Carver, son of Samuel Raub and Mary Jane (Carver) Shoemaker, was born at Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 18, 1869. He attended the public school at Wyoming and later entered Keystone Academy at Factoryville, Pa. He was graduated Doctor of Dental Surgery by the University of Maryland in the class of 1889. He established himself in the practice of the dental profession in Pittston, Pa., but remained a resident of Wyoming, Pa., for a number of years. He served his native town as Auditor, Councilman, three terms; President of the Council six years. Since he removed to West Pittston, Pa., he has served six years as School Director. He is a Republican and has served as Delegate to District, County and State Conventions. He served as a Director of the People's Savings Bank of Pittston for a number of years and until that bank was consolidated with the Union Savings and Trust Company. He is now the Vice President of the People's Union Savings Bank of Pittston, and has served since the consolidation. He is Secretary, Treasurer and General Manager of the Kewanee Home Telephone Company of Kewanee, Ill., Trustee of the Wyoming Methodist Episcopal Church and Trustee and Treasurer of the Cemetery Association of Wyoming. He is a member of the Pennsylvania State Dental Society, the Susquehanna Dental Society, the Sons of the Revolution, the New England Society, the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Lodge 468, F. and A. M., Wyoming, Pa., and of the Beneficial and Protective Order of Elks.

Dr. Archibald Carver Shoemaker was married, Jan. 10, 1895, to Mary, daughter of James Dean and Martha M. (Searl) Green. Their two children are: 1, James, born Jan., 1897, died early, and Archibald, Jr., born Aug. 21, 1901. Their home is in West Pittston, Pa.

THE GREEN FAMILY

I. John Green came to America from England about 1630 and resided in Narragansett and Kingston, R. I. He died about 1692-5. He was married to Joanna ———, and they had at least five children.

II. Benjamin, son of John and Joanna Green, was born about 1665 and died in 1719. He was married to Humility Coggeshall, about 1687. They had 12 children, two of whom were Henry, born about 1696, and Deborah, who was married, Sept. 18, 1729, to William, son of James and Mary (Green) Reynolds. (Family No. 1010—Reynolds.)

III. (5). Henry, fifth child of Benjamin and Humility (Coggeshall) Green, was born about 1696, and lived in East and West Greenwich, R. I. He was married, May 15, 1724, to Margaret Rathbone, born Nov. 29, 1700, daughter of Joseph Rathbone. He died Feb. 28, 1743, the father of 11 children.

IV. (4). Benjamin, fourth child of Henry and Margaret (Rathbone) Green, born July 17, 1729, lived at East and West Greenwich and Exeter, R. I., was married, Sept. 21, 1752, to Mehetable, daughter of Captain Job Tripp, (Family No. 1001—Tripp), and their son, Benjamin, was the eighth of their children.

V. (8). Benjamin, Jr., son of Benjamin and Mehetable (Tripp) Green, was born in Exeter, R. I., Aug. 13, 1764, and died in Benton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 22, 1855. He was married, in Jan., 1787, to Joanna Reynolds, born Dec. 11, 1769, died in Benton, Pa., April 4, 1849, and their children were: 1, Dr. Henry, born 1788, died Nov. 28, 1825, married to Almira Gardner; 2, John, died, aged 2 years; 3, Sally, born 1794, died Dec. 6, 1858, married to Washington Halstead; 4, Polly, born 1796, died April 11, 1856, married to John Raymond; 5, Robert, born 1798, died March, 1864, married to Melissa Rice; 6, William, born 1799, died Oct. 16, 1885, married, Oct. 26, 1823, to Celinda Capwell; 7, Hiram, born July 8, 1801, died March 3, 1870, married, Jan. 18, 1829, to Eliza Dean, (Dean family later); 8, Lyman, born 1804, married (1) to Amy Capwell, married (2) to Mary Chase; 9, Nancy, born 1805, died Nov., 1803, married to William Dean; 10, Murray, born 1807, died June 4, 1829; 11, Alanson, married to Sybil Dean; 12, Devillo, died in infancy.

VI. (7). Hiram, son of Benjamin and Joanna (Reynolds) Green, was born in Luzerne Co., Pa., July 8, 1801, and died at Factoryville, Pa., March 3, 1870. He was married, Jan. 18, 1829, to Eliza, born July 10, 1805, daughter of James and Catharine (Tripp) Dean, (Family No. 1001—Tripp), and their children were: 1, Henry Judson, born Feb. 21, 1828, died July 1, 1864; 2, Catharine D., born Aug. 8, 1829, died Jan. 5, 1881; 3, Candace R., born Sept. 2, 1831, died Nov. 3, 1859; 4, James Dean, born April 26, 1834, (see later); 5, Alena Alida, born May 21, 1836, died Oct. 17, 1853; 6, Melbourne, born April 16, 1839, died March 6, 1856; 7, William Davis, born Nov. 15, 1841; 8, Anna Maria, born Oct. 12, 1842, died May 31, 1889; 9, Laura E., born Oct. 8, 1849, died in Oct., 1896.

VII. (4). James Dean, son of Hiram and Eliza (Dean) Green, was born in Benton Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 26, 1834, and was married (1), Oct. 31, 1861, to Fannie, born July 20, 1839, died July 12, 1867, daughter of Jesse Barber and Eliza Jane (Breese) Schooley. (Family No. 1314—Schooley.) In March, 1855, he went to Wyoming, Pa., where he was first employed by William Swetland and Company and later by Thomas F. Atherton, merchant. In 1859 he established a partnership with Stephen J. Sharps in the proprietorship of the Atherton store, at Wyoming. John Sharps succeeded Stephen J. Sharps, as a member of the firm, at the end of the first year. The new firm continued in business for six years, when Mr. Green became the sole owner. He remained a merchant, at Wyoming, until about 1878. Later he engaged in business with his brother, William D. Green. He was Secretary of the Pittston Machine Co. for six years and afterwards engaged in the insurance business. He was a member and an official of the Wyoming Presbyterian Church and an active member of the Wyoming Commemorative Association. He was married (2) to Martha M., born May 29, 1838, daughter of John and Mary (Stark) Searle. (Family No. 1016—Stark.) (Searle family later.) To James Dean and Fannie (Schooley) Green one daughter, Clara, was born, Jan. 29, 1863. She was married, June 15, 1887, to Henry M. Ives, and their daughter, Lomie, was born May 11, 1889. To James Dean and Martha M. (Searle) Green one daughter, Mary, was born, April 12, 1870. She was married, Jan. 10, 1895, to Dr. Archibald Carver, son of Samuel R. and Mary Jane (Carver) Shoemaker. James Dean and Martha M. (Searle) Green also had a son, James Searle, born June 17, 1882, died Aug. 5, 1882. The family burial plot is in Forty Fort, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. (In part Bib.-59.)

The name of Benjamin Green, probably son of Henry and Margaret (Rathbone) Green, appears as that of a Grantee on the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754, conveying Wyoming lands to the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn.

THE DEAN FAMILY

I. Walter Dean, born in Chard, England, 1615-20, took the Freeman's Oath in Massachusetts, Dec. 4, 1638. He was married to Eleanor, daughter of Richard Strong, of Taunton, England, and their children were: 1, Joseph; 2, Ezra; 3, Benjamin; 4, James.

II. (4). James, son of Walter and Eleanor (Strong) Dean, died May 29, 1725. His widow died April 26, 1726.

III. Jonathan, son of James Dean, was baptised, April 2, 1693. He was married, Jan. 17, 1716, to Sarah Douglass.

IV. Captain Ezra, son of Jonathan and Sarah (Douglass) Dean, was born at Plainfield, Conn., Nov. 18, 1718, and died Dec. 14, 1806. He was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and was one of the original Settlers at Wyoming in 1762. His name also appears in the List of Settlers of June 2, 1769, and July 15, 1771. He was married four times. His last wife was Phebe Waterman, to whom he was married April 20, 1774.

V. Jonathan, son of Captain Ezra Dean,* was born July 9, 1741, and died Aug. 2, 1822. He was also an early settler at Wyoming, his name appearing in Mr. Harvey's List of the First Forty Settlers in 1769. (Bib.-1.) It also appears in the List of the Proprietors of the Five Townships, June 17, 1770, and in the List of Settlers at Wyoming in May, 1772. He doubtless lived on Lot No. 2, one lot removed from the Kingston-Exeter line, in Exeter Township. In a deed of April 25, 1794, by which David and Lucy (Gore) Murphy-Smith (Family No. 35—David Smith) conveyed part of this lot to David Smith, Jr., it is described as having been sold to David Smith by Jonathan Dean, Esq., of Rhode Island. The name of Ezra Dean appears as prosecutor, May 28, 1795, in a civil suit against David Smith, and the name of Jonathan Dean appears in a similar case, in the Nov. term, of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne Co., Pa. Jonathan Dean was married to Mary Davis, and their children were: 1, Ezra, born Feb. 15, 1776, died July 29, 1862; 2, Sybil, born April 14, 1777, died Feb. 10, 1842; 3, Abigail, born June 28, 1778, died Jan. 21, 1842; 4, James, born May 7, 1780, (see later); 5, Jeffrey born Sept. 16, 1781, died Jan. 29, 1871.

VI. (4). James, son of Jonathan and Mary (Davis) Dean, born May 7, 1780, was married, Dec. 28, 1803, to Catharine, daughter of Isaac, Jr., and Martha (Wall) Tripp, (Family No. 1001—Tripp) and their children were: 1, Eliza, born July 10, 1805, married, Jan. 18, 1829, to Hiram, son of Benjamin and Joanna (Reynolds) Green, (see above); 2, Anna Maria, born Dec. 5, 1807; 3, Isaac, born June 9, 1811, married to Polly S. Hermans, born July 21, 1820, died July 8, 1868; 4, Nelson N., born July 11, 1814, married, April 25, 1850, to Clarissa Dayton, daughter of John and Mary (Stark) Searl (Family No. 1016—Stark, No. 993—Searl), whose children were: (1), James E., born Sept. 13, 1851; (2), Willis Leonard, born June 1, 1857, a noted Wyoming Valley, Pa., educator and head of the Wyoming College of Business, Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., who was married, June 20, 1878, to Mary, daughter of Philip M. and Eliza (Grosvenor) Goodwin, (Family No. 1230—Goodwin); 5, Laura W., born Sept. 25, 1817; 6, Amasa, born March 27, 1819; 7, Myron, born Nov. 7, 1822; 8, Mary Anna, born Nov. 6, 1824. (In part Bib.-59.)

THE SEARL FAMILY

I. Robert and Deborah (Salter) Searl had a son, II, Nathaniel Searl, who was born June 9, 1662, (1670) and died Feb. 5, 1750, (Feb. 15, 1743.) He was married, in 1694, to Sarah, born March 19, 1677 (March 9, 1769), died Jan. 19, 1770, (Jan. 20, 1769), daughter of John and Elizabeth (Pabodie) Rogers. They settled in Little Compton, Kent Co., R. I., where four of their children were born: 1, Deborah, born Nov. 17, 1695, died in May, 1776, married, Feb. 20, 1717, to George Pearce; 2, John, born March 12, 1698, drowned March 20, 1714; 3, Sarah, born April 2, 1700, married, June 28, 1725, to Thomas Dring; 4, Nathaniel, Jr., born April 26, 1703, died Dec. 8, 1781, who was married, in Dec., 1725, to Elizabeth Kennecutt, born about 1701, died Dec. 11, 1781, and whose children, all born in Little Compton, R. I., were: (1), John, born Aug. 24, 1726; (2), Constant, born June 17, 1728, killed in the battle of Wyoming, Pa., July 3, 1778; (3), Daniel, born Sept. 8, 1730, married, in 1754, to Mary ———,

*The names of Josiah Dean, Jr., Seth, John, Elijah and Jabez Dean appear as those of Grantees in the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754, conveying title to Wyoming lands to the Susquehanna Company. The names of Simeon and Ephraim Dean also appear in that deed as half share Grantees.

three of whose children were: (i), Betsey, born June 15, 1755; (ii), Sarah, born May 5, 1757; (iii), Joel, born Feb. 6, 1759; (4), Betsey, born June 3, 1732, married, Nov. 19, 1754, to Moses Atwell; (5), Sarah, born Jan. 28, 1733, married, Jan. 30, 1758, to Grindell Runnels; (6), Nathaniel (3d), born Dec. 25, 1735; (7), James, born Oct. 5, 1737; (8), Ruth, born Sept. 12, 1740, died Oct. 22, 1740; (9), Comfort, born June 11, 1742.

IV. Constant, son of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Kennebunk) Searl, born at Little Compton, R. I., June 18, 1728, was married, May 16, 1751, to Hannah, daughter of Simeon and Hannah (Wheeler) Miner. (See History of Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys, p. 423, Vol. I, for "Mayflower lineage" of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl.) Constant Searl removed to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and settled in Kingston District of the Town of Westmoreland, then Litchfield Co., Conn. His name and that of his son, William, appear on the Westmoreland Tax List for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and his name appears on the Wyoming Monument. Some of the children of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl were (order of birth not known to writer): 1, William, born Dec. 2, 1751, died Jan. 17, 1817, (Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.); 2, Elizabeth; 3, Miner, married to Sarah, daughter of David and Susannah Brown, (Family No. 1328—Brown); 4, Constant, Jr., born Oct. 7, 1759, died Aug. 4, 1804; 5, Roger, born Aug. 13, 1762.

V. (1). William, son of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl, born at Stonington, Conn., Dec. 2, 1751, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and was a taxpayer in Kingston District of the Town of Westmoreland, in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was married to Philena, or Philomena, Frink and some of their children were (order of birth not certain): 1, Abigail, born July 25, 1779, died June 2, 1842, married to Stephen, born April 19, 1771, died July 22, 1853, son of John and Alice (Fuller) Abbott, (Family No. 35—Abbott); 2, William, Jr., married to Mary ———, born about 1782, died at Plains, Pa., Feb. 12, 1829, whose son, Cornelius, was born about 1805, and died June 14, 1829; 3, Hannah, born July 9, 1782, died May 14, 1862, married, April 8, 1810, by Cornelius Cortright, Esq., to Henry L. C. Van Storch of Scranton, Pa.; 4, Hon. Corrington removed to Ohio, where he became a Judge of the Courts; 5, Philena, died Dec. 8, 1833, married, as second wife, to Elisha Blackman, 2d,*; 6, Henry Luther, married to Nancy Buchanan, born Aug. 28, 1800, died April 3, 1874, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), whose son, James, born in Greenfield Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 12, 1820, died June 7, 1887, was married to Elizabeth Furnam, born Sept. 29, 1830, died Sept. 16, 1906, and whose daughter, Elizabeth, born in May, 1831, died Feb. 14, 1904, was married to William Porteus, born in June, 1824, died Dec. 17, 1889, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery).

V. (2). Elizabeth, born about 1753, daughter of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl, was married (1) to Captain Dethick, born in 1752, (?) son of Walter and Hebsibah (Deathick) Hewitt.† Captain Dethick Hewitt commanded a small company of Scouts who went up the Susquehanna River, from the Wyoming Valley, June 26, 1778, returning June 30 with the report "that a large party of the enemy was slowly advancing towards the valley." (Bib.-1.) He was the Captain of a company of men recruited in the Wyoming Valley for service in the Connecticut Continental Line and commanded this company, which was stationed on the extreme right, in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. "Near the close of the conflict one of Captain Hewitt's officers said to him: "The day is lost; see the Indians are sixty rods in our rear?" "Shall we retreat?" "I'll be damned if I do," was his answer.

*Elisha Blackman, born Dec. 15, 1791, died Oct. 17, 1881, son of Ichabod, born March 24, 1762, died April, 1798, and Elizabeth (Franklin) Blackman was born in Sheshequin, now Bradford Co., Pa. He removed to the Wyoming Valley and was married (1) to Mary, daughter of Miner and Sarah (Brown) Searl. (Family No. 1328—Brown.) Their children were: 1, Miner Searl, born Aug. 14, 1815, died May 26, 1848, married, in 1843, to Ann Elizabeth Drake, of Wilkes-Barre; 2, Frances Searl, born April 20, 1817, died March, 1882, married, in 1848, to Dr. Avery Knapp, born May 25, 1815, died Oct. 4, 1896, (Family No. 988—Knapp); 3, Charles R., born March 28, 1819; 4, Harvey C., born Sept. 28, 1821. He was married (2), March 31, 1825, by Elder Joel Rogers, to Philena Searl, and their children were: 5, Cornelius Searl, born Jan. 12, 1826; 6, Mary H., born Aug. 26, 1827; 7, Elizabeth F., born Feb. 6, 1831. He was married (3), in 1836, to Sarah, born 1796, died Nov. 10, 1858, daughter of Eleazer and Martha (Kanaan) Atherton, (Family No. 992—Atherton) and their son, Thomas Atherton Blackman, was born April 23, 1838. (Bib.-1.)

†Captain Dethick Hewitt came to the Wyoming Valley before 1776, and was a member of the company of men who, at Forty Fort, March 6, 1776, petitioned the Continental Congress and volunteered to enlist in "the common cause as soldiers in the defense of liberty." (See Harvey's Wilkes-Barre, p. 870.) His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists in 1776, 1777 and 1778 as a resident of Kingston District.

"Drummer, strike up," he then cried, and strove in vain to rally his men. Thus he fought, and there he fell. (See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, pp. 986, 1004, 1016, and Miner's History of Wyoming.) The children of Captain Dethick and Elizabeth (Searl) Hewitt were: 1, Isaac, married to Mary, daughter of John Phillips (Family No. 1009—Phillips), who was appointed Constable in Pittston in 1801–2–3, and was deceased before Aug. 12, 1808, when his wife, Mary Hewitt, and her father, John Phillips, were appointed administrators of his estate. He was survived by his widow and six children, one of whom was born Nov. 8, 1808. According to Dr. Hayden (Bib.-48) three of his children were: 1, Dethick; 2, Grace; 3, John. Mrs. Mary (Phillips) Hewitt, in 1811, lived in a log house standing upon one acre of ground, which was bounded on the west by the highway leading from Benedict's tavern, in Pittston, to Wright's Forge, and April 13, 1811, with John Phillips, as administrator, sold this lot, with other lands, to William Searle. She was married (2) to ——— Purdy; 2, Daniel, married to ———, according to Dr. Hayden (Bib.-48) had two sons, Isaac and George. Feb. 15, 1796, he bought from Archibald Bowen of Pittston one-quarter of Lot No. 44, First Division, adjoining Major Baldwin's lot and the one acre lot of Isaac Hewitt (see above), also the lands of Seth Carey. Nov. 26, 1796, he bought from Archibald Bowen 23 acres of Lot No. 46, Pittston, adjoining on the east and south lands of John Benedict, also adjoining lands of Ishmael Bennett. He was deceased before March 11, 1800, when John Phillips was appointed administrator of his estate with Isaac Hewitt and Jonathan Harris on his bond in $600; 3, Elizabeth, married, March 1, 1798, to James, son of Benjamin and Mary (Ferrier) Carpenter, (Family No. 14—Carpenter) who removed to Franklin, later Delaware, Co., Ohio. According to Dr. Hayden (Bib.-343) some of the children of James and Elizabeth (Hewitt) Carpenter were: Isaac, Elizabeth, and Daniel. The will of James Carpenter was made at Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, Oct. 8, 1821, and was probated, at Delaware, Ohio, Jan. 23, 1823. It names his wife, Betsey, whom he appointed executor, his oldest son Benjamin Owens, his eldest daughter, Esther, his son John, and his three daughters, Eliza, Harriet and Mary, the last three not 20 years of age, Oct. 8, 1821. Benjamin Carpenter was appointed administrator of the estate of Captain Dethick Hewitt, Jan. 27, 1789, with Benjamin Smith and Samuel Finch on his bond in £200. Jan. 5, 1795, Isaac, Daniel and Elizabeth Hewitt sold to Azor Sturdevant and Joseph Wescott, of Braintrim, 300 acres of land in Braintrim "drawn by our honored father, Dethick Hewitt." This tract of land is described as lying on the south side of the (Susquehanna) river, and adjoining lands of David Young. The date of this deed suggests that the youngest child of Captain Dethick and Elizabeth (Searle) Hewitt was born before Jan. 5, 1774. April 5, 1796, Azor, Abijah and Noah Sturdevant sold to Asa Stevens and Joel Downing for £200, Lot called No. 27, in Braintrim lying on the west side of the Susquehanna River, opposite Sugar Island. The boundaries included the mouth of Sugar Creek. This lot is described as having been "set out for the heirs of Dethick Hewitt."

Mrs. Elizabeth (Searle) Hewitt was married (2) to Ishmael, Jr., born about 1760, died Aug. 29, 1844, son of Ishmael Bennett. (Family No. 1016—Bennett.) Dec. 30, 1798, he lived on Meadow Lot No. 12, Pittston, or on a lot adjoining it, when he bought from James Brown, Jr., one acre of Meadow Lot No. 12. Among his other holdings of Pittston real estate was Lot No. 44, First Division, of which he sold 80 acres to Zenus Barnum, Oct. 17, 1829. (Family No. 1001—Barnum.) Ishmael Bennett, Jr., was married (2) to Amanda, daughter of William Belcher of Pittston, and May 27, 1835, David Belcher and his wife, Deborah, Francis Belcher, Henry Belcher and Amanda Belcher, wife of Ishmael Bennett, heirs of William Belcher, sold to Zenus Barnum ten acres of land in Pittston. He was a blacksmith and, for about 73 years, was a resident of Pittston. His will was made in Pittston, Aug. 26, 1844, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 30, 1844. It provided that he should be "buried in the burying ground near A. Brown's, and named his wife Amanda, to whom he gave his house and shop, and the following children, named in this order: 1, Margaret; 2, Thomas; 3, John; 4, Sarah (Bennett) Fell, probably born about 1793, died Nov. 13, 1845, married to Hugh Fell, born 1781, died Dec. 26, 1851, buried in Mosier Cemetery, Pittston, Pa., (Family No. 1334—Fell); 5, Clarrysey (Bennett) Fitch, probably married to Gideon Fitch, born about 1771, died Feb. 17, 1843, (Fitch Cemetery, Lockville, Pa.). (Family No. 1334—Fitch.) It also named three grandchildren, John McCoy, William McCoy and Elizabeth McCoy, and appointed his wife, Amanda, and Harris Jenkins executors. Dr. Horace E. Hayden, Wilkes-Barre, furnished to Dr. Egle (Bib.-48) the names of the children of Ishmael, Jr., and Elizabeth (Searle) Bennett, as follows: (1), Raymond; (2), John; (3), Sally; (4), Celestia; (5), Clarissa; (6), Isabella.

V. (3). Miner, son of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl, was married to Sarah, daughter of David and Susannah Brown. (Family No. 1328—Brown.) One of their daughters, Mary, was married to Elisha Blackman 2d as his first wife. Mrs. Sarah (Brown) Searl was living in Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, Oct. 18, 1852.

V. (4). Constant, Jr., son of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl, was born Oct. 7, 1759, and died, in Providence, Pa., Aug. 4, 1804. He was married to Lindeniah or Celinda Miller. (See Family No. 1009—Miller.) Constant Searl and Cynda, or Lynda, Searl signed, as witnesses, a deed of March 12, 1800, Jacob Lutz to Ebenezer Marcy. Nov. 1, 1792, Constant Searl sold to Noah Hicks for £10, one-half of a proprietor's right in the Susquehanna Purchase, situated in Putnam Township, and which had been "Legally entered unto the said Searl by Zebulon Marcy, clerk of said town." Daniel Gould and Lindeniah Searle were witnesses. Constant Searle, Jr., was a member of the company of men who assembled at Forty Fort in Kingston District, March 6, 1776, and petitioned the Continental Congress, and tendered their services as "soldiers in the defense of liberty." (Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, p. 870.) He was also a member of Captain Samuel Ransom's Second Independent Company of Westmoreland, serving in the Connecticut Continental Line in the American Revolution, and later of the Company of Captain Simon Spalding into which the companies of Captain Robert Durkee and Captain Samuel Ransom were consolidated. He served as a member of the Luzerne Co. Grand Jury in Sept., 1788, and in 1791, was appointed with Job Tripp, Jedediah Hoyt, Daniel Taylor and James Abbott, to view and lay out roads in Lackawanna Township. In 1793 he served as Major of the Second Regiment of Luzerne County Militia. Sept. 20, 1795, Constant Searle, Daniel Taylor and James Abbott, Committee of the Proprietors of Providence Township, executed a deed to the Rev. William Bishop, of the city and state of New York, of "Lands assigned and appropriated by the Susquehanna Company, to the use and benefit of the first settled Minister of the Gospel in said town. This deed was authorized at a meeting held in Providence, Sept. 17, 1795. Six parcels of land, containing about 400 acres were thus conveyed to the Rev. Mr. Bishop. Preserved Taylor, Jonathan Dolph, James Abbott, Reuben Taylor and Stephen Gardner are named as owning lands adjoining various of these lots deeded to Mr. Bishop. Thomas Smith and Benjamin Smith were witnesses. In 1804 Constant Searle, Jr., was assessed as a Justice of the Peace and as owning 160 acres of land in Providence. His home was on Lot No. 4, Providence, adjoining, in 1814, lands of Reuben Taylor and Stephen Griffin, easterly, the Lackawanna River on the south, John Taylor on the west, and the township line on the north. It lies in what was later Hyde Park, now Scranton, Pa., and between the old Briggs Shaft and the Oxford Colliery. It was sold Nov. 1, 1814, by Elijah Shoemaker, Sheriff, at the suit of Asa Dimock versus Constant Searl, to Roger Searl, who, Jan. 2, 1816, sold it to Henry Von Storch. His heirs, all named in the deed, Elijah Shoemaker to Roger Searl, were: Robert Gould, Sarah Hart, Lois Searl, Constant Searl (3d), Ruth Searl, Lyman Searl, and Celinda Searl. Constant Searle, Jr., died Aug. 4, 1804. His widow, Mrs. Celinda (or Lindeniah) (Miller) Searle, was married, in 1806, to Mr. Cherrytree. Some of the children of Constant, Jr., and Celinda (Miller) Searle were: 1, Probably a daughter, (perhaps Lindeniah), married to Gould, (perhaps Daniel), had a son, Robert Gould; 2, Sarah, married, as second wife, in May, 1808, to Jacob Hart, High Sheriff of Luzerne Co., Pa., born about 1767, died Aug. 24, 1811, who is buried beside his first wife, Agnes, born Aug. 22, 1767, died Jan. 29, 1805, daughter of William Robinson, (in the City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.). His son, John, born July 15, 1794, died Nov. 26, 1800, is buried on the same lot; 3, Constant (3d); 4, Lois, born about 1794, died Jan. 16, 1829, married, Jan. 7, 1816, to John, born Oct. 11, 1790, died May 16, 1830, son of Cornelius and Catharine (Kennedy) Cortright, (Family No. 35—Cortright); 5, Ruth, married Feb. 5, 1824, to John, Jr., born 1799, son of John, born about 1763, died Aug. 4, 1837, and Elizabeth (Ross) Gore, born June, 1764, died Sept. 23, 1838, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery) of Kingston Township; 6, Lyman; 7, perhaps Celinda.

V. (5). Roger, son of Constant and Hannah (Miner) Searl, was born Aug. 13, 1762. He was married to Catharine, daughter of John and Mehetable (Carey) Scott of Pittston District. Roger Searl was appointed Constable for Pittston (Lackawanna) in 1792 and in 1793, was Captain of the Eighth Company of the Second Regiment of Luzerne County Militia. He owned Lot No. 27 of the Second

Tier in Pittston, Feb. 1, 1793, when he sold it to John Benedict, who, Nov. 16, 1797, sold it to Dr. Nathaniel Giddings. He also owned one-half of Lot No. 46, of the 100 acre lots in Pittston and one-quarter of the undivided lands in the township, to be drawn. The children of Roger and Catharine (Scott)* Searle were: 1, Clarissa, born Feb. 13, 1793, died April 1, 1834, married to Joseph Dayton; 2, John, born Feb. 15, 1795, died Aug. 20, 1863, married, Sept. 5, 1822, to Mary, born Feb., 1800, died April, 1891, daughter of Henry Stark, (see later); 3, Daniel, born May 17, 1797, died Oct. 13, 1879, married to Joannah, born Nov. 26, 1805, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Kennedy) Stark, (Family No. 1016—Stark); 4, Elizabeth, born Feb. 18, 1800, died Aug. 26, 1854, married, in 1820, to Solomon, son of David and Susannah Brown, (Family No. 1328—Brown); 5, Mehitabel, born March 13, 1802, died Oct. 20, 1846, married, March 13, 1831, to Thomas Teel; 6, Milton, born Oct. 10, 1804, died Feb., 1868; 7, Leonard, born Nov. 7, 1808, died Dec. 31, 1880, married, Oct. 23, 1832, to Lydia, daughter of Elder Davis and Elizabeth (Jenkins) Dimock, (Family No. 988—Jenkins); 8, Rasalus, born Feb. 1, 1812, died April 25, 1888, married, Jan. 11, 1821, to Anna Cross. Katharine, daughter of Leonard and Lydia (Dimock) Searl, was married to General William H. McCartney.

VI. (2). John, son of Roger and Catharine (Scott) Searl, born Feb. 15, 1795, died Oct. 20, 1863, was married, Sept. 5, 1822, to Mary, born Feb., 1800, died April, 1891, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Kennedy) Stark, and their children were: 1, James S., born July 8, 1823, died Nov. 18, 1863, married to Candace Green, died Nov. 3, 1859; 2, Clarissa Dayton, born Nov. 14, 1824, married to Nelson H. Dean, whose son, James Elmer, was born Sept. 10, 1851, and whose son, Professor Willis L. Dean, principal of the Wyoming College of Business at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., was born Feb. 5, 1857; 3, Kathryn, born July 11, 1827, married, April 24, 1850, to Edwin Williams; 4, Elizabeth M., born Oct. 5, 1829, married, April 25, 1853, to Norman T. Vorse; 5, Ruth Gore, born Jan. 16, 1832, married, Sept. 19, 1854, to James, born Nov. 9, 1831, died Dec. 5, 1914, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), son of Cornelius and Catharine (Kennedy) Cortright, (Family No. 35—Cortright); 6, Mary, born Sept. 13, 1833, died Jan. 24, 1915, married to the Rev. Jonathan K. Peck, Wyoming Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, who was born Dec. 31, 1824, and died Dec. 31, 1899, (Hollenback Cemetery). Their children were: (1), Carrie, born Feb. 28, 1857, married to J. Wood Piatt; (2), Mary A., born Nov. 28, 1861, married, as second wife, to the Rev. Charles Henry Newing, of the Wyoming Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church; (3), Jesse L., born March 28, 1864, married to Jannette Bryden; (4), Ruth C., born Aug. 14, 1873, married to Charles C., son of the Rev. Dr. Manly S. Hard, D. D.; 7, John Roger, born July 30, 1835, Lieutenant in the 58th Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, died at Suffolk, Va., Dec. 13, 1862; 8, Martha M., born Nov. 29, 1838, deceased, married to James D. Green.

*John Scott, whose name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Pittston District in 1777 and 1778, was married to Mehetable Carey, who was probably a daughter of Barnabas Carey. Barnabas Carey came to the Wyoming Valley, Oct. 24, 1771, (Bib.-1) and later settled in Pittston Township. His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Pittston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. In 1777 and 1778 the names of Elihu and Joseph Carey appear on those lists, and in 1792 Seth, Samuel and Benjamin Carey were taxpayers in Lackawanna District, which included Pittston and Providence. John Scott owned considerable real estate in Pittston and is also named as warrantee on a tract of 190 acres in what later became Ransom Township. He bought a 100 acre lot in Pittston from Samuel Slaughter (Slater), an original proprietor of Pittston Township who, with his son, Samuel Slater, Jr., was a taxpayer there in 1776, 1777 and 1778. Samuel Slater, Jr., was deceased in 1792, and Samuel Slater, Sr., lived in Sheffield, Berkshire Co., Mass., Oct. 9, 1787, when he sold several hundred acres of land in Pittston to John Phillips. Of the 100 acre lot John Scott bought from Samuel Slater he deeded three acres to his daughter, Elizabeth, wife of William Hall, and sold 93 acres of it, April 3, 1792, to Briant Robinson, and three acres of it, Aug. 29, 1792, to Robert Faulkner, Jr., together with the right to erect mills. In his will, made in Pittston, Aug. 10, 1806, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 3, 1807, he left his homestead to his son, Joseph, who, with his wife, Sally (Bennett) Scott, sold it to Miner Searle and Jedediah Collings. It was later sold by Aaron Brown and his wife, Hannah, to Richard Brown. (Family No. 1328—Brown.) The children of John and Mehetable (Carey) Scott, named in his will, were: 1, James, assessed in Lackawanna Township in 1792; 2, John; 3, Daniel, assessed in Lackawanna Township in 1792; 4, Mary, married to Joseph Leonard; 5, Susanna, married to Robert Chambers; 6, Elizabeth, married to William Hill; 7, Catharine, married to Roger Searl; 8, Jane, married to Nathan Smith; 9, Sarah, married to Thomas Evans; 10, Joseph, married, March 31, 1806, by Rev. Davis Dimock, to Sally Bennett. He appointed his nephew, John Carey, of Providence, and his son, Joseph Scott, executors.

MARY ALICE SHOEMAKER VAN SCOY; FAMILIES NOS. 994 (987)

Mary Alice, daughter of Isaac Countryman and Catharine Ann (Shoemaker) Shoemaker, was born in New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Oct. 15, 1845, and was baptised, June 18, 1848, by the Rev. Thomas H. Pearne of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She attended the "Shoemaker" School in childhood and later was a student at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Oct., 1861, and, for 56 years, maintained an active interest in the church, and was a member of the Missionary Societies and of the Ladies' Aid Society. She was married, Feb. 8, 1865, by the Rev. John La Bar, to Henry Young, born Feb. 4, 1838, died Aug. 13, 1904, son of Daniel and Lydia (Young) Van Scoy. Their children are: 1, Isaac Shoemaker, born Nov. 30, 1865, and 2, Addie Finch, born Sept. 15, 1869, died Jan. 21, 1871. Mrs. Mary Alice (Shoemaker) Van Scoy died in Kingston, Pa., July 22, 1920.

THE VAN SCOY FAMILY (VAN SCHAACK, VAN SCHAICK, VAN SCOYECK, VAN COIT, VAN SCOIT)

I. Abraham, Peter and Isaac Van Schaack appear to have been the pioneers of that family in the New Netherlands. Abraham settled near or in Albany, N. Y., Peter on the Hudson River, near the site of the city of Hudson, and Isaac in the vicinity of Oyster Bay, Long Island. (Bib.-177.)

II. Eda Van Scoy, who was, apparently, a son of Isaac Van Schaack, was a farmer and lived in Oyster Bay, Queens Co., Long Island. The name of his wife was Mary, and he was survived by at least eight children: 1, Francis; 2, Aaron; 3, Cornelius; 4, Stephen; 5, Jacob; 6, Timothy; 7, Rachel; 8, Mary. All of these children of Eda and Mary Van Scoy are named in his will.

"In the name of God. Amen: May 29, 1728, I, Eda Van Scoy, of Oyster Bay, in Queens Co., being very sick, I leave to my wife, Mary, the use of all lands, improvements and moveable estate, while she remains my widow, and my son Cornelius shall live with his mother in order to carry on my farm. I leave to my son Francis five shillings, with what he has had already; I leave to my son Aaron five shillings, with what he has had already; I leave to my son Cornelius, after the death of my wife, all my lands and buildings. If he dies without issue then to my sons, Stephen, Jacob and Timothy. I leave to my daughters Rachel and Mary £10 each. My two youngest sons are to be put to trades as soon as they are fit in years. I name my wife, Joseph Rogers and Abiel Titus executors. Witnesses present, Nathaniel Ketchum, David Rogers and John Morgan." (Bib.-152.)

III. (3). Cornelius Van Scoyeck, son of Eda and Mary Van Scoy, of Oyster Bay, Long Island, was married, at Easthampton, Long Island, Oct. 2, 1729, to Patience, baptised March 30, 1707, daughter of Isaac and Anna (Rogers) Barnes.* Soon after their marriage Cornelius and Patience (Barnes) Van Scoyeck removed to North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., where, in the Church of Christ at Salem, their two sons, Abraham and Isaac, were baptised, Sept. 19, 1731. Some of their children were: 1, Abraham, baptised Sept. 19, 1731, (see later); 2, Isaac, baptised Sept. 19, 1731, died 1817, who, when a child, became a member of the household of his grandfather, Isaac Barnes, and who was married, at Easthampton, in Feb., 1757, to Mary, died 1782, daughter of David Edwards, (Bib.-177); 3, Mary, baptised at

*Isaac Barnes, a descendant of Charles Barnes, was born in Southampton, L. I., about 1675, and died Aug. 20, 1769. He was married, April 19, 1704, to Anna, daughter of Noah and Elizabeth (Taintor) Rogers. March 16, 1694, Isaac Barnes entered an ear mark for cattle at Easthampton and, Sept. 25, 1701, was a weaver there when Thomas Barnes conveyed land to him. The will of Isaac Barnes, of Easthampton, Suffolk Co., N. Y., was proved Sept. 16, 1769, and names his son, (1), Isaac, baptised April 29, 1705, died April 22, 1772, married (1) to Sarah Conkling, married (2) to Hannah Conkling, his (2) daughter, Patience, baptised March 30, 1707, married, Oct. 2, 1729, to Cornelius Van Scoyeck of Oyster Bay; his (3) daughter, Elizabeth, and his (4) daughter, Anna. (Bib.-152.) Barnes family sketch in New York Genealogical Record, Vol. XXXVII, p. 217.

Salem, Sept. 30, 1733; 4, Jonathan, baptised Oct. 30, 1737, probably married, at North Salem, N. Y., April 4, 1758, to Mary Seeley, and living at North Salem in 1790; 5, Zerviah; 6, probably Timothy, at North Salem, 1790; probably 7, Cornelius, and probably 8, Jacob, married, June 27, 1753, to Martha Price.

IV. (1). Abraham Van Coit (so in marriage record), son of Cornelius and Patience (Barnes) Van Scoyeck, was baptised at Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., Sept. 19, 1731, and was married, at North Salem, Jan. 28, 1754, to Priscilla Wanser. He was living at North Salem in 1790 and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and six females, probably three sons, five daughters and his wife. His son, Samuel, who was married in 1784, was living in Courtlandtown, Westchester Co., N. Y., in 1790. Some of the children of Abraham and Priscilla (Wanser) Van Coit (Van Scoy) were: 1, Abraham, Jr., married, Feb. 9, 1784, to Abigail Slokum, at North Salem; 2, Samuel, born Feb., 1765, (see later); 3, Patience, married, May 5, 1789, to Moses Wood, probably 4, Jonathan.

In the War of the American Revolution the Van Scoy family of Westchester Co., N. Y., had the following members in the service: I. In the Westchester Co. Militia: Abraham, Cornelius and James, privates in Captain Nathan Delavan's Company of Colonel Drake's Regiment; Abraham and Cornelius, privates in Captain Samuel Lawrence's Company of Colonel Thaddeus Crane's Regiment; Abraham, Jr., Jonathan and Samuel, privates in Captain Ephraim Lockwood's Company of Colonel Thaddeus Crane's Regiment. II. In the Westchester Co. Levies: Colonel Frederick Wessenfel's Regiment, Cornelius Van Scoy as Sergeant, and Jonathan and Samuel Van Scoy as privates, served in Captain Thomas Hunt's Company.

V. (2). Samuel Van Scoy, son of Abraham and Priscilla (Wanser) Van Coit (Van Scoy), was born in North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., in Feb., 1765, and was married there, Dec. 5, 1784, to Mehetable King, who was born in 1759 and died March 13, 1830, aged 71 years. In 1790 their home was in Courtlandtown, Westchester Co., N. Y., their family at that time including one male under 16, three females and Samuel, the head of the family. It is very probable that they removed from Courtlandtown to Southampton, L. I., a well defined family tradition fixing the latter place as that of the birth of several children.

Samuel Van Scoy served in Captain Thomas Hunt's Company of Colonel Frederick Wessenfel's Regiment of the Westchester Co., N. Y., Levies, and as a private in Captain Ephraim Lockwood's Company of Colonel Thaddeus Crane's Regiment of the Westchester Co., N. Y., Militia in the War of the American Revolution. (Bib.-141.) Nov. 15, 1832, his name was placed on the pension roll, for services rendered in the New York Continental Line with an annual allowance of $50, from March 4, 1831. (Bib.-12 and 14.)

Prior to April 2, 1821, Samuel Van Scoy had removed to Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was a resident there (1821) when he bought from David Pace (Family No. 928—Pace) all his interest in the 100 acre farm in Northmoreland, where David Pace then lived. Nov. 4, 1826, he sold this farm to his son, Cornelius. In 1822 he was a resident of Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa., when he bought, from David and John Pace, 110 acres, in that township, which had been taken up in the names of Jonathan Parks and Susanna Beach. In 1840 Samuel Van Scoy resided with his son, Daniel, in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa. He died May 3, 1851, aged 86 years and 3 months, and, with his wife and a number of their descendants, is buried in the Centermoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery. Some of the children of Samuel and Mehetable (King) Van Scoy were (order of birth not certain): 1, Cornelius, born April 28, 1794, (see later); 2, Abraham, a mason, lived for a number of years at Wyoming, Pa., born Oct. 13, 1796, died May 25, 1845, married to Margaret ———, born Oct. 14, 1798, died Aug. 2, 1854, (Centermoreland, Pa., Cemetery); 3, Matthew; 4, Anna, born about 1799, died June 15, 1890, aged 91 years, married to Francis Price Southworth, born about 1790, died April 30, 1878, aed. 88 years; 5, Amy, born April 11, 1801, died June 28, 1863, married to Nathan, Jr., born July 26, 1796, died Oct. 5, 1855, son of Nathan and Esther (Williams) Parrish, (Parrish family later); 6, Daniel, born June 20, 1804, died Nov. 23, 1882, (see later); 7, Hannah, married to ——— Goble; 8, Timothy, killed in an accident.

VI. (1). Cornelius, son of Samuel and Mehetable (King) Van Scoy, was born April 28, 1794, and died Dec. 20, 1880. He was married to Cynthia, born Feb. 26, 1802, died Nov. 23, 1883, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Bennett) Webb. Mary Bennett was a daughter of Benjamin Bennett, a soldier of the Revolution, who lived in Orange Co., N. Y. Cornelius Van Scoy was a farmer and lived in Northmoreland, now Wyoming Co., Pa. He and his wife are buried in the Centermore-land Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Mary, born July 10, 1829, died June 10, 1858, married to Jacob G. Pringle, who, with her daughter, Mary Estella, born Feb. 26, 1858, died Sept. 20, 1858, is buried in Centermoreland Cemetery, and whose other daughter, Isidora A., is named, Feb. 20, 1872, in the will of Cornelius Van Scoy; 2, Samuel, married to Jane Myers; 3, Arminda, married to John W. Shaw of Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., born about 1827, died July 24, 1890, son of William and Hester Shaw of Huntington, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 4, Harriet, born in 1836, married in 1860 to Firman Barckley, born 1831, died 1912, son of Robert F. and Anna Hight.* Mrs. Harriet (Van Scoy) Hight is living (1917) in Tunkhannock, Pa.; 5, Hester Jane, married to Harry Harding. The will of Cornelius Van Scoy, made Feb. 20, 1872, was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., Jan. 4, 1881.

VI. (6). Daniel, son of Samuel and Mehetable (King) Van Scoy, was born, probably at Southampton, L. I., June 20, 1804, and was married to Lydia, born Feb. 1, 1815, died Jan. 19, 1895, daughter of Henry and Olive (Parrish) Young, (Parrish and Young families later). Daniel Van Scoy was a farmer and was, for many years, Superintendent of farm lands for the Pennsylvania Coal Company. He also owned various tracts of lands in Exeter and Kingston Townships. Among his holdings were the historic Aaron Perkins tavern house and the lot on which the Jacob Bedford Hatter Shop stood. The former of these old landmarks was on Wyoming avenue in Wyoming Borough on the site on which there now (1917) stands the modern homes of Ira and John Phillips De Witt. The latter landmark stood at the corner of Shoemaker avenue and Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., now the site of the William Carey store and residence. Feb. 2, 1870, he bought from Theophilus and Elizabeth (Smith) Larned 132 acres, parts of Lots 1 and 2 in Exeter Township. This was part of the Jonathan Dean tract which had been bought from Jonathan Dean by David Smith previous to the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. (See Family No. 35—David Smith.)

Daniel Van Scoy became a member of the New Troy class of the Methodist Episcopal Church, April 9, 1848. His wife became a member April 9, 1843. He served as Class Leader, Trustee and Steward. He retired from active business pursuits a number of years before his death and established his home at Wyoming, Pa., where he died Nov. 30, 1882. He and his wife, Lydia (Young) Van Scoy, are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Cynthia, born Aug. 25, 1833, died Jan. 31, 1884, married to Abraham, born Oct. 23, 1823, died Dec. 24, 1898, son of Andrew, born Dec. 31, 1766, died Dec. 12, 1848, (Jenkins Cemetery, West Pittston, Pa.) and Nancy (Williams) Hover, died, aged 80 years, (Mt. Zion Cemetery) whose children were: (1), Marietta, born March 22, 1856, married to James, son of John and Mary (Burrett) Laws; (2), Virginia, born Nov. 18, 1859, married to Sterling Sax, whose children are: i, Ray, and ii, Leah, married, Oct. 22, 1917, at Wyoming, Pa., by the Rev. Robert McKee, to Paul Wilbur, late of Ohio, now (1917) in the Aviation Service of the United States Army at Pensacola, Fla.; (3), Haden J., born Jan. 29, 1866, married to Mary Rogers; 2, Henry Y., (see later); 3, Lydia T., born May 25, 1850, married, May 12, 1880, to Joseph W., born May 7, 1841, in Pottsville, Pa., son of William and Jane (Weightman) Patten. Joseph W. Patten served three months in Company C, 8th Pa. Vol. Inf., nine months in Company E, 84th Pa. Vol. Inf., discharged as Orderly Sergeant, and, in 1864, three and one-half months as First Lieutenant in Company E, 197th Regiment Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War. He learned the trade of a machinist, was for a number of years outside foreman for the J. H. Swoyer mining enterprises and, in 1873, established himself in the hardware, plumbing, steam and gas fitting business in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where he also served as Councilman for the Third ward of that city. He died Sept. 23, 1893, and is buried in the Forty Fort Cemetery. His widow, Mrs. Lydia T. (Van Scoy) Patten, lives with their only child, Lydia T., who is not married, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

VIII. (2). Henry Young, son of Daniel and Lydia (Young) Van Scoy, was born Feb. 4, 1838, and was married, Feb. 8, 1865, to Mary Alice Shoemaker. (Family No. 994.) He was for many years a merchant at Kingston, Pa., and established an extensive baking enterprise in that town, where he also served two terms as Postmaster. In 1882, 1883 and 1884 he served as County Commissioner of Luzerne Co., Pa.

*Robert F., born 1788, died 1864, and his wife, Anna Hight, born 1798, died 1839, are buried, with several of their children, in the Jackson Cemetery at La Grange, Wyoming, Pa. Some of their children were: 1, Eliza, born Sept. 9, 1825, died Dec. 17, 1877, married to David Reeves, born 1821, died Oct. 31, 1879; 2, Catharine, married in 1851, to John Corish, born July 26, 1824, died April 21, 1898; 3, Firman Barckley, born 1831, died 1912, married to Harriet Van Scoy; 4, Jerome, born Aug. 11, 1836, died May 7, 1843; 5, Caroline, born Dec. 25, 1838, died May 31, 1843. Robert F. Hight was assessed as a tailor in Kingston Township in 1816.

He was a member of Kingston Lodge, F. and A. M. He died Aug. 13, 1904, and is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery.

THE YOUNG FAMILY

William Young of Windham, Conn., Robert Young of Athol, Mass., and Joseph and David Young of New York are said to have been brothers who came from Ireland to America.

I. William Young, born about 1702, in Ireland, came to America about 1730 and settled on the Willimantic River in the town of Windham, Conn. He was married, in Ireland, to Ann McKay, who was born about 1705 and died, according to her tombstone inscription at Windham, in Oct., 1773, aged 68 years. The death of William Young is announced in the Windham items of the Windsor Herald of Dec. 31, 1791, 90 years of age. The Town Records give the date of his death Jan. 3, 1792, aged 90 years. There is a tradition that two of the children: 1, Robert; and 2, Polly, of William and Ann (McKay) Young, remained in Ireland. Their other children were: 3, John, born in Ireland, said to have died, in the War of the Revolution, in New Jersey; 4, William, Jr., born in Windham, Conn., Nov. 8, 1738, (see later); 5, Samuel, born in Windham, March 14, 1740, died Nov. or Dec., 1810; 6, David, born in Windham, Feb. 28, 1742, died about 1828; 7, Ann, born in Windham, March 31, 1746, died after June, 1828. Of these children of William and Ann (McKay) Young, David lived in Lebanon, Conn., and the others in Windham.

II. (4). William, Jr., son of William and Ann (McKay) Young, born in Windham, Nov. 4, 1738, was married, in Lebanon, Conn., Jan. 15, 1761, to Lydia Swift. He died in Windham Jan. 30, 1815. Their children were (order of birth not certain): 1, Zephaniah, born about 1762, died April 4, 1782, aged 20 years; 2, William, born about 1762, died Oct. 29, 1809, aged 47 years; 3, Polly, died Nov. 22, 1852, married to John McCray, settled in South Wilbraham, Mass.; 4, Alfred, born about 1770, died March 21, 1832, aged 62 years, married to Clarissa Murdock, lived in Tolland and Windham; 5, Lydia, born Nov. 26, 1774, died Nov. 24, 1859, married (1) to Nelson Woodard, married (2) to Elisha Sprague of Andover, Conn., where she died; 6, Anson, born about 1782, died June 22, 1847, aged 65 years, married to Eunice Selden, lived in Windham; 7, Henry, born about 1783, died Oct. 5, 1847, aged 64 years, (see later); 8, Fanny, born about 1785, died May 4, 1806, aged 21 years, married to Alfred Howes; 9, Thomas, born about 1785, died Nov. 26, 1852, aged 67 years, married to Lydia Tilden of Lebanon, Conn., removed to Hiram, Ohio.

III. (7). Henry, born in Windham Conn., about 1783, son of William, Jr., and Lydia (Swift) Young, came to the Wyoming Valley about 1810-1811, and was married in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., by Charles Chapman, Esq., Dec. 23, 1813, to Olive, born about 1790, died March 22, 1842, aged 52 years, daughter of Nathan and Esther (Williams) Parrish, (Parrish and Williams families later). Henry and Olive (Parrish) Young settled in Plymouth Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and, it appears, lived also for a time in Kingston Township. He was a farmer and also dealt in the real estate market of his day. Sept. 20, 1816, he bought from General William Ross 32 acres of Lot 46, River Tier, Third Division, Plymouth, of which he sold an undivided half to Oliver and Ziba Davenport on the same day. July 23, 1817, he bought from Lord Butler 104 acres of Lots 46 and 18, Third Division, Plymouth, which he sold to James Nisbitt, Jr., July 30, 1817. This land adjoined the Baker House Lot then owned by Philip Shupp. He bought part of Lots 25, 26 and 27 of the Middle Tier, Aug. 12, 1817, of John Pierce, and owned Lots 37, 38 and 39, Middle Tier, Third Division, Plymouth, part of which he sold to Reuben Jones, April 3, 1835, and part to John Gould. March 10, 1841, he sold part of Lot 11, Second Tier, Fourth Division, Plymouth, to his son-in-law, Charles Barry, and, Nov. 1, 1842, he bought at Sheriff's sale 107 acres in the Bowman's Creek section of Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., sold as late the estate of Jonathan Webb and in the possession of John Williams and Darius Williams, tenants of Jonathan Webb. This farm was described as improved with two log houses and a framed barn. About the time of this last purchase Henry Young removed to this farm and it is thought remained there the remainder of his life. He died Oct. 5, 1847, and with his wife, Mrs. Olive (Parrish) Young, and their daughter, Lucy, is buried in Shupp Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa. The children of Henry and Olive (Parrish) Young were: 1, Lydia, born Feb. 1, 1815, died Jan. 19, 1895, married to Daniel, son of Samuel and Mehetable (King) Van Scoy, (see above); 2, Fanny, married to Charles Barry; 3, Lucy, born Sept. 30, 1821, will made June 20, 1848, probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., Sept. 30, 1848, died Aug. 31, 1848, not married, buried in Shupp's Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.; 4, John, born about 1825, died May 24, 1861, aged 36 years, (see later); 5, Eleanor, born 1827, died March 10, 1892, married to Aaron Wrighter, born 1835, died 1912, son of Alexander, born June, 1803, died Jan. 8, 1881, and Margaret Van Tuyle, died aged 40 years. Alexander Van Tuyle was son of Walter Van Tuyle, who died aged 84 years. The second wife of Alexander Van Tuyle was Esther Avery, born May, 1817, died July 17, 1881. Walter Van Tuyle, his son Alexander and the two wives of the latter are buried in the South Eaton, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery. Aaron Wrighter Van Tuyle lived for many years in what is now West Wyoming, Pa., and owned, for many years prior to his death, the lot on which Lot Breese, in 1812, established a fulling mill and which was later and for many years the site of the Wyoming foundry, established by Jonathan Mooers in 1830-1. He was a farmer and was also for many years the competent and trustworthy salesman for Isaac Countryman Shoemaker and Sons in connection with their woolen mill. He was for about sixty years a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a member of the Official Board from about 1865. The only child of Aaron Wrighter and Eleanor (Young) Van Tuyle was Olive, born in 1854, died in 1905, married, by Rev. M. D. Fuller, Sept. 26, 1897, to B. O. Dodson, born 1850, died 1899, a jeweler at Wyoming, Pa.

IV. (4). John, son of Henry and Olive (Parrish) Young, was born about 1825 and died in Eaton, Wyoming Co., Pa., May 24, 1861, aged 36 years, (South Eaton Cemetery). He was married to Elizabeth, born Nov. 4, 1829, died May 1, 1909, daughter of Daniel and Susanna (Farver) Lee. (Lee families later.) John Young was a farmer in Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa. His will, made in Eaton, Dec. 22, 1860, was probated in Tunkhannock, Pa., June 15, 1861. The children of John and Elizabeth (Lee) Young were: 1, Lydia, born 1857, died Oct. 16, 1861; 2, Henry, born June 22, 1858, (see later); 3, Pemelia Susanna, died in infancy, after Dec. 22, 1860. Mrs. Elizabeth (Lee) Young was married (2) to William N. Brunges, born Nov. 14, 1819, died Nov. 16, 1891. (Lee family later.)

V. (2). Henry, son of John and Elizabeth (Lee) Young, born June 22, 1858, was married, April 20, 1881, to Harriet Elnora, born Jan. 3, 1852, died Dec. 4, 1917, daughter of Asa and Elizabeth (Stevens) Dewey. Their children are: 1, John, born April 22, 1882, died March 13, 1886; 2, Ward Dewey, born July 5, 1883, married to Pearl, daughter of Judson and Carrie (Good) Howell; 3, Elizabeth, born Aug. 5, 1885, married to Clarence, son of George and Sarah (Winters) Heitsman; 4, Harry Pestana, born April 10, 1887, married to Elizabeth Rollands, of Durham, N. H., teaching in the State College at Durham, N. H.; 5, Ruth, born Jan. 16, 1889; 6, Lucy, born March 19, 1890, married to George Lathrop. Henry Young was for many years the owner and occupant of the Daniel Lee homestead. A few years ago he sold it and removed to a dairy farm, which he had purchased, on Tunkhannock Creek, situated near the Dixon Cemetery.

THE LEE FAMILY

I. Timothy Lee, of Berkshire Co., Mass., was serving in the Berkshire County Militia in July, 1778, when his company was detached, July 3, 1778, for service guarding stores at Springfield. In this service he was a Sergeant in the Company of Captain Enos Parker of Colonel Jacob Garrish's Regiment. He was discharged Jan. 1, 1779. Oct. 14, 1780, he enlisted in the Company of Captain Amos Porter in the Regiment of Militia commanded by Colonel David Roseter and served three days on the alarm at Berkshire, Oct. 14, 1780, and four days on the alarm at Berkshire, Oct. 18, 1780. (Bib.-107.) He was married to Mary Walpole (or Waldo) and Timothy and Mary (Walpole) Lee were living in Pittsfield, Berkshire Co., Mass., in 1790, and then had in family living at home four males under 16 and two females. Jesse Lee, who may have been and probably was, a son of Jesse and Sarah (McDowell) Lee of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., was born March 10, 1778, and died Aug. 17, 1839. He is buried on a private plot on his homestead farm, near Eatonville, Wyoming Co., Pa. He was married to Jane, daughter of James Brown, of Eaton Township. Nov. 30, 1811, he was of Tunkhannock Township, when he bought from George and Sally (Avery) Miller (Family No. 1017—Miller) 170 acres of Lot No. 44, situated on the banks of Bowman's Creek, and lying along the River road. Aug. 11, 1813, he bought from Eli Edwards and Hannah and Elijah Edwards and Ruth, 120 acres, known as Jesse's Dale, and which had been patented to Jesse Fell of Wilkes-Barre, who sold it to Asahel Atherton, Jr. James Brown was associated with Jesse Lee in this latter purchase and, Aug. 9, 1814, sold his interest to Jesse Lee. The latter was, for a number of years, an innkeeper on the River road. Some of the children of Jesse and Jane (Brown) Lee were (order of birth not known

*John Brunges, born in Hanover, Germany, Feb. 2, 1777, died in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Feb. 27, 1870. His wife, Rachel, was born about 1787 and died Feb. 26, 1873, aged 86 years. Lying beside their bodies in Fitch Cemetery, Lockville, Pa., there reposes the remains of Rachel Deveryn, born March 7, 1762, died June 12, 1846, who was probably the mother of Mrs. Rachel Brunges. The will of John Brunges was made April 18, 1864, and was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., March 12, 1870. That of his wife was made Aug. 3, 1872, and was probated May 19, 1873. Their children were: 1, Robert; 2, Margaret, married (1) to Daniel Van Tuyle, married (2), April 14, 1836, as second wife, to Cyrus Mann, whose first wife, Sylva, born Jan. 14, 1792, died Aug. 3, 1835, daughter of Almanza Rogers (Family No. 988—Rogers) is buried in the Methodist Episcopal Cemetery at Orange, Pa.; 3, Catharine (Brunges) Swartwood; 4, Mary (Brunges) Ownes; 5, Martha; 6, John, Jr.; 7, Richard, born Oct. 4, 1815, died Oct. 22, 1867; 8, George; 9, William N., born Nov. 14, 1819, died Nov. 16, 1891, a private in Company K, 48th Regiment, P. V. I., in the Civil War, whose first wife, Sarah A. Penny, born May 15, 1828, died July 29, 1879, is buried in Fitch Cemetery, married (2) to Mrs. Elizabeth (Lee) Young, (see above), and is buried beside his second wife in South Eaton Cemetery; 10, Jacob, married to Rebecca, daughter of Timothy Jayne; 11, Martin.

to writer): 1, Philip, married to Elizabeth ———, to whom Jesse and Jane Lee sold, March 12, 1835, two parts of Lot No. 44 and a tract which Henry Drinker had sold to Jesse Lee. Jesse M. Lee, a brother of Philip, was associated with him in the purchase. Oct. 28, 1841, Philip and Elizabeth Lee sold these lands to William C. Johnson, doubtless the William C. Johnson who for a time kept the George Taylor tavern in Kingston Township, and was later a tavern keeper in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (See Family No. 1055.) March 19, 1842, Phillip, Elijah and Perry Lee sold to Jeremiah Rosencrans 105 acres of land bounded by lands of Jonathan Atherton, Stedman Hardin and Abner Mitchell, and Oct. 28, 1841, Philip and Elizabeth and Elijah Lee sold to Perry Lee about 192 acres. Philip Lee, after disposing of his real estate, removed to a Western state; 2, Jesse M. died in early manhood, after March 12, 1835; 3, Elijah, removed to the West; 4, Perry; 5, Jane, born Aug. 18, 1818, died Sept. 19, 1840, married to John W., son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Carey) Jenkins; 6, John; 7, Marilla, born Sept. 30, 1822, died Aug. 10, 1839; 8, Caroline, born 1825, died Aug. 4, 1833; 9, William. THE PARRISH FAMILY

1. The name of Oliver Parrish appears on the Indian Deed of 1754 as the owner of one-half a right in the land purchase of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. He was a resident of Kent, Conn., May 22, 1792, when he sold to Benajah and Joshua Fuller (Family No. 1010—Fuller) a right of land in Newport Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and of Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 30, 1793, when he sold to Ebenezer Farnham Lots Nos. 12 and 15, 400 acres, at Allensburgh, on Wyalusing Creek, Luzerne Co., Pa., also of Kingston, March 27, 1794, when he deeded House Lot No. 35, First Division of Kingston, to Alexander Brown.

2. Captain Zebulon Parrish, Isaac Parrish and Stephen Parrish were among the original drawers of lands in Parksburg (or Palmyra, Pike Co., Pa.), and March 1, 1774, Zebulon Parrish was appointed Fence Viewer and Isaac Parrish, Tithing Man, at a Town Meeting, for Westmoreland, held at Wilkes-Barre. Their names appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776 as residents of Lackaway District and the name of Zebulon Parrish is on the list for 1777 and 1778, appearing in the latter year as Captain Zebulon Parrish.

3. Nathan and, 4, Ebenezer Parrish of Plymouth Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., (see later).

5. Archippus Parrish, son of Archippus and Abigail Parrish, born in Windham, Conn., Jan. 27, 1773, died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in Oct., 1847, was married, at Morristown, N. J., Aug. 14, 1806, to Phebe, born Feb. 7, 1785, daughter of Eleazer and Hannah (Mills) Miller. (Sketch in Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys, Vol. I, p. 115.) He was of Bergen, Bergen Co., N. J., March 29, 1810, when he bought from Roswell Wells of Wilkes-Barre for $600, Lots 7, 8, 9 and 10, about 1,300 acres, on the head waters of Martin's Creek, in Luzerne Co., Pa. He later removed to Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., where, in 1812, 1813, 1816, he was a tavern keeper. Later he kept the Black Horse Tavern in Wilkes-Barre, and resided for a time in Dundaff, Luzerne Co., Pa.

I. Nathan Parrish was born about 1757 and died in Plymouth, Pa., July 26, 1829, aged 72 years. He enlisted, July 21, 1777, in Captain Zenas Wheeler's Company of Colonel John Ashley's Regiment of Berkshire Co., Mass., Militia, and marched with his company to Fort Edward. He was discharged Aug. 15, 1777, and was paid for 26 days' service at Albany, N. Y. (Bib.-107.) He was of Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790, and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, one male under 16 and five females. (Bib.-10.) He was of Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., Dec. 25, 1790, when he and his wife, Esther, sold their interest in part of Meadow Lot No. 2, Upper Tier of Plymouth, to Ezekiel Williams, also of Plymouth. And also of Plymouth Dec. 14, 1791, when he and his wife, Esther, sold to John N. Wooley 60 acres of the Lot No. 7 on which Wooley then lived. In 1792 and 1793 he sold to Darius Williams part of House Lot No. 3, upper part of Plymouth, and on Dry Creek; to Aaron Dean part of House Lot No. 5, and to Peter Grubb parts of House Lots Nos. 3, 4 and 5 and Lot 8 of the Third Division. Sept. 26, 1803, he sold to Lawrence Myers several acres of land lying on Toby's Island. In the County Census of taxables, for 1814, Nathan Parrish and Samuel Parrish were returned as wheelwrights living in Plymouth.

Nathan Parrish was married to Esther, daughter of Elihu and Desire Williams of Plymouth. (Williams family later.) Some of their children were (order of birth not certain): 1, Samuel; 2, Ebenezer, (see later); 3, Olive, born about 1790, died March 22, 1842, aged 52 years, married to Henry Young, (see above); 4, Lucy, (see later); 5, Nathan, Jr., born Jan. 26, 1796, died Oct. 1, 1855, (see later); 6, perhaps Nancy, married to Martin Marble.

II. (2). Ebenezer, son of Nathan and Esther (Williams) Parrish, was married to Mary Cousins, and some of their children were: 1, Samuel, not married, lived and died at East Lemon, Wyoming Co., Pa.; 2, Martha, married, in 1848, to Curtis L. Avery, lived in East Lemon, Pa.; 3, William, born Oct. 25, 1818, (see later); 4, Charles, married, lived and died in Indiana; 5, Cynthia, married to John Bryant, lived and died in Indiana; 6, George, married, lived and died in Indiana; 7, Ebenezer, Jr., married, lived and died in Indiana; 8, Fanny, born July 10, 1828, died April 1, 1895, married to David, born Oct. 1, 1824, son of David and Susan Meginnis, (both buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); 9, Chester, married, lived and died, East Lemon, Wyoming Co., Pa.; 10, Sarah, not married, died at Wyoming, Pa.

III. (3). William, son of Ebenezer and Mary (Cousins) Parrish, was born Oct. 25, 1818, and died at Wyoming, Pa., Dec. 22, 1900. He was a mason by trade. He was married to Eleanor, born March 31, 1817, died Aug. 25, 1894, daughter of Eli and Margaret (Bird) Swetland, (Family No. 1217—Bird and No. 3—Swetland) and their children were: 1, Thomas, born Dec. 10, 1840, married (1) to Lydia Caton, married (2) to Effie Stanton; 2, Eli, born Nov. 11, 1842, living in Kingston Township, (1917) married, Aug. 10, 1866, to S. Jennie, born Feb. 5, 1836, living (1917), daughter of Samuel and Ruth Ann (Carver) Jackson, (Family No. 992—Carver—Jackson) whose children are: (1), Ruth Emma, born Dec. 25, 1869, died July 18, 1879; (2), Charles Martin, born June 24, 1871, married to Ida, born Aug. 23, 1873, daughter of Aaron and Jane (Searfass) Crissman; (3), David Elmer, born June 11, 1874, married to Rose N., daughter of John and Phebe (Brace) Hildebrant; (4), Henrietta R., born Feb. 11, 1879, married to Jacob B., son of John and Jennie (Besteder) Rice; 3, Elisha M., born Sept. 1, 1844, married to Sally, daughter of Daniel and Eliza (Comstock) La Bar, (Family No. 1016—La Bar); 4, Uriah, born Dec. 26, 1846, not married; 5, Margaret A., born Feb. 8, 1848, married to Joseph Vosburgh; 6, Henrietta, married (1) to Martin V. Rozelle, married (2), by Rev. W. T. Blair, March 26, 1908, to G. F. Van Tuyle, as third wife; 7, William, Jr., married to Lovina Hoover; 8, David, married to Kate Baird; 9, Victoria, born June 25, 1854, not married; 10 and 11, infants, deceased. William and Eleanor (Swetland) Parrish are buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery.

II. (4). Lucy, daughter of Nathan and Esther (Williams) Parrish, was married in Dec., 1803, to Jabez Wilcox of Tunkhannock, Pa. They lived for a number of years in the portion of Northmoreland Township which is now known as Monroe, Wyoming Co., Pa. Lucy (Parrish) Wilcox survived her husband for a number of years and lived with her son, Thomas P., in Wyoming, and accompanied him to the West. The children of Jabez and Lucy (Parrish) Wilcox were (order of birth not known by the writer): 1, Olive, married to Timothy Goble; 2, Polly, married to ——— Van Tuyle; 3, Martha, married to her cousin, George Lane, son of Darius and Huldah (———) Williams, (Williams family later); 4, Elizabeth, born Jan. 9, 1812, died Jan. 25, 1881, married to George, born Feb. 16, 1807, died Nov. 12, 1885, son of George, born July 5, 1777, drowned March 28, 1812, near Towanda, Pa., and Phebe (Harris) Sutton, born April 10, 1776, died May 11, 1851, (see Family No. 1021—Harris—Sutton); 5, Lydia Ann, not married, died, aged 28 years; 6, Ann, born Jan. 24, 1817, married, March 10, 1836, to John, born March 31, 1812, at Darby, Delaware Co., Pa., son of Benjamin and Alice Pearson; 7, Esther; 8, Thomas P., married, by the Rev. Bostwick Hawley, at Wyoming, Pa., May 3, 1849, to Mrs. Sarah Wilcox, owned and lived on a lot now (1917) part of Wyoming Cemetery, (see Family No. 986—Wyoming Cemetery), removed to the West.

II. (4). Nathan, Jr., son of Nathan and Esther (Williams) Parrish, was born Jan. 26, 1796, and died Oct. 1, 1855. He was married to Amy, daughter of Samuel and Mehetable (King) Van Scoy, who was born April 11, 1801, and died June 28, 1863. They lived for some time in Northmoreland Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., and subsequently removed to Monroe Township, in that county, where he was for many years a Justice of the Peace. They are buried in the Monroe Cemetery at Beaumont, Wyoming Co., Pa. Some of their children were (order of birth not certain): 1, Susannah, born Oct. 27, 1823, died Aug. 2, 1837, married to William, born June 19, 1820, died Oct. 22, 1904, son of William R. and Elizabeth Cairl, born Dec. 25, 1789, died July 31, 1872, (all buried in Monroe Cemetery, Beaumont, Wyoming Co., Pa.); 2, Oliver H., born Aug. 25, 1824, died March 10, 1826, (Centermore-land Cemetery); 3, Timothy V., a wagonmaker, who lived in Columbia Co., Pa.; 4, Nathan L., living in Kunkle, Luzerne Co., Pa., (1917); 5, Almira, married to George D. Nash; 6, Chester, born Nov. 9, 1832, died March 23, 1840, (Centermoreland Cemetery); 7, Jasper, died Feb. 8, 1901, will made at Northmoreland Feb. 4, 1901, and probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., March 16, 1901, names Nancy Montross, wife of Walter and Armanda Lamoreux, in addition to his brothers, William W. and Nathan, and his sisters, Cynthia Barnett and Almira Nash. He was married to Huldah Schooley, born Nov. 27, 1831, died Oct. 8, 1885, (Clark Cemetery, Orcutt, Pa.); 8, Cynthia C., married to James Barnett; 9, William W., born Oct. 27, 1839, died Feb. 5, 1903, (Monroe Cemetery, Beaumont, Pa.), Company K, 143d Regiment, P. V. I., in the Civil War; 10, Oliver Lewis, attorney at law, Tunkhannock, Pa., died in the West; 11, Olive A.

I. Ebenezer Parrish, born about 1761, a brother of Nathan Parrish (above), enlisted as a private in Captain Zenas Wheeler's Company of Colonel Hopkin's Regiment, Berkshire Co., Mass., Militia, July 15, 1776. The company marched to Highlands, N. Y., on an alarm and was discharged, after 12 days' service, Aug. 1, 1776. He also enlisted, July 8, 1777, in Captain Zenas Wheeler's Company of Colonel John Ashley's Regiment, Berkshire Co., Mass., Militia, and the Company marched to Fort Edward, N. Y. Discharged after 13 days' service and paid at Albany, N. Y. (Bib.-107.) In 1790 he lived in Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., and had in family himself, one male under 16 years of age and two females. He was of Plymouth, April 4, 1791, when, with his wife, Martha, he sold part of Meadow Lot No. 4, Upper Tier, Plymouth, to Arthur Eicke. He also owned House Lot No. 34, Kingston, adjoining House Lot No. 35, owned by Oliver Parrish in 1793, which he sold, Jan. 8, 1793, to Joel Farnham. This lot adjoined lands of Laban Blanchard, Oliver Parrish, also the river and the highway. Oct. 4, 1793, he sold to Peter Grubb parts of House Lots Nos. 1 and 2, Plymouth, 10 acres, "situated on the highway that passes the house I now live in." May 7, 1794, he sold to Peter Grubb Lot 11, Third Division, Plymouth, 36 acres, and April 4, 1793, he sold to Joshua and Benajah Fuller, Kingston, Meadow Lot No. 26, Kingston, 40 acres. He also owned part of Toby's Island, which he sold, Aug. 24, 1795, to Ira Manville. He was for many years a prominent figure in the real estate transactions of his time. He bought several large tracts of land, in different sections of old Luzerne Co., at public sale, subsequently disposing of them at a small margin of profit.

Among the holdings of Ebenezer Parrish, in Plymouth, was Lot No. 2 in the Third Division. This lot, of about 47 acres, adjoined Lot No. 1, which adjoined the Plymouth-Kingston line. Feb. 27, 1815, Ebenezer Parrish and his wife, Patty, of Plymouth, for a consideration of $150.00, leased and confirmed to the lawful heirs of William Evans and his wife, Maria, for the term of 95 years, "The equal one-half of all the cole on Lot No. 2, in the Third Division of Plymouth, and to be occupied by the said William Evans, during his lifetime, and not to be disposed of without the consent of said Ebenezer and Patty, grandparents to said children, reserving cole for one family use, and said heirs or William Evans to have the privilege of a road to carry of said cole at any time, but injout no crops on the ground, more than the width of his caridge." Ebenezer Parrish 2d and Abigail Freeman signed the lease as witnesses.

May 8, 1815, John Murphy, of Plymouth, executed a bond to William Evans, of Plymouth, in which he promised to pay to William Evans $2,400.00, stipulating that the bond should be void if within two years he executed to William Evans a complete title to Lot No. 2, Third Division, Mountain tier, called the Manville lot; 47 acres, and one equal undivided third of Lot No. 1, Second tier, Fourth Division, 113 acres, also a 113 acre lot in the Second tier, Fourth Division, and Lot No. 3, Second tier, Fourth Division, 110 acres, reserving for John Joseph, or his assigns, 25 acres of said lot. April 5, 1824, on the suit of John Hancock versus William Evans, Jonathan Buckley, Sheriff, sold to Job Gibbs, for $8.00, one undivided half of a coal bed on Lot No. 2, Mountain tier, Third Division, Plymouth, and Nov. 29, 1824, Job Gibbs sold this interest to David Scott for $10.00. July 18, 1827, David Scott sold it for $50.00 to Peter J. Wittbohn, a broker, of Philadelphia. Sept. 25, 1824, at the suit of John Murphy versus William Evans, Jonathan Buckley, Sheriff, sold Lot No. 2, 47 acres, to David Scott.

July 26, 1827, Elias Hoyt and Mary, his wife, conveyed to Ebenezer Parrish, for himself and for the heirs of William Evans of Plymouth Township, to Ebenezer Parrish, during his natural life and of his wife, Sarah, and to the heirs of William Evans, for a consideration of $100.00, 73 acres of Lots No. 1 and No. 3, Second tier, Fourth Division, naming lands of Oliver Helm, John Covert, Amos Cook, Adoniram Covert and John and Henry Pace as adjoining the land conveyed. Also a part of Lot No. 2, Mountain tier, Third Division, "beginning on the road from William Hick's to William Pace's, on the line of one and two" and extending northwesterly 38 perches to a stake in the lands Elias Hoyt sold to P. J. Wittbohn, containing 12 acres, stipulating, "Title and interest will vest in heirs of said William Evans after the death of Ebenezer Parrish, only on condition said heirs pay him, the said Ebenezer Parrish, for the betterments or improvements" he may have put on the premises.

March 15, 1828, (?) Ebenezer Parrish, of Philadelphia, late innkeeper, and Sarah, his wife, William Evans of Luzerne Co. and Myra, his wife, Elihu Evans, Amos Cook and Cynthia Ann, his wife, Philip Myres and Patty Ann, his wife, William B. Evans, Jr., Myra Evans and Sally Evans, minors, by their guardian, William Evans, for a consideration of $1,800.00, conveyed title (reserving to Ebenezer Parrish a one-sixth interest), to 18 acres of Lot No. 2, Third Division, Plymouth, with a coal mine and premises to David B. Lee, attorney at law; Samuel Clement, gentleman; Robert Jordan, chocolate manufacturer; Jesse Ford, house carpenter; Peter J. Wittbohn, broker; William Levan, grocer; Warner Myers, painter; Jacob W. Smith, stove manufacturer, heirs of the late James Stephenson, late mariner, and Enock Taylor, bricklayer, all of Philadelphia, Pa. This very early coal company is described in a deed of Oct. 15, 1844, by which William Evans and Myra, his wife, and the heirs of William and Maria (Parrish) Evans conveyed back to Elias Hoyt, their two-thirds interest in the lands he conveyed to Ebenezer Parrish and the heirs of William Evans, referred to above, as the Philadelphia Coal Company and was, the writer believes, probably one of the earliest companies organized by outside capital for the development of the anthracite mining industry.

Ebenezer Parrish was married (1) to Martha, daughter of Elihu and Desire Williams. (Williams family later.) One of the two children they had in 1790 was: 1, (Elihu W., doubtless named Elihu Williams Parrish), who was born Nov. 3, 1780, and died July 3, 1837. The other was: 2, Maria, who was married to William Evans, as his first wife. Ebenezer Parrish and his first wife, Martha (Williams) Parrish, were early members of the pioneer Ross Hill (Plymouth) Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church and are mentioned in Chaffee's History of the Wyoming Conference. Many of the meetings of this mother class of Wyoming Valley Methodism, which was organized by the Rev. Anning Owen (Family No. 1313—Owen) were held in their home. Mrs. Martha (Williams) Parrish was living Feb. 27, 1815. Previous to July 26, 1827, Ebenezer Parrish was married (2) to Sarah ———. In 1793 he was Captain of the Fourth Company of the Second Regiment of Luzerne Co., Pa., Militia, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel John Jenkins. Hallet M. Gallup was Ensign of the same company in 1793. Previous to March 15, 1828, Captain Ebenezer Parrish became an innkeeper, probably in Philadelphia, where he resided in 1828, with his wife, Sarah. In 1840 he was living with Ebenezer Parrish in Luzerne Co., Pa., and was then 79 years of age and the recipient of a pension from the Federal Government for services rendered in the War of the American Revolution. (Bib.-14.) He lived for a number of years, and probably died before Oct. 15, 1844, in Monroe Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. His wife, Sarah, was probably living in 1844.

II. (1). Elihu W. Parrish, son of Ebenezer and Martha (Williams) Parrish, born Nov. 3, 1780, died July 3, 1837, was returned, in the county census of taxables of 1814, as a board merchant, living in Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., and is said to have been engaged in the transportation of anthracite coal in arks, in association with William Tyack. He acquired title to part of Lot No. 1, Third Division, Kingston, and Oct. 13, 1815, sold to his brother-in-law, John Pierce, Jr., a part of this lot, "Beginning at a stake on the west side of Dry Creek near the old bridge, on the north side of the Kingston and Plymouth road, which passes betwixt the townships." Sept. 11, 1811, associated with William Tyack, also of Kingston, he bought from John Stevens 269 acres of land situated "on the waters of Bowman's Creek in Exeter Township, beginning at a basswood, on the south side of Bowman's Creek, near a place called Job's Hole, etc. He removed, with his family, from Kingston to what is now Monroe Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. Elihu W. Parrish was married (1), at Newport, Luzerne Co., Pa., in Sept., 1801, to Elizabeth, born April 29, 1782, died May 13, 1828, daughter of John and Tamer (———) Pierce,* of Kingston Township, and their children were: 1, Ebenezer, (see later); 2, Martha, born July 20, 1812, died July 31, 1845, married to Curtis Harding (Family No. 992—Harding), born Aug. 6, 1812, died Dec. 28, 1890, (Clark Cemetery, Orcutts, Pa.); 3, Eliza, born July 24, 1817, died June 13, 1887, married to William C. Mullison, (Family No. 992—Mullison); 4, Elihu W., Jr., born Aug. 25, 1820, died July 17, 1893, married to Eleanor Frear, born May 21, 1820, died April 2, 1889, (Family No. 838—Frear). Elihu W. Parrish was married (2) to Anna Suplee, and their children were: 5, Charles Burns, born Jan. 10, 1832, married to Olive Shafer; 6, Eleanor M., born July 4, 1834, died Jan. 9, 1882, married to Charick De Witt, born 1829, died 1816, (Sunny Side Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), (Family No. 1334—De Witt); 7, Sarah J., born June 14, 1835, died Jan. 1, 1904, married to Rollin Sturdevant; 8, Almira, born May 9, 1837, died June 3, 1837.

III. (1). Ebenezer, son of Elihu W. and Elizabeth (Pierce) Parrish, was born Jan. 13, 1802, and died April 14, 1868. (Clark Cemetery, Orcutts, Pa.) He was married, Sept. 6, 1832, to Abigail, daughter of Asa, Jr., and Esther (Downing) Stevens (Family No. 1312—Stevens, No. 1312—Downing), and their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born July 12, 1834, died Nov. 25, 1879, married to William D. Frear; 2, John F., born Aug. 26, 1835, died May 8, 1904, married, Dec. 31, 1858, to Almira

May 1, 1791, he was of Plymouth, when he bought, from Hallet Gallup, House Lots Nos. 4 and 5, Upper tier in Plymouth, 10 acres, and on the same day he sold to Hallet Gallup, "All my right, title and claim in and unto a certain mill in Plymouth and part of House Lots Nos. 4 and 5, to be in House Lot 5, so as to accommodate the mill and board yard, and the privilege of sinking a race across Lot No. 4, if necessary, one acre of land, together with the full use of the water." May 12, 1792, he bought from Darius Williams of Plymouth 37 acres of Lot No. 1, Third Division of Kingston, and Oct. 15, 1792, sold to C. G. Oehmig of Kingston 9 acres of Lot No. 1, the survey, "Beginning on the highway that runs past Hallet Gallup's house." Aug. 12, 1791, he bought from Ezekiel Williams of Plymouth five acres of Meadow Lot No. 2, Plymouth (Upper tier), Jared Root and William Gallup, Jr., signing the deed as witnesses. Oct. 15, 1792, he bought from Arthur and Lena Eicke of Kingston, Pa., five acres of Upper tier Meadow Lot, No. 2, and four acres of Upper tier, Meadow Lot, No. 4, in Plymouth. Arthur Eicke was of Morris Co., N. J., May 8, 1788, when he bought Third Division Lot No. 7, Kingston, from Rosewell Wells. Dec. 1, 1792, John Pierce bought from Samuel Allen four and three-quarter acres of Meadow Lot, No. 4, Plymouth, in the Upper tier. At the time of his death John Pierce of Kingston owned 32 acres of Lot 1, Third Division, Kingston, 90 acres of Lots 37, 38 and 39, Third Division, Plymouth, 10 acres of an Upper Tier Meadow Lot and another five acre tract in Plymouth. His daughter, Thankful, sold her share to his son, Pelatiah, and, Jan. 3, 1810, Darius Williams, Aaron Dean, Christopher Oehmig, James Maybury, Asaph Jones, Henry Buckingham and Jacob Taylor, having made a division of the property, an agreement was entered into by the heirs and filed in the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre. John Bowman was appointed guardian for Tamer Pierce and Stephen Hollister for John Pierce, minor children. John Pierce was married to Tamer ———, and their children who survived him were (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Pelatiah, who was assessed as a blacksmith in Kingston in 1801, and who, with his wife, Polly, March 21, 1810, sold to Elihu W. Parrish, his brother-in-law, 32 acres of Lot 1, Third Division, Kingston, situated in the northwest end of the lot and nine acres of Lot 1, adjoining lands of C. G. Oehmig, part at least, of which he had inherited from his father. Pelatiah Pierce was married to Polly, daughter of Peregrine and Mary (Van Garden) Jones of Kingston, Pa. Peregrine Jones was born about 1757 and was living in Kingston in 1840, then 83 years of age. May 10, 1776, he enlisted in the Company of Captain Charles Craig of the First Pennsylvania Regiment, of the Continental Line, commanded by Colonel Edward Hand, and later served as a private in the Eighth Company of the Fifth Battalion of Northampton County Militia, commanded by Captain Richard Shaw. (Bib.—19.) His name appears in the Federal Census of Pensioners of 1840. He was married to Mary Van Garden and they doubtless settled first in Smithfield Township, Northampton Co., Pa. Two of their children, Isaac, born Sept. 11, 1779, and Mary, born June 17, 1789, were baptised at Deer Park, N. Y., July 3, 1789. (Bib.—240.) Previous to 1792, when he was assessed as a taxpayer in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., they removed to the Wyoming Valley, Pa. In 1793 he was recommended by the Court of Quarter Sessions as a suitable person to be licensed as an innkeeper. In 1814 he was returned in the County Census of Taxables as a shoemaker. His wife, Mary (Van Garden) Jones, born about 1759, died March 17, 1821, aged 62 years, is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery, Forty Fort, Pa. He was married (2) to Mrs. Anna Fox. His will, made March 11, 1839, and probated Oct. 2, 1845, names his wife, Anna, and her son, John Fox, executors, and refers to his son, James Jones; his daughter, Mary Pierce, baptised at Deer Park, N. Y., July 3, 1789, born June 17, 1789, married to Pelatiah Pierce; his daughter, Eleanor Steele, probably born 1799, died Oct. 16, 1866, married to John Steele, buried in Huntsville. Luzerne Co., Pa.; his daughter, Elizabeth (Jones) Pace. In Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. John Pierce, born March 14, 1810, died April 7, 1814, is buried beside his grandfather, John Pierce; 2, Elizabeth, born April 29, 1782, died May 13, 1828, married, in Sept., 1801, to Elihu W., son of Ebenezer and Martha (Williams) Parrish, (see above); 3, Lucretia, married to John Bowman, born May, 1779, died Jan. 4, 1838, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), probably the John Bowman, also a blacksmith, who had a forge, operated by waterpower from Toby's Creek, on Lot No. 15, Kingston, in 1813. John and Lucretia (Pierce) Bowman sold their interest in the estate of John Pierce, Sept. 26, 1809, to Elihu W. Parrish; 4, Thankful, married, in Dec., 1808, to Nathaniel Hartsouff, probably son of Zachariah Hartsouff, pioneer mill man, for whom Hartsuff's Hollow. Luzerne Co., Pa., was named; 5, John, born Feb. 27, 1792, died Sept. 28, 1836, (see later); 6, Tamer, married to Charles Whitney and living in Braintrim, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 20, 1815, when they sold their interest in the estate of John Pierce to Elihu W. Parrish.

II. (5). John, son of John and Tamer Pierce, was born Feb. 27, 1792, and died Sept. 28, 1836. He was a blacksmith and gunsmith and lived in Kingston Township, probably on the old

E. Frear (Family No. 838—Frear), buried in Clark Cemetery, Orcutt, Pa.; 3, Esther A., born Nov. 26, 1837, married to Frank Weber; 4, Warren W., born May 5, 1841, died Feb. 10, 1862, a soldier in the Civil War, died at Georgetown, D. C.; 5, Addison C., born Feb. 28, 1843, died Sept. 1, 1844; 6, Martha J., born May 2, 1845, died Nov. 20, 1866, married to ——— Montanye.

II. (2). Maria, daughter of Ebenezer and Martha (Williams) Parrish, was married to William Evans and their children were (order of birth not certain): 1, Elihu, married to Thirzy (perhaps Taylor), living in Monroe Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., in 1844; 2, Cynthia Ann, born April 11, 1803, died June 10, 1882, married to Amos Cook, born about 1800, died Aug. 15, 1874, aged 74 years, removed from Plymouth, Pa., to Monroe Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., buried with their son, William, born Sept. 6, 1847, died Sept. 30, 1894, in Clark Cemetery, Orcutt, Pa.; 3, Martha (Patty Ann), born July 10, 1809, died June 1, 1865, married to Philip Moyer (or Myres), born Feb. 9, 1804, died Aug. 23, 1879, removed from Plymouth, Pa., to Monroe Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., buried in Clark Cemetery, Orcutt, Pa.; 4, William B., married to Sally (perhaps Taylor), living in Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1844; 5, Myra (or Maria), married to Milton Clark, living in Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1844; 6, Kingston-Plymouth Township road. He was married to Susannah, born Dec. 23, 1792, died Nov. 29, 1861, daughter of Philip and Catharine (Everett) Shupp, of Plymouth.

Philip Shupp, Sr., born about 1755, died March 16, 1823, aged 68 years, and his wife, Catharine, born in Oct., 1751, died March 15, 1835, are now buried in Shawnee Cemetery, Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa. He evidently bought from John Anderson of Plymouth the 30 acre mill lot in Upper Plymouth Township which Hezekiah Roberts, Matthias Van Loon and Rufus Lawrence, Proprietor's Committee of Plymouth, sold to Robert Faulkner, Feb. 27, 1788, on which Robert Faulkner had erected a grist mill and dwelling before J—, 1790, when he sold the property, his wife, Adrianche, signing the deed, to John McMurtrie, Esq., of Oxford, Sussex Co., N. J. He also bought Lot 31, 95 acres, of the Middle tier in Plymouth, on which John Anderson was warrantee. John Anderson was assessed as the owner of a grist mill in Plymouth in 1792. April 9, 1812, Philip Shupp was of Plymouth when he bought from Almon Church 42 acres of Lots 45 and 46 of the Third Division in Plymouth, called Mayfield, which had been patented to John Anderson, Nov. 13, 1800, and which he and his wife, Elizabeth, sold to Josiah Ives of Milton, Tioga Co., N. Y., Dec. 13, 1808. They also sold, with William Craig, to Josiah Ives, Sr., 100 acres of Lots 45 and 46. Joseph McMurtrie, executor of the estate of John McMurtrie, Esq., of Oxford Township, Sussex Co., N. J., (will Nov. 4, 1791, Newton, N. J.) sold April 13, 1793, to John Anderson of Plymouth the Faulkner Grist Mill lot with grist mill, dwelling house and 30 acres of land, and also one lot of and contiguous to the grist mill lot, which had been sold by Benjamin Smith and Zephron Flower, late of Kingston, to Timothy Coleman of Plymouth, June 10, 1788. This tract included two reservations, one of one and one-half acres sold by Timothy Coleman to Samuel Ayers, and one of two acres which Timothy Coleman reserved as a burial place for the use of the public. This plot has been known for very many years as Shupp Cemetery. The fourteen and one-half acres, including the two reservations, had been sold by Timothy Coleman to John McMurtrie, May 1, 1791. John Anderson apparently sold this latter tract to Thaddeus Goodyear, who was of New York Sept. 9, 1817, when he sold it as part of 24 acres of Lot No. 49, to Philip Shupp, Jr. The thirty acre tract, including the mill, John Anderson apparently sold to Philip Shupp, Sr., who, with his wife, Catharine, Feb. 17, 1817, sold to Philip Shupp, Jr., Lot 31, Middle tier, Plymouth, also owned with Lot 32 by John Anderson, a mill lot in the River tier, Third Division, Plymouth, and Lot 32, eight acres called the Baker House Lot. John Anderson also owned Lots Nos. 45 and 46, and April 6, 1812, with his wife, Elizabeth, sold 90 acres of those lots to John Robinson of Wilkes-Barre. Feb. 17, 1817, Philip Shupp, Sr., sold to Philip Shupp, Jr., the 42 acres of Lots 45 and 46 which he had bought April 9, 1812, from Almon Church. Three of the children of Philip and Catharine (Everett) Shupp were: 1, Mary, born June 2, 1790, married to James, born Oct. 15, 1790, died Oct. 9, 1840, son of Abraham, born Sept. 13, 1763, died Jan. 2, 1847, and Bethiah (Wheeler) Nesbitt, born Dec. 30, 1771, died Dec. 16, 1851, (Shawnee Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.); 2, Philip, Jr., born Aug. 3, 1791, died Oct. 5, 1833, married to Susan, born May 10, 1800, died Feb. 23, 1863, daughter of Frederick and Mary Croup, born Jan., 1776, died Sept. 3, 1842, and granddaughter of Andrew Croup, born Dec. 29, 1735, died Feb. 6, 1811, (Shawnee Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.); 3, Susanna, born Dec. 23, 1792, died Nov. 29, 1861, married to John, son of John and Tamer Pierce.

The children of John and Susanna (Shupp) Pierce were: 1, Charles, born July 13, 1813, died about 1890, married (1) to Catharine Ann, daughter of David and Sally (Chapin) Goodwin, (Family No. 1230—Goodwin, No. 1216—Chapin) whose children were: Jefferson, born about 1835, and George S. (or George J.), born about 1840. Jefferson Pierce was living in McHenry Co., Ill., in 1846, and George S. (or George J.) was living in Plymouth in 1846, presumably with his grandparents. George J. Pierce and his wife, Mary E., were living in McHenry Co., Ill., Jan. 21, 1866, when they sold to Jacob Kintz of Exeter, Pa., 36 acres of Lot 38 in Exeter, which had fallen to his mother from the estate of her father, Solomon Chapin. S. R. Shoemaker and Lydia L. Goodwin witnessed the signing of the deed, which was acknowledged before S. R. Shoemaker, Notary Public, for McHenry Co., Ill. Charles Pierce was married (2) to Katharine Sine and removed to McHenry Co., Ill., before 1846; 2, Philip, born Sept. 6, 1816, died March 4, 1848, not married; 3, Everett, born Nov. 17, 1818, lived in Sacramento, Calif.; 4, John, born June 15, 1820, lived in Brooklyn, N. Y.; 5, Catharine, born April 22, 1822, died March 1, 1909, married, March 25, 1841, by Rev. Job J. Harvey, to Andrew Raub, born Feb. 12, 1820, died Feb. 11, 1894, (Woodlawn Cemetery, Dallas, Pa.), (see Family No. 947—Raub); 6, James Burlington, born July 16, 1828, died June 9, 1910, married (1), Nov. 28, 1854, to Leonora, born Dec. 15, 1829, died March 9, 1897, daughter of George, born Oct. 9, 1798, died April 29, 1871, and Elizabeth Remmel, born June 21, 1807, died Oct. 9, 1852, (Forty Fort. Pa. Cemetery), married (2), Dec. 19, 1900, to Mrs. Anna C. Coons; 7, Mary, born March 5, 1830, died 1886, married to Silas Lazarus, removed to Illinois; 8, Samuel, born May 1, 1834, married to Sarah Cole, removed to Lee Co., Ill.; 9, Andrew, born March 17, 1837, removed to California.

Sally, born Jan. 2, 1823, died June 6, 1862, married to William Hettesheimer, born Sept. 15, 1814, died Nov. 9, 1894, (Clark Cemetery, Orcutt, Pa.). William Evans was married (2) to Myra, daughter of William Cooper, of Plymouth, (Family No. 36—Cooper), and they were living in Plymouth, Pa., Oct. 15, 1844.

THE WILLIAMS FAMILY

I. Elihu Williams, with his wife, Desire, and several children came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Canterbury, Windham Co., Conn., in 1773, and settled on land in the vicinity of Toby's Eddy in Plymouth, Pa. Upon the organization of the town of Westmoreland, in March, 1774, he was chosen one of the tithing men for the town. His name and that of his son, Rufus, appear on the Westmoreland Tax List for 1776 and their names, together with that of Elihu Williams, Jr., appear in the Lists for 1777 and 1778, as residents of Plymouth District. Elihu Williams, Sr., and his sons, Rufus and Elihu, Jr., were members of the Third Company (Plymouth), Captain Asaph Whittlesey* of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, at Wyoming.

*I. John Whittlesey, born July 4, 1623, in Cambridgeshire, England, son of John, born 1593, and Lydia (Terry) Whittlesey, was married, at Saybrook, Conn., June 20, 1664, to Ruth, born April 20, 1645, daughter of William and Jane (Lutman) Dudley. He died April 15, 1704. His wife died Sept. 27, 1714. Their son, II, Eliphalet Whittlesey, their ninth child, was born July 24, 1679, and died Sept. 4, 1757. He was married, Dec. 1, 1702, to Mary, born May 24, 1677, died March 22, 1758, daughter of John and Mary (Andrews) Pratt. They removed about 1707 to Newington, Conn. Their children were: 1, Mary (Whittlesey) Smith, born Oct. 1, 1703; 2, Hannah, born May 13, 1711, married to Hezekiah Post; 3, Eliphalet, Jr., born May 10, 1714. III. Captain Eliphalet Whittlesey, Jr., born May 10, 1714, died July 12, 1786, was married (1), Dec. 16, 1736, to Dorothy, born Dec. 24, 1716, died April 14, 1772, daughter of Captain Martin and Dorothy Kellogg. He was married (2), June 23, 1774, to Hannah, widow of Samuel Mallory, of New Milford, Conn. He was established and commissioned Ensign of the Tenth Company of the 6th Regiment, Conn. Colonial Troops, Oct. 13, 1748, and Captain of the Sixth Company of the 4th Regiment, March 7, 1756. In March, 1758, he was Captain of the Fourth Company of the 6th Regiment, commanded by Colonel Phineas Lyman. In May, 1775, he was elected a member of the General Assembly. He was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., his name appearing on the Indian deed of 1754. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., July 8, 1771, with a company of 65 men, commanded by Captain Zebulon Butler, and subsequently returned to Connecticut. In May, 1774, Captain Eliphalet Whittlesey, in consideration of natural affection, conveyed to his son, Asaph, certain lots in Plymouth which he had drawn some two years previously. (Bib.-1.) The children of Captain Eliphalet and Dorothy (Kellogg) Whittlesey were: 1, Martin, born Oct. 5, 1737, married, Nov. 27, 1760, to Sarah Deming, born 1737, died March 29, 1829. He was of Washington, Litchfield Co., Conn., May 18, 1780, when he sold to Mrs. Lucretia York (Family No. 1324—York) one full settling right in the Susquehanna Purchase; 2, Lemuel, born May 16, 1740, died Aug. 30, 1823, married, Nov. 15, 1764, to Hannah Wells, born April 22, 1742, died April 3 1810; 3, John, born Dec. 23, 1741, died March 22, 1812, married, Nov. 14, 1765, to Mary Beale, born Aug. 24, 1745, died Sept. 30, 1802. He was of Washington, Litchfield Co., Conn., May 10, 1780, when he sold to Mrs. Lucretia York 300 acres belonging to a settling right in the Susquehanna Purchase; 4, Anna, born Jan. 27, 1744, died Jan. 10, 1810, married, Nov. 4, 1762, to Major William Cogswell, born Dec. 22, 1734, died Feb. 19, 1786; 5, Abner, born May 1, 1746, died July 12, 1821, married in 1787, to Ruth Wadsworth, born in 1750, died July 20, 1830; 6, Eliphalet (3d), born July 2, 1748, died Jan. 25, 1823, married Dec. 25, 1771, to Comfort Waller of Kent, Conn., born Nov. 15, 1750, died April 30, 1825, lived and died at Stockbridge, Mass.; 7, David, born Aug. 18, 1750, died Jan. 31, 1825, married (1), in Dec., 1779, to Abigail Judson, born March 24, 1755, died Oct. 1, 1782, married (2), May 19, 1798, to Martha Pomeroy, born April 1, 1768, died Sept. 8, 1827. He owned a full settling right in the Susquehanna Purchase, which he sold, June 1, 1780 to Mrs. Lucretia York. His name appears in the List of Settlers, at Wyoming, in 1769; 8, Captain Asaph, born May 12, 1753, (see later); 9, Dorothy, born Sept. 5, 1755, died July 12, 1824, married, Sept. 27, 1774, to Colonel Perry Averill, born Sept. 18, 1754, died July 10, 1842; 10, Elisha, born Jan. 8, 1758, died Nov. 9, 1802, married, May 29, 1788, to Mary Tucker, born Aug. 3, 1772, died Aug. 31, 1852; 11, Roger, born Oct. 6, 1760, died June 23, 1761.

IV. (8). Captain Asaph Whittlesey, born in Newington, Wethersfield, Conn., May 12, 1753, son of Captain Eliphalet and Dorothy (Kellogg) Whittlesey, was married, Oct. 25, 1774, to Abigail Skeels, who was baptised, at New Milford, Conn., Aug. 31, 1755. The name of Asaph Whittlesey appears in the List of the Proprietors in the Five Townships of Westmoreland, June 17, 1770, presumably on the right of his father, he being only 17 years of age. It also appears in the List of Settlers in the Wyoming Valley, in May, 1772, and on the Tax Lists for Plymouth District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He settled in Plymouth about 1773. His name appears on the petition read in the Continental Congress, March 12, 1776, in which 66 Westmoreland men volunteered their services as "Soldiers in the Defense of Liberty." (Bib.-1.) Feb. 12, 1778, Asaph Whittlesey sold to Jesse Washburne, of Plymouth in 1777, the Meadow Lot in Plymouth belonging to the right or share of land formerly merited, given to, and owned by one Derrick Woodcock, known as No. 6, House Lot, Middle tier, and Meadow Lot No. 33, said Meadow Lot joining Isaac Camp south, and Matthias Van Loon on the north, lying on the lower Shawnee Meadow. Some of his other holdings in Plymouth lands were: Middle tier House Lot No. 14, 10 acres; Third Division Lot No. 15, 33 acres, Fourth Division Lot No. 15, 100 acres, Fifth Division Lot No. 25, 75 acres, and Meadow Lot No. 23, 21 acres. Captain Whittlesey lived on the bank of the little creek, long known as Whittlesey Creek, later Wadham's Creek, which crossed the main street in Plymouth borough a short distance above the Chauncey Reynolds residence. He was established and commissioned Ensign of the Third (Plymouth) Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, Oct. 17, 1775, and had been promoted to Captain of the same company prior to July 1, 1778. He was commissioned Justice of the Peace for Westmoreland in May, 1777, and May, 1778. He commanded the Third Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and was killed in that engagement. The children of

They took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and Rufus Williams and Elihu Williams, Jr., were killed. Elihu Williams, Sr., was deceased in 1782, when letters of administration upon his estate were granted to his widow, Mrs. Desire Williams. (See Harvey's Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley, p. 1149.) The children of Elihu and Desire Williams were: 1, Rufus, (see later); 2, Elihu, Jr., killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, probably not married; 3, Esther, married to Nathan Parrish, (see above); 4, Desire; 5, Martha, living in 1815, married to Ebenezer Parrish, (see above); 6, Lucy, married to Josiah Ives, Jr.,*; 7, Darius, born Jan. 12, 1770, died May 16, 1837, (see later); 8, Olive, married to Amasa Converse, and was of Windsor, Berkshire Co., Mass., Sept. 12, 1798, when, with her husband, she sold to Darius Williams of Plymouth, "Certain lands in Plymouth belonging to Elihu Williams, father of Olive Converse."

II. (1). Rufus, son of Elihu and Desire Williams, was married to Amy, born Jan. 12, 1757, died March 24, 1834, daughter of Judge John and Lydia (Gardner) Jenkins. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.) He was a member of the Third Company of the 24th Regiment of Conn. Militia, and was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. The children of Rufus and Amy (Jenkins) Williams were: 1, Amy, born about 1776, married to Charles, son of Levi and Rebecca (Jones) Townsend,† of

Captain Asaph and Abigail (Skeels) Whittlesey were: 1, Anna, born Oct. 9, 1775, born Milford, Conn., Sept. 9, 1740, died April 3, 1793, New Preston, Conn., and Jane (Baldwin) Camp, born July 12, 1742, died Oct. 1, 1797, married, Oct. 3, 1763. Their only child, Homer, born Oct. 17, 1797, was married to Delia Whittlesey. Joel Camp was married (2), Dec. 26, 1819, to Comfort, born at Stockbridge, Mass., July 27, 1777, died in April, 1838, daughter of Eliphalet and Comfort (Waller) Whittlesey; 2, Abigail, born April 30, 1777, died Oct. 29, 1858, married, June 27, 1801, to William, born Sept. 1, 1777, at New Milford, Conn., son of Nathan and Esther Camp. William Camp was killed by the explosion of the boiler of the steamer Susquehanna on the Susquehanna River at Nescopeck Falls, Pa., May 3, 1826. The home of William and Abigail (Whittlesey) Camp was at Owego, N. Y., and their children were: (1), Eliza Minerva, born Oct. 15, 1802; (2), Henry William, born Feb. 11, 1805; (3), Isabella Maria, born April 8, 1807; (4), Abigail Whittlesey, born Oct. 15, 1808; (5), Susan Laura Ann, born Sept., 1810; (6), Charlotte Catharine, born June 27, 1814, died April 24, 1819; (7), George Sidney, born Sept. 5, 1816; (8), Francis Augustus, born Dec. 9, 1817; (9), Charlotte Caroline, born Dec. 5, 1820; Mrs. Abigail (Whittlesey) Camp was married (2) to Hon. Stephen Strong, born Oct. 11, 1791, died April 5, 1866, of Owego, N. Y.; 3, Laura, born in 1778, died in 1842, married April 17, 1808, to Enos, Jr., baptised at New Milford, Conn., May 7, 1780, son of Enos and Eunice (Bostwick) Camp, some of whose children were: (1), Samuel Orlands, born May 6, 1806; (2), Emeline Eveline, born Oct. 2, 1808; (3), Rebecca Ann, born Feb. 26, 1811; (4), Enos Ralph, born Nov. 28, 1812, all born at New Milford, Conn. Abigail, widow of Captain Asaph Whittlesey is described in Common Pleas Court proceedings, (Bib.-316) in March, 1789, as Abigail Richards, administratrix of the estate of Asaph Whittlesey. In a deed of Sept. 3, 1790, from Jesse Fell, Sheriff, to Putnam Catlin, she is described as Abigail Richards, now Stark, wife of Samuel Stark. In Orphans' Court proceedings of Jan. 23, 1805, she is described as Abigail Stark, widow of Asaph Whittlesey, and the three children of Asaph Whittlesey are named as above. (Bib.-313.) In the Whittlesey Genealogy it is stated that she was married (2) to a Mr. Sparks and (3) to Eliphalet Richards. She was married (2) to Eliphalet Richards, and their children were: (a), Asaph Richards; (b), Clarinda Richards, born Dec. 25, 1784, married to Asaph, son of Eliphalet and Comfort (Waller) Whittlesey. She was married (3), about 1789-90, to Samuel Stark, and they had one daughter, Betsey. Samuel Stark was a taxpayer in Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1792. (Bib.-1 and 238.)

Josiah Ives was of Bristol, Hartford Co., Conn., March 18, 1788, when he bought from Seth Roberts of Bristol, Meadow Lot No. 8, Upper tier, Plymouth, which Elias Roberts (Family No. 988—Roberts), father of Seth, bought of Perrin Ross, and a House Lot of eight acres which Seth Roberts "lately bought of the heirs of Ziba Williams." He removed to Plymouth Township and in 1792, with his son, Josiah, Jr., was assessed as a taxable there. His home stood near the intersection of the old road, that followed the Kingston-Plymouth line, and the old Plymouth road "running from Lawrence Myers, Esq., to Plymouth." Jan. 8, 1802, he bought from William Craig and John Anderson part of Lots 45 and 46 in Plymouth. Dec. 13, 1808, he was of Milton, Tioga Co., N. Y., when he bought from John Anderson parts of Lots 45 and 46, Third Division, Plymouth, 112 acres, a tract called "Mayfield" lying in the vicinity of Shupps' Mills. (See Family No. 994—Shupps' Mills.) One of the children of Josiah Ives apparently was Josiah, Jr., who was married to Lucy, born 1768, daughter of Elihu and Desire Williams. March 26, 1791, Josiah Ives of Plymouth bought from John Nathan Wooley one acre of House Lot No. 1, Upper tier of Plymouth, on the highway between Kingston and Plymouth, and adjoining Meadow Lot No. 1.

†Levi Townsend of Falls Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., was married to Rebecca, daughter of Benjamin Jones of Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa. (Family No. 1238—Jones.) His will, made in Falls Township, Feb. 19, 1827, was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 13, 1834. It names his wife, Rebecca, and his children in the following order: 1, Benjamin; 2, Peter, married, Feb. 11, 1817, by Elder Davis Dimock, to Polly, daughter of John Osterhout. (Family No. 50—Osterhout); 3, Sarah, married to ——— Jones, (Family No. 1238—Jones); 4, Rhoda, married to Benjamin, son of Comfort and Alice (or Elce) Kinyon of Exeter, Pa., and grandson of Benjamin and Rhoda Kinyon of Clinton, Dutchess Co., N. Y., (Jan. 6, 1795); 5, Minerva, married to Luther Daily, (Family No. 988—Daily); 6, Rebecca (Townsend) Sterling; 7, Susan, married to Homer Morgan;

*Ziba (or Seba) Williams, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, had at least the following heirs living Sept. 7, 1787: Samuel Brunson and his wife, Huldah, Ichabod Tyrrell and his wife, Rhoda, and Borden Bebee and his wife, Sibel, all residents of Waterbury, New Haven Co., Conn.

Falls, now Wyoming Co., Pa., then in Luzerne Co., and some of their children were: (1), Hannah, born about 1813-14; (2), Nancy, born about 1815-16; (3), Levi, born about 1816-17. Mrs. Amy (Williams) Townsend was a widow, living in Putnam Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1821 and 1825; 2, John, born April 25, 1777, died Dec. 11, 1863, married to Martha ———, born March 8, 1775, died March 12, 1842, both buried in the Eatonville, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery. John Williams was one of the early settlers in Eaton Township. Jan. 23, 1830, he sold his homestead farm of 150 acres to Asa S. Dana. It was bounded on the east by lands claimed by Rufus Williams, on the south by lands of Benjamin Harding, on the west by lands claimed by James Evans, and on the north by lands of George Lutz and the Putnam Township line. May 4, 1833, he bought from Henry Dimond, of Eaton, Lot 31 of the Double tier, bounded on the north by David Lee, east by Samuel Roberts, and south by Newton Smith, and containing 120 acres. Some of the children of John and Martha Williams were: Betsey, married to Rev. Abraham Frear; Rufus Williams, Darius Williams, probably John Williams, and Mrs. Amy (Williams) Rosencrans. Mrs. Amy (Jenkins) Williams, widow of Rufus Williams, was married (2) to Asahel Atherton (Family No. 992—Atherton), and lived, after her second marriage, in Putnam Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

II. (7). Darius, son of Elihu and Desire Williams, was born Jan. 12, 1770, and died May 16, 1837, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery). He was a noted local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and one of the early members of the famous Ross Hill Class, organized by the Rev. Anning Owen in Plymouth, in 1788. His wife, Huldah, was also an early member of the class. He was married to Huldah ———. His will, made April 23, 1832, and probated May 3, 1837, names their children in the following order: 1, Darius, Jr.; 2, Elihu, born Oct. 28, 1794, died March 3, 1820, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), not named in will; 3, George Lane, youngest son, married to his cousin, Martha, daughter of Jabez and Lucy (Parrish) Wilcox; 4, Cynthia, married, June 18, 1829, to Reuben Jones, Jr.; 5, Alma, married to Horatio Martin; 6, Phebe, born Jan., 1806, died Aug. 16, 1836, married to Rev. Abel Barker, (Family No. 1023—Barker), born 1811, died Sept. 24, 1896, (Forty Fort Cemetery), whose daughter, Frances P., died Aug. 16, 1836, aged 9 months and 25 days; 7, Huldah; 8, Ann, youngest daughter. The Darius Williams homestead was in Plymouth Township, adjoining the Kingston Township line, and included parts of Upper tier House Lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, and Upper tier Meadow Lots Nos. 1 and 2. His youngest son, George Lane, and his youngest daughter, Ann, inherited the homestead. Reuben Jones, Jr., who was married to Cynthia, daughter of Darius Williams, was a son of Reuben Jones, for whose estate Elias Hoyt was appointed administrator, April 7, 1834, with Reuben Jones and John Pierce on his bond in $300.

ISAAC SHOEMAKER VAN SCOY; FAMILY NO. (994)

Isaac Shoemaker, son of Henry Young and Mary Alice (Shoemaker) Van Scoy, was born Nov. 30, 1865. He attended the public schools in Kingston, Pa., and entered Wyoming Seminary in 1883. FRANCES ANN PEARNE (SHOEMAKER) BROWNSCOMB; FAMILIES NOS. 995—(987)

Frances Ann Pearne, daughter of Isaac Countryman and Catharine Ann (Shoemaker) Shoemaker, was named for the wife of the Rev. Thomas H. Pearne. She was born in New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 24, 1849, and was baptised May 8, 1850, by the Rev. William Reddy, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She attended the "Shoemaker School" in childhood and was also a student at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa. From childhood she was interested in the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was a member in 1860. Throughout her life she was an earnest and energetic worker in the various enterprises of the church. She was a member of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, Wilkes-Barre, and also of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church and, at the time of her death, was one of the Vice Presidents of the Homeopathic Hospital Association of Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley. She was married, at the Isaac C. Shoemaker residence, Wyoming, Pa., by the Rev. Henry Brownscomb, assisted by the Rev. Robert W. Van Schoick, Oct. 8, 1873, to Henry Watson, born Oct. 11, 1847, died April 9, 1874, son of the Rev. Henry and Sarah E. (Overfield) Brownscomb. She died at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 13, 1916, and is buried beside her husband, in the Brownscomb plot in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

THE BROWNSCOMB FAMILY

The Rev. Henry Brownscomb was born in Brigrule, Cornwall, England, Aug. 18, 1817. He came to America with his parents, who settled in Bethany, Wayne Co., Pa., in 1830. He was converted Nov. 25, 1835, at Honesdale, Pa., and was licensed as a local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1841. In the latter year he was admitted, on trial, to membership in the Oneida Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, in 1869, when the boundaries of the Wyoming Conference were extended, he became a member of the latter conference. With the exception of three years, from 1869 to 1872, he served in the active ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church from 1841 to 1886. Among his pastorates were: Tunkhannock, 1849-50; Providence, Pa., 1851-2, and 1863-6; Carbondale, 1854; Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, 1855-6, and 1867-8; New Troy (now Wyoming), 1859-60; Presiding Elder Wyalusing District, 1863-6; Parrish Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 1883-5. He was married, Oct. 21, 1843, to Sarah E., born Feb. 28, 1820, died June 21, 1902, daughter of Paul (2) and Lydia (Lacey) Overfield, (Overfield family later) and their children were: 1, John P., born in Dundaff, Pa., Oct. 13, 1845, died Jan. 30, 1891, married to Jennie, born June 28, 1845, died June 20, 1884, daughter of Charles Burroughs, born Aug. 1, 1819, died April 20, 1888, and Mary A. (Goucher) Price, born Sept. 12, 1820, died June 30, 1894, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., (see Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys), 2, H. Watson, born Oct. 11, 1847, (see later); 3, Kate, born in Providence, Pa., Aug. 27, 1851, died June 22, 1879, married, June 22, 1876, to Albert H., son of Jonas and Mary (Taylor) Phillips, who were born in Brattleboro, Vt., settled in Susquehanna Co., Pa., about 1834, and later removed to Tunkhannock, Pa. Albert H. Phillips served as private and Corporal in Company E, 9th Regiment, Pa. Cavalry, in the Civil War and later was a member of the firm of Billings and Phillips of Tunkhannock. He subsequently removed to Wilkes-Barre. He was married (2), in 1881, to Alice E., daughter of Samuel and Nancy (Gardner) Carpenter, (Family No. 14—Carpenter and No. 14—Gardner), and their children are: Arline, born Aug. 12, 1884; Mary Derr, born Nov. 12, 1887, and Louise Carpenter, deceased.

Henry Watson, son of Rev. Henry and Sarah E. (Overfield) Brownscomb, was born in Mount Pleasant, Wayne Co., Pa., Oct. 11, 1847. He was a graduate of the Commercial Department of Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., and was interested, for a number of years, with his brother, John P. Brownscomb, in the stone business at Meshoppen, Pa., where they operated large quarries. He was a member of the F. and A. M. and of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Wilkes-Barre. He was married, Oct. 8, 1873, to Frances Ann Pearne, daughter of Isaac Countryman and Catharine Ann (Shoemaker) Shoemaker. He died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 9, 1874. The Rev. Henry Brownscomb, his wife and all of their children are buried in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

THE OVERFIELD FAMILY

I. Paul Overfield, said to have been born in North Germany in 1715, came to America with his parents, who settled on the Delaware River near Easton, Pa. He was married to Rebecca Marshall, and in 1790 was living in Lower Springfield Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and had in family, living at home, himself and two females. He died in 1800, aged about 85 years. The children of Paul and Rebecca (Marshall) Overfield were: 1, Abner, who, May 14, 1778, was a private in Captain Timothy Jayne's Company of Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, and who, in 1780, 1781 and 1782, was a private in Captain Henry Shoemaker's Fifth Company of the Fifth Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia, commanded by Colonel Jacob Stroud; 2, Benjamin, born about 1752, (see later); 3, Martin, who served in 1780, 1781 and 1782 in Captain Henry Shoemaker's Company, Fifth Battalion, Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, Colonel Jacob Stroud, commanding, and who was married to Elizabeth Ott. In 1790 he lived in Lower Smithfield Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and had in family, living at home, himself, three males under 16 and four females, (Bib.-10); 4, Sarah, married to Lieutenant Moses Van Campen; 5, Mary, married to John Dailey; 6, Rachel, married to John Pennell; 7, Paul, Jr., (see later); 8, William, living in Lower Smithfield in 1790, having in family himself, one male under 16 and three females; 9, Elizabeth, married to Edward Marshall, (order of birth not known to writer): A Richard Overfield, a member of Captain Nelson's Company of Mount Bethel, Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, enlisted in Captain John Arndt's Company in Colonel Baxter's First Battalion of Northampton County Associators, was in the battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776, and was reported among the killed, wounded and missing, following that engagement.

II. (2). Benjamin, son of Paul and Rebecca (Marshall) Overfield, was born presumably in Lower Smithfield, Northampton Co., Pa., about 1752. He was a private in Captain Timothy Jayne's Company of Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, May 14, 1778, and also a private in Captain Henry Shoemaker's Company, the Fifth Company, of Colonel Jacob Stroud's Fifth Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia, in 1780, 1781 and 1782, in the War of the American Revolution. He was married (1), about 1771, to Maria, baptised at Walpack, N. J., Aug. 16, 1752 (Bib.-240), daughter of Manuel and Jannete (Van Etten) Consales, (see Consales-Gunsalis family later) and some of their children were: 1, Manuel, born Aug. 17, 1772, baptised at Walpack, N. J., Aug. 30, 1772, Manuel and Jannetje (Van Etten) Gonsalis, sponsors; 2, Maria, born May 23, 1787, baptised at Walpack, Aug. 13, 1787, same sponsors; 3, Helena, born May 24 (23?), 1787; 4, Benjamin, Jr., (probably son by first marriage), named in his father's will, and living in Troy, Miami Co., Ohio, May 6, 1817, when he sold his interest in his father's estate to his brother, Paul; 5, probably Martin, named in his father's will; 6, Rebecca, probably, named in her father's will. Benjamin Overfield was married (2) to Margaret Henshaw, and the dates of the birth of two of their children are recorded in the records of the Reformed Church at Walpack, N. J., as follows: 7, Paul (2), born May 22, 1792; 8, Sarah (or Sally Ann), born June 9, 1794, recorded Aug. 17, 1794, who was married to John, son of Samuel and Mary Sterling of Braintrim Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1790 Benjamin Overfield was living in Lower Smithfield, Northampton Co., Pa., and had in family living at home, himself, two males under 16 years of age and five females. He later removed from Lower Smithfield to Braintrim Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., where his brother, Paul Overfield, Jr., had settled prior to 1790. Sept. 12, 1811, he bought from Thomas Overton, then of Ulster Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., attorney for Joseph Wharton, Esq., and Caleb Foulke of Philadelphia, 68 acres of land, situated on the Susquehanna River in Braintrim Township. His will, made in Braintrim, Oct. 22, 1813, was probated, at Wilkes-Barre, Dec. 7, 1813, and names his wife, Peggy, his son Paul, to whom he gave his blacksmith tools, farming implements, etc.; his sons Martin and Benjamin, Jr., and his daughters Rebecca and Sally Ann. Daniel Sterling and Joseph Gamble signed the will as witnesses and Paul Overfield, his son, and John Sterling, his son-in-law, were named executors. He died in Meshoppen, Pa., in Oct., 1813.

III. (1). Paul (2), son of Benjamin and Margaret (Henshaw) Overfield, was born in Lower Smithfield Township, Northampton Co., Pa., May 22, 1792, and died at Meshoppen, Pa., Feb. 15, 1871. June 7, 1813, he bought from Thomas Overton, attorney for Joseph Wharton, Esq., and Caleb and Charles Foulke, of Philadelphia, Pa., a tract of land, called "Relief from Tyranny," on the east side of the North Branch of the Susquehanna River, one and one-half miles above the mouth of "Mashauping," in and on a creek called Sinkaman, 49 acres, in Luzerne Co., Pa. March 20, 1817, he sold to Nicholas Overfield for $47.50, "All my right and title to one equal half of my share in the fishery opposite Black Walnut Bottom, in Braintrim, which I bought of David Young of Springville Township, Susquehanna Co., leased Aug. 20, 1814, given to David Young and others, by Daniel Sterling to the Fish Company." Paul Overfield (2) was married, June 14, 1812, to Lydia Lacey, who was born about 1794 and died Aug. 14, 1872, aged 78 years. His will was made April 16, 1859, and was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., June 7, 1871, and was dated at Meshoppen. It names his wife Lydia, and all of the following children excepting Martha (order of birth not known to writer): 1, William, born Oct. 10, 1813, married (1), Feb. 25, 1836, to Anna Bunnell, who died March 11, 1854, married (2) to Minerva H. Keeney; 2, Harriet, married to Almon G., son of Rev. Aden Stilwell; 3, Sarah E., born Feb. 28, 1820, died June 21, 1902, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.) married to the Rev. Henry Brownscomb; 4, Benjamin, born March 28, 1822, married, March 2, 1847, to Lois A. Camp; 5, Ann C., living in 1906; 6, Eliza R. (Overfield) Bunnell; 7, Margaret (Overfield) Sturdevant; 8, Nancy M. (Overfield) Smith; 10, Martha.

II. (7). Paul, Jr., son of Paul and Rebecca (Marshall) Overfield, was married to Hannah, daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Shoemaker) De Pui, and a sister of Moses De Pui, baptised at Walpack, N. J., June 13, 1762. (Bib.-240.) Paul Overfield, Jr., removed to Luzerne Co., Pa., before 1790, and in that year had in family, living at home, himself, one male under 16 and two females. He was assessed in Wyalusing Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1792 and died in 1832. Two of the children of Paul, Jr., and Hannah (De Pui) Overfield were: 1, Nicholas, born in 1787, died Feb. 5, 1859, married to Harriet, born about 1790, daughter of Samuel and Mary Sterling (Family No. 12—Sterling), whose will, made at Meshoppen, Pa., Jan. 12, 1859, was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., Feb. 11, 1859; 2, Moses, born April 13, 1793, married to Fairlee Loomis. (Family No. 12—Sterling.)

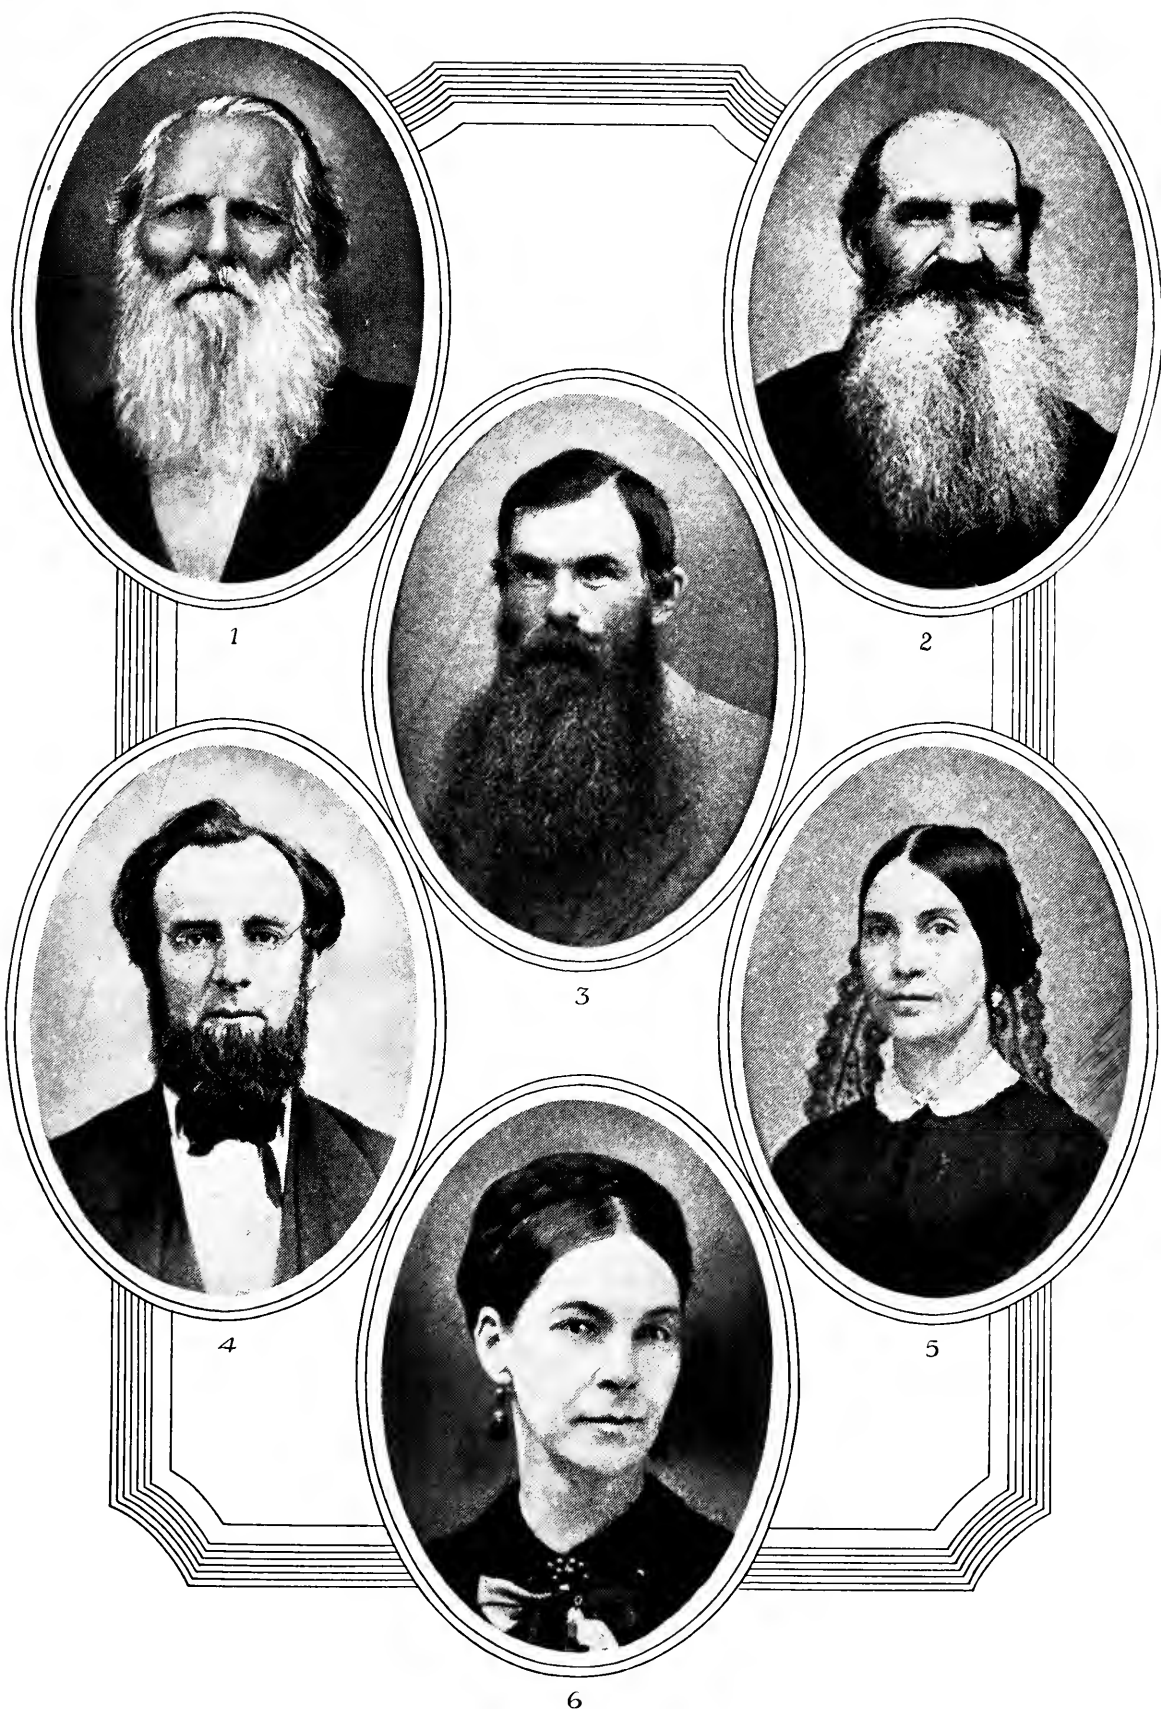

THE CONSALIS FAMILY

(Consalis, Consalis-duk, Gunsales-duk, Gunsalis, Gonsaly, Gonzaley, Gonsalis)

I. Manuel and Maritje (David) Gunsalis of Ulster Co., N. Y., had a son Manuel, baptised Nov. 16, 1694. (Bib.-241.)

II. Manuel, Jr., baptised Nov. 16, 1694, son of Manuel and Maritje (David) Gonsalis, was probably the Manuel or Emanuel Gunsalis* who was born and raised in Marbletown, Ulster Co., N. Y., and who was married, Sept. 25, 1719, to Rymerick Quick of Rochester, N. Y. Manuel and Rymerick (Quick) Gunsalis (Consales) removed, before 1737, to the Minisink Valley and probably settled in Smithfield,

*Another Manuel Gunsalis was married to Rebecca Westfall and some of their children were: 1, John, baptised May 7, 1710; 2, Helena, baptised Oct. 25, 1713; 3, Lea, baptised Jan. 19, 1718; 4, Catrina, baptised July 1, 1724; 5, Catrina (2), baptised April 9, 1727; 6, Jacobus, baptised June 1, 1729. This Manuel Gunsalis evidently lived in Kingston and, also, apparently, had a son, Manuel, Jr. In 1728 a Manuel Gunsalis and his son, Manuel, Jr., were freeholders in Kingston. In 1738 a Manuel Gousales was a Corporal, and a Manuel Gousales, Jr., was a private, in Captain Cornelius Hoornbeck's Company of Ulster Co., N. Y., Militia. (Bib.-138.)

Bucks Co., Pa. Some of their children were: 1, Manuel, (see later); 2, Daniel, baptised Feb. 3, 1723, (Bib.-241) married to Elizabeth Van Vliet, whose son, Manuel, was baptised Jan. 19, 1752, Manuel and Rymerick (Quick) Gunsalis, sponsors, and whose son, Benjamin, was baptised Dec. 16, 1753, (Bib.-240); 3, Benjamin, baptised Oct. 25, 1724, (Bib.-240) married to ——— Van Vliet; 4, Maria, married to Johannes Van Etten; 5, Jacob, married, Jan. 28, 1753, to Sarah Westbrook; 6, Sarah; 7, Elizabeth, baptised Oct. 13, 1728, (Bib.-240); 8, Samuel, baptised May 4, 1737, (Bib.-240), (order of birth uncertain).

III. (1). Manuel, son of Manuel (or Emanuel) and Rymerick (Quick) Gunsalis (Consalis), was married (1) to Rachel Louw, and, described as the widower of Rachel Louw, was married (2), March 23, 1750, to Jannetje Van Etten. Their home was in Delaware Township, Northampton Co., Pa., when, in 1785, Manuel Consalis was assessed as the owner of 287 acres of land. According to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1) their farm was situated on Bushkill Creek, where Manuel Consalis owned a grist mill in 1775. He was a Proprietor in the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and was appointed Lister, March 1, 1774. (Bib.-1.) He served as a soldier in the War of the American Revolution and was recommended by Major Benjamin Van Camp, commanding a battalion of Northampton County Militia, for election to Lieutenant. Some of the children of Manuel and Jannetje (Van Etten) Consalis (Gunsalis) were: 1, Elizabeth, baptised at Walpack, N. J., Feb. 10, 1751, Daniel and Elizabeth (Van Vliet) Consalis, sponsors; 2, Maria, baptised at Walpack, Aug. 16, 1752, John and Maria (Gunsalis) Van Etten, sponsors, married, about 1771, to Benjamin, son of Paul and Rebecca (Marshall) Overfield, (see above); 3, Sarah, baptised at Walpack, Sept. 30, 1754, married to Benjamin Brink, whose son, Manuel, was born Oct. 3, 1781, and baptised May 23, 1783; 4, probably Benjamin, married to Alida Van Etten; 5, probably Manuel; 6, Samuel, born June 19, 1771, baptised Sept. 26, 1771. (Bib.-240.)

MARY ANN (SHOEMAKER) BALDWIN-TUTTLE; FAMILIES NOS. 996—(986)

Mary Ann, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker, was born at Frey's Bush, Minden, Montgomery Co., N. Y., Oct. 19, 1812, and was baptised, Nov. 15, 1812, by the Rev. John J. Wack of the Reformed Church of Stone Arabia and Fort Plain, N. Y., William and Maria (Countryman) Wohlgemuth, sponsors. She removed in 1817, with her parents to New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was married there (1), July 16, 1835, by the Rev. John Dorrance, to David Baldwin, as his second wife. They had one daughter, Penelope E., who was born May 4, 1837.

David Baldwin was born March 16, 1801, and was one of the early teachers of the Island School in Mill Hollow, now Luzerne Co., Pa. A David Baldwin was initiated in Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 5, 1824. Before Oct. 22, 1823, David Baldwin was a merchant and on that date he advertised in the Wyoming Herald, as follows: "The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has recommenced the Mercantile Business, in the store formerly occupied by William Swetland in Kingston. From whom he has purchased his whole stock of merchandise and will keep constantly on hand a general and well selected assortment of seasonable goods. N. B. No credit given." In the Wyoming Herald of Nov. 30, 1827, he announced: "The subscriber has just received from Philadelphia, and offers the public generally, a well selected assortment of seasonable goods which, together with his former stock, comprises a large and general assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Glass and Queensware, Nails, Iron, Steel, Paints, Dye Stuffs, Drugs and Medicines, Lath, Salt, Shad, Machine Looking Glasses, etc., all of which he will sell, at a low rate, for cash and country produce generally." In 1830 David Baldwin was assessed, in Kingston Township, as Postmaster (at New Troy) and a member of the firm of Swetland and Baldwin, Merchants, William Swetland apparently having secured an interest in the business. They occupied the Swetland store which had been erected in 1815, and in which Elias Hoyt and William Swetland, in the summer of 1815, began business as merchants, under the firm name of Hoyt and Swetland, as announced in The Gleaner of July 14, 1815. Swetland and Baldwin dissolved partnership in 1832, and at about that time David Baldwin leased a piece of land from Fisher Gay and upon this land erected a store in which he was engaged in business as a merchant, until 1840. Edward D. Whiston (Family No. 3—Swetland), who had been, in 1831, a member of the firm of Breese and Whiston, and a partner of John Breese, probably occupying the old Oehmig store at Wyoming, Pa., then Troy Corners, occupied this building in 1840. It probably stood near the site of the Wyoming Monument and on the south side of Wyoming avenue. July 25, 1831, David Baldwin bought from Fisher Gay a building lot, 100 feet wide, on what is now Wyoming avenue. This building lot was in the "south corner" of Lot 31 and adjoining Lot 30. He built his home on this lot between the old Fisher Gay (formerly Philip Jackson) house and the site of the present (1917) residence, formerly the home of Payne Pettebone. A Mr. Belding occupied the David Baldwin home in 1840. In April, 1840, the year he died, David Baldwin entered into an agreement to sell to William Swetland and Payne Pettebone, his store, goods, lands and house, and to assign to them his lease of the land on which his store stood, for $5,000. Included in his holdings of real estate was Meadow Lot No. 4, 37 acres, bounded north by the Main road, northeast by Fisher Gay, southeast by the Susquehanna River and southwest by Lot No. 5, owned by William Swetland. He died July 26, 1840. Title to his property was conveyed, according to the terms of the agreement, by his widow, and administratrix of his estate, Aug. 19, 1844. The first wife of David Baldwin, to whom he was married, June 8, 1826, by the Rev. Enoch Huntington, was Penelope, born March 30, 1808, died Dec. 14, 1832, daughter of General Samuel and Marcia (Pettebone) Thomas, (Family No. 988—Pettebone) and their children were: 1, Andrew S., born Feb. 9, 1827, died March 11, 1827; 2, Marcia, born Sept. 2, 1828, for whom William Swetland was appointed guardian. She grew to womanhood and died a number of years ago, not married; 3, Anna, born June 27, 1831, died April 29, 1832. David Baldwin is buried beside his first wife on the original Pettebone plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Ann (Shoemaker) Baldwin was married (2) to Chester, son of John and Mary (Bennett) Tuttle, (Family No. 1174—Tuttle, No. 1313—Bennett). Their daughter, Mary Rosanna, was born Nov. 3, 1850.

Chester Tuttle was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Dec. 22, 1806, and grew to manhood on the John Tuttle homestead. He was an early school teacher in Kingston Township and, later in life, also taught again, in the school at Wyoming.* In 1832 Chester Tuttle and Charles W. Parmelee, bought the interest of S. Prentiss and Courtland P. Condit in the S. Prentiss and Company store, in the "Jacob Bedford Hatter Shop" building, at the corner of what are now Shoemaker avenue and Eighth street, Wyoming, Pa. In July, 1833, Jonathan Mooers became the partner of Chester Tuttle in the business. The new firm lasted only one month and, July 27, 1833, Mr. Tuttle bought the interest of Mr. Mooers. He continued the business until Sept. 24, 1833, when he sold it to Isaac C. Shoemaker (Family No. 987), but it appears very probable from the Shoemaker records that Chester Tuttle was employed for several years in the store of Isaac C. Shoemaker. He served from 1836 to 1841 and from 1851 to 1853 as clerk for the Commissioners of Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1845 he was identified, as owner, or editor, with the Luzerne Democrat, a popular newspaper published in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and which was subsequently owned by S. S. Benedict, who was, for many years, the owner and editor of the Carbondale, Pa., Advance. Chester Tuttle was Captain of the Wyoming Troop, a noted Militia organization. He also served as a Deputy Sheriff and was, for fifteen years, in the service of the Navy Department at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Mary Ann (Shoemaker) Baldwin-Tuttle died in Washington, D. C., March 14, 1870, and was buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery, but was later removed to Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa. Captain Chester Tuttle died July 17, 1883, and is buried in the Forty Fort Cemetery.

PENELOPE E. (BALDWIN) CRAWFORD; FAMILIES NO. 997 (996)

Penelope E., daughter of David and Mary Ann (Shoemaker) Baldwin, was born in New Troy, now Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 4, 1837. She was educated in the public schools and at Wyoming Seminary. She was a highly accomplished teacher of music and was, for a number of years, at the head of the Department of Music at Wyoming Seminary and also filled a similar position in the Illinois Conference Seminary of the Metho-

*The school house, in which Chester Tuttle taught, stood, at that time, and probably from about 1813-14, on the lot known as the Steuben Jenkins homestead. It stood originally on the site of the hotel long known as the Laycock Hotel, at the corner of what are now Wyoming avenue and Eighth street, Wyoming, Pa. In April, 1801, Joseph Swetland and others petitioned the Court of Quarter Sessions for the appointment of viewers to lay out a road "to begin at or near the school house, standing on the road from the house of Benjamin Carpenter, Esq., to the main road in Kingston Township, and from said school house in a straight line to the Susquehanna River." It is probable that Lot Breese (Family No. 988—Breese) removed the old school house to the site on the Jenkins homestead about the time he established the hotel on the corner in 1813-14. The school house that stood on the Jenkins homestead was, many years ago, removed to a lot on what is now Sixth street, Wyoming, on lands now (1918) owned by the Wyoming Cemetery Association.

dist Episcopal Church at Jacksonville, Ill. She was married, Dec. 23, 1873, at the residence of Isaac C. Shoemaker, by the Rev. Reuben Nelson, D. D., assisted by the Rev. R. W. Van Schoick, to Dr. J. M. Crawford, of Cincinnati, Ohio, where she died Oct. 8, 1893. She was first buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery, but her remains were later removed to Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.

MARY ROSANNA (TUTTLE) SHERMAN; FAMILIES NOS. 998

Mary Rosanna, daughter of Captain Chester and Mary Ann (Shoemaker) Baldwin-Tuttle, was born at Wyoming, Pa., Nov. 3, 1850, and was married, Nov. 29, 1876, to Dr. Lewis, born Nov. 25, 1843, died July 2, 1915, son of William McClary, born Oct. 21, 1820, died Jan., 1891, and Hannah (Lewis) Sherman, born May 29, 1821, died July 29, 1907, natives of West Rupert, Bennington Co., Vt.

Dr. Lewis Sherman, Homeopathic Physician, was graduated A. B. by Union College in 1865 and A. M. in 1868. He was graduated M. D. by the University of New York in 1870, and in the same year began the practice of medicine in Milwaukee, Wis., where he also owned a pharmacy. The children of Dr. Lewis and Mary Rosanna (Tuttle) Sherman, are: 1, Gertrude, born Aug. 26, 1877, graduated A. B. by the University of Wisconsin in 1900. Has served as Treasurer of the College Endowment Association, Director of the Girls' Industrial Institute, State Industrial member of the Food Commission of Milwaukee, appointed by the Mayor of the city, in 1917; 2, Leta, born Oct. 21, 1878, graduated A. B. by the University of Wisconsin in 1901; 3, Helen, born Dec. 1, 1879, graduated A. B. in 1902 and A. M. in 1905 by the University of Wisconsin, taught for some time in Milwaukee Downer College and was for two years a Micro-Analyst, in the Bureau of Chemistry in the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., married (Family No. 999), Jan. 2, 1918, to Robert Almer Harper; 4, Lewis, Jr., born June 24, 1886, graduated B. S. by the University of Wisconsin, in 1907, married (Family No. 1000), Jan. 29, 1913, to Erminie, daughter of Frank S. and Martha (Wunderlich) Rost. He is a member of the Jewett and Sherman Company, merchants, and owners and operators of a coffee and spice mill in Milwaukee, Wis. His address is 487 East North avenue in that city. Dr. Sherman and his son, Lewis, were both members of the F. and A. M., Ivanhoe Commandery, Masonic Knights Templar, and Wisconsin Consistory.

ROSANNA GOODWIN (SHOEMAKER) TRIPP; FAMILIES
NOS. 1001—(986)

Rosanna Goodwin, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker, was born at New Troy, now West Wyoming, Pa., Sept. 25, 1817, and was baptised in Jan., 1818. She was married, Feb. 20, 1836, to

Colonel Ira, son of Isaac, Jr., and Catharine (LaFrance) Tripp, (Tripp and LaFrance families later). Their children were: 1, Isaac C., born March 29, 1839, died Oct. 11, 1882; 2, Leander Shoemaker, born Feb. 27, 1841, died June 22, 1876; 3, William B., born Jan. 26, 1846, died Sept. 12, 1847; 4, Gertrude, born Jan. 18, 1848, died May 3, 1874, not married. (See Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys, Vol. II, pp. 90, 92.)

Mrs. Rosanna G. (Shoemaker) Tripp attended the Presbyterian Church at Wyoming until her marriage. She later became a member of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church of Scranton, Pa. She and her entire family are buried in the Colonel Ira Tripp plot in Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.

Colonel Ira Tripp was born in Providence Township, now Scranton, Lackawanna Co., Pa., Jan. 6, 1814, and was educated in the public schools. He early engaged in business as a merchant in Scranton. He owned a large farm at Providence and another at Dalton, Pa. These he also managed, making a specialty of standard bred horses and Alderney cattle. He owned the old Tripp homestead and remodelled the old house. He was an early coal operator at Scranton, having opened a mine on the homestead and later sunk the Tripp shaft, a famous colliery. In early life he was a Whig and in 1856 supported John C. Fremont for President. In 1855 Governor James Pollock commissioned him to serve as Aide-de-Camp on his staff, with rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He enlisted April 23, 1861, and served for nine months as Hospital Steward of the Eighth Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War. He was taken prisoner and was for a time confined in Libby Prison. From Libby Prison he wrote to his brother-in-law, Captain Chester Tuttle, in Washington, D. C., under date of "Richmond, Sept. 15, '62," as follows:

"Friend Tuttle: Dear Sir: I have written to you since my imprisonment and have received no answer. I presume you did not receive them. If this chances to reach you, please answer. I have just received one from my wife and hear they are all well. I want you to urge the exchange of prisoners in some form, if you can have any influence with the heads of the department, or whoever has the power to do it. I am well and fair well except lodging, which is pretty hard, a blanket and the hard floor. My love to all the family. (Signed.) Truly Yours. Ira Tripp."

Colonel Ira Tripp was one of the foremost men of his native town, was identified with many of the enterprises which led to the development of the city of Scranton, Pa., and was an early stockholder in the People's Street Railway. He was a member of Griffin Post, Grand Army of the Republic, into which he was mustered April 12, 1890. His race track and driving park were famous throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania State Fair was held on his farm. His fondness for the odor of a fine cigar won for him a unique distinction. Prohibited, by his physician, the privilege of indulging personally in the luxury of smoking, he employed a proxy to do his smoking for him. His special source of pride was the quality of his finely bred horses and cattle, which were winners of first premiums at all the local fairs. A worthy son of a patriotic ancestry, highly esteemed by all who knew him, he died at Scranton, Pa., Aug. 3, 1891, and was buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.

THE TRIPP FAMILY

I. John Tripp,* or Trippe, is said to have been born in 1610, and to have died in 1678. (Bib.-1.) He was a native of England, a carpenter by trade, and came to America before 1638. He settled in Portsmouth, in the Colony of Rhode Island, and was a resident there April 30, 1639, when he acknowledged his allegiance to King Charles. On Aug. 1, 1639, he was admitted an "Inhabytant of the Island now called Aqueedneck." At a General Town Meeting, held at Portsmouth, March 1, 1643, it was voted that John Tripp have granted "3 akers of land joyning with Thomas Gorton, either syde of him, as should be judged meet by the latter." In May, 1648, he was a member of the "First General Court Tryalls," and May 16, 1648, was a member of the General Court of Commissioners for the Colony. He served as a Commissioner for Portsmouth in 1654-55-58-61-62 and 63. In 1655 he was named, with John Roome and John Briggs, of Portsmouth, to "make ye rates" for Portsmouth. May 25, 1655, Captain John Cranton, Henrie Bull, John Green, Jr., John Tripp and Christopher Hawxhurst were chosen a sub-committee of the Commissioners to "ripen against morninge some way of suppressinge of selling liquers." June 30, 1655, Thomas Olney, Benedict Arnold, Captain John Cranston, Randall Holden, William Dyre and John Tripp were named a committee to "Consider about some way of preventing sale of ammunitiion to ye Indians." In 1655 his name appears on the "Roule of ye Freemen of ye Colonie, of every towne," as a resident of Portsmouth. He served as a Deputy to the General Assembly of the Colony of Rhode Island in 1663-64-69-70-71-72-73-74 and 1675, and was appointed Assistant (i. e. Magistrate) in 1670-71-72-73-74 and 1675. Nov. 6, 1672, he was named on a committee to audit the accounts of the late General Treasurer, Mr. John Coggeshall, and was also made a member of a general Auditing Committee. Oct. 29, 1673, John Easton, William Harris, John Tripp, Peter Easton and Lieutenant William Cade-man were appointed a committee "To prepare matters for the Assembly, concerning the Indians' drunkenness, the encouragement of the Militia and the danger we are in by the late enterprise of the Dutch taking New York." (Bib.-251.)

John Tripp was married to Mary Paine (Bib.-1) and, according to Savage (Bib.-101), Anthony Paine, in his will, gave a legacy to Mary, wife of John Tripp, for which her husband gave a discharge to the testator's relict, by name of Rose Weeden. Apparently some of the children of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp were (order of birth not known): 1, John, Jr.; 2, Peleg; 3, Joseph; 4, Alice; 5, Isabel; 6, Job; 7, Abiel; 8, Martha; 9, James; 10, ———, married to William Waddell or Wodell, son of William Wodell of Portsmouth, whose children were: William, Richard, Rebecca, Gersham, Sarah, Mary, Innocent; 11, probably Othniel. Mrs. Mary Tripp, widow of John Tripp, was married (2), April 4, 1682, to Benjamin Engells and died Feb. 12, 1687-8. (Savage and Bib.-257.)

II. (1). John Tripp, Jr., son of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was of Portsmouth, R. I., May 5, 1696, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony of Rhode Island. He was married at Portsmouth, Sept. 7, 1665, by William Baulston, Assistant, to Susanna, daughter of John Anthony,† and some of their children were: 1, Susanna, born Oct. 31, 1667, probably married, Jan. 20, 1686-7, at Portsmouth, to Thomas Porter; 2, Mary, born Dec. 9, 1670; 3, John (3d), born July 19, 1673, of Portsmouth, May 1, 1706, when admitted a Freeman of the Colony, married at Portsmouth, Sept. 6, 1693, by Giles Slocum, Assistant, to Mary Hart of Richmond,

*The name of John Tripp, who was 17 years of age in 1635, appears on the list of passengers of the ship Truelove of London. Robert Dennis, Master, from the Port of London, June 10, 1635, en route to the Bormoodes or Somer Island. (Bib.-246.)

†According to Savage (Bib.-101) Susannah, daughter of John Anthony, was the second wife of John Tripp, Sr. In view of authentic data, herein presented, this statement appears to be highly improbable. John Anthony, born about 1607, died July 28, 1675, whose widow, Frances, died Oct. 12, 1692, named the following children in his will: 1, John; 2, Joseph; 3, Abraham; 4, Susannah, wife of John Tripp; 5, Elizabeth, wife of James Green. (Bib.-101.)

whose children were: (1), John (4th), born Nov. 3, 1694; (2), Sarah, born April 23, 1696; (3), Richard (1), born Jan. 24, 1697-8, died Dec. 28, 1712; (4), Susannah, born Nov. 26, 1698-9; (5), Isabel, born Jan. 14, 1701-2; (6), Mary, born Dec. 1, 1703; (7), Othniel, born July 6, 1705; (8), Anna, born June 16, 1707; (9), Abiel, born Dec. 1, 1709; (10), Abigail, born Nov. 12, 1711; (11), Richard (2), born Feb. 16, 1715-16; 4. Othniel,* born June 5, 1676, probably of Newport, May 1, 1718, when admitted a Freeman of the Colony; 5, Benjamin, born Feb. 21, 1677, of Portsmouth, May 1, 1706, when admitted a Freeman of the Colony, married, July 31, 1702, to Elizabeth, daughter of Nathaniel Potter of Dartmouth, three of whose children, born at Portsmouth, were: Katharine, born May 17, 1708; Benjamin, born Nov. 16, 1709, and Nathaniel, born Feb. 27, 1711-12; 6, Lott, born Dec. 26, 1684, of Portsmouth, May 6, 1707, when admitted a Freeman of the Colony. (The births of four children of Benjamin Tripp were recorded at Dartmouth: Lydia, born Oct. 31, 1714; Rebecca, born May 1, 1717; Elizabeth, born May 6, 1722; Stoak, born May 13, 1725.)

II. (2). Peleg Tripp, doubtless a son of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was a Deputy in the General Assembly of the Colony of Rhode Island, March 10, 1680, and was appointed a member of a "Committee to be assistant to the Governor, to consider of and draw up an answer to the 27 questions sent from the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council to the Colony." With Captain John Albrow he was appointed to run the westerly line of the Colony of Rhode Island. March 16, 1780, he was named to serve on a committee to wait upon Mrs. Mary Cranston, widow of Governor John Cranston, "for the Charter and all other writings belonging to the Colony." In May, 1681, and May, 1686, he represented Portsmouth as Deputy in the General Assembly. He was married to Ann, daughter of Richard and Mary Sisson† of Dartmouth.

II. (3). Joseph Tripp, son of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was of Portsmouth, R. I., May 4, 1675, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony. He was married at Dartmouth, Aug. 6, 1667, to Mehitable, daughter of Thomas and Mary Fish,‡ and their children were: 1, John, born July 6, 1668; 2, Thomas, born March 28, 1670; 3, Jonathan, born Oct. 5, 1671; 4, Peleg, born March 5, 1673, probably married (second wife), April 29, 1712, at Dartmouth, to Elizabeth, daughter of Stephen Cornell; 5, Ebenezer, born Dec. 17, 1675; 6, James, born Jan. 12, 1677; 7, Alice, born Feb. 1, 1679; 8, Abiel, born Jan. 8, 1681; 9, Mehitable, born Oct. 9, 1683; 10, Joseph, Jr., born Aug. 24, 1685, of Portsmouth, May 6, 1707, when admitted a Freeman of the Colony, married (probably 2), Nov. 13-30, 1718, at Tiverton, R. I., by Job Almey, Justice, to Elizabeth Wilcox of Little Compton, R. I. Some of the children of Joseph Tripp, Jr., were (recorded at Dartmouth): Abigail, born Aug. 11, 1710; Ruth, born Nov. 6, 1712; Price, born May 15, 1715; Dinah, born Nov., 1716; Philip, born April 3, 1725; Hannah, born Aug. 13, 1728, and Benjamin, married, at Swansey, March 22, 1740, to Martha, daughter of James and Martha Luther of Swansey; 11, Jabez, born Nov. 3, 1687; 12, Mary, born Aug. 22, 1689, (birth recorded at East Greenwich, other births recorded at Dartmouth). Mary was married at East Greenwich, Jan. 25, 1710, to Thomas, born April 23, 1683, son of Reuben Waite,¶ and their children were: 1, John, born Nov. 30, 1711; 2, Reuben, born Feb. 7, 1713-14; 3, Thomas, born Feb. 29, 1715-16; 4, Mary, born April 5, 1718, probably married, Nov. 13, 1743, to Captain William Tripp; 5, Merebee (Meribah), born July 20, 1720; 6, Mehitable, born Nov. 18, 1722; 7, Martha, born April 5, 1725; 8,

*An Othniel Tripp, born July 23, 1697, died Dec. 1, 1775, was married to Abigail, born middle of Aug., 1706, at Sandwich; Mass., died April 23, 1782, daughter of Zachariah and Abiah (Allen) Jenkins. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.) They are both buried in the Friends' Yard at Acokset. (Westport, R. I., Friends' Records.)

†The will of Mary Sisson, of Dartmouth, was made the 15th day of the second month, called April, 1690, and was probated at Bristol Dec. 1, 1692. It was entered Sept. 1, 1683. It names her son, George; daughter, Elizabeth, married to Caleb Allen; her daughter, Ann, married to Peleg Tripp; her son, James, whom she named sole executor, and from whom she acknowledged having received "in full for all the estate left to me by my husband, Richard Sisson;" her granddaughter, Mary, daughter of her son, George. Joseph Tripp, George Cadman and John Anthony signed the will as witnesses and George Cadman, James Tripp and Valentine Hudeston made an inventory of the estate, Sept. 26, 1692. (Bib.-105.)

‡Thomas Fish, a freeman of Portsmouth, in 1655, made his will in 1672, and died in 1687. It refers to his wife, Mary, deceased, and his children, Daniel, John, Robert, Thomas. Mehitable Tripp, Mary, who was married, March 18, 1671-2, to Francis Brayton, and Alice, married to Henry Knowles. (Bib.-101.)

¶Reuben Waite of Dartmouth had the following children: 1, Thomas, born April 23, 1683; 2, Eleazer, born Jan. 4, 1688; 3, Benjamin, born Jan. 12, 1690; 4, Joseph, born June 24, 1693; 5, Abigail, born June 24, 1693; 6, Reuben, Jr., born Jan. 15, 1695; 7, Tabitha, born Jan. 15, 1695; 8, Jeremiah, born Jan. 16, 1698.

Alice, born April 22, 1729, (birth recorded at East Greenwich, all the rest at Dartmouth).

II. (4). Alice, daughter of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was married, Jan. 26, 1671, to William Hallam (Savage), Jan. 26, 1670, to William Hall, at Portsmouth (Portsmouth records). According to Savage the children of William and Alice (Tripp) Hallam were: 1, William, born Dec. 8, 1672; 2, Preserved, born Aug. 29, 1675, died within six months; 3, Abigail, born Dec. 20, 1677; 4, Mary, born Sept. 24, 1679; 5, John, born July 2, 1681; 6, Deliverance, born Jan. 8, 1684; 7, Alice, born Jan. 14, 1685; 8, Elizabeth, born Oct. 2, 1687; 9, Robert, born Feb. 16, 1690.

II. (5). Isabel, daughter of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was married, at Portsmouth, March 4, 1675, to Samson, son of Philip Sherman of Portsmouth, and their children were: 1, Philip, born Jan. 16, 1676; 2, Sarah, born Sept. 24, 1677; 3, Alice, born Jan. 12, 1680; 4, Samson, Jr., born Jan. 28, 1682; 5, Abiel, born Oct. 15, 1684; 6, Job, born Nov. 8, 1687.

II. (6). Job, son of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, probably had a son, 1, Job Tripp, Jr., who lived in North Kingston in 1734, (see later).

II. (7). Abiel Tripp, son of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was of Portsmouth, May 6, 1679, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony of Rhode Island. He was married, at Portsmouth, R. I., Jan. 20, 1679, by John Albro, Assistant, to Deliverance Hall. He died in Sept., 1684, and owned, at the time of his death, a ferry plying between Portsmouth and Bristol. At a session of the General Assembly, held Aug. 2, 1698, Thomas Durfee and his wife, Deliverance Durfee, late widow of "Bikill Tripp," of Portsmouth, deceased, presented a petition for the settling and confirming of the ferry between Rhode Island and Bristol upon the heir of "Bikill" Tripp. It was enacted that "The ferry be stated upon Thomas Durfee and his wife till the said heir of the said Bikill Tripp come of age, which will be in about seven years." June 13, 1727, Abiel Tripp petitioned the General Assembly praying and setting forth the hardships and inconvenience attending him "by the ferry's being removed from his house, or the place where he lives," where there is a public landing, (Tripp's Landing, Bib.-247), and from which there hath been a ferry kept for upwards of 40 years. A lease was granted to Abiel Tripp, June 13, 1727, for the re-establishment of the ferry between Portsmouth and Bristol. The only child of Abiel and Deliverance (Hall) Tripp was Captain Abiel, born June 22, 1684, was at Portsmouth in Feb., 1723-4, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony, and who was appointed, in May, 1728, Captain in the Second Regiment of Main Land Militia, commanded by Colonel Nicholas Powers. He was married, at Portsmouth, Jan. 3, 1703-4, by Joseph Church, Justice, to Eleanor Wait, and some of their children were: 1, Wait, born April 19, 1705; 2, Abiel (3), born May 21, 1707, died June 8, 1707; 3, Mary, born March 9, 1709-10, died in infancy; 4, Sarah, born Sept. 3, 1712; 5, Eleanor, born Dec. 26, 1715; 6, Joseph, born May 25, 1717, married to Francis ———, children: (1), William, born April 16, 1746; (2), Wait, born Oct. 26, 1744; (3), Martha, born June 16, 1746; 7, Thomas, born Dec. 3, 1719; 8, Rebecca, born Aug. 28, 1722; 9, Elizabeth, born April 16, 1725; 10, Aimie, born Jan. 19, 1728-9. Mrs. Deliverance (Hall) Tripp was married (2) to Thomas Durfee, of Portsmouth.

II. (8). Martha, daughter of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was married, at Portsmouth, R. I., Feb. 3-23, 1680-1, to Samuel, son of Philip Shearman, and some of their children were: 1, Sarah, born April 10, 1682; 2, Mary, born Dec. 1, 1683; 3, Mehitable, born Aug. 18, 1685; 4, Samuel, Jr., born June 12, 1687; 5, Othniel, born Jan. 29, 1690.

II. (9). James Tripp, son of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, died in Portsmouth, May 30, 1730. He was married (1), at Portsmouth, R. I., Jan. 19, 1681-2, by George Lawton, Assistant, to Mercy, daughter of George Lawton,* and their children were: 1, John, born Nov. 8, 1685, married (1), Jan. 13, 1712-13, to Rebecca Spooner, died March 9, 1728-9, children: (1), George, born June 16, 1716; (2), Timothy, born Feb. 22, 1717; (3), Ruth, born April 4, 1720; (4), Elizabeth, born Aug. 23, 1722; (5),

*According to Savage (Bib.-101) George Lawton had at least the following children: 1, Isaac; 2, perhaps Job; 3, Robert; 4, Ruth, married, Feb. 10, 1681, to William Woodell, (Wodell or Waddell); 5, Mercy, married, Jan. 19, 1682, to James Tripp. Portsmouth, R. I., records have the following, all of whom were doubtless children of George Lawton, Sr., of Portsmouth: 1, George, of Portsmouth, married, Jan. 17, 1677, to Naomi, daughter of Bartholomew Hunt; 2, Mary Lawton, married April 3, 1678, to Gideon Freeborn; 3, Ruth Lawton, married, Feb. 10, 1680-1, to William Woodell, probably son of William and ——— (Tripp) Woodell, who died in his 37th year, Jan. 6, 1698-9; 4, Robert Lawton, married, by George Lawton, Assistant, Feb. 16, 1680, to Mary, daughter of Gershom Wodell; 5, Mary Lawton, married to James Tripp, Jan. 19, 1681-2; 6, Job Lawton, son of George, died Aug. 8, 1697. George Lawton, Sr., died Sept. 11, 1697.

Rebecca, born July 27, 1724. John Tripp was married (2), Oct. 24, 1737, to Hannah Daniel, children: (6), Hannah, born Aug. 25, 1738; (7), Mary, born March 20, 1741; 2, Elizabeth, born Nov. 21, 1687, died Feb. 13, 1740 married (1) to Richard Mitchell, married (2) to William Wood; 3, Robert, born May 15, 1691; 4, James, Jr., born July 17, 1684, married, March 13, 1719, at Tiverton, R. I., to Anna Cook, some of whose children were: (1), Thomas, born Oct. 9, 1710; (2), William, born Feb. 27, 1712-13; (3), Timothy, born Oct. 22, 1716; (4), Mary, born Oct. 14, 1720; (5), Isaac, born Jan. 2, 1726-7; 5, Mary, born Jan. 9, 1700. James Tripp was married (2) to Elizabeth (probably Smith), daughter of Edward, and their children were: 6, Francis, born June 3, 1705, married, April 29, 1725, to Wait Chase; 7, Lydia, born April 30, 1707; 8, Thankful, born March 8, 1708-9, died, North Kingston, Oct. 1, 1775, married to Peter Taylor, of Newport; 9, Stephen, born Sept. 30, 1710; 10, Isabel, born Dec. 31, 1713; 11, Israel, born March 22, 1716, married, at Warwick, R. I., Sept. 2, 1744, by William Rice, Assistant, to Elizabeth Bentley, lived at Warwick, in 1774, and then had in family, himself, one male over 16, one male under 16, four females over 16 and one female under 16. (Bib.-252.) Two of the children of Israel and Elizabeth (Bentley) Tripp were: (1), James, born April 1, 1749, married, Jan. 30, 1772, by Elder John Gorton, to Mercy Clark, of Warwick, and their son, Stephen, was born April 27, 1775; (2), Elizabeth, born March 19, 1750.

III. (1). Job Tripp, Jr., doubtless son of Job Tripp, of North Kingston, R. I., and grandson of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp, was of North Kingston in Oct., 1734, when he was appointed Justice of the Peace. He also served in that office in 1735-36-38-39-40-41-42-43-44-45 and 1746. Until May, 1743, his name appears each year in the records (Bib.-258) as Job Tripp, Jr. He also served as Deputy for North Kingstown in the General Assembly of the Colony of Rhode Island in 1734-38-41 and in 1746. In May, 1743, Job Tripp of North Kingstown and Job Tripp, Jr., of Exeter were both appointed Justice of the Peace. In May, 1745, Job Tripp of Exeter was Deputy to the General Assembly, and in May, 1746, Job Tripp of North Kingstown was a Deputy. Job Tripp, Jr., of Exeter was perhaps a son of Job Tripp, Jr., of North Kingstown. He had apparently settled in that portion of North Kingstown which, March 8, 1742-3, was erected into the town of Exeter. Some of the children of Job Tripp, Jr., of Kingstown apparently were: 1, Captain Job, born April 20, 1701, (see later); 2, Peleg, of South Kingstown, married, at North Kingstown, Jan. or June 28, 1728, by William Spencer, Justice, to Mary, daughter of Nathaniel Gardner of North Kingstown; 3, Abiel, of North Kingstown, May 3, 1743, when admitted a Freeman of the Colony; 4, Mary, married, at North Kingstown, in 1729, to John Dawley; 5, Anna, married, at North Kingstown, in June, 1729-30, to Robert Moore; 6, Phebe, married, Dec. 10, 1730, at South Kingstown, by Rouse Helme, Assistant, to William Rice* of Warwick, (marriage also recorded at Warwick); 7, probably Isaac, (see later); 8, Abigail, married at North Kingstown, July 29, 1734, to Benjamin Tanner; 9, Captain William, born Oct. 10, 1719, married (1), July 12, 1739, to Mary Wilcox, who died Dec. 31, 1742. Their children were: (1), Thomas, born May 12, 1740, married, May 30, 1771, to Tacy Coone; (2), Catharine, born May 14, 1742. He was married (2), Nov. 13, 1743, at West Greenwich, by Jeremiah Ellis, Justice, to Mary, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Tripp) Waite (Waite in sketch Joseph Tripp), and their children were: (3), Mary, born Sept. 14, 1744; (4), Catharine (2), born June 8, 1747, probably married, April 14, 1768, to Robert Wilcox; (5), Bridget, born June 23, 1751. Captain William Tripp was appointed Captain of the Fourth (North Kingston)† Company of Kings Co.

*John Rice, Jr., born about 1644-5, died Jan. 6, 1730-1, aed. 86 years, was married, July 25, 1695, to Elnathan, daughter of John Whipple, and their children were: 1, John, born April 6, 1696; 2, Elizabeth, born May 6, 1698; 3, Thomas, born April 26, 1700; 4, Mary, born Sept. 22, 1702, died April, 1703; 5, Nathan, born June 20, 1704; 6, Barbara, born April 24, 1706; 7, William, born March 25, 1708; 8, Mary, born Jan. 24, 1709; 9, Lydia, born Dec. 30, 1711; 10, Randall, born May 21, 1714; 11, Elnathan, born Aug. 4, 1716.

William, son of John, Jr., and Elnathan (Whipple) Rice, was born March 25, 1708, and died Jan. 22, 1746. He was married, at South Kingston, Dec. 10, 1730, to Phoebe Tripp, and was at that time of Warwick. The children of William and Phoebe (Tripp) Rice were: 1, Abigail, born Feb. 20, 1731; 2, Mehitable, born Sept. 25, 1732; 3, Elizabeth, born Oct. 18, 1734; 4, James, born Feb. 20, 1736, died June 22, 1744; 5, Hannah, born April 22, 1739, married, at East Greenwich, by Thomas Aldrich, Justice, May 30, 1757, to Job, son of Isaac and Sarah (Sweet) Tripp. (See sketch Isaac Tripp later); 6, John, born May 26, 1741; 7, Mary, born June 18, 1743, died July 28, 1743; 8, James (2), born June 28, 1744; 9, Mary (2), born April 24, 1746.

†An Othniel Tripp and his wife, Mary, lived in North Kingston. Some of their children, according to the partially destroyed record were: 1, Mary, born May 22, —; 2, Othniel, born Aug. 18, —; 3, Penelope, born Jan. 18, —; 4, Othniel (2), born March 22, —; 5, Susannah, born Feb. 12, —; 6, Bridget, born Oct. 25, —.

Militia in June, 1742, and May, 1743. (Bib.-258.) He served as Justice of the Peace in Exeter in 1744 and 1745 and was Deputy from Exeter, to the General Assembly of the Colony in 1750.

IV. (1). Captain Job Tripp (3), probably son of Job Tripp, Jr., was born April 30, 1701, and was married, about 1722, to Sarah ———, born May 20, 1704. He lived in that portion of North Kingstown which, in March, 1742-3, was erected into the Town of Exeter. He was appointed Justice of the Peace in Exeter in May, 1743, also in 1753-54-56-57-58-59-63 and 1764, and was a Justice of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace, in Kings Co., in Feb., 1748, June, 1749, and May, 1767. (Bib.-258.) He also served as Deputy to the General Assembly of the Colony of Rhode Island in May, 1745, May, 1748, May, 1752, and May, 1768, and is described as Captain Job Tripp in the Assembly records of 1748. The children of Job and Sarah Tripp were: 1, Peleg, born June 13, 1723, admitted a Freeman of the Colony April 3, 1745, and served as Justice of the Peace in Exeter in 1747-48-49-50 and 1751. He was a resident of Exeter in 1774 and then had in family, living at home, himself, one male under 16 and two females under 16. (Bib.-252.) He was married to Sarah (perhaps Waite), and four of their children were: (1), Hannah, born Jan. 19, 1743, probably married, May 20, 1762, to Edward Thorn; (2), Sarah, born Nov. 11, 1745, married, May 23, 1769, to Joseph Holloway; (3), Lois, born Aug. 16, 1747, probably married, April 6, 1766, to Gideon Waite; (4), Waite, born April 1, 1749, probably married, March 27, 1768, to Daniel Harrington; (Peleg also had a son Ezekiel); 2, Peregrine, born Aug. 19, 1725, married, Jan. 22, 1749, by Peleg Tripp, Justice, to Susanna Sherman, of South Kingstown, three of whose children were: (1), Sarah, born Oct. 1, 1749, married, June 23, 1776, to Jeremiah Vaughn; (2), Ruth, born April 15, 1751; (3), Susanna, born Jan. 1, 1753. Peregrine Tripp lived in Exeter in 1774 and had in family, living at home, himself, two males under 16, three females under 16 and three females over 16; 3, Charles, born Oct. 1, 1727, died, Surinam, in April, 1748; 4, Mehitable, born Dec. 1, 1729, married, Sept. 22, 1752, to Benjamin Green; 5, Sarah, born Dec. 20, 1731; 6, Job (4th), born June 28, 1734, admitted a Freeman of the Colony, first Wednesday of May, 1757, served as Ensign in Captain Oliver Min's Company of Exeter Militia in May, 1754, and was married, March 24, 1755, by Preserved Hall, Justice, to Virtue, daughter of Benjamin Waite, of West Greenwich. He was of Exeter, R. I., in 1774, and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, one male under 16, two females over 16, and one female under 16. (Bib.-252.) He was probably the Job Tripp, Jr., who came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1775-6, and settled finally in Stephentown, Albany Co., N. Y., (reference in foot note, sketch of Isaac Tripp later); 7, Anna, born Sept. 8, 1736, probably married to Ichabod Mosher; 8, Phebe, born Aug. 13, 1741, probably married, April 8, 1764, to Jonathan Ross; 9, Ezekiel, born March 9, 1743-4, married, April 29, 1765, by William Hall, Justice, to Mary Lawton; 10, Benjamin, married, March 20, 1769, by Gideon Mosher, Justice, to Anna, daughter of James Mosher, of Richmond.

IV. (7). Isaac Tripp, who was probably* a son of Job Tripp, Jr., of North Kingstown, R. I., was thrice married. According to Mr. Harvey (Bib-1) the second wife of Isaac Tripp was Susanna (probably Spencer). He was married, at North Kingstown, R. I., in June, 1729, by William Spencer, Justice, to Sarah Sweet. (Bib.-257.) He was married (3) to Sarah Dow. In 1743 he apparently lived in East Greenwich. He also lived, for some time, in Pomfret, Windham Co., Conn. The marriage record of his daughter, Susannah, at East Greenwich, describes her as daughter of Isaac, of Portsmouth, (Nov. 19, 1758). That of his daughter, Ruth, and Jonathan Slocum, of Warwick, Feb. 23, 1759 (1757), describes Ruth and Jonathan as both of Portsmouth. Isaac Tripp had settled at Warwick before 1758 and was a resident there, the first Wednesday of May, 1758, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony of Rhode Island. He was appointed Justice of the Peace at Warwick in June, 1766, June, 1767, and May, 1768. (Bib.-258.) In the Census of the Colony of Rhode Island, taken in 1774, an Isaac Tripp was returned as a resident of Warwick, having in his household, himself, three males over 16, three males under 16, three females over 16 and three females under 16, and one black,

*According to the theory of Dr. Horace E. Hayden, deceased, of the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Isaac Tripp was probably a son of Job Tripp and a grandson of Peleg and Ann (Sisson) Tripp, of Portsmouth, R. I. The writer cannot, from the records available to him, either prove or disprove this theory. Peleg Tripp may have had a son, Job Tripp, who may have been the father of this Isaac Tripp. The fact that Ruth Tripp and Susannah Tripp are described, the former of Portsmouth, and the latter as the daughter of Isaac, of Portsmouth, would seem to confirm Mr. Hayden's theory.

a total of 14 persons. This was doubtless Isaac Tripp, Jr., who was a resident of Warwick in 1774, (see later), and it should be borne in mind that the enumeration doubtless included all the members of his household, consisting of his immediate family and all other persons living with him. Some of the family of Isaac Tripp, Sr., may have been included.

In 1761 or early in 1762 Isaac Tripp and his son, Job Tripp, were admitted as Proprietors in the Purchase of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and according to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1), they were probably in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., in 1762, with the original settlers. The name of Job Tripp appears in the list of original settlers in 1762 and those of Isaac Tripp and his son, Henry Dow Tripp, appear in Mr. Harvey's "List of the 'First Forty' Settlers in 1769." (Bib.-1.) According to Dr. Hollister, Isaac Tripp settled on the "Capouse Meadows," now Scranton, Lackawanna Co., Pa., as early as 1771. (Bib.-85.) At a meeting of the Susquehanna Company, held in the Court House in Norwich, New London Co., Conn., Dec. 28, 1768, Isaac Tripp, described as from the Colony of Rhode Island, was appointed to serve on a committee "To approve of and admit such persons as may offer themselves as first settlers at Wyoming," and was also appointed to serve with Benjamin Follett, John Jenkins, William Buck and Benjamin Shoemaker, as a member of a "Directing Committee to approve and admit and oversee and manage and order the affairs and proceedings of the 'First Forty Settlers,' and to lay out and prepare a convenient road to said Susquehanna River." (Bib.-1.) This second company of settlers, the first settlement of 1762 having been destroyed by the Indians in the "Wyoming Massacre" of Oct. 15, 1763, arrived in the Wyoming Valley, Feb. 8, 1769, and, as noted above, Isaac Tripp settled at what is now Scranton, Pa., in 1771. He was elected a representative from the town of Westmoreland. (Wyoming Valley, etc.), and attended the sessions of the General Assembly of Connecticut in May and Oct., 1777, and Jan., 1778. He was one of the original proprietors of three townships in the Susquehanna Purchase, viz.: Capouse, later Providence, Exeter and Putnam.* He was killed by a band of marauding Indians, Dec. 16, 1778, within the limits of the Town Plot of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., while upon a visit to the home of his son-in-law, Jonathan Slocum. (See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., p. 1113, etc.) April 21, 1779, Job Tripp was appointed administrator of his estate, with John Jenkins, Jr., on his bond in £1,000. The inventory was filed April 8, 1782, and placed a valuation of £1,049 13s 4d upon the estate. It included 957 acres of land in Providence Township, £957 and 1,209½ Continental Dollars valued at £60. (Bib.-1.) Throughout his life Isaac Tripp was a member of the Society of Friends or Quakers.

It appears probable to the writer that the first wife of Isaac Tripp was Susanna (perhaps Spencer), and the children by the first marriage were: 1, William; 2, Susanna, described as daughter of Isaac, of Portsmouth, married, at East Greenwich, Nov. 19, 1758, to Thomas Hawks. He was married (2), in June, 1729, by William Spencer, Justice, in North Kingstown, to Sarah Sweet, and their children were: 3, Job;† 4, Samuel, born March 19, 1734-5; 5, Ruth, born March 21, 1736. He

*Capouse Township, also known as "Six Mile," later changed to New Providence, and finally called Providence Township, was ordered laid out at a meeting of the Susquehanna Company, at Norwich, Conn., April 1, 1772. It was known as a "Suffering Township, wherein rights lost or improperly forfeited were relaid and commuted." Exeter Township, five miles square, was ordered laid out at the same meeting. "Northerly of and adjoining the townships of Kingston and Pittstown." Putnam Township, named in honor of Colonel Israel Putnam, of Revolutionary War fame, and a member of the Susquehanna Company, was also ordered laid out at this meeting. Exeter Township was reported surveyed and laid out Nov. 25, 1772, and Putnam Township in Oct., 1775. Exeter lay on both sides of the Susquehanna River adjoining the Kingston and Pittstown lines on the northeast. Putnam Township adjoined Exeter "up the river" and included the site of the present borough of Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co., Pa. (Bib.-1.)

†The names of Isaac Tripp, Job Tripp, and Job Tripp, Jr., appear on the Westmoreland Tax List for 1776 as residents of the North District (Exeter and Providence). The name of Job Tripp, Jr., does not appear on the lists for 1777 and 1778. This Job Tripp, Jr., may have been Job Tripp, Jr., born June 28, 1734, son of Job and Sarah Tripp of Exeter, R. I., (see above) and probably a nephew of Isaac Tripp, Sr. It appears highly improbable that he was a grandson of Isaac Tripp, Sr. He was certainly the Job Tripp who settled at Petersburg, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., where a considerable number of Rhode Island families settled (Bib.-171) and who, Aug. 14, 1793, made the following acknowledgement:

"I, Job Tripp, of Petersburg, Rensselaer Co., N. Y., did, on or about Dec., 1777, give a quit claim deed to Jonathan Slocum of the one-half a lot I purchased of Reuben Harrington, known by the name of Billing's Pitch, and that I have not given any title of said lot to any person having any legal claim of said land. Said land lying in Putnam Co., Luzerne Co., Pa., lying on or near Tunkhannock Creek on or by the forks of said creek. (Signed). Job Tripp, in the presence of Sarah Gray and Daniel Gray." The acknowledgement before the Justice is recorded: "Sworn before Daniel Gray, Justice of the Peace. Personally appeared before me the within named Job Tripp, and, in the presence of the Most Holy God, that he declared the within was married (3) to Sarah Dow, and their children were: 6, Isaac, Jr., born July 27, 1743; 7, Henry Dow,

V. (3). Job Tripp, son of Isaac Tripp and (probably) Sarah (Sweet) Tripp, his wife, was born about 1731, and was married, at Warwick, R. I., May 16, 1757, by Thomas Aldrich, Justice, to Hannah, daughter of William Rice, deceased, (see Rice in sketch of Job Tripp, Jr., (III) (1) above.) Job Tripp was of Warwick, the first Wednesday of May, 1759, when he was admitted a Freeman of the Colony of Rhode Island. In 1761 or 1762 he was admitted a Proprietor in the Wyoming Valley Purchase of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. In 1762 he was a member of the first company of settlers who came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., under the auspices of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and effected a settlement at the mouth of Mill Creek on the Susquehanna River. This settlement was the scene of the Massacre of Wyoming, Oct. 15, 1763. (See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, p. 430.) He was also one of the original proprietors of Putnam Township (?) and was appointed administrator of the estate of his father, Isaac Tripp. His name appears on the Tax List for the North District of the Town of Westmoreland in 1776, and on the lists for Pittstown District for 1777 and 1778. In 1790 Job Tripp had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and four females. (Bib.-10.) He died in Providence in 1790-91. His son, John Tripp, was appointed administrator of his estate and the bond of the latter, in $400, and signed by John Phillips and Ebenezer Slocum, securities, was filed Sept. 26, 1791. Some of the children of Job and Hannah (Price) Tripp were: 1, Sarah, born in Warwick, R. I., Oct. 23, 1758, married to Moses Quick; 2, Isaac, born at Warwick, R. I., Nov. 27, 1760. (see later); 3, Lydia, born Sept. 6, 1762, at Warwick, R. I., married (1) to ——— Harding, married (2), Nov. 17, 1816, by Elder John Miller, to Deacon John Phillips, (Family No. 1009—Phillips); 4, Mary, born at Warwick, R. I., Sept. 15, 1764; 5, John, born at Middletown, R. I., Sept. 5, 1766, (see later); 6, William, born July 5, 1769, died Sept. 18, 1842; 7, Elizabeth, married to ——— Tripp, whose son, Benjamin, was married to Sarah, born Nov. 24, 1788, daughter of Isaac and Eleanor (Frear) Tripp. (Bib.-89.) John, son of Benjamin and Sarah (Tripp) Tripp, was married to Lydia A. Jenkins, of Tunkhannock Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.) William Tripp was married to Grace Harding and some of their children were: (1), Job, born Feb. 12, 1801, married to Thurzy Clark; (2), Thomas, born Sept. 24, 1802, married to Martha Fish; (3), Ira, born June 6, 1806; (4), Lydia, born 1823, died 1898.

VI. (2). Isaac, son of Job and Hannah (Rice) Tripp, was born at Warwick, R. I., Nov. 27, 1760, and died in Clifford, Susquehanna Co., Pa., April 15, 1820. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., with his parents, who settled in Providence, now Scranton, Pa. With his grandfather, Isaac Tripp, Sr., and others he was taken prisoner, by Indians, near the mouth of Leggett's Creek, on the Lackawanna River, in Providence Township, in Sept., 1778, (see story in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, p. 1088). He was taken to Niagara and thence into Canada. He returned to Providence Township and was married to Eleanore Frear, who was born in 1749, and died May 10, 1816. About 1800 they removed to what is now Clifford, Susquehanna Co., Pa., where they died, and are buried. Some of their children were: 1, Job, born 1792, died Sept. 12, 1815; 2, Susan (Tripp) Stevens, born Nov. 24, 1788; 3, Sarah, twin sister of Susan, born Nov. 24, 1788, married to Benjamin, son of ——— and Elizabeth (Tripp) Tripp. (Bib.-89.)

VI. (5). John, son of Job and Hannah (Rice) Tripp, was born at Middletown, R. I., Sept. 5, 1766, and came to the Wyoming Valley with his parents. Sept. 26, 1791, he filed his bond as administrator of his father's estate, and on Dec. 19, of the same year, presented a petition to the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre, praying for permission to sell certain lands belonging to the estate. Jan. 8, 1794, he sold, as administrator, to Micajah Harding, Lot No. 15,* Providence, 375 acres, improved with a log mansion house, stable, and other improvements. Micajah Harding subsequently conveyed title to this lot to John Tripp, who, on May 10, 1794, sold 150 acres of it, situated "on the bank of the Lackawanna River," to Stephen Gardner. (Family No. 988—Gardner) and on the same day sold 210 acres of it to John Staples of Providence, who, Jan. 18, 1795, sold it to Isaac Tripp, who, March mentioned instrument to be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." Dated Aug. 14, 1793. (Bib.-281.) In 1790 Job Tripp lived in Stephentown, Albany Co., N. Y., and had in family living at home, himself, two males under 16 and two females. Renssalaer Co., N. Y., was erected from Albany Co. Feb. 7, 1791, and Petersburg was formed from Stephentown in 1791. (Bib.-171.) A considerable number of Tripp families settled in Albany Co., N. Y., before 1790. All of them were probably descendants of John and Mary (Paine) Tripp.

29, 1797, again sold it to John Staples. June 15, 1792, John Tripp, then of Pittston, sold to Ishmael Bennett, Jr., blacksmith, for £30, 100 acres of land on the highway from Captain Blanchard's to Captain Baldwin's, in Pittston. It was bounded on the west by this highway, on the east by land left for a road between the First and Second Division of 100 acre lots, on the south by lands of Mr. Sanford and on the north by lands of James Brown, Jr. Aug. 21, 1793, he bought from William Donaldson, of Luzerne Co., Pa., 700 acres of land in Exeter Township. This tract, measuring 160 rods on the Susquehanna River, adjoined lands of Richard Halstead. This land lay in what is now Ransom Township and was later a part of the 1255 acre Warrantee tract of John Phillips. (Family No. 1009—Phillips.) He also owned 300 acres, lying north of this Donaldson tract, which he sold, Nov. 10, 1794, to William Tripp, presumably his brother. John Phillips bought this latter tract from William Tripp, Oct. 16, 1797. John Tripp was married, Dec. 16, 1789, to Martha, daughter of Deacon John Phillips (Family No. 1009—Phillips) of Pittston, and later of Abington. He died before Jan. 6, 1820, when John Phillips of Abington, Luzerne Co., Pa., "for the love I bear my grandson, David Tripp, minor son of John Tripp, late deceased," conveyed lands in Greenfield Township to David Tripp. Some of the children of John and Martha (Phillips) Tripp were: 1, William, born Sept. 4, 1790; 2, James, born May 25, 1792, died Nov. 6, 1825, married, May 29, 1821, by Elder John Miller, to Melantha May; 3, Sarah, born Nov. 1, 1790, married Nov. 22, 1810, by Elder John Miller, to Silas, son of Deacon William Clark,* of Abington; 4, Polly, born Nov. 21, 1797, married May 16, 1813, by Elder John Miller, to Solomon A. Maillard, born in July, 1791, died in Jan., 1842; 5, Zaccheus, born July 29, 1800, probably not married, estate inventoried Oct. 14, 1829; 6, David, born June 25, 1803, living in the State of New York, March 11, 1831; 7, Permela, born Nov. 30, 1806, died Feb. 8, 1840, married to Jesse Mullineux.

V. (4). Samuel Tripp, son of Isaac and (probably) Sarah (Sweet) Tripp, was born March 19, 1735, and died June 10, 1798. He is described in the Narragansett Friends' record as of Exeter and a son of Isaac, and it is also recorded in those records that he was buried in the Ropewalk lot. His wife (probably second), Desire Tallman, born July 1, 1756, died Aug. 8, 1809, and is buried in the Friends' Yard at East Greenwich. According to the Tiverton, R. I., records, Samuel Tripp of Pomfret, Conn., was married, at Tiverton, May 14, 1760, by Samuel Hicks, Justice, to Catharine, born about 1742, died July 30, 1793, daughter of Benjamin Jenckes, and their children were: 1, Sarah, born Tiverton, Aug. 8, 1760; 2, Abigail, born Warwick, July 10, 1762; 3, Ruth, born Warwick, April 16, 1764; 4, Martha, born East Greenwich, March 21, 1766, died April 1, 1766; 5, Benjamin Jenckes, born East Greenwich, June 19, 1768, died Feb. 27, 1769; 6, Catharine, born East Greenwich, Aug. 25, 1772. Samuel Tripp was appointed Justice of the Peace in East Greenwich, R. I., in June, 1786, and May, 1787. Sarah, daughter of Samuel and Catharine (Jenckes) Tripp was married, by Elder John Gorton, Sept. 21, 1780, to Levi Peckham. Ruth, daughter of Samuel and Catharine (Jenckes) Tripp, was married, by the same clergyman, Dec. 9, 1785, to Isaac Peckham. Both married at Greenwich.

V. (5). Ruth Tripp, daughter of Isaac and (probably) Sarah (Sweet) Tripp, was born March 21, 1736-7, and died at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 6, 1807. She was married, at Warwick, R. I., Feb. 23, 1757, by Ebenezer Slocum, Justice, to Jonathan, born in East Greenwich, R. I., May 1, 1733, son of Joseph and Patience (Carr) Slocum, (see Slocums in America and Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., for Slocum family). Jonathan Slocum and Ruth Tripp are described in the record of their marriage, at Warwick, as both of Portsmouth. The name of Jonathan Slocum appears in Mr. Harvey's list (Bib.-1) of the original settlers of Wyoming Valley in 1762, and on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Wilkes-Barre District in 1777 and 1778. In the autumn of 1777, with his wife, six sons and three daughters, he removed from Warwick, R. I., to Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Sept. 25, 1796, James Updike, of North Kingston, Washington Co., R. I., holding a power of attorney, granted to him, May 2, 1795, by Lodowick Updike, executed an agreement with Joseph Fellows of Providence, Luzerne Co., Pa., in which provision was made for the division of Lot No. 6, Providence, into two equal parts, excepting one acre which had been sold to Moses Dolph and twelve and one-half acres which had been sold to Thomas Pickett. The deed of agreement recites that "Lodowick Updike, Esq., of North Kingstown, R. I., first proprietor of allotment of land numbered 6 in the Town of Providence, and for manning and settling, did convey to one Jonathan Slocum one-half part, which said Slocum conveyed to one James Bagley, and said Bagley to one Ebenezer Parks, by deed of warranty, and said Parks, by like Warranty Deed, conveyed and assured the same to the above Joseph Fellows. According to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1), it was Joseph Slocum, father of Jonathan Slocum, who did the "duty of a settler for Lodowick Updike." This deed, as recorded, is probably the source of the statement, in many Wyoming Valley publications, that Jonathan Slocum "did the duty of a settler." In 1777 Jonathan Slocum bought from Job Tripp, Jr., one-half of a lot known as Billing's Pitch in the Town of Putnam, Luzerne Co., Pa., and situated upon or near the forks of Tunkhannock Creek. In 1775 he became an original proprietor of the Town of Putnam. Nov. 6, 1775, Jonathan Fitch sold to Jonathan Slocum, blacksmith, of Warwick, Kent Co., R. I., Lot No. 50 of the Town Plot of Wilkes-Barre. (Bib.-1.) Jonathan Slocum was a member of the Society of Friends. With his father-in-law, Isaac Tripp, Sr., he was killed by marauding Indians at Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 2, 1778. (See Harvey's Wilkes-Barre, p. 1120, for details.) The children of Jonathan and Ruth (Tripp) Slocum were: 1, Giles, born Jan. 5, 1759, died Nov. 14, 1826; married, in 1779, to Sarah, born 1749, died Nov. 22, 1820, daughter of Jeremiah and Ann (Paine) Ross; 2, Judith, born Oct., 1760, died March 16, 1814, married, Feb. 24, 1782, to Hugh Forsman; 3, William, born Jan. 6, 1762, died Oct. 20, 1810, (see later); 4, Ebenezer, born Jan. 10, 1766, died July 25, 1832, (see later); 5, Mary, born Dec. 22, 1768, died April 5, 1848, married to Joseph C. Towne; 6, Benjamin, born Dec. 7, 1770, died July 5, 1832, (see later); 7, Frances, born March 4, 1773, died March 9, 1847, stolen by Indians Nov. 2, 1778, formally admitted to membership in the Miami tribe of Indians, and given the name of Mac-on-a-quah, married to She-po-con-ah, chief of that tribe. (See Harvey's Wilkes-Barre for a graphic version of the story of the famous "Lost Sister of Wyoming;") 8, Major Isaac, born March 4, 1775, lived for a number of years at Tunkhannock, Pa., died near Bellevue, Ohio, Aug. 26, 1858, married (1), Jan. 11, 1799, to Elizabeth, born April 26, 1780, died at Sandusky, Ohio, Sept. 16, 1839, daughter of Abel and Elizabeth (Hurlbut) Patrick. Their daughter, Mary, born March 13, 1802, died April 1, 1859, was married (1) to John Harding and (2) to Lord H. Reed. (Family No. 992—Harding.) Major Isaac Slocum was married (2), at Clyde, Ohio, Dec. 24, 1839, to Mrs. Lydia (Chase) Norton; 9, Hon. Joseph, born April 9, 1777, died Sept. 27, 1855, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), married to Sarah, born July 25, 1781, died Feb. 25, 1823, daughter of Judge Jesse and Hannah (Welding) Fell, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; 10, Jonathan, born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 12, 1778, died Sept., 1842, married to Martha Underwood.

VI. (3). William, son of Jonathan and Ruth (Tripp) Slocum, born in Warwick, Kent Co., R. I., Jan. 6, 1762, died in Pittston, Oct. 20, 1810. He and his wife are now buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. He was wounded by the Indians, who slew his father in 1778, but escaped. He was a very active member of the Yankee party in the Second Yankee-Pennamite War. He served as High Sheriff of Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1796. He was married, Jan. 4, 1786, to Sarah Sawyer, born May 12, 1764, died March 16, 1832, and until 1799, when they removed to Pittston, they resided in Wilkes-Barre. It appears that they also lived for some time in Exeter Township. The name of his widow, Sarah, appears on the Tax Census for Exeter in 1814. He was a Justice of the Peace in Pittston in 1806. The children of William and Sarah (Sawyer) Slocum were: (1), Lemuel, born March 24, 1787, died Aug. 24, 1830, married, Dec. 20, 1812, to Nancy Collins; (2), Elizabeth, born Oct. 3, 1788, died Aug. 22, 1869, married (1), Feb. 23, 1809, by Cornelius Cortright, Esq., to William, born April 17, 1786, died March 25, 1813, son of Colonel John and Bethiah (Harris) Jenkins, of Exeter, Pa. Their daughter, Sarah S., was married, Dec. 14, 1837, by the Rev. W. K. Mott, to Thomas, son of Ebenezer and Sarah (Davis) Slocum, (see Ebenezer, VI, (4), later, also Family No. 988—Jenkins); Mrs. Elizabeth (Slocum) Jenkins was married (2), about 1815, to Zenus, son of Stephen and Ruth Barnum, (see sketch of the Barnum family following Tripp family sketch); (3), Frances, born Aug. 26, 1790, died April 7, 1822, married, Aug. 30, 1812, to Eleazer Carey; (4), Laton, born Aug. 16, 1792, died Jan. 16, 1832, married, Feb. 1, 1819, to Graty, born Dec. 24, 1796, died Sept. 5, 1829, daughter of James and Thankful (Nash) Scovel, (Family No. 1021—Scovel); (5), Sarah, born Aug. 12, 1794, died March 17, 1829, not married; (6), Rhoda, born July 17, 1796, died Jan. 16, 1878, married, May 27, 1829, to James Wright, born Sept. 25, 1795, died June 27, 1866, (Gravel Hill Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.); (7), Merritt, born July 12, 1798, died July 11, 1838, not married; (8), Giles, born May 4, 1801, died May 7, 1878, married (1), March 9, 1826, to Sarah, daughter of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins, (Family No. 1313—Perkins), married (2) to Sarah Reese; (9), William, born May 4, 1803, died May 27, 1856, married Sept. 15, 1828, to Ann Leverington Stewart.

VI. (4). Ebenezer, son of Jonathan and Ruth (Tripp) Slocum, born in Warwick, R. I., Jan. 10, 1766, died July 25, 1832, was married, Dec. 3, 1790, to Sarah, born Aug. 31, 1771, died Nov. 1, 1842, daughter of Dr. Joesph and Obedience (Sperry) Davis, and their children were: 1, Ruth, born Sept. 13, 1791, died May 23, 1882, married to Elisha Hitchcock, born Jan. 21, 1778, died Oct. 16, 1858, (Dunmore, Pa., Cemetery); 2, Sidney, born March 17, 1794, died Jan. 20, 1825, (Washburn Street Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.), married to Jane, daughter of Peter and Sarah (Davis) La France, (Tripp-La France later), children, Ruth, Caroline, John Milton, Sidney, Jr., and Martha; 3, Ebenezer, Jr., born June 6, 1796, married to Sarah Mills; (4), Benjamin, born July 19, 1798, died Oct. 19, 1832, (Washburn Street Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.), married, Aug. 1, 1819, to Matilda Griffin, children, Sarah, Matilda, Henrietta, Ebenezer, Elisha, Stephen; 5, Joseph, born July 15, 1800, died June, 1890, married, Dec. 22, 1830, to Edilda Bingham; 6, Samuel, born May 13, 1802, died Aug. 18, 1851, married, May 13, 1830, to Maria Dings, son Oliver, died Sept. 1, 1834, (Washburn Street Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.); 7, Thomas, born May 21, 1804, died Dec. 26, 1879, married, Dec. 14, 1837, by Rev. W. K. Mott, to Sarah S., daughter of William and Elizabeth (Slocum) Jenkins, children, (1), Lydia, born March 21, 1839; (2), Merrit Barnum, born Feb. 26, 1841; (3), Ellen, born Jan. 9, 1843; (4), George, born Sept. 5, 1845; (5), Frederick, born Aug. 7, 1849, died Jan. 29, 1850; 8, Sarah, born Dec. 24, 1806, died Nov. 28, 1878, married, Sept. 5, 1832, by Elder John Miller, to Alva Heerman; (9), Charles Miner, born Dec. 24, 1808, died Aug. 27, 1877, not married; (10), William, born Dec. 20, 1810, married to Jane Lockwood; (11), Mary Ann, born Dec. 3, 1812, died Jan. 2, 1875, not married; (12), Esther, born March 20, 1816, married, Sept. 23, 1841, to Lester Bristol; (13), Giles, born Dec. 11, 1820, married to Sarah Decker. Ebenezer and Sarah (Davis) Slocum, their son, Charles Miner, and daughter, Mary Ann, are, with other members of the family, buried in Washburn Street Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.

VI. (6). Major Benjamin, son of Jonathan and Ruth (Tripp) Slocum, was born in Warwick, R. I., Dec. 7, 1770, died in Tunkhannock, July 5, 1832, and is buried there in Gravel Hill Cemetery. He was married to Phebe, daughter of Peter and Sarah (Davis) La France, (Tripp-La France later), and their children were: 1, Maria, married, Oct. 9, 1823, to Dr. Silas B. Robinson, of Providence, Pa.; 2, Ruth, born May 7, 1808, died Nov. 1, 1829, (Gravel Hill Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), married to Henry, born Feb. 7, 1798, died June 28, 1892, son of Henry and Elizabeth (Kennedy) Stark, (Family No. 1016—Stark); 3, Frances, married, Oct. 2, 1834, to Samuel T. Nicholson; 4, Thomas Truxton, born 1813, died May 29, 1887, married to Ann, daughter of Colonel Jacob J. and Abi K. (Fell) Dennis. (Principally from Harvey's Wilkes-Barre, for Slocum data.)

V. (6). Isaac Tripp, Jr., (see later).

V. (7). Henry Dow, son of Isaac and Sarah (Dow) Tripp, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., with his father, in 1769, as one of the First Forty Settlers. (Bib.-1.) He was married, at Morristown, N. J., Nov. 19, 1765, to Zeruah Kinney, born about 1745, died Jan. 4, 1777, aed. 32 years. Her name appears as Jerubah Tripp in the records of her death. (Bib.-237.) Henry Dow Tripp was of Luzerne Co., Pa., April 23, 1789, when he sold to Asa Chapman and James Abbott, (Family No. 35—Abbott), Lot No. 39, 400 acres, in Providence Township. This lot was situated in the vicinity of the Stafford Meadow Brook, now on the east side of the City of Scranton, Pa. On the same day Asa Chadwick and James Abbott executed a deed for the same lot conveying the title to Henry Dow Tripp. This deed stipulates that it is to remain in effect if Chadwick and Abbott fail to pay H. D. Tripp £150, of which £100 was to be paid by June 1, 1790, in horn cattle "at the prisal of two men at cash price," and the other £50 to be paid, in like manner, by June 1, 1791. Henry Dow Tripp also conveyed Lot 15, 350 acres, in Providence, to his son, Isaac Dow Tripp, and, Sept. 6, 1794, Isaac Dow Tripp, for a consideration of £250, sold Lot 15, to Henry Dow Tripp. The deed recites that the lot had been sold to him by his father and describes the lot as "the same lot deeded to me by my father, Henry D. Tripp," and as "the same lot now in the tenure of Stephen Gardner." There was evidently a dispute, between Job Tripp and Henry Dow Tripp, concerning the title to Lot 15. In Dec., 1788, Solomon Avery (Family No. 1001—Avery) had brought suit against Job Tripp, late of this county (Luzerne), charging that he had, with force and arms entered into one messuage and full right of land in Providence, (Lot No. 15, adjoining Lot 16, northerly, belonging to Gideon Roberts, southerly Lot No. 14, owned by Isaac Tripp, and containing 400 acres, 20 acres arable land and the rest woodland), which "Henry Dow Tripp, Gentleman, devised, for a term not expired, to Solomon Avery, and ejected him." (See sketch Job Tripp.) Aug. 11, 1795, Henry Dow Tripp, of New York, sold Lot 15, 370 acres, to Ezra Hall, of Westmoreland, Herkimer Co., N. Y., for £200. In this deed the lot is described as having been drawn by Henry Dow Tripp. In 1790 Henry Dow Tripp was a resident of New York City and, according to the Federal Census of that year, had then in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16 and one female. The only child of Henry Dow Tripp and his wife, Zeruiah (Kinney) Tripp, was probably their son, Isaac Dow Tripp.

VI. (1). Isaac Dow Tripp, son of Henry Dow and Zeruiah (Kinney) Tripp, was probably born about 1766. He was one of the proprietors of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790, and, at the April term of the Court of Quarter Sessions, at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in 1792, was appointed Constable of Kingston Township. He was also a taxpayer in Kingston in 1792 and 1796. Oct. 15, 1793, he bought, from Timothy Morris, House Lot No. 25, First Division, Kingston, bounded by lands of Lemuel Gustin and Elisha Matthewson. He, and his wife, Hannah, were of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 26, 1802, when they sold this lot to Malachi Shoemaker.

V. (6). Isaac Tripp, Jr., son of Isaac and Sarah (Dow) Tripp, was born in East Greenwich, R. I., July 27, 1743, and was married, about 1762, to Martha Wall, who was born Jan. 29, 1745, and died, in Providence, Luzerne Co., Pa., Jan. 27, 1809. They settled in Warwick, Kent Co., R. I., where, in 1774, an Isaac Tripp, presumably Isaac Tripp, Jr., was returned in the Census of the Colony of Rhode Island, for 1774, as the head of a household consisting of 14 persons, only six of whom, however, could have been his children. (See reference above.) On the first Wednesday of May, 1774, certain "Inhabitants of East Greenwich presented a petition, to the General Assembly of the Colony, which recited that there was but one school house in East Greenwich and that a second one was needed. They prayed that a "Lottery may be granted to raise $600.00." The request was granted and Preserved Pearce, Esq., Oliver Arnold, and John Reynolds of East Greenwich and Isaac Tripp, Jr., and Silas Casey, Esq., of Warwick, were appointed Directors. In 1772-5 Isaac Tripp, Jr., was a purchaser of lands in Lackawanna District of the Town of Westmoreland, (Bib.-1), although his name does not appear on any of the "List of Settlers," nor on any of the early tax lists of Westmoreland. It appears that he lived at Rhinebeck, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Jan. 27, 1778-9, when his son, Isaac, was born, and finally settled in Providence, now Scranton, Lackawanna Co., Pa. In Sept., 1788, he was appointed by the Luzerne County Court of Quarter Sessions to serve with Ebenezer Marcy, Samuel Miller, Henry Dow Tripp, Waterman Baldwin and Jonathan Newman, as road viewers. His name appears on the petition of Sept., 1788, praying for the separation of Providence from Pittston. On the same petition the names of William Tripp (perhaps son of Isaac Tripp, Sr.), Isaac Tripp, Jr., (3d), Amasa Tripp and William Tripp (probably son of Job Tripp) also appear. Aug. 12, 1788, Isaac Tripp, Jr., bought from Job Tripp, administrator of the estate of Isaac Tripp, Sr., for £365, Lot No. 12, Providence, 370 acres. Feb. 18, 1793, he bought from John and Mary (Tripp) Gifford, of Providence, all their right to eight-thirty-fifths of a certain piece of undivided lands in Pittston, commonly called the "Old Fort Parade," bounded on the west by the river and on the south, east and north, on the first lots so called. In Jan., 1795, he sold to Robert Faulkner a certain House Lot in Pittston, "where Faulkner now lives," bounded north on lands of Waterman Baldwin, west on the Susquehanna River, south on a small run of water and east on the highway, containing about two acres. June 27, 1796, he sold to John Gifford one-half of Lot No. 14, divided lengthways, 180 acres. This deed was signed in the presence of John Staples and William Wall and was acknowledged before Peter Grubb, Esq., Justice of the Peace. Sept. 27, 1796, he sold Lot No. 23, 400 acres, to John Staples for £300, and March 29, 1797, he sold to him 200 acres, 20 rods wide, of Lot No. 15, Providence. Sept. 17, 1796, he bought from Jacob and Elizabeth (McDowell) Stroud, their interest in a certain piece of land in Providence upon which "John MacDowell, late of Hamilton Township, Northampton Co., Pa., had some kind of a claim under the State of Connecticut." In this deed Elizabeth Stroud is described as a "daughter of John MacDowell, who died intestate." June 5, 1798, Isaac Tripp, Jr., sold this Lot, No. 30, "drawn by John MacDowell," to his son, Amasa Tripp. The will of Isaac Tripp, Jr., of Providence, was made April 11, 1804, a codicil was added Aug. 23, 1806, and it was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 18, 1807. It names his wife, Martha, his five sons, William, Stephen, Amasa, Isaac and Holden, his daughter, Elizabeth (Tripp) Case, and her daughter, Martha; his daughter, Mary (Tripp) Gifford, and her daughter, Martha; and his daughters, Susan, Martha, Nancy and Catharine, and his grandchild, Isaac Brown. He named his wife, Martha, and Rosewell Wells executors. He died May 22, 1807, in his 64th year. His widow died Jan. 27, 1809, and they were buried in the Tripp burying ground in Providence. Their remains now rest in the Tripp plot in Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa. The children of Isaac, Jr., and Martha (Wall) Tripp were: 1, Elizabeth, born May 6, 1763, married to William Case; 2, Mary, born May 5, 1765, married to John Gifford; 3, William, born July 11, 1767, died in 1836, married (1) to Catharine Holburt, removed to vicinity of Steubenville, Ohio; 4, Isaac (1), born Nov. 10, 1769, died May 18, 1776; 5, Susannah, born Feb. 29, 1772, married to Abram Brown, had a son, Isaac, and a son, Holden, removed to Newfield, Tompkins Co., N. Y.; 6, Amasa, born April 8, 1774, died before 1824, married to Jerusha Dolph, removed to Le Roy, N. Y.; 7, Stephen, born July 19, 1776, died Sept. 10, 1841, married, Nov. 27, 1800, to Nancy, born July 9, 1782, died July 12, 1863, daughter of John and Hannah Benedict of Pittston, Pa., (Family No. 1328—Benedict). Stephen Tripp's will was made June 14, 1841, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 7, 1841, and names his wife, Nancy, and the following children, his sons Nehemiah Wisner, William Henry, Samuel and Horace, his daughters Harriet, married to Samuel Church, Hannah, Mary and Fanny. Lewis Jones, Jr., of Wilkes-Barre, and Nancy Tripp, wife of Stephen, were named executors. The will of his wife, Nancy Tripp, was made Feb. 11, 1862, and was probated at Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co., Pa., July 12, 1863, and names the same children, naming also the husbands of the daughters, viz.: Harriet, married to Samuel Church; Hannah, married to Harman B. Dailey; Polly (Mary), married to James Hartley; Fannie B., married to Lewis Armstrong. Lewis Armstrong, of Clinton, Wyoming Co., Pa., was named executor. The children of Stephen and Nancy (Benedict) Tripp were: (1), Horace, born Aug. 4, 1802, died Nov. 20, 1891, removed from Abington, Pa., to Genesee Co., N. Y., married (1), Nov. 4, 1824, to Almira Stone, born April 29, 1804, died Sept. 4, 1843, married (2), in 1844, to Mrs. Caroline Baker Kempton; (2), Harriet, born Sept. 7, 1804, died May 27, 1884, married, Aug. 15, 1824, to Samuel Church, born July 26, 1786, died May 25, 1873, (Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.); (3), Hannah, born May 27, 1809, married to Harmon Byron Dailey, born 1804, died March 3, 1884; (4), Martha (1), born Aug. 2, 1811; (5), Samuel Benedict, born March 15, 1813, died July 21, 1867, married (1) to Sarah M. Brown, born Sept. 27, 1820, died April 24, 1854, married (2) to Polly Hobbs, born Nov. 3, 1825, died 1874; (6), Martha (2), born April 7, 1815; (7), Nehemiah Wisner, born Aug. 3, 1817, died May 16, 1892, married, Jan. 1, 1852, to Margaret Inman of Nanticoke, Pa., (Family No. 1007—Inman), removed to Rock Co., Wis.; (8), Polly, born March 11, 1819, married (1) to James Hartley, married (2) to ——— Robbins; (9), William Henry, born Feb. 18, 1821, married to Delilah Thomas; (10), Fanny Benedict, born Sept. 4, 1823, died March 5, 1896, married, Dec. 25, 1849, to Lewis Armstrong, (Family No. 35—Armstrong); 8, Isaac (2), born Jan. 27, 1778, died May 28, 1830, (see later); 9, Martha, born Sept. 18, 1781, died Dec. 21, 1855, married Dec. 3, 1809, by Elder John Miller, brother of the groom, to Elisha Miller, born Aug. 30, 1785, died Aug. 2, 1842, removed to Genesee Co., N. Y.; 10, Catharine, born April 22, 1784, died April 25, 1861, married, Dec. 28, 1803, to James Dean, (Family No. 993—Dean), born May 7, 1780, died Feb. 26, 1844; 11, Holden, born Nov. 22, 1787, died June 21, 1824, married to Martha, daughter of John and Mary (Bennett) Tuttle, (Family No. 1313—Bennett, No. 1174—Tuttle), whose children were: i, Mariamme, born Aug. 22, 1819, died Nov. 25, 1824; ii, Lucilla, married to Charles H. Silkman, born July 22, 1810, died March 8, 1877. The will of Holden Tripp, made June 19, 1824, was probated July 6, 1824, and names his wife, Mather (Martha), daughters Mariamne and Lucilla, Holden Tripp, son of his deceased brother Amasa Tripp, and Holden, son of his sister, Susannah Brown. Mrs. Martha (Tuttle) Tripp was married (2), July 12, 1827, by Elder John Miller, to Aaron Gregory, who had been married (1), Oct. 23, 1819, to Anna Griffin; 12, Nancy, born Jan. 21, 1792, died Nov. 24, 1879, married, Feb. 15, 1810, to Isaac Vaughn.

VI. (8). Isaac Tripp, 3d, the second son named Isaac, born to Isaac and Martha (Wall) Tripp, was born at Rhinebeck, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Jan. 27, 1779, and was married to Catharine, born Sept. 2, 1784, died October 6, 1836, daughter of Peter and Sarah (probably Davis) La France.*

*I. Peter La France lived in Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790, and had in family living at home, himself and one female. Peter La France, Jr., also lived in that county at that time and had in family himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and five females. The family is said to have settled first in Kingston Township and later in Providence. According to the reminiscences

The children of Isaac and Catharine (La France) Tripp were: 1, Diana, married May 10, 1827, by Elder John Miller, to Samuel De Pew, of Milford, Pike Co., Pa.; 2, Martha, born June 25, 1809, died Jan. 1, 1813; 3, Caroline, born Dec. 31, 1810, died April 26, 1812; 4, Benjamin S., born April 13, 1812, died May 12, 1889, married of Elder John Miller, quoted by Dr. Hollister (Bib.-85), a Mr. La France, in 1804, held a "possession right" along the path from Keyes Creek to Providence.

II. Peter La France, Jr., was born in 1751 and died in Oct., 1833. His wife, Sarah (probably Davis) La France, was born in 1751 and died in May, 1834. They were buried in the Tripp Cemetery, now in the city of Scranton, but their remains now rest in the Tripp plot in Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa. Peter La France, Jr., was a blacksmith and for a time, prior to Sept., 1790, apparently was employed at the Mason Fitch Alden forge in Newton Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. In the Sept., 1790, term of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne Co. he recovered £14 13s 4d on a suit against Mr. Alden.

This famous old forge was built about 1787-8 by Joseph Beach, a millwright, associated with Nathaniel Chapman and Mason Fitch Alden. April 8, 1790, Joseph Beach, millwright, of Newport, sold his interest in the ten acres of land on which it stood, together with "one full equal and undivided one-third part of the forge.....which is erected and built on the afore-said ten acres," to Andrew Lee of East Hanover Township, Dauphin Co., Pa. Dec. 4, 1792, James Campbell had acquired an interest in the property which, on that date, he conveyed to Andrew Lee. In June, 1790, Andrew Lee, Nathaniel Chapman and Mason Fitch Alden were engaged in a "dispute respecting a certain iron works or forge in Newport," and the matter was submitted, by the Court of Common Pleas, to Benjamin Carpenter, William Hooker Smith and Timothy Pickering, for adjustment. They chose William Trucks and Aaron Hunt to view the forge and appraise the work done by Joseph Beach, (perhaps of Somerset Co., N. J.) (See Family No. 1174—Tuttle) and Nathaniel Chapman, "of which Joseph Beach, Andrew Lee is the assignee." The arbitrator found, "1. Nathaniel Chapman and Joseph Beach did build and erect a good and sufficient forge, on the creek, near the residence of the said Alden, according to the creditors' bond, dated Aug. 11, 1787; 2. Said Alden shall convey to Chapman and Lee ten acres of land with a two-thirds privilege of erecting a forge on the creek; 3. Alden, Chapman and Lee to have legal and equal rights; 4. Cost of erecting the forge amounts to £324 2s, one-third of which is chargeable to Alden." (Bib.-316.)

Peter La France, Jr., later became a foreman for the Slocum Brothers at the forge which they established in Slocum Hollow, (Scranton, Pa.) about 1800. In 1806-1808 and 1816 he was assessed in Exeter Township. In 1814 a Peter La France was assessed as a farmer in Providence Township. Some of the children of Peter and Sarah (probably Davis) La France were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Joseph; 2, Samuel, born Dec. 29, 1781, died Jan. 10, 1850, (see later); 3, Anna; 4, Catharine, born Sept. 2, 1784, died Oct. 6, 1836, married to Isaac Tripp, (see later); 5, Phoebe, married to Benjamin, son of Jonathan and Ruth (Tripp) Slocum, (Family No. 1061—Tripp-Slocum); 6, Eunice, born 1787, died June 6, 1857, married to William Love, (see later); 7, Elizabeth, born 1791, died 1843, married to Benjamin Fellows, (see later); 8, Sarah, married March 23, 1814, by Rev. John Miller, to William Wall; 9, Jane, married to Sidney, son of Ebenezer and Sarah (Davis) Slocum. (Family No. 1001—Tripp-Slocum.)

III. (2). Samuel, son of Peter and Sarah (Davis?) La France, was born Dec. 29, 1781, and died Jan. 10, 1850. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, and is buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. He was married, July 20, 1801, by Benjamin Carpenter, Esq., to Mary, born May 23, 1785, died Dec. 24, 1871, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery) daughter of Captain Samuel and Hannah (Pierson) Breese. Their children were: 1, Phoebe (La France) Coleman, born Sept. 23, 1802, died May 2, 1874; 2, Cordelia, born Feb. 23, 1804, died June 11, 1873, married, July 14, 1829, by Alvah C. Phillips, Esq., to Barney Garney, born June 2, 1803, died Sept. 11, 1890, whose children were: (1), Mary Ann., born Sept. 22, 1830, married to James Spoonenbury; (2), Ruth Ann, born July 2, 1832, married to Jacob Fenstermacher; (3), James W., born Jan. 20, 1835, died March 28, 1917, married to ——— Silkman, lived in Scranton, Pa.; (4), Phoebe, born April 15, 1837, married to William Fenstermacher; (5), Falla, born Sept. 20, 1839, married to George Moorehead; (6), Susan Eliza, born Aug. 14, 1842, died Jan. 3, 1892, married to John Moorhead; (7), Beach T., born Sept. 10, 1844, died Sept. 23, 1914, married to Mary Ann, born Aug. 28, 1848, died Dec. 11, 1909, daughter of Joshua, born May 13, 1804, died Nov. 1, 1878, and Lucinda Belding, born Jan. 26, 1819, died June 27, 1880, (Forty Fort Cemetery); (8), Elisha, born Oct. 28, 1845, died July 17, 1914, married to Kate Miller; 3, Elisha, born Aug. 7, 1806, drowned May 7, 1809; 4, Lot, born Oct. 13, 1808, (see later); 5, Willis, born June 21, 1810, married to ——— Breese; 6, Thomas G., born April 21, 1812, died Nov., 1851, not married; 7, William, born April 1, 1814, (see later); 8, John, born July 13, 1815, died May 6, 1816; 9, Hannah, born April 4, 1817, (see later); 10, Beach T., born Feb. 27, 1819, married to Lizzie ———; 11, Ziba S., born April 4, 1821, married to Caroline McCloud; 12, Elizabeth, born March 5, 1823, died March 15, 1833; 13, Peter, born March 13, 1824, married to Samantha Breese; 14, Isaac, born April 21, 1826, died Feb. 16-17, 1901, married to Pauline Smith, born 1828, died 1890. (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.)

IV. (2). Lot, son of Samuel and Mary (Breese) La France, was born Oct. 13, 1806, and died April 24, 1872. He was married to Aminy, born Oct. 15, 1815, died Nov. 19, 1892, daughter of Erie and Eunice Gregory, and their children were: 1, Mary Elizabeth, born Aug. 30, 1832, died early; 2, John Martin, born March 15, 1835, died early; 3, Harriet Eugenia, born Jan. 11, 1837, married to Wells Grant, lives at Macocotah, Iowa; 4, De Witt Clinton, born Jan. 22, 1839, married to Martha Space, Laceyville, Pa.; 5, Frances Jane, born March 15, 1840, married to Henry Platt, Laceyville, Pa.; 6, Alvira, born May 22, 1843, married, as second wife, to Henry Platt, Laceyville, Pa.; 7, Edwin Gregory, born May 7, 1845, married (1), July 6, 1868, to Margaret, born April 4, 1842, died July 1, 1889, daughter of Jesse B. and Eliza J. (Breese) Schooley, (see Family No. 1314—Schooley, and Family No. 989—Breese), and their children are: (1), Hattie A., born May 29, 1869, died Jan. 8, 1871; (2), infant, died July 6, 1870; (3), Christine W., born Aug. 24, 1875, died July 23, 1876; (4), Gershom B., born April 11, 1876, married to Charlotte, daughter of Robert and Elnora (Mosier) Weir; (5), Jennie S., born Aug. 31, 1874, married to Dr. E. J. Moore, Plymouth, Pa.; (6), James S., born March 7, 1880, drowned July 11, 1904, married to Nellie Rozelle; (7), Eva H., born July 13, 1881, died Nov. 4, 1884; (8), Anna L., born Jan. 1, 1884, died June 5, 1884. Edwin Gregory La France was married (2), Dec. 6, 1891, to Katharine, died Nov., 1918, daughter of James and

(1) to Mary Jane, born Oct., 1817, died Sept. 6, 1852, daughter of Aaron Brown (Family No. 1328—Brown), married (2) to Adela S. ———; 5, Colonel Ira, born Jan. 6, 1814, died Aug. 3, 1891, (see above), married to Rosanna Goodwin, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker, (Family No. 986); 6, Mahala, born

Jessie (Anderson) McCann, and their children are: Edward Lot, born June 30, 1893, and Earl, born Nov. 16, 1895; 8, Samuel Joseph, born July 23, 1847, died about 1856; 9, Susan Mandain, born Nov. 8, 1853, died early; 10, James H., born Aug. 11, 1852, died early; 11, Fred L., born Aug. 5, 1856, married to Emma Space.

IV. (7). William, son of Samuel and Mary (Breese) La France, born in April, 1813, was married to Nancy McCloud, born Sept. 1, 1818, died March 17, 1851, and their children were: 1, Silas, born July 4, 1836, died March 16, 1852; 2, Marcus, born March 3, 1838, married (1) to Margaret Bigger, married (2) to Sally ———; 3, Mary J., born June 21, 1840, married to John Williams; 4, Hannah R., born Aug. 22, 1842, married, Oct. 13, 1864, by Rev. N. G. Parke, to William Pockell, (see later); 5, John G., born Oct. 22, 1844, married to Bridget McDonald; 6, infant, born and died July 8, 1847; 7, Sarah N., born Aug. 6, 1848, married to Jacob Morrison; 8, infant, born and died March 16, 1851.

V. (4). Hannah R., daughter of William and Nancy (McCloud) La France, was born at Laceyville, Pa., Oct. 22, 1842, and came to Wyoming, Pa., in 1859. She was married, Oct. 13, 1864, by the Rev. N. G. Parke, to William, born in Dec., 1842, died Sept. 16, 1912, son of Thomas, born March 12, 1811, died Dec. 3, 1895, and Elizabeth (Frame) Pocknell, born 1812, died June 28, 1872, who were married, in Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 16, 1837, and whose children were: 1, Mary, born 1838, died Nov. 11, 1912, married to William, born 1837, died Nov. 11, 1915, son of John and Ann (Cowan) Townsend; 2, Elizabeth, married, May 4, 1864, by Rev. H. H. Wells, to Steuben J., born May 1, 1841, son of Albert and Lydia (Breese) Polen, (Family No. 989—Polen); 3, William, born Dec., 1842, died Sept. 16, 1912, married to Hannah La France; 4, Milliance, born Sept. 16, 1849, married to Alpheus Breese Polen, (Family No. 989—Polen). Mrs. Hannah R. (La France) Pocknell lives at Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. (1918.)

IV. (9). Hannah, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Breese) La France, was born in 1816, and died Dec. 15, 1900. She was married to Levi Canouse, born about 1805, died in Jan., 1893. Some of their children were: 1, James, married to Mary McNally, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; 2, Daniel Hillman, married to Eliza Balding, lives in Wyoming, Pa.; 3, Annie Cordelia, married to Charles Devens, lives in Forty Fort, Pa.; 4, David Moses, born Nov. 25, 1841, married to Sarah Catharine, born May 10, 1844, daughter of Reuben, born April 18, 1814, died Oct. 10, 1886, and Mary Elizabeth (Freeman) Deitrick:

III. (6). Eunice, daughter of Peter and Sarah (Davis?) La France, was born in 1787 and died June 6, 1857. She was married to William Love, who was doubtless a son of James Love, who lived in Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790, and had in family, living at home, himself, two males over 16, two males under 16 and seven females. The family probably came to the Wyoming Valley from the vicinity of Deer Park, Orange Co., N. Y. William Love, who was in the Wyoming Valley in 1788, and Elizabeth Love, who was married to Abraham Van Garden (or Van Gorden) were doubtless brother and sister of James Love. Abraham Van Gorden bought 69 acres of Lot 25, Third Division of Kingston Township, July 17, 1791, from Thomas and Abigail Stoddard of Indian Reserve, Herkimer Co., N. Y. James and Mary (Van Gorden) Love, probably parents of James, William and Elizabeth Love, had a daughter, Susanna, baptised at Deer Park Church, then Ulster Co., N. Y., Feb. 3, 1751. (Bib.-240.) She was married to James Earle and three of their children were baptised: (1), Suffiah, Aug. 30, 1772; (2), Samuel, born Oct. 11, 1784, baptised Oct. 26, 1788; (3), Matthew, born May 11, 1786, baptised Oct. 26, 1788. (Bib.-240.) Three of the children of James Love, who lived in Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790, were doubtless: James Love of Huntington Township, who was married, Sept. 8, 1808, to Wealthy, daughter of Thomas Tubbs, (Family No. 1041—Tubbs); 2, Abigail, who was married to Daniel, son of Captain Samuel Breese, (Family No. 988—Breese), and 3, William, who was married to Eunice La France. (Henry Love settled in Mehoopany Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., in 1795, and John Love, of Luzerne Co., Pa., was married to Catharine Place, in March, 1811.)

William Love, who was married to Eunice La France, was born in 1782 and died June 12, 1869. He was a soldier in the War of 1812. He was a hatter by trade and, Nov. 6, 1811, was living in the house afterward owned by John Bird (1813-14), on what is now Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa. (Family No. 1217—Bird.) He had probably bought this property from Jacob Bedford. It was later known as the Ensign property. He removed, a little later, to the property at Wyoming, Pa., long known as the Oehmig property and later the residence, for a long term of years, of the late Andrew Crouse. This property, part of Lot No. 34, Third Division, Kingston, William Love bought from Captain Samuel Breese, and sold, Nov. 28, 1820, to Mrs. Zurviah Smith, widow of Benjamin Smith (Family No. 1324—Smith). Sept. 25, 1824, he bought from Jacob Sharps, part of Lot 5, Exeter Township, now in the Borough of West Pittston, Pa. On this lot he established his home, on the Tunkhannock road, and near the Kingston Township line, in a house still standing (1917). His will was made May 14, 1869, was probated July 7, 1869, and names his children: 1, James; 2, Phebe; 3, Peter; 4, John; 5, William, Jr., born Mrch 15, 1831, married to Martha B. Spafford, lived in Scranton, Pa.; 6, Joseph T.; 7, Mary, married to William H. Brown; 8, Catharine, married, Nov. 30, 1848, to Thomas Folly; 9, Mrs. Caroline (Love) Palmer. William and Eunice (La France) Love are buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery. John, son of William and Eunice (La France) Love, was married to Mary Laird.

III. (7). Elizabeth, born 1791, died 1843, daughter of Peter and Sarah (Davis?) La France, was married to Benjamin, born 1789, died 1874, son of Joseph and Catharine Fellows, born 1758, died April 28, 1814, (Washburn Street Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.). Some of the children of Joseph and Catharine Fellows were: Joseph, Jr.; Benjamin, born 1789, died 1874, married to Elizabeth La France; Nancy, born April 5, 1786, died May 14, 1869, married to Zephaniah Knapp, born May 13, 1778, died Oct. 30, 1861, (Family No. 988—Knapp); Sylvanus, born Feb. 26, 1798, died April 4, 1877, married to Maria ———, born Aug. 27, 1806, died Dec. 7, 1879, (Washburn Street Cemetery, Scranton, Pa.); Henry, married, Jan. 10, 1823, to Jerusha Griffin.

Dec. 15, 1815, died March 10, 1879, married to Aretas Herman; 7, Isaac, born Sept. 7, 1817, died Feb. 5, 1898, married (1) to Margaret, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker (Family No. 986); 8, Phebe S., born June 17, 1819, died Oct. 4, 1844, married to Jacob Keen; 9, Maria, born July 23, 1822, died June 8, 1883, married to William Swetland, son of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker, (Family No. 986); 10, Holden, born Oct. 15, 1824, died Dec. 30, 1870, married to Mrs. Sarah (Shoemaker) Bardoll, widow of Thomas Bardoll, and daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker (Family No. 986); 11, Catharine, born Nov. 15, 1827, died Dec. 4, 1892, married to Daniel Silkman, born 1820, died 1897, son of Jacob, born 1784, died 1868, and Elizabeth (Sutherland) Silkman, born 1782, died 1848.

THE BARNUM FAMILY

I. Stephen Barnum of Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., was born about 1761 and died in Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 18, 1819. (Bib.-12.) He enlisted, April 21, 1777, and served as Sergeant in Captain Beardsley's Company of Colonel Heman Swift's Seventh Regiment of the Connecticut Continental Line, in the War of the American Revolution, and was discharged April 5, 1781. He was married to Ruth, probably daughter of David Strong. She was named, as living, in the will of her son, Elijah Barnum, made in Tunkhannock, Pa., Oct. 23, 1812. They came to Pittston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and were living there in 1812. Jan. 19, 1819, the name of Stephen Barnum was placed on the Federal Pension Roll, with pension dating from April 18, 1818. Zenus Barnum was appointed administrator of his estate Dec. 11, 1819, with Eleazer Carey and Joseph Slocum on his bond in $300. The children of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, living Oct. 10, 1812, were: 1, Theron, born about 1772, died at Tunkhannock, Pa., Sept. 26, 1804; 2, Stephen, Jr., born July 21, 1776, died at New Milford, Pa., Jan. 12, 1859; 3, David, born in Aug., 1779, died May 11, 1844; 4, Major Richard; 5, Elijah, died at Tunkhannock, Pa., in Oct., 1812, probably not married; 6, Polly (Barnum) Summers, named in the will of her brother, Elijah; 7, Zenus, born Feb. 18, 1782, died Dec. 13, 1864; 8, Pamela, born about 1786, died July 27, 1851; 9, Mahala, born about 1792, died April 4, 1813. It appears probable to the writer that Stephen Barnum removed from Connecticut to the Kirby and Law Settlement, at Lawsville, Pa., near Montrose, Susquehanna Co. The Montrose Gazette of Feb. 19, 1820, has an advertisement bearing date of Jan. 22, 1819, in which a Stephen Barnum offered his farm for sale. The farm is described as consisting of "287 acres, six miles from the flourishing village of Mont Rose, and directly in the neighborhood of an old settled and wealthy community. The society in the neighborhood is good." The writer cannot determine whether this farm was owned by Stephen Barnum or Stephen Barnum, Jr.

II. (1). Theron, son of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, born about 1772, was an early merchant at Tunkhannock, Pa., and was also interested in a grist mill there. He was married to Jerusha, daughter of Colonel Zebulon and Jerusha (Conant) Marcy.* His will was made at Tunkhannock, Pa., Sept. 21, 1804, and was

*MARCY. I. John Marcy of Roxbury, Mass., born 1685, died Dec. 23, 1724, was married to Sarah, daughter of James and Sarah (Draper) Hadlock, and their youngest son, Ebenezer, was born, at Woodstock, June 6, 1709. II. Ebenezer, son of John and Sarah (Hadlock) Marcy, born at Woodstock, June 6, 1709, died at Dover, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Dec. 10, 1808, was married, in 1738, to Martha Nicholson, and two of their sons were: Ebenezer, Jr., born Feb. 20, 1741, died March 20, 1790, and Zebulon, born May 28, 1744, died Sept. 22, 1831.

III. Ebenezer Marcy, Jr., son of Ebenezer and Martha (Nicholson) Marcy, born Feb. 20, 1741, died March 20, 1790, was married, Feb. 11, 1768, to Martha Spencer, daughter of Jonathan and Content Spencer. She was married (2), before Aug. 12, 1796, to John Davidson. The children of Ebenezer and Martha (Spencer) Marcy were: 1, Jonathan, born about 1770, died Oct. 14, 1799, (Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.), married to Elizabeth, born 1772, died March 31, 1817. She was married (2), March 21, 1802, to Ebenezer Drake; 2, Elizabeth, born Dec. 7, 1771, was deceased in 1849, was married to Allen Burdick and their children were, (all living June 28, 1849): (1), Milo Burdick of Kortright, Delaware Co., N. Y.; (2), Susannah, married to Jonathan A. Burdick of Richland, Oswego Co., N. Y.; (3), Phebe, married to Elias Burdick, of Albion, N. Y.; (4), Lydia, married to Ebenezer M. Y., in 1847; (ii), Elijah S. Mead, of New York State, 1847; (iii), William H. Mead; (3), Martha, married to Elias Sloate, a widow in 1847, living in Kingston, Ulster Co., N. Y.; (4), Eliza, married to Isaac Reynolds, living in Woodstock, Ulster Co., N. Y., in 1847; (5), Hannah Stevens, and (6), Jerusha Stevens, both living in Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., in 1847; 7, Ebenezer, Jr., born Feb. 4, 1780, died Aug. 9, 1850, (see later); 8, Jared, born Jan. 16, or June 6, 1782, died Dec. 18, 1815-16, married to Sarah, daughter of Rufus Bennet, whose children were: (1), Lorinda, born March 18, 1805, died in 1848, married to Dayton Dilley, (Family No. 1007—Dilley); (2), Ira born April 20, 1807, died Oct., 1873, married, Dec. 31, 1835, to Ann Teeter, born 1810, died 1865; (3), Reuben, born Sept. 7, 1809, married to Lucy Ann Wrenton; (4), Avery, born Jan. 29, 1811, married to Lucinda Blackman; Mrs. Sarah (Bennet) Marcy was married (2) to Darius Finch, who, Oct. 2, 1821, was appointed guardian for Reuben, Avery, Lorenda and Ira, minor children of Jared Marcy. She was born April 21, 1785, died Sept. 1, 1847, and is buried in Hanover Green Cemetery, Hanover, Pa.; 9, Joseph, born Feb. 19, 1787, died May 19, 1872, married to Delilah, born May 25, 1795, died Dec. 28, 1876, daughter of David Nichols. Some of their children were: (1), Henry F., born April 29, 1828, died April 19, 1847, (Jackson Cemetery, La Grange, Pa.); (2), Nichols, married to Barbary ———, one child, Frances P., born Dec., 1845, died March 1, 1847, buried in Jackson Cemetery, La Grange, Pa. Nichols Marcy removed to Vailton, Neb.; (3), Martha R. (Marcy) Ryan, lived at Sandwich, Ill.; (4), Abel, a school teacher and carpenter at Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was elected, in 1860, the first County Superintendent of Luzerne Co., Pa., Schools, and was re-elected in 1863. He was married, May 7, 1847, to Diana Chapin, born April 18, 1827, died Feb. 19, 1906, daughter of Alvah C. and Ann (Chapin) Phillips of Wyoming, Pa. They removed to Tipton, Mo., where he died. She returned to Luzerne Co., Pa., and died in Centermoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa. (See Family No. 1216—Phillips for children); (5), Dr. William L., born July 4, 1833, married (1), at Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., by the Rev. Asa J. Van Cleft, Nov. 14, 1868, to Fannie H. Brown, of Falls, Pa., married (2) to Rhoda, daughter of John and Sarah (Enslie) McLenon. The will of Ebenezer Marcy was signed Feb. 17, 1790, in the presence of William Miller, Stephen Pray and Zebulon Marcy and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 1, 1790. It names all the above named children and his wife, Martha. They are also all named in a partition of the estate Sept. 25, 1801. Thankful is recorded on this document as having died without issue. Ebenezer Marcy, Sr., his wife and many of their descendants are buried in Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.

IV. (7). Ebenezer, 3d, born Feb. 10, 1780, died Aug. 9, 1850, son of Ebenezer, Jr., and Martha (Spencer) Marcy, was married to Susanna Adams, born March 25, 1783, died June 2, 1842. They are buried in Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa. Their children were: 1, Jonathan, born Jan. 31, 1803, died Jan. 5, 1851, living, Feb. 9, 1849, in St. Joseph, Buchanan Co., Mo.; 2, Ebenezer (4th), born Oct. 2, 1804, died Dec. 4, 1828, (Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.); 3, Abraham, born Sept. 16, 1806, died Oct. 26, 1828, (Marcy Cemetery); 4, Thankful, born July 19, 1808, died Feb. 14, 1833, married to E. L. Boyd, (Marcy Cemetery); 5, Spencer, born July 19, 1808, married to Harriet Pruner; 6, Elijah, born Sept. 4, 1810, died Sept. 23, 1828, (Marcy Cemetery); 7, Elbert, born May 28, 1812, married to Mary Ann Reddin, living in Little Rock, Kendall Co., Ill., Feb. 23, 1849; 8, Sarah, born Feb. 15, 1814, died Dec. 2, 1834, (Marcy Cemetery), probably married, and had a daughter, Sarah S.; to whom Ebenezer Marcy, Jr., deeded lands Feb. 23, 1849, on the same terms as those on which he deeded other lands to his surviving children. It appears probable that Sarah S., daughter of Sarah and granddaughter of Ebenezer Marcy, Jr., was married to Renssalaer Leonard, April 23, 1858. Renssalaer and Sarah S. Leonard of Wells-ville, Allegheny Co., Pa., conveyed lands to Joseph Marcy which had been conveyed by Ebenezer Marcy, Feb. 23, 1849, to Sarah S. Leonard; 9, Jared, born Jan. 15, 1816, died Feb. 18, 1879, married (1) to Lucy, born July 1, 1823, died Oct. 4, 1845, daughter of John and Sarah Andrews, married (2) to Mary Ann ———; 10, Joseph, born Jan. 22, 1818, died April 30, 1890, married to Ellen D. Helm, (Family No. 1312—Helm), born Aug. 27, 1832, died April 12, 1877; 11, John Sager, born Nov. 1, 1821, died March 4, 1896, married to Mary E. Coolbaugh, born 1821, died Dec. 24, 1887, daughter of Peter and Eleanor (Jacobs) Coolbaugh, (Family No. 988—Jacobs), (see later); 12, Martha, born Sept. 29, 1823, died Jan. 31, 1911, married to William A., born Aug. 24, 1825, died Jan. 1, 1896, (Dana Cemetery, Eatonville, Wyoming Co., Pa.), son of Asa S. and Nancy (Pruner) Dana, lived in Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co., Pa.

V. (11). John Sager Marcy and his wife, Mary E. (Coolbaugh) Marcy, had at least four children, J. Winfield, married (1) to Juniata, daughter of Orlando and Caroline (Hoyt) Salsbury, married (2), June 28, 1894, to Mary Edith Fulmer. He lived for many years in Carbondale, Pa., and removed to Kingston, Pa., where, for many years, he has been engaged in the wagon and carriage business. He served for many years as Councilman in Kingston, Pa., and still, 1919, resides there; 2, Edwin B., born Jan. 4, 1850, died Aug. 11, 1883, married, at Carbondale, Pa., to Carrie, daughter of Dr. S. Ottman, who was married (2) to George Mills of Mills Brothers and Company, hardware merchants in that city; 3, Hannah, born July 20, 1856, died Dec. 13, 1879, married to Edward H. Vandenburg, born May 28, 1854, died April 13, 1892; 4, Gertrude J., died in 1918.

Aug. 22, 1853, John Sager Marcy conveyed to Ebenezer Drake, Joseph Marcy and George W. Smith about one and one-half acres of land formerly owned by Ebenezer Marcy, including the piece of land on which a "new brick chapel" had been recently erected and about an acre to be occupied as a burying ground. (Marcy Cemetery.) The land was conveyed "In trust for the use and benefit of the persons erecting said chapel or house of worship and for the

II. (1). Stephen, Jr., son of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, was born July 21, 1776, and died, at New Milford, Pa., Jan. 12, 1859. He was married, July 21, 1802, to Sally Smith. He was born in Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., and was an early settler in the Kirby and Law Settlement, now Susquehanna Co., Pa. Some of the children of Stephen, Jr., and Sally (Smith) Barnum were: 1, Theron, born April 28, 1803; 2, Elijah, born Jan. 5, 1805, died Jan. 16, 1868, married to Emeline Badger, Jan. 31, 1828; 3, Hiram, born Aug. 9, 1808, died Aug. 16, 1874, married, Oct. 27, 1838, to Mary Chamberlain; 4, Allen S., born Oct. 14, 1816, married, Nov. 30, purpose of a public burying ground. The conveyance stipulates that whenever a board of trustees is legally constituted a deed shall be made conveying to the trustees of the chapel, or house of worship, one-half acre to the chapel and one acre to the trustees for a burying ground. A reservation of 30 feet square for each of the following named persons was made: John S. Marcy, Charles Drake and George W. Smith.

III. Colonel Zebulon Marcy, son of Ebenezer and Martha (Nicholson) Marcy, was born in Dover, Dutchess Co., N. Y., May 28, 1744, and died at Tunkhannock, Luzerne, now Wyoming Co., Pa., Sept. 22, 1831. He was married to Jerusha Cotant (Cotent or Conant), who was born March 14, 1743, and died, at Tunkhannock, Pa., March 27-29, 1819. He was a prominent figure in the Second Pennamite War, following the American Revolution. His interests apparently centered his sympathy with the Pennamites. In 1788 in the Court of Quarter Sessions at Wilkes-Barre, Zebulon Cady, Solomon Earl, Daniel Earl and Wilkes Jenkins were charged with "riot and unlawful assembly and with pulling down the mansion house of Zebulon Marcy." In Sept., 1788, Stephen Jenkins was charged, in the same court, with the forcible entry of a lot of land in Putnam, in the possession of Zebulon Marcy, and with assault and battery upon the person of Lydia Marcy. In March, 1791, Zebulon Marcy was charged with having challenged Asahel Asherton to fight a duel. He was appointed, in Sept., 1788, to serve with Gideon Osterhout, Benjamin Jones, Jr., Joseph Arthur, Isaac Adams and Asahel Atherton, to lay out a road from the upper tier in Pittston to Putnam and through that township. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1776 and in 1777 and 1778 was a taxpayer in Pittston District. His brother, Ebenezer Marcy, was a taxpayer in Pittston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. The homestead of Zebulon Marcy was along the Tunkhannock Creek near its mouth. The Marcy Cemetery, at Tunkhannock, Pa., is situated upon part of it. Zebulon Marcy, his wife and a number of his descendants are buried there. Some of the children of Zebulon and Jerusha (Cotent or Conant) Marcy were: 1, Zebulon, Jr., born Oct. 9, 1767, died Jan. 19, 1770; 2, John, whose will, made in Benton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Sept. 10, 1841, was probated at Tunkhannock, Wyoming Co., Pa., July 23, 1839, and names his wife, Jane, and the following children: (1), Hiram; (2), Napoleon; (3), Jerusha, married, Aug. 24, 1805, to William Stevens Hartley by Elder John Miller; (4), Abigail (Marcy) Stevens; (5), Minenzy (Marcy) Miller; (6), Lydia (Marcy) Roberts; (7), Polly (Marcy) Tiffany; (8), Eunice Marcy; (9), John Marcy, Jr.; 10, Simon Marcy's heirs. He named John Stark, "formerly my brother-in-law," and Punderson Avery, executors. He was apparently married twice. His first wife was probably a sister of John Stark, (Family No. 1016—Stark); 3, Lydia, born Jan. 3, 1772, died June 18, 1817, married to Cyrus, son of Solomon and Hannah (Punderson) Avery, (Avery family later); 4, Nicholson, born Nov. 3, 1773, died Jan. 30, 1827, married to Hannah, born Oct. 3, 1786, died April 8, 1857, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), daughter of Colonel Hutchinson, of Danvers, Mass., whose children were: (1), William N.; (2), Zebulon Conant; (3), Susan, born May 22, 1812, died April 13, 1872, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), married, as second wife, to John R. Coudry, (Family No. 988—Jenkins-Coudry); (4), Albert Nicholson; (5), Israel Harding, born Nov. 18, 1815, died April 10, 1857, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.); (6), Oliver H. Perry, born Feb. 2, 1818, died June 12, 1878, married, in 1859, to Mary, daughter of Joseph Burgess; (7), Harriet N.; (8), Emma H.; (9), Porter, born Feb. 22, 1824, died May 31, 1878, married to Elizabeth H., daughter of Abel Cassidy, who was born April 4, 1836, and died Aug. 17, 1891, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.); (10), Martha Curtis; 5, Sarah, born Aug. 9, 1776, died 1778; 6, Sarah (2), born July 16, 1778, (or June 24, 1778), died Oct. 14, 1854, aed. 76 years, 3 months, 28 days (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), married (1) to John McCord, an early merchant and innkeeper at Tunkhannock, (Family No. 1017—McCord), married (2) to Samuel Whitmore, born about 1783, died Nov. 20, 1828, (Marcy Cemetery). Her will, made at Tunkhannock, Pa., Sept. 23, 1853, and probated there Oct. 19, 1854, provided for the placing of a headstone at her grave and one at that of her brother, Zebulon Marcy, Jr. The will names: 1, Eliza Avery, daughter of my brother, Abel Marcy; 2, Mary Marcy, daughter of Abel; 3, Sarah Rosencrantz, daughter of Abel Marcy; 4, Hannah Hyde, "daughter of my sister, Jerusha Otis," (Jerusha (Marcy) Barnum-Otis); 5, Sarah, daughter of Cyrus H. Avery. Philander D. and Ira Avery signed the will as witnesses and Perry Marcy was named executor; 7, Zebulon, Jr., (2), born July 10, 1780, died Nov. 9, 1834. His will was made in Tunkhannock Township, Nov. 3, 1834, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, March 4, 1835. No wife is named, probably deceased. It names his son, Nicholson, as deceased, leaving two sons, Alexander and Nicholson B. (Their mother's name was Abigail.) It also refers to two daughters of Zebulon Marcy, viz.: Polly Smith and Patty Smith, one of whom had been, apparently, the first wife of Jeremiah Smith and the other his second wife. (Family No. 38—Smith.) A property had been deeded to Jeremiah Smith. This property is described in the will of Zebulon Marcy, Jr., as situated in Ohio and as constituting the "share of Polly Smith and Patty Smith, both my daughters." John Marcy and Abel Marcy, described as his brothers, were named executors; 8, Colonel Abel, born July 24 (or April 24), 1782, died Dec. 27, 1850, married (1) to Eunice, born about 1786, died July 22, 1813, (Marcy Cemetery), daughter of Captain Jeremiah Spencer, married (2) to Affa, born Feb. 7, 1795, died Aug. 23, 1841, daughter of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins-Harding. (Family No. 988—Jenkins-Baldwin, No. 992—Harding.) Some of the children of Colonel Abel Marcy were, (order of birth not known to writer): (1), Abel, Jr., born April 29, 1809, died July 2, 1829, (Marcy Cemetery); (2), Celinda, daughter of Abel and Affa, born about 1819, died June 9, 1823, (Marcy Cemetery); (3), Theron, who was appointed administrator of the estate, Feb. 18, 1851, with Samuel Stark on his bond in $200; (4), Lydia, born Jan. 24, 1817, died Aug. 20, 1889, married to Samuel Stark, born June 9, 1816, died Dec. 15, 1879, (Sunny Side Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), (Family No. 1016—Stark); (5), Mary, not married in 1853; (6), Sarah 1838, to Mary Hepburn; 5, Horace, born 1819, died 1890; 6, David Augustus, born 1825, died 1838.

II. (3). David, son of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, was born in Aug., 1779, and died May 11, 1844. He was married, May 7, 1795, to Ann, daughter of Ephraim Kirby, senior member of the Kirby and Law firm, which owned a large tract of land in what is now Susquehanna Co., Pa. David and Ann (Kirby) Barnum were among the first settlers in Kirby and Law's Settlement, and their daughter, Fanny, is said, on good authority, to have been the first child born in the set-(Marcy) Rosencrans; (7), Eliza (Marcy) Avery; (8), Ledyard W., whose wife, Eliza, was born Dec. 26, 1826, died July 19, 1856; (9), Thomas, married to Susanna A. (Marcy) Cemetry; 9, Jerusha, born Nov. 8, 1783, married (1) to Theron, son of Captain Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum (see above), and had one daughter, Mynarvy Barnum. She was married (2) to a Mr. Otis, and had one daughter, Sarah, who was married to a Mr. Hyde.

EVERY. I. Captain James Avery, who died at what was later Groton, Conn., in 1700, was married, Nov. 10, 1643, to Joanna Greenslade, and they had nine children. II. Captain Samuel Avery, youngest child of Captain James and Joanna (Greenslade) Avery, was born at New London, Conn., Aug. 14, 1664, and was married, at Swansea, Mass., Oct. 25, 1686, to Susanna, daughter of William and Anna (Humphrey) Palmes. III. Humphrey, son of Captain Samuel and Susanna (Palmes) Avery, was born at Groton, Conn., July 4, 1699, and was married, Feb. 5, 1724, to Jerusha, died Sept. 20, 1763, daughter of William and Margaret (Avery) Morgan. Their children were: 1, Humphrey, Jr., born March 10, 1725; 2, William, born Sept. 13, 1726, who was married at Preston, Conn., Sept. 27, 1749, to Hanna Meach, some of whose children were: Cynthia, Jerusha, William, Humphrey and Eliza. William Avery lived in Brattlebury, Windham Co., Vt., Feb. 28, 1794, when he executed a power of attorney to his brother, Solomon, of Tunkhannock, Pa. He was an early settler in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., a private in the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia and took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. His name appears on the tax lists for Wilkes-Barre District in 1776, 1777, 1778 and 1781. He went to Vermont before 1790; 3, Solomon, born July 17, 1728, died early; 4, Solomon (2), born June 17, 1729, died Dec. 23, 1798, (see later); 5, Samuel, born Oct. 17, 1731, died at Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 14, 1805, lived at Norwich, New London Co., Conn., in 1769, and came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., in 1772; 6, James, born Aug. 13, 1733; 7, Jerusha, born June 7, 1735, married to Latham Avery; 8, Palmes, born April 3, 1737; 9, Christopher, born May 3, 1739, killed in the battle of Wyoming, Pa., July 3, 1778, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., in May, 1769, and was active in the affairs of the settlement. He was one of the original Ensigns of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, and at the time of his death was a Justice of the Peace; 10, Weight Still, born May 10, 1741, died in North Carolina, March 13, 1821; 11, Isaac, born Oct. 27, 1743, went to Virginia; 12, Nathan, born Nov. 20, 1746, died July, 1747. [A Captain "Wait S. Avery" died in Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 2, 1807, aed. 50 years. (Bib.-5.) A Rebecca Avery was married to Aaron Brown in Dec., 1809, and a Clarissa Avery was married to Benjamin Lathrop. (Bib.-5.)]

IV. (4). Solomon, son of Humphrey and Jerusha (Morgan) Avery, was born June 17, 1729, and died at Tunkhannock, Pa., Dec. 23, 1798. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1772, and in that year drew lots in Wilkes-Barre. Soon after 1786 he removed to Tunkhannock, Pa., and settled at the mouth of the Tunkhannock Creek. He was married to Hannah, daughter of Rev. Ebenezer Punderson and their children were: 1, Zipporah, born Feb. 8, 1752; 2, Esther, born Nov. 19, 1754; 3, Solomon, born Aug. 13, 1757, married about 1790, to Sally Bugbee; 4, Miles, born Sept. 5, 1760, died June 27, 1850, married, Nov., 1783, to Malinda Pixley, lived at Great Barrington, Mass., Sept. 26, 1799; Stephen, born Aug. 13, 1762, died in Oct., 1842, married in 1782, to Sarah Bement, living in Fairfield, Herkimer Co., N. Y., Oct. 28, 1801; 6, Ebenezer Punderson, born May 21, 1765, died Sept. 10, 1840, (see later); 7, Henry, born May 21, 1767, died March 25, 1853, married to Hannah Rockefeller, born Aug. 5, 1780, died Feb. 4, 1865, living in Livingston, Columbia Co., N. Y., in 1799; 8, Cyrus, born May 12, 1771, died Feb. 28, 1833, (see later); 9, Humphrey, born Jan. 17, 1775, died Feb. 8, 1776. The will of Solomon Avery, made in Putnam Township, June 2, 1798, was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 23, 1799. It names his living children, Zipporah, Esther, Solomon, Jr., Miles, Stephen, Punderson, Henry and Cyrus.

V. (6). Ebenezer Punderson, son of Solomon and Hannah (Punderson) Avery, was born May 21, 1765, and died Sept. 10, 1840. He was married, Jan. 12, 1787, to Lovina Barnes. They lived in Pompey, Onondaga Co., N. Y., Nov. 5, 1801. Their children were: 1, Hannah P., born Dec. 3, 1787, died Oct. 23, 1867, married (1), Dec. 20, 1804, to Samuel Willard, married (2) to William Higgins; 2, Salley Bement, born Sept. 1, 1789, died May 16, 1874, married, as second wife, to George Miller, (Family No. 1017—Miller), of Eaton Township, Wyoming Co., Pa.; 3, Lucy, born March 14, 1791, died March 11, 1841, married, in 1810, to Belden Resiguie; 4, William, born Aug. 16, 1793, died Nov. 16, 1840, married, Oct. 24, 1815, to Eunice Heist; 5, Phebe born Oct. 31, 1795, died Jan. 25, 1868, married to Colonel Reynolds; 6, Candace, born Nov. 9, 1797, died March 2, 1885, married to Horace Sweet; 7, Lucetta, born Oct. 26, 1799, died Feb. 15, 1874, married, May 9, 1819, to William M. Wood; 8, Parlana, born Dec. 10, 1802, died Dec. 17, 1880, married, Oct. 10, 1821, to Abner Duell; 9, Perlina (twin), born Dec. 10, 1802, died Jan. 19, 1885, married June 14, 1820, to Euroclodyn Gerry; 10, Cyrus, born July 28, 1807, in Pompey, N. Y., died in St. Petersburg, Russia, Jan. 14, 1884, married to Calista Hibbard, born April 26, 1805. She is buried in Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa., where his tombstone also stands; 11, Nancy, born Sept. 8, 1809, died Jan. 19, 1803, married, Nov. 9, 1826, to Elam Thomas; 12, Dr. Samuel, born Feb. 18, 1812, died Sept. 20, 1891, married to Lucinda Jones.

V. (8). Cyrus, son of Solomon and Hannah (Punderson) Avery, was born May 12, 1771, and died Feb. 28, 1833. He was married, May 16, 1791, to Lydia, daughter of Zebulon and Jerusha (Cotant or Conant) Marcy, and their children were: Colonel Miles, born Dec. 28, 1791, died April 28, 1848, married to Elizabeth, daughter of Jonathan Smith (Family No. 43—Smith), (see later); 2, Zebulon, born May 12, 1793, died in 1793; 3, Zebulon (2), born July 7, 1794, married (1) to Lydia Ebbert, married (2) to Polly Smith, daughter of Jonathan Smith, (Family No. 43—Smith); 4, Solomon, born July 28, 1796, died Sept. 8, 1796; 5, Nicholson, born Sept. 19, 1797, died Sept. 23, 1797; 5, Jerusha H., born Dec. 3, 1798, died June 2, 1828, married to Henry G. Hammond, tlement. Samuel Andrew Law, formerly of Cheshire, New Haven Co., Conn., but, in 1804, of Meredith, Delaware Co., N. Y., on the 7th day of Jan., 1804, conveyed title to Fanny Barnum, daughter of David Barnum, Esq., of Pittston, Luzerne Co., Pa. "In consideration that Fanny Barnum, daughter of David Barnum, Esq., of Pittston, Luzerne Co., Pa., was the first child born on Kirby and Law's Settlement, so called, in the County of Luzerne, as well as in consideration of the good will, affection and regard I bear to her, the said Fanny quit claim to her a piece of land lying in Kirby and Law's Settlement, being one-quarter of my 100 acre lot, No. 85 Providing this writing and release shall be null and void, as respects the western most half of the 25 acres, unless the said David, father of the said Fanny, shall, within three years from the 1st of Jan. next, completely clear off and sufficiently fence five acres and set out the said five acres with apple trees, (including pear or other fruit trees if he pleases) as an orchard." David Barnum was of Luzerne Co., Pa., Oct. 2, 1799, when he bought from Robert Bowne, merchant, of New York City, (by his attorney, Samuel Andrew Law) Lots Nos. 113 and 121, "situated in the Drinker Purchase, near the Great Bend of the Susquehanna River, each lot containing 100 acres." This deed was signed in the presence of Ephraim and Fanny Kirby. He was a yeoman at Columbia, Lancaster Co., Pa., Aug. 16, 1804, when he sold to his brother, Elijah Barnum, one acre of land in Pittston, adjoining lands Amos Fell bought from Waterman Baldwin. In 1805 he sold to Reuben Beach of Warren, Litchfield Co., Conn., 358 acres in Salem Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., to Joseph Bennett of Warren, Litchfield Co., Conn., 318 acres in Huntington Township; to Barzillai Carter of Warren, Litchfield Co., Conn., 100 acres, of the tract of which he sold 318 acres to Joseph Bennett, and 400 acres on the waters of Wapallopen (Wapwallopen?) Creek. June 23, 1804, he sold to his brother, Zenus Barnum, Lot No. 35, 400 acres in Providence, Luzerne Co., Pa., which he had bought from Stephen Gardner (Family No. 988—Gardner) of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Jan. 29, 1803, he and his wife, Anna, were of Columbia, Pa., and he was an innkeeper there, when he sold to his brother, Richard Barnum, his farm at Lawsville, Pa. He was of Baltimore, Md., March 21, 1827, when he bought from John and Sally (Armstrong) Benedict (Family No. 1328—Benedict, No. 35—Armstrong) of Pittston, Pa., 127 acres whose children were: (1), Otha Henry William; (2), Catharine Matilda; (3), Sarah L.; (4), Caroline Lucy; 6, Sally Wright, born Feb. 5, 1801, died May 3, 1828; 7, Cyrus Henry, born July 28, 1803, died April 17, 1847, married to Lurinda Kasson, whose minor children in 1847, were: Rouenna Lucretia, Sally Eleanor, Florella Punderson, Lucy Ann, and Martha Louisa; 8, Humphrey, born Nov. 14, 1805, died April 9, 1820; 9, Lydia, born March 5, 1808, died Nov. 30, 1831; 10, Abel M., born July 29, 1811, died April 19, 1843, married to Euphemina Pell Stephens; 11, Punderson, born July 31, 1814, died Jan. 21, 1843, married to Mary Stevens; 12, Joseph Conant, born June 9, 1817, died June 16, 1876, married, March 13, 1841, to Martha, daughter of Daniel C. and Esther (Pettebone) Marsh of Forty Fort, Pa., (Family No. 988—Pettebone). Cyrus Avery was married (2) to Euciba ———, who survived him. His will, made in Tunkhannock, Feb. 6, 1833, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 26, 1833, was witnessed by Richard Welch, born Nov. 30, 1782, died May 20, 1866, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.), and Ziba Smith. It names his wife, Euciba, his six sons, Miles, Zebulon, Cyrus H., Abel M., Punderson and Joseph and the children of Jerusha Hammond. He gave to Otha Henry William Hammond one-half right in the land on which Henry G. Hammond then lived and the other half right to Catharine Matilda, Sarah L. and Caroline Lucy Hammond.

VI. (1). Colonel Miles Avery, son of Cyrus and Lydia (Marcy) Avery, was born Dec. 28, 1791, and died April 28, 1848. He was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Jonathan Smith, (Family No. 43—Smith), and their children were: 1, Lydia Ann, born May 1, 1815, died June 18, 1892, married to Horatio Taylor, (Family No. 35—Taylor), born 1812, died May 7, 1852, (Roberts' Cemetery, near Falls, Pa.); 2, Zipporah, born Oct. 28, 1814, married to ——— Warren, perhaps a son of Henry, born Feb. 17, 1786, died April 13, 1844, and Tryphena Warren, born May, 1792, died Feb. 21, 1871, (Roberts' Cemetery, near Falls, Wyoming Co., Pa.); [see will of Henry Warren, (Family No. 1334—De Witt)]; 3, Solomon, born Sept. 8, 1816, died April 6, 1837; 4, Esther, born May 17, 1818, died July 30, 1883, married to ——— De Witt, (Family No. 1334—De Witt); 5, Cyrus, born March 8, 1821, married, Dec. 23, 1841, to Caroline A., daughter of James Brown, of Eaton Township; 6, Miles, Jr., born June 23, 1823, died Oct. 10, 1884, married (1) to Jane Leonard, married (2) to Jane Ann Smith; 7, Humphrey, born July 4, 1825, died Aug. 8, 1858, married to Emma Jane Davison; 8, Elizabeth, born May 15, 1827, died July 24, 1829; 9, Samuel G., born May 3, 1829, living in 1849; 10, Hannah, born Nov. 4, 1832, died Nov., 1832; 11, Courtney, born July 18, 1834, probably died before 1846. The will of Miles Avery of Falls, Wyoming Co., Pa., made Aug. 11, 1846, and probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., March 2, 1849, names his wife, Elizabeth, and their children, Cyrus, to whom he gave the choice of one of his swords; Zipporah (Avery) Warren; Esther (Avery) De Witt; Lydia Ann, married to Horatio Taylor, Miles, Humphrey and Samuel. He gave a soldier's right, which he had bought from Thomas Wall, to his son, Samuel, and named Horatio Taylor executor. The will of Elizabeth (Smith) Avery, widow of Colonel Miles Avery, made April 6, 1849, and probated June 19, 1849, names these same children. She gave to her sons, Humphrey and Samuel, her interest in the estate of her father, Jonathan Smith, and provided a fund of $100, to publish a book she had written. Colonel Miles Avery served for a number of years as Colonel of the Luzerne Co. Militia. (Compiled chiefly from "The Avery's of Groton, Conn.," and Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (Bib.-61 and Bib.-1.)

of Lot No. 37, Second Division, Pittston. His wife, Mrs. Ann (Kirby) Barnum, was born in 1773, and died in 1866. He died May 11, 1844. Five of their children were: 1, Fanny, born about 1796; 2, Major Ephraim Kirby of the United States Army, born 1797, died Dec. 26, 1847; 3, David Strong, lost at sea in 1835; 4, Richard Barnum, M. D.; 5, Augustus Barnum, M. D.

II. (4). Major Richard Barnum, son of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, was married at Columbia, Pa., Dec. 11, 1806, to Nancy Jameson. June 29, 1807, he bought the farm of his brother, David, in Lawsville, Pa., and was living there in 1814. He died in Charleston, S. C. Some of the children of Major Richard and Nancy (Jameson) Barnum were: 1, John Jameson, born about 1808, died Jan. 24, 1826; 2, Zenus, born Dec. 9, 1810, died, in Baltimore, Md., April 5, 1865, President of the Northern Central Railroad Company and of the first Telegraph Company. (Bib.-5 and Bib.-344.)

II. (5). Elijah, son of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, was an early merchant at Tunkhannock, Pa., first, probably as a partner of his brother, Theron, and later as a partner of Isaac Osterhout, (Family No. 50—Osterhout). He was also interested in various land deals with John Harding, of Tunkhannock. He bought in 1812 from John McCord, Lot No. 42, Pittston, on the Lackawanna River, which he sold in 1812 to his brother, Zenus. There was evidently an early mill on this lot (see sketch of Zenus Barnum). He died in Oct., 1812. His will was made in Tunkhannock, Pa., Oct. 23, 1812. He was probably not married. His will names his father and mother, Stephen and Ruth Barnum; his brothers, David, Richard, Stephen and Zenus, and his sisters, Pamela Jenkins, Polly Summers and Mahala Harding.

II. (6). Polly, daughter of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, is named Polly Summers in the will of her brother, Elijah Barnum. They probably lived at Lawsville, Pa. No further reference found in Wyoming Valley records.

II. (7). Zenus, son of Stephen and Ruth Barnum, was born Feb. 18, 1782, and died Dec. 13, 1864, at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He was married (1) to Nancy, daughter of Amos and Elizabeth (Jackson) Fell. He was married (2), June 8, 1815, to Mrs. Elizabeth (Slocum) Jenkins, widow of William, son of Colonel John and Bethiah (Harris) Jenkins (Family No. 988—Jenkins) and daughter of William and Sarah (Sawyer) Slocum. Zenus Barnum was one of the leading business men of Luzerne Co., Pa., and one of the most active operators in the real estate transactions of his day. He owned stores in Tunkhannock, Pittston and Wilkes-Barre and operated a grist mill and a distillery in Pittston Township. This mill evidently stood on Lot 42, First Division, Pittston. This lot adjoining the Lackawanna River was owned by John McCord, of Tunkhannock, in 1804, and was sold by him, July 27, 1808, to Elijah Barnum, the latter having sold it, Oct. 10, 1812, to his brother, Zenus Barnum. Nov. 27, 1812, Isaac Wilson (Family No. 1009—John Phillips) conveyed to Zenus Barnum "The full, free and exclusive privilege of joining a dam to the said Wilson's land and keeping the same in repair, where the dam now stands, and of opening and keeping open, a ditch or raceway, of 16 feet wide, across the land of the said Wilson, where the same is now made, for the conducting of water for the use of the mills which are now built or shall hereafter be built on the lot where the said Barnum now lives." In Nov., 1812, Joseph Scott (Family No. 993—John Scott) of Pittston conveyed to Zenus Barnum "The privilege of building and keeping in repair, a dam across the Lackawanna River, adjoining the land of the said Joseph Scott, in Pittston Township, where the said Zenus Barnum now has a dam." Zenus Barnum sold Lot 42, Nov. 23, 1812, to Thomas and Isaiah Tyson and John Murphy of Pittston, and doubtless removed to Tunkhannock, at about this time. March 6, 1825, he bought Lot 42, at Sheriff's sale, upon his suit against the Tysons and John Murphy. Dec. 1, 1813, he bought from John Phillips and his wife, Mary, for $13,000, 500 acres, parts of a tract called Phillipville, in Pittston, and of one called Johnsylvania, in Exeter. (See Family No. 1009—Phillips.) April 10, 1814, he bought from Peter Babb and his wife, Catharine, a tract of land called "Additional," part of Meadow Lot 25 and part of Lackawanna Island formerly known as "Scovell's Island," which had been patented to John Carey and sold by John and Lucy Carey, Feb. 18, 1814, to Peter Babb. John Carey, Aug. 16, 1790, had bought from Joel Abbott of Hoosick District, Albany Co., N. Y., "a certain tract of land lying and situated on an island known by the name of Lackawanna Great Island in the Susquehanna River, 30 acres more or less, supposed to be one-half of said island. Said land was purchased from a certain Barnard (Barnabas?) Carey of the District of Wyoming." March 13, 1817, Zenus Barnum bought from James and Silence (Bates) Brown (Family No. 1328—Bates and No. 1328—Brown) Lot 43 of the First Division of Pittston and part of Meadow Lot 12, and, March 15, 1817, he bought from them Lots 61 and 62 of the same division. Oct. 17, 1829, he bought from Ishmael and Amanda Bennett, (Family No. 1016—Bennett) 80 acres of Lot 44, First Division, Pittston. July 7, 1815, he bought from John P. and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Arndt. (Family No. 1339—Arndt), two acres adjoining lands of Roger Searle, the Shohola road, and the main road to Tioga, late the estate of Jacob Hart, Esq., (Family No. 993—Searle) which he sold the same year to Eleazer Carey. June 7, 1815, then of Tunkhannock, he bought from Benjamin Hopkins one-half an acre of land adjoining the Wilkes-Barre and Bridge-water Turnpike, which Isaac Slocum sold to Benjamin Hopkins. An interesting sketch of the Zenus Barnum milling enterprises may be found in the reminiscences of William Atherton. Vol. VIII, p. 358, of Johnson's Historical Record, (Wilkes-Barre). Lot 42 in Pittston was sold by Edward Mott of Preston, New London Co., Conn., June 13, 1792, to James Finn of Pittston (Family No. 988—Finn) for £36. It was a 100 acre lot bounded on the west by the Lackawanna River, on the north by lands of Jeremiah Blanchard, who lived on Lot 41 in 1792, on the east by the Back road and on the south by lands of James Brown. With the title to Lot 42 there was also conveyed title to a pine lot, and Edward Mott's interest in all the undivided land in the township. Aug. 27, 1792, Jeremiah Blanchard sold to James Finn for £30 "The privilege of making and keeping open for a race way or ditch across the lot of land I now live on, for the purpose of supplying the mills and other water works that are to be built on the lot that said Finn now lives on, with water from the main channel of the Lackawanna River, the raceway to enter on said lot within four rods of a certain chestnut now standing near the highway in the line between lands of Blanchard and lands of Samuel Slater, Jr., deceased. The ditch to be eight feet wide and as deep as needful and is to be cut in the lowest ground through the swamp and meadow to the line between Blanchard and Finn." May 25, 1794, James Finn sold to Solomon Finn "one equal one-fourth part of my swamill now standing on my Lot 42 and one-fourth my right and title to a mill seat or mill seats, dam or dams, and ditch or raceway, water and water works." May 25, 1795, James Finn sold to Eliphalet Stevens, Jr., of Pittston, all of Lot 42, except 10 acres sold to Solomon Finn, together with one-half my saw mill, one-half my right to a mill seat and all right I have or ever had to dig ditches on Jeremiah Blanchard's land. It appears that the Eliphalet Stevens, Jr., title passed to Solomon Finn, who applied for a warrant for the land, and sold the warrant to John McCord, who, Jan. 21, 1804, obtained a patent under the Solomon Finn application, and, July 27, 1808, sold the patent to Elijah Barnum, who Oct. 10, 1812, sold it to his brother, Zenus Barnum. Elder James Finn evidently developed first the water power at this point as early as 1792-3, and the neighbors living along the Lackawanna River at about that time were Captain Jeremiah Blanchard on Lot 41 in 1792, (owned by Rufus and Phebe (Blanchard) Clark (Family No. 33—Blanchard-Clark) in 1834); Elder James Finn on Lot 42 in 1792; James, Jr., and Silence (Bates) Brown (Family No. 1328—Bates and No. 1328—Brown) on Lot 43, in 1817, which was doubtless the homestead of his father, James Brown, Sr.

In the Wyoming Herald of Feb. 10, 1826, the advertisement of Zenus Barnum reads: "Zenus Barnum will pay cash for rye and corn delivered at his store in Wilkes-Barre or at his mill in Pittston. He has on hand, at both places, a constant supply of first rate whiskey. Grain will be taken in exchange for whiskey or debts due to him. And he would advise those who are in arrears to pay before it is too late. A general assortment of goods as usual. Also iron and salt. N. B. For every 60 pounds of rye or corn, where 10 bushels are delivered at his store or mill, two gallons of good whiskey will be given." The prominence given to good whiskey in this advertisement leads naturally to the statement made by Mr. Atherton in his reminiscences, referred to above, that a number of years before his retirement from active business Mr. Barnum eliminated this feature. Mr. Atherton is seriously in error, however, when he states with reference to Mr. Barnum: "He is said to have brought the first colored person into the valley." He had probably forgotten Gershom Prince and Quocko, victims of the British-Indian invasion of July 1-3, 1778, and perhaps did not know that for a number of years slaves were bred in the Wyoming Valley and that occasionally certain persons appeared in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne Co. and announced the birth of their slave children.

July 17, 1834, Rufus and Phebe (Blanchard) Clark sold to Zenus Barnum two acres of Lot 41 adjoining the McCord lot (referred to above which Elijah Barnum sold to his brother, Zenus) along the Wyoming Division of the Pennsylvania Canal. Aug. 5, 1834, they sold to him one acre of Lot No. 41. Beginning at a corner at the upper end of the "Waste Ware" near and above the stop gates on the Wyoming Division on the Pennsylvania Canal; thence down said feeder to a corner at the intersection of Lots 41 and 42; thence along said line to a corner on the old mill race; thence up the said mill race to the beginning, "together with the privilege of building, repairing, and keeping in repair, a dam across the old mill race, at any point most convenient, for hydraulic power, and of raising the water not exceeding five feet above the bottom of the canal." This later enterprise was doubtless in connection with the mill with which Mr. Atherton was familiar, and probably was made necessary by the construction of the Wyoming Canal about 1833-4.

The children of Zenus and Nancy (Fell) Barnum were: 1, Amos Fell, born Jan. 25, 1812, died July 1, 1877, married to Fanny Sax, born about 1812, died Nov. 18, 1882. He bought the William Church homestead (Family No. 992—Church), May 12, 1865. This was situated in Kingston Township, along one of the branches of Abraham's Creek and had been owned formerly by Elijah Harris. William Sax, a miller for many years at Wyoming, bought it from Amos Fell Barnum. Sept. 30, 1866, he bought from Peter and Catharine (Gardner) Polen (Family No. 989—Polen, No. 988—Gardner) 131 feet frontage on Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, Pa., the present (1919) site of the Wyoming Methodist Episcopal Church, and including the old Charles M. Orr house adjoining the church property on the west. Nov. 7, 1871, he bought from Abram Rinker, guardian for Annie Jenkins (later married to William Baldwin of Wyoming, Pa.), daughter of George W. and Emily (Rinker) Jenkins, the present site of the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Oct. 11, 1871, he bought from W. S. Shoemaker a tract of land lying back of his Wyoming avenue frontage and extending to what is now Monument avenue, Wyoming, Pa. The will of Amos Fell Barnum was made in Binghamton, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1876, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 3, 1877. It names his wife Fanny, his niece Elizabeth (Porter) Doud, daughter of Robert S. and Mercy Fell (Barnum) Porter, and wife of Henry C. Doud, and his two nephews, Richard and William B., sons of John H. and Ruth Strong (Barnum) Sutphin. James D. Green was named executor. Amos Fell and Fanny (Sax) Barnum are buried in the Zenus Barnum plot in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. They had no children; 2, Mercy Fell, born Dec. 25, 1817, married (1), June 23, 1848, to Robert S. Porter, born Jan. 23, 1809, died Aug. 26, 1850, (Barnum plot, Hollenback Cemetery). Their daughter, Elizabeth, was married to Henry C. Doud. Mrs. Mercy Fell (Barnum) Porter was married (2), as second wife, to James, son of Charles and Maria (Scovell) Fuller, (Family No. 1021—Scovell, No. 1021—Fuller), of Waverly, N. Y., in 1868. His first wife, Martha, born 1820, died May 2, 1847, (Hollenback Cemetery), was a daughter of John and Martha (Welch) Sharps of Wyoming, Pa. (Family No. 988—Sharps.)

The children of Zenus and Elizabeth (Slocum) Jenkins-Barnum were: 3, William J., born Feb. 25, 1816, died April 26, 1850, married to Louise Cortright, whose children were: (1), Delphine Elizabeth Verplanck; (2), John G., born Aug. 19, 1842, died April 2, 1848, (Hollenback Cemetery); (3), Willie, born 1847, died Dec. 25, 1854. William J. Barnum is buried in Hollenback Cemetery. His widow, Mrs. Louise (Cortright) Barnum, was married (2), before Dec. 25, 1854, to D. H. Dotterer of Scranton, Pa.; 4, Ruth Strong, married to John H. Sutphin, two of whose children were: (1), Richard; (2), William Barnum, whose wife's name was Fanny; 5, Elizabeth Slocum, born April 22, 1820, not married, died Oct. 21, 1870, (Hollenback Cemetery); 6, Zenus, Jr., born April 29, 1823, died Oct. 31, 1876, (Hollenback Cemetery), married (1), Oct. 26, 1852, by the Rev. W. K. Mott to Maria, daughter of Jeremiah and Sophia Clark. He was initiated a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 19, 1861. Their children were: (1), Fred; (2), William Jeremiah; (3), Marion Clark. He was married (2) to Caroline E., born 1831, died 1898, daughter of Charles and Maria (Scovel) Fuller, (Family No. 1021—Fuller), and their children were: (4), Charles Fuller, born May 15, 1862, died March 9, 1864; (5), Merrit Slocum; (6), Amos F., born 1871, died 1904.

II. (8). Permelia, daughter of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum, was born about 1786, and died July 27, 1851. She was married to Jabez, born June 13, 1784, died Dec. 14, 1861, son of Stephen and Elizabeth (Jacques) Jenkins. (Family No. 988—Jenkins.)

II. (9). Mahala, daughter of Stephen and Ruth (Strong) Barnum,* was born

*James Weed Barnum, born in Danbury, Conn., April 13, 1789, son of 4, Lazarus, born 1739, died 1814, and Sarah Barnum, grandson of 3, Ebenezer, born 1712, and Sarah Barnum, great-grandson of 2, Thomas, born July 9, 1663, died Dec. 17, 1730, and Sarah (Bardsley) Barnum, and great-great-grandson of 1, Thomas Barnum, born 1625, died Dec. 26, 1695, whose second wife about 1792 and was married, Dec. 30, 1810, to John, born Feb. 11, 1709, died April 23, 1832, son of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins-Harding. She died April 4, 1813, leaving one daughter, Mahala, born in 1813, died Nov. 21, 1883, married to A. H. Bolles. Mother and daughter are buried in Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.

ISAAC C. TRIPP; FAMILY NO. (1001)

Isaac C., son of Colonel Ira and Rosanna G. (Shoemaker) Tripp, was born in Providence, now Scranton, Pa., March 29, 1839. He served as Corporal in the Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War. He spent his life on his father's farm at Providence, was not married and died Oct. 11, 1882.

LEANDER SHOEMAKER TRIPP; FAMILIES NOS. 1002—(1001)

Leander S., son of Colonel Ira and Rosanna G. (Shoemaker) Tripp, was born at Providence, now Scranton, Pa., Feb. 27, 1841. He attended the public schools at Providence and the Wyoming Seminary. He entered the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway and was for a number of years a locomotive engineer. He was married, in April, 1864, at Scranton, Pa., to Jennie E., daughter of William and Martha (Clathworthy) Pearce, a native of Honesdale, Wayne Co., Pa. Their children are: Walter, born Feb. 6, 1865, died June 17, 1901, and Kathryn G., born April 21, 1867. Leander S. Tripp died at Scranton, Pa., June 22, 1876.

WALTER TRIPP; FAMILIES NOS. 1003—(1002)

Walter, son of Leander S. and Jennie (Pearce) Tripp, was born in Scranton, Pa., Feb. 6, 1865, and was educated in the public schools of Scranton and at the Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y. He was married to Margaret Williams of Omaha, Neb., and they had one daughter, Rozene. He died at San Diego, Calif., June 17, 1901, and is buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.

KATHRYN G. (TRIPP) BROADBENT; FAMILIES NOS. 1004—(1002)

Kathryn G., daughter of Leander S. and Jennie (Pearce) Tripp, was born in Scranton, Pa., April 21, 1869, and was married, Feb. 8, 1892, to John F., son of Sidney and Catharine (Broadbent) Broadbent.* Their was Sarah Hurd, born 1642, died in June, 1718, was probably a nephew of Sergeant Stephen Barnum. He came to the Wyoming Valley about 1810 and was married, by the Rev. Ard Hoyt, Jan. 5, 1812, to Julia Treadway, born in Brookfield, Conn., April 15, 1787, died in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., July 18, 1861. James Weed Barnum died Aug. 25, 1861. They are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. Mary Ann Barnum, of Kingston Township, was married, Feb. 23, 1836, to Joseph Barnes and Clara R. Barnum was married to John McKeel, Jan. 23, 1848. (In part Bib.-344.)

John Barnum of Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., bought from Joseph Swetland, of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., one-half of Lot No. 4, Second Division of lots in Newport Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

THE BROADBENT FAMILY

Ralph, son of John and Martha (Higginbotham) Broadbent, was born in Saddleworth, Yorkshire, England, in 1793, and, in 1820, was married to Elizabeth, born 1798, died 1879, daughter of Jesse and Mary (Schofield) Jones of Yorkshire. Their children were: Joseph S., of Oldham, England; Ralph H., of Australia; Sophia, married to R. Lees, lived in Scranton, Pa.; Franklin, died in England; Sidney, born April 16, 1828, died in 1900. (see later); Mary (Broadbent) Barlow; Salina (Broadbent) McShane; Louis, died at 18; Elizabeth and Frederick died young; Eliza (Broadbent) Brierly; Catharine (Broadbent) Wrigley, and Caroline, died young.

Sidney, son of Ralph and Martha (Higginbotham) Broadbent, came to New York from Yorkshire, England, in 1848, and returned to England in 1851. In 1854 he again came to America children are: 1, Kathryn R., born Dec. 10, 1891, married (Family No. 1005), March 28, 1913, to John Fordham, son of John Van Pelt and Emma (Fordham) Quackenbush; 2, Ira Tripp, born July 27, 1896; 3, John Franklin, born July 24, 1901.

WILLIAM SWETLAND SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 1005—(986)

William Swetland, son of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker, was born at New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Feb. 19, 1820, and was baptised in the same year by the Rev. John J. Wack, pastor of the Reformed Church at Fort Plain, Montgomery Co., N. Y. He attended the district school, known as the Shoemaker School, and as a young man, found employment in the Shoemaker Hotel and on the farm. Soon after attaining his majority, he bought, July 6, 1841, from his brother, Isaac Countryman Shoemaker, for $1,300, a one-half interest in the Shoemaker Grist Mill and the two acres of land on which it stands. The firm of I. C. and W. S. Shoemaker was then organized and continued the manufacture of flour and other mill products until 1861, when, on April 4, of that year, Isaac C. Shoemaker bought the interest of his brother.

April 1, 1844, William S. Shoemaker bought from James M. and Elizabeth (Shafer) Shoemaker, for $1,350, 104 acres of the Isaac Shoemaker, Jr., farm, and Dec. 1, 1849, he bought from them, for $825, an additional 109 acres of the same farm, which had been assigned, in the partition of the lands of Isaac Shoemaker, Jr., to Mrs. Josephine B. (Shoemaker) Goodwin, wife of John, son of David and Sally (Chapin) Goodwin. John Goodwin sold his life interest in the 109 acres, Aug. 28, 1849, for $500 to William S. Shoemaker. Feb. 16, 1870, he bought from Uriah and Elizabeth (Shales) Swetland, (Family No. 3—Swetland, No. 1216—Shales) the 62 acre tract of the Isaac Shoemaker, Jr., farm which, by order of the Orphans' Court, Alvah C. Phillips and Elizabeth Shoemaker, administrators, had sold to Uriah Swetland for $941. The purchase price was $12,000. This tract had been sold by Uriah Swetland to Russel Cowdry, Aug. 30, 1841, but the title had reverted to Uriah Swetland. After this purchase title to practically the whole of the original Shoemaker farm was again held by members of the family.

Oct. 29, 1852, Henry and Esther Drinker of Covington, Luzerne, now Lackawanna Co., sold to Sanford Grant, Ira Tripp and William S. Shoemaker three pieces of land in Providence Township. Some interesting landmarks are named in this deed: "The Philadelphia and Great Bend Turn-and in 1855 became foreman in the locomotive department of the shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad at Scranton, Pa. He was for fourteen years general superintendent of the Dickson Manufacturing Company of Scranton, a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, a member of Union Lodge, F. and A. M., Scranton, Pa.; Lackawanna Chapter, R. A. M., and of Coeur De Lion Commandery, No. 17, Masonic Knights Templar. He was married, at Paterson, N. J., to Catharine Broadbent, born 1827, died 1900, and their children were: 1, Charles Lewis, 2, William Edward, born 1852, died 1892; Elizabeth (Broadbent) Verney; 4, Martha, born 1859, died 1914; 5, Colonel S., born 1861, died May, 1896; 6, John F.; 7, Victoria. (Bib.-58.)

pike," "The Tavern Lot," "The Scranton Road," "Charles W. Potter's land," "Henry Whaling's land," "The old Tripp road," "The old Tavern lot now (1852) owned by M. E. Collbaugh," "The new Tavern House occupied by Joseph Godfrey," "John Noggle's land," "Joseph Snyder's land" and "The road leading to Carbondale." July 15, 1856, with Isaac Tripp and David Morgan, William S. Shoemaker bought from Anson and Sarah (Mitchell) Atherton, (see Family No. 992—Atherton) 100 acres of Lots 8, 9 and 10 of the Third Division of lots in Kingston. He subsequently sold his interest in this property to David Morgan, Feb. 17, 1860, after he had bought, Feb. 10, 1859, from Henry and Eliza (Goodwin) Anthony, their interest in the estate of John Goodwin, and after Moses B. Goodwin, June 21, 1859, had agreed to sell to him for $3,000, his undivided interest and the dower right of his mother, Sarah (Brown) Goodwin, in the estate of John Goodwin, William S. Shoemaker bought from Moses B. Goodwin, for $12,000, the 169 acre Abraham Goodwin homestead and farm in Exeter Township. The coal underlying Lots 36 and 37 in Kingston and the Goodwin homestead in Exeter, William S. Shoemaker sold, March 22, 1870, without reserve or liability for any damage to the surface, to the Pennsylvania Coal Company for $70,632.50. One-quarter of the coal under 10 acres of the Goodwin tract had been sold Sept. 14, 1831, to David M. Bull of Wysox, Bradford Co., Pa., with the privilege of mining, etc., for $125. Dec. 1, 1869, David M. Bull and his wife, Martha Jane, then of Washington, D. C., sold this right to William S. Shoemaker. This was an early "outcrop" coal bed. Jan. 29, 1870, the heirs of John, son of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins, (Family No. 1313—Perkins-Ferrier) sold to William S. Shoemaker 110 acres of Back Lot 39, (situated between Wyoming avenue and the Susquehanna River) and Meadow Lot No. 1, adjoining it. This tract of land extended from the present Seventh street, in the borough of Wyoming, Pa., to the western line of the present Ninth street, which is described as a four rod road. It adjoined, in the rear, the lots of William Carey, Stephen J. Sharps, Mrs. C. E. Laycock, the Methodist Episcopal Church and parsonage and James D. Green and Alford Brace on Wyoming avenue, above the present Eighth street and included the frontage on Wyoming avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets as far down as the Amos F. Barnum property. The southern boundary of the tract was the Susquehanna River. This tract was laid out in building lots and became the W. S. Shoemaker addition to the borough of Wyoming, Pa. The coal under this tract is included in the lease made by Jacob I. Shoemaker, Trustee, to James N. and Nicholas E. Rice in 1888 and now operated by the Mount Lookout Coal Company. Nov. 20, 1870, he bought the interest of the heirs of Thomas F. Atherton, (see Family No. 992—Atherton) in one-half the coal under 75 acres of the Miller tract in the borough of Wyoming, (see Family No. 988—Miller) for $7,000. They also sold to him a strip of surface about one foot in width from the main road to the river adjoining other lands of William S.

Shoemaker. This strip extended along the western line of Seventh street and was reserved by Thomas F. Atherton, James Jenkins, Isaac C. Shoemaker and John Sharps to protect their rights in what is now Seventh street.

William S. Shoemaker was also interested in various other land speculations and was a prominent figure in the real estate market of his day. He acquired title to many small pieces of land adjoining his other holdings and was also interested in land and coal properties in Scranton and Dunmore, Pa. In 1849 he bought a part of Lot 37, in Exeter, the famous Mount Lookout "farm," from Chester Tuttle, and he also held an option on the Abiel Abbott farm of 100 acres in Kingston, afterwards bought by Isaac Tripp (Family No. 1032) from the heirs of Abiel Abbott. William S. Shoemaker removed to the old house in which his grandfather, Isaac Shoemaker, Sr., lived and died and, on the same site, built the residence now owned by the heirs of the Ira Shoemaker estate.

William S. Shoemaker was the sutler of the 143d Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., one of the most famous Pennsylvania regiments, in the Civil War. He was a Trustee and for a number of years President of the Cemetery Association of Wyoming, Pa. He was also a Trustee of the Wyoming Presbyterian Church, Aug. 14, 1855, when John and Jerusha (Johnsten) Brees sold to Steuben Jenkins, William Henry, William S. Shoemaker and Lewis G. Ensign, Trustees, the lot on which the Presbyterian Church now stands. He was also a member of the building committee under whose supervision the church was erected. He was one of the original stockholders and a manager of the Wyoming Shovel and Edge Tool Manufacturing Company of Wyoming, Pa., and Feb. 20, 1877, he bought from Calvin and Affa C. Detrick a one-third interest in the property of the Wyoming Terra Cotta Company and became a member of the firm of Hutchins, Shoemaker and Co., manufacturers of sewer pipe, fire brick and chimney tops. He was an ardent Republican and served as chairman of the Republican Committee of the Second Legislative (now Sixth) district of Luzerne Co.

William S. Shoemaker was married at Providence, now Scranton, Pa., March 11, 1841, by Elder John Miller, of Abington, Pa., to Maria, born July 23, 1822, died June 8, 1883, daughter of Isaac and Catharine (La France) Tripp, (see Family No. 1001—Tripp). Their children were: 1, Catharine E., born Aug. 1, 1843, died Aug. 27, 1910; 2, Emaret M., born Sept. 18, 1845, died June 15, 1909; 3, William H., born Sept. 25, 1847, died April 12, 1917; 4, Martha, born July 4, 1850, died Jan. 12, 1890; 5, Ira R., born March 7, 1852, died Dec. 18, 1914; 6, Mary Jane, born Jan. 29, 1854, died 1913; 7, Stella, born May 19, 1858, died Feb. 28, 1901. William S. Shoemaker died, very suddenly, at his home, in what is now West Wyoming, Pa., July 17, 1884. He and his wife, who died June 8, 1883, are buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery.

CATHARINE E. (SHOEMAKER) SHARPS; FAMILIES NOS. 1006 (1005)

Catharine E., daughter of William S. and Maria (Tripp) Shoemaker, was born in New Troy, now West Wyoming, Pa., Aug. 1, 1843, and was married, in 1863, to Stephen J., born April 29, 1837, died Sept. 8, 1901, son of William and Sarah Maria (Breese) Sharps, (see Family No. 988—Sharps and Family No. 989—Breese). Stephen J. Sharps was for some time in the employ of William S. Shoemaker, Sutler of the 143d Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, and later was a farmer, merchant, and dealer in real estate. The home of Stephen J. and Catharine (Shoemaker) Sharps in Wyoming, Pa., is the present residence of Mrs. Samuel R. Shoemaker on Wyoming avenue, who bought the property Dec. 30, 1889. Stephen J. Sharps died Sept. 8, 1901. His wife, Mrs. Catharine (Shoemaker) Sharps, died Aug. 27, 1910. They are buried in Dunmore Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa. Their children are: 1, Maria, born Feb. 8, 1865; 2, William Shoemaker, born Jan. 8, 1868, died Feb. 15, 1877; 3, George O., born June 18, 1870.

MARIA S. (SHARPS) JACKSON; FAMILIES NOS. 1007—(1006)

Maria S., daughter of Stephen and Catharine (Shoemaker) Sharps, was born at Wyoming, Pa., Feb. 8, 1865, and was baptised June 15, 1867, by the Rev. Albert B. King. She was married, June 25, 1891, to Arthur, son of Angelo and Elizabeth (Whitney) Jackson.* Their home is at Glen-

*THE JACKSON FAMILY

Captain Angelo Jackson, who was graduated by Yale College in 1847, was admitted to practice at the Luzerne Co., Pa., bar in April, 1850, and, for a number of years was a law partner of Charles Dennison, Esq. He enlisted, Oct. 10, 1861, as First Lieutenant of Company I, 58th Regiment, Pa., Vol. Inf., and June 5, 1863, was promoted to Captain. He was mustered out of service with his regiment Sept. 5, 1865. He later was in the government service in the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C., and died in that city in 1874. He was married (1) to Elizabeth, daughter of Dr. Asa Clark and Susan (Inman) Whitney, (see later), and two of their sons were: Ernest V. Jackson, Esq., born Aug. 6, 1848, married, Oct. 2, 1878, to Mary E., daughter of G. Bryan Nicholson, Esq., and his wife, Mary A. (Stone) Nicholson, of Wilkes-Barre, and Arthur, who was married to Maria S. Sharps.

THE WHITNEY FAMILY

I. Elisha Whitney, born in 1747, at Spencer, Mass., was married, in 1782, to Esther, daughter of Asa Clark, born in the same town in 1763. He was a soldier in the American Revolution and served in Colonel Jonathan Warne's Regiment on the Lexington Alarm, April 19, 1775, and also in Captain Joel Green's Company under Colonel Ebenezer Learned. (Bib.-107.)

Elisha and Esther (Clark) Whitney removed from Spencer to Stockbridge, Mass., and in 1810 (?) came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa. In 1816, they settled finally at Wysox, now Bradford Co., Pa. He died there July 4, 1832. His wife died Feb. 1, 1851. Their children were: 1, Rebecca, born 1780, died Dec. 18, 1818, not married, buried in Forty Fort Cemetery, Forty Fort, Pa.; 2, Dr. Asa Clark, born May 5, 1785, died Dec. 10, 1824, (see later); 3, Elizabeth, born Dec. 18, 1786, died Sept. 23, 1840, married to Joseph M. Piolett, born Bonneville, France, Aug. 5, 1773, who fought under Napoleon and was wounded at Austerlitz. He came to America in 1806 and in 1808 settled at Wysox, now, Bradford Co., Pa. Their children were: (1), Victor Emile, born June 24, 1812, died Aug. 27, 1890, married to Jane S., born May 17, 1825, died March 3, 1879, daughter of Jesse Miller of Harrisburg, Pa.; (2), Joseph E., born Aug. 30, 1819, died July 19, 1891, married to Esther A., born June 10, 1824, died Aug. 12, 1894, daughter of John Cox of Harrisburg, Pa.; (3), Frances Theresa, born 1815, died May 22, 1892, married to Alexander Dewing; (4), Emily Victorine, married to Thomas T. Wierman, an eminent civil engineer of Harrisburg and Philadelphia; (5), Elizabeth Josephine, born 1823, died March 19, 1845, married to D. C. Salsbury; 4, Sally, died Dec. 3, 1812, not married; 5, Elliott, born 1791, died March 12, 1836, married in 1817, to Maria Goodwin (Family No. 1230—Goodwin), whose children were: (1), Dr. Marshall G., born 1818, died 1910, married to Louise Thorpe, born Dec., 1828, died July 28, 1872, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); (2), Elizabeth, married to Dr. David L. Scott; (3), Charlotte, married to Rev. Abner Brush; (4), Elliott, married to Celinda Stevens; (5), Isaac N., married to Mary Worden; (6), Brunette, married to James B. McDonald; 6, Alvin, born Dec. 31, 1793, burn, Lackawanna Co., Pa., and their children are: 1, Stephen Sharps, born July 5, 1891; 2, Catharine E., born Sept. 22, 1895; 3, Eugenia S., born Dec. 19, 1897; 4, Elizabeth, born Aug. 6, 1900.

died Nov. 5, 1872, married (1), Feb. 11, 1819, to Mary Woodburn, married (2), March 10, 1850, to Nancy Woodburn; 7, Ebenezer, born Dec. 15, 1795, died April 16, 1838, married, Nov. 25, 1818, to Betsey Woodburn; 8, Dr. Elisha, born July 25, 1797, died Jan. 10, 1847, married to Sally, daughter of Humphrey and Hannah (Dodge) Brown; 9, Esther, born Dec. 23, 1799, married to Moses, son of Naphtali Woodburn; 10, Alanson, born July 1, 1801, married to Laura Towner. (Bib.-31.)

II. 2. Dr. Asa Clark Whitney, son of Elisha and Esther (Clark) Whitney, was born in Stockbridge, Mass., May 5, 1785, and, evidently, before 1809, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa. He was married (1), by the Rev. Ard Hoyt, Feb. 21, 1809. Dec. 11, 1810, he was commissioned, by Governor Simon Snyder, of Pennsylvania, Justice of the Peace for District No. 7, consisting of the Townships of Wysox and Burlington and including Towanda. This commission was issued at Lancaster, Pa. He settled in Forty Fort, Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., a little later, and became one of the most skillful of the early physicians of the Wyoming Valley. In 1820 he was elected Register and Recorder for Luzerne Co. He died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 10, 1824. The first wife of Dr. Asa C. Whitney, to whom he was married Feb. 21, 1809, by the Rev. Ard Hoyt, was Betsey, born 1778, died April 20, 1820, daughter of Colonel George Dorrance (see later), and their children were: 1, Mary Ann; 2, Benjamin Dorrance; 3, Nancy; 4, Charlotte, who were baptised by the Rev. Ard Hoyt, May 17, 1818. He was married (2) to Susan, daughter of Colonel Edward and Jerusha (Dilley) Inman. (Inman and Dilley families later), and their children were: 5, Elizabeth, married to Captain Angelo Jackson, and 6, Jerusha. Dr. Asa Clark Whitney and his first wife, Elizabeth (Betsey Dorrance) Whitney are buried in the John Dorrance plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

THE DORRANCE FAMILY

I. The Rev. Samuel Dorrance, of Voluntown, Conn., who was ordained Dec. 23, 1723, and who died, at Voluntown, Nov. 12, 1775, had five or six sons and one daughter. They were (order of birth uncertain): 1, Lemuel, (see later); 2, James, whose daughter, Rachel, was married, at Brooklyn, Windham Co., Conn., Oct. 15, 1794, to Peter Pike (see Family No. 1216—Phillips-Pike); 3, John, (see later); 4, Samuel, Jr. A Samuel Dorrance was married at Voluntown, Conn., about 1741, to Nancy Alexander, and a Samuel Dorrance was married there in Oct., 1748, to Margaret Trumbull; 5, Lieutenant Colonel George, (see later); perhaps 6, Gershom, who in 1759 was appointed Surgeon's Mate in the Regiment of Colonel David Wooster, Connecticut troops, French-Indian War. (Bib-339); 7, Susanna, married, at Voluntown, Conn., in 1759, to Robert Dixon.

II. (1). Lemuel, son of the Rev. Samuel Dorrance, was one of the settlers at Wyoming, June 2, 1769, but apparently returned to his home in Voluntown, Conn. In 1780 he was living there, but in 1797 he was residing in Sterling, Windham Co., Conn., where he died before Dec. 12, 1812. He owned about 1000 acres of land in Northmoreland Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Six hundred acres of his holdings had been drawn on two half rights, owned by Thomas Matteson and the Rev. Samuel Dorrance. He had purchased these rights and, Jan. 10, 1780, for a consideration of £10, he sold the land to John Dorrance, who is described in the deed as "late of the Susquehanna Purchase, now residing in Voluntown." Nov. 9, 1799, John Dorrance, for a consideration of $300, again sold the land to Lemuel Dorrance. Dec. 19, 1804, Lemuel Dorrance of Sterling, Conn., bought from Benjamin Dorrance Lot No. 2 in the Fourth Division and Lot No. 2 in the Fifth Division of Northmoreland, each lot containing 150 acres. The consideration was $100. In the partition of the estate of Lemuel Dorrance, Dec. 12, 1812, a portion, at least, of his Northmoreland lands was "distributed" to his son, Samuel Dorrance. To confirm the title and "to prevent any dispute that may arise with regard to the distribution of the estate of my honored father, Lemuel Dorrance, late of Sterling, Conn.," the other heirs executed a deed, Oct. 26, 1815, to Samuel Dorrance for "four several lots in Northmoreland." This land is described as the land on which Samuel Dorrance then (1815) lived. The deed was signed by James B. Dorrance of Providence. Lemuel Dorrance, Sarah Susannah Dorrance, Henry B. Dorrance, Mary Dorrance and Charlotte Woodworth of Sterling, Conn., and by Amos Branch and Harriet, his wife, of Plainfield, Conn. April 13, 1841, Lemuel S. Dorrance and Mahala (Fuller) Dorrance, who were married, March 20, 1834, (see Family No. 1010—Fuller), then residing in Stark Co., Ill., sold to James Pike of Northmoreland, for $1,000, Lots 1 and 2 in the Fourth Tier of Northmoreland. Lemuel S. Dorrance of Stark Co., Ill., was doubtless a son of Samuel and a grandson of Lemuel. On the same burial plot in Forty Fort Cemetery that is the last resting place of John, son of Rev. Samuel Dorrance, there are the graves of Samuel Dorrance, who died June 2, 1818, in his 30th year, and Benjamin, son of Samuel and Susan Dorrance, who died Nov. 24, 1822, aged 5 years, 7 months, 20 days. In the records of the Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre it is written that Samuel Dorrance, an adult, of Kingston, and his three children, Samuel Smith (probably Lemuel S.), Martha Priscilla and Benjamin, were baptised by the Rev. Ard Hoyt, May 17, 1818, two weeks before the death of Samuel Dorrance.

II. (3). John, son of Rev. Samuel Dorrance, was born in 1733 and died July 9, 1804. He was one of the original proprietors of the Susquehanna Company and his name, with those of Samuel Dorrance and Gershom Dorrance of Connecticut, and Michael, George and Samuel Dorrance of Rhode Island, appears on the Indian deed of July 11, 1754, by which title to the Wyoming lands was conveyed to the Susquehanna Company of Hartford. (Bib.-1.) He was one of the original settlers who were at Wyoming in 1762 and was here with his brother, Lemuel, in 1769. His name also appears in the various tax lists up to and including the list for 1798. (Bib.-1.) He was living in Voluntown, Conn., Jan. 17, 1780, but later returned to the Wyoming Valley, Pa. He was appointed administrator of the estate of Lieutenant Colonel George Dorrance, his brother. He signed a petition which was presented, June 3, 1788, to the Court of Quarter Sessions, praying that the roads of the township might be established by law and that supervisors should be appointed to lay open, clear and repair the same. He was named with Benjamin Car-

GEORGE O. SHARPS; FAMILIES NOS. 1008—(1006)

George O., son of Stephen, Jr., and Catharine E. (Shoemaker) Sharps, was born at Wyoming, Pa., June 18, 1870, and was baptised by the Rev. Albert B. King., March 18, 1871. He was educated in the public schools

penter, James Sutton, Abel Pierce and Lawrence Myers, to serve on a commission appointed by the Court and in 1788 and 1789 was appointed supervisor. He was assessed in Kingston Township in 1792 and 1796. April 7, 1799, the same day he deeded lands to his brother, Lemuel Dorrance (see above) he sold to Benjamin Dorrance, his nephew, for $3,000, all his lands in Luzerne Co., Pa. His holdings included several lots. He lived in 1799 on Meadow Lot No. 25, which contained 45 acres and which Nathan Dennison had sold to Timothy Peirce, July 15, 1772, and Timothy Peirce had sold to him Sept. 15, 1772. Benjamin Follett and John Murphy witnessed the signing of the deed, Dennison to Peirce. Another lot was Back Lot No. 12, Third Division, 80 acres, extending northwest from what is now Wyoming avenue. Lots 14 and 15 and an unnumbered half lot in the Fourth Division are described in the deed as situated on "Carpenter's Mill Creek." He also owned a lot lying in the southeast corner of Northmoreland Township, adjoining the Susquehanna River and formerly occupied by Samuel Hadley. He died July 9, 1804, and is buried in the Forty Fort Cemetery. His grave is marked by a fine headstone which promises to withstand the wear of at least another century. The inscription reads: "Here lies the body of John Dorrance, died July 9, 1804, aed. 71 years." "As you are now—so once was I—As I am now—So must you be—Prepare for death and follow me." By the side of his grave is that of Elizabeth Fish, the widow of his brother, Lieutenant Colonel George Dorrance, whose stone has the inscription: "In memory of Elizabeth Fish, who departed this life Sept. 17, 1812, aged 67 years." She was probably married (2) to Asahel Fish, in 1790, a proprietor and in 1792 assessed in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

II. (5). Lieutenant Colonel George Dorrance, son of the Rev. Samuel Dorrance, of Voluntown, Conn., was born March 4, 1736. He probably came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1775, his name appearing on the tax lists for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He held title to House Lot No. 3, First Division; Meadow Lot No. 24, Second Division; Back Lot No. 33, Third Division, and Lot No. 22, Fourth Division, all in Kingston, and to Lot No. 22, Second Division; Wood Lot No. 1, Fourth Division, and two-thirds of Lot 43, Third Division, all in Plymouth. He was seriously wounded in the battle of Wyoming, was taken prisoner and was killed by his captors July 4, 1778, the day following the battle of Wyoming. He was a private in Captain Hall's Company, Major Backus' Regiment, of Light Horse Conn. troops, with his brothers, Lemuel and James in 1776, but in Oct., 1775, he was commissioned, by the Connecticut Assembly, Lieutenant in the Second Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, at Wyoming. He was promoted Major of that regiment in May, 1777, and Lieutenant Colonel in Oct., 1777. He commanded the American left wing, under Colonel Nathan Denison in the battle of Wyoming. A certain George Dorrance of Voluntown, Conn., was married, at Voluntown, Jan. 25, 1758, to Mary Wilson. (Bib.—113.) But the writer can not state positively that this was the first marriage of Colonel George Dorrance. He was doubtless married twice. His second wife, who survived him, was married (2) to (Asahel?) Fish. In Forty Fort Cemetery, beside the John Dorrance stone there stands another stone inscribed, "Elizabeth Fish, died Sept. 17, 1812, aed. 67 years." This was undoubtedly the widow of Colonel George Dorrance.

July 7, 1792, Elizabeth Fish, late widow and relict of George Dorrance, presented a petition to the Orphans' Court, Wilkes-Barre, praying that she be allowed £71, 14s, 4d, for clothing and boarding Betsey Dorrance for 6 years, 11 months and 18 days, from July 3, 1778, and £26, 3s, 6d for boarding and clothing Abel Dorrance 2 years, 6 months and 6 days from the same date. Sept. 1, 1792, John Griest, assignee of Samuel and Susannah Tubbs, and Elisha Drake, assignee of Benjamin Dorrance, petitioned the Orphans' Court, praying for a partition of the George Dorrance estate. This petition recites that George Dorrance died leaving a widow, Elizabeth, and seven children, namely: (1), Elizabeth; (2), Susannah; (3), Benjamin; (4), Gershom; (5), Abel; (6), Polly; (7), Betsey. Of these children of Colonel George Dorrance, (1), Elizabeth was married, at Voluntown, Conn., March 31, 1785, to Benadam Gallup, (Family No. 1324—Gallup), and Feb. 3, 1794, while a resident of Voluntown, sold her interest in her father's estate to her brother, Benjamin Dorrance; (2), Susannah was married to Samuel Tubbs and sold her interest to John Griest; (3), Benjamin, born in 1765, died Aug. 24, 1837, was married, Nov. 25, 1795, to Nancy Ann, born 1767, died Feb. 2, 1834, daughter of Jedediah and Martha (Clark) Buckingham. He resided at Newton Point, then Montgomery Co., N. Y., March 3, 1791, when he sold to Gideon Church all his interest in his father's estate. Later he bought the shares of Gershom, Polly and Elizabeth (Betsey), which, March 20, 1794, he sold to Oliver Pettebone. Colonel Benjamin Dorrance returned to the Wyoming Valley, was elected Sheriff in 1801 and served several terms in the Legislature. He was the first President of the Wyoming Bank of Wilkes-Barre and a Colonel in the State Militia; (4), Gershom sold his interest in his father's estate, prior to March 20, 1794, to his brother, Benjamin, who sold it to Oliver Pettebone; (5), Abel was assigned part of Meadow Lot No. 21 (20?) as his share of his father's estate. Sept. 7, 1792; (6), Mary (Polly) sold her interest in her father's estate to her brother, Benjamin, who sold it to Oliver Pettebone. She was married to Stephen Buckingham, and their daughter, Mary, was married to Samuel, son of James and Sarah (Smith) Sutton, (Family No. 43—Sutton); 7, Betsey, born 1778, died April 20, 1820, was married, by the Rev. Ard Hoyt, Feb. 21, 1809, to Dr. Asa Clark Whitney. (See above.)

†I. Francis Phillips, who doubtless came to the Wyoming Valley from Vermont, was an early settler of Pittston Township, and his name appears on the tax lists for Pittstown District in 1777 and 1778. After the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, he went to Dutchess Co., N. Y., and March 13, 1781, describing himself as a "yeoman of the town and county of Westmoreland in Connecticut, now residing in Dutchess Co., N. Y.," he conveyed to John Phillips for a consideration of £16 lawful money of New York, equal to wheat at six shillings a bushel, part of Lot 23,

3, Henry M., born March 5, 1847, married (1) to Elizabeth Lemon, had one daughter, Bertha; married (2), May 7, 1884, by Rev. Y. C. Smith, to Edna Ophelia, daughter of James B. and Mary (Shaw) Drake, living (1917) at West Wyoming, Pa.

VI. (3). Garrett, Jr., son of Garrett and Mary (Rowley) Durland, was born April 2, 1794, and died Aug. 26, 1863. He was married, May 27, 1815, to Rosella, daughter of James and Esther (Martin) Eaton. She was born April 22, 1798, and situated on the Lackawanna River in Pittstown, a part of which he had sold to Samuel Slater. Eleazer and Richard West of Dutchess Co., N. Y., witnessed the signing of the deed and it was acknowledged before Joseph Carpenter, Justice of the Peace for that county. He was of Pittston, Pa., Aug. 25, 1788, when John Phillips, for a consideration of love and free gratitude, conveyed to his honored father "the land on the east side of the Lackawanna River which I obtained by deed from the said Francis Phillips." Sept. 11, 1788, he sold lands to Daniel Scott, and Sept. 15, 1788, he conveyed title to Seth Carey and Daniel Scott for "the whole of my land contained or included within my survey which I had under the State of Connecticut, and easterly of lands I have heretofore sold to James Lewis, William Watt and Seth Carey and Daniel Scott." Francis Phillips was probably deceased in 1790. The Federal Census of that year names a Hannah Phillips, who was probably his widow, and who had in family herself, and two females.

II. John, son of Francis Phillips, was born in Jan., 1752, doubtless in Vermont, and is said, by Kulp, to have been in the Fort at Pittston, early in July, 1778. He apparently returned to Vermont after the battle of Wyoming and enlisted and served in the Vermont Continental Line in the American Revolution. When 82 years of age he was receiving a pension from the Federal Government for that service. (Bib.-11.) He returned to Pittston and became one of the most extensive owners of real estate in Pittston and Exeter Townships. Oct. 9, 1787, he bought from Samuel Slater of Sheffield, Berkshire Co., Mass., whose name, with that of his son Samuel Slater, Jr., appears on the tax lists for Pittston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778, (1), Meadow Lot 24, and equal half of Meadow Lot No. 16, southern half of Meadow Lot 21, undivided land on the right which originated from David Picksley, also the 14th Meadow lot from Picksley and the 17th Meadow lot; (2), 100 acre Lot No. 55, Pine Lot No. 8, Fort Lot No. 24, and the undivided lands belonging to the right originally owned by Martin Nelson; (3), Meadow Lot 24, and equal half of Meadow Lot No. 16, southern half of Meadow Lot 21, together with what Samuel Slater bought of Francis Phillips, in the 23d Meadow lot. Nov. 20, 1799, he bought from Richard Halstead, Jr., for $800, Meadow Lots Nos. 18, 19, and 20 in Pittston and 200 acres of land in Exeter. Oct. 16, 1797, he bought from William Tripp 300 acres in Exeter, which John Tripp, his son-in-law, had sold to his brother, William Tripp, Nov. 10, 1794. (See Family No. 1001—Tripp.) The name of John Phillips appears as Warrantee on a tract of 1,255 acres in Old Exeter Township, lying along the Susquehanna River, a short distance above Scovell's Island and now included in Ransom Township. Dec. 1, 1813, with his wife, Mary, he signed a deed conveying title to Zenus Barnum, (see Family No. 1001—Barnum) of part of one tract of land called "Phillipsville" in Pittston and part of another called "Johnsylvania" in Exeter. These tracts adjoined and contained 500 acres. The consideration named in the deed is $13,350.75. This property became the Zenus Barnum homestead and there is an interesting sketch of it in Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. VIII, p. 358. Some of the landmarks named in this deed are: "Bank of Susquehanna River," "bank of Falling Spring brook," "Peter Babb's corner," "bank of Lackawanna Creek." Jan. 10, 1806, he had deeded to his son, Comer Phillips, for a consideration of love and good will, 50 acres of Meadow Lot No. 21 in Pittston, (part of the tract called Phillipsville), and 400 acres in Exeter of the tract called Johnsylvania. The latter is described as lying near the end of the "Tamarack Swamp," and adjoined lands he had previously deeded to his son, Hosea Phillips. To John Phillips doubtless belongs the distinction of having deeded more different farms to more different grandchildren than any other man in the history of Luzerne Co.

In 1790 John Phillips lived in Pittston and had in family, living at home, two sons under 16 years of age, his wife and two daughters. He served Pittston Township as supervisor and overseer of the poor in 1788 and 1789, was a member of the committee of the Proprietors for the sale of lands, March 28, 1790, and was also, for many years, a Justice of the Peace. He served with Zebulon Butler, Nathaniel Landon, Jonah Rogers and Simon Spalding on a commission to purchase a site for a Court House. He removed to Abington Township previous to 1817, where he remained the rest of his life. For a long term of years he was a Deacon of the Abington Baptist Church. He was married (1) to Mary Chamberlain, who was living in 1813. He was married (2), Nov. 17, 1816, by Elder John Miller to Mrs. Lydia (Tripp) Harding, daughter of Job Tripp, (see Family No. 1001—Tripp) and widow of ——— Harding, (see Family No. 992—Harding), who removed to Orange Co., N. Y., from Pittston about 1793-4. At the time of her marriage to John Phillips Mrs. Lydia (Tripp) Harding was of Deer Park, N. Y. She was born Sept. 6, 1762, and died Dec. 4, 1840. (Bib.-89.) He was married (3), Oct. 27, 1842, by Elder John Miller, to Mrs. Bathsheba Green of Newton, Pa. In recording this marriage Elder John Miller noted that the groom was in his 91st year and the bride in her 67th. The will of John Phillips was made at Abington, Pa., March 14, 1845, and was probated Sept. 14, 1846. His son, Hosea Phillips, was named executor of the will. Some of the children of Deacon John and Mary (Chamberlain) Phillips were: 1, Martha, born Oct. 21, 1771, married, Dec. 16, 1789, to John, son of Job Tripp, (see Family No. 1001—Tripp); 2, Susannah, born Aug. 7, 1773, died Aug. 10, 1849, married to Samuel Miller,* born 1767, died April 9, 1839, and their children were: (1), Amos,

*Samuel Miller and William Miller were owners of extensive tracts of land, at an early date, in Pittston District. The name of Samuel Miller appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Pittston District in 1777 and 1778. This was doubtless the Samuel Miller, born about 1728, who died in Pittston, Dec. 3, 1807, aed. 80 years. He was probably the father of Samuel, born about 1767, and perhaps of Lucinda or Selinda Miller, who was married (1) to Constant Searl, Jr., and (2) to Mr. Cherrytree, (see Family No. 993—Searl). William Miller was probably a brother of Samuel and was doubtless the William Miller, born about 1740, died Sept. 23, 1820, aed. 80 years, who, with his wife, Jane, born about 1763, died May 1, 1835, aed. 70 years, is buried in City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. The names of Samuel and William Miller may be found elsewhere, in connection with land sales, in this work.

died June 3, 1876. They removed from Orange Co., N. Y., to the Wyoming Valley, and settled in Lake Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Their children were: 1, James E., born March 14, 1816, died 1891, (see later); 2, Esther J., born Aug. 16, 1817, married to John D. Post; 3, Almira A., born Aug. 3, 1819; 4, Polly M., born March 6, 1821, married to Henry Goble; 5, Harriet A., born July 25, 1823; 6, Dorinda C., born Sept. 11, 1825, died Oct. 1, 1902, married to Elder Stephen A. Edwards, born Aug. 9, 1824, died Aug. 20, 1911, buried Lehman, Pa., Cemetery; 7, William S., born July born Nov. 23, 1789, died in infancy; (2), Caleb, born June 25, 1791, married to Achy Daniels, born Dec. 22, 1792; (3), Stephen, born Feb. 9, 1793, died April 24, 1862, married, March 3, 1811, to Mary Goodrich, born April 20, 1786, died April 2, 1869; (4), Lois, born March 8, 1795, married to Silas Purdy; (5), Ruth, born March 26, 1797, married to Lant Aton; (6), Rufus, born Aug. 20, 1802, died July 16, 1846, married (1) to Betsey, born Aug. 28, 1805, died June 21, 1825, daughter of Benjamin C., born Feb. 27, 1769, died Feb. 5, 1847, and Sarah McKnight, born Jan. 30, 1771, died Sept. 20, 1847, married (2) to Cynthia Howard, born May 31, 1805, died April 6, 1854; (7), Amanda, born Sept. 12, 1800, married to Joseph Parker; (8), Lovisa, born Sept. 16, 1804, married to Stephen B. Gautier; (9), Lewis, born Aug. 29, 1806, married, Nov. 8, 1829, to Adeliann, daughter of Deodat Smith; (10), Melissa, born March 5, 1808, married to Henry Swartz; (11), John P., born Sept. 6, 1810, married to Elizabeth Wilcox; (12), Martin, married to Esther Potter; (13), Azubah, born April 24, 1814, married to Elias Swartz, (the Samuel Miller Family); 3, Sarah, born July 29, 1775, married, Feb. 7, 1794, to Isaac, born Aug. 2, 1768, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Rickey) Wilson, (Bib.-53) whose children were: Amzi; Betty; Polly; John; Electa, born March 17, 1803, died Oct. 13, 1866, married to John Knapp, born March 1, 1797, died June 16, 1885, (see Family No. 988—Knapp); Merritt; Isaac Phillips; Sally Aurora; Tommy, and Melvina Miller; 4, Mary, born May 4, 1778, married to Isaac, son of Captain Dethick and Elizabeth (Searles) Hewitt. He was deceased in 1808. John Phillips and Mary Hewitt, his widow, were appointed administrators of his estate, with James Wheeler and Jonathan Bulkeley as sureties in $1,000. He left six children, living at the time of his death, and one born after he died. April 13, 1811, his administrators sold to William Searles a lot of land lying along the road leading from the ferry to where Miller's Mill formerly stood and one acre of land bounded on the west by the highway leading "from Benedict's tavern to Wright's forge, on which is a log house and is lot on which Mary Hewitt lives;" 5, Hosea, born May 2, 1781, married by William Ross, Esq., Oct. 28, 1799, to Lavina, daughter of Dr. Joseph Davis, whose children were: Sarah, Francis, Mary, Betsey, Hosea, Jr., Lavinna, Fanna, Susannah and Louisa; 6, Comer, born Nov. 24, 1783, died Jan. 19, 1847. Lavinna Phillips was married, May 21, 1835, to David Montross of Northmoreland. Hosea Phillips lived in the vicinity where the Coxton Yards of the Lehigh Valley Railroad are now located.

III. (6). Comer, son of John and Mary (Chamberlain) Phillips, was born Dec. 24, 1783, and was married, Feb. 5, 1801, to Hannah, born Jan. 6, 1779, died March 27, 1853, daughter of Ebenezer Mott, born Aug. 15, 1735, died March 23, 1830. In addition to the real estate holdings of Comer Phillips, referred to above, he also owned large tracts of land, adjoining the Providence line, in Lackawanna Township. After deeding several hundred acres of this latter property to his son, Comer, Jr., and Edward Lee Phillips, he sold 518 acres of it Aug. 20, 1846, to William Swetland for $17,000. Aug. 20, 1846, he bought from William Swetland for $13,000, 276 acres of land in Kingston Township. This purchase included 23 acres of Lots 34 and 35 in the Third Division, lying along Abraham's Creek at the northerly extremity of the lots; Lot 17 of the Fourth Division, 169 acres; a lot of land lying between Lots 16 and 17 in the Fourth Division; and three acres the most southerly portion of Lot 18 of the Fourth Division, (see Abraham's Creek Industries, Family No. 946). In 1846 there were two grist mills, one distillery, a blacksmith shop, a saw mill and three dwelling houses on this property. One of the dwelling houses was a log structure which stood near the grist mill long known as the "White" Mill. In his will, which was made Jan. 18, 1847, and probated Jan. 26, 1847, Comer Phillips of Lackawanna Township divided this Kingston Township property between his sons, Milton G. and Isaac H., his daughters Caroline Dailey and Hannah Celestia Jones and the heirs of his daughter, Mrs. Polly (Phillips) Taylor-Felts. He left his rifle to his grandson, Preserved Taylor. Comer Phillips was for many years a Justice of the Peace in Lackawanna Township. He died in his 64th year, Jan. 19, 1847, (Taylorville, Pa., Cemetery). The children of Comer and Hannah (Mott) Phillips were: 1, Mary Elizabeth, born Feb. 9, 1802, died Feb. 6, 1842, married (1) to Preserved Z., son of John and Sarah (Benedict) Taylor, (Family No. 1328—Taylor). They had a son, Preserved, Jr., born about 1821, who died in the Civil War, a private in the 61st Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf. He was married to Mary Ann Jones, (Family No. 1328—Taylor). Mrs. Mary Elizabeth (Phillips) Taylor was married (2) to John Felts. Mrs. Mary (Jones) Taylor and her son, Gilbert Taylor, bought the Josephine (Shoemaker) Goodwin property, (Family No. 1229) on what is now Shoemaker avenue, West Wyoming, Pa., which they later sold to Samuel R. Shoemaker (Family No. 992); 2, John (1), born Jan. 9, 1804, died Jan. 12, 1816; 3, Comer, Jr., born Dec. 11, 1805; 4, Washington, born Nov. 6, 1807; 5, Edward Lee, born Sept. 24, 1809, died Sept. 30, 1880, married (1) to Minerva Hitchcock, married (2) to Hannah, born 1805, died Oct. 22, 1892, daughter of John and Phebe Vanderburgh. (The children of John and Phebe Vanderburgh living in 1843 were: (1), Tabitha, married to John Shiffer, (Family No. 990—Shiffer); (2), Samuel, born 1813, died Aug. 3, 1880, married to Hannah ———, born 1813, died Oct. 31, 1881; (3), Hannah, born 1805, died Oct. 22, 1892, married to Edward Lee Phillips; (4), Jude; (5), Phebe Ann, married to Milton G. Phillips; (6), John; (7), James, married to Mary Kern, (Family No. 1216); (8), Betsey Bowland. Phebe, widow of John Vanderburgh, was living in 1843; 6, Isaac H., born Aug. 29, 1811, died April 30, 1873, married, Nov. 4, 1832, to Rachel, born Sept. 9, 1814, died April 14, 1887, daughter of James Ward, Providence Township, (Carverton Cemetery). James Ward was deceased in 1839. The name of the wife of his son, Daniel, was Rebecca and his daughter, Catharine, was married to John Atherton, Jr. The children of Isaac H. and Rachel (Ward) Phillips were: (i), Phebe Ann, born June 20, 1834, died Oct. 29, 1911, married to Madison Shafer, both of whom lived, for many years, and died in Wyoming, Pa. Their son, Morris, was married to Martha Townsend of Wyoming, Pa.; (ii), Arabella, born May 20, 1836, died Dec. 29, 1890, married (1), Sept. 10, 1854, to William Turner, married (2) to a Mr. Goodrich; (iii), Theodore Augustus, born June 3, 1838, died Nov. 14, 1839; (iv), William Henry, born Jan. 10, 1841, married to Rhoda Williams; (v), Helen A., born May 18, 1843, died April 10, 1913, married to 21, 1827 died March 19, 1864, married to Elizabeth, probably daughter of Abraham, born Nov. 15, 1762, died June 30, 1842, and Hannah Holmes, born Oct. 19, 1790, died Nov. 20, 1870, buried in Roberts Cemetery, near Falls, Pa.; 8, Thomas, Jr., born March 25, 1830; 9, Andrew J., born Sept. 14, 1832; 10, Rosella A., born March 12, 1834, married to Levi Hawley; 11, Garrett B., born May 11, 1836, married to Rezia Congleton; 12, Ira, born June 11, 1840, died Nov. 17, 1911, married to Lucinda H. Allen; 13, Charles, born April 21, 1838, died Aug., 1912, married to Sarah Ferguson, born Feb. 18, 1840, died July 17, 1885; 14, Frances M., born Dec. 19, 1842, living 1917, married to Rev. Josiah R. Wagner.

VII. (1). James E., son of Garrett and Rosella (Eaton) Durland, was born March 14, 1816, and died in 1891. He was married to Adeline, born 1820, died 1862, daughter of Samuel Gail and Margaret (De Witte) Smith.* Their home was in Northmoreland Township, now Wyoming, Pa., and they are buried in the Centermoreland Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Alvah E., born June 25, 1840, died Aug. 27, 1851; 2, Denton DeWitte, born Aug. 10, 1843, died April 13, 1914, married to Emaret M. Shoemaker, (Family No. 1009); 3, Nelson E., born Oct. 3, 1845, died June 1, 1852.

VI. (6). Samuel, son of Garrett and Mary (Rowley) Durland, was born in Orange Co., N. Y., and was married to Catharine Manning. He removed to the Wyoming Valley and settled in what is now Franklin Township. April 6, 1842, he bought from William Swetland for $5,000 the farm known as the "Aimey" farm, which had been sold to William Swetland by Oristus Collings and Charles D. Shoemaker, executors of Elijah Shoemaker. This farm of 226 acres he later sold to Urbane Dilley, and removed to Wisconsin. Dec. 28, 1840, he had bought from Fisher and Susannah Gay 51 acres of land in Northmoreland Township. The children of Samuel and Catharine (Manning) Durland were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, Coe G., married (1) to Mary Elizabeth, born Oct. 4, 1838, died Dec. 25, 1861, daughter of Peter and Elizabeth (Breese) Sharps, buried in Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery; married (2) to Mrs. Martha (Sharps) Kishpaugh, sister of his first wife, (see Family No. 988—Sharps); 2, Henry, who was married but had no children; 3, Samuel, married to Deborah, daughter of Henry and Madalene (Kemmerer) Houser†;

Eli Goodrich; (vi), George W., born Jan. 20, 1846, married to Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac, born 1805, died Aug. 18, 1892, and Mary Jane (Wilcox) Petersen, born 1822, died Sept. 19, 1904; (vii), Clarence Eugene, born Jan. 23, 1850, married to Lydia Cosner; (viii), Eveline J., born April 5, 1853, married to Edson Goodrich; (ix), Madison Shafer, born Feb. 13, 1857, died Feb. 14, 1861; (x), Gertrude, born March 29, 1862, married, July 11, 1882, to Abner J. Spencer; (7), Martha, born Jan. 6, 1814, died Feb. 5, 1820; (8), John (2), born Jan. 13, 1816, died Jan. 27, 1816; (9), Caroline, born Feb. 28, 1817, died 1901, married, by Rev. W. K. Mott to Martin B. Dailey, born Jan. 27, 1813, died Sept. 18, 1863, whose children were: (1), George W., born May 8, 1838, married to Lucinda Mullison, (see Family No. 992—Mullison); (ii), Edwin R., born Oct. 7, 1839, married to Martha Boyd; (iii), Mary C., born May 28, 1842, died Nov. 8, 1881, married to Dana Lord; (iv), Philip H., born Dec. 24, 1844, died May 29, 1913, married to Margaret Schooley; (v), Byron, born Nov. 24, 1847, married to Elizabeth Sutton; (vi), Priscilla, born Nov. 20, 1852, married to Lewis, son of Isaac and Mary Jane (Wilcox) Peterson; (vii), Lilly, born June 27, 1855, married to John Driesbach; (viii), Alfred B., born June 17, 1851, married to Kate Timlin; (10), Milton G., born July 10, 1819, married (1), Jan. 1, 1840, to Sarah Hall, died Dec. 16, 1841, married (2), Feb. 8, 1845, to Phebe Ann, daughter of John and Phebe Vanderburg, removed to a western state; (11), Hannah Celestia, born July 12, 1825, married, by Rev. W. K. Mott, to Jonathan, son of Jonathan and Ann Jones of Bucks Co., Pa. Their children were: (i), Rosalind, died early; (ii), Sarah, married to John, son of Samuel and Mary (Blanchard) Hodgdon, (see Family No. 33—Blanchard); (iv), Emma, married to Lewis, son of William and Luna (Phillips) Durland; (v), Mararie, not married; (vi), Caroline, died early.

*Samuel Gail Smith was born May 14, 1797, and died in Northmoreland Township Sept. 17, 1862. He was married to Margaret, born Oct. 13, 1797, died Feb. 5, 1884, daughter of Moses and Margaret De Witte of Deckerton, Sussex Co., N. J. (See Family No. 1334—De Witt.) They are buried in the Centermoreland Cemetery. Some of their children were: 1, Olivia, born Feb., 1818, died May 1, 1842, married to Levi Howell, (see Family No. 801—Howell); 2, Maria, born Jan. 28, 1825, died Sept. 20, 1903, married to Michael Wilson, born Nov. 25, 1820, died Nov. 2, 1901; 3, Samuel Gail, Jr., born Oct. 3, 1827, died Jan. 30, 1900, married to Caroline H., born Oct. 10, 1829, died Aug. 31, 1902, daughter of Alvah C. and Ann (Chapin) Phillips, (see Family No. 1216—Phillips); 4, Catharine, as second wife, married to Rev. George Landon, noted Methodist preacher and financier, who came to the Wyoming Valley from Massachusetts and who was married (1), in Nov., 1842, to Sally Ann Lum of Braintrim, Wyoming Co., Pa.

FRED SHOEMAKER DURLAND; FAMILIES NOS. 1010—(1009)

Fred Shoemaker, son of Denton De Witte and Emaret M. (Shoemaker) Durland, was born in Wyoming, Pa., Nov. 23, 1865, and was married, July 3, 1884, to Etta Blanche, born Dec. 17, 1865, daughter of William Harrison and Louisa (Lamoreux) Brodt, (see later). Fred S. Durland is a market gardener and operates and owns a part of the William S. Shoemaker farm on Shoemaker avenue, West Wyoming, Pa. The children of Fred S. and Etta Blanche (Brodt) Durland are: 1, James Eaton, born Oct. 19, 1885, and Allen Bradley, born May 8, 1888.

William Harrison Brodt was born in Upper Mount Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa., Feb. 25, 1840, and was a son of Barney, born 1807, died Aug. 25, 1875, and Mary (Duett) Brodt, died April 3, 1867, who are buried in the Cemetery at Portland, Pa. He was an expert miller and served in that capacity, for many years, at the Shoemaker Mills at West Wyoming, Pa. He was married, July 15, 1865, to Louisa, born Dec. 7, 1845, died Dec. 19, 1880, daughter of Wesley and Emeline (Brown) Lamoreux, and their children were: 1, Charles Miner, born 1867, died Aug. 26, 1869; 2, a daughter who died in infancy; 3, Etta Blanche, born at Centermoreland, Pa., Dec. 19, 1865, married to Fred S. Durland.

THE LAMOREUX FAMILY

John, Thomas and Charity Lamoreux, married to Thomas Davenport, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Orange Co., N. Y. In 1790 Peter, John, Isaac, Luke, John, Jr., and Peter Lamoreux, with their families, all lived in the town of New Cornwall, Orange Co. N. Y. Thomas, John and Charity were children of the same parents. Thomas Lamoreux settled in Plymouth Township before 1790 and in that year had in family living at home himself, two males over 16, two males under 16, and six females. John Lamoreux probably came later. He was married to Jemima Stevens and some of their children were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Mary, born July 16, 1781, died April 18, 1858, married, March 27, 1806, as his second wife, to James Nisbitt, born May 7, 1773, died Aug. 16, 1837, (Bib.-2); 2, Hannah, married, June 20, 1812, to Joze Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers); (a Hannah Lamoreux was married, Jan. 12, 1817, to Richard Egbertson); 3, John Gardner, (probably) a private in the company of Captain Joseph Camp of the 45th Regiment, Second Brigade Pa. Militia, ordered into service Oct. 15, 1814, in the War of 1812. He was deceased about 1819, leaving neither wife nor child, and Daniel Lamoreux and Joze Rogers filed a petition praying for the appointment of an administrator for his estate. John Lamoreux was born March 5, 1754, and died Jan. 7, 1822. His wife, Mrs. Jemima (Stevens) Lamoreux, was born March 10, 1754, and died July 1, 1826. They probably, also, had a son, Daniel, and other children in addition to those named above.

I. Thomas Lamoreux, who came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., before 1790, and died in 1829, was married to Keturah Tuttle. He settled upon what has been known for more than 50 years as the Ira Ransom farm in Jackson, formerly Plymouth, Township. There is a burial plot on the old farm, but the only stone standing upon it about four years ago, (in 1915) was that of John, son of Thomas Lamoreux. Mrs. Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux, wife of Thomas, was living April 15, 1816, when his will was made, in Plymouth Township. The children of Thomas and Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux, all named in his will, were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, James, who had a son Jewel, a son Nathan, and eight other children. He was born before 1778 and was assessed, in Plymouth, in 1799; 2, Martha, married, in 1790, to Samuel Pringle, (see the Harvey Book p. 135); 3, Elizabeth, born Sept. 30, 1776, died Aug. 27, 1859, married, Jan. 9, 1794, as second wife, to Colonel George Palmer Ransom, (see later); 4, John, born Nov. 21, 1780, died Aug. 13, 1852; 5, Temperance, married to Matthias Van Loon, of Bradford Co., Pa., in 1830; 6, Charity ———, married to Peter Steele, (see later); 7, Hannah, married to Stephen Van Loon; 8, Thomas, Jr., born Aug. 19, 1787, died July 19, 1830, married to Mary Boston, born April 25, 1791, died March 24, 1892, (see later); 9, Millie (Amelia), married to Fletcher Case; 10, Keturah, born Feb. 18, 1791, died Dec. 9, 1842, married, June 18, 1815, to Samuel Ackley, born June 14, 1792, died Aug. 14, 1824; 11, Jane, married to Absalom Case; 12, Joshua, married, Dec. 12, 1813, to Patty Ives; 13, Daniel, probably married to Martha ———, who died before July 14, 1817.

II. (3). Elizabeth, born Sept. 30, 1776, died Aug. 27, 1859, daughter of Thomas and Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux, was married, Jan. 9, 1794, to George Palmer, son of Captain Samuel and Esther (Lawrence) Ransom.

Captain Samuel Ransom was born about 1737 and was married in Canaan Town, now Norfolk, Litchfield Co., Conn., May 6, 1756, to Esther Lawrence, who was born about 1739. He was Captain of the Third Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, at Wyoming in 1776, and was commissioned Captain in the Continental Service Aug. 26, 1776. In May, 1778, he resigned and returned to his home to assist in the protection of the people of the Wyoming Valley. He was killed in the battle of Wyoming. His widow was married (2) to Captain James Bidlock, Sr., and returned to Norfolk, Conn., where she died in Aug., 1794. The children of Captain Samuel and Esther (Lawrence) Ransom were: 1, Sarah, born Aug. 23, 1757, died Dec. 19, 1777, married, Oct. 23, 1776, to Timothy, born at Waterbury, Conn., in 1743, died in Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1804, son of Timothy and Jemima (Scovell) Hopkins, (see the Harvey Book, p. 300); 2, Samuel, born Sept. 28, 1759, drowned at Owego, N. Y., in 1807, served as private in the Third Company, 24th Conn. Militia, at the battle of Wyoming; married, about 1783, to Mary, born Sept. 18, 1765, died Aug. 11, 1824, at Portsmouth, Ohio, daughter of James, born June 15, 1718, died July 2, 1792, and Phebe (Harrison) Nisbitt, born in 1728, died Feb. 17, 1802, (see Nesbitt, Harvey Book, p. 247); 3, George Palmer, born Jan. 3, 1762, (see later); 4, Sybil, born Feb. 5, 1764, died April 30, 1826, married, April 8, 1784, to Ira, born July 18, 1759, died Sept. 20, 1803, son of Jedediah and Mary Stephens; 5, Esther, born March 12, 1766, died 1786, not married; 6, Lovisa Lawrence, born May 28, 1768, died June 23, 1834, married to Arthur Frink, born 1763, died Feb. 21, 1847, who was married (2) to Rachel (Brooks) Ransom, widow of William Ransom; 7, William, born May 26, 1770, died Jan. 8, 1822, married to Rachel, born Feb. 8, 1776, died May 29, 1857, daughter of James and Mary (Johnson) Brooks; 8, Mary, born May 20, 1772, died Sept. 16, 1825, married to Samuel, born May 10, 1759, died June 1, 1828, son of John and Keziah (Pierce) Franklin, (see Family No. 1041—Franklin); 9, Lois, born March 20, 1775, died May 21, 1856, married March 28, 1793, to Stephen, born Jan. 5, 1773, died March 4, 1849, son of Captain James and Abigail (Fuller) Bidlock.

Colonel George Palmer Ransom, son of Captain Samuel and Esther (Lawrence) Ransom, was born in Canaan, Conn., Jan. 3, 1762, and came to the Wyoming Valley with his parents about 1772-3. When between 14 and 15 years of age he enlisted in Captain Samuel Ransom's Wyoming Independent Company of the Connecticut Continental Line and was mustered into the service Sept. 17, 1776. Dec. 7, 1780, while on leave of absence at Plymouth, Pa., he was captured by a band of British Rangers and taken to Canada, where he remained a prisoner about eighteen months, (see Harvey Book, p. 324). After leaving the army he returned to Plymouth, where he lived the remainder of his life. He served as Captain of the Plymouth Militia in 1787 and was commissioned, in 1799, Lieutenant Colonel of the Second Battalion, 35th Regiment, Pa. Militia. He died Sept. 5, 1850. (Bib.-3-55-59.) He was married (1), Aug. 4, 1783, to Olive Utley of Beach Haven, Pa., born 1760, died July 14, 1793, and their children were: 1, Sarah, born Sept. 11, 1784, died April 3, 1851, married to Joseph, born Oct. 26, 1773, died Jan. 20, 1858, son of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele, (see Steele family later); 2, Lovisa, born Aug. 19, 1786, died July 2, 1832, married to Horace Morse, born 1776, died Sept. 2, 1846; 3, Esther, born Oct. 12, 1788, died Aug. 10, 1839, married (1), June 10, 1810, to Abijah Smith, born Oct. 3, 1764, died March 6, 1826, married (2), April 15, 1827, to John Ingham, born April 10, 1782, died Oct. 15, 1866, buried in Shupp Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa., beside her first husband; 4, George Palmer, Jr., born June 3, 1791, "killed by log rolling over him" April 29, 1824. Colonel George Palmer Ransom was married (2) to Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux and their children were: (1), Samuel, born Jan. 9, 1795, died March 20, 1836, married (1) to Hannah, born 1800, died March 22, 1836, daughter of Isaac and Mary Wightman, born 1783, died Aug. 13, 1843, buried in Shupp Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa., married (2) to Mabel Dodson Ramsey; (2), Olive, born April 12, 1796, died Aug. 20, 1874, married, Aug. 13, 1816, to Charles Cottsworth Curtis, born July 5, 1787, died Feb. 28, 1865; (3), William, born Dec. 27, 1797, died Dec. 17, 1881, married (1), Nov. 13, 1823, to Jane, born April 20, 1805, died May 15, 1842, buried in Shupp Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa., daughter of James and Jane (Williams) Nesbitt married (2), Dec. 15, 1842, to Clarissa Davenport, born Jan. 28, 1814; (4), Elizabeth, born Sept. 11, 1799, died Feb. 25, 1829; (5), Keturah, born April 26, 1801, died Nov. 21, 1862, married, March 25, 1830, to James Hodge, born July 5, 1795, died Nov. 5, 1863; (6), Liva, born Jan. 9, 1804, died July 20, 1872, married, July 4, 1830, to Oliver, born Feb. 4, 1808, son of Thomas, Jr., and Mary (Reynolds) Davenport, and grandson of Thomas and Charity (Lamoreux) Davenport; (7), Thomas, born April 19, 1806, died Aug. 25, 1879, married (1) to Nancy Ann Roushey, married (2) to Elvira Temperance Brink; (8), Chester, born June 10, 1808, married (1) to Harriet H. Tupper, married (2) to Mrs. Hester Ann Bishop, married (3) to Catharine Ann Whiteman; (9), Eleanor, born Oct. 2, 1810, died Feb. 21, 1812; (10), Miner, born May 14, 1813, married, Sept. 6, 1838, to Elizabeth Shonk, born March 15, 1817; (11), Lydia, born Dec. 12, 1815, married, Sept. 8, 1835, to John Kreidler, born Aug. 15, 1809, (see Family No. 1292—Kreidler); (12), Amelia (Millie), born Feb. 10, 1819, married, Sept. 12, 1836, to Seymour Downes, born March 31, 1817; (13), Captain Ira, born Oct. 11, 1822, living in 1917, a literal son of the American Revolution, in Jackson Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., married, Dec. 28, 1847, at Wyoming, Pa., by the Rev. J. D. Mitchell, to Mary, born March 12, 1830, living 1917, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Hicks) Smith.* (Bib. 3-1-346-86.)

*Benjamin Smith, born April 20, 1798, a soldier in the War of 1812, was a native of New Jersey, who removed to the Wyoming Valley and settled in Kingston Township. He was married to Mary Hicks, born June 9, 1800, died July 31, 1883. He died March 20, 1879, and with his wife is buried in the Huntsville Cemetery, Luzerne Co., Pa. Their children are: 1, Phebe, married to Peter Riley, lived at Hazleton, Pa.; 2, Rebecca H., born 1829, died March 15, 1885, married to Stewart Cornelison, an early Master Mechanic of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg R. R. at Kingston, Pa., later lived at Jamesville, Pa.; 3, Mary E., born March 12, 1830, living 1917, married to Captain Ira Ransom; 4, Sarah, married to Thomas McCann, Buffalo, Pa.; 5, Jane, married to John, son of James Kilmer, lived in Wisconsin; 6, Charity, married to Theodore Renshaw, living in Dallas, Pa.; 7, Elizabeth, died early; 8, William, married to Emeline Wolcott, Scranton, Pa.; 9, Hugh, married to Amanda Harrison, near Harrisburg, Pa.

II. (6). Charity, daughter of Thomas and Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux, was married to Peter, son of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele. Peters, son of David and Margaret Steele, was born in Ireland, Aug. 7, 1843, left his native land enroute to America, May 10, 1763, and landed at New Castle, June 19, 1763. He was married, April 5, 1769, by the Rev. John Carmichael of the Brandywine Congregation in Chester Co., Pa., to Hannah Norman. He was married (2), by the Rev. John Carmichael, to Jean Bell, who died May 9, 1804. Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele removed from Chester Co. to the vicinity of New Buffalo, now Perry Co., Pa. In the War of the American Revolution Peters Steele served as a private in Captain Philip Matthews' Company in the Third Division of the Seventh Battalion of Colonel James Purdy's Regiment, and was a member of this company May 9, 1781. In 1790 he was a resident of Luzerne Co., Pa., and had in family himself, one son over 16, five sons under 16, his wife and four daughters. (Bib.-10 and 19.) Upon coming to the Wyoming Valley, from New Buffalo, Peters Steele evidently settled in Hanover Township, where he was assessed in 1792. In 1800 he lived in Plymouth Township. He died in Huntington Township Nov. 10, 1825, and is buried in Waterton Cemetery. The name on his tombstone is PETERS STEELE. The only child of Peters and Hannah (Normand) Steele was Hannah, born March 14, 1770, died 1796, who was married to James Lasley and is buried in Hanover Green Cemetery. The children of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele were: 1, David, who, March 19, 1798, sold to Peters Steele six acres of land in Hanover, Joseph and Peter Steele, Jr., witnesses. He is said to have removed from Hanover and to have lost his life in a fire which destroyed his dwelling; 2, Joseph, born Oct. 26, 1773, died Jan. 20, 1858, (see later); 3, Margaret, born April 17, 1777, died March 10, 1851, married to Amos, born Nov. 14, 1774, died Nov. 4, 1836, probably son of Amos and grandson of John and Keziah (Pierce) Franklin, (Family No. 1041—Franklin); 4, Peter, Jr., born 1779, died 1857, (see later); 5, Jacob, married, May 3, 1804, to Lydia, daughter of Stephen and Susannah (Franklin) Harrison, (Family No. 1041—Franklin, No. 1041—Harrison); 6, Andrew, who with his wife, Susannah, lived in Huntington Township, and who, May 25, 1816, bought from Cyrus and Mary Fellows for $10 two acres of land which they, Nov. 18, 1816, assigned to John Steele of Union Township; 7, John, born May 10, 1786, died Feb. 22, 1856, married to Elizabeth, born Sept. 21, 1793, died Nov. 2, 1847, (Waterton Cemetery), daughter of Jonathan and Betsey Fellows,* of Huntington Township; 8, Mary; 9, Elizabeth.

II. (2). Joseph, son of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele, was born Oct. 26, 1773, and was married, April 1, 1800, by Noah Wadhams, Esq., to Sarah, born Sept. 11, 1784, died April 3, 1851, daughter of Colonel George Palmer and Elizabeth (Lamoureux) Ransom, (Family No. 1010—Ransom, No. 1010—Lamoureux). In 1800 he was an innkeeper and operated a ferry and, Sept. 27, 1800, in a card published in the Wilkes-Barre Gazette he requested his patrons to pay their liquor and ferriage bills. March 19, 1798, David Steele conveyed to Peter Steele six acres of land in Hanover, signing the deed in the presence of Joseph and Peter Steele, Jr. April 24, 1800, Peter Steele, then of Plymouth, for £70, conveyed a half interest in this property which is described as lying along the river, to Joseph Steele. June 25, 1810, Joseph Steele sold, for a consideration of $330, to Lewis Hepburn† of New York City, a "certain coal bed in and upon Lot 29 in Hanover.....being the same

*Colonel Abiel Fellows, born Oct. 1, 1764, died Aug. 18, 1833, (see Family No. 1041—Hopkins). Cyrus Fellows, who, with his wife, Mary, lived in Huntington, May 25, 1816; Ephraim Fellows of Huntington, who was married in Jan., 1801, to Sabriette Post, and Jonathan Fellows of Huntington, were doubtless brothers and sons of "Deacon" Abiel Fellows, born Oct. 29, 1734, in Plainfield, Windham Co., Conn., died in 1812 in Litchfield Co., Conn., who was married (1) to Elizabeth Roe. "Deacon" Abiel Fellows was a son of Ephraim and Mary Fellows, who were married Dec. 3, 1711, and was one of the proprietors of Huntington Township. (Harvey's Book, p. 303.) Jonathan Fellows died before March 31, 1813, leaving a widow, Betsy, and the following children: 1, Laura; 2, Chloe; 3, Elizabeth, married, before March 31, 1813, to John Steele; 4, Jonathan, married to Phebe, born about 1797, daughter of Captain Benjamin and Welthea Ann (York) Smith of Kingston Township, (see Family No. 1324—Smith); 5, Erastus; 6, Henry, a minor in 1813; 7, Charles, a minor in 1813; 8, Simon, a minor in 1813.

†Lewis Hepburn sold an interest in this coal bed to Abijah Smith of Plymouth, Pa., July 10, 1811, for $200. The deed conveyed one-third undivided, and one-fifth part of all the coal on that part of Lot 29, Hanover, now or late in the possession of Joseph Steele. (See Wright's Plymouth (Bib.-55) for sketch of Abijah Smith, pioneer anthracite coal operator.)

bed or pit lately opened by Frederick Crissman,* and all the other bed or beds of coal in or upon Lot 29 Joseph Steele excepts and reserves to himself and his heirs and assigns the fee simple in the said lot of land and the right unto so much coal as is sufficient for the use of any family forever." Joseph Steele died Jan. 20, 1858, and with his wife, Sarah (Ransom) Steele, is buried in the Hanover Green Cemetery. Some of their children were: 1, Harrison P., born 1801, died Dec. 1, 1848; 2, George Palmer, born Aug. 8, 1802, died Feb. 2, 1870, Sheriff of Luzerne Co., Pa., 1841-4, State Senator 1856-9. Associate Judge of the Luzerne County Court 1866-1870. He was married (1) to Susannah B., daughter of Abraham and Lovina Crissman, born Dec. 15, 1807, died March 26, 1847, (Hanover Green Cemetery), and (2) to Lydia (Eldredge) Doak, born May 17, 1817, died March 25, 1883, who is buried beside him in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre; 3, Harriet, born June, 1827, died July 25, 1849, married to F. J. Leavenworth.

II. (4). Peter, son of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele, was born in 1779 and died in 1857. He was married to Charity, who died in her 90th year, daughter of Thomas and Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux. Their home was in Jackson Township and they are buried in the Lamoreux Cemetery. Their children were: 1, John; 2, Peter, not married; 3, Mary, (see later); 4, Joseph, born Jan. 22, 1811, died Dec. 25, 1896, married to Eunice Hunter; 5, William, married to Polly Stewart, lived in Wyoming Co., Pa.; 6, Frances (Steele) Holgate, lived in Kunkle, Pa.; 7, Asenath, married to Alexander Lamoreux, lived at Chase, Pa.; 8, George, born 1822, died 1901, married to Elizabeth Adkins, born 1827, died 1894, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery); 9, Thomas, not married; 10, Jane, married to Joseph Johnson of Kingston, Pa.

III. (3). Mary, daughter of Peter, Jr., and Charity (Lamoreux) Steele, was born Dec. 8, 1808, and died July 15, 1876. She was married (1) to James, Jr., son of James Pringle, and brother of Charity (Pringle) Mekeel, born Jan. 31, 1800, died March 12, 1899, wife of Oliver Mekeel, of Lehman, Pa. She was married (2), as his second wife, to John Linskill, and their children were: 1, John C., born 1832, died Oct. 16, 1910, married to Almira, daughter of William Henry and Polly (Durland) Goble; 2, Elizabeth, (Betsey), born Oct. 10, 1833, died Jan. 22, 1916, married to Merritt Harding Sickler, born March 16, 1839, died Jan. 20, 1894, buried at Lehman, Pa.; 3, Sarah, died at 6 years; 4, James, born 1836, died 1908, married to Martha Ann Gordon, born 1839, died 1913, (Lehman, Pa., Cemetery); 5, Charles Dorrance, born April 10, 1840, married (1), Sept. 21, 1864, to Clara Helen Donley, of Northumberland, Pa., born Feb. 22, 1845, died Jan. 19, 1887, married (2), March 29, 1892, to Jennie Howland, born May 30, 1852. Charles Dorrance Linskill was, for a number of years, a clerk in the general store of Elijah Catlin Wadhams, at Plymouth, Pa. He enlisted and served in a Pennsylvania Regiment in the Civil War, and has been, for a long term of years, a member of Conyngham Post, No. 97, G. A. R., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church from young manhood and has for many years been a steward of the church at Wyoming, Pa. He established and was for 16 years the editor and proprietor of the Telephone, which was first a monthly and later a weekly publication in Wilkes-Barre. He has now been, for quite 30 years, circulation manager of the Wilkes-Barre Semi-Weekly Record, and is the author of the articles appearing in the Here and There column of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Record. He is also the author of Travels in Lands Beyond the Sea, which was published in 1888, and of numerous articles, of historical interest, published in the Wilkes-Barre Record, many of which have been reprinted in Johnson's Historical Record.

John Linskill, Sr., was born in Whitby, England, Nov. 28, 1799, and died in Jackson Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 18, 1865, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery). He came to America and settled in what is now Jackson Township. For many years he was one of the best known and most popular "Criers at Vendues," or auctioneers, in the county. The district school, known for many years as the Linskill School, was named for him. He was married (1) to Mrs. Rebecca (Major)

*Frederick Crissman, born about 1759, died Sept. 22, 1815, is buried in Hanover Green Cemetery, Luzerne Co., Pa. His heirs, Nov. 12, 1832, sold to Henry Dotter Lot 34, Newport Township, reserving one-half of the coal which was to be delivered at the "pit's mouth" by Henry Dotter. The heirs of Frederick Crissman, living in 1832, were his widow, Catharine, married (2) to John Carey, and his children: 1, Abraham, married to Lovina ———, born at New London, Conn., 1789, died Feb. 9, 1842; 2, Elizabeth, married (1) to Appheus C. THE BROWN FAMILY (PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP)

I. Captain Jesse Brown was one of the early settlers of the section of Plymouth, now Jackson Township, which for nearly or quite a century has been known as Brown's Corners. He was born in Feb., 1769, and was a Captain in the Militia. He was married to Pauline, daughter of Captain Samuel Allen, (see later). She was born in 1768 and died Jan. 8, 1842. The will of Captain Jesse Brown was made May 26, 1826, and was probated Jan. 8, 1840. He died May 28, 1826, and, with his wife, is buried in the Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery. The children of Captain Jesse and Pauline (Allen) Brown, all named in his will, were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Justice Allen, born Feb. 21, 1790, died Dec. 11, 1860, (see later); 2, Clinton, born Dec. 11, 1793, died May 13, 1877, married (1) to Martha, born Feb. 6, 1798, died Aug. 21, 1851, probably daughter of James and Phebe Pringle, born Jan. 31, 1765, died April 6, 1856, buried in Lehman, Pa., Cemetery, and sister to Charity Pringle, born Jan. 28, 1800, died March 11, 1899, who was married to Oliver Mekeel, born April 18, 1796, died Oct. 11, 1847, who are also buried in the Lehman, Pa., Cemetery, married (2) to Hannah ———, born Feb. 6, 1807, died Feb. 12, 1875; 3, Truman, (see later); 4, Lyman; 5, Milton, born 1806, died June 26, 1862, married to Anna Turpin, born Nov. 24, 1808, died Jan. 29, 1855, probably daughter of Isaac X., born 1778, died Oct. 2, 1836, and Rebecca Turpin, born April 14, 1785, died Aug. 16, 1868, buried in Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery; 6, Sally, married, Oct. 15, 1829, to Robert Williams; 7, Maria, born Nov. 13, 1809, died March 23, 1885, married to William Booth, born Feb. 13, 1810, died Aug. 16, 1891; 8, Selinda; 9, Sylvia, married, Oct. 17, 1816, by the Rev. George Lane, to Joseph Ruggles.

II. (1). Justice Allen, son of Captain Jesse and Pauline (Allen) Brown, was married, March 14, 1819, to Huldah Hall, born April 16, 1796, died Aug. 28, 1861. She was probably a daughter of Abel and Mary Hall, who, June 1, 1831, deeded to Justice A. Brown, for the term of the natural life of Abel and Mary Hall, the farm, in Kingston Township, where Abel Hall then lived. Abel Hall was, at that time, upwards of 60 years of age. The children of Justice Allen and Huldah (Hall) Brown were: 1, Chauncey, born Oct. 12, 1820, died March 28, 1850; 2, Emeline, born Oct. 29, 1822, died Dec. 12, 1893, married to Wesley, son of Thomas and Keturah (Tuttle) Lamoreux; 3, Moriah; 4, Alanson.

II. (3). Truman, son of Jesse and Pauline (Allen) Brown, was born April 23 1796, and died June 13, 1850. He was married to Julia Ann, born Aug. 29, 1805, died May 2, 1887, daughter of Joseph and Salome (Hall) Sweetland, (Family No. 3—Sweetland). With a number of their descendants they are buried in the Trucks-ville, Pa., Methodist Episcopal Cemetery. Some of their children were: 1, Charles, born June 15, 1833, Company F, 149th Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, died Nov. 23, 1889, married to Elizabeth A. ———, born 1835, died 1907; 2, Miner, born 1835, died 1912, married to Louisa ———, born 1834, died 1913; 3, Joseph, born March 22, 1842, died June 4, 1907; 4, Chester, married to Miranda

THE ALLEN FAMILY

Lieutenant Samuel Allen was born in Pomfret, Conn., in 1743. According to his own story of his young manhood as printed in the Wilkes-Barre Record of March 8, 1854, and reprinted in Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. XI, p. 217, he served in 1760 under Colonel Putnam in an expedition to Montreal, and in 1761 went as a Corporal under Colonel Putnam to Crown Point. He was commissioned Ensign by Governor George Clinton of New York in 1779, and also served as Second Lieutenant in Captain Elijah Bostwick's Company in the New York Service in the American Revolution. He was married twice, but the name of his first wife has not been preserved. He is said to have had six children by his first marriage, among whom was Pauline, born 1768, who was married to Captain Jesse Brown. He was married (2), in March, 1782, (Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. I, p. 191) to Marcy, daughter of Joseph Otis, Jr., and granddaughter of Joseph and Dorothy (Thomas) Otis. She was a sister of Jonathan Otis, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and the widow of Lieutenant Perrin Ross,*

II. Jeremiah Ross, born July 26, 1721, died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 8, 1777, was the third son of I. Joseph, born 1683, and Sarah (Utley) Ross, born Sept. 15, 1697, who were married Sept. 16, 1716. He was married, Oct. 31, 1744, at Scotland, Windham Co., Conn., to Ann, born Feb. 11, 1720, died March 22, 1813, daughter of Samuel and Ruth (Perrin) Paine. Jeremiah Ross was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and is named as a grantee in the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754. His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax List for Wilkes-Barre District, in 1776. In 1777 and 1778 the name of his widow, Ann Ross, appears on the Wilkes-Barre list. The name of his son, William, then (1780) 19 years of age, appears on the Westmoreland list for 1780-1. The children of Jeremiah and Ann (Paine) Ross were: 1, Aleph, born Dec. 17, 1745, died in Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 8, 1814-7; 2, Ann, born Jan. 5, 1747; 3, Perrin, born July 4, 1748, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, (see later); 4, Sarah, born Feb. 11, 1750; 5, Diana, born Nov. 18, 1751, died in Oct., 1808, married (1) to John Hagerman, married (2) to Rev. Noah Wadhams; 6, Mary, born Dec. 21, 1753; 7, Lucy, born Oct. 14, 1755, died Jan. 6, 1844, married to Dr. Davis; 8, Jeremiah, born Jan. 6, 1759, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 9, William, born March 29, 1761, died Aug. 9, 1842, married to Eliza (or Elizabeth), daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Perkins) Sterling, born Nov. 3, 1768, died May 16, 1816, (see Harvey's Wilkes-Barre, Bib.-1, for sketch of career of General William Ross); 10, Elizabeth, born June 10, 1764, died Sept. 23, 1838, married to John, born Feb. 25, 1764, died Aug. 4, 1837, son of Captain Obadiah, born July 26, 1714, died Jan. 10, 1779, and Hannah (Park) Gore, born 1721, died Aug. 14, 1804. (See Harvey's Wilkes-Barre, Bib.-1, for sketch of the Gore family.)

III. (3). Lieutenant Perrin, son of Jeremiah and Ann (Paine) Ross, was born July 4, 1748. His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax List for Plymouth District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was established and commissioned, Oct. 17, 1775. Lieutenant of the Third Company, Captain Samuel Ransom, of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia. Zebulon Butler, Colonel; Nathan Dennison, Lieutenant Colonel. He resigned in Dec., 1777. He was killed in the bat-

*Samuel Sterling was married (1) to Elizabeth Perkins and their children were: 1, Irene, born Oct. 17, 1758; 2, Sarah, born Dec. 20, 1761; 3, Caroline, born May 21, 1764; 4, Samuel, born Sept. 17, 1766; 5, Elizabeth, born Nov. 3, 1768, died May 16, 1816, married to General William Ross, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; 6, James, born Dec. 25, 1770; 7, Ruth, born Sept. 27, 1773; 8, Lucy, born Dec. 9, 1775. Samuel Sterling was married (2) to Sarah Stow and their children were: 9, Lord, born April 3, 1780; 10, Hannah, born Sept. 3, 1782. (Bib.-5.)

who also fell in that battle. Samuel and Marcy (Otis) Ross-Allen established their home on the Perrin Ross homestead, "Ross Hill," Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., and later removed to what is now Jackson Township, Luzerne Co. He became a prominent citizen of Plymouth Township, was one of the most active men of his day in the real estate transactions of that township, and, at various times, owned large tracts of land in the several divisions of Old Plymouth. Among his purchases was that of March 23, 1789, when he bought from Captain Nathaniel Landon for £161, 588 acres of Plymouth lands, lying principally in the Third, Fourth and Fifth Divisions, but including Meadow Lot 9 and one-half of House Lot 9. Feb. 4, 1790, he sold to Oliver Bigelow for £4 part of House Lot No. 9, described in the survey as beginning on the "north side of a small spring brook," "between the two roads running from Kingston down to Plymouth, viz., the two roads nearest to Tobey's Creek and the upper flats and running across the hill known as Ross Hill," "Two acres of land on the lot where Bigelow's house and barn are," "bought of tle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. Perrin Ross was married, in 1770, to Marcy, born June 5, 1747, died in 1824, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Little) Otis, (see later) of Raymond Hill, North Parish, New London, Conn. They had six children, one of whom was born after Perrin Ross was killed. These six children are named in the proceedings of a suit brought by Stephen Gardner in the Luzerne County Court of Common Pleas, in Sept., 1788, (see Family No. 988—Gardner). The children of Lieutenant Perrin and Marcy (Otis) Ross were: 1, Daniel, who settled in Wyalusing Township, and had property there in 1792 and was assessed. He had among his children, John, William, Daniel and Hiram; 2, Elizabeth, who was married to Guy Wells, whose son, William Sterling Wells, was married to Sophia Bard, whose daughter, Anne Louise Wells, was married to the Rev. Charles Lane Rice (Family No. 1016—Rice); 3, Jesse, who was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac Hancock. (Isaac Hancock was a taxpayer in Wyalusing Township in 1792.) Two of his children were Perrin H. and Isaac H. Ross; 4, John; 5, Perrin, Jr., was married to Lydia _____ and settled in what is now Wyoming Co., Pa. He was commissioned, Feb. 25, 1843, Associate Judge of Wyoming Co., and died early in 1844; 6, Joseph, married to Polly, born about 1777, died April 27, 1864, daughter of Albert Camp, died 1822, lived in Wyalusing Township, Wyoming Co., Pa.

The story of the experience of Mrs. Marcy (Otis) Ross, in the flight of the survivors of the Wyoming Valley tragedy, appears in an address delivered by William A. Wilcox, Esq., of Scranton, Pa., at the Commemorative Exercises, July 2, 1887, at the Wyoming Monument, at Wyoming, Pa. The address was printed in the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Record and may also be found in Johnson's Historical Record, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Vol. I, p. 191.

II. John, son of I, Richard Otis, was born in Glastonbury, England, in 1581, and his wife, Margaret, died in June, 1653. He emigrated to New England and settled at Hingham, Mass., and drew lots there in 1635. He died May 31, 1657, aed. 76 years. The children of John and Margaret Otis were: 1, John, born in England, Jan. 14, 1622; 2, Margaret, married to Thomas Barton; 3, Hannah, married to Thomas Gill; 4, Ann; 5, Alice.

III. (1). John, Jr., son of John and Margaret Otis, born in England, Jan. 14, 1622, came to America with his parents and was married, in 1652-3, to Mary, daughter of Nicholas Jacobs. Their children were: 1, Mary, baptised 1653, married, in 1694, to Colonel John Gorham; 2, Elizabeth, married (1), in 1688, to Thomas Allen, married (2), in 1699, to David Loring; 3, John (3d), born 1657, married, in 1683, to Mercy Bacon; 4, Hannah, born in 1660; 5, Stephen, born 1661, married, in 1685, to Hannah Ensign; 6, James, born in 1663, killed in an attack upon Quebec; 7, Joseph, born 1665, married to Dorothy Thomas; 8, Job, born March 20, 1667, married to Mary Leith.

IV. (7). Joseph, son of John, Jr., and Mary (Jacobs) Otis, born in 1665, was married, Nov. 20, 1688, to Dorothy, daughter of Nathaniel Thomas of Marshfield. They lived at Scituate, Mass., where he served as Judge and Representative to the General Court, 1710-13. Their children were: 1, Nathaniel, born Jan. 30, 1689-90, married to Hannah Thacher; 2, James, born July 21, 1692-3, married to Sarah Taylor; 3, Deborah, born April 24, 1694, married to David Copp; 4, Mary, born March 20, 1695-6, married to John Thompson; 5, Dorothy, born April 24, 1698, married (1) to Patrick McClelland, married (2) to Cary Latham, married (3) to John Bissel; 6, Elizabeth, born Sept. 2, 1700, married to Luke Lincoln; 7, Ann, born Sept. 21, 1702, married to Robert McClelland; 8, Bethia, born Nov. 20, 1703, married (1) to Rev. Mr. Billings, married (2) to Rev. Mr. Morely; 9, Delight, born Dec. 19, 1706, married to Jabez Lathrop; 10, Hannah, born Dec. 10, 1709, died 1725; 11, Joseph, born Oct. 1, 1712, married to Elizabeth Little; 12, Rachel, born Dec. 1, 1713, married to Jonathan Harris, (Family No. 988—Harris).

V. (11). Joseph, Jr., born Oct. 1, 1712, died in 1793, son of Joseph and Dorothy (Thomās) Otis, was married to Elizabeth, daughter of David Little of Scituate. They lived on Raymond Hill, North Parish, New London Co., Conn., and their children were: 1, Joseph, born Aug. 11, 1739, married (1) to Lucy Houghton, married (2) to the Widow Carew, married (3) to Abigail Hurlbut; 2, Elizabeth, born Oct. 11, 1740, married to Joseph Chester; 3, Nathaniel, born March 26, 1742, married to Amy Gardner; 4, David, born June 3, 1743, married to Mary Day; 5, Mabel, born Aug. 31, 1745, married to Jesse Woodworth; 6, Marcy, born June 5, 1747, married to Perrin, son of Jeremiah and Ann (Paine) Ross, (see above); 7, Dorothy, born in 1747, died young; 8, James, born June 26, 1751, married to Sarah Holmes; 9, Jonathan, born March 1, 1753, went to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. Samuel Allen, who was married (2), as her second husband, to the widow of Perrin, brother of Jonathan Otis, was appointed, at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., administrator of the estate of Jonathan Otis. He presented his report to the Orphans' Court, March 8, 1802; 10, Dorothy (2), born Feb. 24, 1755; 11, Olive, born Jan. 14, 1757; 12, Barnabas, born 1759, went to Ohio; 13, Shuball, born Dec. 6, 1760, was killed in the War of the American Revolution; 14, William, born in 1762, settled in New York. (Bib.—183.)

Nathaniel Landon and formerly belonged to Perrin Ross." Another interesting purchase was that of Jan. 22, 1793, when he bought from Hallet Gallup, one acre of ground of House Lot No. 4 "for use of a log way and board ground, adjoining a certain mill seat on House Lot No. 5, with the full use of the stream of water called the Dry Creek, in the Upper Plymouth." There is a suggestion of the beginning of the milling operations at Huntsville, Luzerne Co., Pa., in a deed of Jan. 31, 1793, wherein Samuel Holly sold to Samuel Allen an undivided moiety of Lot 40 in the Fifth Division, "reserving a grist mill seat for Jeremiah Coleman, at any place except where Samuel Allen is now erecting a saw mill." Aug. 10, 1793, Samuel Allen sold this land to Elias Allen of Bedford, reserving a seat for a grist mill other than where Elias Allen is erecting a saw mill. Nov. 29, 1796, Elias Allen sold to Joshua and Benajah Fuller one-fourth of Lot 40 with one-half of the saw mill and one-half the privilege of using the water, and excepting and reserving a seat for a grist mill for the use of Jeremiah Coleman.

Samuel Allen was appointed administrator of the estate of Jonathan Otis, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, and presented his account to the Orphans' Court, March 8, 1802. At the June sessions of the Court of Quarter Sessions in 1788 he was named, with Rufus Lawrence, Hezekiah Roberts, William Reynolds, James Bidlock and Cornelius Atherton, to serve as viewers to lay out roads in Plymouth Township, and in 1788 and 1789 was appointed Supervisor. In 1790 he had in family, living at home, two sons over 16, two sons under 16, his wife and two daughters. (Bib.-10). In 1792 Samuel, David and Elias Allen were assessed in Plymouth Township. In 1796 Samuel, Stephen, David and Elias Allen were assessed there. In 1799 Samuel and Elias Allen were assessed and in that year Samuel's assessment was 478 acres of land, two houses, one horse, three cattle and one sawmill, and the assessment of Elias included 150 acres of land. Samuel Allen was drowned in Tobey's Creek in what is now Jackson Township in the summer of 1813, and, June 14, 1813, his widow, Marcy, and his son, Otis, were appointed administrators of his estate, with Edward Foster, as surety, on their bond in $1,000. Mrs. Marcy (Otis) Ross died in 1824, and, with her second husband, Samuel Allen, is buried in Allen Cemetery, Lake Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Some of the children of Samuel Allen were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Pauline, child by first wife, born in 1768, died Jan. 8, 1842, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery), married to Captain Jesse Brown of Plymouth Township, (see above); 2, probably Elias Allen of Plymouth Township, (Bedford, in 1793); 3, Samuel, Jr., married to Margaret Drake; 4, Peter, removed to Illinois; 5, Amy, born Dec. 31, 1782, died Jan. 13, 1860, married to William Fuller, (Fuller family later), born Dec. 19, 1778, died May 2, 1848; 6, Marcy, married, June 15, 1809, to Nathaniel Ide, (Ide family later); 7, Otis, born Jan. 25, 1787, died Jan. 26, 1842, married, Sept. 21, 1809, by Rev. Ard Hoyt, to Lucy Ide, some of whose children were, (order of birth not known to writer): (1), Lucinda, married to Samuel C. Mullison, (Family No. 992—Mullison); (2), Hannah, born March 27, 1811, died Aug. 16, 1888, (Allen Cemetery); (3), Sarah (Allen) Edwards; (4), George, born Aug. 1, 1815, died Sept. 2, 1878, married to Jane Bronson, born July 2, 1818, died May 26, 1900, (Allen Cemetery); 5, Samuel C., born May 12, 1817, died Aug. 13, 1843, (Allen Cemetery); (6), Lewis, born March 20, 1819, died Nov. 14, 1896, married to Eliza Husted; (7), William, born Oct. 5, 1820, died Oct. 9, 1878, married to Lydia Kunkle, born Feb. 10, 1813, died Aug. 30, 1902, (Idetown, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery); (8), Harriet; (9), Otis, Jr., married to Lydia W. Callender, born Nov. 5, 1827, died Feb. 13, 1882, (Allen Cemetery); 10, Curtis, married to Mary Ann Holcomb; 8, Fayette, born Dec. 28, 1791, died April 10, 1880, married to Sally Conklin, born Aug. 7, 1792, died Aug. 15, 1880, (Shaver Cemetery, Shavertown, Pa.)

THE FULLER FAMILY

I. Captain Joseph Fuller, who served in the 18th Conn. Regiment in the War of the American Revolution, was born at Colchester, New London Co., Conn., in 1723. (Bib.-59.) He removed from Connecticut to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and was of Plymouth Township, April 14, 1794, when he bought four lots of land in that township from Robert Faulkner, also of Plymouth. His purchase included House Lot No. 20 in the Second Division, Lot No. 17 in the Third Division, Lot No. 34 in the Fourth Division, and Meadow Lot No. 34. This latter lot was bounded on the east by lands of Matthias Van Loon, on the south by the river, on the west by lands of David and Stephen Allen, on the north by the highway through Plymouth Flats. Joseph Fuller died in the latter part of the year 1795. His will was made in Plymouth Township July 9, 1795, and was signed in the presence of David Allen and David Allen, Jr. It was probated Dec. 29, 1795. It names his wife Zerevia (or Zeruviah), his granddaughter Joanna Fuller and the following children: 1, Joshua, (see later); 2, Benajah, (see later); 3, Jehiel, (see later); 4, Lydia; 5, Abigail; 6, Ruth; 7, Zeruviah, and 8, Jeremiah, (see later).

II. (1). Joshua, who was doubtless the eldest son of Captain Joseph Fuller and his wife Zeruviah, was born in July, 1752, and is said to have been a soldier in the Connecticut service in the American Revolution. (P. 36 Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys, Vol. I.) He was married, in 1776, to Sybil Champion, who was born July 18, 1755, daughter of Daniel and Esther Champion. He was of Sharon, Litchfield Co., Conn., May 22, 1792, when, with his brother, Benajah, he bought from Oliver Parrish of Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., for £25, Lot 5 First Division, Lot 38 Second Division, and Lot 37 Third Division, in the township of Newport, Luzerne Co., Pa. March 20, 1793, they bought from Lawrence Myers of Kingston, Lot No. 6 in the Third Division of Kingston, which they sold in March, 1797, to Daniel Hoyt, and March 30, 1797, bought from Daniel and Ann Hoyt Lot No. 8, 300 acres, in Bedford. April 4, 1793, they bought, from Ebenezer Parrish of Plymouth, Meadow Lot No. 26, in Kingston, which, March 29, 1796, they sold to Benjamin Dorrance. March 9, 1796, they bought from Benjamin Dorrance Lot 26 of the Fifth Division of Plymouth, adjoining Bedford Township, which had been owned by Colonel George Dorrance, fell to his daughter Elizabeth, and was sold by the latter to her brother, Benjamin Dorrance. Nov. 29, 1796, they bought a half interest in the sawmill of Elias Allen at what is now Huntsville, Pa., and it is probable that at about this time they removed from Kingston to Huntsville, Pa. The will of Joshua Fuller was made May 8, 1815, and probated March 11, 1830. He died May 16, 1815, and is buried in the Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery. Some of the children of Joshua and Sybil (Champion) Fuller, all of whom are named in his will, were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Sylvanus (eldest son), married, March 3, 1806, by Elder Davis Dimock, to Betsey Winter, lived in Dallas Township in 1832; 2, Lydia, born Nov. 5, 1779, died Aug. 29, 1828, married to Benjamin, born Feb. 4, 1780, died Feb. 22, 1854, son of David and Hannah (Andrus) Gaylord-Reynolds, (see Reynolds later); 3, Abraham, born March, 1790, died Dec. 31, 1818, (Forty Fort Cemetery), was married to Rebecca ———, and was associated in a mercantile enterprise with Benjamin Reynolds and Henderson Gaylord in Plymouth, Pa.; 4, Levinna, born Feb. 24, 1785, died Jan. 21, 1871, married to Amos Brown, who was born March 17, 1775, and died July 13, 1847, and who was of Stockbridge, Mass., Sept. 16, 1800, when with Nehemiah Ide and Daniel Churchwell, also of Stockbridge, he bought from Lemuel Waklee, of Hanover, an equal undivided half of Lot 45 in Bedford Township. Amos and Levinna (Fuller) Brown are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery in Idetown, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 5, Annis, born April 25, 1787, died Nov. 17, 1878, not married, buried in Presbyterian Cemetery, Idetown, Pa.; 6, Hannah, married to Joseph L, son of Joseph, born March 15, 1768, died Jan. 21, 1853, and Mary Adams (Bulkeley) Worthington, born June 25, 1770, died about 1816. Joseph Worthington and his second wife, Sarah, born May 8, 1790, died Dec. 30, 1857, are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Idetown, Pa.; 7, Stephen, who, with his wife, Anna, was living in Ohio in 1837.

II. (2). Benajah, son of Joseph and Zeruviah Fuller, was born March 25, 1757, and died April 4, 1836. He, too, was a soldier in the Connecticut service in the American Revolution. He was of Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., May 22, 1792, when, with his brother, Joshua, he purchased the Newport Township lands described above. With the latter he was also the owner of valuable lands in Kingston Township, and also in Plymouth. About 1795-6 he removed to the vicinity of what is now Huntsville and had milling interests there as well as extensive farm properties in Bedford, Dallas and Plymouth Townships. He was married to Catharine ———, who was born Nov. 15, 1760, and died Sept. 12, 1842. His will was made in Plymouth Township, May 25, 1830, and probated Nov., 1843. Her will was made July 26, 1836, and probated Oct. 24, 1843. They are buried in the Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery. (See Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. 8, pp. 345-6-7.) Some of the children of Benajah and Catharine Fuller were: 1, Captain William, born Dec. 19, 1778, died May 2, 1848, married to Amy, born Dec. 21, 1782, died Jan. 13, 1860, daughter of Lieutenant Samuel and Marcy (Otis) Ross-Allen, (see above); 2, Lieutenant Jeremiah, married to Cynthia, born Dec. 2, 1785, died Aug. 13, 1852, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Asahel, Jr., and Huldah Drake.* His will, made April 2, 1853, and probated April 1, 1854, names his children: (1), Edward, married to Eliza, born May, 1818, died Dec. 10, 1849, daughter of John and Betsey (Fellows) Steele, (Family No. 1010—Steele); (2), Sylvina; (3), Harvey, born Oct. 30, 1820, married to Mary Santee; 3, probably Philetus, born 1782, died March 13, 1798, (Huntsville Cemetery); 4, Isaac, died in Aug., 1831, was married, Feb. 4, 1814, to Ann (or Nancy) Bulkeley, born at Colchester, Conn., July 1, 1792, daughter of Joseph and Mary Adams (Bulkeley) Worthington,† and their children were: (i), Harrison, deceased in 1843; (ii), Eliphalet; (iii), Justin M.; (iv), Isaac; (v), Ellen C., born April 16, 1830, married, Dec. 3, 1848, to David, born July 9, 1814, died July 14, 1862, son of James and Mary (Lamoreux) Nesbitt, (see Family No. 1010—Lamoreux); (vi), Frances B.; 5, Clarissa, married to Truman, son of Moses and grandson of Caleb Atherton of Plymouth, (Family No. 992—Atherton). He was Postmaster, miller, merchant and farmer at Huntsville, Pa., and, in 1852-3, was a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives; he removed, about 1856-7, to North Monroeville, Ohio; 6, Lucy (Fuller) Truesdale; 7, Lury (Fuller) Roberts; 8, Lydia, married in June 1804, to William Trucks, Jr., and living, Dec. 18, 1811, in Wayne Township, Knox Co., Ohio, where he executed a power of attorney to Daniel Ayers, of the same place, empowering him to sell his real estate in Kingston Township; 9, Louisa, married to Daniel Ruggles, removed to Ohio.

II. (3). Jehiel, son of Joseph and Zeruviah Fuller, was born in 1764, and died in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., (then Luzerne Co.), July 16, 1827. He was one of the pioneer settlers of that section of Northmoreland, now, and for many years, known as Centermoreland. He was already a resident there, Sept. 15, 1797, when he bought from Benjamin Newberry, of Exeter, Pa., Lot No. 9, in the Second tier, 150 acres, in Northmoreland. Jan. 7, 1817, he bought 80 acres of Lot No. 10, from Benjamin Dorrance. Jehiel Fuller and Hannah, his wife, of Northmoreland, Aug. 15, 1826, sold to Robert and Daniel Davenport, of Plymouth, Pa., Lot No. 34, of the River tier, Plymouth, distinguished as "Fuller's Hall." Oct. 10, 1798, he sold to James Lamoreux for $80, Lot No. 34, Fourth Division, Plymouth, 80 acres. These lots were parts of the lands purchased by Joseph Fuller from Robert Faulkner. Abraham Ferguson and Shubell R. Durland witnessed the signing of the deed to Robert and Daniel Davenport, Feb. 8, 1828. Almanza and Melinda (Fuller) Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers), sold to Orange Fuller "all the real estate which fell to us as heirs of Jehiel Fuller, late of Northmoreland," and also all their interest in the Widow Calkins farm "when she is done with the same, and all the right to the widow's third." The children of Jehiel and Hannah Fuller, who were heirs to his estate, May 2 1848, (Bib.-347) were: 1, Chauncey D., living, then, in Wethersfield, Henry Co., Ill.; 2, Jehiel, Jr., living in the same place at that time; 3, Hannah, married to Virgil Pike, (Family No. 1216

*Asahel Drake, born 1723, died in Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., April 8, 1813, was married to Naomi ———, who died in April, 1814. They had at least one son, Asahel Drake, Jr., who, March 31, 1801, bought several lots in Plymouth from Samuel Allen. His wife's name was Huldah (?). Some of the children of Asahel Drake, Jr., were: 1, Hiram, born May 31, 1790, died Jan. 7, 1856, (Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.), who, in 1817, lived in Plymouth Township, when Asahel Drake, Jr., deeded certain lands in the Fifth Division, Plymouth, to Hiram and Sarah Drake. These lands they sold May 1, 1821, to Huldah Drake. The will of Hiram Drake, made in Eaton Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., Oct. 31, 1853, and probated Feb. 14, 1856, names his wife Harriet and his son George W., born Feb. 22, 1818, died March 4, 1870, married to Jamima Wilcox, (Eatonville Cemetery), and refers to other children not named. Three sons of Hiram Drake, Francis, Asaph and Solomon, went from Plymouth to Ohio; 2, Francis, married to Catharine ———, living, Oct. 4, 1819, in Lansing, Tompkins Co., N. Y.; 3, Mary, who was married to Samuel Allen, Jr., son of Lieutenant Samuel Allen, who apparently had a son Morga Allen; 4, Rufus Drake, married to Harriet ———; 5, Cynthia, married to Jeremiah Fuller.

†Joseph Worthington, born March 15, 1768, died Jan. 21, 1853, was married (1), Sept. 10, 1791, to Mary Adams, born at Colchester, New London Co., Conn., June 25, 1770, died about 1816, daughter of Eliphalet and Ann (Bulkeley) Bulkeley. (Bib.-2). He was of New London, Conn., Dec. 23, 1805, when Jonathan Bulkeley, late of New London, now (1805) of Wilkes-Barre, sold to his wife, Mary, for $40, 100 acres of land on Harvey's Lake in Luzerne Co., Pa. He was of Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., March 31, 1809, when Charles Treadway, of Colchester, Conn., sold to him 100 acres of the same William Nicholas tract for $100. Joseph Worthington and his second wife, Sarah, born June 8, 1790, died Dec. 30, 1857, are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Idetown, Pa. Some of the children of Joseph Worthington were, (order of birth not known): 1, Joseph L., married to Hannah Fuller; 2, Eliza, married to Asaph W. Pratt, living in Binghamton, N. Y., in 1853; 3, Eliphalet B., with his wife, Sarah, lived in Sterling, Ill., in 1853; 4, Jonathan B., married, Feb. 14, 1828, to Elizabeth Orr (Family No. 1174—Orr), living in Carlisle, Lorain Co., Ohio, in 1854; 5, Thomas B., living, with his wife, Elsea, in Dennison Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1850; 7, Anna (or Nancy), the oldest child, married (1), Feb. 14, 1814, to Isaac Fuller, and married (2) to Isaac Coott.

—Pike) living in Franklin Township, Stark Co., Ill., May 2, 1848; 4, Orange, deceased, May 2, 1848, his widow Hepsibah and seven of his children living in Franklin, Stark Co., Ill., May 2, 1848. Two of the children of Orange Fuller are buried in Centermoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery, (1), Polly, born 1803, died Aug. 14, 1825, and (2), Arid, born July 27, 1811, died Aug. 1, 1829. His other children, all living May 2, 1848, were, (order of birth not known): (3), Mahala, married to Lemuel L. Dorrance, (Family No. 1007—Dorrance); (4), Chauncey D.; (5), Williston K.; (6), Miles A.; (7), Benjamin A.; (8), George Washington; (9), Ypsilanti, the last two named, minors; 5, Ambrose, deceased, May 2, 1848, (died May 29, 1845) his widow Hannah and all his ten children, excepting Clinton, who then lived in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., and Ansel, who lived in Wethersfield, Henry Co., Ill., living in Osceola, Stark Co., Ill. The children of Ambrose and Hannah Fuller were: (1), Ansel; (2), Laton; (3), Clinton; (4), Walter; (5), Lucy M., married to William Wallace Winslow; (6), Jonthy; (7), Ambrose, Jr.; (8), Hannah; (9), Melinda; (10), Nancy, the last three named minors; 6, Henry H., married (1) to Lucy, daughter of James and Christian (Richards) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding), who was born Nov. 6, 1798, and died Feb. 25, 1826, (Centermoreland, Pa., Cemetery). He was married (2) to Mary, daughter of Matthew and Mary (May) Phenix of Northmoreland, (Family No. 1016—Phenix). The children of Henry H. Fuller were, (four first named by first marriage): (1), Nancy, married to Samuel, died in 1876, aed. 71 years, 5 months, son of Jonathan and Mary (Jameson) Hunlock, (Family No. 992—Hunlock); (2), Caroline, born about 1822 (or 1819), died May 10, 1886-9; (3), Mary, married to William H. Butler, living in Wyoming Township, Stark Co., Ill., May 2, 1848; (4), Isaac, a mariner, whereabouts unknown in 1848; (5), Jehiel; (6), Anson; (7), Henry H., Jr. Mrs. Mary (Phenix) Fuller and her two sons, Jehiel and Anson, lived in Peru, Huron Co., Ohio, and her son, Henry H., a minor, in Monroe, Wyoming Co., Pa., presumably with his grandparents, May 2, 1848.

II. (8). Jeremiah, son of Joseph and Zeruviah Fuller, was born in 1776, and died Oct. 31, 1837. He is said to have been the first school teacher at Centermoreland, now Wyoming Co., Pa. (Bib.-56.) He is buried in the cemetery there. May 2, 1823, he bought from Benjamin Dorrance Lot No. 6, Second tier, Northmoreland, and April 13, 1831, he sold 58 acres of this farm to the Rev. John Rhodes, born July 31, 1771, died June 24, 1853, with his wife, Susan, born April 1, 1777, died July 27, 1850, buried in Centermoreland Cemetery. Oct. 27, 1837, Jeremiah Fuller and his wife, Susan, sold 90 acres of Lot No. 6 to Joel House, late of Connecticut.

THE REYNOLDS FAMILY

I. William Reynolds, presumed to have been originally of Gloucestershire, England, and later of Bermuda, emigrated, about 1629, to Salem, in the Puritan Colony of Massachusetts Bay. II. James, son of William Reynolds, who was born about 1625, took the Oath of Allegiance at Kingston, R. I., May 20, 1671, and died there in 1702. His wife was Dorothy ———, and their second son, James, Jr., was born Oct. 28, 1650. III. James, Jr. son of James and Dorothy Reynolds, was born Oct. 28, 1650, at Kingston, R. I., and was married, Feb. 19, 1685, to Mary, born Sept. 8, 1660, daughter of James and Deliverance (Potter) Greene. Their children were: 1, James, born Feb. 20, 1686; 2, William, born about 1698; 3, Elizabeth. IV. (2). William, born about 1698, son of James, Jr., and Mary (Green) Reynolds, was married, Sept. 18, 1729, to Deborah, daughter of Benjamin and Humility (Coggleshall) Greene of East Greenwich, R. I. About 1759 he removed to the colony of New York and in Sept., 1769, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa. He settled in Plymouth, Pa., in 1771. Although nearly 80 years of age he was enrolled in the Alarm List attached to the Third, or Plymouth, Company, Captain Asaph Whittlesey, of the 24th Conn. Militia, and with his youngest son, William, who was slain, took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. His will, made March 9, 1790, witnessed by Noah Murray, Jonah Rogers and Philemon Bidlack, was probated Jan. 16, 1792, and named his son, David, executor. He died in 1791. The children of William and Deborah (Green) Reynolds were: 1, Sarah, born March 31, 1730, married, in 1751, to Benjamin Jones; 2, Caleb, born June 21, 1731, married, Jan. 23, 1755, at Voluntown, Conn., to Sarah Anderson; 3, David, born Jan. 17, 1734, (see later); 4, Griffin, born June 16, 1737; 5, Benjamin, born Oct. 25, 1740; 6, James, born Aug. 21, 1748; 8, William, Jr., born about 1754, killed at the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. (Bib.-1.)

V. David, son of William and Deborah (Green) Reynolds, born at West Greenwich, R. I., June 7, 1734, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., in 1769. He was married twice. His second wife, to whom he was married in 1779, was Mrs. Hannah (Andrus) Gaylord, who was born in Connecticut in 1739 and was the widow of Charles Gaylord, a soldier in the Continental Army, who died in 1777. David Reynolds inherited, from his father, a full right of land in Plymouth Township. He died July 8, 1816. His second wife died Oct. 17, 1823. The children of David Reynolds by his first marriage were: 1, Joseph, born in 1766, died Feb. 4, 1828, whose widow, Jemima, was appointed administratrix of his estate, Feb. 23, 1828, with Jared R. Baldwin, surety in $800; 2, Mary, (see later). The only child of David Reynolds by his second marriage was: 3, Benjamin, born Feb. 4, 1780, (see later).

VI. (2). Mary, daughter of David Reynolds, was married to Levi Brunson, born April 2, 1760, died Feb. 6, 1835. Levi and Mary (Reynolds) Brunson lived in Plymouth, now Jackson Township, on a farm adjoining what is now the Conyngham "Hill Side Farm." There they died and there they are buried in a burial plot on the property now owned by the estate of Colonel G. Murray Reynolds. In his will, made Jan. 2, 1835, and probated Aug. 11, 1835, he set apart one-half an acre of land for a burial ground. A considerable portion of the plot has been washed away by the waters of a branch of Tobey's Creek. A few stones remained in position in 1917, and among these are those of Levi Brunson and his wife, Mary. The stone of the latter bears no dates. The will of Levi Brunson names the following children: 1, Elizabeth (Brunson) Davenport; 2, Sarah (Brunson) Carle; 3, Polly (Brunson) Campbell; 4, Amanda (Brunson) Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers), married to Simeon F., son of Jonah, Jr., and Catharine (Roberts) Rogers; 5, Lorinda Brunson; 6, David, probably David Brunson, who was married, Feb. 10, 1811, to Rebecca, daughter of Joze (or Joseph) Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers); 7, Clark, (probably) who was married (1) to Electa, daughter of Tibbals and Sarah Baldwin, and married (2) to Julia Ann, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Morehouse) Roberts, (Family No. 988—Roberts); 8, Ira, probably married (1) to Catharine, died July 22, 1833, daughter of Jonah, Jr., and Catharine (Roberts) Rogers, and married (2) to Laura, daughter of Levi, born Jan. 31, 1758, died Oct. 5, 1852, and Phebe (Gaylord) Frisbie, born Nov. 19, 1767, died Oct. 5, 1852), (Bib.-2); 9, Palmer Brunson. The writer is not certain concerning the marriages of David and Ira Brunson. There are authentic records, however, that such persons were married, and Jonah Rogers, Jr., had a daughter, Catharine Brunson, living in 1821. In his will Levi Brunson gave his farm consisting of parts of Lots 49 and 50 and parts of Lots 2 and 4, the former in the Fifth Division and the latter in the First Division of Plymouth, to Miner Carle, for "services by Silas Miner."

Tibbals Baldwin, referred to above, was a son of Jared and Damaris (Booth) Baldwin. Jared Baldwin's will was made in Jan., 1814, and was probated Jan. 19, 1819. It names his wife, Damaris, died in 1816, and the following children: 1, Gabriel; 2, Jude, born June 14, 1774, died June 9, 1821, married to Eleanor, daughter of Amariah Watson. His children, living in 1822, were: (1), Burr, living in Connecticut, July 14, 1819; (2), Abel, born Feb. 6, 1803, died May 28, 1854, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery), married to Philena, daughter of Rev. Griffin and Hannah (Rogers) Lewis, (Family No. 988—Rogers); (3), Watson; (4), Lewis; (5), Ambrose; (6), Eleanor; 3, John; 4, Ann's children; 5, Huldah; 6, Sarah's grandchildren, Prue and Lucy; 7, the two sons of Amos, whose wife's name was Mary A. He removed to Pitcher, Chenango Co., N. Y.; 8, Tibbals, whose will, made May 6, 1818, and probated Aug. 15, 1818, names his wife, Sarah, his daughter Electa Brunson, married to Clark Brunson, and his daughter, Laura Vosburgh, married to Daniel Vosburgh. He also named, in his will, his grandson Amza Baldwin, born March 8, 1785, died Dec. 23, 1850, (Huntsville Cemetery), and his grandson Samuel Baldwin Gaskill. He owned, in addition to his Luzerne Co., Pa., holdings, 200 acres lying on the Wacamatomack Creek, twenty miles up the Muskingum River from Zanesville, Ohio, which he divided between Samuel B. Gaskill and his daughters, giving to each one-sixth. Almon, Major and Rebecca Church were witnesses and Griffin Lewis and Jude Baldwin were named executors.

VI. (3). Benjamin, born Feb. 4, 1780, died Feb. 22, 1854, son of David and Hannah (Andrus) Gaylord-Reynolds, was married (1), March 22, 1801, to Lydia, born Nov. 5, 1779, died Aug. 29, 1828, daughter of Joshua and Sybil (Champion) Fuller, (see above). He was married (2) to Ruey, born Feb. 14, 1786, died Aug. 26, 1835, daughter of Daniel and Anne (Gunn) Hoyt, of Kingston, Pa. He was married (3), Feb. 6, 1837, to Mrs. Olivia M., born Sept. 3, 1791, died April 2, 1862, daughter of Samuel Frost and widow of Major Orlando Porter. The children of Benjamin and Lydia (Fuller) Reynolds were: 1, Hon. William Champion, born Dec. 9, 1801, died Jan. 25, 1869, married, June 19, 1832, to Jane Holbertson, born April 3, 1812, died March 6, 1874, daughter of John and Frances (Holbertson) Smith, of Plymouth, Pa.; 2, Chauncey Andrus, born Dec. 31, 1803, died Nov. 23, 1868, married to Mary, born Sept. 22, 1804, died Feb., 1863, daughter of Lazarus and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Denison, (see Family No. 1252—Carpenter); 3, Hannah, born Oct. 22, 1806, died Aug. 21, 1845, married to Dr. Andrew, son of Jacob and Deborah (Sutton) Bedford, (see Family No. 986—Bedford); 4, Clara, born 1811, died May 1, 1876; 5, Elijah Wadhams, born Jan. 18, 1813, died Sept. 25, 1869, married, Nov. 21, 1842, to Mary Lucinda, born Jan. 13, 1822, died Nov. 21, 1897, daughter of Pierce and Temperance (Colt) Butler; 6, Joshua Fuller, born April 5, 1814, died May 1, 1874, (see later); 7, George, born May 29, 1817, died June 25, 1835; 8, Abram H., born July 14, 1819, died Dec. 4, 1890, married, March 26, 1862, to Elizabeth, born Oct. 22, 1832, died Sept. 13, 1901, daughter of Ziba and Nancy (Hurlbut) Hoyt; 9, Emily Elizabeth, born April 21, 1822, died June 11, 1896, married, Feb. 14, 1847, to Dr. Robert Hamilton Tubbs, of Kingston, Pa. (Chiefly from Reynolds Family by O. J. Harvey, Esq. Bib.-59.)

VIII. Joshua Fuller, son of Benjamin and Lydia (Fuller) Reynolds, born April 5, 1814, died May 1, 1874, was married, May 22, 1849, to Elizabeth, daughter of Hon. William and Laura (Smith) Hancock, (see Family No. 948—Hancock and Family No. 948—Obadiah Smith). She was born in 1824 and died in her 90th year, at Scranton, Pa., Nov. 23, 1913. They are buried in the Reynolds plot in Forty Fort Cemetery. Some of the children of Joshua Fuller and Elizabeth B. (Hancock) Reynolds were: 1, George B.; 2, Harry B.; 3, Laura, married to James P. Dickson, son of Thomas Dickson, President of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Co., who was born March 26, 1824, married, Aug. 31, 1846, to Mary Augusta, daughter of Roswell E. and Sophia (Raymond) Marvine, and died at Morristown, N. J., July 31, 1884; 4, Clara; 5, Frank Fuller, born June 1, 1851, died Feb. 28, 1869; 6, Elizabeth, born June 6, 1868, died March 25, 1881.

THE IDE FAMILY

Nehemiah Ide was born at Stockbridge, Mass., Nov. 24, 1746. He served in the American Revolution as a private in Captain Thomas Williams' Company of Minute Men of Colonel John Patterson's Regiment, and on the alarm of April 19, 1775, marched from Stockbridge to Cambridge. His name appears on the muster roll of the same company, dated Aug. 1, 1775, having enlisted May 5, 1775. It also appears in the company return and in an order for a bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Fort No. 3, Charlestown, Oct. 27, 1775. He was Sergeant in Captain David Pixley's (Stockbridge) Company, Colonel John Brown's Regiment, engaged June 30, 1777, service to July 26, 1777, in the Northern Department. (Bib.-107.) Nehemiah Ide was married to Mary Bennett, born Nov. 27, 1755, died Nov. 16, 1850. About 1800 they removed from Stockbridge, Mass., to Luzerne Co., Pa., and Sept. 16, 1800, Nehemiah Ide, Amos Brown, (see Family No. 1010—Fuller) and Daniel Churchwell, all of Stockbridge, Mass., bought from Lemuel Wakley of Hanover, Luzerne Co., Pa., an equal undivided half of Lot 45 in Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Nehemiah Ide, for whom Idetown was named, and his family, were Presbyterians. He died Feb. 8, 1823, and, with his wife and a number of their descendants, is buried in the Presbyterian Church Yard in Idetown. Some of the children of Nehemiah and Mary (Bennett) Ide were (order of birth not certain): 1, Elijah, born Oct. 22, 1781, died March 16, 1860, married, Jan. 1, 1812, to Elizabeth Parker, born Oct. 12, 1787, died Jan. 23, 1841; 2, Nathaniel, married, June 15, 1809, by Rev. Ard Hoyt, to Mercy, daughter of Samuel and Marcy (Otis) Ross-Allen, (see Allen family above), some of whose children were: Silas, Mary and Perrin Ross, baptised Feb. 9, 1814, and Lydia, baptised June 21, 1817; 3, William, born May 20, 1786, died Feb. 3, 1854, married to Hannah Sweet, born Dec. 3, 1795, died May 23, 1863; 4, Lucy, married, Sept. 21, 1809, to Otis Allen, son of Samuel and Marcy (Otis) Ross-Allen, (Allen family above); 5, John, born June 10, 1789, died 1866, married to Sally, born Sept. 10, 1797, died 1870, daughter of Edward, died 1814, and Lowly (Nash) Foster, born Oct. 23, 1759, died Sept. 10, 1852, daughter of Phineas and Mary (Hamlin) Nash; 6, Nehemiah, born March 7, 1793, died Sept. 15, 1871, married to Barbara M. Sweet, born Dec. 26, 1801, died Jan. 9, 1865; 7, Oliver, born March 27, 1798, died Nov. 4, 1870, married to Amanda Allen, born Nov. 4, 1800, died Aug. 19, 1876. John, Nehemiah and Oliver Ide and their wives are buried in the Lehman, Pa., Cemetery. Elijah and William Ide and their wives are buried in the Idetown Cemetery. In the latter cemetery there is also the grave of Ezra Ide, born May 18, 1782, died April 29, 1842, and that of his wife, Sally H., born May 20, 1795, died Sept. 16, 1867. Mrs. Sally H. Ide was a daughter of Charles and Martha (Pierce) Harris of Kingston Township. (See Family No. 1021—Harris.) The writer is not informed whether he was a son of Nehemiah and Mary (Bennett) Ide.

Phineas Nash came to the Wyoming Valley in May, 1772, on "Messenger's Right." His name appears in various lists of settlers after that date and in 1776 appears on the Miscellaneous List in the Westmoreland Tax Lists. In 1777 and 1778 he lived in Plymouth District and his name is on the Plymouth lists. In 1774 he was elected to serve as a Grand Juror. He was married to Mary Hamlin, born about 1734, died in Plymouth, Pa., July 16, 1802, aed. 68 years. He went from the Wyoming Valley to Shelburne, Vt., where he died, aed. 93 years. One of the daughters of Phineas and Mary (Hamlin) Nash was Loly, born Oct. 20, 1759, died Sept. 10, 1852, (Lehman, Pa., Cemetery), who was married, Feb. 10, 1791, to Edward Foster, who died in 1814. Their children were: 1, James, born Nov. 14, 1794; 2, Phineas Nash, born Dec. 26, 1795, married to Mrs. Mary Bailey (Johnson) Bulford, daughter of the Rev. His wife, Elizabeth, and sons, Henry and William, were appointed executors, and Daniel and Peter Kuykendall signed as witnesses. The records of the Reformed Dutch Churches of the Minisink Valley have data pertaining to a very large number of Kirkendall families. (Bib.-240.)

Henry and Maria (La Bar) Kirkendall* settled in Sussex Co., N. J., and some of their children were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Eliza, married to John, son of John and Catharine Shafer, (Family No. 50—Shafer); 2, Margaret, born 1800, died March 29, 1848, married to Peter, born Dec. 6, 1797, died Dec. 8, 1889, son of Jacob and Margaret (Shafer) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps, No. 50—Shafer); 3, William Wheeler, born Dec. 25, 1885, died Dec. 10, 1845, who was married to Maria Dereemer, born May 28, 1807, died Jan. 23, 1882, (Trucksville, Amanda, to whom he gave his house and blacksmith shop, and the following children: 1, Margaret; 2, Thomas; 3, John; 4, Sarah (Bennett) Fell, probably born about 1783, died Nov. 12, 1845, married to Hugh Fell, born 1782, died Dec. 26, 1851, (Mosier Cemetery, Pittston, Pa.), (Family No. 1334—Fell); 5, Clarissy (Bennett) Fitch, probably married (1) to Gideon Fitch, born 1771, died Feb. 17, 1843, (Fitch Cemetery, Lockville, Pa.), (Family No. 1334—Fitch) as his last wife, and married (2) to Jacob W. Brown. It also names three grandchildren, John McCoy, William McCoy and Elizabeth McCoy, (Family No. 1041—McCoy), and appointed his widow, Amanda, and Harris Jenkins to serve as executors.

*Samuel Curkendall, who was assessed in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1819, was, perhaps, a son of Henry and Maria (La Bar) Kirkendall.

Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery). William Wheeler Kirkendall was an expert fuller and finisher of cloth and is said to have induced the Rev. Jacob Rice to establish the fulling mill at Trucksville, Pa. He lived for a number of years at what is now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was probably a fuller at the Shoemaker Mill for part of the time. He was assessed as a clothier in Kingston in 1830, as Constable in 1832 and in 1833 owned an interest, with the Amblers, in the Breese and Wright fulling mill in the Abraham's Creek Gorge.

William Wheeler and Maria (Dereemer) Kirkendall were the founders of the Kirkendall family of Dallas borough and the city of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (See Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys, Vol. I, p. 316.)

Mrs. Maria (La Bar) Kirkendall, widow of Henry Kirkendall, was married (2), in Sussex Co., N. J., to Philip Kunkle, who was born in 1778, and died Sept. 28, 1853. They are buried in the Trucksville, Pa., Methodist Episcopal Cemetery. Some of their children were: (1), Sally Ann, (see later); (2), Jemima, born Sept. 7, 1808, died May 7, 1858, married, as first wife, to Abraham Ryman, born Aug. 21, 1817, died Dec. 17, 1873, son of Peter, born 1776-7, in New Jersey, died in Dallas, Pa., May 17, 1838, and Mary (Sweazy) Ryman, born in New Jersey, 1781-2, died in Dallas, Pa., April 10, 1854. Peter and Mary (Sweazy) Ryman and their daughter, Eliza (Ryman) Baldwin, born Sept. 25, 1807, died April 11, 1880, are buried in the Rice Cemetery at Dallas, Pa. Abraham Ryman was married (2), as her second husband, to Mrs. Elizabeth (Sharps) Jones, born Feb. 19, 1823, died Aug. 8, 1861, daughter of Peter and Margaret (Kirkendall) Sharps, who is buried in Gravel Hill Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa., (Family No. 988—Sharps); (3), Conrad, born 1810, died 1869, married (1) to Polly Wheeler, born 1810, died 1841, married (2) to Sarah J. Oakley, March 31, 1842. She was born in 1814 and died in 1852; married (3) to Sarah Goble, born 1819, died 1898, (Wardan Cemetery, Dallas, Pa.); (4), Lydia, born Feb. 10, 1813, died Aug. 30, 1902, married to William Allen, born Oct. 5, 1820, died Oct. 9, 1828, (Presbyterian Yard, Idetown, Pa.), (Family No. 1010—Allen); 5, Wesley, married to Marietta, born June 29, 1820, died Oct., 1903, daughter of Nathaniel and Thankful (Forbes) Goss, (Family No. 1041—Goss).

Sally Ann, daughter of Philip and Maria (La Bar) Kirkendall-Kunkle, was born in 1807, and died Oct. 27, 1866. She was married to the Rev. John P., son of the Rev. Jacob and Sarah (Cook) Rice.

THE RICE FAMILY

1. Abraham Rice of Providence Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., died previous to April, 1817, when in a petition presented to the Orphans' Court his heirs were named as his widow, Lucy, and the following children: Joshua, Amos, Roswell, Asa, Mary, Lucinda, Hannah, Abigail, Betsey and Sophia.

2. James Rice was of Kingston Township. June 23, 1794, when he bought from Anning Owen five acres of Lot 14 of the Third Division of Kingston.

3. Barbara Rice was born May 5, 1756, and died May 3, 1852, and is buried in the Rice Cemetery, at Dallas, Pa. Jan. 9, 1819, James and Polly Murphy of Kingston sold to Barbara Rice, also of Kingston, for $500, part of Lot 1 of the Third Division of Kingston. The deed describes six acres of land from which there was reserved two acres which had been sold to Henry Buckingham before John Murphy of Pittston sold the land to James Murphy of Kingston, in 1816, a lane twelve feet wide off the east end of the lot was also reserved, having been sold to Isaac Carpenter.

4. Christion Rice, said to have been a son of Christopher Rice of New Jersey, was born in New Jersey, Jan. 26, 1780, and was of Bedford Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 4, 1816, when he bought part of Lot No. 3 of the First Division of Bedford from Jonah and Ellen McLellon. In Aug., 1816, he bought part of Lot 4 in Bedford from John, Jr., and Elsey Hunneywell. Christion Rice was married to Sarah McFerran, born Feb. 24, 1780, died July 7, 1856, (Rice Cemetery, Dallas, Pa.). She was without doubt related to Jasper Abbott of Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa., who was born Oct. 5, 1767, and died June 28, 1835. He made his will May 1, 1827, and it was probated July 30, 1835. He bequeathed all his lands to Jasper Hixon, made bequests to Polly and Amy, daughters of John Hixon; to Sally, wife of Christion Rice, and to Polly and Elizabeth, daughters of Christion Rice. He gave the large Bible to Elizabeth, daughter of Christion Rice, and named Jacob Rice and John Hixon executors. Christion Rice died in Dallas, Pa., Aug. 7, 1865, and is buried in the Rice Cemetery there. The children of Christion and Sally (McFerran) Rice were: (1), Elizabeth, born Nov. 17, 1813, married, May 7, 1834, to William

C., born Nov. 27, 1812, son of Peter B., born Sept. 1, 1787, died Sept. 11, 1854, (Rice Cemetery, Dallas), and Rebecca (Wolfe) Roushey; (2), Polly; (3), Colonel Jacob, born June 16, 1817, died March 6, 1892, (Woodlawn Cemetery, Dallas, Pa.), married June 25, 1837, to Susan, born 1816, died 1898, daughter of Alexander and Margaret (Johnsten) Ferguson, (Family No. 1016—Ferguson), some of whose children are: Ziba B., George H., William H., Sarah J. and James L.

5. Rev. Jacob Rice,* born June 30, 1783, was of Knowlton, Sussex Co., N. J., Sept. 27, 1814, when he bought from Joseph Swetland of Kingston, for $2,500, Lots 21 and 22, 381 acres, of the Fourth Division of Kingston, the site of Trucksville, Luzerne Co., Pa. This thriving town was named for William Trucks, who, April 22, 1803, bought these lands from Joel Lucas, and who, as early as 1811, was operating a saw-mill and a grist mill there. Rev. Jacob Rice was a local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church and in 1823–35 was a trustee of the Wyoming Circuit. In 1823 the trustees of Wyoming Circuit were Thomas Borbridge, Darius Williams, Jacob Rice, Comfort Carey, David Thomson, Gilbert Barnes and Myron B. Helmes. In 1835 the trustees were Edmund Taylor, Jacob Rice, Reuben Holgate, Darius Williams, Sharp D. Lewis and Oliver Lewis. Jacob Rice continued the operation of the sawmill and grist mill at Trucksville and about 1835–6 established a fulling mill there, which was subsequently enlarged into a woolen factory.

Rev. Jacob Rice was married, in Sussex Co., N. J., to Sarah Cook, who was born March 27, 1785, and died Oct. 9, 1863, daughter of Asa Cook, born Sept. 11, 1797, died Oct. 31, 1874, is buried on the Rice plot in Trucksville, Pa., Methodist Episcopal Cemetery, beside the Rev. Jacob Rice, who died Dec. 18, 1858. Some of the children of Rev. Jacob and Sarah (Cook) Rice were: (1), Rev. John, manufacturer, merchant, and local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church, born Aug. 5, 1805, died July 26, 1886, married (1) to Sally Ann, born 1807, died Oct. 27, 1866, daughter of Philip and Mary (La Bar) Kirkendall-Kunkle, married (2), June 2, 1867, to Polly, widow of his brother, Asa C. Rice; (2), Margaret, married, Oct. 24, 1834, to Lyman Munford; (3), Levi C., born June 28, 1810, died Sept. 6, 1880, married to Elizabeth Carle, born March 27, 1816, died June 27, 1885, one of whose children was Wilbur F., born Aug. 16, 1834, died April 24, 1915, lived in Jackson Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., married to Susan A. Letteer, born Oct. 12, 1837; (4), Isaac, born May 23, 1812, married (1), Jan. 24, 1837, to Ellen Pugh, born Oct. 6, 1816, died March 28, 1840, married (2), Nov. 26, 1840, to Prudence F. Foster, died Jan. 2, 1867, married (3) to Mrs. Polly (Pierce) Payne, born June 2, 1810, died Nov. 4, 1896, widow of Bester Payne; (5), Asa C., born July 15, 1816, died March 3, 1862, married to Polly ———, who was married (2) to his brother, Rev. John P. Rice; (6), Mary Ann, born Feb. 1, 1819, died May 7, 1894, married to Judge James, born Jan. 10, 1817, died Jan. 9, 1890, son of Matthew and Mary (May) Phenix, (Clark Cemetery, Orcutt's Grove, Wyoming Co., Pa.), (Phenix family later); (7), Sarah Caroline, married to Dr. Joel Jackson, born March 4, 1818, died March 21, 1902, son of "Elder" Joel and Mary (Jackson) Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers); (8), Rev. Charles Lane, member Wyoming Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, born Oct. 22, 1827, died May 29, 1903, married, Sept. 21, 1852, to Ann Louise Wells, who died Sept. 22, 1902. (see Family No. 1010—Ross).

6. John Rice of Kingston Township, to whom Jacob and Sarah Rice, Jan. 6, 1817, sold 100 acres of Lots 21 and 22 of the Fourth Division of Kingston, and who, with his wife Lydia, June 22, 1818, sold to James Luce 10 acres of this land, and who, with his wife Naomi, Dec. 1, 1826, sold to Abi Spellman of Kingston, 100 acres of Lots 21 and 22, reserving 10 acres sold to James Luce and one acre sold by John and Lydia, May 31, 1820, to William Hagerman.

THE PHENIX FAMILY

Matthew Phenix, born Jan. 10, 1766, died Aug. 22, 1873, aed. 107 years, 7 months, 12 days, and his wife, Mary (May) Brown-Phenix, born July 25, 1781, died Feb. 19, 1858, are buried in Clark Cemetery, Orcutt's, Wyoming Co., Pa. Some of their children were: 1, Sarah, born July 8, 1805, died Nov. 7, 1895, married to Samuel Jackson, (Family No. 992—Jackson), born March 30, 1805, died April 7, 1888; 2, Mary, married to Henry H. Fuller, (Family No. 1010—Fuller); 3, Jane, born Jan. 14, 1809, died April 1, 1886, married to Alfred W. Jaquish, born Sept. 16, 1810, died

*It appears probable to the writer that Barbara Rice, referred to above, was the widow of Christopher Rice of Knowlton, Sussex Co., N. J., and that Christopher Rice, Rev. Jacob Rice and John Rice were brothers and sons of Christopher and Barbara Rice.

Dec. 17, 1874, (Centermoreland, Pa., Cemetery); 4, John, born Aug. 2, 1813, married to Theodosia Barnes, born 1813, died March 14, 1864; 5, James, born Jan. 10, 1817, died Jan. 9, 1890, married to Mary Ann Rice, born Feb. 1, 1819, died May 7, 1894, (Family No. 1016—Rice); 6, Hervey, born Jan. 15, 1820, married to Rebecca Fleming; 7, Adah F., born Dec. 31, 1822, died Feb. 13, 1887, married to Thomas J. Lyon, (as second wife) born Dec. 9, 1816, died Dec. 9, 1882, whose first wife, Joanna Murphy, was born May 5, 1810, and died April 24, 1861.

Mary (May) Brown-Phenix was married (1) to ——— Brown, and three of her children by her first marriage were: 1, Severn, married (1) to Deliverance Rogers, born March, 1805, died Nov. 6, 1825, (Family No. 988—Rogers), married (2) to ———; 2, John; 3, Fanny, born in Delaware, N. Y., June 26, 1803, died June 25, 1886, married to Harry H. Brown, born in Lebanon, Conn., Oct. 6, 1795, died Jan. 6, 1879, (Centermoreland, Pa., Cemetery).

THE STARK FAMILY

I. Aaron Stark, born in England, in 1608, died, in New London, Conn., in 1685. He served in the Company of Captain John Mason in the Pequod War of 1637 and also in the Narragansett War. He was of New London, Conn., in 1653 and was admitted a Freeman in Stonington and in New London, (1669). Some of the children of Aaron Stark were: 1, Aaron, Jr., born about 1654, married to Mehitable Shaw; 2, John, born about 1656; 3, William, born in 1664, (see later); 4, Margaret, married to John Fish; 5, Elizabeth, married to Josiah Haynes.

II. (3). William, son of Aaron Stark, was born in 1664, at Mystic, Conn., and died at Groton, Conn., Sept. 8, 1730, (buried in the Stark Burying Ground at Groton). He was married to Elizabeth ———, and four of their children were: (1), William, born at Groton, Conn., in 1687; (2), Daniel; (3), Phebe, married to Thomas Walworth; (4), Christopher, born 1698, died 1776.

III. (4). Christopher, son of William and Elizabeth Stark, was born at Groton, Conn., in 1698, and was married, April 1, 1722, to Joanna, daughter of William and Abigail Walworth. In 1742 he was commissioned Ensign of the Third Company of Groton, Conn., Militia. He was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and his name appears in the Indian deed of 1754, (see Harvey's Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley, I, p. 271-275). Prior to 1769 he removed with his family to Pawling Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., and in that year his sons, James, Christopher, Jr., Aaron and William, came to the Wyoming Valley and were among the settlers driven out by the Pennamites in Nov., 1769. Christopher, Jr., and Aaron returned to Wyoming in June, 1770, but were again driven out with the other settlers. Aaron Stark again came to the valley in Oct., 1771, and in the same, or the following year, his brothers, James and Daniel, and his father, Cornelius, Sr., all came to Wyoming. Christopher Stark, Sr., died in the Wyoming Valley in 1776. Some of the children of Christopher and Joanna (Walworth) Stark were, (order of birth not known): (1), Hannah; (2), Phebe, married to Increase Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings); (3), Christopher, Jr., who described himself as of Northumberland Co., Pa., April 5, 1785, when he sold lands in "Stokestown" to Daniel Cornwall, which had been "laid out to Samuel Stubbs;" (4), Elizabeth, married to Samuel Treat; (5), Aaron, (see later); (6), Marv; (7), James, born May 22, 1734, (see later); (8), Daniel, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; (9), William, (see later). In 1790 the only Stark families residing in Luzerne Co., Pa., as returned in the Federal Census of that year, were those of Jonathan, whose family consisted of his wife, Mary, and one daughter, and Samuel, whose family consisted of two sons under 16 years and three females. Both of these were probably sons of Aaron Stark, and Samuel had been married to Mrs. Abigail Richards, the widow of Captain Asaph Whittlesey,* who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778,

*In March, 1789, Job Hart, Jr., administrator of the estate of Isaac Ball, brought suit, in the Court of Common Pleas at Wilkes-Barre, against Abigail Richards, administratrix of the estate of Asaph Whittlesey. Sept. 3, 1790, Jesse Fell, Sheriff, sold to Putnam Catlin (suit of Job Hart, administrator of the estate of Isaac Ball, versus "Abigail Richards, now Stark, wife of Samuel," administratrix of the estate of Asaph Whittlesey, a right of land in Plymouth. Jan. 23, 1805, Abigail Stark, widow of Asaph Whittlesey, filed a petition in the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre, praying for a division of the estate, in which Anna Camp, the wife of Joel Camp, and Abigail and Laura Whittlesey are named as all the daughters and heirs of Asaph Whittlesey.

(Family No. 994—Whittlesey). Samuel Stark was assessed as a taxpayer in Plymouth in 1792. In 1790 Aaron Stark with five sons under 16 and one female, James Stark with one son over 16, four sons under 16 and three females, and John Stark with one son under 16 and three females, all lived in "Pawlington," Dutchess Co., N. Y. Asahel and Nathan Stark lived, in 1790, at Stephentown, Albany (late Rensselaer Co.), N. Y. These are the only Starks named in the Federal Census of 1790, as residents of New York and Pennsylvania.

IV. (5). Aaron, son of Christopher and Johannah (Walworth) Stark, was born Nov. 7, 1732, and was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He was admitted an inhabitant of Wilkes-Barre and participated in the allotment of lands in April, 1772. He removed to Pittston about 1774, and was a taxpayer there in 1776, 1777 and 1778. His wife, Margaret, was the administratrix of his estate, and some of their children were: (1), William; (2), Jonathan,* who, with his wife, Mary, lived in Pittston June 22, 1798; (3), Daniel, who was married to Charlotte Worden, some of whose children were: (i), Sarah, born May 20, 1801, died June 27, 1864, married to Isaac, born Sept. 17, 1801, died April 19, 1860, son of Isaac and Nancy (Newcomb) Wilcox, (Wilcox family later); (ii), John D.; (iii), Olive, married to James Worden, whose daughter, Louise, born March 18, 1837, died May 27, 1855, is buried in Cooper Cemetery, and whose son, Hiram B., of Plainsville, was married, Dec. 7, 1854, to Mary Ann Miller and had at least three children, James, married to Elizabeth Joyce of Carbondale, and Fuller of Harrisburg, Pa., and Anna, who, in 1899, lived with her father, Hiram B., at Whitney Point, N. Y., and later at Dalton, Pa.; (iv), Hannah, married to Jacob, son of George and Elizabeth Miller, (see Family No. 990—Stocker-Miller).

IV. James, son of Cornelius and Joanna (Walworth) Stark, was born May 22, 1734, came to the Wyoming Valley in 1769 and participated in the allotment of lands in April, 1772. He is said to have been a soldier in the War of the Revolution (Bib.-59), but, returning to the Wyoming Valley, died there of smallpox, July 20, 1777. He was married, in 1758, to Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. Henry Carey of Dutchess Co., N. Y. He described himself as a yeoman of Wilkes-Barre, District of Westmoreland, of Conn., in a deed, by which, Aug. 28, 1775, he exchanged Lots 13, 14 and 15, 750 acres of land, bounded by the great road and cornering on lands of James Green†, with Thomas Weeks, for two lots of land and one sawmill in *Jonathan Stark sold to Jesse Gardner, (Family No. 14—Gardner), June 23, 1791, ten acres of Lot 18, in Pittston, reserving a road two rods wide on the north side of the lot. Sept. 24, 1792, he sold to him part of Lot No. 27. He sold to William Hooker Smith, Oct. 28, 1793, for 10 shillings "the privilege to dig and raise any iron ore and fossil stone or pit cole, or any other mineral whatever, which the said Smith may find, dig, or raise on the land of me, the said Stark, with the privilege of roads and ways to carry off by teams or other ways, any oar or mineral whatever, but not so as to injure meadows or grain, but to go on and off with teams when it may be least damage to said Stark. And if said Stark is, at any time, desirous to join with said Smith to raise oar and mineral, he, said Stark, has liberty to join in partnership or dig separate, without denial or molestation of said Smith, but so as not to interfere with each other." Dr. William Hooker Smith conveyed this right, Aug. 29, 1811, to James and Sarah (Smith) Sutton. (See Family No. 50—Sutton-Smith.) June 22, 1798, Jonathan Stark sold to Henry Hutchins of Kingston (see Family No. 1217—Hutchins) 70 acres, being one-half of River Lot 7, which he described as having belonged, formerly, to his father, Aaron Stark.

†James Green came to the Wyoming Valley about 1771-2, his name appearing on the List of Settlers for May, 1772, on the Memorial, of Oct., 1772, petitioning for the incorporation of Westmoreland into a county, and on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Wilkes-Barre District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He lived on Jacob's Plains where he owned Meadow Lot No. 48. He had removed to Minisink, Orange Co., N. Y., Feb. 25, 1797, when he sold one-half of Lot 48, 17 acres, to Nathan Draper, together with half a back lot, 125 acres. On his flight from the Wyoming Valley, following the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, he went to Walpack, Sussex Co., N. J., and going before Timothy Symmes, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for Sussex Co., he made an affidavit, July 8, 1778, in which he gave his version of the battle and the horrors which followed it. The Rev. Joseph Tuttle, the eminent historian of Morristown, N. J., in the course of an address, Oct. 5, 1853, delivered at exercises held to celebrate the centenary of Sussex Co., N. J., read what he assured his hearers was a literal copy of this affidavit. The affidavit follows:

"July 8, 1778. Walpack, Sussex Co. Personally appeared before me Timothy Symmes, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for this county, one jeams green, one of the inhabitants of wioming, Who being duely sworne on the Holy Evanjelis of Almighty God, deposeth and saith that he was one of the men destined to defend a fort in Kingston and that the enemies commanded by Colonel Buttler and one English Lieutenant Colonel and the King Owago, an Indian Commander, with part of six tribes of Indians, 800: who fought well without takeing to trees but lay flat on their bellies to fire and load. Said green says that these men to the amount of twelve hundred as he heard came within 3 or 4 mile of the fort he was in on friday, the 3d of this instant, on the morning of which day the enemies sent a flag to Colonel Denisan to demand the fort with offers of good quarters upon their surrender, and threatening women and children with emediate death if one gun was fired against them: he says he thinks Wilkes-Barre District, bounded by the great road, south by Thaddeus Williams, northwest by Thomas Weeks. His wife, Mrs. Elizabeth (Carey) Stark, died in 1780. The children of James and Elizabeth (Carey) Stark were: (1), James, Jr.,* born Dec. 14, 1760; (2), Henry, born April 17, 1762, (see later); (3), Esther, born Aug. 29, 1764, apparently died before Jan. 18, 1797; (4), John, born Oct. 16, 1766, apparently died before Jan. 18, 1797; (5) Paul,† born Dec. 9, 1769, living in Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 18, 1797; (6), Samuel, (see later); (7), Abigail, born Jan. 22, 1773, married to Nathaniel Crandall and living at Pawling's, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Jan. 19, 1797; (8), Elizabeth, born Feb. 24, 1775, living at Taunton, Bristol Co., Mass., Jan. 18, 1797; (9), Joanna, born Jan. 19, 1777, living at Pawlings, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Jan. 18, 1797, and probably married later to Crandall, son of Isaac and Desire (Crandall) Wilcox, (Wilcox family later).

V. (2). Henry, son of James and Elizabeth (Carey) Stark, was a Major in the Pennsylvania Militia in 1800. He was born April 17, 1762, and died Jan. 22, 1807. His wife was Elizabeth Kennedy, born April 12, 1773, died Dec. 24, 1851, or Dec. 26, 1854, who was doubtless a daughter of John and Mary (Armstrong) Van Fleet-Kennedy, (Family No. 35—Kennedy). Henry Stark was of Northumberland, (now Luzerne) Co., Pa., March 25, 1786, when he sold to Nathan Draper for £200, New York money, two back lots in Wilkes-Barre, adjoining the main country road on the west, Winship on the north, the town line on the east and Richardson Avery on the south. He was of Pawling Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Nov. 1, 1787, when he sold to John St. John‡ of Luzerne Co., Pa., the lot he bought from Enos Brown no answer was returned by this flag: about two or three hours after the same flag came in again. He says he knew the man well. He was one Daniel Engerson, who they took prisoner at the first fort: he brought much the same proposals he brought before which were still rejected: to a challenge they sent in to our people to fight Colonel Buttler returned for answer that he would meet their officer at a particular place at a set time to hold a conference; he further saith that Colonels Buttler, Dennes and Durrene with all the men they had which were 3 or 4 hundred marched to the place appointed at the appointed time and not finding the enemies there they waited about one hour and then they marched up the river until they met the enemy when a battle began on the right wing which extended to the left in about one minute and continued very smart on both sides but our people were partly surrounded on the left wing in the space of ten minutes when the left wing of our people fled to the amount of about 20 men, the others of our people fought about one hour when they were surrounded by superior numbers and some killed and some drove into the river, where many perished, some got to an island in the river where they found Indians plenty to murder them: he says he has since seen one Bill Hammon who was taken on the island with 6 or 7 more who were made to set down when the Indians tomahawked them one after the other, but before it came to his turn he said he jumped up and run and made his escape by swimming of the lower end of the island. S'd green says that the night after the battle he saw the fires and heard the noise of a Grand Cantocoy amongst the Indians who he, said green judges were burning their prisoners alive, he says it was the judgment of others were burning their prisoners alive, he says it was the judgment of others besides himself; for the flag who was the next day in the fort told them that he did not know that there was a prisoner alive among them and that he had seen an hundred and ninety-four scalps in one heape: he further saith that the fort was surrendered or evacuated the next day after the battle when the people fled toward the Delaware River and in the night sent back George Cooper and James Stiles who went to the top of the mountain and saw the houses from the lower end of Wyoming about half ways to the upper end all in flames and it was supposed they ment to burn the whole settlement.

Of their family of four sons and nine daughters, their son Samuel, was born at Cherry Valley, N. Y., June 9, 1810. In 1827 he went to Tunkhannock, now Wyoming, Co., Pa., where he entered the employ of his uncle, Henry Stark, a merchant. Later he became the sole proprietor. He was married, March 29, 1838, to Lydia, born May 24, 1817, died Aug. 20, 1899, daughter of Colonel Abel and Affa (Harding) Marcy, (Family No. 1001—Marcy and No. 992—Harding) and their children were: (1), Kate M., born April 22, 1839, died March 6, 1888, married to John Day; (2), Abel Marcy, born March 15, 1841, died Aug. 16, 1882, not married; (3), Samuel H., born Jan. 27, 1843, died June 22, 1843; (4), Eleanor G., married to Stanley W. Little; (5), Ophelia, born Sept. 2, 1847, died March 5, 1848; (6), Lydia A., born Jan. 3, 1849, died Sept. 3, 1849; (7), S. Judson, born Oct. 2, 1850, married, Oct. 2, 1873, to Eva W., daughter of Ephraim J. and Elizabeth (Neigh) Keeney, dealer in real estate and noted authority on the Stark and related families, who lives in West Pittston, Luzerne Co., Pa.; (8), Affa C., married (1) to Calvin Detrick, who was for a time part owner of the Wyoming Terra Cotta Works at Wyoming, Pa.; (8), Affa C., married (2) to James E. Seeley.

IV. (4). William, son of Christopher and Joanna (Walworth) Stark, was born about 1747 and died in Orange Co., N. Y., in 1795. He was married to Polly Carey, and May 20, 1773, was of Pawling Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., when he sold to Henry Carey, gentleman, also of Pawling Precinct, for £18, a tract of land in the "township of New Providence, in the Susquehanna Purchase, being the half settling right granted to Ebenezer Searle as an 'old sufferer,' and which William Stark bought from said Searle." This property was sold by Henry Stark of Wilkes-Barre, attorney for Henry Carey, May 2, 1794, to Moses Dolph, of Providence Township, for £11, 5s. William Stark was of Westmoreland, (Wyoming Valley) June 23, 1777, when he sold to Daniel Rosencrans (see Family No. 946—Rosencrans) for £520, Meadow Lots 28, 29 and 30, in what was "formerly Wilkes-Barre Township, and adjoining lands of Jesse Bissell on the south, the Susquehanna River on the west, the town line on the north and the road on the east." The children of William and Polly (Carey) Stark were: (1), William, born Feb. 13, 1765, died Jan., 1833, married (1) to Elizabeth Halstead; (2), to Rachel Hewitt; (2), Nathan, born Dec. 25, 1768, (see later); (3), Lucy, born Dec. 30, 1770, died Dec. 10, 1848, married to William Fancher, born July 6, 1764, died Feb. 3, 1829, removed to Kingston Township, Delaware Co., Ohio, about 1807; (4), Mary, born Oct. 13, 1772, died Feb. 12, 1859, married to Elijah Clark, born May 10, 1773, died Dec. 17, 1848, removed to Delaware Co., Ohio, about 1817; (5), Nancy, born March 12, 1774, died Nov. 27, 1863, married, June 25, 1795, to Ambrose, son of John and Hannah (Marshall) Dixon, (see Dixon family later), both buried at Westerville, Franklin Co., Ohio; (6), John, born Dec. 5, 1776, died July 18, 1841, married (1) to Temperance Pratt, (2) to Mary Camp; (7), James, born July 2, 1779, died June 30, 1859, married (1) to Rebecca Rosencrans, (Family No. 946—Rosencrans), and their daughter, Sally, was married, in Delaware Co., Ohio, to Benjamin, son of Gilbert Carpenter (Family No. 14—Carpenter). He was married (2) to Elizabeth, probably daughter of Isaac and Desire (Crandall) Wilcox, (see Wilcox family). James Stark removed to Kingston Township, Delaware Co., Ohio, about 1807, and is buried in the Stark burying ground near Kingston Center; (8), Oliver, born Oct. 8, 1783, died July 17, 1862, married to Elizabeth, daughter of Marshall and Phebe (Oakley) Dixon (Dixon family later); (9), Elizabeth, born Jan. 6, 1786, died Jan. 10, 1883, married, March 15, 1807, to Lewis, born April, 1784, died March 14, 1857, (Dixon Cemetery Tunkhannock Creek Valley, Wyoming Co., Pa.), son of John and Hannah (Marshall) Dixon, (Dixon family later); (10), Samuel, born Feb. 16, 1788, died Feb. 21, 1829, married to Polly Jones; (11), Frederick, died in infancy.

V. (2). Nathan, son of William and Polly (Carey) Stark, was born in Dutchess Co., N. Y., Dec. 25, 1768, and died in Tunkhannock Township, Luzerne, now Wyoming Co., Pa., May 23, 1837. He was married to Dorcas, born April 16, 1768, died June 19, 1829, daughter of John and Hannah (Marshall) Dixon.* They are buried in the Dixon Cemetery, in the Tunkhannock Creek Valley, and their children were:

*John Dixon (Dixson, Dickson) was a resident of Luzerne Co., Pa., residing in Tunkhannock Township in 1790. He had in family, living at home in that year, four sons over 16, two sons under 16, his wife and three daughters. Marshall Dixon, son of John, and his wife, and William Dixon, with one son over 16 and one son less than 16 years of age, were also residents of Luzerne Co. in 1790. Aug. 3, 1791, Ephraim Sanford of Putnam sold to John and David Dixon

(1), Sally, born March 12, 1786, died 1861, married to William Clary, removed to Canada; (2), William, born Jan. 13, 1791, died 1861, married to Ruth Clary; (3), Mary, twin sister to William, born Jan. 13, 1791, died 1856, married to John Decker; (4), Abigail, born May 23, 1793, died, 1868, married to Increase, son of Comfort and Molly (Billings) Shaw; (5), Nathaniel, born July 18, 1796, died 1871, married to Lydia, daughter of Jasper Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings); (6), Elizabeth, born Dec. 15, 1799, died Dec. 27, 1885, married to Daniel Billings, born Dec. 26, 1798, died Jan. 13, 1847, (Family No. 36—Billings); (7), Paul, born Aug. 4, 1802, died 1877, married to Perlina, daughter of Jasper Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings); (8), Jerusha, born Dec. 9, 1805, died Nov. 29, 1900, married to George, Jr., born Feb. 9, 1794, died July 23, 1880, son of George and Phebe (Billings) Cooper, (Family No. 36—Cooper—Billings); (9), Permela, born Dec. 8, 1808, died 1898, married to Willis, son of Stephen and Betsey (Ellis) Lott;* (10), Henry, born Dec. 16, 1812, died, the lands belonging to David Sanford's second right in Pittston. These included 100 acre Lot No. 34, exclusive of four and three-quarters acres, sold by Jonas Wood to Jonathan Newman, Lot No. 16 in the Third tier of 100 acre lots, Pine Lot No. 12 and all the undivided land belonging to the right. Aug. 24, 1793, William Dixon bought from Jesse Fell, Sheriff, 200 acres of the "Gore of land situated between Pittston and Providence." John Dixon, Marshall Dixon and David, Anebra (Ambrose) and Nathaniel Dixon, the latter three as single Freeman, were assessed in Tunkhannock Township in 1792. John Dixon owned a large tract of land situated on the south branch of Tunkhannock Creek. The homestead was on Lot 49, which in his will he gave to his wife during her life with the provision that following her death title should pass to his three youngest sons. There appears to have been a grist mill and a sawmill on this property at an early date. July 30, 1796, David Dixon sold to Daniel Shaw and Nathan Stark all his right in a certain tract of land lying on the southeast side of the township of Putnam. "Where there is a grist mill and a sawmill, reserving for his own use 200 acres of land, the grist mill and a one-fourth interest in the sawmill." Aug. 3, 1799, he sold to Hannah Dixon the tract of land "whereon I now live and is same whereon is a grist mill." Hannah Dixon, widow of John, and administratrix of his estate, sold Lot 49 to Ambrose Dixon, Aug. 25, 1798. The lot contained 300 acres. Ambrose Dixon became the owner, by purchase from the other heirs and from his brother, David, of the lands owned by John and David Dixon and, March 17, 1798, sold them to David Dimock. Lewis Dixon and Nathan Stark, Oct. 17, 1815, sold to Isaac Slocum, lands adjoining Lot 49 "on the creek called the South Branch and known as Dickson's South Branch Mills." The First Division lot in Pittston, owned by John and David Dixon, was bounded in 1797, on the south by lands of Thomas Wright, on the east by lands of Stephen Harding, deceased, (1797), (Family No. 992—Harding.) On the north by lands of Samuel Miller, (Family No. 1009—Miller), and by lands of Ebenezer Marcy, deceased, on the west by the highway.

John Dixon was married to Hannah Marshall. His will was made Feb. 5, 1794, and probated July 11, 1796. In the Dixon Cemetery, in Tunkhannock Township, there is a small and a very old native stone, the inscription upon which is now (1917) almost obliterated. The writer thinks the inscription originally read: "Hear lies the body of J. D., died 16 Aug., 1794," and that it marks the grave of John Dixon, who died after Feb. 5, 1794, and before July 11, 1796. The children of John and Hannah (Marshall) Dixon were, (order of birth not known to the writer): (1), Marshall, married to Phoebe Oakley, three of whose children were: (i), Elizabeth, married to Oliver, born Aug. 8, 1783, died July 12, 1862, son of William and Polly (Carey) Stark; (ii), Marshall, Jr., born Dec., 1799, died Aug. 14, 1829, who, with his wife, Polly born Jan. 22, 1803, died Aug. 17, 1843, is buried in Dixon Cemetery; (iii), Hugh, born June 4, 1803, died April 11, 1880, (Dixon Cemetery), married to Jane Ann, born Oct. 15, 1804, died Nov. 13, 1867, daughter of George Sickler, married (2) to Matilda Loomis; (2), Dorcas, born April 16, 1768, died June 19, 1829, (Dixon Cemetery), married to Nathan, son of William and Polly (Carey) Stark; (3), Rachel, married to Increase, Jr., son of Increase and Phoebe (Stark) Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings); (4), Nathaniel; (5), David; (6), Ambrose, married, June 25, 1795, to Nancy, born March 12, 1774, died Nov. 27, 1863, daughter of William and Polly (Carey) Stark, buried in Westerville, Franklin Co., Ohio; (7), Prudence, married to Aseph Jones; (8), Betsey, married to John Field; (9), Joseph; (10), Nathan; (11), Lewis, born 1785, died March 14, 1857, married to Elizabeth, born Jan. 6, 1786, died Jan. 10, 1883, daughter of William and Polly (Carey) Stark, whose children were: (i), Samuel; (ii), Phebe, born June 12, 1812, died Nov. 27, 1903, married to ——— Osterhout; (iii), Oliver, born Oct. 4, 1815, died Aug. 15, 1882; (iv), Julia (Dixon) Gorman; (v), Charles H., born March 22, 1819, died Oct. 30, 1890, married to Ruth, born Feb. 28, 1822, died March 18, 1902, daughter of Joseph Earle; (vi), Mahala (Dixon) Billings; (vii), Alfred, born 1832, died June 12, 1845; (viii), Lucy, born July, 1828, died Dec. 13, 1831; (ix), Fletcher, born Oct. 18, 1832, died Nov. 12, 1898, married to Elizabeth F. Billings, born July 16, 1838, died Feb. 16, 1909. (For comprehensive sketch of the Dixon family, of which John Dixon was doubtless a descendant, see the Harvey Book.)

*I. Leonard Lott, Jr., was doubtless the pioneer of the Lott family in what is now Wyoming Co., Pa. According to Mr. Heverly, (Bib.—31) "Leonard Lott went from Stillwater, N. Y., to Wilmot Township, Bradford Co., Pa., in 1777, removed to Plymouth, Pa., and was at Forty Fort at the time of the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He returned to Wilmot Township, but after two or three years went to what is now Wyoming Co., Pa." In 1792, with his sons, Henry and Zephaniah, he was assessed in Tunkhannock Township, Luzerne Co. He was deceased before July 4, 1813, when a petition was presented to the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre, naming his children as: 1, Henry; 2, Zephaniah; 3, John; 4, Abraham; 5, Leonard, Jr.

II. Zephaniah, son of Leonard Lott, Sr., with his wife, Elsa, was living in Ohio, Oct. 24, 1821, when "Isaac Lott, acting for his father, Zephaniah, and his wife, Elsa, formerly of Windham, now living in the State of Ohio, sold to Urias Hollenback 100 acres of land on the bank of Mehoopany Creek, reserving the waters of Mehoopany Creek." The will of Isaac Lott was made at Forkston, Wyoming Co., Pa., Sept. 16, 1869, and was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., July 21, 1875. He died Nov. 28, 1874. The will names his grandson, Coray; his granddaughters, 1882, married to Betsey, daughter of Ransler Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings). Nathan Stark was married (2) to Mrs. Mary (Mullison) Billings, daughter of Reuben Mullison, (Family No. 992—Mullison), and widow of Jasper Billings, (Family No. 36—Billings). His will was made Feb. 21, 1837, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 15, 1837.

CLINTON S. SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 1017—(1016A)

Clinton S., son of William H. and Mary L. (Stark) Shoemaker, was born in Wyoming, Pa., March 9, 1873, and was married, Nov. 25, 1896, to Ruby E., daughter of Forrester J. and Elizabeth (Wilson) Miller. Their home is at Wyoming, Pa., and their son, Harold, was born March 3, 1902.

THE MILLER FAMILY

George Miller, who was born in 1762 and died in 1855; his brother, John, and his half-brother, Thomas, were probably natives of Dauphin Co., Pa., and went to Tunkhannock Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., about 1792-3. George Miller was there in the latter year, although he was not assessed in that township in 1792. He was doubtless the George Miller who, described as of East Hanover Township, Dauphin Co., Pa., Feb. 27, 1794, bought from William Stewart, also of East Hanover Lot No. 136, fronting Pine street, in Nanticoketown, Hanover Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., where a Jacob Miller, also of East Hanover, Dauphin Co., March 13, 1794, bought Lot 18 on Walnut street, in the same town. A Jacob Miller and an Adam Miller were assessed in Tunkhannock Township in 1792.

George Miller became one of the leading citizens of Tunkhannock and was associated with John McCord* in various commercial and land enterprises. They are said to have opened the first store in Tunkhannock and, with eleven others, Rosadelphia and Mary Elizabeth, daughters of Joseph Lott; his son, A. Lott, deceased, and his other children, Ziba, born 1818, died 1891, with his wife, Sarah, born 1830, died 1869, buried in Sunny Side Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.; Sally, married to Riley Vosburgh; Lovina, married to S. S. Adams; Griffin; Lewis W.; John W.

Joseph Lott and Samantha Dixon were married Jan. 27, 1808. Sally Lott and Thomas Carney were married June 25, 1808. Abraham Lott and Betsey Heverly were married in June, 1810.

Stephen Lott was born in 1783 and died March 9, 1868, aed. 85 years. He was married, May 14, 1807, to Betsey Ellis, born in Feb., 1787, died Aug. 17, 1875, aed. 88 years and 6 months. They are buried in Lemon Cemetery, Wyoming Co., Pa. His will, made March 23, 1868, was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., April 20, 1868, refers to his wife as living and names their children: 1, Willis, married to Permela, daughter of Nathan and Dorcas (Dixon) Stark; 2, Angeline (Lott) Whitmore; 3, Priscilla (Lott) Wilson; 4, Charles; 5, Marinda (Lott) Stark; 6, Rosanna (Lott) Kellogg; 7, Dennison and his wife, Eunice; 8, Phebe (Lott) Sine, married to William M. Sine, (Family No. 988—Sine).

*John McCord, also of Dauphin Co., Pa., was assessed in Tunkhannock Township in 1792. He was an early merchant and innkeeper in Tunkhannock and is said to have been the owner of the lot on which that borough is now built. In the settlement of his estate, of a tract of 362 acres lying in the forks between the Susquehanna River and Tunkhannock Creek, 258 acres was set off to his widow and 104 acres to his sister, Mary. Of a tract of 746 acres, lying on the west side of the river 290 acres were set off to his sister, Flora, who was married to John Morrison, and 280 acres to his sister, Sarah, who was married to James McMahon. His brother, James, also held a one-fourth interest in his estate, together with a reversionary interest, which he deeded, June 18, 1822, to James Stewart. John McCord was one of the earliest tavern keepers at Tunkhannock and was interested in a number of commercial enterprises, including the famous shad fishery to which reference is made later. Among his real estate holdings were Lot 41, Putnam Township, which he bought Nov. 1, 1793, from Joshua Lacey, adjoining lands of Elisha Harding, Gideon Osterhout, John Stafford and the Susquehanna River, of which he sold one-half, Jan. 17, 1798, to Anderson Dana of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. This became the Dana homestead. Sept. 22, 1810, he sold one-half acre of Lot 14 on the north side of the public highway or post road, to Carter Hickok, a saddler of Tunkhannock. Dec. 14, 1799, he bought from William Sutton of Braintrim a one-half interest in a sawmill and grist mill property on Tuscarora Creek, located on the "lot where Ebenezer Skinner lives."

John McCord, who died about 1813, was married, March 22, 1798, to Sarah, born in Forty Fort, June 16, 1778, died Oct. 14, 1854, daughter of Colonel Zebulon and Jerusha (Conant) Marcy, of Tunkhannock. She was married (2) to Samuel Whitmore, born 1783, died Nov. 20, 1848, (Marcy Cemetery, Tunkhannock). John and Sarah (Marcy) McCord had no children. He had a brother, James, who was of Middle Paxton Township, Dauphin Co., Pa., June 18, 1822. May 6, 1848, a James McCord and his wife, Catharine, of Newton Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., sold to John T. McCord 15 acres of land in Newton. His sister, Mary, not married in 1830, lived in West Township, Huntington Co., Pa., July 23, 1823, and in Middle Paxton Township, Dauphin Co., June 17, 1830. His sister, Flora, deceased in 1825, was married to John Morrison, who lived in Chautauqua Co., N. Y., Nov. 23, 1825, and their children were: Robert, William, Thomas M. and Elizabeth. His sister, Sarah, was married to James McMahon and lived in Erie Co., Pa., Nov. 7, 1818, and in Chautauqua Co., N. Y., Jan. 25, 1821.

were proprietors of a famous shad fishery in the Susquehanna River. This fishery was located opposite the land of Obadiah Taylor, in the vicinity of Hunt's ferry, above Tunkhannock. The original proprietors were: Obadiah Taylor, John McCord, George Miller, Benjamin Earl, Jonas Carter, Alban Russell, Jonathan Strickland, Jr., Abraham Vosburgh, John Griste (Greist?), William Bramhall, Samuel Sutton, John Taylor and Andrew Ames, (deceased in 1810). Dec. 8, 1810, Obadiah Taylor* for the consideration of a one-twentieth part of said fishery, free and clear of all expense for fishing except the expense of seine and repairs," leaves to the above named proprietors, their heirs and assigns for and during the full term of 999 years the "full and exclusive privilege of using, drawing the seine or fishing on or opposite his, the said Taylor's, land, where the fishery is now established," notwithstanding that I have not hereby conveyed or disposed of the one-twentieth part which I had prior to this agreement, which is held under the same regulations and restrictions as the other rights of the seine and fishing are."

George Miller became the owner of extensive tracts of land in what are now Tunkhannock and Eaton Townships and established his home in the latter township on a farm of which the Jesse Lee homestead was formerly a part. This latter property of 170 acres he sold to Jesse Lee Nov. 30, 1811, for $100, (see Family No. 994—The Lees). He was married (1) to Chloe Brown, born in 1767, died April 24, 1807, and their children were: (1), Catharine, born June 25, 1798, died Aug. 7, 1846, married to James, born Oct. 25, 1795, died March 30, 1847, son of Peter and Rachel (Dorrance) Pike, (Family No. 1007—Dorrance and Family No. 1216—Pike); (2), Nancy, born Nov. 5, 1800, died Sept. 22, 1871, married, by Elder John Miller, May 21, 1826, to Jesse, born Sept. 11, 1802, died April 24, 1891, son of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding). He was married (2) to Sally B., born Sept. 1, 1789, died May 16, 1873, daughter of Ebenezer Punderson and Lovina (Barnes) Avery, (Family No. 1010—Avery). The children of George and Sally B. (Avery) Miller were: (3), Thomas A., born Oct. 29, 1808, married (1) to Mahala, born Jan. 29, 1813, died Sept. 18, 1863, (Eaton Cemetery), daughter of Jabez and Permelia (Barnum) Jenkins, (Family No. 998—Jenkins), (Family No. 1001—Barnum), married (2) to Mrs. Caroline Lucy (Hammond) Harding, daughter of Henry G. and Jerusha (Avery) Hammond and granddaughter of Cyrus and Lydia (Marcy) Avery and widow of John Harding; (4), Lucetta, born Dec. 24, 1810, married, as second wife, to Job Hall, born 1801, died April 26, 1882, (South Eaton Cemetery); (5), John M., born May 2, 1813, died March 11, 1888, married to Maria, born March 3, 1819, died May 2, 1903, (Eatonville Cemetery), daughter of John and Nancy Manning, born Jan., 1784, died Aug. 27, 1858, (Eatonville Cemetery); (6), Mary, born May 17, 1815, married, Dec. 5, 1833, to Martin, son of Newton and Deborah (Reeder) Smith, (Family No. 43—William Smith); (7), Candace, born May 8, 1817, married

*Obadiah Taylor was born March 11, 1763, and died Oct. 27, 1830. His mother, Abigail Taylor, was born in 1726 and died Sept. 20, 1801. Obadiah Taylor's wife, Rhoda, was born Dec. 9, 1767, and died Jan. 1, 1855. He was a member of the Company of Captain Amasa Mills in Colonel Moseley's Regiment of Connecticut troops, ordered to the Hudson River after the battle of Monmouth, June 28, 1778. He enlisted July 1, 1780, in the 7th Regiment, Connecticut troops, in the Continental Line, commanded by Colonel Heman Swift and served until his honorable discharge, in Dec., 1780. He was of Symsbury, Tolland Co., Conn., Nov. 16, 1791, when Benjamin Earl, of Tunkhannock, Pa., sold to John Taylor, of Bolton, Hartford Co., Conn. and Obadiah Taylor, 300 acres of land, bounded south on Joseph Earl, and on every (other) side by the Susquehanna River. This farm is situated at Hunt's Ferry and opposite what is now Vosburgh, Wyoming Co., Pa. A "Human Ferry" owned by Obadiah Taylor was in operation in 1806. Obadiah and John Taylor were assessed in Tunkhannock Township in 1792. His will was made in Eaton Township, May 25, 1829, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 10, 1830. He gave "To my friends and neighbors three-fourths of an acre of land on the west side of the highway, known as the burying ground on my farm, which is to remain for that purpose exclusively." His will was signed in the presence of Joseph H. Robinson and David Ross, and Henry Heisz and Elisha Harding were named executors. It names his wife, Rhoda, and the following children: 1, Thomas; 2, Revad, born in Nov., 1791, died June 14, 1865, married to Rebecca Miller, (Family No. 1017—Miller); 3, Rachel; 4, Obadiah, Jr., to whom he gave the warrant for 100 acres of land in Ohio granted to him for services in the War of the American Revolution. Obadiah Taylor, Jr., died before 1835. He was married to Margaret, daughter of John Jayne, (Family No. 1021—Jayne); 5, Humphrey, 6, John; 7, Rhoda; 8, Sapona (Saphronia), born in Aug., 1801, died April 28, 1859, married to Joseph H., born April 24, 1799, died April 17, 1871, son of Anasa, born Feb. 29, 1772, died Sept. 3, 1849, and Prudence Robinson, born Oct. 16, 1770, died April 19, 1851. Some of the children of Joseph H. and Saphronia (Taylor) Robinson were: (1), Sarah A., born April 3, 1824, died April 10, 1874, married to Franklin Pratt; (2), John Marklin, born Nov. 21, 1828, died Dec. 31, 1916, married (1) to Corena P., born May 28, 1836, died July 9, 1859, married (2) to Annie Elizabeth Thatcher, born Jan. 11, 1839, died July 17, 1911; (3), Frances L., born Jan. 21, 1833, married to Francis S. Phinney, born Feb. 8, 1825, died Sept. 11, 1859; 9, Cynthia; 10, Ann Matilda; 11, Zena Climenia.

William Bramhall, named above, was married in Allensburg, Pa., Sept. 25, 1799, to Hannah Shoemaker, born in 1783, died Sept. 17, 1817. Their daughter, Polly, born in Sept., 1803, died May 17, 1816, and his mother, Experience Bramhall, born in 1751, died Sept. 10, 1823, are also buried in the Obadiah Taylor Cemetery.

to William Harrison, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Carey) Jenkins, (Family No. 988—Jenkins); 8, Isabella, born Aug. 9, 1819, died 1904, married to Isaac B. THE BURRITT FAMILY

I. William Burritt was one of the first settlers of Stratford, Conn. He died early. The inventory of his estate, May 28, 1651, fixed the valuation at £140. His wife, Elizabeth, lived until 1781, and in her will named three children: (1), Stephen, who died in 1697-8; (2), John, who died in 1727, and (3), Mary (Burritt) Smith.

II. (1). Lieutenant Stephen, son of William and Elizabeth Burritt, of Stratford, Conn., who died in 1697-8, was married, Jan. 28, 1673-4, to Sarah, daughter of Isaac Nichols, and their children were: (1), Elizabeth, born July 7, 1675; (2), William, born March 24, 1677; (3), Peleg, born Oct. 5, 1679, (see later); (4), Josiah, born 1681; (5), Sarah (?), married, 1728, to Edward Lewis; (6), Isaac or Israel, born 1687; (7), Charles, born 1690; (8), Ephraim, born 1693.

III. (3). Peleg, son of Lieutenant Stephen and Elizabeth (Nichols) Burritt, born Oct. 5, 1679, was married, Dec. 5, 1705, to Sarah Bennett and their three children were: (1), William, born Aug. 28, 1706, died Sept. 28, 1706; (2), Sarah, born Jan. 20, 1711-12; (3), Peleg, Jr., born Jan. 7, 1719-20. (Tombstone inscription, Hanover Green Cemetery, Luzerne Co., Pa., born Jan. 7, 1721, died April 10, 1789.)

IV. (3). Peleg, Jr., son of Peleg and Sarah (Bennett) Burritt, was born in Stratford, Conn., Jan. 7, 1721, and died in Hanover Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., April 10, 1789. His name appears in the Westmoreland tax lists for Hanover District for 1776, and with the names of his sons, Gideon and Stephen, in the lists for 1777 and 1778. He was married (1), at Stratford, Conn., to a daughter of Richard, Jr., and Mehetable (——) Laboree-Blackleach* and their children were: (1), Rev. Blackleach ———; (2), Mehetable. Peleg Burritt was married (2) to Dorothy Beardsley, who was born Feb. 1, 1726, and died Aug. 7, 1802, and who was also a descendant of some of the earliest settlers of Stratford, Conn. Their children were: (1), Gideon, who died before 1828, leaving neither wife nor child; (2), Sarah, born Nov. 19, 1750, died July 21, 1833, married (1) to Cyprian Hibbard, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and for whose estate Stephen Burritt was appointed administrator, married (2), April 20, 1788, to Judge Matthias Hollenback, born Feb. 17, 1752, died Feb. 17, 1829, (see Harvey's History Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley); (3), Stephen, (see later); (4), Mary (Polly), married (1) to Peter Hubbell, married (2) to Captain Samuel Woodruff. Captain Peleg Burritt and his wife, Dorothy (Beardsley) Burritt, are buried in the Hanover Green Cemetery, in Hanover Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

V. (3). Stephen, son of Captain Peleg and Dorothy (Beardsley) Burritt, was listed as a taxpayer in Hanover Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1777 and 1778. His name also appears in the list of the company which assembled at Forty Fort, March 6, 1776, and volunteered to "engage in the common cause as soldiers in the defense of

*Richard Blackleach, Sr., went to Stratford, Conn., before 1678, and was married, in December, 1680, to Mrs. Abigail ———, daughter of John Hudson. She died in 1712, aed. 60 years. He was married (2), Aug. 27, 1717, to the Widow Elizabeth del a Porta Poisson, who died in July, 1725, aed. 69 years. He died Nov. 4, 1731, aed. 78 years. He was a merchant at Stratford. THE SCOVEL FAMILY (1)

I. John Scovel, born about 1635, died at Haddam, Conn., after Dec. 4, 1696, and before Nov. 18, 1700. He was married, March 29, 1666, at Farmington, Conn., to Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Mary Barnes, and their son, Benjamin, was born about 1677. II. Benjamin, son of John and Sarah (Barnes) Scovel, died at East Haddam, Conn., Aug. 13, 1729. He was married to Amy ———, and their son, Nathan, was baptised at East Haddam, in 1725. III. Nathan, son of Benjamin and Amy Scovel, baptised in 1725, died Sept. 11, 1787, was married, Sept. 8, 1749, at Colchester, Conn., to Elizabeth, born May 8, 1729, died Aug. 7, 1787, at Lebanon, Conn., daughter of Joseph and Grace (Rathbone) Gates, of New Salem Society in Colchester. Their children were: 1, Jerusha, born July 30, 1751, married (1) to Cary Leeds, married (2) to ——— Wells; 2, Elizabeth, born March 11, 1752, married to Alexander Martin; 3, Lucy, born March 2, 1755, married to Samuel Church; 4, Nathan, born May 8, 1758, married to Ruth, born May 10, 1758, died in 1820, in Wyalusing Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., daughter of Jonathan and Rachel (Otis) Harris (Family No. 988—Harris). Nathan Scovel, Jr., went to Canaan, Columbia Co., N. Y., and about 1787 settled in what is now Bradford Co., Pa.; 5, Solomon, born Sept. 16, 1759, married to Molly Dewey; 6, Moses, born Dec. 6, 1762, (see later); 7, David, born Feb. 23, 1765; 8, Sarah Ann, born Oct. 23, 1770, married to Paul Carpenter; 9, Amherst, born Oct. 20, 1774, married to Sarah Little.

IV. (6). Moses, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Gates) Scovel, born Dec. 6, 1762, died in Johnstown, Ohio, July 24, 1836, was married, May 5, 1785, to Rachel Baker, born in North Parrish, New London, Conn., Nov. 15, 1761, died at Johnstown, Ohio, Sept. 11, 1854. April 18, 1785, Moses Scovel bought from his father, Nathan Scovel, of Lebanon, Windham Co., Conn., for £60, all his right in one whole right or share of land adjoining each side of the Susquehanna River. Nathan Scovel, Jr., and Sarah Ann Scovel signed the deed as witnesses. His name appears on the tax lists for Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., for 1792. For several years he was assessor of Exeter Township and for some years was also a Justice of the Peace, about 1811. He was a blacksmith by trade. On the "24th day of 1794" he bought from Thomas Harding 300 acres of land in Exeter. This tract is described as lying 320 rods along Scovel's land; thence 160 rods along the Kingston line; thence on lands of Ezra Olds, 320 rods; thence 160 rods to the beginning. Sept. 10, 1794, with his wife, Rachel, he sold to Putnam Catlin and Benjamin Perry* this tract of land together with another tract of 300 acres. May 13, 1795, he sold to Ben Perry of Wilkes-Barre a 300 acre tract adjoining the lands sold to Catlin and Perry. He is named as Warrantee on a tract of 150 acres along the Susquehanna River and adjoining "down the river," the large tract of land, referred to later as owned by Peter Harris, as Warrantee. Sept. 2, 1814, he executed a power of attorney empowering his son, David, to sell all his lands. Oct. 8, 1814, Moses Scovel sold to Anderson Scovel a tract of land called "Egypt," bounded 106 rods on the Susquehanna River and adjoining lands of Hezekiah Smith in Exeter. This farm consisted of 138 acres and in 1834 and 1837, Rachel B., Almira and Mary, daughters of Anderson Scovel, sold their interest in it to Henry Swartwout. Some of the children of Moses and Rachel (Baker) Scovel were: 1, David, born Jan. 18, 1788, married, in 1809, by Rev. Davis Dimock, to Clarissa Harding of Exeter Township. In 1814 he was assessed as the owner of a one-half interest in a "Still," the other half being owned by his brother, Hurlburt Scovel; 2, Anderson, born July 27, 1786, died June 24, 1815, (Jenkins Cemetery, West Pittston, Pa.), married to Mrs. Anna (Carney) McMil-

*Benjamin Perry, born May 27, 1773, died June 17, 1813, and his wife, Mary, born Dec. 13, 1774, died Jan. 25, 1836, are buried with a number of their descendants in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

lan, daughter of John Carney.* Their children were: (1), Rachel Baker, born Aug. 16, 1813, married to Naaman Tingley; (2), Mary Eva, born March 14, 1815, married to Almon Tingley; (3), Almira, born in 1818, died Sept. 5, 1842, not married. Mrs. Ann (Carney) McMillen-Scovel was married (3) to Stephen (probably son of Thomas) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding), who was deceased in 1846, and their children were: James, Elijah C., born in 1829, living in 1911, Olive, Lillian and Evelyn. She was born Nov. 6, 1787, and died Jan. 31, 1869; 3, Hurlbut, born about 1792, assessed, in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1814, as a single freeman, and as the owner of a one-half interest in a "still." He was probably married to Mary, daughter of Gilbert, Jr., and Sarah (Scovel) Carpenter, (Family No. 14—Carpenter and Elisha Scovel family later). Mrs. Rachel (Baker) Scovel, wife of Moses Scovel, was a daughter of John and Rachel (Scovel) Baker (family of Arthur Scovel), of North Parish, New London Co., Conn. About 1815-16 Moses and Rachel (Baker) Scovel settled in Galena, Delaware Co., Ohio, and later they removed to Licking Co. in that state. Their son, Hurlbut, also probably went to Galena, Ohio.

THE SCOVEL FAMILY (2) (SCOVEL, SCHOFIELD)

I. Arthur Scovel, born in England, settled in Boston, Mass., and with his wife Joanna removed to Middletown, Conn., in 1670, and to Lyme, Conn., about 1678. He died at Middletown, Conn., Feb. 7, 1706-7. His first son and second child, Arthur, Jr., was born in Boston, Jan. 24, 1663-4. II. (2), Arthur, Jr., son of Arthur and Joanna Scovel, born Jan. 24, 1663-4, died in Lyme, Conn., June 24, 1694. He was married to Rachel ———, who was married (2) to Nathaniel Hudson. Their son, Arthur (3d) was born Jan. 3, 1691. III. Arthur (3d), son of Arthur, Jr., and Rachel Scovel, born at Lyme, Conn., Jan. 3, 1691, died at Colchester, Conn., June 25, 1774. He was married to Elizabeth ———, and their children were: 1, James, born Jan. 18, 1711-12, married to Elizabeth Chamberlain; 2, Elizabeth, born July 26, 1715, married, April 16, 1734, to Elnathan Palmiter at Colchester; 3, John, born about 1718, married to Sarah Alger; 4, Irene, born about 1720, married at Colchester, Feb. 18, 1750, to Jonathan Rathbone, born 1726, died Dec. 5, 1755; 5, Rachel, married at Colchester, March 14, 1754, to John Baker and lived at North Parrish, New London; 6, Elisha, (see later); 7, David. (Bib.-269-270.)

IV. (6). Elisha, son of Arthur and Elizabeth Scovel, was born in Colchester, Conn., in 1734, and was married there, Feb. 19, 1756, to Eliphael, born about 1738, died in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., April 17, 1822, daughter of Pelatiah and Martha (Avery) Bliss of North Parrish, New London, Conn. They settled first at Salem, Conn., and about 1775 removed to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., where they established their home in Exeter Township, now Luzerne Co. He was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and his name appears among those of the Grantees on the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754, conveying title to the Susquehanna Company, of the Wyoming lands. His name appears in the Westmoreland Tax Lists for the North District in 1776 and 1777 and in 1778 on the list for Exeter District. At the time of the British-Indian invasion of the Wyoming Valley in June-July, 1778, he was Lieutenant of the Seventh Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, and was the officer in command at Fort Wintermute when that fort was surrendered. A full account of the surrender of Fort Wintermute together with a statement of a number of very interesting facts pertaining to the men who occupied it may be found in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., pp. 991, 992, 1037. After the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, Elisha Scovel, in common with the other sur-

*John Carney, who lived near Mehoopany, Pa., died Aug. 23, 1826. He was survived by his widow and nine children. The names of his children, appearing in a petition to the Orphans' Court of Wyoming Co., Pa., May 27, 1846, are: 1, James; 2, William, who was married to a daughter of John Comstock of Kingston Township, (Family No. 1021—Comstock); 3, Joseph, whose will, made in Berkshire, Delaware Co., Ohio, March 9, 1837, was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., in June, 1847. He gave to his brother, Elijah Carney, of Berkshire, Delaware Co., Ohio, all his interest in his father's estate, and to his sister, Hannah, all his personal property; 4, Hannah, married to Aaron Moore, deceased in 1846; 5, John, Jr.; 6, Thomas; 7, Ann, then (1846) widow of Stephen Harding; 8, Jesse; 9, Elijah. The will of William Carney of Mehoopany Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., was made March 5, 1849, codicils were added May 31, 1852, and June 28, 1853, and it was probated Aug. 25, 1857. It names his son, Hiram, deceased, and Hiram's wife, Mary, and three daughters, Diadama, Theodosia and Rena; 2, the heirs of Samuel Carney, Nelson, Frances, William L., Lois and Chester; 3, the heirs of Sally Carney, who was married to Seymour Gary, Amanda Gary, married to ——— Hourlney and William Gary; 4, Susan, married to Hosea French, residuary legatee. The will of Mrs. Susan (Carney) French, daughter of William Carney, made Jan. 13, 1860, and probated April 16, 1860, names, 1, her two grandsons, Davis D. Jayne and Judson Jayne; 2, "the children of my daughter Deliver," Almira, Salinda, Emily, Melista, Hosea K. and Jonas.

vivors of the tragedy, fled from the Wyoming Valley and, apparently, did not return until 1781, or later. In 1790 he was a resident of Luzerne Co., Pa.,* and had in family, living at home, himself, four males over 16, one male under 16 and four females, presumably himself, wife, five sons and three daughters. Elisha Scovel died in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1797-8. He was deceased, Oct. 11, 1798, when his son, James Scovel, was appointed administrator of his estate with Benjamin Carpenter and John Jenkins on his bond in $900. His homestead was doubtless situated near the Creek that empties into the Susquehanna River in the vicinity where, for a number of years, Casper Oberdorfer kept the Susquehanna Hotel. His wife survived him for a number of years. She died April 17, 1822, aed. 84 years. The children of Lieutenant Elisha and Eliphael (Bliss) Scovel were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, Jonathan, born March 6, 1757, died at Salisbury, Conn., Feb. 8, 1824, married, Sept. 5, 1783, to Sarah Church, born Feb. 19, 1766, died at Salisbury, Conn., Oct. 9, 1826, whose children were eight daughters and three sons: (1), Samuel, born March 16, 1789, died March 26, 1794; (2), David, born Sept. 11, 1794, died Nov. 26, 1827, married to Mary Strong Cutler; (3), Samuel Church, born June 18, 1804, died June 12, 1865, married to Lois Dorcas Church; 2, David, born Aug. 10, 1759, no further record; 3, James, born Aug. 23, 1761, died Jan. 8, 1810, (see later); 4, Silas, born March 18, 1763, died June 28, 1824, (see later); 5, Sarah (Scovel) Carpenter, doubtless married to Gilbert, Jr., son of Gilbert Carpenter, (Family No. 14—Carpenter); 6, Orr, (see later); 7, Anna, no further record; 8, Irene, married to Theron Finn, probably a son of Rev. James Finn, (Family No. 988—Finn); 9, probably Elizabeth, married, March 28, 1802, to Thomas, son of John and Margaret (Armstrong) Kennedy. (Family No. 35—Kennedy.)

V. (3). James, son of Lieutenant Elisha and Eliphael (Bliss) Scovel, was born Aug. 23, 1761, and died Jan. 8, 1810. He was married to Thankful Nash, who was born about 1763 and died Dec. 16, 1844. He is named as the Warrantee on one lot of about 136 acres and one of 293 acres in Exeter Township. These lots adjoined and the creek, which empties into the Susquehanna River, near the Susquehanna Hotel, which was kept by Casper Oberdorfer for many years, runs lengthwise and nearly through the center of the latter lot. His lands lay between a large tract "up the river" of which Peter Harris was the Warrantee and a tract "down the river" of 310 acres of which Eliphalet Worthington was Warrantee. He also was the Warrantee on a tract of 159 acres adjoining the river and lying just above Scovel's Island. It appears probable to the writer that the tract referred to above, and through which the creek flows, was the site of the home of Elisha Scovel and afterwards that of his son, James. James later removed to a part of Lot No. 7 in Exeter and was living there Sept. 17, when Thomas Jenkins of Exeter sold to him 48 acres of Lot No. 7 extending from the mountain to the river and described the lot further as the "Lot Scovel now lives on." At the Nov. term of the Court of Quarter Sessions in 1801 he was recommended as a suitable person to be licensed as an innkeeper, and it is probable that at about this time the old tavern was established, although it is also probable that James Scovel, who was recommended to the state authorities as a prospective innkeeper in 1798, lived on this lot at that time. Other innkeepers in Exeter in 1798-1800 were Stephen Harding, Samuel Hadley and Richard Halstead, Jr., in 1798, and Luther Wheelock and Hezekiah Smith in 1799 and 1800. After the death of James Scovel his widow, Thankful Scovel, was granted license in 1810, 1814 and 1816, and in 1819, 20-21, the tavern was kept by Charles Fuller, son-in-law of James and Thankful Scovel. This property was sold by Thankful Scovel, in 1834, to Balser and John Sharps Carpenter (Family No. 1252), and the old tavern was destroyed by fire a few years ago. James Sco-

*The Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., Tax Lists have the following: Living in Exeter, 1792, Elisha Scovel, his sons, James and Silas, and his nephew, Moses Scovel, (see family John Scovel); in 1796, Elisha, James and Moses Scovel; in 1799, James and Moses Scovel; in 1801, James, Silas and Orr Scovel (brothers); in 1804, James and Jonathan Scovel and Elifal Scovel, a widow, (their mother); in 1807, Jonathan and James, Moses Scovel and his son, Anderson; in 1812-14, Thankful Scovel, widow of James, and Moses Scovel and his three sons, Anderson, David and Hurlbut. The following deeds are recorded at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.: 1, April 18, 1785, Nathan Scovel of Lebanon, Windham Co., Conn., to Moses Scovel of Lebanon for a consideration of £60, all his right in one whole right or share of land adjoining each side of the Susquehanna River, signing witnessed by Nathan Scovel, Jr., and Sarah Ann Scovel, (see family of John Scovel); 2, Feb. 24, 1790, Elisha Scovel, a blacksmith, of Exeter, to Jonathan Scovel of Litchfield Co., Conn., a lot of 300 acres, known as the Jonathan Scovel lot, adjoining the Narrows, one-half right or share in the lands of the Susquehanna Purchase "of which I am the original owner;" 3, Dec. 20, 1833, Irene Finn, late Irene Scovel, of Nicholson, Pa., and her husband, Theron Finn, for a consideration of $25 each, from the four heirs of James Scovel, conveyed to them her interest in the estate of Elisha Scovel and Elifal Scovel, described as a "quit claim to all my right in the estate of my parents."

vel also owned 94 acres of Lot No. 1 in Exeter, adjoining the Kingston line and the Susquehanna River, which was known later as the Jack Scovel farm. It was sold by the heirs of James Scovel and by James F. Fuller and Isaac Carpenter to Jesse B. Schooley for a total consideration of about $15,000, Aug. 1, 1868, and Nov. 11, 1860. The partition of the estate of James Scovel, divided about 1,100 acres of land among his heirs, all of which, with the exception of 13 acres of Lot No. 34 in Kingston and 31 acres in Plymouth, was situated in Exeter Township. His holdings included 174 acres, parts of Lots 7 and 8, 235 acres adjoining parts of 7 and 8, and 430 acres of Lots 9 and 10. Scovel's Island, formerly known as Lackawanna Great Island, was also his property. James Scovel died in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., Jan. 8, 1810, in his 49th year. His widow, Thankful (Nash) Scovel, died Dec. 16, 1844. They were buried in the Scovel Cemetery in Exeter, near or on the site of the Isaac Carpenter, son of Balser, residence, but their remains were removed a number of years ago to Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre. The children of James and Thankful (Nash) Scovel were: 1, John S., born 1794, died July 7, 1852, not married, (Hollenback Cemetery); 2, Gratey, born Dec. 21, 1796, died Sept. 5, 1829, (Hollenback Cemetery), married to Laton, born Aug. 16, 1792, died Jan. 16, 1833, son of William and Sarah (Sawyer) Slocum, (Family No. 1001—Tripp—Slocum), whose children were: (1), Frances Carey, born May 23, 1822, married, Dec. 27, 1843, to Colonel Richard A. Oakford, 131st Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., who was born in Philadelphia, Dec. 8, 1820, and was killed in the battle of Antietam, Sept. 17, 1862; (2), James Scovel, born July 2, 1827, died April 19, 1887, not married, (Hollenback Cemetery); (3), William, born Jan. 9, 1829, died Oct. 18, 1895, married to Mary Hoyt, born Nov. 21, 1837, died Feb. 8, 1892, (Hollenback Cemetery); 3, Maria ———, married to Charles Fuller,* 4, Caroline ———, married to Lyman, son of Colonel Naphtali Hurlbut and Olive (Smith) Hurlbut, (Family No. 43—Smith).

V. (4). Silas, son of Elisha and Elifal (Bliss) Scovel, was born March 18, 1763, and was married to Abigail, daughter of Peter Harris of Exeter, Pa., who was born March 1, 1774, and died Feb. 28, 1855, (Family No 1021—Harris). He was assessed, in Exeter Township, as late as 1801, but, for several years prior to 1801, had resided in Towanda, now Bradford Co., Pa. He was of Towanda, Pa., Aug. 7, 1793, when he sold to Benjamin Newberry, of Plymouth, Pa., 300 acres in Exeter

*Edward Fuller of New London, Conn., was married to Hannah West and, about 1806, removed to Bridgewater Township, now Susquehanna Co., Pa. Their children were, (all the sons named first): 1, Charles, (see later); 2, Edward; 3, Henry; 4, Isaac; 5, George; 6, Mary L., not married, born 1798, died Aug. 28, 1820, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.); 7, Elizabeth H., married, in Exeter, Pa., by Rev. Mr. May, Nov. 4, 1829, to Ebenezer Kingsbury; 8, Deborah.

Charles, son of Edward and Hannah (West) Fuller, born in New London, Conn., Nov. 1, 1797, died in Scranton, Pa., Nov. 29, 1881, was married, Jan. 8, 1818, to Maria, daughter of James and Thankful (Nash) Scovel of Exeter, Pa. In 1819, 1820 and 1821 he was licensed as an inn-keeper in Exeter and kept the Scovel Tavern at the head of the Wyoming Valley. It appears that about 1830 he entered the employ of John and D. C. Ambler at New Troy, now West Wyoming, Pa., who, at that time and for a few years, owned and operated the Shoemaker grist mill. In 1839 he was assessed as the owner or operator of a grist mill, undoubtedly the Shoemaker Mill, which the assessment of 1840 shows had been transferred to Isaac C. Shoemaker. June 29, 1839, he bought from James Jones of Kingston Township about three acres of House Lot No. 21 and the whole of House Lots Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, together with part of a two rod road and the eight acre triangular plot of public lands in Kingston Township. This two rod road was the northwestern boundary of House Lots No. 10 to No. 38, inclusive, and the triangular plot was situated between this two rod road and what is now Wyoming avenue, in Forty Fort, Pa., and extended from the upper end of Meadow Lot No. 17 to a point opposite the upper end of House Lot No. 17, the junction point of the two rod road with what is now Wyoming avenue. The Rev. E. H. Snowden homestead, in Forty Fort, Pa., an old landmark, stands on part of the land purchased from James Jones by Charles Fuller. Charles and Maria (Scovel) Fuller lived, for a number of years, on the "Jacok Scovel" farm, Lot No. 1, Exeter Township, adjoining the Susquehanna River and the Kingston Township line. On this farm he built and, for some years, operated a "rope walk." This long narrow structure stood near the site now occupied by the Catholic Church and above the Mount Lookout Colliery, in Exeter Township. He was also engaged in the insurance business at Wyoming, Pa., and sold farm machinery. He was one of the original elders of the Wyoming Presbyterian Church. The family removed to Scranton about 1848. The children of Charles and Maria (Scovel) Fuller were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, James S., married (1) to Martha, daughter of John and Martha (Welch) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps), married (2) to Mrs. Mercy (Fell) Barnum-Porter, daughter of Zenus Barnum, (Family No. 1001—Barnum) and widow of Robert Porter; 2, Mary L., married, at Wyoming, Pa., by Rev. P. E. Stephenson, Jan. 31, 1854, to L. D. Fuller, an engineer on the Delaware and Hudson Canal, at Barrysville, Sullivan Co., N. Y.; 3, Laton S., born May 2, 1824; 4, Edward C., born June 8, 1826, married, at Wyoming, Pa., by Rev. Jacob S. Mitchell, Jan. 2, 1849, to Helen, died in Oct., 1892, daughter of Robert E. Ruthven and his wife, Keturah; 5, Caroline E., born 1831, died 1898, married, as second wife, to Zenas, Jr., born April 29, 1823, died Oct. 31, 1876, son of Zenas and Elizabeth (Slocum) Jenkins-Barnum, (Family No. 1001—Barnum); 6, John D., born Nov. 6, 1834, married to Emma C. Lathrop; 7, Penelope; 8, Francis; 9, Eudora.

for £40 and was of Wysox, now Bradford Co., Pa., April 12, 1802, when he sold 500 acres of land in Wysox, to James Davidson of the State of New York. The children of Silas and Abigail (Harris) Scovell were: 1, Phebe, born March 9, 1799, married, July 20, 1822, to Nathan Stevens; 2, Peter Harris, born Feb. 26, 1801, married to Olive Ackley; 3, Harry, born Feb. 13, 1803, died Sept. 19, 1894, married (1) to Sarah Cortright, of Exeter, Pa., married (2) to Elizabeth Titus; 4, Calista, born Nov. 24, 1804, died May 28, 1825, not married; 5, Caroline, born Sept. 27, 1806, married to H. S. Frazier, Wyalusing, Pa.; 6, Silas, Jr., born Oct. 14, 1808, died Oct. 18, 1852, married to Maria Dill; 7, Joseph Jenkins, born Nov. 4, 1810, died June 15, 1889, married to Harriet Taylor; 8, Abigail, born Feb. 14, 1817, died Dec. 23, 1894, married, Oct. 15, 1843, to E. Reuben De Long. (Bib.-31.)

V. (6). Orr, son of Elisha and Eliphael (Bliss) Scovel, was born about 1767. He was assessed as owning lands in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., as late as 1801, but had been for a number of years previous to 1801 a resident of Wysox, now Bradford Co., Pa. He was married (1) to ———, and (2), Aug. 22, 1793, on Sugar Creek, now Bradford Co., Pa., by the Rev. Ebenezer Martin, to Polly, daughter of Ezra and Mary (Simons) Ruddy. (Bib.-31.) (Family No. 1231—Ruddy). Dec. 2, 1797, he sold to the Wysock (Wysox) School District one-half acre of land "lying between the house where Orr Scovel now lives and the dwelling house of Nathan Smith." He later removed to Canton, Bradford Co., Pa., and finally to Indiana. Some of the children of Orr Scovel were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Nathan; 2, John Orr; 3, James; 4, Elisha, married to Hannah Kendall; 5, Ezra. He also had four daughters.

VI. (2). Orr Scovel of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., doubtless John Orr, son of Orr Scovel, by his first marriage, was born about 1788-89, and died July 9, 1869. He was buried in the Carverton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. He was married to Fannie (or Frances), born Aug. 14, 1796, died in Beaumont, Wyoming Co., Pa., Jan. 21, 1890, daughter of William Harris (Harris family later), and their children were: 1, Priscilla, born Aug. 20, 1817, died Aug. 6, 1897, married to Jehoiada, born Jan. 20, 1812, died Dec. 31, 1871 son of Jehoiada Pitt and Hannah (Frazer) Johnson;* 2, Caroline, married to William Harris; 3, Charles, born 1819, died 1860; 4, Elizabeth, born 1823, died March 5, 1896, married to Sperry Davis, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery); 5, John S., married (1) to Aurilla Smith, (Family No. 43—Smith), married (2) to Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews, lived and died at Beaumont, Wyoming Co., Pa.; 6, Frances, married to James Main, lived at Mehoopany, Pa.; 7, Orr, Jr., born 1831, died 1861, (Carverton Pa., Cemetery); 8, Courtland; 9, Isadore, born 1840, died 1915, married (1) to Payne Pettebone Montanye, (Family No. 1217—Montanye), died March 13, 1865, son of Miller Montanye, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery), married (2) to William Rallston, born 1826, died 1886, lived at Wyoming, Pa.

VII. (3). Charles, son of Orr and Fanny (Harris) Scovell, born in 1819, died

*THE REV. JACOB JOHNSON FAMILY

*The Rev. Jacob Johnson, the first settled Minister of the Gospel in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., was born in Wallingford, Conn., April 7, 1713, and died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 15, 1797. He was married, at North Groton, to Mary, born Nov. 28, 1730, died Jan. 18, 1805, daughter of Captain Nathaniel and Mary (Williams) Giddings. Some of their children were: 1, Lydia, born about 1756, died June 26, 1781, married, in Aug., 1775, as second wife, to Colonel Zebulon Butler; 2, Jacob, born about 1765, died May, 1807, had two daughters, (1), Mary Bailey, married (1) to Albon Bulford and (2) to Phineas Nash Foster; (2), Lydia (Johnson) Smith; 3, Christiana Olive, married, March 25, 1801, to William Russell; 4, Jehoiada Pitt, born 1767, died Jan. 8, 1830. Rev. Jacob Johnson had four daughters who died before April 1, 1792, when he sold to John Prudden "Part of my 50 acre lot.....excepting and reserving the land where my four daughters and others are buried, five rods long and four rods wide." The bodies had, apparently, been removed, prior to June 21, 1793, when Jacob Johnson sold to Morgan Edwards "A reserve of land five rods long and four rods wide.....where my four daughters were buried."

Jehoiada Pitt, son of Rev. Jacob and Mary (Giddings) Johnson, was born about 1767, and died Jan. 8, 1830. He was married to Hannah, daughter of Robert Frazer, and their children were: 1, Zepporah, born Jan., 1805, died Sept. 18, 1806; 2, Ovid Frazier, born March 25, 1807, died Feb. 12, 1853, married, July 28, 1835 to Jane Alricks; 3, Mary Giddings, born Nov. 3, 1809, died Nov. 12, 1880, married to Charles Reel; 4, Jehoiada, born Jan. 20, 1812, died Dec. 31, 1871, married to Priscilla, daughter of Orr and Fanny (Harris) Scovel; 5, William P., born March 14, 1814, died Jan. 26, 1893, married to Eliza Roderick; 6, Miles, born March 16, 1816, died Oct. 6, 1889, married to Philomela Burlingame; 7, Christian, born about 1817, died in infancy; 8, Priestley R., born Dec. 20, 1819, died July 5, 1878, married, June 10, 1843, by Rev. John Dorrance, to Sarah Monega; 9, Wesley, born Dec. 20, 1819, died Oct. 27, 1892, married (1) to Cynthia Henrietta Green; (2) to Frances (Wilson) McAlpine, daughter of Seth and Rebecca (Yarrington) Wilson, (Family No. 992—Yarrington) and widow of Frederick McAlpine; 10, Sarah Ann, born March 18, 1824, died April 20, 1903, married to Henry Colt, born Sept. 29, 1818, died Feb. 13, 1892, son of Seth and Rebecca (Yarrington) Wilson, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); 11, Diantha, born Sept. 22, 1826, died Nov. 4, 1874.

1860, was married to Sarah Barnes, born 1822, died Jan. 21, 1915. They lived in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and their children were: 1, Mary, born Jan. 8, 1849, married to Edward, son of William Sax, lives on the William Sax, formerly William Church and originally Elijah Harris homestead, in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 2, Eunice, born 1851, married to Harvey Atherholt, lives in Luzerne Borough, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 3, Jane, born 1853, married to Steuben, son of Almon Church, (Family No. 992—Church); 4, Esther W., born April 22, 1854, married to John T. Nixon; 5, Emma, born about 1856, died about 1863; 6, Sarah H., born 1858, died 1911, not married, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery); 7, Nancy, born Feb. 23, 1859, not married, an invalid, living in Luzerne Borough, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 8, Lucinda, died in childhood.

THE HARRIS FAMILY

I. Peter Harris and his wife, Mary, from Plainfield, Conn., were among the earliest permanent settlers of the Wyoming Valley, Pa. His name appears in Mr. Harvey's list of the "First Forty" Settlers in 1769, (Bib.-1, p. 473), and in the List of Settlers actually on the ground at Wyoming, June 2, 1769. It also appears on the Petition for the Erection of a County in that year and in the List of Settlers for 1771 and 1772. The Westmoreland Tax List for 1776 has the names of Peter and Elijah Harris as residents of Kingston District and that of Peter Harris as a resident of the North District, (Exeter and Providence). The lists for 1777 and 1778 have the names of Peter and Elijah Harris in Kingston and Peter Harris, Jr., in Exeter. His name is mentioned several times by Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1) in connection with the transactions of the Susquehanna Company. Peter Harris, Sr., was deceased before 1788. In that year Peter Harris, Jr., and Mary Harris, administrators of his estate, appeared as defendants in the Common Pleas Court in Wilkes-Barre, in an action brought by Nathan Jones, under an execution issued Aug. 20, 1778, from the Superior Court of Connecticut. Peter and Mary Harris settled in Kingston Township. Their House Lot was No. 15, which their son, Elijah Harris, sold May 3, 1792, to John Hageman and described as having come to him through the will and testament of his honored father, Peter Harris, which lot fell to him in the draught of the House Lots. In the report of Benjamin Carpenter, Abel Peirce, Lawrence Myers, James Sutton, Benjamin Smith and John Dorrance, viewers to lay out roads in Kingston Township, which was presented to the court Sept. 8, 1788, Road No. 2 is described, in part, as running on the northeast side of Widow Harris' lot. "The stake in the road on the northeast side of Widow Harris' lot was 28 rods south of the town plot." This is clearly a reference to Meadow Lot No. 17, for which, with Meadow Lot No. 18, patents were granted, March 16, 1811, to Abigail (Harris) Church, daughter of Peter and Mary Harris. Mrs. Mary Harris, widow of Peter Harris, was, apparently, living in 1800. Some of the children of Peter and Mary Harris were: 1, Peter, Jr.; 2, Elijah; 3, Abigail and (perhaps), 4, Thomas. Five Harris families were living in Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790: Elijah, with himself, two males over 16, and three females at home; Jonathan, with himself, one male over 16, three males under 16, and four females; Peter, Jr., with himself, two males under 16, and six females; Samuel, with himself, two males over 16, and three females; Thomas, with himself, three males under 16, and two females. (Bib.-10.) In 1792, Jonathan, Samuel and Alpheus Harris were assessed in Tioga Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and Thomas Harris was assessed in Tunkhannock. (For reference to Jonathan Harris see Family No. 988—Jenkins-Harris.)

II. (1). Peter, Jr., son of Peter and Mary Harris, settled in what was later Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., before 1776. His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax List as a resident of the North District in 1776 and as a resident of Exeter in 1777 and 1778. With his family he was in Fort Wintermute at the time of the British-Indian invasion, early in July, 1778, and his name appears in the list of those from whom cattle were taken by the invaders. His name appears as Warrantee on a tract of 500 to 600 acres of land, adjoining lands on which the name of James Scovel appears as Warrantee, in what is now Exeter Township, and located a short distance up the river from the old Susquehanna Hotel, formerly kept by Casper Oberdorfer, (1873). It also appears as Warrantee on a larger tract of land on the opposite side of the river and now in Newton Township, Lackawanna Co. He also bought a large tract of land from Lewis Jones, which adjoined this latter property. He served Exeter Township as Supervisor in 1788 and 1792 and also as Overseer of the Poor in the latter year. In Sept., 1788, he was appointed, with Stephen Harding, Thomas Gardner, David Smith, Samuel Daley and John Phillips, to serve as viewers to view and lay out such roads as were necessary in Exeter Township. The writer has failed to learn the name of the wife of Peter Harris, Jr. He died in Exeter Township in Nov., 1819. His will was made Oct. 1, 1819, a codicil was added Nov. 2, 1819, and it was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 20, 1819. His will refers to his wife as living but not by name. The children of Peter Harris, Jr., named in his will, were: 1, Mary, born Sept. 6, 1770, died Jan. 3, 1853, married to Elisha Bloomer, (Harris private cemetery, Newton Township, Lackawanna Co., Pa.); 2, Abigail, born March 1, 1774, died Feb. 28, 1855, married to Silas, born March 18, 1763, died June 28, 1824, son of Elisha and Eliphael (Bliss) Scovel, (Family No. 1021—Scovel), settled, lived and died in or near Towanda, Bradford Co., Pa.; 3, Phebe, born April 10, 1776, died May 11, 1851, (Harris private cemetery, Newton Township, Pa.), married to George Sutton;* 4, Thomas, left home about 1799; 5, Stephen, married, Aug., 1811, to Belinda Jackson. He died before June 18, 1846, without children, having inherited 72 acres of Lot 10 in Exeter from his father, which his heirs sold June 18, 1846, to James Harding; 6, Rosina, born Nov. 30, 1789, died Feb. 21, 1863, married, Nov. 24, 1811, to John, born June 24, 1789, died Nov. 20, 1867, (Gravel Hill, Tunkhannock, Pa., Cemetery), son of Richard and Lydia (Chapman) Gardner, (Family No. 988—Gardner); 7, Elizabeth, not married, (Harris Cemetery, Newton Township, Pa.); 8, Elisha, born Dec. 24, 1793, died July 23, 1858, married, Jan. 23, 1817, by David Perkins, Esq., to Celinda, born Sept. 6, 1796, died Sept. 13, 1853, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.), daughter of John and Affa (Baldwin) Jenkins-Harding, no children. In the will of Peter Harris, Jr., he gave to "My daughter, Phoebe Sutton, widow, all my big Island, called Harris Island, and 20 acres beginning at the Wylootamonik Creek, down the river to make a square including 20 acres." He refers, in the codicil to his son, Thomas, who had been absent from home for twenty years. He held one share of Wilkes-Barre and Easton Turnpike stock. His sons, Stephen and Elisha, were named executors and James Harding and Thomas Atkinson were present when the will was signed. The Harris private cemetery in which Mary, Phoebe and Betsey, daughters of Peter Harris and Amzi, born Dec. 25, 1851, died May 2, 1852, son of James and Nancy (Sutton) Vosburg, are buried, and where doubtless many other interments have been made, is in the vicinity of the Peter Sutton farm, now (1918) occupied by John G. Holmes and on the road from Falls to Newton Centre, Pa. It was probably Peter Harris, Jr., who, Sept. 1, 1780, sold to William Martin of Rhode Island, 35 acres of land in Exeter Township, adjoining the south line of lands of Captain Stephen Harding.

II. (2). Elijah, son of Peter and Mary Harris, evidently settled in Kingston District in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., before 1776. According to an article in Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. I, p. 69, Elijah Harris was accepted as a settler, on

*1. George Sutton was born July 5, 1777, and was accidentally drowned near Towanda, Pa., March 28, 1812. His body was found April 2, 1812, and he was buried April 3, 1812. He was married, Oct. 29, 1801, to Phebe, born April 10, 1776, died May 11, 1851, daughter of Peter Harris, Jr., of Exeter, Pa. Their children were: 1, Silas Scovell, born Feb. 21, 1802, died Dec. 21, 1874, married, Nov. 21, 1830, to Harriet, born March 7, 1807, died Oct. 14, 1896, (Newton Centre, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Richard and Lydia (Chapman) Gardner, (Family No. 988—Gardner); 2, Elisha Harris, born Aug. 18, 1803, died March 7, 1887, married to Elizabeth, born Nov. 29, 1803, died March 19, 1877, (Mt. Zion, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Richard and Lydia (Chapman) Gardner; 3, Hannah Semantha, born April 19, 1805, married to James, son of James and Christina (Richards) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding); 4, George, born Feb. 6, 1807, died Nov. 12, 1885, (see later); 5, Hiram Abif, born May 6, 1809, died Dec. 25, 1884, married to Fanny or Francis, born April 6, 1809, died Oct. 24, 1869, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.), daughter of Andrew and Amy (Harding) Montanye, (Family No. 1217—Montanye); 6, Abigail, born Nov. 16, 1811, died April 15, 1855, married, as third wife, to Daniel, born Dec. 16, 1801, died April 17, 1880, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.) son of James and Christian (Richards) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding).

II. (4). George, Jr., son of George and Phebe (Harris) Sutton, was born Feb. 6, 1807, and died Nov. 2, 1885, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery). He was married (1) to Eliza, born June 1, 1809, died July 19, 1833, daughter of James and Christian (Richards) Harding, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.) and their children were: 1, Phebe, born Sept. 9, 1829, died at Orange, Pa., Oct. 11, 1917, married, as second wife, to David Berlew, born Sept. 29, 1820, died March 13, 1885, whose first wife, Susanna Kern, (Family No. 1216—Kern) was born Oct. 22, 1821, and died Jan. 7, 1847, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.); 2, Nancy, born June 5, 1831, married to James Vosburg; 3, Charles H., born July 19, 1833, married, Aug. 31, 1862, to Clara Randolph. George Sutton, Jr., was married (2) to Elizabeth, born Jan. 9, 1812, died Jan. 25, 1881, daughter of Jabez and Lucy (Parrish) Wilcox, (Family No. 994—Parrish), and their children were: 4, Jabez, born March 23, 1835, died April 14, 1836; 5, Lester Harding, born Aug. 1, 1836, died April 9, 1905, married to Rhoda Blakeslee; 6, Eliza, born Jan. 24, 1838, died Oct. 26, 1842; 7, Lucy Alice, born Dec. 17, 1839, died Nov. 11, 1902, married to James Washburne; 8, Salmon, born June 14, 1842, died July 2, 1842; 9, John H., born June 17, 1843, died July 4, 1856; 10, George, born Dec. 7, 1845, married to Clara Randall; 11, Lydia Ann, born May 23, 1848, married to Carson Tompkins; 12, Jane Elizabeth, born March 4, 1850, died Nov. 4, 1898, married to David B., son of Alfred and Lydia (Breese) Polen, (Family No. 989—Polen); 13, Thomas Eugene, born March 5, 1852, married to Mary Hamlin; 14, Semantha (Mattie), born May 17, 1855, married to Samuel K., son of Lemuel A. and Lydia E. (Pugh) Barber.

the right of Peter Harris, prior to June 28, 1770. He took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and was a member of Captain John Franklin's Company of Militia in the service of the United States at the Post of Wyoming in April-May, 1780. (Bib.-1.) He bought House Lot No. 23 from Parshall Terry, Aug. 6, 1779, for £80. He inherited House Lot No. 15, Kingston, from his father and sold it, April 1, 1788, to John Hageman.* Aug. 11, 1786, he bought from James Atherton House Lot No. 27, which he sold, April 21, 1788, to Peleg Comstock.† April 1, 1788,

*John Hageman, a signer of the Associators pledge at Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., in 1776, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., after the War of the American Revolution. He was married to Diaa (died in Plymouth, Pa., in Oct., 1804), daughter of Jeremiah and Ann (Paine) Ross, (Family No. 647—Ross). In 1789 he was an innkeeper in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He died before 1800. His widow became the second wife of Rev. Noah Wadhams of Plymouth, Pa., who was born in Wethersfield, Hartford Co., Conn., May 17, 1786, son of Noah and Anne (Hurlbut) Wadhams, and died in Plymouth, Pa., May 22, 1806. See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., (Bib.-1) for sketch of Wadhams family, also (Bib.-55 and 59). In addition to his Kingston Township House Lot No. 15, John Hageman owned Lot 3, First Division, Third tier; Lots 21, 27 and 48, Second Division, and Lots 23, 32 and 53, Third Division, all in Newport Township. He was not survived by any children.

†John Comstock, of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., born May 2, 1739, was a son of James, born June 16, 1712, and Hannah (Allen) Comstock, who were married March 23, 1737. (See History of Montville, Conn., Bib.-183, for sketch of early Comstock family.) He was born at Norwich, New London, Co., Conn., and was married to Margaret (Peggy), born Nov. 20, 1726, daughter of John, born Oct. 25, 1689, and Johanna (Williams) Vibber, born about 1685, married, July 19, 1711, (see History of Montville for Vibber family). John and Johanna (Williams) Vibber had the following children: 1, Johanna, born Oct. 31, 1712, at North Parish, New London, Conn., married (1) to George Hill, married (2) to Jason Allen; 2, John, born Jan. 6, 1713, married to Amy Copp; 3, Marcy, born Jan. 9, 1715, died Jan. 19, 1754, married to Abram Harden; 4, William, born Nov. 15, 1717, married to Ann Leffingwell; 5, Nathaniel, born Feb. 6, 1720, married to Desire Brown; 6, Thomas, born Nov. 9, 1722, died 1739; 7, Sarah, born Dec. 24, 1724, died 1726; 8, Anna, born Dec. 6, 1729, married to John Champlin. (Bib.-183.)

John Comstock was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and was a member of the company of First Settlers who came to the Wyoming Valley in 1762. His name appears in the Westmoreland Tax Lists, Kingston District, in 1777, 1778, 1780 and 1781. He was established and commissioned Ensign of the First Alarm Company in Oct., 1777, and with his sons, Robert and Kingsley, both of whom were killed, he took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. (Bib.-1.) His will, made in Kingston, Dec. 17, 1782, was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 1, 1787. Phineas Pearce, Jonathan Woodworth and James Atherton signed it as witnesses. It refers to his wife as living, but not by name, and names his son, Peleg, executor. It names his son, Kingsley, and carries a bequest to his grandchild, Kingsley's daughter. It also names his daughter, Elizabeth, and refers to other daughters not named. He gave his wife the use of one-third of his estate, to his son Peleg one-half a proprietor's right in Kingston and to his daughters and his granddaughter, Kingsley's child, he gave his lands in Newport Township. John Comstock's Kingston lands included House Lot No. 24, which he sold to John Smith of New York State, who, Oct. 22, 1787, sold it to his father, Dr. William Hooker Smith; Meadow Lot 16, deeded Jan. 23, 1790, by Peleg and Margaret Comstock, and Mary, the wife of Peleg, to Laban Blanchard, (Family No. 33—Blanchard); Back Lot No. 9, one-half of which was sold, Jan. 9, 1789, by Peleg and Margaret Comstock, to Luke Sweetland, and the other half, the same day, to James Atherton; Fourth Division Lot No. 12, sold by Peleg Comstock, April 1, 1788, to Elijah, son of Peter and Mary Harris. Some of the children of John and Margaret (Vibber) Comstock were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Kingsley, (see later); 2, Robert, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 3, Eleanor, born 1763, married to Ambrose, born Nov., 1749, son of Justus Gaylord; 4, Peleg, married to Mary ———, had removed to Exeter Township from Kingston previous to 1792, when he was assessed in Lackawannock District, (Exeter and Pittston). He is named as Warrantee on a tract of land in what is now Ransom Township, adjoining the Newton Township line. Zebulon Comstock and Robert Comstock, who, with Peleg Comstock, were assessed in Exeter in 1814, were doubtless his sons, and Louisa Comstock of Exeter, who was married, Dec. 25, 1823, to Jonathan Mott, Jr., was probably his daughter; 5, Rachel, married to Isaac Parker; 6, Margaret, married to William Stager; 7, Elizabeth; 8, Prudence; 9, Marcy, married to John McMillen of Exeter, Pa., (Lackawannock District) in 1792, said to have been a graduate of the University of Dublin, and an early physician and school teacher in what is now Ransom Township, two of whose sons were: (1), Alexander, born July 29, 1787, died Nov. 16, 1869, married to Nancy, born June 25, 1786, died March 31, 1877, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.), and (2), William, born May 22, 1789, died May 9, 1873, with his wife, Zibia born April 29, 1800, died Sept. 19, 1866, buried in the Mount Zion, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. One of the daughters of John Comstock was married to William Carney. (Family No. 1021—Carney.)

Kingsley, son of John and Margaret (Vibber) Comstock, was married and lived in Newport Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was a member of the Hanover Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, and was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He had a daughter, Lois, who is referred to in the will of her grandfather, John Comstock. She was married to Robert Lewis and owned with Marcy, the wife of John McMillan, Lot No. 13, in the Third Division of Newport Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Robert and Lois Lewis sold their interest in this lot, June 25, 1810, to John McMillen, who, July 20, 1814, sold it to Thomas Wright. Robert Lewis was doubtless a son of Oliver and ——— Lewis of Exeter Township. Several of the children of Robert and Lois (Comstock) Lewis were baptised by the Rev. Ard Hoyt of Wilkes-Barre. About 1816, they removed to Trenton, Delaware Co., Ohio, where the will of Robert Lewis was made May 14, 1841. It was probated at Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, Aug. 25, 1841, and named Robert Carpenter and Thomas Lewis executors. The children of Robert and Lois (Comstock) Lewis were: 1, Eleanor (Nellie), baptised June 15, 1807, married in Delaware Co.,

he bought from Peleg Comstock and his wife, Mary, Lot No. 12, in the Fourth Division of Kingston. It appears probable that at about this time Elijah Harris removed from Forty Fort to the farm he had bought in the Fourth Division. He and his son, Charles, were evidently among the earliest settlers of that section of Kingston Township. Nov. 30, 1796, he bought from William and Mehitable Trucks and Daniel and Parmely Ayers, heirs of Asahel Buck (Family No. 946—Buck), one-half of Fourth Division Lot No. 11. On Lot 12 Elijah Harris built and operated a small grist mill. William Harris, his son, was assessed as a miller in 1814. One of the piers of this old mill is still standing (1918). This farm, now the residence of Edward Sax, was later the homestead farm of William Church. (Family No. 992—Church.) The will of Elijah Harris of Kingston Township was made Oct. 7, 1822, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 8, 1823. He is said to have been 85 years of age and was probably born about 1735. He was evidently married twice. He sold one-half a right of land, Lot No. 43, about 200 acres, in Providence Township, Sept. 22, 1795, to James Lewis of Pittston. His wife, Hannah, signed this deed. He sold lands to his son, Samuel, July 2, 1817, and to his son, William, July 10, 1820. His wife, Mary, signed these deeds. The children of Elijah Harris, named in his will, were: 1, Charles, born Feb., 1768, died March 24, 1864, (see later); 2, William, (see later); 3, Samuel, born 1778, died April 30, 1862, (see later); 4, Mehitable, married to Reuben, son of Jabez and Martha (Soverhill) Williams of Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., lived for a number of years in the Huntington Valley and removed to Wayne Co., Ohio, where they were living July 9, 1832. Had at least one son, Elijah; 5, Sarah, married to ——— Marvin, living in Knox Co., Ohio, June 18, 1832, probably a widow. These daughters of Elijah Harris on the dates above sold to Elijah Williams of Wayne Co., Ohio, their interest in one-half of Lot 12. Sam. B. Marvine attested the signature of Sarah Marvin.

III. (1). Charles, son of Elijah Harris, was born in Feb., 1768, and died March 24, 1864. He is said to have served as a substitute for Gideon Church in the Company of Captain Simon Spalding, in 1780. (See Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. VII, p. 136.) He was married to Martha Pierce, born Feb. 10, 1782, died Feb. 5, 1854. He bought one-half of Lot No. 11 of the Fourth Division of Kingston Township, from Oliver Pettebone, Aug. 29, 1791, and May 10, 1798, bought from his father, Elijah Harris, Lot No. 30, 208 acres, of the same division. He is also named as Warrantee on one-half of Lot 29. Charles and Martha (Pierce) Harris settled in the Harris Hill section of Kingston Township. They are buried in the Carverton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. Some of their children were: 1. Sally, born May 20, 1795, died Sept. 16, 1867, married to Ezra Ide, born May 18, 1782, died April 29, 1847, buried in Idetown, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery, (Family No. 1010—Ide); 2, Susanah, born Aug. 22, 1797, died Sept. 24, 1879, married to Henry Newman, born May 9, 1797, died Dec. 19, 1877, (Monroe Cemetery, Beaumont, Wyoming Co., Pa.). She is buried in Carverton, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. Some of their children were, (order of birth not certain): (1), Charles Harris, born April 28, 1822, died March 20, 1897, (Newton Centre, Pa., Cemetery), married to Mary, born Jan. 22, 1824, living at Newton Centre, Pa., 1917, daughter of John and Sarah Ann (Vaughn) Lanterman of Sussex Co., N. J.; (2), Daniel, whose wife, Mary J., born March 1, 1822, died June 20, 1857, is buried in the Clark Cemetery at Orcutt's, Pa.; (3), Ellen, married to John Wall; (4), Martha, married to James Jones; (5), Mark D., born Dec., 1830, died Aug. 26, 1859, (Monroe Cemetery, Beaumont, Pa.), married, in 1857, to Carrie F. Earl; (6), Noah, born Oct. 16, 1834, died March 13 1864, married to Julietta Eagleson; (7), William, born July 14, 1837, died Feb. 19, 1876, (Monroe Cemetery, Beaumont, Pa.), married to Mary ———; 3, Sylvina, born Jan., 1800, died June 1, 1871, married to Jacob Heft, born April 1, 1797, died Nov. 14, 1879, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery); 4, Elisha, born 1801, died April 16, 1888, a famous evangelistic local Ohio, to Robert, born 1784, died 1852, son of Judge Benjamin and Mary (Ferrier) Carpenter, (Family No. 14—Carpenter). She died and he was married (2) to Philena Walker, who died May 10, 1877; 2, Nancy, baptised Oct. 27, 1807, married, in Delaware Co., Ohio, to Lyman, son of Gilbert, Jr., and Mary (Scovell) Carpenter, (Family No. 14—Carpenter); 3, Sally, baptised Dec. 17, 1808; 4, Sally (2), baptised Feb. 10, 1809, married, in Delaware Co., Ohio, to Robert Reeder; 5, Lois, baptised July 9, 1811, probably died early, not named in her father's will; 6, John McMillen, baptised June 8, 1813, probably died early, not named in will; 7, Thomas, baptised Aug. 18, 1815, named as executor of his father's will; 8, Robert, Jr., deceased before Aug. 25, 1841, his widow, Rebecca, named in his father's will; 9, Elizabeth (Betsey), married to William Nelson; 10, Ann, married to Eleazer, deceased before Dec. 7, 1838, son of Gilbert, Jr., and Mary (Scovell) Carpenter, of Galena, Delaware Co., Ohio. She is described in the will of her father as Anna Rose, probably her name by second marriage. Mrs. Lois (Comstock) Lewis was probably deceased when her husband's will was made. Robert Carpenter and Thomas Lewis were named executors.

preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church (see Johnson's Historical Record, Vol. II, p. 83), married to Sarah Hawk, born Aug., 1804, died Oct. 19, 1891, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery); 5, Daniel, born Aug. 1, 1804, died May 18, 1876, married to Dorcas, born Aug. 26, 1808, died July 24, 1867, (Trucksville, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Joseph and Sarah Montanye, (Family No. 1217—Montanye); 6, Hiram, born Sept. 8, 1807, married to Mary Hefft, born June 1, 1806, died May 13, 1853, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery), married (2) to Mary, daughter of Christian and Catharine Atherholt; 7, Chester, born July 26, 1815, died June 26, 1898, married (1) to Jerusha, born Feb. 13, 1824, died Dec. 7, 1855, daughter of James H., born Oct. 1, 1789, died April 10, 1865, and Catharine Williamson, born Dec. 16, 1790, died April 2, 1865, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery), married (2) to Mary Wheeler, born Feb. 23, 1833, died April 11, 1903; 8, William C., married to Malinda, born Aug. 15, 1818, died Jan. 12, 1884, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.), daughter of Andrew and Amy (Harding) Montanye, (Family No. 1217—Montanye).

III. (2). William, son of Elijah Harris, was assessed as a miller in Kingston in 1814. For some years he lived near and operated the Tuttle Mill, on Abraham's Creek, near the stone bridge in what is now the borough of Forty Fort, Pa. He was married and had several children, some of whom were: 1, William, Jr., born 1789, died Sept. 13, 1847, married to Eunice ———, born 1788, died Sept. 30, 1846, (Lehman, Pa., Cemetery). His will, made Sept. 1, 1847, and probated Oct. 11, 1847, names his children: (1), Jonathan; (2), Thomas; (3), Daniel; (4), Jane Craft; (5), Cornely Ann Brown; (6), Eliza; (7), Emily, probably born 1826, died Feb. 23, 1850, married to ——— Reeve, (Lehman, Pa., Cemetery); (8), Margaret; (9), children of James Harris; (10), Samuel, (a Samuel Harris, born Oct. 18, 1831, died 1882, and his wife, Eliza A., born 1829, died 1906, is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. Ada, born July 21, 1859, died Nov. 5, 1888, wife of Jacob W. Badders, and Marian, born 1856, died 1909, wife of George Hutchins, are buried on the same lot. THE KOCHER FAMILY

Thomas Kocher* was born at Whitemarsh, near Philadelphia, Pa., April 1, 1766, and removed with his parents to Northampton Co., Pa., whence he came to the Wyoming Valley. He was of Nescopee, Luzerne Co., Pa., March 27, 1801, when he bought from Nathan and Susanna Beach, of Salem Township, 51 acres of a tract of land called Confidence, situated on the east side of the northeast branch of the Susquehanna River in Nescopee. He bought, Aug. 15, 1811, from Nathan and Rachel Beach (Family No. 946—Beach), then of Philadelphia, 100 acres of a tract called Union, described as lying on the east side of the Susquehanna River nearly opposite the upper end of Wright's Island. There was reserved "The privilege of the fishery commonly called Daniel Lee's fishery, for the fish company, agreeable to an article of agreement entered into by Nathan Beach and the said Daniel, of the first part and James Mears and others of the fishing company, of the other part, bearing date Sept., 1804." March 10, 1814, he bought from Nathan and Rachel Beach, then of Salem Township, "A certain island in the northeast branch of the Susquehanna River opposite Shickshinny," containing four acres.

Thomas Kocher was married to Anna Butler, who was born Jan. 7, 1767, died Feb. 1, 1846, and is buried in the Kocher Cemetery, Lake Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He died at Shickshinny, Pa., March 21, 1842, and is buried in Mount Zion Cemetery, Wapwallopen, Pa. His will, which was made Nov. 20, 1841, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, March 26, 1842, names his wife, Anna, and six of their children in the following order: Nathan, Thomas, Magdalina and her son John Kocher, Charles, Stephen and Josiah. Some of the children of Thomas and Anna (Butler) Kocher were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Thomas, Jr., (see later); 2, Magdalina, who had a son John Kocher; 3, Charles, married to ——— Sorber, some of whose children were: (1), Hamilton, born 1833, died 1915, married to Mrs. Sarah L. Alexander, (Hanover Green Cemetery); 8, George, Jr., deceased before Aug. 27, 1850, leaving an infant daughter, Euphame.

George, Jr., son of George and Elizabeth Kocher, was married (1) to Euphemia, born Dec. 17, 1808, died June 24, 1840; probably Robbins, buried in Hanover Green Cemetery. He was married (2), Aug. 25, 1841, to Elizabeth, daughter of Dr. George W. Wadhams, born 1800, died Sept. 11, 1848, son of Noah, born June 6, 1770, died Sept. 30, 1846, and Elizabeth (Barney) Wadhams, (Wadhams' Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.) of Plymouth, Pa. He was deceased before Aug. 27, 1850. With Charles Sturdevant and John M. Merrick he bought from George Kocher, Sr., Feb. 4, 1840, 70 perches of Lot 16 of the First Division in Hanover, including a store house. March 17, 1837, he had bought from Thomas Williamson and his wife, Elizabeth, David Townsend, Ziba Pyle and his wife, Maria, Thomas S. Bell and his wife, Keziah, William Everhart and his wife, Hannah, all of West Chester, Chester Co., Pa., the property at the corner of Market and Bank or Water street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

1889. Thomas Kocher named "my son, Nathan, and my neighbor, Lot Search," executors of his will.

II. (1). Thomas, Jr., son of Thomas and Anna (Butler) Kocher, lived in Newport Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was of that township Nov. 24, 1831, when Jacob Sorber sold him seven acres of land there and when John and Hannah Driesbach sold to him 100 acres of Lots 23 and 25 in Newport, which belonged to Christian Sorber at his death. He was married to Susan (probably Sorber), and his will, which was made March 15, 1849, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, April 3, 1849, names his wife, Susan, and appointed his sons, George S. and Jacob, executors. George S., son of Thomas, Jr., and Susan Kocher, was married to Delia Davenport. They were both deceased before April 3, 1855, leaving six minor children: 1, Sophia, born before 1841; 2, Clinton; 3, Angeline; 4, Rosalphia; 5, Emanuel L., born Feb. 19, 1851, married, in Aug., 1872, to Jennie Oates, will made Jan. 30, 1915, probated at Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 24, 1915; 6, Christianna. Jacob, son of Thomas, Jr., and Susan Kocher, was married to Maria Vandermark and their children were: 1, James H., born Dec. 22, 1847, married, Nov. 10, 1869, to Ellen, daughter of Reuben and Rachel Oplinger; 2, Estella; 3, Milton; 4, Lyon; 5, Martha.

His will was made June 24, 1882, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, May 14, 1883. The children of Josiah and Mary (Davenport) Kocher were: 1, Otis Allen, born Aug. 3, 1847, died Sept. 7, 1898, married to Rhoda Scott, born June 18, 1852, who made her will Dec. 23, 1916, which was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 17, 1917, naming her brothers, Edward, Thomas and Frank Scott, and her nephews, Friend Hildebrant and Stephen, Stanley R. and Sheridan Honeywell; 2, John R., married to Elizabeth Roberts; 3, Thomas T., born May 24, 1834, married (1), in 1857, to Lydia, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Davenport, married (2), in 1859, to Edrie, daughter of Andrew and Marcia A. (Hubbs) Sharp. Andrew Sharp was, without much doubt, a descendant of Jacob Sharpenstein of Florida, Montgomery Co., N. Y., (see Family No. 988—Sharps—Sharpenstein, and also Bradsby's Luzerne County, Pa., p. 1336). The will of Thomas T. Kocher, naming his wife, Edrie, and seven children, was made June 9, 1906, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 28, 1906; 4, William R.; 5, Melissa; 6, Jesse, married to ——— Frear; 7, Elizabeth (Kocher) Nagle; 8, Jane, married to Clement Compton; 9, Louisa, married to Edward Gaylord.

*Nathaniel Davenport's name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists in 1776, 1777 and 1778. The name of Samuel Davenport is on the Hanover lists for 1777-9. Nathaniel was assessed in Hanover in 1792. The name of Conrad Davenport appears in the list of those killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778.

I. Leonard Davenport, May 2, 1815, bought from Thomas and Mary Wright, of Wrightsville, Luzerne Co., Pa., part of Lot 14 of the Third Division of Huntington Township, containing 96 acres, and May 24, 1829, sold it to Humphrey Davenport, who, with his wife, Ann, sold it to Lewis Davenport. Leonard Davenport lived in Union Township, Aug. 29, 1829, when he made his will. It was probated Aug. 2, 1830, and names his grandsons, Charles and Israel Davenport, his son, Leonard, and his wife, Abigail, and his daughter-in-law, Susan. Some of the children of Leonard Davenport were: 1, Leonard, Jr., married to Abigail, who had at least two sons, Charles and Israel; 2, Lewis, (see later); 3, Humphrey, (see later); 4, Helan, married to Susan, daughter of John, Jr., and Christianna (Belles) Nobles. John, Jr., and Christianna (Belles) Nobles had two children: 1, Susan, married to Helan Davenport; 2, Lydia, married to Andrew Sorber. Mrs. Christianna (Belles) Nobles was married (2) to Isaac Benscoter.

II. (2). Lewis, son of Leonard Davenport, was married to Mary, born Sept. 28, 1802, died April 28, 1874, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Pensel) Jacobs, (Family No. 988—Jacobs). He was one of the pioneer settlers of Hazleton, Luzerne Co., Pa., and became one of its prominent citizens. For a number of years he was a tavern keeper there and he built the Hazleton House in 1832. Some interesting references to him and his enterprises may be found in Bradsby's History of Luzerne Co., Pa., pp. 526-7. He died at Hazleton, Nov. 5, 1863, survived by his wife, Mary (Jacobs) Davenport and four children: 1, Elvin E., married to Lewis W. C. Drake; 2, Mary M.; 3, Emma J., married to C. B. He was married (1), Aug. 25, 1768, to Martha, born June 14, 1760, died April 26, 1775, daughter of Colonel Elijah Hutchinson, married (2), Dec. 31, 1778, to Deborah Reeves, married (3), March 16, 1781, to Christina Conklin, born April 20, 1741; 9, David, born Oct. 30, 1743, died in Guilford, Conn., Sept. 14, 1796, was admitted a Proprietor in the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., April 8, 1763, and was then a resident of Guilford, Conn.; 10, Lieutenant Colonel Jonathan, born Oct. 30, 1743, (twin), died 1815, was married to Isabel Graham and lived at Pine Plains, N. Y., served as a Deputy to the Provincial Congress for Dutchess Co., N. Y., was a member of the Council of Safety for Dutchess Co., N. Y., in the American Revolution, also served as State Senator and Clerk of Dutchess Co.

III. (7). Captain Nathaniel Landon, son of Samuel and Bethiah (Tuthill) Landon, of Southold, Suffolk Co., N. Y., was born Sept. 29, 1734, and was a resident of South Haven, April 8, 1763, when he was admitted a Proprietor of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. His father, Samuel Landon,† Esq., also owned a one-half right in the same company and, as noted above, three of his brothers were also Proprietors. Samuel Landon came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., probably in 1773-4. He was appointed to serve on the Westmoreland School Committee, Dec. 6, 1774. May 11, 1775, he was appointed, by the General Assembly

*I. John Tuthill of Southold, Suffolk Co., N. Y., was born in England, July 16, 1635, and died Oct. 12, 1717. He was married to Deliverance, baptised in Salem, Mass, Aug. 31, 1641, died in Southold, Jan. 25, 1688-9, aed. 49 years, daughter of William and Dorothy King. Their third child and second son was, II. Henry, born May 1, 1665, died Jan. 4, 1750, whose will, made Sept. 28, 1749, was proved Jan. 25, 1750. It named his son Henry, and his grandson Henry, his son Barnabas, his grandson John Tuthill, his granddaughter Deliverance, wife of Elisha Paine; his granddaughter Bethiah, daughter of his son Jonathan; his granddaughter Zipporah, daughter of Henry Tuthill; his daughter Bethia, wife of Samuel Landon, Esq., and appointed his son Henry and his son-in-law, Samuel Landon, executors. Henry Tuthill was married to Bethiah, daughter of Barnabas Horton. She was born about 1674, and died March 16, 1744. Their children were: (1), Henry, born in 1690; (2), Jonathan, born in 1692-3, died Feb. 8, 1741, married, Feb. 23, 1723, to Susana L. Hommedieu; (3), Nathaniel, born about 1694, died April 27, 1727; (4), Barnabas, born about 1696; (5), Bethiah, born Dec. 12, 1703, died Aug. 30, 1761, married, May 26, 1721, to Samuel, son of Nathan and Hannah Landon. (Bib.-153.)

†The name of William Landon appears on the Westmorland Tax Lists for Plymouth District in 1777 and 1778. In 1790 James Landon lived in Luzerne Co., Pa., and had in family, living at home, himself, two males over 16, three males under 16, and three females. For some time he owned the old Gilbert Carpenter sawmill on the upper end of Lot No. 35, Third Division, in Kingston Township. He was assessed in Kingston in 1792 and 1796. If the two males over 16, returned as members of his family, in the Federal Census of 1790, were sons, he was doubtless born as early as 1746-8, and was probably a cousin of Nathaniel Landon. A David Landon was assessed in Kingston in 1796. He was probably the David Landon who was married, Dec. 27, 1801, to Lucinda Allen and was perhaps a son of Captain Nathaniel Landon. The will of James Landon of Delaware Co., Ohio, made June 26, 1829, and probated March 6, 1839, names only his youngest son, James.

of Connecticut, to serve as a Surveyor of Lands in and for Litchfield Co. He is described as of Westmoreland. Oct. 17, 1775, he was established, and commissioned by Governor Trumbull, Captain of the Second Company, located in Kingston District, of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, at Westmoreland. George Dorrance was commissioned Lieutenant and Asahel Buck, Ensign, of the same company. Zebulon Butler had been established and commissioned Colonel and Nathan Dennison Lieutenant Colonel of this regiment, May 11, 1775. (Bib.-1.) In 1790 Nathaniel Landon was living in Luzerne Co., Pa., and had in family, living at home, himself, two males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 and three females. In 1792 Nathaniel Landon and Samuel Landon, a single Freeman, were assessed in Kingston Township. They were also assessed in Kingston in 1796. In 1782 Captain Landon was commissioned Justice of the Peace and in 1792 and 1795 was appointed Overseer of the Poor for Luzerne Co. in Kingston Township. He owned very extensive tracts of land in Kingston and Plymouth Townships and his name appears frequently in connection with real estate transactions. The name of his first wife is not available to the writer. He probably had at least three sons: 1, Joshua, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 2, Samuel, (see later); 3, probably David, married, Dec. 27, 1801, to Lucinda Allen. Captain Nathaniel Landon was married (2) to Mrs. Sarah Durkee, born Aug. 27, 1739, died in Kingston, Pa., Sept. 3, 1803, (City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), widow of Captain Robert Durkee, who was wounded in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and was later killed in cold blood by one of the enemy, (see Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, pp. 835 and 893, for sketch of Durkee family). About 1807-8, Captain Nathaniel Landon removed from the Wyoming Valley, Pa., to Delaware Co., Ohio, and July 8, 1809, at Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, executed a power of attorney empowering Lazarus Denison of Luzerne Co., Pa., to satisfy a mortgage given by Charles Chapman of Kingston, Pa.

IV. (2). Samuel, son of Captain Nathaniel Landon, was assessed as a single Freeman in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1792. He was married (1) to Elizabeth, born Feb. 12, 1786, died Sept. 15, 1815, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Jesse and Martha (Carpenter) Gardner, of Pittston Township, (Family No. 14—Gardner) and their children were: 1, Cyrene; 2, Clarissa, who was married, Oct. 14, 1834, to the Rev. Erastus Smith, born about 1810, died at Normal, McLean Co., Ill. Rev. Erastus Smith is said to have been a native of New York. He served as a supply preacher in the Oneida Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in 1831, and the next year became a member of the Conference. He served the churches at Bethany, Pa.; Honesdale, Pa.; Pittston, Pa., in 1834, Canaan, Pa.; Bridgewater, Pa.; Nichols, N. Y.; Vestal, N. Y.; Orwell, Pa.; Brooklyn, Pa.; Nichols, N. Y.; Barton, N. Y.; Northmoreland, Pa., (1845); Pittston, Pa., (1848); Northmoreland, Pa., (1849); Springville, Pa.; Beach Pond, Pa.; Waymart, Pa.; Newport, Pa., (1856). In 1858 he retired from the active ministry and, about 1884, removed to Illinois, where, at Normal, Ill., at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. C. Hathaway, he and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They had ten children, nine of whom survived them. Some of their children were: Rev. Erastus Smith, Jr., Rev. Melvin C. Smith, Casa, Mrs. F. C. Hathaway, and Jesse Gardner Smith, born May 29, 1844, died June 2, 1845, (Northmoreland, Pa., Cemetery, at Centermoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa.)

Samuel Landon* was married (2) to Elizabeth, born March, 1793, died Oct. 30, 1879, daughter of Captain Jeremiah, Jr., and Martha (Hutchins) Blanchard, (Family No. 33—Blanchard). Their daughter, Martha B., born Sept. 5, 1824, died Nov. 8, 1853, was married to Thomas Hutchins. Samuel Landon was living in Delaware Co., Ohio, Sept. 18, 1847.

THE HUTCHINS FAMILY

The name of John Hutchins appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1777 and 1778 as a resident of Hanover Township, and also in the list of the slain at the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. His name also appears on the Muster Roll of the 24th Regiment, Conn., Westmoreland Militia, as published in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley, p. 1096.

*The will of a Samuel Landon of Delaware Co., Ohio, probated Aug. 20, 1852, names his wife, Sarah, and distributed his estate to his brothers and sisters. He named Solon Landon and James Landon (2d) as executors. A William Landon was married in Oct., 1803, to Mary Bishop of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Ann Landon was married to Henry Osborne in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., in Feb., 1806.

I. Thomas Hutchins, of Hanover, was married to Mary Ann Lines (Lion, Lyon), doubtless a descendant of Conrad, born 1731, died Sept. 6, 1815, and Claracy Lion, born 1741, died April 7, 1817, (Hanover Green Cemetery). Thomas Hutchins was a saddler and harnessmaker in Wilkes-Barre in 1813. He was a resident of Wilkes-Barre in 1824 and in 1830 had removed to Covington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Some of the children of Thomas and Mary Ann (Lion) Hutchins were, (order of birth not certain): (1), Richard, born May 23, 1819, died Jan. 26, 1863, (see later); (2), Thomas, born Aug. 27, 1823, died Dec. 13, 1882, (see later); (3), Emily, married to Henry, son of Thomas Parker Oakley;* (4), Mary, married to Conrad Klipple of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; (5), Sarah, born Nov. 6, 1830, died March 21, 1875, (see later). He became a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 7, 1823. A Thomas Hutchins died in Wilkes-Barre in Feb., 1835, aed. 35 years.

II. (1). Richard, son of Thomas and Mary Ann (Lion) Hutchins, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 23, 1819, and died in Kingston, Pa., Jan. 26, 1863. He was a harnessmaker, following the trade of his father. He served as County Commissioner in 1851, 1852, 1853, and was a member of the first Town Council of the Borough of Kingston, having been elected Dec. 15, 1857. He was married (1), Feb. 22, 1841, by the Rev. Mr. Benham, to Frances E., born in 1819, died Jan. 26, 1863, daughter of Colonel John W. Little. Their son, Richard, who was married (1) to Marilla Shafer, (Family No. 43—Shafer), born in 1847, died in 1900, and was married (2) to Winifred Morton, lives in Wyoming, Pa. He was for a number of years a merchant at Wyoming, Pa., and has now been for more than 37 years an accountant in the employ of the Payne Pettebone family. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and of the Official Board and served for about 25 years as its Treasurer. He is also a member of Lodge No. 468, F. and A. M., at Wyoming and was its highly efficient Secretary for a similar period. Their daughter, Mary F. Hutchins, was born Jan. 10, 1842, and died Sept. 6, 1847. She was married, Nov. 11, 1862, by the Rev. H. H. Wells, to George O. Richmond, born Oct. 3, 1832, died Jan. 15, 1895.

Richard Hutchins was married (2), by the Rev. H. H. Wells, Oct. 10, 1853, to Mrs. Elizabeth (Seeley) Bond, daughter of Robert and Mary Seeley.† He was married (3), Jan. 29, 1857, by the Rev. H. H. Wells, to Mrs. Elizabeth Hays. Richard Hutchins, Sr., died in Kingston, Pa. The family burial plot is in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery. His second wife is buried beside her father in Forty Fort Cemetery.

II. (2). Thomas, Jr., son of Thomas and Mary Ann (Lion) Hutchins, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 27, 1823, and died at Wyoming, Pa., Dec. 13, 1882. He was a tanner and currier and built and operated a tannery near the line of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, on Lot No. 37, at Wyoming. This plot had been deeded by Isaac, Jr., and Elizabeth (Chapin) Shoemaker, to Archibald Knight in trust for Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Landon, and Aug. 5, 1858, Archibald Knight, trustee, conveyed this three acre plot, for a consideration of $1,500, to Thomas Hutchins. The tannery was built about 1858 and, in connection with the tannery, a shop for finishing leather was built on the same plot, on or near Wyoming avenue. Some of the employes, who are still remembered were, Milton Searle, a tanner and currier; Charles Space, who learned the trade of a currier there; Jacob Straub and Sanderson P., son of Theodore P. and Mary Ann (Seiple) Shirley. The Shirleys came to Wyoming, Pa., from Easton, Pa., and, about 1858, Theodore P. Shirley was a tailor and had a shop where the James Huthmaker jewelry store at Wyoming, Pa., is now (1918). There was also a Swedish expert finisher of leather, named Dimling, who lived in part of the finishing shop. The tannery was operated until about 1875. Thomas Hutchins was elected Recorder of Deeds for Luzerne Co., and served in that office in 1869, 1870, and 1871. With his son, John A. Hutchins, and Calvin Dietrick he owned the plant of the Wyoming Terra Cotta Works. He was one of the original trustees of the Wyoming Cemetery Association, (see Family No. 986) and served as Treasurer of the association. From March 27, 1869, he was a member of the Wyoming Presbyterian Church and Oct. 30, 1870, was ordained a Ruling Elder. His home was on Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, near the Exeter Township line. The old house has now been moved back from the street and its former site is occupied by business blocks.

*Thomas Parker Oakley, doubtless a native of England, bought, March 24, 1821, from David and Sarah Perkins, 80 acres of Back Lot No. 28, Third Division of lots in Kingston Township. This was a part of the farm later owned by the Rev. Thomas P. Hunt, and adjoining the Sweetland homestead. Henry Oakley, who inherited it from his father, sold it to William Willets, who in turn sold it to Thomas P. Hunt. The will of Thomas Parker Oakley was made Aug. 26, 1830, and probated Nov. 9, 1831. His wife, not named in the will, was probably deceased. His children were: 1, Henry, married to Emily Hutchins; 2, Richard; 3, Edward; 4, William; 5, Mary, born at Deal, England, May 20, 1805, died at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 29, 1878, (Hollenback Cemetery), married, May 1, 1834, to William Willet, who was a hatter.

†Robert Seeley, born 1787, died May 4, 1853, and his wife, Mary, born May 1, 1800, died Aug. 20, 1867, are buried in the Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. Some of their children were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Sarah (Seeley) Willets, born 1818, died 1892; 2, Mary Ann, married, March 27, 1845, to Henry Colt, born Sept. 29, 1818, died at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, Feb. 13, 1892, son of Seth, born about 1785, died May 3, 1825, and Rebecca (Yarrington) Wilson, born about 1725, died Jan. 26, 1844, aed. 69 years, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery). Henry Colt Wilson was married (2) to Sarah A. Johnson of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. She was born in March, 1824, and died at Columbus, Ohio, April 20, 1903, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); 3, Elizabeth, born July 18, 1823, died Dec. 22, 1854, married (1), March 27, 1848 to Joseph Bond married (2), Oct. 10, 1853, as second wife, to Richard Hutchins, (see above); 4, Jane, born Aug. 3, 1828, died Aug. 6, 1848; 5, Eudora, born in 1831, died May 15, 1856, married to John P. Whitman, born 1827, died 1871; 6, George, born Dec. 28, 1834, died Dec. 14, 1901, (see Johnson's Historical Record, Wilkes-Barre, Vol. XI, p. 58), a banker at Galveston, Texas, married to Magnolia, daughter of P. J. Willis, of Galveston, Texas; 7, John, deceased, also a banker at Galveston, Texas; 8, Caroline, born 1838, died June 27, 1892, married, June 11, 1863, to Captain Alfred Darte, Kingston, Pa., born April 28, 1836, died July 20, 1901, son of Captain Alfred and Anna E. (Cone) Darte of Carbondale, Pa.

Thomas Hutchins, Jr., was married (1) to Martha B., born Sept. 5, 1824, died Nov. 8, 1853, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Blanchard) Landon, (see above), and their son, (1), John A. Hutchins, was born July 4, 1848, and their daughter, Mary E., was born May 18, 1852, and died March 7, 1854. Thomas Hutchins, Jr., was married (2) to Annie M., born June 4, 1836, died Jan. 31, 1906, daughter of James, born April, 1808, died Nov. 22, 1865, and Susannah D. Harris, born Aug. 6, 1799, died Sept. 4, 1886, and their children were: Thomas (3d), not married; Robert Henry, married, Oct., 1882, to Sally Perkins, daughter of James P. and Sarah Jane (Perkins) Atherton, (Family No. 1313—Perkins, and No. 992—Atherton); Dr. Richard H., married, Oct., 1883, to Helen Baldwin, daughter of James P. and Sarah Jane (Perkins) Atherton; Conrad Elmer; Sarah Ann, married to Clarence Turner; Emily, married to Robert Lackey; Crawford Arthur.

II. (3). Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann (Lion) Hutchins, was born Nov. 6, 1830, and died March 21, 1875. She was married to Robert Wilson, who was born in Yorkshire, England, Dec. 29, 1825, and died at Wyoming, Pa., Oct. 22, 1894. He was a pharmacist and was for many years proprietor of the Wilson Drug Store at Wyoming, Pa. The children of Robert and Sarah (Hutchins) Wilson were: (1), Thomas, born Nov. 6, 1855; (2), Fannie, born Nov. 9, 1857, married to A. B. Green, (Family No. 993—Green); (3), Mary A., born Feb. 2, 1864, married to Ira Holden, born Jan. 22, 1862, son of Holden and Sally (Shoemaker) Tripp, (Family No. 1042A).

III. (1). John A., son of Thomas, Jr., and Martha B. (Landon) Hutchins, was born at Wyoming, Pa., July 4, 1848. He began his business career by serving as a deputy in the office of the Recorder of Deeds, at Wilkes-Barre and was later employed in the same office to assist in the making of a new index. He then went into the terra cotta business, having associated himself with his father and Calvin Dietrick, (Family No. 1001—Marcy) in the ownership of the Wyoming Terra Cotta Works. Dec. 31, 1888, in company with his wife, who bought a one-twelfth interest, and with William Chesworth, who bought a two-twelfths interest, he bought, from Samuel R. Shoemaker the Morning Star farm of 146 acres, part of Lot 37, in Exeter. He built a breaker on Lot 1, Exeter, and opened the Morning Star Mine on Lot 37, in the following year. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and of Wyoming Lodge, No. 468, F. and A. M. He also served as a member of the first Town Council of Wyoming Borough and as a School Director. He died in Wyoming, Pa., in 1897. His wife, Mrs. Mary Jane (Shoemaker) Hutchins, died Sept. 14, 1913. They are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery.

WILLIAM THOMAS HUTCHINS; FAMILIES NOS. 1026—(1025)

William Thomas, son of John A. and Mary Jane (Shoemaker) Hutchins, was born at Wyoming, Pa., May 4, 1874, and died at Tucson, Ariz., March 20, 1915. He was a graduate of the Engineering Department of Lehigh University and was a civil engineer. He served for a number of years as Borough Engineer at Wyoming, Pa., and was also engaged in road construction. For some years he operated the Wyoming Terra Cotta Works. He was a charter member of Wyoming Aerie of Eagles and of Wyoming Hose Company No. 1. He was married, April 19, 1898, to Gertrude, daughter of Colonel Harry A. and Emma (Long) Laycock,* and their children are: John Henry, born July 17, 1899, and Caroline, born May 9, 1901. William Thomas Hutchins is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. His widow lives, with her widowed mother, in Wyoming, Pa.

THE LAYCOCK FAMILY (LEACOCK)

1. Daniel Laycock,* a native of New Jersey, was married to a Miss Pursell and some of their children were: 1, Jacob, born April 22, 1796, (see later); 2, John, whose wife was a Miss Emmett, and 3, William, who was not married. Jacob, son of Daniel and ——— (Pursell) Laycock, born April 22, 1796, died May 29, 1854, was married to Christianna, born June 28, 1811, died Jan. 3, 1892, daughter of Jacob and Deborah (Park) Young. They lived for a number of years at Kennedyville, Warren Co., N. J., whence they removed to Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa., where Jacob Laycock was, for many years, proprietor of the American Hotel. They removed to Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., and July 4, 1863, Mrs. Christianna (Young) Laycock bought from James Jenkins the hotel property at the corner of what is now Wyoming avenue and Eighth street, Wyoming, Pa. This plot was the southern corner of Lot No. 35, and in 1801, was the site of the first school house in Wyoming, Pa., (then New Troy). It has been occupied continuously as a hotel since about 1813 and is probably one of the oldest hotel sites in the Wyoming Valley. The first hotel building was doubtless erected on the site by Lot Breese (Family No. 989—Breese) about 1813 and was sold by him to Colonel Harris Jenkins, April 22, 1818, who, in 1828, sold it to his brother, James Jenkins. The hotel became known as the Laycock Hotel and under the management of two generations of the Laycock family became one of the popular hotels of the Wyoming Valley. Jacob Laycock and his wife, Christianna (Young) Laycock, are buried in the cemetery at Wyoming, Pa. Their children were: 1, Jonathan R., born Nov. 17, 1829, died in Nov., 1879, married to Phoebe, daughter of Judge Bristol, whose daughter, Mary, born May 8, 1869, was married to John Huffman; 2, Daniel P., born Aug. 31, 1831, died Feb. 18, 1869, married to Henrietta, born about 1843, died March, 1904, daughter of Dr. Alfred and Catharine (Van Loon) Brace, (Family No. 38—Brace). Mrs. Henrietta (Brace) Laycock was married (2), March 12, 1872, by Rev. A. B. King, to George W. Graley of New York, who was born in 1837 and died in 1903, (Wyoming Cemetery); 3, Henry A., born Nov. 11, 1834, (see later); 4, Sarah E., born Oct. 18, 1836, died Jan. 25, 1895, married to Elisha A. Dailey, born in 1842, died Nov. 29, 1909, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery), whose children were: (1), Anna May, died in youth; (2), Harry Laycock, born March, 1865; (3), Harriet, born 1867, married to Charles M. Williams; (4), Charles, died in infancy; (5), Jesse, died in infancy; (6), Robert Laycock, born March 17, 1873, married to Mary Deitrick; (7), George, born Sept. 17, 1876; (8), Jane A., born Sept. 17, 1878; (9), Elmer, born June 28, 1880; 5, Robert Kennedy, born Jan. 24, 1839, died Oct. 27, 1905, named for Judge Robert Kennedy, of Sussex Co., N. J., (Family No. 1254—Kennedy). Robert Kennedy Laycock was a carriage smith by trade and was a member of the firm of Laycock and Crouse,† famous manufacturers of carriages, wagons and sleighs at Wyoming, Pa. He was a member of the Wyoming Borough Council for three terms, and was a charter member of Wyoming Lodge, No. 468, F. and A. M. He was also a member of Shekinah Chapter, R. A. M., No. 182, and a Past Eminent Commander of Dieu Le Veut Commandery, No. 45, Knights Templar, of Wilkes-Barre. He was married, Dec. 19, 1867, to Mary A., born July 17, 1842, died Feb. 22, 1895, daughter of Almon and Ruth Ann (Jenkins) Church, (Family No. 988—Jenkins and No. 992—Church). Their daughter, Ruth Ann, born March 6, 1877, died Sept. 8, 1898, was married, June 30, 1897, to Priestly R. Johnson, (Wyoming Cemetery); 6, Martha, born Sept. 14, 1841, married, Dec. 7,

*In Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa., may be found the grave of Daniel Laycock, who died Nov. 27, 1857, that of Sarah, his wife, who died Feb. 28, 1876, and that of their son, John, born July 22, 1818, died Nov. 17, 1879.

†Andrew Jackson Crouse of the firm of Laycock and Crouse at Wyoming, Pa., was born May 4, 1835, and died July 5, 1909. He was married to Ellen Barry, and two of their children were: 1, Charles, born Aug. 22, 1859, died June 25, 1911, and 2, a daughter, married to Richard Hughes of Pittston, Pa.

1864, by Rev. A. B. Y., July 27, 1872, son of Phineas Howard, born 1843, and Mary (Hinman) Catlin, who were married in 1871. The children of Lewis and Ida May (Lattin) Estabrook-Catlin are: Josephine, born Dec. 10, 1900, and Phineas, born March 12, 1903.

PHEBE M. (TRIPP) SHERWOOD; FAMILIES NOS. 1037—(1032)

Phebe M., daughter of Isaac and Margaret (Shoemaker) Tripp, was born in Providence, now Scranton, Pa., Aug. 24, 1847, and, in 1854, removed with her parents to Kingston, Pa. She was married, Feb. 25, 1874, by the Rev. F. A. King, to William I., born at Ulysses, N. Y., July 8, 1849, son of Augustus M. and Charlotte M. (King) Sherwood. Augustus M. Sherwood, born at Covert, Seneca Co., N. Y., Aug. 5, 1812, was married, Feb. 1, 1837, to Charlotte M. King and their children were: Mary H., Maria K., Minerva E., Elias K., William I., Ida M., Annie A. and Minnie A. Augustus M. Sherwood died Aug. 7, 1885. William I. Sherwood was educated in the public schools and at Trumansburg Academy. He was for a number of years engaged in the undertaking business and subsequently became a farmer. He has served his community as Postmaster and as Chief Engineer of the Fire Department. He has also been Secretary of the I. O. O. F. and Recorder of the A. O. U. W. The children of William I. and Phebe M. (Tripp) Sherwood are: Edwin Stone, born Sept. 1, 1877, died Sept. 27, 1877, and Merritt, born May 29, 1879, died Feb. 3, 1889.

MARGARET E. (TRIPP) STOUT; FAMILIES NOS. 1038—(1032)

Margaret E., daughter of Isaac and Margaret (Shoemaker) Tripp, was born in Providence, now Scranton, Pa., Aug. 21, 1851, and removed with her parents to Kingston, Pa., in 1854. She was married, Dec. 25, 1871, by the Rev. Francis A. King, to Anson C. Stout.

John G. Stout, son of Christian and Sarah (Gross) Stout, was born in Nazareth, Pa., June 13, 1813, and died at Forty Fort, Pa., in 1892. He was married, May 10, 1836, to Eunice, born Sept. 11, 1812, died Oct. 1, 1863, daughter of James and Sarah (Hunter) Lamoreux, (see Family No. 1010—Lamoreux). Their children were: (1), Robert; (2), Theodore L., born July 5, 1839, served in Company D, 61st Regiment. Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, died at Brandy Station, Va., Feb. 26, 1863; (3), Anson C., born Jan. 10, 1846, died Dec. 8, 1907; (4), Dyer M., born 1851, died 1913.

Anson C. Stout was in railroad service nearly all his life. He was in the service of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg, Railway and later was a telegraph operator and became a train dispatcher at Penobscot, Pa., in the employ of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. He removed to Forty Fort, Pa., in 1882, and for several years was a merchant there. He later returned to the railroad service and was engaged in it for several years. He died at Forty Fort, Pa., Dec. 8, 1907. The children of Anson C. and Margaret (Tripp) Stout are: (1), Frederick N., born Dec. 13, 1872; (2), Isaac Tripp, born June 26, 1879. Mrs. Margaret (Tripp) Stout died Aug. 28, 1882. She and her husband are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery.

FREDERICK N. STOUT; FAMILIES NOS. 1039—(1038)

Frederick N., son of Anson C. and Margaret (Tripp) Stout, was born at Penobscot, Pa., Dec. 13, 1872, and was married, Feb. 24, 1906, to Mary, daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth (Fane) Switzer. Their home is in Forty Fort, Pa., and he is in the employ of the Forty Fort Cemetery Association.

ISAAC TRIPP STOUT; FAMILIES NOS. 1040—(1038)

Isaac Tripp, son of Anson C. and Margaret (Tripp) Stout, was born at Penobscot, Pa., June 26, 1879, and was married, Aug. 5, 1908, by the Rev. W. T. Blair, to Pearl, daughter of Gilbert A. and Frances (Roberts) Wilkinson. He is a skilled machinist living at Forty Fort, Pa. Their children are: Landis Tripp, born Aug. 5, 1909; Frances Leonora, born July 22, 1911, and Blanche Wilkinson, born Jan. 4, 1913.

EMMA C. (TRIPP) WILLIAMS; FAMILIES NOS. 1041—(1032)

Emma C., daughter of Isaac, Jr., and Margaret (Shoemaker) Tripp, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 12, 1854, and was married, Jan. 5, 1881, by the Rev. John La Bar, to Stephen F., son of Caleb and Susannah Beach (Dodson) Williams. He was, for many years, engaged in the drug business in Plymouth, Pa., and their home is now on Wyoming avenue, Kingston, Pa. Their children were: (1), J. Stewart, born April 1, 1884; (2), Kate Louisa, born July 22, 1886.

THE WILLIAMS FAMILY

Thomas, Uriah and Jabez Williams of the Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., were brothers, natives of Connecticut, and early settlers in Huntington. Thomas came in 1776, and in July, 1778, was a member of Captain John Franklin's Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia. He reached Forty Fort, with other members of the company, late on the day after the battle of Wyoming was fought and was in the fort when it was surrendered. Two of the daughters of Thomas Williams were: 1, Jane, who was married, Jan. 1, 1792, to James Nisbitt, and 2, Abigail, who was married to Amos, son of Enos and Sarah (Goss) Seward, (Family No. 3—Seward, and No. 1041—Goss). The home of Thomas Williams was at the foot of Knob Mountain. (See The Harvey Book, p. 339.)

I. Jabez Williams was born in Connecticut about 1749 and died in the Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 21, 1828, aed. 79 years. He was a carpenter and farmer. He was married, in Connecticut, to Martha Soverhill, who was born about 1748, and died in the Huntington Valley, Jan. 12, 1817, aed. 69 years. He enlisted, Dec. 19, 1776, in Captain Sanford's Company of the Fifth Regiment, Conn. Continental Line, in the War of the American Revolution and, after serving three years, one month and thirteen days, was honorably discharged, Feb. 1, 1780. (Bib.—108.) Soon after the close of the War of the Revolution Jabez Williams removed, from Litchfield Co., Conn., to Luzerne Co., Pa., and in 1790 was living there and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, one male under 16 and five females, probably two sons, his wife and four daughters. His name appears on a petition presented to the Court of Quarter Sessions the third Monday in April, 1792, as an inhabitant of Plymouth. This petition recites that the inhabitants of Plymouth "have for some time past labored under great inconvenience for want of a good and near road to the landing commonly known by the name of Mervin's Eddy, being the most convenient landing on the river adjoining the said town of Plymouth. And that a certain Samuel Mervin, of the town aforesaid, hath shut up the passage formerly occupied to the aforesaid eddy and refuses to let it be occupied without enormous pay for the same." In 1792 he was assessed in Plymouth Township. His son, Reuben, was also assessed there, in that year as a single Freeman. Jabez and Martha (Soverhill) Williams are buried in the Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa. Some of their children were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Reuben, born before 1771, married to Mehitabel, daughter of Elijah Harris of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., (Family No. 1021—Harris), lived for a number of years in Huntington Valley, but were living in Wayne Co., Ohio, July 9, 1832; 2, Martha, married to Stephen Arnold; 3, Rhoda, married, in 1800, to Elder Zerah, born April 11, 1775, died 1859, son of Uriah and Phebe (Nesbitt) Marvin.* (Bib.-2.) Zerah Marvin on April 28, 1854, deeded to the inhabitants of

* (II). Sergeant John Marvin, born Sept. 2, 1678, at Norwalk, Conn., died at Sharon, Conn., Feb. 9, 1774, son of (I). Matthew, and was married (1) to Mary, born about 1685, died at Norwalk, Conn., April 17, 1720, daughter of James Beers, Jr. (Bib.-92.) He was married (2) to Rachel, daughter of Matthias, St. John. (Bib.-1.) Two of the sons of Sergeant John and Mary (Beers) Marvin were Captain David, born in Norwalk, Conn., Aug. 24, 1711, and General Elihu, born at Norwalk, Conn., Oct. 10, 1719.

III. Captain David Marvin, born Aug. 24, 1711, son of Sergeant John and Mary (Beers) Marvin, was married, about 1832, to Hannah Gregory. They lived for a number of years in Ridgefield, Fairfield Co., Conn., where, at least, their first four children were baptised, and later removed to Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y. He commanded a company in the French and Indian War, his son, David Marvin, Jr., serving under his command. He was admitted a Proprietor in the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., Nov. 6, 1762, and was one of the original settlers who, in that year, came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., to establish a settlement. His name, and the name of his sons, Samuel and Uriah, appear in the "List of Settlers actually on the ground" in the Wyoming Valley, June 2, 1769, and also on the petition, of Aug. 29, 1769, praying the General Assembly of Connecticut for the erection of a county. His sons, Matthew and Uriah, are named with Captain David Marvin in the "List of Settlers," July-Aug., 1771, and in Oct. of the same year Matthew and Captain David were at Wyoming. Captain David Marvin and his sons, Samuel and Uriah, are named in the presentment of the Grand Jury of Northampton Co., Pa., in Sept., 1770, and in July of the same year he was serving as a member of the "Committee of Settlers." In May, 1772, Captain David Marvin, David Marvin, Jr., and Matthew Marvin were listed as settlers at Wyoming and, Oct. 3, 1772, David Marvin, David Marvin, Jr., Uriah Marvin, Matthew Marvin and Seth Marvin, signed the second petition to the General Assembly praying for the erection of a county. Captain David Marvin was one of the earliest settlers in Plymouth District of the town of Westmoreland, and, Nov. 18, 1772, he was appointed to serve on a committee to "Git men to work on ye rode from Dillaware River to this place and to set out next Wednesday to work on ye rode." (Bib.-1.) May 25, 1773, at a meeting of settlers held at Wilkes-Barre, he was appointed to "Oversee the guarding and scouting at Plymouth," and June 2, 1773, by a vote of the Susquehanna Company, at Hartford, Conn., he was appointed to serve with Phineas Nash and Joesph Gaylord as Directors of the town of Plymouth. The names of David and Matthew Marvin appear on the tax lists for Plymouth District in 1776 and the name of Seth Marvin on the Kingston List for the same year. The names of David, Samuel and Uriah Marvin are on the lists for Plymouth in 1777 and 1778. Captain David Marvin died in Plymouth, before June 1, in the year 1778, and was buried in Middle Tier House Lot No. 11, in Plymouth, (see Samuel Marvin later). House Lot No. 11 lay a short distance below the present Academy street in Plymouth, Pa., was ten rods wide and eighty rods long and was bounded on one end by the Susquehanna River and on the other by lands of Jonah Rogers, Jr. Somewhere between the river and a point 64 perches (exclusive of the width of the highway) from the river, Captain David Marvin and his wife were buried. In the partition of the real estate of Captain David Marvin, Aug. 31, 1789, the following are named as heirs: 1, David Marvin; 2, heirs of Isaiah Marvin; 3, Sarah Marvin, wife of Amariah Cleveland; 4, Hannah Marvin; 5, Ruana Elison; 6, Hester McCoy; 7, Mary Marvin; 8, Samuel Marvin; 9, Uriah Marvin's heirs; 10, Daniel Marvin's heirs.

The children of Captain David and Hannah (Gregorey) Marvin were:

1. Mary, baptised in Ridgefield, Fairfield Co., Conn., Nov. 16, 1735. (Bib.-1), married to Nathan, born at Norwalk, Conn., about 1731, died in Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., in 1805, son of Nathan and Hannah (Betts) Marvin. His will, made Jan. 14, 1805, probated at Goshen, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1805, named 15 children. (Bib.-92). July 7, 1800, Nathan and Mary Marvin, of Orange Co., N. Y., sold to Samuel Marvin, of Northmoreland, Pa., all their right in the estate of David Marvin, "Our honored father," John McDowell and Woodhull Helm signing the deed as witnesses.

2. Isaiah, baptised in Ridgefield, Fairfield Co., Conn., May 29, 1737, (Bib.-1) died before Aug. 31, 1789, leaving heirs living in 1789 and referred to in the partition of the estate of Captain David Marvin, who sold their interest in that estate to Samuel Marvin, who, June 28, 1802, sold that interest to Calvin Wadhams, describing it as that part of the real estate of Isaiah Marvin which came to him by descent from his father, David Marvin, and situated in Meadow Lot 30, Second Division, Plymouth.

3. Ruth, or Ruana, baptised in Ridgefield, Fairfield Co., Conn., June 4, 1738, named in the partition of the estate of Captain David Marvin as Ruana Elison, and who, as Ruah Allison of Goshen, N. Y., sold, July 8, 1800, to Samuel Marvin "all my right in the real estate of my father, David Marvin," Thomas Denton and Daniel Hall signing the deed as witnesses.

Union Township a certain piece of ground in Union, "On the premises of Zerah Marvin, and near the premises of John Marvin, twelve rods by six rods in extent, now used as a place to bury the dead, reserving such part to Zerah Marvin as he may think proper;" 4, Jemima, born about 1778, died Oct. 11, 1819, aed. 41 years,

4. David, Jr., baptised at Ridgefield, Fairfield Co., Conn., Aug. 5, 1739, (Bib.-1) served in the Orange Co., N. Y., company of his father, Captain David Marvin, in the French and Indian War (Bib.-92), and was doubtless the Lieutenant Marvin named with Captain Samuel Ransom, Captain Ebenezer Blanchard and Captain Zebulon Butler in the Jesse Lukens diary. (Bib.-1, Bib.-72.) According to a Marvin family tradition (Bib.-92) David Marvin, Jr., was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. According to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1) he was deceased before April, 1782, had been married to Sarah ———, and left children, David, Nathan (?) and Isaiah. Either he or his son, David, served as a private in Colonel Zebulon Butler's detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, at Wyoming, in 1778, and is credited with one month and 15 days' service after June 28, 1778, and before Oct. 1, 1778. (Bib.-1.) Some of the children of David Marvin, Jr., were: (1), David (3d), born in Blooming Grove, N. Y., April 13, 1759, served from Feb. 15, 1777, to Dec. 19, 1778, in Captain Stephen Hall's Company, and from Sept. 1, 1782, to Nov. 20, 1782, in Captain Jabez Fitch's Company of Volunteers in the Connecticut service in the War of the American Revolution (Bib.-92), and in 1840 was living, 81 years of age, in Norwalk, Conn., his name appearing in the Federal Census of Pensioners made in that year. (Bib.-14.) David Marvin (3d), son of David Marvin, Jr., was evidently the David Marvin named in the partition of the estate of Captain David Marvin and had probably inherited or bought the interest of the other heirs in the share of David Marvin, Jr., in the estate of Captain David Marvin. He was of Fairfield Co., Conn., Dec. 12, 1792, when he sold to Crocker Jones, of Plymouth, part of a Meadow Lot formerly owned by David Marvin, deceased, beginning at the bank of the river and extending northwesterly so as to include four and one-half acres. In the partition of Captain Marvin's estate David Marvin was assigned five acres of the river end of Meadow Lot No. 30. April 15, 1793. Crocker and Johannah Jones sold this land to Junia Preston, who, Aug. 13, 1793, sold it to Henry Barney. In 1790 David Marvin (3d) was a resident of Norwalk, Fairfield Co., Conn., and had in family, living at home, himself, two males under 16 and three females. (Bib.-10.) He was married (1) to Eunice, born May 30, 1756, died 1799, daughter of Samuel and Esther Hayden, of Braintree, Mass., and was married (2) to Abigail Fitch. (3) to Mrs. Crowley and (4) to Mrs. Jones; (2), Isaiah, born about 1761, married, about 1782, to Sarah, daughter of Ralph and Elizabeth Gregory Keeler, some of whose children were: Sarah. David. Ira. born Aug. 15, 1785, Henry and Betsey; (3), Henry; (4), Samuel; (5), Sarah (Marvin) Richards of Darien, Conn. (Bib.-92.)

5. Matthew, died before April 8, 1782, when Timothy Hopkins of Plymouth was appointed administrator of his estate, and not named in partition of estate of Captain David Marvin. (Bib.-1.)

6. Sarah, married to Amariah Cleveland.

7. Daniel, deceased before Aug. 31, 1789, when part of the real estate of Captain David Marvin was assigned to the heirs of Daniel Marvin. He was probably married to Cornelia Schoonhoven, and four of their children apparently were: 1. Cornelia, married to Andris Dingman, daughter of Ragel, born Oct. 29, 1785, baptised Dec. 26, 1785. Maria Marvin, sponsor; 2. Rachel, baptised at Walpack, N. J., Oct. 20, 1766, married to John Frink, son of Henry, born Jan. 27, 1803, baptised July 10, 1802; 3. Hendrickus Schoonhoven, born Feb. 2, 1771, baptised at Walpack, N. J., Sept. 26, 1771, probably married to Anna Van Horn; 4. Catharine, baptised Aug. 30, 1772. (Bib.-240.)

8. Uriah, born about 1742, died 1779, (see later).

9. Hannah, living in 1790, not married, probably died 1799-1800, in Orange Co., N. Y. Nathan Marvin, who, according to the Goshen, N. Y., probate record, was married to Mary Marvin, sister of Hannah Marvin, was appointed administrator of Hannah Marvin's estate, Feb. 3, 1800. (Bib.-92.)

10. Samuel, (see later).

11. Esther, or Hester, married (1), about 1777, to ——— Taylor, had a son Ebenezer Taylor, married (2) to Ephraim McCoy. (Bib.-1.) She was probably deceased before July 23, 1794, when Ebenezer Taylor sold to Ephraim McCoy part of Lots 10 and 9, in Plymouth, "which fell to Ebenezer Taylor of Ulster, N. Y., by heirship from his grandfather, David Marvin." Ephraim McCoy and his wife, Sarah, conveyed this land to Calvin Wadhams, Dec. 17, 1800. Ephraim McCoy came to the Wyoming Valley in the summer of 1769 and, Aug. 29, 1769, signed the petition to the General Assembly of Connecticut praying for the erection of a county. His name appears in the "List of the Proprietors of the Five Towns," June 17, 1770, and upon the Westmoreland Tax List for Plymouth District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was a member of the company which attempted to make a settlement at Warrior Run on the west branch of the Susquehanna River in Sept., 1775, but which was driven out by the Pennamites Sept. 28, 1775. (Bib.-1.) He was, later, an early settler of what is now Dallas Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He removed to Delaware Co., Ohio, and settled at Sunbury, where his will was made June 19, 1820. It was probated in April, 1824, and named his wife, Sarah, executrix. It names his daughter, Mary McCoy, and his daughter, Sarah Marvin, wife of James Marvin. Elizabeth and William Perfect signed the will as witnesses. Sarah, daughter of Ephraim and Esther (Marvin) Taylor-McCoy, was married to James Marvin, and James and Sarah (McCoy) Marvin sold to Noah Wadhams, Jr., of Plymouth one acre of House Lot No. 11, Plymouth, extending from the northwest corner of the lands of Samuel Marvin sixteen perches to the southwest corner of lands of Jonah Rogers, Jr., and ten perches wide, described as having come to said Sarah by descent from her mother, Esther McCoy, which came to her by descent from her honored father, David Marvin, the original owner.

IV. (10). Samuel, son of Captain David and Hannah (Gregory) Marvin, left the Wyoming Valley, after the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and returned about 1781. He was appointed administrator of the estate of his father, Captain David Marvin, and continued to live in Plymouth until about 1798. In 1790 he had in family, living at home, himself, three males under 16 and two females, and was the only head of a Marvin family returned in the (Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Pa.), married to Josiah Earl, born at Norfolk, Conn., April 10, 1770, died in Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 28, 1825, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earl) Tubbs, (Tubbs family later); 5, Matthias, born May 10, 1788, died Aug. 13, 1870.

II. (5). Matthias, son of Jabez and Martha (Soverhill) Williams, was born

Federal Census of 1790, as a resident of Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1792 he was assessed in Plymouth Township and among his holdings was a one-eighth interest in a sawmill, presumably located on Whittlesey Creek, the course of which lay across House Lot No. 11. He was the only Marvin assessed in Plymouth in 1792. Sept. 18, 1792, he sold to Benjamin Stuckey, for £34, House Lot No. 15, Middle tier, Plymouth, and Nov. 11, 1796, he sold to Jared Baldwin of Plymouth, Lot No. 7, Bedford, 300 acres. This latter lot is now the southwest corner lot of Dallas Township. Sept. 2, 1797, he sold to Samuel Allen the northeast half of Lot No. 39, Fifth Division, Plymouth. Feb. 9, 1797, he sold to Noah Wadhams, Jr., for £80 four acres of House Lot No. 11, Middle tier, Plymouth, part of which is described as having come to him "by descent from my honored father, David Marvin, deceased, and part by deed from the heirs of David Marvin." The deed contains the following reservation: "Except a right that I reserve for myself and my heirs of making and keeping a fence ten feet square, where my late honored father and mother are buried." The line of survey began "On the bank of the Susquehanna River at a stake and stones, which is the corner of Lot No. 10. Then north by said Lot 10, 64 perches, exclusive of the public highway, to a stake and stones. Thence east, across said lot, 10 perches to stake and stones; thence southerly along Lot 12, 64 perches, excluding the public highway, to the banks of the Susquehanna River; thence, by the river, ten perches to the first bounds." Samuel Marvin was of Plymouth, Feb. 2, 1798, when Darius Calkins sold to him 100 acres of Lot 14, Northmoreland. He was of Northmoreland, Feb. 21, 1799, when he sold to Daniel Barney, Lot 13, Third Division, Plymouth, 33 acres, while he was of Plymouth, March 1, 1798, when Stephen Roberts sold to him 70 acres of the south end of Lot 12, Northmoreland. July 7 and July 8, 1800, he was of Northmoreland, when he bought the interest of his sisters, Mary and Ruah, in the estate of their father, Captain David Marvin. March 25, 1802, he was of Northmoreland when he sold to Calvin Wadhams three acres from the road end of Meadow Lot 30, River tier, Plymouth. June 28, 1802, he also sold to Calvin Wadhams the interest of the heirs of Isaiah Marvin in Meadow Lot 30. April 22, 1803, he sold to Calvin Wadhams nine and one-half acres of Meadow Lot 30, "On the Flats." In none of these deeds is there any suggestion of a living wife of Samuel Marvin.

Some Samuel Marvin was married to Phebe, daughter of William Ayers of Plymouth. William Ayers owned part of Lot No. 53, 164 acres, in Bedford Township. His heirs in 1814-15 were: 1. Enos Ayers, and 2. David Ayers, both of Walkill, Orange Co., N. Y., Feb. 19, 1814; 3. Daniel Ayers, and 4. Hannah (Ayers) Corrington, both of Plymouth, Pa., Dec. 26, 1815; 5 and 6. William Ayers, Jr., and Samuel and Phebe (Ayers) Marvin of Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, Dec. 14, 1815, for whom Beldin Swetland had been appointed attorney; 7. Elijah Ayers, who, on these several dates, bought these various interests in Lot 53, Bedford. He sold the William Ayers Lot No. 53 to Henry Kizer, May 28, 1816. An Elijah Ayers was married, in Aug., 1801, to Polly Underwood. An Elijah Ayers died in Exeter, May 4, 1829. William Ayers died in Plymouth, Pa., in Dec., 1802.

A member of the David Marvin family was married to Sally, daughter of Elijah Harris, of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. She lived in Knox Co., Ohio, June 18, 1832, where she sold to her nephew, Elijah Williams, her interest in Lot 12, Fourth Division, Kingston Township. (See Family No. 1021—Harris.) Sam. B. Marvin and Anthony Banning signed the deed as witnesses.

General Elihu Marvin, son of Sergeant John and Mary (Beers) Marvin, was born in Norwalk, Conn., Oct. 10, 1719, and died in Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., Aug. 24, 1803. His will was made July 11, 1803, and was probated at Goshen, N. Y., Feb. 13, 1804. He was married, in 1744, to Abigail, daughter of John Yelverton of Chester, in the Town of Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y. She was born in 1723 and died May 10, 1803, aed. 80 years. Their tenth child and fifth son was Anthony Marvin, born Nov. 10, 1764, died in Oct., 1810. (See John Yelverton later.)

Anthony Marvin, born Nov. 10, 1764, died in Hobart, Delaware Co., N. Y., in Oct., 1810, son of General Elihu and Abigail (Yelverton) Marvin, was married, in 1792, to Abigail, daughter of Ezra and Abigail Ellsworth Paine, who was born in March, 1775, and died Feb. 28, 1854. Their second child and first son was Roswell Ellsworth Marvin, born Nov. 8, 1797, died July 16, 1885, who was married (1), Oct. 7, 1819, to Sophia, daughter of Judd and Hannah Starr (Kellog) Reynolds, of Walton, Delaware Co., N. Y., who was born April 10, 1797, and died at Carbondale, Pa., July 13, 1842. He was married (2), Oct. 25, 1843, to Sarah Ann, daughter of Roswell and Ann (Gray) Paine, born March 11, 1810, died June 26, 1896. The children of Roswell Ellsworth and Sophia (Reynolds) Marvin were: 1. Henry, died in infancy; (2). Henry L., born in Carbondale, Pa., April 11, 1822, married, by Rev. J. D. Mitchell, at Wyoming, Pa., Sept. 18, 1848, to Eliza Jane, daughter of Henry and Edith (Sharns) Hice. (Family No. 988—Hice); 2. Mary A., born in May, 1824, married, Aug. 31, 1846, to Thomas Dickson, later President of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company, born March 26, 1824, died July 31, 1884, whose children were: (1), Sophia R., born Dec. 4, 1847, married to Thomas F. Torrey, General Sales Agent, Delaware and Hudson Canal Company; (2). Elizabeth, born Aug. 15, 1850, married, Feb. 17, 1870, to Colonel Henry M. Boise, Scranton, Pa.; (3), James P., born July 24, 1852, married to Laura, daughter of Joshua Fuller and Elizabeth (Hancock) Reynolds. E. Marvin in Abraham's Creek Industries—Family No. 946, sketch of Wyoming Presbyterian Church, etc. He was a Deacon in the First Presbyterian Church at Carbondale, Pa., in 1832.

John Yelverton, an early merchant in Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., and at New Windsor, Ulster Co., N. Y., and who owned a sloop at New Windsor and traded in New York, made his will at New Windsor, N. Y., March 24, 1760, and it was probated Aug. 17, 1767. It names his only living son, Anthony, to whom he gave his estate at Goshen, and his grandson, Abijah Yelverton, to whom he gave his estate at Jordan, and refers to his other grandchildren not named. According to Egge (Bib.-162) the children of John Yelverton were: 1, John; 2, Anthony; 3, Thomas; 4, James; 5, a daughter, married to ——— Carpenter; 6, a daughter, married to ——— Howell; 7, a daughter, Abigail, born 1723, died May 10, 1803, married to ——— Marvin, (General Elihu Marvin); 8, a daughter, married to ——— Carman. (Bib.-92-152-162.)

*Abel Sutliff was born about 1753, and died May 15, 1799. He was married to Charity Barber, born July 15, 1748, who was married (2) to ——— Scott, and died Sept. 26, 1837. The children of Abel and Charity (Barber) Sutliff, who survived him, were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Miles, born July 3, 1773, died Nov. 25, 1840, married to Phebe Culver, born Oct., 1776, died March 11, 1840; 2, Sabra, married (1) to James, son of Timothy and Phoebe (Nisbitt) Marvin-Hopkins, whose daughter, Lola Monroe, born 1813, died Nov. 2, 1869, was married to Almon, born July 7, 1804, died Jan. 24, 1854, son of Almon and Abigail Woodworth, born July 20, 1773, died Jan. 5, 1845, as second wife, whose first wife, Eliza Wilkinson, born Dec. 28, 1804, died Oct. 9, 1842, was a daughter of Jonathan Wilkinson, born Jan. 18, 1781, died Oct. 22, 1846, (Pine Grove Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa.). Mrs. Sabra (Sutliff) Hopkins was married (2) to Josiah Earle, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, (Tubbs family later); 3, Sarah, married to Elijah Rood; 4, Barna, living in Ohio in 1837; 5, Hannah, married to ——— Hopkins; 6, Loly, born 1785, died June 5, 1830, in her 46th year, married to Simon, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, (Tubbs family later); 7, Darius, born 1786, died June 14, 1819, aed. 33 years, (Waterton Cemetery), married to Rosana Hungerford. Abel Sutliff enlisted, in June, 1776, in Captain Lewis' Company of Colonel William Douglass' Fifth Battalion of Wadsworth's Brigade of Berkshire Co., Mass., Militia. This battalion was raised to reenforce General Washington at New York, and took part in the battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776, and the battle of White Plains, Oct. 28, 1776. The term of enlistment expired Dec. 25, 1776. (Bib.-107.)

†The names of I. John, Richard, Thomas and James Dodson appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1777 and 1778 as residents of Plymouth District. John Dodson, born in April, 1720, died March 10, 1818, and his wife, Eleanor, born about 1726, died May 15, 1815, are buried in the Goss Cemetery near Harveyville, Luzerne Co., Pa. Three of their children were: 1, Sylvina, born about 1753, died Feb. 17, 1817, married to Benjamin Fuller, who died in Huntington Township, Dec. 23, 1821, and whose children were: (1), Huldah, born July 1, 1777, died March 15, 1858, married to Jairus, born April 3, 1779, died March 1, 1853, son of Stephen and Susannah (Franklin) Harrison, (see later); (2), Sarah, born Oct. 9, 1779, died May 7, 1838, married to Jonathan Westover, born Feb. 2, 1780, died Jan. 15, 1847, (Harveyville Cemetery); (3), Henry; (4), Charlotte, married to John Myers; (5), Electa, born June 30, 1792, died Nov. 2, 1855, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married to Solomon Bonham, born Sept., 1780, died Feb. 2, 1829, (Harveysville, Pa., Cemetery); (6), Westover, and (7), John, both minors, for whom Nathan Dodson was guardian, May 1, 1834. Benjamin Fuller was survived by a widow, Mary, who is named in Orphans' Court proceedings of April, 1824; 2, James, born about 1755, died in Salem, June 1, 1831, married to Susannah Beach, (see later); 3, Thomas, born about 1757, died April 29, 1818, and is buried in the Goss Cemetery at Harveyville, Pa.

James, son of John and Eleanor Dodson, was born about 1755 and died in Salem Township, June 1, 1831, aed. 75 years. He was married to Susannah Beach, and their children were: 1, Elizabeth, married to William Henry; 2, Polly, married to Abram Courtright, son of Elisha Courtright, of Salem Township; 3, John, born about 1783, (see later); 4, Eleanor, married to Amos Van Horn; 5, Nathan B.; 6, Thomas; 7, Hannah, married to D. H. Goodwin; 8, James, Jr.; 9, Sally, married to U. O. Barnes.

Susanna Beach, wife of James Dodson, was a daughter of Nathan and Dezhiah (Herrick) Beach. The name of Nathan Beach appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists as a resident of Plymouth District in 1777 and 1778. According to the narrative of his son, Nathan Beach, Jr., Esq., Nathan Beach removed from the vicinity of the present city of Hudson, N. Y., to the Wyoming Valley in 1769, and his name appears in the list of settlers at Wyoming, June 2, 1769. This narrative of Nathan Beach, telling his story of his early life, his military service and the Indian depredations of 1778 and 1779, is printed in the Annals of Fort Jenkins in Johnson's Historical Record, (Wilkes-Barre) Vol. IV, p. 26. Nathan Beach, Jr., was born in July, 1763, and died in Salem Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1847. He was married (1) to Susannah Thomas, who died after 1801. He was married (2) to Rachel Wilson, and in 1811 was a merchant in Philadelphia, but, in 1814, had returned to Salem, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was married (3) to Margaret, who survived him. Nathan Beach, Jr., Esq., farmer, Justice of the Peace, merchant and dealer in real estate, was one of the most active men in the real estate transactions, pertaining to the lands formerly owned by the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. He bought and sold tracts of land in Northmoreland, Plymouth, Kingston, Union, Salem and children were: 1, Cordelia Mabel, married to McDowell Stackhouse; 2, Stephen F., married to Emma C., daughter of Isaac, Jr., and Margaret (Shoemaker) Tripp; 3, Wilson, not married; 4, Maria E., married to William Benscoter; 5, Gilbert C., married to Lucinda Wagner; 6, Wilbert B., married to Miss Girard; 7, John M., married to Elizabeth Sutcliffe; 8, La Fayette, not married.

THE TUBBS FAMILY

I. Simon Tubbs of Lyme, Conn., was an early proprietor of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and his name appears as a grantee in the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754, conveying title of the Wyoming lands to that company. He was married at Lyme, Conn., Dec. 7, 1736, to Sarah, born July 3, 1717, daughter of Thomas, Jr., and Mary (Brunson) Waite. They established their home in the parish of New Salem, lying partly in Colchester, Hartford Co., and partly in Lyme, New London Co. Simon Tubbs was a resident and a member of the church in that parish, in May, 1748, when with John Dixon, Elnathan Palmeter, William Carr, Benjamin Lothrop, Solomon Wickwire, John Holmes, Thomas Gustin, George Dolbear, William Dixson, Ebenezer Palmeter, William Chipman, Clement Daniels, Elijah Staples, Thomas Gustin, Jr., Thomas Tozer, Robert Staples, Thomas Collett, Jonas Hamilton, George Holmes, William Dodge, Jonathan Hungerford and Samuel Dodge, Members of the church and inhabitants of the Society or Parish of New Salem, petitioned the General Assembly of Connecticut, reciting that they have "been destitute of a minister about the space of four years, and have had the public worship attended but seldom in said time, and that, by reason of different sentiments in religious matters, the inhabitants are not agreed to settle a minister among them. And that the memorialists with some others are greatly desirous to call and settle an orthodox minister, but cannot obtain a vote or votes for that purpose." (Bib.-254.) Simon and Sarah (Wait) Tubbs removed from the parish of New Salem to Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., where they lived the remainder of their lives.

Sarah Wait, wife of Simon Tubbs, was a descendant of Thomas Saunders of Tolland, England; Henry Wolcott, of Tolland, England, later of Dorchester, Mass., and Windsor, Conn.; Matthew Griswold, of Kenilworth, England, later of Windsor, Conn.; Lieutenant Abraham Brunson, of Lyme, Conn., and of Thomas Wait of Sudbury, Mass, later of Lyme, Conn., as follows:

Huntington Townships. A petition was presented in the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre, Aug. 22, 1853, praying for a partition of his estate, which names his widow, Margaret, and the following children, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Deziah, married to Dr. Mason Crary; 2, Hannah (Beach) Baird; 3, Ann P., married to William Evans; 4, Mary, married to Persifer Lemon,* for whom Lemon Township, Wyoming Co., Pa., was named and who, Feb. 3, 1845, was appointed Associate Judge of Wyoming Co., Pa., to succeed Judge Perrin Ross, son of Lieutenant Perrin and Marcy (Otis) Ross, (Family No. 1010—Ross); 5, Thomas P., of Gibson Co., Ind., Aug. 22, 1853; 6, Nathan, Jr., died after 1847 and before 1853, not married.

III. (3). John, son of James and Susanna (Beach) Dodson, was born about 1783 and died Sept. 13, 1859. He was married (1) to Abigail, born 1787, died Sept. 21, 1815, in her 29th year, daughter of Darius and Lydia (Woodruff) Callender (Franklin-Callender in Tubbs family sketch later) and their children were: 1, Lydia, born Oct. 7, 1815, died April 7, 1889, married to Darius S., born Oct. 2, 1814, died March 23, 1880, son of Miles and Phoebe (Culver) Sutliff, (see above); 2, Abigail, married to Warren, born Aug. 2, 1814, died 1883, son of Abram and Lois Benscoter, who was married (2) to Clarinda, daughter of William and Hannah Ide. (Family No. 1010—Ide.) John Dodson was married (2) to Cynthia Callender, born May 6, 1897, died July 17, 1872, sister of his first wife, and their children were: 1, James, born Dec., 1816, died April 8, 1817; 2, Susannah Beach, married to Caleb, son of Matthias and Tacy (Sutliff) Williams; 3, Mabel C., married to William D. Wells; 4, Jesse B., born Nov. 3, 1822, died Jan. 12, 1894, married, Sept. 26, 1856, to Susan J., daughter of William and Nancy (Melvy) Watson; 5, J. Wesley; 6, Esther C., married to Dorrance Harvey; 6, Rachel B., married to G. R. Wodger; 7, Charles A.; 8, Hannah G., married to Stephen D. Stiles; 9, George W.

*Persifer Lemon, who was married to Mary, daughter of Nathan Beach, was undoubtedly a brother of Thomas Lemon of Point Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., whose will was made March 29, 1847, and probated at Sunbury, Pa., Jan. 21, 1850. It names his brother, Persifer, his sister Martha Horton, his sister Rebecca McWilliams, his sister Rachel Lemon, his nephew James Lemon Beach, his brother William and Rachel Ann and Rebecca, daughters of William, his sister Margaret and if Margaret dies her share to be given to James Lemon Beach and Martha Beach. A Thomas Lemon was of Paxton Township, Lancaster Co., Pa., June 16, 1771, when Matthias Slough, an innkeeper of Lancaster, Lancaster Co., Pa., and his wife Mary, conveyed to him and to Margaret his wife, and to William, Hugh, and Ludwick Lanmon (Lemon?), merchants of Lancaster, a certain tract of land in Berks (?) Co. on the northeasterly side of the northeast branch of the River Susquehanna, about six miles up the said branch from the main point. Lands now in tenure of Thomas Lemon, 300 acres. The consideration named is the love and affection Matthias Slough has for his sister, Margaret Lemon, wife of Thomas Lemon, and for William Hough Lemon, James Lemon and Matthias Lemon and Elizabeth Lemon, children of Thomas and Margaret Lemon. This Thomas Lemon, of 1771, was doubtless the father of Thomas Lemon of Point Township, whose will was made in 1847.

I. Henry Wolcott, born 1578, died May 30, 1655, was married, in 1606, to Elizabeth, born 1582, died July, 1655, daughter of Thomas Saunders of Tolland, England. He left England in 1630, settled at Dorchester, Mass., and in 1640 was among the 56 settlers, who went from Dorchester, Mass., to Windsor, Conn. Some of the children of Henry and Elizabeth (Saunders) Wolcott were: 1, Anna, married to Matthew Griswold, (see later); 2, Henry; 3, George; 4, Christopher; 5, Mary; 6, Simeon, married to Martha Pitkin, whose daughter, Ursula, was married to Matthew Griswold, Jr. (Bib.-106.)

II. Anna, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Saunders) Wolcott, was married, Oct. 16, 1646, to Matthew Griswold, who was born in Kenilworth, County Warwick, England, about 1620, and came to Windsor, Conn., in 1639. About the time of their marriage Matthew and Anna (Wolcott) Griswold removed to Saybrook, where he served in the capacity of an agent for Governor Fenwick. Some of their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born about 1652, married (1), Oct. 17, 1670, to John Rogers of New London, married (2), Aug. 5, 1679, to Peter Pratt, married (3), April, 1688, to Matthew Beckwith; 2, Matthew, Jr., born 1653, Governor of Connecticut, married to Ursula, daughter of Simeon and Martha (Pitkin) Wolcott; 3, John, died early; 4, Sarah, born about 1655, married, before 1675, to Thomas Colton of Springfield, Mass.; 5, Anna, born April, 1656, married, Sept. 2, 1764, to Lieutenant Abraham Brunson of Lyme, Conn. (Bib.-93.)

III. Anna, daughter of Matthew and Anna (Wolcott) Griswold, born April, 1656, was married, Sept. 2, 1764, to Lieutenant Abraham Brunson, of Lyme, Conn., and four of their six children were: 1, Anna, born Oct. 5, 1675; 2, Abraham, born March 29, 1677; 3, Mary, born March 21, 1680; 4, Elizabeth, born Aug. 12, 1682. (Bib.-106.)

IV. Mary, born March 21, 1680, daughter of Lieutenant Abraham and Anna (Griswold) Brunson, was married, Aug. 26, 1704, to Thomas Wait (Wayte), Jr., of Lyme, Conn., and formerly of Sudbury, Mass. He was born in 1677 and died June 27, 1725, aed. 48 years. His wife died May 7, 1731. Their children were: 1, Sarah (1), born June 9, 1705, died July 9, 1718; 2, Thomas, born Oct. 9, 1706, died March 19, 1779, married to Elizabeth Lewis; 3, John, born Dec. 1, 1707, died July, 1713; 4, Joseph, born 1709, died July, 1713; 5, Mary, born 1709, died 1712, (twins); 6, Richard, born June 11, 1711, died Dec., 1790, married (1) to Elizabeth Marvine, married (2) to Rebecca Higgins; 7, Elizabeth, born Feb. 21, 1714, died May 20, 1725; 8, Joseph, born Nov. 25, 1715, married to Margaret Beckwith; 9, Sarah (2), born July 3, 1717, married to Simon Tubbs; 10, Mary, born Dec. 6, 1718, died May 7, 1843; 11, Phoebe, born 1723, died 1726. (Bib.-106.)

Simon Tubbs was of Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., Sept. 16, 1777, when for "love and good will" he conveyed to Nathan Tubbs, of Norfolk, Litchfield Co., Conn., "one whole right or share of land in the Susquehanna Purchase, so called, whereof I, the said Simon Tubbs, of Litchfield Co. was one of the original purchasers of said tract of land that was purchased of the Indians and known by the name of the Susquehanna Purchase, as was supposed to belong to Connecticut." Gideon Post, Jr., and Elisha Baker, J. O. P., witnesses. Oct. 15, 1787, Nathan Tubbs, then of Canaan, Conn., for a consideration of £10, conveyed this title back to Simon Tubbs, Gideon Post, Jr., and Elisha Freeman witnesses. He subsequently distributed these lands among his children as follows: 1. Feb. 15, 1790, "to my son Thomas Tubbs," consideration £15, Lot No. 7 of the First Division of Huntington, 112 acres; Andrew Tubbs and Charles Burrall, J. O. P., witnesses; 2. Jan. 25, 1792, "to my son Nathan Tubbs, consideration love and good will," Lot No. 29, of the First Division of Huntington, 100 acres, Earl and Andrew Tubbs, witnesses; 3. April 13, 1793, "to my son-in-law, David Woodward, consideration love and good will," one-half of Lot 24, in the Second Division, Elizabeth Burrell and Charles Burrell, J. O. P., witnesses; 4. Jan. 29, 1795, "to my son, Simon Tubbs, Jr., of Essex, Chittenden Co., Vt.," Lot 51, Second Division of Huntington, 100 acres, Lucy Burrall and Charles Burrall, J. O. P., witnesses. There was doubtless also a conveyance to his son, Andrew Tubbs, which was not recorded, (see later). Simon Tubbs, at least eighty years of age, was living in Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., Jan. 29, 1795. Some of the children of Simon and Sarah (Wait) Tubbs, were, (order of birth not known to writer): (1), Nathan; (2), Thomas; (3), Elizabeth; (4), Andrew, of Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., in 1796, assessed as owning 350 acres of land in Huntington; (5), Simon, Jr., born Jan. 16, 1756, (see later).

II. (1). Nathan, son of Simon and Sarah (Wait) Tubbs, was born in New Salem Parish, near Lyme, Conn. He enlisted, April 12, 1759, in Captain Tarball Whitney's Tenth Company of Colonel David Wooster's Regiment, for service in the French and Indian War (Bib.-339), and March 5, 1777, he enlisted in Captain Titus Watson's Company of Colonel Heman Swift's Seventh Regiment of the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution. The regiment was at Camp Peekskill in New York in the spring of 1777 and, in Sept., under the command of General McDougall, was ordered to join General Washington in Pennsylvania. It was at Germantown Oct. 4, 1777, and at Valley Forge in the winter of 1777-8. It took part in the battle of Monmouth, N. J., June 28, 1778, and was at White Plains, N. Y., during the summer. It was assigned to Huntington's Brigade and spent the winter of 1778-9 at Redding. The summer of 1779 the regiment was under the command of General Heath on the east side of the Hudson River and the winter of 1779-80 was passed in the Morristown Huts. The next year, 1780-81, it was encamped on the Upper Hudson. Nathan Tubbs was honorably discharged March 5, 1780, having served three full years. There are references to Nathan Tubbs in Vol. XII, Collections of the Connecticut Historical Society, pp. 42, 74, 176, 236, 270 and 273. (Bib.-108.)

Nathan Tubbs was married to Elizabeth Earle (?) and settled at Norfolk, Litchfield Co., Conn., where, Oct. 7, 1764, his wife, Elizabeth Tubbs, was a member of the Church of Christ. In the records of this church of which the Rev. Ammi Ruhamah Robbins was the (Bib.-117) first minister (1761) there appear the baptismal records of several of the children of Nathan and Elizabeth Tubbs, as follows: 1, Sarah, baptised Feb. 10, 1765; 2, Thankful, baptised Oct. 13, 1765; 3, Elizabeth, baptised Feb. 7, 1768; 4, Josiah Earl, baptised May 13, 1770; 5, Phoebe, baptised Oct. 25, 1772, died July 19, 1777; 6, Nathan Wait, baptised May 15, 1775; 7, Simon, baptised April 16, 1780. It appears that the dates of the death of Nathan and Elizabeth Tubbs have not been preserved. He removed, before 1790, to the Huntington Valley, Pa., and, in that year, had in family, living at home, himself, two sons under 16 years and one female. He settled on Lot 29 of the First Division in Huntington, which his father had deeded to him and he was living there April 30, 1796, when he sold it to John Dodson of Penn Township, Northampton Co., Pa. (Family No. 1041—Franklin-Harrison-Dodson) for £345. This lot became the John Dodson homestead, lying between Huntington Mills and the Waterton Cemetery. Nathan Tubbs described the farm in 1796 as bounded on the south by Stephen Harrison's land, on the north by lands of Mr. Monroe, on the east by lands of Mr. Blish and Timothy Hopkins. He was living in Huntington June 9, 1798, when he conveyed title to 300 acres of land, known as Haverell, Lot No. 2, bought from Ralph Austin, to his two sons, Nathan and Simon, and when he also sold to them two yoke of oxen and two cows. April 20, 1795, he sold to his son, Earl Tubbs, for £20, Lot 23, lying on Town Hill, which the latter sold, Nov. 9, 1795, to Nathan Tubbs, Jr.

III. (1). Sarah, daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, was born June 25, 1763, baptised at Norfolk, Conn., Feb. 10, 1765, and died in the Huntington Valley, Pa., Dec. 1, 1826. (Waterton Cemetery.) She was married to Gideon, Jr., son of Gideon Post, of Canaan, Conn., who was born June 24, 1766, and died June 2, 1829, and some of their children were, (order of birth not known to writer): (1), Betsey, married to Charles Barret, born Jan. 21, 1774, died Dec. 16, 1849; (2), Gideon (3d), born about 1792, died Dec. 6, 1875, married to Anna, daughter of John and Clarissa (Harrison) Dodson, (Family No. 1041—Franklin-Harrison). She was born Sept. 7, 1800, and died Dec. 6, 1875; (3), Lewis, married to Mary Benscoter; (4), James P.; (5), Sabra, born 1798, died May 22, 1828, married to Merritt Harrison, (Family No. 1041—Harrison); (6), Thankful, died May 3, 1841, married, as second wife, to Joseph Rhoades, born May 4, 1777, died Sept. 11, 1855, whose first wife, Elvira, born in 1779, died June 19, 1838, (Pine Grove Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Pa.); (7), Josiah, born about 1800, died July 14, 1826; (8), Elias; (9), Charles B., a soldier in the Civil War, killed at Chancellorsville. Gideon Post, Jr., was a drummer and fifer in the Berkshire Co., Mass. Militia, in the War of the Revolution. He served in Captain Zenas Wheeler's Company of Colonel Hopkins' Regiment in 1778 as fifer, in Captain Porter's detachment of General Fellows' Brigade as a drummer in 1778, in Captain John Collar's Company of Colonel John Ashley's Regiment in 1779 as a fifer, and in Captain Simon Adams' Company of Colonel John Collar's Regiment in 1781 as a fifer. (Bib.-107.)

III. (2). Thankful, daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, was born at Norfolk, Litchfield Co., Conn., and was baptised Feb. 7, 1768. She was married to Reuben Blish and removed to the Huntington Valley, Pa. Their daughter, Polly, was married to Ammi, son of John and Hannah (Rockwood) Chapin. Their son, Miner W., was killed in the battle of Fredericksburg, Jan. 10, 1863. They also had a son William.

III. (3). Elizabeth daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, was born in Norfolk, Conn., in Nov., 1766, was baptised Feb. 7, 1768, and was married to Caleb Hoyt, born about 1765, died, in his 55th year, June 8, 1820. She died May 28, 1849, and they are buried in the Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Pa. Some of their children were: 1, James, married to Frances, daughter of James and Sabra (Sutliff) Hopkins, (Hopkins family later), whose children were: (1), Bethiah, born June 28, 1817, died July 14, 1841; (2), Hopkins; (3), Milo J., married to Jamima, daughter of Earl Church and Rebecca (Parks) Tubbs; 2, Caleb, Jr.; 3, Abigail, born 1801, died Sept. 20, 1827, in her 27th year; 4, Joseph Ritner, not married; 5, J. Ross, born March 1, 1809, died May 21, 1892, married to Julia R. Harrison, born June 5, 1813, died Jan. 3, 1892.

III. (4). Josiah Earl, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, was born in Norfolk, Litchfield Co., Conn., April 10, 1770, and was baptised May 13, 1770. He was married (1) to Jamima, born about 1778, died Oct. 11, 1819, aed. 41 years, daughter of Jabez and Martha (Soverhill) Williams, and their children were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Charles, born 1795, died 1864, married to Catharine Benscoter, some of whose children were: (1), Miner; (2), John; (3), Hamilton; (4), Elizabeth, married to William Pringle; (5), Nathan; (6), Isaac, died in the Union Army in the Civil War; (7), Barbara, married to James Brown, lived in California; (8), Jonah C., born March 8, 1842, Corporal Company F, 143d Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, married (1) to Sarah, born Dec. 15, 1846, died Oct. 17, 1886, daughter of Weston and Delena Goss; 2, Charlotte, married to Daniel Culver, some of whose children were: (1), Jamima, married to James Brandon; (2), Densmore, married to Huldah Line; (3), Jane, married to Joseph More; (4), Aaron, lived in Allentown, Pa.; (5), Jesse, married to ——— Donall; (6), Henrietta, married to David Koons; (7), Martha, married to Samuel Line; 3, Earl Church, born 1798, died Aug. 4, 1884, (see later); 4, Elizabeth, born Nov. 5, 1802, died March 21, 1864, married to Stephen, born Aug. 14, 1800, died Aug. 22, 1885, son of Thomas, born about 1748, died May 4, 1812, and Charity (Lamoreux) Davenport,* of Plymouth, Pa.

*I. Thomas Davenport of Phillips' Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., made his will Oct. 10, 1746, and it was probated March 18, 1760. It names his wife, Elizabeth, and the following children: 1, Thomas, who had had his share; 2, William; 3, Oliver; 4, Robert (or Robin); 5, Stephen; 6, Sarah (Davenport) Mandeville, (was the mother of Nicholas Mandeville, of Plymouth District, Town of Westmoreland, who was married to Mary Murray, was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and was survived by at least three sons, Ira, Eli and David, the last named married to Susan Hill (?); 7, Mary, married to Jacobus Hanlon, and probably deceased, leaving children, in 1746; 8, Elizabeth, married to John Nelson; 9, Charity; 10, Phebe; 11, Hannah; 12, Abigail. The witnesses who signed the will were Joseph Grecocks, Hannah Sobee, and John Cuer. At the time the will was proved Hannah Sobee was the wife of Oliver Davenport. Thomas Davenport named his wife Elizabeth, his son Thomas and John Nelson executors. (Bib.-152.)

In the will of Eunice Seeley, widow of Woodbury Clove, New Cornwall Precinct, Orange Co., N. Y., made June 11, 1769, and probated Dec. 15, 1769, she referred to her stepdaughter, Hannah Davenport, and to her grandson, Oliver Davenport, as well as to other heirs. Oliver Davenport, her grandson, was named an executor of her will. (Bib.-152.)

II. (3). Oliver, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Davenport, of Phillips Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., was, without much doubt, the Oliver Davenport who came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1776-7, and June 10, 1777, bought from George Dorrance of Kingston certain lots in Plymouth and who also, in 1791, bought other lands, from Arnold Colt. He died in Orange Co., N. Y., in the winter of 1800, having gone to New Cornwall Precinct after the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. (Bib.-2.) He was probably married to Hannah Sobee, (according to the Probate Court note relating to the making of the will of his father) about 1747, and apparently their first child was Thomas, born about 1748.

III. (1). Thomas, son of Oliver Davenport, and (probably) Hannah (Sobee) Davenport, his wife, was born in 1748 and died May 4, 1812. He was a resident of Plymouth Township in 1792, his name appearing on the tax list for Plymouth in that year. He was married in Orange Co., N. Y., to Charity Lamoreux, a sister of Thomas and John Lamoreux, of Plymouth Township. Thomas Lamoreux (Family No. 1010—Lamoreux) was also a resident of Plymouth in 1792. The will of Thomas Davenport was made in Plymouth, Pa., Aug. 12, 1809, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, May 20, 1812. It names his wife, Charity, and the following children: 1, Hannah, married to Jacob Gould, born Oct. 26, 1771, died March 8, 1849, (Shupp's Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.); 2, John, born May 23, 1778, died Oct. 2, 1855, married to Hannah ———, born Sept. 15, 1783, died Jan. 12, 1864, (Shawnee Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.); 3, Franky, married to William Craig, an early miller in Plymouth; 4, Elizabeth, married to Abraham Van Loon, (Family No. 38—Van Loon); 5, Thomas, Jr., born April 21, 1784, died Nov. 14, 1830, married to Elizabeth, born June 4, 1787, died June 9, 1867, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Nisbitt) Ransom, (Shawnee Cemetery); 6, Robert, born Aug. 13, 1786, died June 19, 1859, married to Phebe, born May 7, 1796, died April 14, 1867, daughter of James and Jane (William) Nisbitt, (see The Harvey Book); 7, Phebe, married to John Pringle; 8, Samuel, (see reference, at close of sketch, to Elizabeth (Bronson) Davenport). Samuel, not married in 1823; 9, Daniel, drowned in the Canal, Sept. 3, 1840, married, March 12, 1820, to Mary, daughter of James and Jane (Williams) Nisbitt; 10, Stephen, born Aug. 14, 1800, died Aug. 22, 1885, County Commissioner of Luzerne Co., Pa., 1863-4-5, married to Elizabeth, born Nov. 5, 1802, died

Some of the children of Stephen and Elizabeth (Tubbs) Davenport were: (1), Hanford, died June 8, 1865, married to Fanny E. Larned; (2), William, born Jan. 14, 1827, married, Feb. 25, 1855, to Adeline Harrison; (3), Thomas, born June 12, 1829, married (1) to Diana, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (Cortright) Good, (Family No. 3—Saylor—Good), married (2) to Mrs. Rosaline (McCafferty) Koons; (4), Earl; (5), Samuel G., born Nov. 20, 1836, died May 18, 1857; (6), Henry, Company I, 52d Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War; (7), Adelaide, married, March 19, 1857, to Charles, son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Cortright) Good, (Family No. 3—Saylor—Good); (8), Charlotte, married to Righter Swingle; (9), Elizabeth, married to Wells S., born Aug. 19, 1847, son of George and Huldah (Sutliff) Wagner and grandson of John and Mary (Miller) Wagner, (Family No. 1016—Wagner). Huldah Sutliff was a daughter of Wells and Abiah (Harrison) Sutliff and granddaughter of Miles and Phebe (Culver) Sutliff, (Family No. 1041—Sutliff); 5, Williams A., born May 5, 1807, (see later); 6, Aaron, married and removed to a Southern State; 7, Nathan, born July 11, 1811, died Dec. 9, 1871, married to Almina, born March 9, 1815, died Dec. 30, 1906, daughter of Nathaniel and Thankful (Forbes) Goss*, whose children were: (1), Alice, married, as second wife, to John A. Barton, born March 1, 1834, died Jan. 26, 1904, living in Hazleton, Pa., in 1923; (2), Annetta (Tubbs) Van Horn; (3), Martha L., born Jan. 16, 1852, died March 13, 1909, not married; (4), Daniel, married to Martha Jones; (5), Burton, died in the Civil War; 8, Martha, married to

March 21, 1864, daughter of Josiah Earl and Jamima (Williams) Tubbs. Some Davenport was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Levi and Mary (Reynolds) Brunson. She is named as Elizabeth Davenport in the will of her father. (Family No. 1010—Brunson.)

*I. Philip Goss, of Becket, Berkshire Co., Mass., who died, in 1779, in the Huntington Valley, Pa., was married to Mary ———, born about 1722, died in her 100th year, April 18, 1821, (Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley), and some of their children were: 1, Solomon; 2, Comfort; 3, David; 4, Nathaniel, born 1752, died Sept. 27, 1812, (see later); 5, Sarah, married to Enos Seward, (Family No. 3—Swetland—Seward); 6, Philip, Jr., born 1746, died Oct. 25, 1833, married to Hannah ———, born 1754, died March 15, 1834, (Harveyville, Luzerne Co., Cemetery). Philip Goss and his sons, Comfort and Nathaniel, were among the settlers "actually on the ground" at Wyoming, June 2, 1769, and his name, together with that of his son, Nathaniel, appears on the petition for the erection of a county, Aug. 29, 1769. The list of settlers for 1772 has the names of Philip Goss and those of his sons, Nathaniel and David, while the petition for the erection of a county in that year has that of Philip Goss and those of his sons, Solomon and Nathaniel; Philip, Philip, Jr., Solomon and Nathaniel Goss, in 1776-7-8, and David Goss in 1777-8, were taxpayers in Plymouth District. (Bib.-1.) Philip Goss settled near Huntington Mills in 1776. Jan. 18, 1780, his son, Nathaniel Goss, was appointed administrator of his estate, with Captain John Franklin on his bond in £1,000. David Goss was of Bloomfield, Ontario Co., N. Y., Feb. 18, 1801, when he sold Lot No. 24, First Division, Huntington, to Jesse Scott.

II. (4). Nathaniel, son of Philip and Mary Goss, was born about 1752, and died in his 61st year, Sept. 27, 1812. He was married to Hannah, born about 1753, died Sept. 27, 1821, aed. 68 years, (Waterton Cemetery). He was commissioned Ensign of Captain John Franklin's Tenth Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, in May, 1778, (see Harvey's Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley, pp. 694, 702, 999). Some of the children of Nathaniel and Hannah Goss were, (order of birth not known): 1, Nathaniel, Jr., born April 14, 1785, (see later); 2, John, married to Polly ———, living in Randolph, Portage Co., Ohio, July 12, 1817; 3, Hannah (Goss) Allen, living in Randolph, Portage Co., Ohio, July 12, 1817; 4, Experience, married to Aaron Culver, living in Wayne Co., Ohio, June 1, 1818; 5, Rhoda, married to Richard Dodson.

"Deacon" Timothy, son of Captain Timothy and Mary (Judd) Hopkins, was born at Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 8, 1723, and was married, Jan. 14, 1742, to Jemima, daughter of Abraham Scovell, of Simsbury, Conn. He purchased of Thomas Sherlock a half share in the Susquehanna Purchase, March 25, 1769, and in April of that year, with his eldest son, Timothy, Jr., joined the company of settlers under Major Durkee and set out for Wyoming. The children of "Deacon" Timothy and Jemima (Scovell) Hopkins were: (1), Timothy, Jr.; (2), Jemima, married to Stephen Sibley; (3), Dorcas, married to Lieutenant Lazarus Stewart, Jr., in 1776, who was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; (4), Eliud; (5), Benjamin.†

VII. (1). Timothy, Jr., son of "Deacon" Timothy and Jemima (Scovel) Hopkins, was born in Waterbury, Conn., in 1743. In Sept., 1776, he enlisted in Captain Samuel Ransom's Wyoming Independent Company and served until 1782. He was married, Oct. 23, 1776, to Sarah, born Aug. 23, 1757, died 1777-8, daughter of Captain Samuel and Esther (Lawrence) Ransom. He was married (2), in 1780, to Mrs. Phebe (Nisbitt) Marvin, daughter of James and Phebe (Harrison) Nisbitt, and widow of Uriah, son of Captain David Marvin, (see above). She was born Feb. 18, 1759, and after the death of her husband, removed to Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio. Timothy Hopkins was living in Huntington about 1792 and in 1795 built a grist mill on March Creek at Hopkins Glen. Nearby he also built a sawmill. Oct. 17, 1796, he sold to Thomas Tubbs for £45 "one-half of a certain sawmill I purchased of Lemuel Gaylord, standing on a certain lot called a Mill lot, with one-half the water privileges, mill yard, mill irons," etc.

†Jesse Hopkins, born 1754, died April 29, 1821, is buried in Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa.

of their children were, (order of birth not known): 1, Phoebe H., married, Oct. 9, 1826, to Jonathan C. Pennington, born Aug. 26, 1804; 2, Loly, married to John, son of Samuel and Catharine (Willets) Crevelling*; 3, Timothy Hopkins, born 1810, died 1887, married to Mary A., born 1813, died 1892, daughter of George, born Feb. 19, 1792, died March 2, 1851, and Rebecca (McPherson) Gearhart, born April 10, 1795, whose son, Captain James M., served in Company H, 198th Regiment, Pa. Simon W. Tubbs and J. C. Pennington were appointed administrators of the estate of Nathan Tubbs, with Robert Wilson and Peter Schultz on the bond in $800.

III. (7). Captain Simon, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs, was born in Norfolk, Litchfield Co., Conn., March 10, 1780, and was baptised there April 16, 1780. He removed with his parents to the Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., Timothy Hopkins died in April, 1802. His children are named in Orphans' Court proceedings of April 22, 1805.

The children of Timothy and Phoebe (Nisbitt) Marvine-Hopkins were: 1, James, born 1781, married to Sabra, daughter of Abel and Charity (Barber) Sutliff, who was married (2) to Josiah Earl, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs. Frances, daughter of James and Sabra (Sutliff) Hopkins, was married to James, son of Caleb and Elizabeth (Tubbs) Hoyt; 2, Timothy, born 1783; 3, Sarah, born 1785, married to Nathan, son of Nathan and Elizabeth (Earle) Tubbs; 4, Dorcas, born 1787, married, Oct. 27, 1805, as third wife, to Colonel Abiel Fellows. Colonel Abiel Fellows, born Oct. 1, 1764, son of Deacon Abiel and Elizabeth (Roe) Fellows of Canaan, Conn., came to the Huntington Valley in 1784. His second wife, Catharine, born 1774, died Aug. 17, 1805, in her 32d year, is buried on the same plot in Waterton Cemetery with Abiel M. Fellows, born May 18, 1800, died Dec. 4, 1845, and his wife, Sarah, born 1803, died Sept. 24, 1868, who was doubtless her son. Colonel Fellows, who became a member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in 1811, (Bib.-3) and served as a County Commissioner of Luzerne Co., removed after 1820 from the Wyoming Valley to Kalamazoo Co., Mich., where he died Aug. 18, 1833, and his wife, Dorcas, died May 19, 1866. His will was made Aug. 12, 1833, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, May 1, 1834. It names his wife, Dorcas, and the following children, as designated: (1), Abiel Fellows, in Pennsylvania; (2), son Asahel Fellows; (3), Thomas Jefferson Fellows; (4), daughter Anna Coon; (5), daughter Amanda Crane; (6), Amina Britton; (7), Catharine Harrison; (8), son John M.; (9), son Simon; (10), son Orville; (11), son Miles; (12), son Timothy; (13), son James; (14), Caroline Fellows; (15), Lucy Fellows; (16), Emma Fellows; (17), Sally Fellows; (18), Betsey Fellows; 5, Abram, born 1790; 6, Isaac, born 1792, married to Susanna Harrison; 7, Phebe, born 1794, married to George A. about 1789, and was married there to Loly, born Aug. 19, 1782, died June 10, 1829, daughter of Abel and Charity (Barber) Sutliff, (foot note Williams family). Captain Simon Tubbs was initiated in Lodge 61, F. and A. M., at Wilkes-Barre, April 1, 1811, and was, at that time, a Captain in the Pa. Militia. (Bib.-3.) He died Oct. 21, 1828, and with his wife, is buried in the Waterton Cemetery. The children of Captain Simon and Loly (Sutliff) Tubbs were: 1, Andrew, born Feb. 28, 1801, died in 1829; 2, Elizabeth, born in 1803, died early; 3, Nathan, born in 1806, died early; 4, Captain James Madison, born 1809, died 1876, married (1), by Rev. Elias Dodson, to Julia Ann Dodson, (Family No. 1041—Dodson), born 1814, died April 29, 1845, married (2) to Mrs. Rebecca (Millard) Harrison, widow of Jackson Harrison,* by the Rev. Roger Moister, in Dec., 1845. They had three children: (1), James Madison, Jr., born 1845, died in 1850; (2), Reese Millard, for many years editor and publisher of the Mountain Echo and Postmaster at Shickshinny, Pa. He was married, in 1879, to Lydia A. Stevens, and they have one daughter, Mrs. Erma Stevens (Tubbs) Gannon, living in St. Louis, Mo., who has one son, Millard Tubbs Gannon, born May 26, 1916; 5, Roxina, born in 1812, died in 1835, married to Darius Stiles; 6 and 7, Sarah and Hannah, twins, born in 1813, died in infancy; 8, Josiah Earl, born in 1816, died in 1837; 9, Darius, born 1818, died 1842; 10, Obadiah, born 1821, died Sept. 5, 1828; 11, Barnabas, born May 25, 1823, died Nov. 5, 1862, married to Ella Mack, born Nov., 1828, died Sept. 20, 1863; 12, Phebe, probably born after her father's death, for whom Matthias Williams was appointed guardian about 1836, deceased before 1840. The will of Simon Tubbs, made Oct. 6, 1828, and probated Nov. 8, 1828, names his wife, Lola, and the following children: Andrew, James, Roxina, Josiah, Darius, Barnabas. He died Oct. 21, 1828, and is buried in Waterton Cemetery.

II. (2). Thomas, son of Simon and Sarah (Wait) Tubbs, was born in New Salem parish, near Lyme, Conn. He was married (1) to ———, and before 1790 removed to the Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa. In that year he was a resident of the latter county and had in family, living at home, himself, one male under 16 years of age and four females, presumably one son, three daughters and his wife. For a consideration of £15 he bought, Feb. 15, 1790, from his father, Simon Tubbs, of Canaan, Conn., Lot No. 7, of the First Division of Huntington. This lot is situated in the southwestern section of Huntington Township and there Thomas Tubbs, undoubtedly, established his home. In 1799 he was assessed as the owner of 400 acres of land in Huntington Township. He was still living there Feb. 19, 1836, when he conveyed title for certain lands in Huntington to Thomas I. Tubbs. Some of the children of Thomas Tubbs by his first marriage were: 1, Phoebe, born Feb. 18, 1781, died Jan. 16, 1856, married to John, born Aug. 12, 1779, died Feb. 22, 1864, son of John and Hannah (Rockwood) Chapin†; 2, Thomas I., who, with his wife

*Jackson and Rebecca (Millard) Harrison had one daughter, Anna D., who was married to G. L. Baldwin, born 1837, died 1909, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery). She was born in 1841 and died in 1885, (Huntsville Cemetery) leaving two children, Rev. Glenn A. Baldwin of Troy, Pa., (1916), and Lena H. Baldwin of Syracuse, N. Y. (Family No. 1010—Baldwin.)

†John Chapin, of Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., is said to have been a descendant of Deacon Samuel Chapin, who was baptised in Pargnton, England, in 1598, and who was married to Cicily Penny, at Pargnton, Feb. 9, 1623. She was a daughter of Henry Penny and was baptised at Pargnton in 1601. The line of descent is said to run through II, Japhet; III, Ebenezer; IV, Reuben, to John Chapin. The latter was married to Hannah Rockwood and before 1790 had settled in Huntington Township. In that year he lived in Luzerne Co., and had in family, living at home, himself, two males under 16 years of age and seven females. (Bib.-10.) May 17, 1792, he bought 80 acres of land "off the east side of Lot 8, First Division, Huntington, from Betsey Hoyt and Daniel Taylor, administrators of the estate of Jedediah Hoyt. He sold this lot, Nov. 11, 1808, to Abiel Fellows, who, with his wife, Dorcas, March 20, 1812, sold it to John Chapin, Jr. He bought, Dec. 18, 1799, from Noah and Calvin Wadhams of Plymouth, Lot No. 1, First Division, and Sept. 28, 1813, he bought, from John and Mary Huff, 155 acres of Lots 18 and 50, First Division. A portion of this latter farm he deeded, Aug. 16, 1822, to his son, Reuben R. Chapin, who, Feb. 24, 1825, with his wife, Roxina, assigned back to him their interest in it. John Chapin sold it later to Ezra Chapin. In 1814 he bought lands from Peter Follmer. John Chapin was living in 1831. His wife was living in 1822. They were the parents of 12 children, who apparently were the following, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Samuel, born March 19, 1778, died June 14, 1853, married to Hannah, born 1781, died Jan. 6, 1854, (Harveyville, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Solon, born 1751, died April 15, 1826, and Margaret (Lewis) Prescott, born 1760, died April 13, 1826, (Harveyville Cemetery); 2, John, born Aug. 12, 1779, died Feb. 22, 1864, married to Phebe, born Feb. 18, 1781, died Jan. 16, 1856, daughter of Thomas Tubbs; 3, Alta, probably born March, 1781, died July 13, 1846, married to Thomas Dodson; 4, Mary (or Mercy), married, July 13, 1806, to Tarbel, born Aug. 11, 1780, son of Nathan and Mehitabel (Seymour) Monroe, born Nov. 3, 1757, died 1827; 5, Reuben R., married to Roxina ———, had a son, Ezra; 6, Ami, married to Polly, daughter of Reuben and Thankful (Tubbs) Blish; 7, James; 8, Lois, married to Jacob Benscoter; 9, Joanna, married to ——— Preston, living in Ohio in 1844; 10, Lydia, married to Billa, son of Stephen and Susanna (Franklin) Harrison; 11, Polly, married to John, son of James and Susan (Bird)

Matilda, was living in Huntington Sept. 18, 1839; 3, probably Wealthy, who was married, Sept. 8, 1808, to James Love, of Huntington. Thomas Tubbs was married (2) to Abia, daughter of John and Keziah (Pierce) Franklin*, and their children were: (1), Flavia F., born June 25, 1802, died May 22, 1875, married to Stephen Beach Dodson; (2), Amy, married to William W. Bidlack, born June 18, 1801, died

Earl; 12, Lucinda, not married, will made July 6, 1844, probated Aug. 4, 1844, at Wilkes-Barre, named her sister, Joanna Preston, living in Ohio; her niece, Lucinda Hedges, and her nephew, Ezra, son of Reuben R. Chapin, as well as her nephews, William I. and John W. Chapin.

*FRANKLIN. John Franklin, born in 1716, died, at Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., Aug. 20, 1800, was an original member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and his name appears on the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754. He drew a number of lots in Huntington Township, now Luzerne Co., Pa., which he conveyed by deed to several of his descendants, as follows: 1. Oct. 17, 1793, Lots 32 and 31 of the First Division and the undivided lands belonging to Lot No. 31, "to my son, Samuel Franklin." 2. Same date, Lot 12, First Division, and Lot 10, Second Division, "to my son, Amos Franklin." 3. Same date, Lot 31, Second Division, "to my grandson, Darius Callender" of Sheffield, Berkshire Co., Mass. 4. June 6, 1797, Lot 15, of the Second Division, to Mary Fellows and Abiah Franklin, of which Mary Fellows and her husband, Isaac Fellows, conveyed their interest, July 20, 1816, to Thomas Tubbs, the deed reciting that the interest had been conveyed to Mary by her father, John Franklin, June 6, 1797, the other half of the lot having been conveyed by him to Abia Franklin, now (1816), Abia Tubbs, wife of Thomas. 5. Lot 3, of the Second Division, which Philip and Abigail Callender, Samuel, Silas and Amos Franklin and Stephen Harrison, heirs of John Franklin, conveyed, July 11, 1814, to Thomas Tubbs. To his son, Colonel John Franklin, John Franklin conveyed title to one-half of Lot 19, First Division, and Lot 20, First Division, the former drawn by John Frey and the latter by John Franklin, also a lot in the Second Division and one in the Third Division and all the undivided lands laid out to Lot 20. In a deed of June 23, 1797, by which Colonel John Franklin, then of Athens, Pa., conveyed title for these lands to his son, Billa Franklin, he described these lands as constituting a one-fifty-third part of Huntington "which was conveyed to me by my honored father, John Franklin, of Canaan, Conn." The children of John and Keziah (Pierce) Franklin, thus named, (with the addition of Susannah, whose husband, Stephen Harrison, is named in the deed of July, 11, 1814,) were, (order of birth not certain): 1, Abigail, born about 1747, died Aug. 6, 1823, aed. 76 years, married to Philip Callender, whose son, Darius, was of Sheffield, Berkshire Co., Mass., Oct. 17, 1793, and removed to the Huntington Valley. He was married to Lydia Woodworth and some of their children were, (order of birth not certain): (1), Abigail, born about 1787, died Sept. 21, 1815, 29th year, married to John, son of James and Susanna (Beach) Dodson, (Family No. 1041—Dodson); (2), Cynthia, born May 6, 1797, died July 12, 1872, married, as second wife, to John, son of James and Susanna (Beach) Dodson; (3), John F.; (4), Delania, probably born Sept. 16, 1802, died Sept. 5, 1865, married to William Callender, born May 1, 1810, died July 5, 1840, (Sweet Valley Cemetery, Ross Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.); (5), Barnabas, born 1804, drowned April 25, 1806, 3d year, (Waterton Cemetery); (6), Esther, born May 12, 1810, died Aug. 14, 1881, (Waterton Cemetery) married to C. Bencotter; (7), Edmund, born Oct. 12, 1814, died Dec. 30, 1873, married to Maria Ide, born March 10, 1820, died Aug. 31, 1893, (Waterton Cemetery); 2, Colonel John, Jr., born Sept. 26, 1749, died East Athens, Pa., March 1, 1831, married (1), at North Canaan, Conn., Feb. 2, 1774, to Lydia Doolittle, born at Canaan, Conn., Aug. 13, 1751, died in Windsor, Berks Co., Pa., in Nov., 1778, whose children were: (1), Billa, born at Plymouth, Pa., Nov. 3, 1774, died in Palmyra, N. Y.; (2), Amos, born June 4, 1776, died at Cayugaville, N. Y., Oct. 11, 1804; (3), Keziah, born April 11, 1778, married to Dr. Solomon Bebee, lived at Geneva, N. Y. Colonel John Franklin was married (2), at Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 25, 1790, to Mrs. Abigail (Fuller) Bidlack, widow of Captain James Bidlack, Jr., (see Harvey's Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley, for portrait and sketch of Colonel John Franklin, one of the most remarkable men in the history of Northeastern Pennsylvania); 3, Amos, who lived and died in the Huntington Valley, whose daughter, Keziah, was married to Tarbel Monroe, and whose son, Amos, born Nov. 14, 1774, died Nov. 4, 1836, was married to Margaret, born April 17, 1777, died March 10, 1851, daughter of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele, (Family No. 1010—Steele) and whose will was made March 22, 1834, was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 28, 1837, appointed his sons, Peter and John, executors and named his wife, Margaret, and his youngest son, Silas. Silas, son of Amos and Margaret Franklin, born Feb. 14, 1818, died Sept. 17, 1856. He was married to Elizabeth ———, born April, 1817, died June 9, 1891, (Waterton Cemetery). HARRISON. Stephen Harrison, born Aug. 14, 1749, died June 5, 1831, was married, at North Canaan, Conn., July 29, 1773, to Susanna, daughter of John and Keziah (Pierce) Franklin. He was married (2) to Huldah (Daboll?). His will was made July 21, 1832, and probated June 25, 1834, at Wilkes-Barre. It names his wife, Huldah, as sole executor and refers to the following children, (order of birth not known): 1, Stephen, Jr., married to Mary Dodson, whose will was made Nov. 19, 1864, and probated April 6, 1865, some of whose children were: (1), Merriitt, born 1800, died Nov. 7, 1867, married to Harriet Stevens; (2), C. Matilda, married to C. M. Dodson; probably (3), Sarah, born March 21, 1810, died Dec. 19, 1830, (Watertown Cemetery); (4), Jesse, Sergeant Company I, 143d Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., wounded at Gettysburg, July 1, 1863, promoted same date to Second Lieutenant, died of wounds, Aug. 20, 1863, at Gettysburg, Pa., married to Phoebe, daughter of Josiah Earl and Jamima (Williams) Tubbs, (see above); probably (5), Mary, born Nov. 8, 1820, died Feb. 20, 1841, (Waterton Cemetery); 2, Billa, married to Lydia, daughter of John and Hannah (Rockwood) Chapin, (see later); 3, Lydia, married, May 3, 1804, to Jacob, son of Peters and Jean (Bell) Steele, (Family No. 1010—

Aug. 25, 1863, son of Philemon and Sarah (Fleming) Bidlack, and grandson of Captain James and Mehitable Bidlack, (see the Harvey Book). In Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., is the grave of Samantha, born 1814, died June 2, 1836, wife of William W. Bidlack. Some of the children of William W. and Amy (Tubbs) Bidlack were: Mrs. Sally Ann (Bidlack) Earle, Flora, Samantha (Bidlack) Fulmer, Benjamin A., born Aug. 1, 1842, died Sept. 9, 1899.

II. (3). Elizabeth, daughter of Simon and Sarah (Wait) Tubbs, was born in Litchfield Co., Conn., or in the parish of New Salem, near Lyme, Conn., and was married in Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., to David Woodward. They removed to the Huntington Valley, Pa., and in 1796. he was assessed as owning 150 acres in Huntington Township. David Woodward died before June 7, 1834. Mrs. Elizabeth (Tubbs) Woodward died about 1850-51. Her will, made in Huntington, July 13, 1850, was probated May 28, 1851, provided she should be buried according to the rites of the Methodist Episcopal Church and that tombstones should be placed at her grave and that of her husband. It names her daughters, Rebecca, married to Andrew Kingsbury, and Lydia Ann, married to Samuel Seward. They also had a daughter, Polly, married to John Robins, and a son, Daniel, married to Rebecca, daughter of John and Mary (McKinney) Buckalew. He died between Feb. 4, and May 30, 1834, the dates his will was made and probated. His widow, Rebecca (Buckalew) Woodward, was married (2) to Epaphras Wadsworth,* Jr.

Steele); 4, Lucy (Harrison) Fuller, probably married to Daniel Fuller; 5, Jairus, born April 3, 1779, died March 1, 1853, married to Huldah, born July 1, 1777, died March 15, 1858, (Waterton Cemetery), daughter of Benjamin Fuller. Benjamin Fuller died in Huntington, Dec. 23, 1821, (see Dodson family above); 6, Clarissa, born about 1781, died Dec. 22, 1820, aed. 49 years, married to John, son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Rhoades) Dodson, (see later); 7, Susanna, married to Isaac, son of Timothy and Phebe (Nisbitt) Marvine-Hopkins, (see Hopkins family). The above were children of Stephen and Susannah (Franklin) Harrison. The children of Stephen and Huldah Harrison were: (1), James; (2), Huldah; (3), Ezekiel C.; (4), Merritt, married (1) to Sabra, born 1798, died May 22, 1828, daughter of Gideon and Sarah (Tubbs) Post, married (2) to Sarah A. Edwards; (5), Julia; (6), Edna.

Clarissa, daughter of Stephen and Susannah (Franklin) Harrison, was married to John Dodson, who was born Feb. 26, 1771, and died May 9, 1851. He was a son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Rhoades) Dodson of Northampton Co., Pa. His sister, Abigail, born 1767, died 1845, captured by Indians at Gilbert Mills in the Mahoning Valley, Pa., in 1780, was held in captivity until 1785. She was married to Peter Brink and is buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa. On the same plot is the grave of Samuel Dodson, born July 21, 1786, died July 28, 1867, and his wife, Hannah (Smith), born June 24, 1791, died July 9, 1867, doubtless brother of John and Abigail. In the same cemetery is the grave of Joseph Dodson, born May 6, 1773, died Nov. 27, 1855, and his wife, Hannah, born July 13, 1773, died Nov. 29, 1847, probably another brother. The children of John and Clarissa (Harrison) Dodson were: 1, Nancy, born June 17, 1798, died May, 1888, married to John N. Weston, Towanda, Pa.; 2, Ann, born Sept. 7, 1800, died Dec. 6, 1875, married to Gideon (3), son of Gideon, Jr., and Sarah (Tubbs) Post; 3, Amanda, born Dec. 20, 1802, died Feb. 19, 1875, married to Solomon, probably son of Thomas, born about 1752, died Jan. 26, 1847, in his 96th year, and Elizabeth Taylor, born Aug. 20, 1759, died Feb. 17, 1833, (Waterton Cemetery); 4, Susan, born Dec. 9, 1804, married to Daniel J. La Bar; 5, Samuel, born Jan. 31, 1807, died March 2, 1874, married to Ann Fell, born Nov. 2, 1812, died Jan. 3, 1862, (Waterton Cemetery); 6, Elizabeth, born Aug. 28, 1809, died April 3, 1851, married to Charles T. Millard, born May 16, 1807, died March 3, 1851, (Waterton Cemetery); 7, Sarah, born Oct. 19, 1811, married to William B. Chamberlain; 8, Stephen Harrison, born Dec. 27, 1813, died Aug. 11, 1817; 9, Miner, born Aug. 14, 1816, died June 28, 1817; 10, Stephen H. (2), born June 8, 1818, married, Dec. 27, 1846, to Lydia, daughter of Robert and Phoebe (Nisbitt) Davenport, (see Davenport, above); 11, Clarissa, born Dec. 21, 1820, married to Matthias Huffman.

John Dodson was married (2) to Sophronia, born about 1791, died March 1, 1841, daughter of Nathan and Mehitable (Seymour) Monroe. Nathan Monroe was married, June 18, 1778, at New Hartford, Conn., to Mehitable, born Nov. 3, 1757, died 1827, daughter of William and Mehitable (Merrill) Seymour, and their children were: (1), Tarbel, born Aug. 11, 1780, married, July 13, 1806, to Mary, daughter of John and Hannah (Rockwood) Chapin; (2), Truman, born 1782, married, 1811, to Kerziah Franklin, probably daughter of Amos Franklin; (3), Mary Seymour, born Oct. 12, 1783, not married; (4), Sophronia, born about 1791, married, Nov. 12, 1821, to John Dodson; (5), Esther, born Feb. 2, 1787, died Oct. 24, 1844, married to Ira Rood, born April 19, 1781, died June 10, 1854, (Pine Grove Cemetery). The children of John and Sophronia (Monroe) Dodson were: (1), Miner D., born Nov. 2, 1822, died Feb. 6, 1843; (2), Weston D.; (3), Dr. Nathan M., lived at Berlin, Wis.; (4), John O. A.; (5), Truman, of Bethlehem, Pa.; (6), Dr. Franklin, Berlin, Wis.; (7), Mary, born Sept. 23, 1833, died Sept. 1, 1851, (Waterton Cemetery), married to Dr. Robert Hicks; (8), Charles M., married to C. Matilda, daughter of Stephen and Mary (Dodson) Harrison, Bethlehem, Pa.; 9, Joseph S., lived in Kansas. John Dodson came to the Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., from Penn Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and was of that township April 30, 1796, when he bought from Nathan Tubbs, Sr., Lot No. 29, First Division, of Huntington, on which Nathan Tubbs then lived. It lies between Huntington Mills and the Waterton Cemetery and has been known as the Dodson homestead for 120 years.

*Epaphras Wadsworth, born about 1754, died in 1841, was a soldier in the War of the American Revolution and in 1840, then 86 years of age, was living in Luzerne Co., Pa. He and his wife, Desdemona, (probably Marshall) were of Columbia Co., N. Y., Sept. 26, 1796, when Rufus Lawrence sold to Gad Marshall's heirs, Desdemona Wadsworth of Columbia Co., N. Y., and Lloyd Marshall of Luzerne Co., Pa., Lot No. 7, Second Division of Huntington.

II. (5). Simon, Jr., son of Simon and Sarah (Wait) Tubbs, was born in Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., Jan. 16, 1756, and died, at Essex, Chittenden Co., Vt., April 2, 1824. He enlisted, April 24, 1777, for three years' service in Captain Titus Watson's Company of Colonel Heman Swift's Seventh Regiment of the Conn. Continental Line, in the War of the American Revolution. He was detached at Valley Forge, Pa., March 19, 1778, and was assigned to service in the Life Guard of the Commander in Chief, General George Washington. He remained in this service until he was honorably discharged at Morristown, N. J., April 24, 1780, having served the full term of his enlistment, three full years. He took part in the battles of Germantown, Pa., Oct. 4, 1777, and Monmouth, N. J., June 28, 1778. He was married to Roxina Lawrence, who was born May 4, 1761, and died Jan. 28, 1832. He owned Lot 51 of the Second Division of Huntington Township, which his father, Simon Tubbs, deeded to him Jan. 29, 1795, for the consideration of love and good will he had for his son, Simon, Jr. He probably never came to the Huntington Valley to remain. He settled first at Burlington, Vt., but about 1787-8 he removed to Essex in Chittenden Co. The children of Simon, Jr., and Rosina (Lawrence) Tubbs were: 1, Esther, born May 20, 1784, died Nov. 16, 1840, married to Dr. Truman Powell, June 5, 1803; 2, John, born Jan. 27, 1785, died April 12, 1845, married to Sally Tyler; 3, Lucy, born March 8, 1787, died Dec. 2, 1857, married (1), Dec. 29, 1808, to Benjamin Thompson; (2) to Ebenezer Lyon; 4, Remember, born March 21, 1788, died March 21, 1788; 5, Ira, born March 19, 1789, died June 5, 1863, married to Harriet Richards; 6, Phoebe, born Oct. 28, 1791, died Oct. 28, 1791; 7, Polly (twin), born Oct. 28, 1791, died Oct. 28, 1791; 8, Simon, born March 2, 1793, died June 29, 1860, married to Wealthy Stevens; 9, Lawrence Wait, born Dec. 29, 1794, died May 1, 1880, married (1) to Fanny Collins, (2) to Martha Tuttle; 10, Rosina, born April 29, 1797, died Feb. 13, 1875, married, April 15, 1821, to Olive Bliss; 11, George, born March 29, 1799; 12, Thomas, born May 3, 1801, died Feb. 27, 1823.

SALLY (SHOEMAKER) BARDOLL-TRIPP; FAMILIES NOS. 1042 (986)

Sally, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker, was born at New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., March 31, 1825, and was married (1), Jan. 16, 1845, to Thomas, born Oct. 8, 1817, died July 21, 1847, son of Peter and Margaret Ann (Edelman) Bardoll*.

Benjamin Fuller and Sarepta Hopkins were witnesses. Jan. 19, 1799, Lloyd Marshall of Huntington Township sold to Epaphras Wadsworth of Columbia Co., N. Y., one-half of Lot 52, First Division, and one-half of Lot No. 7, Second Division, in Huntington. Epaphras and Desdemona Wadsworth removed to the Huntington Valley about 1800. His will was made Dec. 4, 1837, a codicil was added, Jan. 27, 1841, following the death of his wife, and it was probated Dec. 2, 1841. It names his wife, Desdemona, to whom he gave the homestead and mill lot, deeded to her by Christopher Bowman, June 11, 1812, deed. Christopher and Sarah Bowman to Desdemona Wadsworth, wife of Epaphrus, one-half of Lots 52 and 7; his daughter, Desdemona, also named an executor; heirs of Polly, Harriet and Tyler, his son Marshall's daughters Eliza and Desdemona of Catawissa, Pa., (Marshall deceased); his son, Epaphras. Epaphras Wadsworth, Jr., was married to Mrs. Rebecca (Buckalew) Woodward, widow of Daniel Woodward, (see above). His will, made Dec. 29, 1863, and probated Nov. 18, 1871, names his son P. C. (Putnam C.); Hannah, widow of E. A. Wadsworth; his granddaughters, Candace Fitzgerald and Charlotte Wadsworth; his daughters, Mary T., Desdemona (Wadsworth) Dodson, Permelia (Wadsworth) Buckalew, and Lucy (Wadsworth) Dodson. Lot 7 was on Pine Creek west of the center of Huntington, and Lot 52 adjoined it on the east.

THE BARDOLL FAMILY

*Peter Bardoll was born in Northampton Co., Pa., July 30, 1792, and was married there to Margaret Ann Edelman. They removed to Luzerne Co., where, in 1833, he was assessed in Hanover Township. In 1836 they were living in Kingston Township, where he was assessed as a blacksmith. He was employed for many years, in various capacities, about the Shoemaker Mills. He died at Wyoming, now West Wyoming, Pa., Aug. 18, 1850. His wife died Jan. 25, 1875. They are buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Thomas, born Oct. 8, 1817, died July 21, 1847, married to Sally, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Wohlgemuth) Shoemaker; 2, Samuel, married, Feb. 28, 1848, by Elder John Miller, to Catharine, daughter of Henry and Anna (Linnabury) Kern, (Family No. 1216—Kern); 3, John, married to Elizabeth, daughter of Henry and Anna (Linnabury) Kern, (Family No. 1216—Kern); 4, Daniel, born Oct. 2, 1827, died Dec. 25, 1862, married, Jan. 13, 1855, to Matilda, born July 24, 1828, died Aug. 7, 1915, at West Pittston, Pa., daughter of Emanuel and Mary (Fitch) Dailey; 5, Hiram, married to Almira Hartsell; 6, Sally Ann, born about 1825, died 1916, married, Jan. 1, 1850, to Peter Freeman Teeter, a cabinetmaker, of Abington, Pa., formerly of Dutchess Co., N. Y.

Thomas, son of Peter and Margaret Ann (Edelman) Bardoll, learned the trade of a

Their son, Sterling, was born Feb. 16, 1847, Mrs. Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll was married (2), Sept. 25, 1848, by the Rev. Bostwick Hawley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to Holden, son of Isaac, Jr., and Catharine (La France) Tripp, of Providence, Pa. Holden Tripp was born in Providence, now Scranton, Pa., Oct. 15, 1824, and died Dec. 30, 1870, at Wyoming, now West Wyoming, Pa. They first established their home at Providence, Pa. In the partition of the estate of Jacob I. Shoemaker the Shoemaker Hotel became the property of Mrs. Tripp and they removed to the hotel from Providence. Holden Tripp conducted the hotel for a few years and then, with his wife, sold it to John Pollock. In 1865 he bought a one-half interest in the milling business of I. C. Shoemaker and Sons. This partnership, doing business as Shoemaker and Tripp, was dissolved Dec. 1, 1868. March 31, 1859, he bought from Henry Hice 14 acres of Lot 34 in the Third Division of Lots in Kingston Township. Three acres of this tract was part of Lot 4 in the division of the estate of Solomon Chapin, (Family No. 1216—Chapin) and had been assigned to Charles, son of Solomon Chapin, who had sold it Aug. 8, 1829, to Henry Breese, (Family No. 988—Breese). The latter had sold it Feb. 6, 1832, to Ralph Atherton, (Family No. 992—Ather-ton), who sold it April 1, 1841, to Moses B. Phillips, (Family No. 1216—Phillips). Moses B. Phillips assigned it to Ann (Chapin) Phillips, widow of Alvah C. Phillips, (Family No. 1216), from which Henry Hice bought it April 13, 1846, (Family No. 988—Hice). The other eleven acres was broommaker and, in 1841, was assessed as a broommaker in Kingston Township. He made and sold brooms there in 1840. According to his account book, brooms sold for 25c. each and for $2.50 per dozen. (The retail price of an ordinary broom in the winter of 1918 is 75c.) In March of 1841 Thomas Bardoll entered the employ of Harding and Shafer, (Captain James Bird Harding and George Shafer), who then owned and operated the foundry on what was long known as the Van Tuyl property on what is now Eighth street, West Wyoming. In April of the same year he operated the plaster mill, also owned by Harding and Shafer, and located on the same lot. This plaster mill had an extensive patronage and supplied farmers in the valley and in the most northerly sections of Kingston Township and had some patrons residing in Exeter and Dallas Townships. In the fall of 1842 his accounts were dated Providence, Pa., and Oct. 4, 1842, he charged Truman Vaughn "To my half of the castings and to old iron in the foundry." It appears probable that he was associated with Alexander Clark Shafer, (Family No. 50—Shafer) in the foundry business at Providence, and in 1842 sold his interest to Truman Vaughn. In 1842 he was in the employ of Shafer and Vaughn at Providence, in the foundry. Under date of Nov. 11, 1842, in an account with Truman Vaughn, 40 gallon kettles were priced at $6.00 each, 20 gallon kettles at $4.00 each, 15 gallon kettles at $3.00 each and 10 gallon kettles at $2.00 each. Grate irons cost $1.50 per pair, and "two shaker stoves" cost $21.00. In 1843 Thomas Bardoll had returned to Kingston Township and was associated with Aaron Van Camp, a scale builder in 1844, in some business venture. His accounts show the sale of plows, kettles, machine castings, bar iron, etc. He records various trips to Carbondale, now Lackawanna Co., Pa., and Bethany, in Wayne Co. The Carbondale trip required two days, for which $3.00 was paid. The Bethany trip consumed three days. In the fall of 1844 he bought wheat, paid for grinding, and sold the flour in Carbondale, Waymrat and Bethany.

This flour was evidently made at the Shoemaker Mill by William Sax, miller. Under date of Nov. 15, 1846, there appears an account with Daniel La Bar, (Family No. 1016—La Bar), a tailor, who charged $3.75 for making a coat and vest, $1.00 for making a vest and $1.00 for making pants. At this time he was a resident of Exeter Township, and charged Daniel La Bar, who evidently was one of the itinerating tailors of his day, for 20 weeks' board, from March 12, 1847, at $1.50 per week, $30.00. In 1846 he was a tenant on the James Sutton farm in Exeter Township, and had dealings with E. A. Corey and Company, (Family No. 946—Corey). This historic farm on Sutton's Creek, sometimes called Corey's Creek, was owned by Elisha A. Corey, Jesse B. Schooley and Thomas F. Atherton, April 1, 1847, when they leased it to Thomas Bardoll for the term of five years for a yearly rental of $400.00, all of which was to be expended in improving the farm. Half of the large dwelling house, the mill and the log house were reserved. In 1848 Isaac Dreibelbis (Family No. 1720—Dreibelbis) was the miller in the Corey Mill. Thomas and Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll, evidently, went to housekeeping in Kingston Township, and in 1846 removed to the Sutton farm on Sutton's Creek in Exeter Township. Thomas Bardoll died there July 24, 1847, aed. 29 years, 9 months, 13 days, and was buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery.

part of Lot 4 and the whole of Lot 5 in the division of the estate of Solomon Chapin and had been assigned to Robert P. Chapin, who sold it to Henry Hice Nov. 18, 1834. This purchase included the old Chapin house, which was doubtless built by one of the Coreys, (Family No. 946—Corey), and was the home of Reuben Mullison in 1793, of Comfort Shaw in 1795 and of Solomon Chapin in 1800. Holden Tripp also bought lands from the heirs of Samuel Raub, (Family No. 947—Raub). He built the brick residence, now owned by some of the heirs of his estate. The old Corey-Mullison-Shaw-Chapin-Hice house, which stood on the lot adjoining, on the south, the Joseph L. Dymond garden, has been removed to another street, in West Wyoming, and is still in service (1918) as a tenement. Holden Tripp died Dec. 30, 1870. His wife died May 11, 1878. They are buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Oscar H., born April 9, 1850, died Sept. 21, 1851; 2, Marcia Althea, born July 4, 1852, died Sept. 17, 1897; 3, William S., born Nov. 12, 1854, died June 17, 1887, not married; 4, Lizzie De Puy, born Nov. 22, 1856; 5, Charles Clearwater, born Feb. 18, 1859; 6, Ira Holden, born Jan. 20, 1862.

STERLING BARDOLL-TRIPP FAMILIES NOS. 1043—(1042)

Sterling, son of Thomas and Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll, was born in Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Feb. 16, 1847. His father died when he was about five months of age. After his mother was married to Holden Tripp, as her second husband, he was adopted by his stepfather and a special act of the State Legislature authorized the changing of his name to Sterling Bardoll Tripp. (Bib.—58.) He attended the public schools at Wyoming and the Wyoming Seminary at Kingston, Pa. From 1870 to 1873 he was in the employ of Payne Pettebone as assistant foreman on the Louisiana sugar plantation of the latter. He is said to have built the Wyoming Shovel Works, as contractor. In 1875 he became Superintendent of the Colliery of Tripp and Co. at Providence, and, about 1895, with J. E. Johnson, he organized the company of S. P. Tripp and Co. and engaged in the retail coal business. He was married, Aug. 8, 1881, to Josephine H., born near Factoryville, Wyoming Co., Pa., daughter of Henry, born 1816, died May, 1885, and Elizabeth (Cannon) Chase, born at Norwich, Chenango Co., N. Y., 1818, died at Scranton, Pa., Feb. 27, 1893. He was a member of the B. P. Order of Elks and of the Heptasophs. He died at Scranton, Pa., Feb. 27, 1893.

MARCIA ALTHEA (TRIPP) MORGAN; FAMILIES NOS. 1044 (1042A)

Marcia Althea, daughter of Holden and Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll-Tripp, was born in Providence, now Scranton, Pa., July 4, 1852, and in 1853, her parents removed to what is now West Wyoming, Pa. She was married, March 2, 1885, to John W., born June 17, 1859, son of James and Ann (Jones)

Morgan, natives of England. She died Sept. 17, 1897. John W. Morgan was married (2), by the Rev. Wilson Treible, Jan. 27, 1900, to Mattie E., daughter of Lewis and Martha (Rinks) Rinker.

LIZZIE DE PUY (TRIPP) GREGORY; FAMILIES NOS. 1045
(1042A)

Lizzie De Puy, daughter of Holden and Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll-Tripp, was born at Wyoming, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., No. 22, 1856, and was married there to Herbert T., born in Swansea, Wales, Dec. 11, 1864, son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Thomas) Gregory. Daniel Gregory and his family came from Swansea, Wales, to Scranton, Pa., about 1881, and removed to Elmhurst about 1900. The children of Daniel and Elizabeth (Thomas) Gregory are: Herbert T., Daniel, Jr., not married, Wilfred married to Maud Quick, Arthur and Kate, married to Garfield Edwards. Herbert T. Gregory attended the public schools at Brynhyfrid, Wales, and Arnold College in Swansea. He served as an apprentice druggist with his uncle, Thomas E. Thomas, in Morriston, Wales, near Swansea. In 1882 he came to Wyoming, Pa., and entered the employ of Robert Wilson, druggist, and in 1887 established the Gregory Drug Store on East Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, Pa. In 1900 he sold his business to Dr. Hooven and went to San Francisco, Calif., where he remained one year. He returned to Wyoming, bought out Dr. Hooven and until the year 1917 carried on the drug business at the original location. He is now located (1918) in the William H. Shoemaker block, Wyoming avenue and Eighth street, Wyoming, Pa., and has one of the most modern and most completely furnished drug stores in the Wyoming Valley. He is a member of Wyoming Lodge, No. 468, F. and A. M., and of the Presbyterian Church. He has served as choir master of that church for many years. The only child of Herbert T. and Lizzie De Puy (Tripp) Gregory, Herbert T., Jr., died in infancy.

CHARLES CLEARWATER TRIPP; FAMILIES NOS. 1046—(1042A)

Charles C. Tripp, son of Holden and Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll-Tripp, was born in Wyoming, Pa., now West Wyoming, Feb. 18, 1859, and was married, June 24, 1863, to Carrie May Brobst. Their home is in Scranton, Pa., and their children are: 1, Gertrude Maria, born Dec. 26, 1882; 2, Holden Ira, born Feb. 17, 1886; 3, Blanche Emma, born April 20, 1888.

GERTRUDE M. (TRIPP) KYTE; FAMILIES NOS. 1047—(1042A)

Gertrude M., daughter of Charles Clearwater and Carrie May (Brobst) Tripp, was born in Scranton, Pa., Dec. 22, 1882, and was married to Thomas Kyte, son of Henry De Witt and Mary (McCarrick) Kyte, (see Family No. 1334—Kyte-De Witt).

IRA HOLDEN TRIPP; FAMILIES NOS. 1048—(1042A)

Ira Holden, son of Holden and Sally (Shoemaker) Bardoll-Tripp, was born at Wyoming, Pa., now West Wyoming, Jan. 22, 1862, and was married, Nov. 22, 1885, to Mary A., born Feb. 2, 1864, daughter of Robert and Sarah M. (Hutchins) Wilson. (Family No. 1025—Hutchins-Wilson.) Their daughter, Sallie H., was born Feb. 5, 1887. Ira Holden Tripp died March 17, 1888, and was buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery, but was afterwards removed to Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.

Sallie H., daughter of Ira Holden and Mary A. (Wilson) Tripp, was born at West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Feb. 5, 1887, and was married, Sept. 3, 1913, to Frederick W., son of H. C. and Jane (Thomas) Warner. He is in the automobile business in Scranton, Pa. Their children are: 1, John Tripp, born Aug. 15, 1914; 2, Frederick Waydell, Jr., born May 17, 1916. Their residence is at 1602 Pine street, Scranton, Pa.

HELEN SHOEMAKER PRENDERGAST; FAMILIES NOS. 1050
(986A)

Helen, daughter of Jacob I. and Elizabeth (Chapin) Shoemaker-Shoemaker, was born in what is now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 24, 1843, and died in Scranton, Pa., April 17, 1918. (Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.) She was married, Nov. 20, 1860, to D. R. Prendergast, who, for a number of years, was a merchant in Kingston, Pa. Under the terms of her father's will she inherited the lot on what is now West Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., above and probably adjoining the site of the Shoemaker Memorial Chapel. In the partition of the lands of her father, Jacob I. Shoemaker, however, the "Hatter Shop" lot at the southeast corner of Shoemaker avenue and Eighth street, West Wyoming, was assigned to her. With her husband she conveyed title to this lot, June 30, 1863, to William Church, reserving the Isaac C. Shoemaker water rights. For a number of years before her death she lived in Scranton, Pa. She was a member of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal Church and was the Secretary of the Michael Shoemaker Association. The children of D. R. and Helen (Shoemaker) Prendergast were: 1, Robert Emmett, born Sept. 23, 1863, not married; 2, Edward Chapin, born in 1866, married, March 31, 1894, to Effie B. Pollock, (Family No. 1051), and Elizabeth D., not married.

ROBERT EMMETT PRENDERGAST; FAMILY NO. (1050)

Robert Emmett, son of Dennis Rutherford and Helen (Shoemaker) Prendergast, was born in Kingston, Pa., Sept. 23, 1863. As a young man he served eight years as a clerk in a dry goods store, and, later, served for three years as a bookkeeper for the Scranton Republican. He was engaged for

SARAH (SHOEMAKER) TAYLOR-SMITH; FAMILIES NOS. 1055
(946)

Sarah, daughter of Isaac and Catharine Elizabeth (Carpenter) Schumacher, was born in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., Feb. 16, 1789, and was baptised (Reformed Church of Easton, Pa.) March 21, 1790, John George Meyer and Elizabeth Meixell, sponsors. She was married (1), in 1806-7, to George, son of William Taylor.

Captain George Taylor was born in New Jersey, July 29, 1782, and was a Captain in the Pennsylvania Militia, in Luzerne Co., prior to 1823. In 1807 George Taylor was assessed as a carpenter and innkeeper in Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was the proprietor of the famous Arndt Inn.* (See Family No. 1339—Arndt). Oct. 13, 1809, John P. Arndt and Peleg Tracy, Secretary, through the columns of the Luzerne Federalist, called for a meeting of the Luzerne Ship Building Company at the "House of George Taylor in Wilkes-Barre," Saturday, 21st, at 2, to elect a manager in the place of Arnold Colt, "removed from the county." Nov. 24, 1809, George Taylor published a card in the same newspaper which reads as follows: "All persons indebted to the subscriber for Tavern Bills and for service of the horse American Farmer are earnestly desired to make payment on or before January next. If not promptly complied with, by that time, prosecution will be entered against every delinquent." March 16, 1810, through the same medium he called for "payment of all moneys due him by the 10th of April next, as he expects to leave Wilkes-Barre." In 1811 he was assessed as a Tavern Keeper and as the owner of a house and lot in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1814 he had bought 42 acres of land in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., from Ezekiel Goble, (Family No. 35—Goble). This land,

*The writer has in his possession the account book kept by George Taylor in 1809, when he conducted the Arndt Inn, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. It contains the names of hundreds of residents of Wilkes-Barre and vicinity in that year, and the writer expects, at some future time, to publish a sketch embodying the principal items of general interest recorded upon its pages.

a tract 20 perches wide and 349 perches long, included the site of the old house which stands at the forks of the road, where the old Tunkhannock highway leaves what is now Wyoming avenue. It is now at the western boundary of the borough of West Pittston, Pa. This old house is more than 75 years old. The land was a part of Lot 5 of the Thomas Jenkins patent of March 23, 1809, and was sold by George Taylor to Jacob Sharps, Sept. 24, 1816, probably the first purchase of lands by the latter in Luzerne Co. Ezekiel Goble bought, in Feb., 1812, from Thomas Jenkins and his wife, Lena (Eleanor), 85 acres of Lot 5, Exeter, patented to Thomas Jenkins, March 23, 1809. This farm was 40 perches wide and 349 perches long, and is now a part of West Pittston, Pa. Aug. 10, 1815, George Taylor bought from Isaac and Catharine Elizabeth (Carpenter) Schumacher five acres of land on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, Pa. This lot was some 210 feet wide and 1,056 feet deep, and was the most southerly corner of the lands of Isaac Schumacher. Its eastern boundary was the property long known as the Margaret Ann (Peggy Ann) Breese property now at the corner of Sixth street and Wyoming avenue, Wyoming. The western boundary was the property owned by George Sharps in 1872 and now owned by the Pettebone estate. On this lot George Taylor built a tavern with barns and sheds, and for a few years conducted it. It was bought by Jacob Sharps, Jan. 6, 1820. William C. Johnson, born 1780, died March 9, 1826, conducted the tavern for several years. The old tavern is still standing and is now a double tenement house. It stood, originally, close to the present sidewalk line, but a number of years ago, was moved back. It was for many years the residence of John, son of Jacob Sharps, and, after his death, was occupied by his widow. It is probably the last of the old Wyoming taverns.*

In 1822 George Taylor was assessed as a carpenter and lived in what is now West Wyoming, Pa. In 1823, accompanied by his wife and four small children, he left the Wyoming Valley and went to Oakland Co., Mich. They went from Buffalo, N. Y., to Detroit, Mich., on the steamer Thomas Jefferson, one of the first steamers on that now famous route. They located first in Troy Township, where George Taylor built the first frame barn in that township. The next year they lived in East Bloomfield. In 1831 they removed to Commerce Township and in 1836 settled finally on the site of the present village of Walled Lake. In 1833 Mr. Taylor injured his knee while wielding a broad axe and was crippled during the remainder of his life. He was a tall man, standing over six feet, muscular and active. In politics he was a Democrat. While living in Troy Township he served as Constable and Road Commissioner. In 1833 he was appointed Justice of the Peace, the first appointed in Commerce Township. He held that office for several years.

*Among the comparatively early tavernkeepers in the vicinity of Wyoming, Pa., were Aaron Perkins 1801, Philip Jackson 1807, George Taylor 1811-20, Lot Breese 1814, Harris Jenkins 1817 and 1827, William C. Johnson 1822-5, James Jenkins 1825, John Perkins 1827-1833, where the First National Bank now stands, afterwards the Dr. Alfred Brace tavern, Samuel Breese 1831, Henry Breese 1833, Clark Shaver 1839, Mrs. Christiana Hutchins 1808-10, Henry Hutchins 1801.

He lived on friendly terms with the Indians, many of whom still remained in Oakland Co. He owned a farm in West Bloomfield, Mich. Captain George Taylor died at Walled Lake, Mich., July 30, 1841, aed. 59 years, 1 month and 1 day. Sarah (Shoemaker) Taylor was married (2) to Nathan Smith. She died July 30, 1849. She was a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Walled Lake and is fondly remembered by some of her descendants as an excellent manager and a fine housekeeper. She was short with dark hair and spoke a broken English.

The Taylor family were, in the strictest sense of the term, pioneers in the settlement of Oakland Co., Mich. In a vast wilderness eight of their children grew to maturity. All of their seven sons who grew to manhood were above six feet tall. Two of them reached their 86th year and one reached his 80th. George Taylor and Sarah (Shoemaker) Taylor-Smith, his wife, are buried in the Walled Lake, Mich., Cemetery. Their children were: (1), Isaac Shoemaker, born Nov. 30, 1808, died Jan. 30, 1860; (2), George Washington, died in youth; (3), William, born March 4, 1812, died Nov. 5, 1898; (4), Abraham C., born Nov. 24, 1815, died Aug. 2, 1895; (5), Caroline, born June 7, 1818, died Feb. 16, 1878; (6), Jacob, born Nov. 16, 1820, died July 20, 1896; (7), daughter, died in infancy; (8), John, born Nov. 6, 1825, died Sept. 1, 1911; (9), daughter, died in infancy; (10), Daniel, born Nov. 16, 1829, died March 11, 1894; (11), Edmund T., born July 12, 1831, died Aug. 28, 1897.

ISAAC SHOEMAKER TAYLOR; FAMILIES NOS. 1056—(1055)

Isaac Shoemaker, son of Captain George and Anna (Shoemaker) Taylor, born in Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 20, 1808, was baptised, according to the rites of the Lutheran Church, at Easton, Pa., Oct. 18, 1809. He removed with his parents from Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., to Oakland Co., Mich., in 1823. He was married, May 10, 1836, to Margaret Jane, born Dec. 15, 1814, died Feb. 21, 1891, daughter of Hamilton and Sarah Davis, who were married in Belfast, Ireland. From 1836 to 1840 Isaac Shoemaker Taylor conducted a tavern at Birmingham, Oakland Co., Mich. "Training Days" brought great crowds of men to Birmingham and made brisk business both for the tavern keeper and his wife. This was also the "Wild Cat" period of finance in Michigan. In 1840 Mr. and Mrs. Taylor removed to Walled Lake, Mich., where, in 1839, he had bought one-fourth acre of land from Sarah Orchard. (Bib.-308.) He then established a general merchandise business and remained there for 12 years, serving part of the time as Town Clerk. On a lot opposite his store he operated an ashery where "black salts" were produced. Dec. 7, 1849, he disposed of his business at Walled Lake and removed to a farm in Richfield Township, Genesee Co., Mich., which he had bought from John Gould and his wife, Mary, a number of years before (Bib.-308), when they removed to Richfield Township. The nearest trading points were Goodrich, 13 miles distant, and Holly, 27 miles.

Ox teams were used exclusively. May 16, 1850, during the absence of all the members of the family the Taylor home, with all the furniture and provisions, was destroyed by fire. A new home was built on the old site and here Isaac Shoemaker Taylor spent the rest of his days. He was highly successful in all his undertakings. Nearly all his life was spent in contact with pioneer conditions. Within his home cloth was made for bedding, wool was spun and woven into cloth for dresses and for men's clothing, and yarn was made for stockings and mittens. They made their own maple sugar which was used exclusively. Maple sap furnished the supply of vinegar for domestic purposes. Considerable flax was grown and this was "hetchelled" and spun. For many years their only supply of fruit came from woods and marshes. Wild grapes, plums, cranberries, raspberries, blackberries, "huckleberries," etc., were, however, abundant. Very soon after settling in Richfield Township Isaac S. Taylor set out an apple orchard together with a good variety of smaller fruit. These were all planted between stumps. The first crops on these new lands were grown before the stumps had been removed. Potatoes, wheat, etc., yielded abundantly, with very slight cultivation. Many of the old apple trees planted by Mr. Taylor are still bearing. His Richfield farm had but seven acres of cleared land when he moved on it in 1849. He died Jan. 30, 1860. His wife, Margaret Jane (Davis) Taylor, survived him more than 31 years and died Feb. 21, 1891. The children of Isaac Shoemaker and Margaret Jane (Davis) Taylor were: (1), Sarah Davis, born Feb. 10, 1837; (2), George E., born March 21, 1838, died March 8, 1903; (3), Hamilton B., born Aug. 11, 1840, died Sept. 14, 1867; (4), Emma J., born Aug. 21, 1845.

SARAH DAVIS (TAYLOR) RICHARDS; FAMILIES NOS. 1057
(1056)

Sarah D., daughter of Isaac Shoemaker and Margaret Jane (Davis) Taylor, was born in Birmingham, Mich., Feb. 10, 1837, and removed with her parents from Walled Lake, Mich., to Richfield, Genesee Co., Mich., in 1849. She was a teacher in the public schools for some nine years prior to her marriage, Oct. 21, 1861, to David McClennan Richards. He was educated in the public schools and at the Michigan State Normal School at Ypsilanti, Mich., and was a teacher and farmer. He taught in the public schools about 25 years, was Justice of the Peace for 28 years, Supervisor of Richfield Township three years, and Treasurer of Genesee Co., Mich., four years. In the course of their married life Mr. and Mrs. Richards lived in Monday and Richfield Townships, the City of Flint, Mich., and the village of Davison, all in Genesee Co., Mich. They were both living in Davison, Mich., in 1914. Their children are: (1), Winifred Emma, born Aug. 12, 1863; (2), Margaret Adelia, born April 28, 1866; (3), Clarence, born Feb. 14, 1879.

HON. GEORGE E. TAYLOR; FAMILIES NOS. 1060—(1056)

Hon. George E. Taylor, son of Isaac Shoemaker and Mary Jane (Davis) Taylor, was born in Birmingham, Mich., March 21, 1838. He removed with his parents, in 1849, from Walled Lake, Oakland Co., Mich., to Richfield

Township, Genesee Co., Mich. In early life he attended school in a log house near Clarkston, Oakland Co., Mich., and later at the Academy in Clarkston. He began teaching when 18 years of age and taught during ten winter seasons. He was paid for part of this service at the rate of $22 per month, boarding himself. At the age of 21 he began the study of law and July 12, 1881, was admitted to the bar of Genesee Co., Mich. Upon the death of his father in 1860 the care of the homestead farm devolved upon him. Later he bought it and under his care it became one of the best farms in the county. He retained possession of it throughout his life. George E. Taylor was one of the best, and most favorably known, citizens of Genesee Co., and was called to many responsible positions. From 1865 to 1873 he served his township as Supervisor, and from 1875 to 1880, inclusive, he was Register of Deeds for Genesee Co. After retiring from the latter office he was associated with Leroy Parker in the practice of law and in a real estate business. He served in 1883 and 1885 as State Senator, served two terms as Alderman in the Flint City Government and in April, 1891, became the Mayor of the city. He was elected Judge of Probate and served from Jan. 1, 1893, until 1900, two terms. He was also active in various business enterprises and was one of the incorporators of the People's Electric Light Company. He was for several years a Director of the Genesee County Savings Bank and a Trustee of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

George E. Taylor was married (1) to Sarah E., daughter of Captain William and Lovina (Munson) Beardsley. She died a year later leaving an infant son, Hamilton B. He was married (2), Jan. 4, 1871, to Addie E., daughter of Andrew and Elsie (Andrews) Freeman, and their children are: (1), Horace E.; (2), Bertha G. Hon. George E. Taylor died March 8, 1902. His widow, Mrs. Addie E. (Freeman) Taylor, lives at 622 Court street, Flint, Mich.

Daniels, Dec. 25, 1907, lives at Troy, Mich., R. 1, and has one daughter, Doris Fay, born 1910.

GEORGE W. SMITH; FAMILIES NOS. 1149—(1143)

George W., son of William and Caroline (Taylor) Smith, born Dec. 17, 1861, was married, Sept. 20, 1886, to Elizabeth, daughter of George W. and Jane (Lathey) Ormsbee. Their children are: (1), Howard, born Aug. 5, 1887; (2), William, born Dec. 23, 1889, in the United States Navy in 1914; (3), Leon, born Sept. 24, 1895, not married, living at Commerce, Mich.; (4), Gladys, born May 26, 1898, lives on Brighton, Mich., R. 2. George W. Smith died Oct. 30, 1907. His wife, Elizabeth (Ormsbee) Smith died in May, 1898.

JACOB S. TAYLOR; FAMILIES NOS. 1150—(1055)

Jacob S., son of Captain George and Sarah (Shoemaker) Taylor, was born in New Troy, now Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 16, 1820, and accompanied his parents to Oakland Co., Mich., in 1823. He was educated in the "Rate Schools" and lived at home until he was 25 years of age. In his early manhood he "worked out" for 50c. per day, furnishing his own scythe. (Bib.-221.) He was married (1), Sept. 11, 1846, to Malinda, daughter of P. L. and M. Austin, who was born in March, 1820, died July 5, 1851, (Walled Lake, Mich., Cemetery). He was married (2) to Marinda Austin and they had one son, Justus, born June 9, 1859. Jacob S. Taylor became a very prosperous farmer. He settled first on an unimproved farm in Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich., and the first home he and his bride occupied was a log house. At the time of his death, in 1896, the Detroit Free Press said of him: "He came from Pennsylvania, and was a striking representative of that staunch and sturdy stock which essayed the labor of subduing the western wilds. The Indians were all around Mr. Taylor while he cleared up a home. Of strong and wiry build physically, he was soon recognized as a strong character as well—a man whose friendship was a treasure, whose word passed unquestioned, whose advice was valued....He was a life-long Democrat....He achieved worldly success and a competence, and what is of far more worth, the high respect and hearty affection of a wide circle of neighbors and friends." He was twice a Deputy Sheriff and also served as Road Commissioner. He did the clearing of his new farm himself. The trees for his apple orchard he brought 25 miles on horseback. He died near Walled Lake, Mich., July 20, 1896. The children of Jacob S. and Malinda (Austin) Taylor are: (1), Caroline Matilda, born Oct. 10, 1847; (2), Marinda, born July 30, 1850, died 1914; (3), Philemon, born Sept. 7, 1851.

CAROLINE MATILDA (TAYLOR) BARRET; FAMILIES NOS. 1151 (1150)

Caroline Matilda, born Oct. 10, 1847, daughter of Jacob S. and Malinda (Austin) Taylor, was married, March 13, 1869, to Jerome, son of Timothy and Sabra Barret. Jerome Barret served in Company D, 3d Regiment, Mich. Vol. Cav., in the Civil War. Their home is at Midland, Midland Co., Mich., and their children are: (1), Park A., born May 11, 1870, married (1), (Family No. 1152) March 15, 1890, to Janette Coon, who died March 13, 1892, leaving one daughter, Alice B., born May 29, 1891. He was married (2) (Family No. 1152A) to Blanche Moore, who died June 25, 1906, leaving two daughters, Ruth, born Jan. 12, 1896, and Hazel, born Jan. 25, 1899; (2), Judson E., born May 14, 1875, married (Family No. 1153), June 26, 1901, to Bertha L. Herman, who died May 11, 1907, whose children are: Sabra O., born Sept. 7, 1902, and Duane A., born July 17, 1904.

MARINDA (TAYLOR) MILLER; FAMILIES NOS. 1155—(1150)

Marinda, born July 30, 1850, died July 2, 1914, daughter of Jacob and Malinda (Austin) Taylor, was married, June 19, 1884, to Major Charles R. Miller.

Major Charles R. Miller was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 10, 1846, and was a son of Martin and Mary Jane (Williams) Miller, and a descendant of Thomas and Helenor (Leggett) Lawrence, (see Family No. 1154—Lawrence). In early life he learned the trade of a printer. Feb. 15, 1864, he enlisted for three years, at Springfield, Ohio, in Company D of the 8th Regiment, Ohio Vol. Cav., and served, until his discharge for disability, Aug. 27, 1865, having been seriously wounded in the campaign in West Virginia. The following sketch is from a "Muster Report" of his company. The official "Company Muster Roll" for Sept. and Oct., 1864, shows the station of Company D, 8th Ohio Cavalry, at Front Royal, Va., and in the record of events, states: "This detachment took an active and important part in the numerous skirmishes and engagements in the valley of the Shenandoah under Major General Sheridan, and were assigned extra hazardous positions in the three great battles of Sept. 19, 21 and 22, and Oct. 19, 1864. Conspicuous among individual acts of bravery by members of this command, in the presence of the enemy, are those of Sergeant Charles R. Miller. During the second cavalry charge at Winchester, Sergeant Miller penetrated the enemy's line, attacked the color guard single handed, killing two, wounding two and capturing three prisoners, together with the battle flag. Again at the battle of Cedar Creek, Oct. 19, 1864, Sergeant Miller, with two privates of Company K and one of Company H, was cut off from the command by a Confederate officer and eight men, who called upon him to surrender. Instead of complying with this demand they attempted to cut their way through. Sergeant Miller was successful, but his companions were wounded and taken prisoners. Realizing the situation Sergeant Miller at once wheeled his horse about and made an impetuous charge upon the five surviving Confederates, killing one, wounding one, he put the others to flight and brought his wounded comrades safely within our line. For the undaunted courage displayed on this occasion Sergeant Miller was promoted to Sergeant Major." The following is an extract from the report of the General Commanding the division: "Sergeant Miller, who captured this battle flag in the audacious manner narrated, deserves more than passing mention for repeated acts of valor, coming within my personal observation. A youth in years but a typical trooper, he possesses the nerve of a veteran and the undaunted courage of a lion, and, mounted, upon his horse, he will lead where stout hearts falter. It is authentically reported to me that, during the present campaign, at least a score of the enemy has fallen in open engagement before the unerring fire of this youthful soldier. I regret that his youth and impetuosity preclude my recommending him, at this time, for a commission, which he has so long deserved." "The detachment of our regiment has been reduced from 284 to 68 men and officers, while the detachment of this company is reduced to one non-commissioned officer and six privates. (Signed) Sardo, copyist." Sergeant Miller was promoted Oct. 19, 1864, to the rank of Sergeant Major and transferred to the non-commissioned staff. He served on detailed service to Charleston. He suffered a gunshot wound in the knee Jan. 11, 1865, and was sent to the hospital at Grafton, W. Va. He was honorably discharged Aug. 27, 1865. After his discharge from the army, Major Miller went to Danville, Ill., where for some years he published the Danville Herald. He was later appointed to a position in the Surgeon General's Office, Washington, D. C., which he held for 15 years. He was severely injured in the Ford Theater disaster in Washington, 1893, and never fully recovered. He subsequently went with his family to Walled Lake, Mich., and from there to Milford, Mich., and, in 1901, to Lansing, Mich. In 1901 he was appointed by Governor Bliss to a position in the Bureau of Labor Statistics. He was a member of the Elks and of Heber Le Favour Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and served as Post Commander and Inspector, Michigan Department, G. A. R. He died Oct. 5, 1901, and is buried at Milford, Oakland Co., Mich.

The children of Major Charles R. and Marinda (Taylor) Miller are: (1), Philemon Jacob, born June 5, 1885, married (Family No. 1156), Oct. 28, 1910, to Zola, daughter of Frank and Jennie (Hazen) Angel, lives near Walled Lake, Mich., has one child, Phillis A., born Aug. 15, 1915; (2), Charles Orion, born July 8, 1886, not married, Purchasing Agent Olds Motor Company, Lansing, Mich. Mrs. Marinda (Taylor) Miller died July 2, 1914, and is buried at Milford, Oakland Co., Mich.

PHILEMON J. TAYLOR; FAMILIES NOS. 1154—(1150)

Philemon J., born Sept. 7, 1851, son of Jacob S. and Malinda (Austin) Taylor, grew to manhood in the vicinity of Walled Lake, Mich. He was married, Nov. 1, 1875, to Sarah C., born Sept. 30, 1845, daughter of William C. and Catharine (Bogart) Tremper.* Soon after their marriage

*William Tremper, born in Germany, came to America, married here, and died. His son, William Tremper, was married to Mary Ann Ackerman and their son, William C. Tremper, born in Rockland Co., N. Y., Feb. 29, 1812, died at Walled Lake, Mich., Dec. 7, 1892. He was married to Catharine Bogart, born Oct. 3, 1811, died Feb. 29, 1858, at Walled Lake, Mich. Their children were: 1, Thomas, born July 22, 1837, died June 3, 1892, married to Eliza J. Sutphen; 2, John W., born July 11, 1839, died in Aug., 1886, married to Susan Orr; 3, Peter C., born Oct. 15, 1842, married to Mary Crickmore; 4, Sarah C., born Sept. 30, 1845, married to Philemon J. Taylor; 5, Mary A., born Oct. 14, 1847, died March 2, 1876; 6, Albert D., born Aug. 25, 1849, married to Margaret Washburne; 7, William, born Sept. 8, 1851, married to Sarah De Groat.

I. John Lawrence, born in England, had a son, II. Thomas Lawrence, born May, 1717, died Oct. 7, 1780, who was married to Helenor Leggett, born Feb. 2, 1725, died Jan. 22, 1797, and their children were: 1, Susanna, born Nov. 20, 1746, died May 5, 1752; 2, Jonathan, born Nov. 20, 1748, died Oct. 10, 1782, in South Carolina; 3, Anna, born Dec. 18, 1750, died May 12, 1773; 4, Thomas, born March 8, 1753, lived in New York City; 5, Richard, born Jan. 22, 1756, lived in New York City; 6, Stephen, born March 15, 1758, lived in New York City; 7, Samuel, born Jan. 23, 1761, lived in and around New York City; 8, John, born Feb. 12, 1764, probably Philemon J. and Sarah C. (Tremper) Taylor removed to the 160 acre farm given to him by his father. He engaged in general farming and stock raising for a number of years. About 1890 they removed to the village of Novi, Oakland Co., Mich., where they have since resided. Mr. Taylor has served two terms as Deputy Sheriff and has held various other offices of trust. His wife, Mrs. Sarah C. (Tremper) Taylor, is a graduate of a New York City Normal School and taught two years in an Industrial School in New York, one year in the Pontiac, Mich., High School and two summers in the schools of Commerce, Mich. She has been for many years a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was for four years Superintendent of the Sunday School. She served nine years as president of the Oakland Co., Mich., Woman's Christian Temperance Union and eight years as Secretary of the Farmers' Club. (Bib.-221-222.)

Zachariah, son of Daniel and Louisa (Jenkins) Taylor, was born in Grand Ledge, Mich., Oct. 22, 1863, and was married, April 12, 1894, to Lizzie Smith. They lived in Chicago, Ill., where he died Aug. 22, 1900.

EDMUND TROWBRIDGE TAYLOR; FAMILIES NOS. 1170—(1055)

Edmund T., son of George and Sarah (Shoemaker) Taylor, was born in Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich., July 12, 1831, and was married, in 1848, to Mary Culver. They went to Grand Ledge, Eaton Co., Mich., in 1858. Edmund T. Taylor was in the meat business in Grand Ledge for about 30 years and was the City Marshal for several years. He died Aug. 28, 1897, at the residence of his son, William Albert Taylor, on Taylor street, Grand Ledge, Mich. His wife, Mary (Culver) Taylor, died June 7, 1891. Their children were: (1), William Albert, born March 13, 1850, married (Family No. 1171), May 9, 1871, to Charlotte Almira Young of Litchfield, Mich., who had one son, Edmond Albert, born Jan. 25, 1872, married (Family No. 1172), Aug. 10, 1893, to Hattie Poll of Grand Rapids, Mich., lives in Grand Rapids, Mich., and has the following children: (i), Charlotte, born May 2, 1894; (ii), Sadie Mary, born Sept. 29, 1895; (iii), Minnie, born Dec. 8, 1897; (iv), Henrietta Leona, born Dec. 2, 1899; (v), Wilma Edna, born May 10, 1902; (vi), Frances, born Aug. 5, 1906; (vii), Leonard Edmond, born March 7, 1911; (viii), Julia Myrtle, born Nov. 29, 1912; (2), James Edmund, married (Family No. 1173) to Carrie Groger, had one daughter, Kittie May. No further record.

ANNA (SHOEMAKER) TUTTLE; FAMILIES NOS. 1174—(946)

Anna, daughter of Isaac and Catharine Elizabeth (Carpenter) Shoemaker, was born in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., April 8, 1792. She removed with her parents to New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was married there, about 1812, to Henry, son of John and Mary (Bennet) Tuttle, of Kingston Township. (Family No. 1313—Bennet.) June 28, 1816, Henry Tuttle bought from his grandfather, Henry Tuttle, Sr., seven acres of land near the stone bridge across Abraham's Creek on what is now Wyoming avenue. He, however, sold this land the next year to Elijah Shoemaker. He was a blacksmith by trade. About 1820-3 Henry and Anna (Shoemaker) Tuttle removed from the Wyoming Valley and settled first, probably, in Bloomfield Township, Oakland Co., Mich. Later he bought a farm in the vicinity of Walled Lake, Mich., where they established their home, then in a part of the Northwest Territory called Michigan.

They were among the earliest settlers in that section. He bought a farm which was the western half of the northeast quarter of Section 21, Range 8, in Township No. 2. The Township of Commerce (No. 2) was erected by an act of the Territorial Legislature March 7, 1834, and the first township meeting was held at the home of Henry Tuttle, April 7, 1835. At this meeting Henry Tuttle was appointed Highway Overseer and Fence Viewer for the ensuing year. He was fatally injured by a threshing machine in 1845 and died Sept. 21, of that year. He was probably buried in the Walled Lake Cemetery. In 1849 Anna (Shoemaker) Tuttle and three of her children, Charles Martin, Mary Jane and Chester W., removed, by team, to the vicinity of Grand Rapids, Mich., and established their home there. Anna (Shoemaker) Tuttle died at Lamont, Mich., Aug. 5, 1861. The children of Henry and Anna (Shoemaker) Tuttle were: (1), Isaac Shoemaker, born Feb. 7, 1814, died Feb. 16, 1898; (2), John P., born July 5, 1816, died Sept. 2, 1890; (3), Joseph Carpenter, born Oct. 10, 1818, died about 1849; (4), Elizabeth Ann, born Sept. 22, 1820, died Sept., 1822; (5), Henry T., born May 6, 1826; (6), Charles Martin, born April 19, 1828, died July 2, 1914; (7), Mary Jane, born Oct. 18, 1830, living 1916; (8), Chester W., born July 24, 1833.

THE TUTTLE FAMILY

I. Henry Tuttle, born in Basking Ridge, Morris, now Somerset Co., N. J., Nov. 24, 1733, was married (1) to Phebe Beach and (2) to Marya. His second wife was born in Nov., 1749, and died Sept. 10, 1820, in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Henry Tuttle died Jan. 3, 1820, in his 87th year. He and his second wife are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. He is said to have been a blacksmith by trade, and to have served, with his son John, as a soldier in the War of the American Revolution.

According to Munsell's History of Morris Co., N. J., John Johnson bought from the New Jersey proprietors the falls of the Beach Glen Brook at Beach Glen, Morris Co., N. J., and built the well-known Johnson Iron Works. This property was sold by Job Allen to Benjamin Beach, son of Abner Beach, and Henry Tuttle, Dec. 30, 1771. Henry Tuttle soon sold his interest in the property to Benjamin Beach, who continued to operate the forge until his death. He is described as a self-made man who, beginning with small means, acquired a large estate and owned, at the time of his death, 1,000 acres of land. Beach Glen was named for him. Joseph Beach was a freeholder in Morris Co., N. J., in May, 1766.

Before June 24, 1788, and, according to Mr. Harvey, (Bib.-1) about 1785, Henry Tuttle removed to the Wyoming Valley. He was living there on Meadow Lot No. 10, June 24, 1788, when Leonard and Jonathan Belden of Berlin, Hartford Co., Conn., sold to Gideon Roberts of Bristol, said county, (Family No. 988—Roberts) a Meadow Lot butting southerly on Colonel Dyer's lot, easterly on the river, northerly on Mr. Tuttle and on the west partly on Tuttle's and part on the highway, about 34 acres. June 13, 1789, Nathan Dennison sold to Henry Tuttle the Messuage tract of land on the east side of the Great Road, from Forty Fort to Exeter, adjoining lands of Eliachim Roberts. This lot is described as part of Meadow Lot No. 10, bought by Nathan Dennison from Timothy Peirce, Jan. 15, 1769. May 20, 1791, Eliachim Roberts of Kingston sold to Henry Tuttle Meadow Lot No. 11, drawn by Ezra Belding, late of Berlin, deceased, bounded south by lands of Colonel Dyer, east on the river, north on Tuttle and west on the highway and Tuttle. This lot had been bought from Gideon Roberts by Eliachim Roberts, Sept. 13, 1790, but in this latter deed the lot is described as No. 11, probably due to the fact that, in the original survey, Lot No. 10 was laid out in two sections, evidently with a recognition of its mill seat possibilities. April 24, 1790, Henry Tuttle bought from Thomas Bennet the southwest half of Lot 24, Third Division of Kingston, 90 acres, which Thomas Bennet had bought from Phineas Peirce, the original proprietor. About 1798, or perhaps earlier, Henry Tuttle erected a grist mill on Lot No. 10, which he operated for a number of years. March 9, 1819, he sold to his son, Joseph Tuttle, a part of Third Division Lot No. 24, extending 23 perches wide on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, from the line of Lot No. 23, and 177 perches deep. This lot lies directly across Wyoming avenue from Meadow Lot No. 10. Some of the children of Henry Tuttle were (order of birth not certain): 1, Henry, Jr., born about 1764; 2, Abner; 3, John, born April 3, 1767; 4, Joseph, born Jan. 19, 1792. The will of Henry Tuttle, made April 14, 1819, and probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 16, 1820, names his four sons, John, Joseph, Henry and Abner, and two of the children of his son Henry, Jr., by name, viz.: Henry and Phebe Jackson. It also refers to other children of Henry, Jr., not named. Lazarus Dennison, "my friend and neighbor," was appointed executor.

II. (1). Henry, Jr., born about 1764, son of Henry and Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, was born in Morris Co., N. J., and was probably married to his first wife in that county. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and Nov. 3, 1791, bought from Eliachim Roberts Lot No. 16, 400 acres, in Providence Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., for £20. This lot had been drawn by Gideon Roberts, sold by him to Elias Roberts, and, by the heirs of Elias Roberts, sold to Seth Roberts, who sold it to Eliachim Roberts. (Family No. 988—Roberts.) Henry Tuttle, Jr., Dec. 17, 1794, sold Lot 16 to Stephen Gardner (Family No. 988—Gardner) of Providence, Pa., and probably a little later removed to Wysox, now Bradford Co., Pa., where he had been married in 1792, to his second wife, Mary, born in 1773, died Nov. 16, 1851, daughter of Sebastian and Lydia (Van Valkenburgh).*

The children of Henry, Jr., and Mary (Strope) Tuttle were: (1), Hannah, married to Isaac W. Green; (2), Sally (see later); (3), Margaret, married to Joshua Lampher, some of whose children were (i), Jennette, married to William Compton; (ii), Zelwyn, not married; (iii), Mary M., married to Stephen Clayson; (iv), John W.; (v), Adelia, married to Squire Platt; (vi), Daniel; (4), Abigail, born 1805, not married, died Nov. 23, 1861; (5), John, born May 1, 1808, died Feb. 27, 1874, married to Mrs. Ellen Brown.

Sally, daughter of Henry and Mary (Strope) Tuttle, was married to Hezekiah Newell, and their children were: 1, Henry, not married; 2, Abel, married to Elizabeth Myers, lived at Cross Forks, Potter Co., Pa., some of whose children were:

*The Strone and Van Valkenburg families removed from the vicinity of Catskill, N. Y., to the Indian Meadows, Wyalusing, Bradford Co., Pa., in 1773, and, in 1776, removed to Wysox, now Bradford Co., Pa. The names of Sebastian Strope and Isaac Van Valkenburg both appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists in the "Up the River" District in 1776 and 1777. They located on the west side of Wysox Creek and their homes were destroyed by Tories and Indians in 1778. Sebastian Strope, born in 1735, died June 4, 1805. His will, made Jan. 11, 1805, and probated July 5, 1805, names his wife, Lidia, and their children, Henry, John, Isaac, Polly, Jinney and Betsey. Henry Tuttle, Jr., was appointed overseer. Sebastian Strope was married to Lydia, daughter of Isaac and Jennette (Clements) Van Valkenburg, two of whose other children were, Eve, and a daughter married to John Strope. The children of Sebastian and Lydia (Van Valkenburg) Strope were: (1), Henry, married to Catharine, daughter of Rudolph and Catharine Elizabeth (Miller) Fox, (see later); (2), John, married, in 1801, to Eleanor, daughter of Rudolph Fox; (3), Isaac, married to Lucy White; (4), Mary, born 1773, died Nov. 16, 1851, married to Henry Tuttle, Jr.; (5), Jane, married (1) to ——— Van Horn, (2) to William F. Dinninger; (6), Hannah, drowned, with her sister-in-law, Lucy (White) Strope, in the Susquehanna River. (Bib.-31.)

Rudolph Fox, a German, born March 29, 1739, O. S., died March 4, 1806, was married, in 1763, to Catharine Elizabeth Miller. They went from the Mohawk Valley, N. Y., via the Susquehanna River, and settled on the west side of Towanda Creek in May, 1770. He was the first permanent white settler in what is now Bradford Co., Pa. He was an ensign in the Ninth or Up-River Company of the 24th Conn. Militia, in the American Revolution. The children of Rudolph and Catharine Elizabeth (Miller) Fox were: (1), Catharine, born Nov. 9, 1764, married to Henry Strope; (2), Mary, born Sept. 7, 1766, died May 23, 1841, married to Jacob Bowman; (3), Philip, born Sept. 12, 1768; (4), Elizabeth, born Sept. 1, 1770, died July 21, 1851, first white child born in Bradford Co., Pa., married to William Means; (5), Dorothy, born Aug. 1, 1772, married to ——— Townsend; (6), Daniel, born Aug. 27, 1774, married to Abigail ———; (7), Rudolph, born Sept. 24, 1776; (8), John, born Oct. 31, 1778, died April 15, 1855; (9), Anna, born Oct. 24, 1780; (10), Eleanor, born Oct. 24, 1782, married to John Strope; (11), Susanna, born Feb. 15, 1785, married to Nathan Farr; (12), Abraham, born March 30, 1787, married to Nancy Fowler; (13), Margaret, born Feb. 12, 1789, married to Amos Goff; (14), Delia, born April 4, 1791, died June 25, 1865, married to William Goff; (15), Christina, born 1793, married to ——— Grant. Mrs. Catharine Elizabeth (Miller) Fox, born May 4, 1748, (O. S.), died April 8, 1810. (Bib.-31.)

(1), Eliza, married to Jacob Walters, Tamarack, Potter Co., Pa.; (2), Nancy; (3), Sarah, married to Charles Murphy, lived in Maine; (4), Mary Francis, not married; (5), Affie; (6), Sarah; 3, Beach, not married; 4, Lyman, married to Adaline Fairbanks, lived at Canisteo, N. Y., some of whose children were: (1), Clarence, married to Sarah Thurston; (2), Edwin F., married to Ana Stevens; (3), Lyman, not married; (4), Charles; (5), Ella, married to Frank Luther, Lockport, N. Y.; 5, Mary, married to Reuben Bennett, children, (1), Sarah, married to Sanford Smith, Towanda Pa.; (2), Cora, married to Nelson A. Wells, Antrim, Tioga Co., Pa.; (3), Stella, married to Mortimer Bowman, Sayre, Pa.; (4), Elson, married to Clara Johnson, Elmira, N. Henry Tuttle, Jr., had two children by his first marriage: 1, Henry B. Tuttle, who went to Wysox with his father, and who died, at Columbia, Pa., while on a rafting (?) expedition, Jan. 23, 1823; 2, Phebe, who was married (1) to James McVickers and had one daughter who was married to Platt, son of Joseph, died before 1821, and Hannah Hitchcock, born 1774, died Aug. 11, 1813, of Wilkes-Barre. Platt Hitchcock was a tanner and currier in 1825 and probably was connected with the operations in the General Samuel Thomas tannery in Kingston Township, then operated by William Hancock. This tannery was burned about Feb. 6-8, 1826. In 1832 Platt Hitchcock was a tavern keeper in Kingston. Three of the children of Platt and Mary (McVickers) Hitchcock are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery: 1, Martha, born 1837, died March 29, 1848; 2, George P., born Dec. 19, 1839, died Aug. 7, 1840; 3, James McVickers, born April, 1841, died May 13, 1844. They removed from the Wyoming Valley, Pa., to Lock Haven, Pa. Mrs. Phebe (Tuttle) McVickers was married (2) to Asa, born Jan. 8, 1789, baptised July 8, 1789, (Bib.-240) son of Phillip and Sarah (McDowell) Lee-Jackson. (See Family No. 1313—Jackson.)

Henry Tuttle, Jr., left Wysox, Bradford Co., Pa., in Nov., 1798, and never was heard from by his family or friends.

II. (2). Abner, son of Henry and Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, was born in Morris Co., N. J., came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and was married there to Hannah, daughter of Captain Stephen Harding, Jr., of Exeter, Pa. Dec. 20, 1794, Abner Tuttle bought from Stephen Gardner 300 acres of land in Exeter. This tract adjoined lands of Stephen Harding, Joseph Black and Benjamin Kingdom (Kinyon), and one point in the survey was described as lying about 15 rods south of Kingston (Kinyon's) Creek. June 16, 1797, he sold 160 acres of this land to Andrew Montanye referring to Kinyon's Creek, and lands of Stephen Harding, Comfort Kinyon and Thomas Gardner in the deed. Nov. 23, 1802, he was of Steuben, N. Y., where he sold 173 acres of the same tract to Joseph Whitlock. This latter deed is signed solely by Abner Tuttle. He settled finally in Kalamazoo Co., Mich., and died there Sept. 10, 1820. Three of the children of Abner and Hannah (Harding) Tuttle were: 1, Abner, Jr.; 2, Joseph; 3, William.

II. (4). Joseph, son of Henry and (probably) Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, was born at Rockaway, N. J., Jan. 19, 1772, and died in Hanover, Luzerne Co., Pa., Feb. 11, 1849. He came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1785-8, with his father, and, in 1812, became the proprietor of the Tuttle Grist mill on Abraham's Creek. In 1806 he was assessed, with his brother John, as the owner of a sawmill and in 1807 they were assessed as blacksmiths. In 1811 he was the owner of a tanyard, and was also assessed as a blacksmith and a mill stone maker. April 9, 1839, he sold the grist mill property to George Barber, of Sussex Co., N. J., (Family No. 1292—Barber) for $7,500.00. With the grist mill lot, described as Lot No. 11, Second Division, Kingston, 38 acres, he sold to Mr. Barber, 74 acres of Lot 24, of the Third Division. In the course of his busy life he was a drover, a miller, a blacksmith, a butcher and a merchant, and was interested, with his son Joseph Beach Tuttle, in a mercantile establishment in Tunkhannock, Pa. He served from 1833 to 1835 as a member of the Luzerne Co. Board of County Commissioners. Joseph Tuttle was married twice. His first wife, Mary, born Feb. 25, 1775, died Aug. 26, 1835, daughter of Jesse and Sarah (McDowell) Lee* (Family No. 1313—McDowell). His second

*The name of Jesse Lee appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was married to Sarah, born Jan. 31, 1749, died Feb. 25, 1809. (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of John and Hannah (Du Puy) McDowell of Upper Milford,

W. Sturdevant; (5), Maria L., born Aug. 11, 1836, died Sept. 12, 1842; (6), Mary A., born Dec. 17, 1838, married to Jacob C. Kintner; (7), Charles L., born March 30, 1841, died June 26, 1849; 4, Joseph Beach, born June 4, 1798, died Oct. 14, 1877, married to Frances, daughter of Thomas and Eleanore (Shontz) Jenkins, (see Family No. 988—Jenkins), whose children were: (1), Edward, born March 21, 1825, died April 14, 1871, married to Marie E. ———, born Feb. 28, 1828; (2), James. Joseph Beach Tuttle was a merchant at Tunkhannock, Pa., and subsequently removed to the vicinity of Walled Lake, Mich., about 1833; 5, Jesse, born Sept. 10, 1800, died Jan. 31, 1844, (Walled Lake Cemetery) married to Martha E. Ross, born Dec. 17, 1805, died Feb. 21, 1878, removed from the Wyoming Valley to Walled Lake, Oakland Co., Mich., where, in 1832, he built the first regular hotel building, on land overlooking the lake, and, after his death, owned, during his lifetime, by his son, George R. Tuttle. Miles Covell Orr of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., conducted this hotel for a time, (see Family No. 1174—Orr). The children of Jesse and Martha E. (Ross) Tuttle were: (1), Ann, born 1830, died Feb. 10, 1881, married to Moses Merrithew; (2), Mary, twin sister to Ann, died in infancy; (3), Elizabeth, died at the age of 6 years; (4), George Ross, born Dec. 1, 1832, died 1915, married, Dec. 29, 1859, to Alice Gray Hammond, born Feb. 8, 1841, died April 20, 1891, (Walled Lake Cemetery), whose children are: (i), Burr Douglass, born 1861, married to Elizabeth Rose, lives at Detroit, Mich.; (ii), Villa, born 1867, married to Joseph P. Goodrich, lives at Detroit, Mich.; (5), Jane Shoemaker, born Feb. 26, 1836, not married, living 1915 at Walled Lake, Mich.; (6), Joseph J., born 1840, married (1) to Jane Gould, married (2) to Kate Hewlitt. George R. Tuttle, son of Jesse and Martha E. (Ross) Tuttle, was the second white boy born at Walled Lake, Mich. In 1896 he bought a farm at what is now the site of the new steel city, later Smithfield Township, Northampton Co., Pa. (Family No. 1313—McDowell.) Jesse Lee died before 1788. His widow, Mrs. Sarah (McDowell) Lee, was married (2), before 1788, to Philip Jackson, born about 1757, died May 26, 1851, (Forty Fort Cemetery), (Family No. 1313—Jackson). The children of Jesse and Sarah (McDowell) Lee were: 1, Mary, born Feb. 25, 1775, died Aug. 26, 1835, married to Joseph, son of Henry and Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, and 2, Jesse, Jr., born March 10, 1778, died Aug. 17, 1839, who was assessed in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1801, as the owner of two horses and one head of cattle. He removed to Tunkhannock Township, where he became a prominent and prosperous citizen. See sketch, with partial list of his children in "The Lee Families in Family No. 994—Van Scoy-Young-Lee Families). Jesse Lee and his family were in Fort Wintermute, in Exeter Township, July 1, 1778, when the fort was surrendered to the British. (See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, pp. 991 and 1037). July 4, 1794, Abraham Miller, who was married to a daughter of John McDowell, (Family No. 1313—McDowell) sold to Philip Jackson of Kingston all right and claims due, as heirs of John McDowell, late of Northampton Co., Pa., in a certain lot of land, being an undivided tenth part of a lot in Providence situated on the southeast side of the Lackawanna River and lying between lands of Michael Lutz and Ebenezer Atwater, 440 acres. William Little and Jesse Lee, undoubtedly Jesse Lee, Jr., signed the deed as witnesses. He was doubtless living at that time, about 16 years of age, with his mother, then the wife of Philip Jackson.

Ojibway, Ontario, Canada, and a few years ago he sold a large portion of his farm to the United States Steel Company at $600 per acre. He spent his declining years, with wonderfully well preserved faculties, with his unmarried sister, Jane Shoemaker Tuttle, at Walled Lake, Mich. The latter, although born in Michigan, was educated in the Wyoming, Pa., Presbyterian Institute. Mrs. Martha E. (Ross) Tuttle was married (2) to H. A. Crumb. She was born Dec. 17, 1805, and died Feb. 21, 1878. The family burial plots are in the Walled Lake, Mich., Cemetery; 6, Mary Ann, born Oct. 17, 1805, died Feb. 5, 1806; 7, Syrian, born March 24, 1807, died Sept. 5, 1837; 8, George, born Feb. 2, 1812, died 1860, not married; 9, Lee, born Jan. 6, 1816, died July 28, 1861, married to Wealthy Ann, daughter of Peirce and Adah (Jenkins) Smith, (see Family No. 1324—Smith and Family No. 988—Jenkins). Lee Tuttle lived for some time in the Huntington Valley, Pa., but removed to Walled Lake, Mich.

II. (3). John, son of Henry Tuttle, born in Morris Co., N. J., April 3, 1767, served in the Morris Co. Regiment, N. J. Militia, and in the N. J. Continental Line (Bib.-196) in the American Revolution. He came to the Wyoming Valley about 1785. He was a blacksmith by trade and was assessed in 1806, with his brother, Joseph, as the owner of a sawmill. He was also assessed, in the same year, as the owner of 30 acres of improved and 65 acres of unimproved land, two horses and one head of cattle. He was married, Jan. 11, 1789, to Mary, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Jackson) Bennet. (See Family No. 1313—Bennet.) He was deceased in 1834. The children of John and Mary (Bennet) Tuttle were: 1, Martha, born Feb. 3, 1790, died at Waverly, Pa., in 1885, married (1) to Holden Tripp (see Family No. 1001—Tripp), born Nov. 22, 1787, whose children were: (1), Mary Ann; (2), Lucille S., married to Charles Silkman, Milwaukee, Wis., married (2) to Aaron Gregory and their son, Isaac M., was married to Laura, daughter of Benjamin and Lydia (Fellows) Brown of Scranton, Pa.; 2, Mary, born April 18, 1791, (see later); 3, Henry, born April 3, 1793, died Sept. 21, 1845, (see later); 4, Sarah, born Dec. 7, 1794, died Feb. 26, 1872, married to Benjamin Jenkins, (see Family No. 988—Jenkins); 5, Elizabeth, born Aug. 29, 1796-8, not married, died June 11, 1860; 6, John, born Aug. 23, 1800, died Jan. 1, 1860, (see later); 7, Phebe, born Feb. 15, 1802, died April 11, 1872, not married; 8, William, born July 30, 1805, married to Mary, daughter of Humphrey I. and Mary (Borbridge) Ingham, (Family No. 1028—Ingham), children, (1), Charles; (2), Martha; 9, Chester, born Dec. 22, 1806, died July 17, 1883, married to Mary Ann (Shoemaker) Baldwin, widow of David Baldwin, (see Family No. 996A).

III. (2). Mary, daughter of John and Mary (Bennet) Tuttle, born April 18, 1791, died in Trucksville, Pa., May 27, 1858, was married to Joseph, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Johnson) Orr.*

*Joseph Orr, born Feb. 6, 1750, died Jan. 11, 1876, (Huntsville, Pa., Cemetery), probably came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Lower Mount Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa. He was a private in Captain Hugh Gaston's Company of the Fifth Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia, and under the act of March 18, 1818, his name was placed, March 17, 1819, on the Federal Pension List for services as a Sergeant in the Pennsylvania Continental Line. (Bib.-11.) He was married twice. His second wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Abraham Johnson, who came to the Wyoming Valley from Johnsonburg, N. J. (Bib.-59.) March 30, 1809, Joseph Orr bought from William Ross of Wilkes-Barre for $1100, 34 acres of Lots 20 and 21 in the First Division of Wilkes-Barre and 221 acres of Lot 27 in the Third Division. The first of these tracts was known as Samarita. He later removed to Trucksville, Luzerne Co., Pa., where he died. The family burial plot is in the Huntsville Cemetery, where he is buried. Some of the children of Joseph Orr were: 1, John, born Oct. 14, 1781, died Jan. 18, 1868, (Huntsville Cemetery). In the same plot in Huntsville Cemetery are the graves of (1), Sally Orr, born Feb. 9, 1800, died May 20, 1880; (2), Mary, wife of John Orr, born April 27, 1828, died Aug. 11, 1882, perhaps widow of John Orr, Jr. Elizabeth Orr, married at Dallas, Pa., Feb. 14, 1828, to Jonathan Worthington; Rachel Orr, married at Dallas, Pa., Dec. 28, 1829, to David Banister; Dorothy, daughter of John Orr, married, at Dallas, Pa., March 14, 1834, to Barney A. ISAAC SHOEMAKER TUTTLE; FAMILIES NOS. 1175—(1174)

Isaac Shoemaker, son of Henry and Anna (Shoemaker) Tuttle, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Feb. 7, 1814, removed with his parents to Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich., and was married at Corrunna, Shiawassie Co., Mich., in Sept., 1837, to Clarissa Crampton, born Aug. 18, 1829, died June 21, 1893, (Forty Fort Cemetery), were probably all daughters of John Orr; 2, Joseph, Jr., born March 20, 1792, died June 17, 1853, married to Mary, born April 18, 1791, died May 27, 1858, (Huntsville Cemetery), daughter of John and Mary (Bennett) Tuttle, (see later); 3, Johannah, born March 26, 1796, died Jan. 26, 1839, married to Albert Skeer, born April 17, 1796, died March 5, 1872, (Family No. 1324—Gallup).

Joseph, Jr., and Mary (Tuttle) Orr had the following children: 1, Miles Covell, whose wife's name was Harriet, and two of whose children were: (i), Franklin, born Sept. 24, 1850, died July 27, 1852, and (ii), Frances Eva, born July 29, 1853, died Aug. 30, 1854, (Rice Cemetery, Dallas, Pa.). Miles Covell Orr was for a time the proprietor of the Jesse Tuttle Tavern at Walled Lake, Mich.; 2, Elizabeth, born Sept. 20, 1819; 3, Anna Maria, born March 8, 1823; 4, Albert Skeer, born at Wyoming, Pa., Jan. 21, 1829, married, May 12, 1854, to Priscilla, daughter of John and Susanna (Morrison) Warden; 5, Charles S., born Jan. 13, 1831.

Charles M. Orr, born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 27, 1808, died at Walled Lake, Mich., Nov. 12, 1890, was, doubtless, of this same family, and may have been a son of John Orr, born Oct. 14, 1781. He was, in 1831-3, the owner of the lot adjoining the site of the present Methodist Episcopal Church at Wyoming, Pa., and probably built the house that still stands on that lot. He was married to Sarah, born March 12, 1814, died at Walled Lake, Mich., Feb. 22, 1890, daughter of Belding and Sally (Gay) Swetland, (Family No. 3—Swetland), of Wyoming, Pa. Three of their children were: 1, Caroline, born Aug. 20, 1834, married to Myron Barret, born Oct. 20, 1830, died Aug. 5, 1885, (Walled Lake Cemetery); 2, Thomas J., born Sept. 8, 1837, died May 25, 1914, married to Frances M., born Oct. 10, 1843, died Dec. 12, 1868, daughter of Lee and Wealthy Ann (Smith) Tuttle; 3, George, married and lives at Lake Linden, Mich.

1812, died Nov. 19, 1882. About 1851 he bought a farm in Allendale, Ottawa Co., Mich., where they established their home permanently. He was a typical pioneer American farmer, tall, spare, muscular. In his earlier life he was an expert trapper and hunter and, in his later years, delighted in his reminiscences pertaining to the abundance of deer and other game in the vicinity of his home. His wife, Mrs. Clarissa (Crampton) Tuttle, died in Allendale, Mich., Nov. 19, 1882. Soon after her death he sold his farm and went to the home of his son, Henry, at Six Lakes, Montcalm Co., Mich. He died there Feb. 16, 1898, in the 75th year of his age. The children of Isaac Shoemaker and Clarissa (Crampton) Tuttle were: (1), Mary Ann, born Sept. 28, 1838, died Aug. 21, 1872; (2), Sarah, born Nov. 17, 1840, died Aug. 28, 1841; (3), Margaret, born July 12, 1842; (4), James, born Nov. 4, 1844, died Aug. 28, 1848; (5), Henry, born May 4, 1847, died Oct. 22, 1913; (6), Lucia Ann, born Oct. 17, 1850, died Aug. 23, 1863.

*An interesting side light is thrown upon conditions in Oakland Co., Mich., from 1842 to 1850 by some letters written and received by members of the Tuttle family and preserved by Joseph Carpenter Tuttle and his son, William Annette Tuttle. In a letter written by Henry Tuttle, Sr., to his son, Joseph C., temporarily in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in 1845, he refers to a visit made by Payne Pettebone of the Wyoming Valley to Oakland Co., Mich. He also wrote "as respects the times, they are hard, money very scarce, and we have had, for the whole summer, the heaviest drouth. The crops are very light, wheat middling, potatoes will be nothing. The price for wheat is 50 and 56 cents cash." At the time this letter was written, Aug. 27, 1845, Mrs. Anna (Shoemaker) Tuttle was evidently enjoying a visit to her old home in the Wyoming Valley. Nov. 25, 1845, Henry T. Tuttle was in Grand Rapids, Mich., and in a letter to his brother, Joseph C., described himself as a "full blood Wolverine painter." To him Grand Rapids, Mich., was, at that time, the "Smartest little place in the West." In a letter written from Bloomfield, Mich., July 30, 1842, Mr. H. W. Bottsford, writing to his friend, Carpenter, refers to a circus and shows at Pontiac that day, to a camp meeting at Troy Corners, which was to begin the 8th of Aug., and declares "we go to meeting here yet every chance we get." June 9, 1843, Mr. Bottsford wrote: "A real Dutchman has come to this country direct from Wilkes-Barre and has told us you are still in the land of the living." He wrote of a hard winter and late spring, but says that John and Isaac Tuttle have "A noble crop of wheat on 40 acres of land which promises 20 bushels to the acre." In a letter written by Mary Jane Tuttle, afterwards the wife of Captain Alfred Turner, and dated Aug. 5, 1848, she refers to a family named Jenkins living with them, and to the death of Mr. Jenkins. She also refers to a visit made by Mr. Peirce Smith of Pennsylvania, and one by a Mr. and Mrs. Jones. She also stated "I am spinning at present." In a letter written by Mr. Bottsford, July 18, 1845, he describes a method for transmitting money through the mails. Writing to Joseph C. Tuttle concerning the payments of taxes due on a farm owned by the latter, he said, "I may send the money by mail, which can be done by paying it to the Postmaster here and take his receipt and the Postmaster at Mason (County Seat, Ingham Co.) will pay the tax and send the receipt to me. In the same way you can send any sum to me less than $10.00, which will be a very safe way." In the same letter he wrote, "We are now in the hurry of wheat harvest. Wheat is uncommon stout. My meadows will not cut one-quarter ton to the acre. Other crops look well." None of these letters had envelopes. Some of them had regular postmarks, but most of them had the name of the mailing office written upon them, some with and some without dates. The postal rate was also written upon them. Some of these rates were as follows: 1842-3-4, Birmingham, Mich., to Wyoming, Pa., and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 25c.; 1845, Birmingham, Mich., to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 10c.; 1846, Flagdstown, N. J., to Williamston, Mich., 10c.; 1847-8, Commerce, Mich., to Williamston, Mich., 5c.

Isaac, Jr., son of Isaac and Catharine Elizabeth (Carpenter) Shoemaker, was born in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., May 1, 1797, and was baptised in the Lutheran Church, near Easton, Pa., June 4, 1797, Jacob and Maria Elizabeth (Zimmerman) Carpenter, sponsors. In 1807-8 he removed, with his parents, to New Troy, now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. He became a farmer and lived in the Isaac Shoemaker house. With his brother, Jacob I. Shoemaker, Dec. 23, 1826, he bought from his father, Isaac Shoemaker, the Shoemaker farm. May 25, 1828, he and his brother divided the farm and he acquired title to 225 acres of Lots Nos. 36 and 37 in the Third Division, and to 63 acres of Lot 18, in the Fourth Division. The first sale of Shoemaker lands on what is now Wyoming avenue to a person outside the Shoemaker family, was made by Isaac, Jr., and Elizabeth (Chapin) Shoemaker, when they sold a small piece of land* adjoining the Exeter line, to Archibald Knight, in trust for Elizabeth Landon. (Family No. 1025—Landon, No. 33—Blanchard.) April 29, 1830, they sold about one acre, adjoining this other parcel, to Abram Bird (Family No. 1217—Bird) in trust for Christian Oehmig Bird, for $26.23. Christian Oehmig Bird and his wife, Ann, sold this lot to Henry Oakley of Benton Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

Isaac Shoemaker, Jr., was married, May 10, 1821, to Elizabeth, born Oct. 18, 1800, died Aug. 4, 1882, daughter of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, (Chapin family later) and their children were: 1, James Monroe, born Dec. 1, 1821, died Sept. 21, 1864; 2, Josephine B., born March 29, 1827, died Nov. 16, 1848, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery). Isaac Shoemaker, Jr., died Jan. 9, 1837, and is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. According to the inscription on his headstone he was aed. 40 years, 3 months, 23 days. If this statement is true he was born Sept. 17, 1796. The date of his birth at the beginning of this sketch is the date appearing in the record of his baptism at Easton, Pa. Mrs. Elizabeth (Chapin) Shoemaker was married (2), July 12, 1842, to Jacob I. Shoemaker, a brother of her deceased husband, (Family No. 986A).

*This three acre parcel of land was part of the 45 acre tract of Lot No. 37, Third Division of Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., which Ozias Yale sold to Justus Gaylord and Justus Gaylord sold to Peter Louw. The home of Peter Louw was evidently on this 45 acre tract at the time of the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. Without much doubt the Peter Louw house stood on the three acre parcel sold by Isaac Shoemaker, Jr., to Archibald Knight, in trust for Elizabeth Landon.

THE SOLOMON CHAPIN FAMILY

I. Solomon Chapin*, born in 1768, died in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., May 25, 1814, was of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 3, 1796, when he bought from Peter Shales, Jr., all his interest in Lot 27, Third Division, Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., 162 acres, lying between lands of Philip Myers and John Allyn.† This Lot 27 had been a part of the estate of John Perkins, (see Family No. 1313—Perkins) and was sold by Benjamin Carpenter, administrator, March 26, 1791, to David Perkins. June 9, 1792, David Perkins sold it to Peter Shales, Sr., and he, Aug. 9, 1795, sold it to his son, Peter Shales, Jr. Solomon Chapin and his wife, Catharine, sold it to Captain Samuel Breese, Aug. 29, 1800, at which time it was described as lying between lands of Aaron Roberts and John Allyn. Dec. 29, 1801, Samuel and Hannah Breese sold it to James Atherton.

Solomon Chapin became the owner of extensive tracts of lands in Kingston and Exeter Townships, Luzerne Co., Pa. The Solomon Chapin homestead was situated on the west side of what is now Eighth street, West Wyoming. The old house, which stood on the lot adjoining that now owned (1916) by Joseph L. Dymond, was removed to a lot on another street, a number of years ago. It is still occupied and is one of the oldest buildings standing in West Wyoming Borough. Solomon Chapin was deeply interested in the moral and spiritual welfare of his community. He was one of the prominent members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and served as a Class Leader and Steward. (Bib.-96.) He was also a member of the Kingston Moral Society.‡ He was Tax Collector of Kingston in 1807. (Bib.-75.)

Solomon Chapin was married to Catharine, daughter of Peter and Elizabeth Shales, and their children were: 1, Sally, born Dec. 31, 1792, died Feb. 16, 1827; 2, Ann, born Sept. 16, 1794, died Nov. 10, 1865; 3, Elizabeth (Betsey), born Oct. 18, 1800, died Aug. 4, 1882; 5, Robert P.; 6, Mary (Polly). (See Shales family later.)

II. (1). Sally, born Dec. 31, 1792, died Feb. 16, 1827, daughter of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, was married, as first wife, to David, born Nov. 16, 1788, died Sept. 6, 1852, son of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin. (Family No. 1230—Goodwin.)

II. (2). Ann, born Sept. 16, 1794, died Nov. 10, 1865, daughter of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, was married to Alvah Clesson, born May 6, 1795, son of Israel and Mercy (Bascom) Phillips,§ and their children were: 1, Mary S., born

*In the Gleaner, (Wilkes-Barre) of June 17, 1814, there appears this item: "Colonel C. Chapin, who was taken in the battle of Buffalo, in Dec. last, arrived here, last week, from Quebec, having been exchanged.

†John Allen was of Waterton, Litchfield Co., Conn., Feb. 6, 1800, when he sold to Benjamin Allyn of the same place, (1) 140 acres "butting southerly on the highway, easterly on Peter Shales, northerly on the highway and westerly on Aaron Dean; (2) Meadow Lot 8, Kingston, 37 acres, southerly on Benjamin Smith, northerly on the highway, westerly on Aaron Dean; (3) House Lot No. 22, 5 acres, northerly, Colonel Nathan Dennison, westerly, public lands, southerly John P. Schott. These lots are described as lands purchased by John Allyn from Rufus Shepherd. Benjamin Allyn afterward sold Lot 22 to Peter Shafer, (Family No. 50—Shafer) and the other lots to Elisha Atherton, (Family No. 992—Atherton), April 14, 1801.

‡The Kingston Moral Society was organized at the home of Philip Myers, innkeeper, Nov. 13, 1813. The first officers were: Rev. Benjamin Bidlack, President; Charles Chapman, Secretary, and Colonel Benjamin Dorrance, Treasurer. (Bib.-72.)

§II. Rev. George Phillips, first minister of Watertown, Mass., was a son of I Christopher Phillips of Rainham, England, and was born about 1593. He was graduated B. A. from Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, in 1613, and received the degree M. A. in 1617. He came to America on the ship Arbella, in 1630. He was married (1) to a daughter of Richard Sargent, and (2) to Elizabeth, probably widow of Captain Robert Welde, who died June 26, 1681. He was admitted a Freeman May 18, 1631, and died July 1, 1644. He had two children by his first marriage and seven by the second. III. (5). Theophilus, fifth child and fourth son of the nine children of Rev. George Phillips, was born May 28, 1636, and was married (1), Nov. 3, 1666, to Berthia Bedell (or Kedell), who died March 15, 1668-9. He was married (2), Nov. 21, 1677, to Mary Bennett. He had one child by his first marriage and 12 by the second. IV. (12). Joseph, twelfth child and seventh of the eight sons of Theophilus Phillips, was born Dec. 4, 1702. He was married (1) to Ruth Towne and settled in Oxford, Mass. She died July 4, 1760, and he was married (2), Dec. 10, 1760, to Mrs. Bathsheba Towne. He died April 23, 1771. V. (3). Israel, born Aug. 17, 1737, at Oxford, Mass., third child and son of Joseph and Ruth (Towne) Phillips, a soldier in the French War in 1758, died Feb. 28, 1800. He was married, Sept. 18, 1760, to Huldah, born Nov. 2, 1737, eighth child of Jonathan Towne. VI. (5). Israel, J., fifth child and third son of the seven children of Israel and Huldah (Towne) Phillips, was born April 7, 1771, and died Feb. 3, 1844. He was a farmer in Greenfield, Mass. He was married, in 1791, to Mercy, daughter of Deacon Moses Bascom of Greenfield, and their children were: 1, Alvah Clesson, born May 6, 1795; 2, Israel, born Sept. 1, 1797; 3, John Towne, born May 26, 1799, a fuller and wool carder and manufacturer, of Laurens, Otsego Co., N. Y.; 4, Ruth Severance, born Nov. 10, 1801; 5, Elvira, born Oct. 14, 1804, married to Seth Mann; 6, Noble Philander, born April 19, 1807; 7, Noble Philander, born July 16, 1809; 8, Alonzo Daniel,

April 13, 1818, married, Dec. 19, 1837, to Hon. Gordon S. Pike, son of Peter and Rachel (Dorrance) Pike,* of Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa. Hon. Gordon S. Pike was, for a number of years, a school teacher, and taught in some of the Kings-ton schools. After his marriage he settled in what is now Wyoming Co., Pa. He was commissioned Associate Judge of Wyoming Co. At the time of his death he owned, among other property, a lot and a storeroom in Northmoreland. His will was made Sept. 29, 1890, and was probated Jan. 9, 1892. He died Dec. 21, 1891. The children of Gordon and Mary S. (Phillips) Pike were: (1), Ruey, born Oct. 31, 1838, married (1) to Edward Kirkham and had two daughters, Annie M. and Jesse Kirkham, married (2) to Charles Turner and had one daughter, Grace; (2), Emily G., born Dec. 13, 1845, married to Oscar B. Mills, who was deceased Sept. 8, 1873, when Emily G. Mills was appointed administratrix of his estate with Gordon Pike and O. S. Mills on her bond in $4,000; 3, Isaac Shoemaker, born Sept. 13, 1820, died in Chicago, Ill., June 28, 1893. He was married to Cornelia, daughter of Thomas, born 1808, died 1886, and Sarah (Van Gorder) Woodhouse, born 1812, died 1892, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), and their children were: (1), Lillie Caroline, born 1851, married (1), in 1878, to John H. Hutchinson, married (2), in 1890, to Rev. Henry Morgan; (2), Harry; (3), Chapin Frank, born 1859, married to Jennie Lovell Phillips, Sept. 3, 1881, lived in Chicago, Ill.; 4, Fred Woodhouse, born 1869, married, Sept., 1898, to Anna Kirby. Isaac Shoemaker Phillips was for many years a teacher in the schools of the Wyoming Valley and was also an experienced book-keeper and accountant. He is referred to in other pages of this work; 5, John, born March 25, 1822, died Dec. 6, 1831, (Forty Fort Cemetery); 6, Robert Chapin, born Feb. 3, 1825, served in the 171st Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, married, in 1870, to Amelia J. Turner (or Reed), three of whose children were: (1), Hattie, born June, 1871; (2), Annie, born 1873; (3), Robert C., born 1875, lived in Northmoreland; 7, Diana, born April 18, 1827, died Feb. 19, 1906, married, May 7, 1847, to Abel, son of Joseph and Delilah (Nichols) Marcy, (Family No. 1001—Marcy). He was, in his earlier years, a carpenter and school teacher at Wyoming, Pa., and was the first Superintendent of Public Schools in Luzerne Co., Pa. They removed to Tipton, Mo., where he died. Their children were: (1), Beverly W., born July 31, 1848, died July 7, 1884, married, April 17, 1877, to Jeannette Chester, has a daughter, Mrs. W. L. Mangrum, living, 1915, at White Wright, Texas; (2), Justin. Mrs. Diana born Feb. 9, 1812; 9, Moses Bascom, born July 11, 1814, (see later); 10, Huldah, born Nov. 27, 1816, died April 19, 1820; 11, Simon Cady, born May 8, 1819.

VII. (9). Moses Bascom, born in Greenfield, Mass., July 11, 1814, died July 23, 1865, (Fitch Cemetery, Lockville, Pa.), son of Israel, Jr., and Mercy (Bascom) Phillips, came to the Wyoming Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was for many years a highly valued employe of Isaac C. Shoemaker, at the woolen mills. He was an expert fuller, clothier and dyer and, apparently, for a number of years, kept the accounts at the Shoemaker Mills. Later he was a partner in a fulling mill in Falls Township, Wyoming Co., which was destroyed by fire. He was married (1) to Josephine T., daughter of William Hartley. She died in the spring of 1849. He was married (2), Oct. 20, 1858, to Jane, born Feb. 18, 1814, died April 29, 1890, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Isaac and Ann (Wickes) Harris of Wyoming, Pa. Isaac Harris was born in Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., and his wife was a native of Morrisville, Delaware Co., N. Y. They settled in Northmoreland Township in the vicinity of Cummings Pond and removed from there to Wyoming, Pa. (See sketch of the family in Family No. 988.) The only child of Moses Bascom Phillips was Charles H., born March 16, 1849, who was married, in 1876, to Harriet Wilson and lives in West Pittston, Pa. The will of Moses B. Phillips, made in Northmoreland, June 16, 1865, and probated Aug. 5, 1865, at Tunkhannock, Pa., names his wife, Jane, and his son, Charles H., described as about 17 years of age. (Compiled chiefly from the Phillips Genealogy, Bib.-238.)

*Peter Pike was married, at Brooklyn, Windham Co., Conn., Oct. 15, 1794, to Rachel, daughter of James and granddaughter of the Rev. Samuel Dorrance of Voluntown, Conn. (Family No. 1007—Dorrance). They removed to Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa. Their children were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, James, born Oct. 25, 1795, died March 30, 1847, married to Catharine, born June 25, 1798, died Aug. 7, 1846, (Fitch Cemetery, Lockville, Pa.), daughter of George and Chloe (Brown) Miller of Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa. (Family No. 1017—Miller), and their children were: (1), Sarah; (2), Frances, born Dec. 9, 1837, died Feb. 26, 1857; (3), Charles D., born Feb. 1, 1830, died Sept. 12, 1882, married to Bridgetta ———, born 1842, died Aug. 30, 1894, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.); 4, Asa, born Aug. 18, 1799, died April 4, 1858, married to Ruey, born in July, 1811, died April 29, 1864, daughter of Thomas and Nancy Pace of Northmoreland, Pa. (Centermoreland Cemetery). His will, made April 5, 1858, probated April 20, 1858, names his brothers and sisters, (1), heirs of James Pike; (2), Virgil Pike; (3), Gordon Pike; (4), Abigail, widow of Henry Webb; (5), Betsey, late of Connecticut, who had a daughter, Frances Webb. The will of his wife, made April 26, 1864, probated May 17, 1864, refers to her deceased husband, Asa Pike, and names her brother, Henry B. Pace; her sister, Polly Pace, and her sister, Elizabeth, wife of Sovereign Brown, then living in Indiana; 5, Virgil, married to Hannah, daughter of Jehiel Fuller, (Family No. 1010—Fuller), living in Franklin Township, Stark Co., Ill., May 2, 1848; 6, Hon. Gordon, (see above); 7, Abigail, married to Henry Webb; 8, Betsey, of Connecticut, married to ——— Webb, and had a daughter, Frances, living in 1858.

(Chapin) Marcy spent the last five years of her life with her nephew, D. C. Smith, in Centermoreland, Pa.; 6, Caroline Hosmer, born Oct. 10, 1829, married, May 12, 1853, to Samuel Gail Smith, Jr., born Oct. 3, 1827, died Jan. 20, 1900, son of Samuel Gail, born May 14, 1797, died Sept. 17, 1862, and Margaret (De Witt) Smith, born Oct. 13, 1797, died Feb. 5, 1884, (Centermoreland, Pa., Cemetery). Their children were: (1), Charles Wesley, born Sept. 29, 1854, died Oct. 9, 1863; (2), Maggie De Witt, born Dec. 5, 1863, married, Oct. 24, 1883, to E. H. Clark; (3), Dorrie C., born Dec. 30, 1865, married (1), Oct. 5, 1887, to Lizzie M. Howell, died May 14, 1906, married (2), Sept. 1, 1909, to Emma J. Ellsworth; (4), Annie May, born Feb. 10, 1872, married, Nov. 15, 1891, to Charles S. Besteder; 7, Harriet W., born Nov. 19, 1833, died June, 1874, married to Emanuel Lewis, son of William and Margaret (Swetland) Underwood. He was born Nov. 17, 1833, and died Sept. 18, 1915. He spent many years of his life teaching in the public schools and later engaged in the milk business. Their children were: (1), Frank, born Aug. 4, 1860, married to Sarah Harding; (2), Fred, born Aug. 18, 1862, married to Lizzie Carpenter; (3), Oran, married to Anna M. Smith; (4), Eva, married to William T. Spencer; 8, Frances E., born Jan. 2, 1838, married, Nov. 27, 1856, to Theodore Hatfield. She died at Centermoreland, Pa., Oct. 23, 1857. She had one son, Frank E. Hatfield, born Oct. 22, 1857. (Not clear to writer whether name was Frances Emily or Emily R. Cemetery notes gives the name Emily R.)

Alvah Clesson Phillips came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1814. He was assessed as a clothier in Kingston in 1815. Without much doubt he was employed at the Samuel Shoemaker Fulling Mill. In 1817 he was assessed as a clothier and as the owner of a house and lot, transferred from Amos Fairman. The latter had been in Samuel Shoemaker's Mill and had been advertised, by Mr. Shoemaker, as an expert, in the newspapers. It appears that Alvah C. Phillips succeeded him and bought his home. The Amos Fairman property was doubtless the same property upon which the Nice Minegar residence now (1919) stands on Eighth street, West Wyoming. In 1823 he was assessed as a Justice of the Peace, a clothier and as the owner of a house, a lot and a shop. In 1829 he announced in a card in the Susquehanna Democrat that he had on hand for sale most kinds of machine cards on as good terms as can be had in Philadelphia or New York. He died, in his 46th year, Oct. 8, 1840, and is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. His wife, Mrs. Ann (Chapin) Phillips, survived him a little more than 25 years. After living for some years in the Wyoming Valley she went to the home of her son, Robert Chapin Phillips, in Northmoreland. She died there Nov. 10, 1865, and is buried in the Centermoreland Cemetery.

II. (3). Elizabeth, daughter of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, was born in what is now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Oct. 18, 1800, and was married (1) to Isaac, Jr., son of Isaac and Catharine Elizabeth (Carpenter) Shoemaker. (Family No. 1216.) She was married (2) to Jacob I. Shoemaker, brother of her first husband. (Family No. 986A.) She died in Kingston, Oct. 17, 1883, and is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery.

II. (4). Charles, son of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, was born in what is now West Wyoming, Pa., Aug. 17, 1805, and died in Michigan, Oct. 17, 1883. He was married to Lydia, born July 13, 1806, died April 17, 1889, daughter of Henry and Susan (Allshouse) Kern, of Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa. (Family No. 1216—Kern.) In 1854 Charles and Lydia (Kern) Chapin removed from the Wyoming Valley to the vicinity of Mount Vernon, Macomb Co., Mich. Their children were: 1, Sarah, born Aug. 25, 1829, died Aug. 21, 1831, (Forty Fort Cemetery); 2, John C., born Sept. 11, 1831, died March 25, 1907, married, in Dec., 1854, to Mary, daughter of John and Mary (Horton) Shales, (Shales family later), whose children were: (1), Lewis Cass, born Dec. 9, 1856, died April 17, 1873; (2), Miller E., born April 11, 1860, not married, lives on Rochester R. D. No. 2, Mich.; 3, Charles C., born Sept. 29, 1835, married to Eliza Fangborn; 4, Burton C., born May 8, 1839, died April 2, 1911, married to Emeline Fairbrother, Nov., 1856; 5, Elizabeth, born Sept. 9, 1843, died Oct., 1895, married, Nov. 25, 1860, to Philip M. Cole, (Family No. 720—Cole); 6, Frances, born Oct. 12, 1847, married, Jan. 1, 1866, to George, born Oct. 16, 1839, died Sept. 2, 1889, son of Daniel and Maria (Leslie) Alverson, whose children are: (1), Nettie, born 1870, died 1889; (2), Elizabeth, born 1879, married to Adelbert C. Webster; (3), Frank C., born 1881, married to Emeline Alpine; (4), Jesse, born 1884, married to Matie Wilbur. Mrs. Frances (Chapin) Alverson, sole surviving child of Charles and Lydia (Kern) Chapin, in 1916, was living on Rochester R. D. No. 2, Mich.

II. (5). Robert P., son of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, was married to Mary Ann, born Nov. 7, 1810, died Feb. 23, 1887, daughter of Henry and Edith (Sharps) Hice, (see Family No. 988—Hice and No. 988—Sharps). Their children were, (order of birth not certain): (1), Catharine B., born Oct. 13, 1831, died Sept. 28, 1852, not married; (2), Emily B., born Feb. 13, 1836, died March 12, 1859, married to George Williams; (3), Sarah, married to Daniel Rankin, Esq., born July 7, 1819, died May 9, 1869; (4), Henry Hice, married to Sarah Munger; (5), Edith, died in infancy; (6), Robert Patterson, married to Martha, born Sept. 14, 1841, daughter of Jacob and Christianna (Young) Laycock, (see Family No. 1025—Laycock).

II. (6). Polly, daughter of Solomon and Catharine (Shales) Chapin, was born in what is now West Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was married to Colonel John, son of Abraham and Jane (La Bar) Johnsten*. They removed from the Wyoming Valley to the vicinity of Mount Vernon, Macomb Co., Mich. Some of their children were: Solomon C., Jane, George, Charles and John. In Forty Fort Cemetery, Pa., is the grave of Solomon C., son of Colonel John and Mary S. Johnsten, born Nov. 23, 1834, died March 15, 1840.

THE SHALES FAMILY

I. In 1790 Peter Shales, the sole citizen of Pennsylvania with that surname, lived in Hamilton Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and had in family, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and seven females, according to the first Federal Census. He removed to Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and June 9, 1792, bought from David Perkins Lot 27 in the Third Division of lots in that township. (See description of title above.) This lot he subsequently sold to his son, Peter, Jr. Peter Shales died in Jan., 1799, and George Brown was appointed administrator of his estate. His wife, Elizabeth, died Aug. 4, 1810. They are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery, Luzerne Co., Pa. Some of their children were: (1), Peter, Jr.,† born 1770, died April 13, 1855, buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery; (2), Catharine, married to Solomon Chapin, (see later); (3), John, born June, 1780, died Dec. 18, 1871; (4), probably a daughter, married to George Brown. A Peter Schele lived in Easton, Pa., in 1790.

II. John, born June 6, 1780 (or 1781), died Dec. 18, 1871, son of Peter and Elizabeth Shales, was married to Mary, born March 27, 1785, died Aug. 10, 1854, daughter of Lieutenant John, born 1753, and Mary (Montanye) Horton, (see Family No. 1217—Montanye). (Bib.-54.) John Shales owned lands in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., which he sold April 10, 1851, to William Jacobs, (see Family No. 988—Jacobs). He also lived for a number of years in Kingston Township. He and his wife are buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery. Their children were: (1), Elizabeth, born March 27, 1804, died April 8, 1877, married to Uriah, born Sept. 29,

*Abraham Johnsten came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Sussex Co., N. J. He was born April 5, 1766, and died Oct. 11, 1834. He was married to Jane, born June 15, 1771, died July 7, 1833, daughter of Colonel Abraham and Margaret (Gordon) La Bar. (See Family No. 1016—La Bar.) Abraham and Jane (La Bar) Johnsten were parents of fourteen children, four of whom probably died in youth. Ten of their children were, (order of birth not certain): (1), Elizabeth, born Sept. 23, 1791, died Dec. 17, 1852, not married; (2), William, married to Cassandra Shirlock, lived in Lower Mt. Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1837; (3), Mary, born March 29, 1794, died Oct. 13, 1854, not married; (4), Colonel John, Justice of the Peace, Wyoming, Pa., and Treasurer of Luzerne Co., Pa., married to Mary S. †A portion of letter from Captain Shales, then with the United States Army at Detroit, Mich., was published in the Gleaner (Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), May 6, 1814. The article reads: "We have got our fort well mounted with cannon, our gates up, and our outer works almost completed, with a double row of batteries and pits all around, which in ten days more will enable us to bid defiance to any force the British can send into this quarter. We have about 1,200 troops at this post." This Captain Shales was undoubtedly a member of the family of Peter Shales, Sr., and was probably Peter Shales, Jr.

I. Peter Shafer, Jr., probably son of Peter and Catharine Shafer, of Oxford, Sussex Co., N. J., (see Family No. 43—Shafer) and a brother of John Shafer of Kingston (Family No. 43) and of Margaret (Shafer) Sharps, wife of Jacob Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps), was probably the Peter Shafer who was married to Laturah, daughter of George Nace, (Family No. 1217—Nace) of Kingston Township, and who, March 14, 1800, bought from Benjamin Allyn, House Lot No. 22, Kingston. His son, Peter Shafer, Jr., (3d), was married, Jan. 19, 1817, by David Perkins, Esq., to Elizabeth, born Jan. 28, 1798, died Jan. 1, 1871, daughter of John and Rebecca (Montanye) Bird, and a sister of James Bird, the martyred hero of the Perry Victory on Lake Erie, in the War of 1812, (Bird family later). Two of the children of Peter, Jr., (3d) and Elizabeth (Bird) Shafer were: 1, Mary Elizabeth, married to James M. Shoemaker, (see above), and 2, George, who was married to Emily, born in 1823, died March 9, 1901, (Forty Fort Cemetery), daughter of ——— and Sally (Tuttle) Pettebone-Moore. Sally Tuttle, daughter of Joseph Tuttle, (Family No. 1174—Tuttle) was married (1) to Payne Pettebone, Sr., (2) to ——— Moore, and (3) to David Perkins, Esq. One of her daughters, by her second marriage, was married to a Mr. Fellows. Three of the children of George and Emily (Moore) Shafer* were: 1, Mary Elizabeth, married to Ephraim Roberts Wolfe, born Feb. 17, 1836, died Nov. 10, 1884, (Forty Fort Cemetery); 2, Marilla, born 1847, died 1900, married, as first wife, to Richard E. Hutchins, (Family No. 1025—Hutchins); 3, Stoughten Pettebone Shafer. Ephraim R. Wolfe and his brother Gilbert were, for many years, teachers in the Presbyterian Institute at Wyoming, Pa.

THE MONTANYE FAMILY

I. John Montanye came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., as early as 1788, probably from Orange Co., N. Y. He settled in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., and in 1790 had in family, living at home, himself, two males over 16 and two females. In 1796 John, Joseph and Isaac Montanye were taxpayers in Kingston Township and Andrew Montanye lived and paid taxes in Exeter Township. The will of John Montanye was made in Kingston Township, Sept. 21, 1802, and was probated Oct. 19, 1802. It refers to his wife as living, but not by name, and names the following children, in this order: Abraham, Elizabeth, Rebecca, Andrew, Joseph, Mary, Jenny, Isaac, Nancy. He appointed his son, Andrew Montanye, and his sons-in-law, Samuel Carver and Philemon Clark, executors. The children of John Montanye were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, Mary, (see later); 2, Joseph, (see later); 3, Rebecca, born in 1763, died March 17, 1818, (see later); 4, Andrew, born March 12, 1766, died Dec. 24, 1851, (see later); 5, Isaac, (see later); 6, Jane (or Jenny), born July, 1773, (see later); 7, Nancy, born Aug. 14, 1777, died Aug. 21, 1857, (see later); 8, Elizabeth, born July 9, 1780, died April 30, 1857, (see later); 9, Abraham, (no further record).

II. (1). Mary, daughter of John Montanye, was married to Lieutenant John Horton, in 1782. He was born in Southold, Long Island, in 1753, and lived, for a number of years, in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Their children were: 1, Sarah, born in 1784, married to John Harris; 2, Mary, born March 28, 1785, died Aug. 10, 1854, married to John, born in June, 1780, died Dec. 18, 1871, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery), son of Peter and Elizabeth Shales, (Family No. 1216—Shales); 3, John, born Jan. 25, 1788, married to Sarah Wickizer, lived in Bradford Co., Pa.; 4, Miller, born 1792, died 1847, married, Dec., 1813, to Elizabeth Waller; 5, Josiah; 6, Jesse; 7, Lewis Mullison, married to Priscilla, daughter of Frederick and Catharine Crissman of Hanover, (Family No. 1010—Crissman).

II. (2). Joseph, son of John Montanye, lived in Kingston Township. His wife's name was Sarah, and some of their children were (order of birth uncertain): 1, Sarah, born Oct. 4, 1796, died May 8, 1862, married to John P., born Sept. 22, 1787, died July 1, 1871, son of Philip and Mary Ann Shaver of Dallas Township, (Family No. 1217—Shafer-Shaver); 2, Joseph, Jr., married (probably) to Marilla Spencer; 3, William, born 1802, died Aug. 2, 1854, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery); 4, Lovisa, born

*Philip Shaver, born in 1765, died Nov. 7, 1826, and his wife, Mary Ann, born in 1771, died Jan. 27, 1828, are buried in the Shaver Cemetery, Shavertown, Luzerne Co., Pa. They came from Sussex Co., N. J., to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and lived, for a short time, at Forty Fort and later removed to Dallas Township. Their children living in Jan., 1828, were: 1, John P., born Sept. 22, 1789, died July 1, 1871, married to Sarah Montanye, born Oct. 4, 1796, died May 8, 1862; 2, Peter; 3, William, born June 13, 1794, died Sept. 20, 1852, married to Rachel ———, born June 14, 1799, died June 22, 1847; 4, Elizabeth, married to Asa Munson; 5, James, born May 5, 1801, died Nov. 19, 1877, married to Lovisa Montanye, born June 3, 1804, died March 19, 1877; 6, George, born May 30, 1802, died Sept. 11, 1871, married to Rachel Van Camp, born May 30, 1801, died Feb. 15, 1873; 7, Asa W., born Jan. 7, 1808, died Sept. 8, 1878, married to Rachel ———, born July 27, 1805, died Aug. 8, 1862. It appears highly probable that Phillip Shaver of Oxford, Sussex Co., N. J., was a brother of John Shafer, Peter Shafer, Jr., and Margaret (Shafer) Sharps, although not named in the will of Peter Shafer of Oxford, N. J.

June 3, 1804, died March 19, 1877, married to James, born May 5, 1801, died Nov. 19, 1877, son of Philip and Mary Ann Shaver; 5, Hiram, married to Elizabeth ———, born March 20, 1812, died Feb. 17, 1852; 6, Dorcas, born Aug. 26, 1808, died July 24, 1867, married to Daniel Harris, born Aug. 1, 1804, died May 18, 1876, (Trucksville, Pa., Cemetery), (Family No. 1021—Harris); 7, Nathan D., married to Hester ———; 8, Isaac, married to Anna ———, born Nov., 1819, died July 30, 1880, (Eaton Cemetery, Orange, Pa.); 9, Miller, born Sept. 10, 1814, died April 25, 1888, married (1) to Mary Ann ———, born May 19, 1813, died March 25, 1857, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery), married (2) to Eliza Kurtz.

II. (3). Rebecca, daughter of John Montanye, born 1763, died March 17, 1818, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married to John Bird. (Bird family later.)

II. (4). Andrew, son of John Montanye, was born March 12, 1766, and died Dec. 24, 1851. He was married to Amy, born March 2, 1767, died Oct. 5, 1851, daughter of Captain Stephen, Jr., and Jain Harding of Exeter, (Family No. 992—Harding). Their children were: 1, Andrew, Jr., born May, 1795, died Nov. 1, 1884, married (1) to Mary Keeler, (Family No. 12—Keeler), born Dec., 1799, died July 13, 1867, some of whose children were: 1, Harry S., born Sept. 27, 1823, died Nov. 22, 1849, married to Celestia ———, born March 6, 1822, died Oct. 11, 1858; 2, William K., born Dec. 25, 1830, died Dec. 5, 1844; 3, Maria Adelia, born 1831, died 1907, married to Lewis A. Shippey, born 1832, died 1906; 4, Frances, born 1833, married to Rev. Solomon Weiss, born 1831, died 1916, (Sunny Side, Tunkhannock, Pa.); 5, Mary, born May 23, 1836, died Nov. 6, 1837. He was married (2) to Elizabeth, born 1800, died Feb. 28, 1888, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter, Pa.). Andrew Montanye, Jr., his first wife, his sons, Harry S. and William K., and his daughter, Adelia, are buried on his homestead in Exeter Township; 2, Nancy, born June 25, 1796, died March 31, 1877, married to Alexander, born July 29, 1787, died Nov. 16, 1869, son of John and Marcy (Comstock) McMillen, (Family No. 1021—Comstock); 3, Jane, (twin) born June 25, 1796, died Dec. 14, 1876, (Fitch Cemetery, Lockville, Pa.), married to Matthias Dymond; 4, Stephen, born March 9, 1798, died May 28, 1842, married to Sally Harding, born Nov. 23, 1803, died Sept. 21, 1892, (Harding Cemetery, Exeter), (Family No. 992—Harding); 5, John, married to Betsey, perhaps Billings, lived in Tunkhannock, Pa.; 6, Prudence, born Jan. 7, 1802, died Nov. 10, 1870, (Harding Cemetery), married to John Sickler; 7, Eliza, married to James Sickler, born 1788, died 1863, (Harding Cemetery); 8, Sarah, born March, 1805, died Oct. 15, 1889, married to Harry Harding, born 1801, died March 18, 1868, (Harding Cemetery); 9, Lydia; 10, Urania; 11, Frances, born April 6, 1808, died Oct. 24, 1869, married to Hiram Sutton, born May 6, 1809, died Dec. 25, 1884, (Family No. 1021—Sutton); 12, Malinda, born Aug. 18, 1810, (see later); 13, Amy, born Aug. 11, 1813, died Sept. 11, 1885, married to John Geary, (Harding Cemetery); 14, David, born 1815, died 1881, married to Lovina, perhaps daughter of Elihu Rogers, born April 14, 1812, died Feb. 27, 1840, (Brace Cemetery, near Orange, Pa.). David Montanye is buried in Harding Cemetery.

III. (12). Malinda, daughter of Andrew and Amy (Harding) Montanye, born Aug. 18, 1810, died Jan. 12, 1884, was married to William C., son of Charles Harris, of Kingston Township, (Family No. 1021—Harris), and some of their children were: 1, Pierce, born Oct. 22, 1836, died Aug. 31, 1855; 2, Lydia Jane, married to John, Jr., son of John and Harriet (Winters) Stout; 3, Charles, born Jan. 22, 1842, died Aug. 30, 1859; 4, Andrew, born July 31, 1846, died in Andersonville Prison in the Civil War, Aug. 27, 1864; 5, Sarah, born Dec., 1857, died Oct. 1, 1864.

II. (5). Isaac, son of John Montanye, lived in Kingston Township, and was a taxpayer there in 1796. Dec. 13, 1794, he bought from Job Terrill, Jr., for £28, 2s 6d 300 acres of land, which adjoined the Kingston-Exeter line. It was one-half of a tract of land granted to Parker Wilson of Kent, New Milford District, Conn. The other half was sold, on the same day, to Benjamin Smith. Job Terrill, Jr., had been appointed administrator of the estate of Parker Wilson, Dec. 23, 1793. The will of Isaac Montanye was made July 3, 1818, and was probated Nov. 24, 1818. It names his wife, Margaret, born Dec. 10, 1778, died April 6, 1859, and the following children: 1, Clarissa; 2, Elizabeth, born Dec. 1, 1803, died March 21, 1872, at Mansfield, Ohio, married to Abraham, son of Abraham and Bethiah (Wheeler), (Bib.-2) Nesbitt, born Nov. 1, 1803, died Sept. 4, 1834, of Plymouth, Pa.; 3, Charles, (probably) married, March 28, 1851, to Mary A. Shippey; 4, Rhoda; 5, Samuel; 6, John, born Feb. 10, 1812, died May 12, 1838; 7, Sally; 8, Eunice, born Feb. 27, 1816, died Sept. 1, 1848; 9, Polly, probably one of the older children, married, Jan. 26, 1817, to Thomas B., son of George* and Elizabeth Nace of Kingston Township. Isaac Montanye, probably, also had a son, 10, Isaac, Jr., to whom Charles Montanye sold an equal half of certain lands in Dallas Township, April 7, 1847.

On the Isaac Montanye farm, in Dallas Township, there is a private burial plot, where his widow, Margaret, his son John, his daughter Eunice, and a number of other persons have been buried.

II. (6). Jane, daughter of John Montanye, born in July, 1773, died May 2, 1844, was married to the Rev. Samuel, son of Jonathan and Mary (Waller) Carver of Kingston Township. (See Family No. 992—Carver.)

II. (7). Nancy, born Aug. 14, 1777, died Aug. 13, 1857, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of John Montanye, was married (1) to Lewis, born 1771, died Sept. 2, 1804, son of Reuben Mullison (Family No. 992—Mullison). She was married (2) to Richard Newman.

II. (8). Elizabeth, daughter of John Montanye, was born July 9, 1780, and died April 30, 1857. She was married to Philemon, born Nov. 4, 1779, died April 15, 1856, (Clark's Cemetery, Orcutt's, Wyoming Co., Pa.), son of John Clark, (see Family No. 1023—John Clark).

Joseph Montanye was in Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1788 and John Montanye was there as early as March, 1789. (Bib.-316.) They were probably brothers.

THE BIRD FAMILY (BYRD-BURD)

The Bird family of the Wyoming Valley, Pa., came from New Jersey. The family record is written in a volume containing the New Testament, Psalms, set to music, and the catechism. This book, once the property of John Bird, the pioneer of the family in Luzerne Co., Pa., is now owned by Mr. Lewis Durland of West Wyoming, Pa., great-grandson of John Bird. He also has in his possession the original letter written by James Bird, son of John Bird, just before his execution. The New Testament portion of this old book was printed in T'Amsterdam, by Kornelis van de Sys, Bockverkoop, 1728. "The Psalms" was printed in T'Amsterdam in 1757 and bears the names: Losel, H. Brandt, Linden: O. van Grafhorst; G. de Groot: P. Schontenen Compagnie. The family record contains no reference to the names of the parents and is as follows: 1, Andrew Byrd, born Aug. 14, 1741; 2, Elizabeth Byrd, born April 6, 1743; 3, Thomas Byrd, born Feb. 10, 1745; 4, Caty Byrd, born May 10, 1747; 5, Margaret Byrd, born Aug. 7, 1749; 6, Mary Byrd, born April 10, 1752; 7, Richard Byrd, born July 30, 1755; 8, John Byrd, born March 21, 1757, (see later); 9, Hannah Byrd, born Dec. 6, 1759; 10, Rebecca Byrd, born Feb. 16, 1761; 11, John Gones, born March 29, 1763; 12, James Gones, born July 23, 1765. The name and date of birth of Rebecca are recorded in a different handwriting. John and James Gones (perhaps Jones) may have been children of the mother of the Byrd children by a second marriage.

II. (8). John Bird, of the above family, while residing at Bedminster, Somerset Co., N. J., enlisted, July 1, 1776, and served as a private, at various times, under Captains William Logan, Nathaniel Porter, Joseph Harker and Colonel Frederick Frelinghuysen, and was in the battle of Bound Brook. He served until 1780. or 1781, in all three years and six months, in the New Jersey Troops. (Bib.-239.) He was allowed a pension by the Federal Government April 8, 1834, dating from May 4, 1831. He was then a resident of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He owned the property on what is now Eighth street, West Wyoming, Pa., which was afterwards the site of the Lewis G. Ensign residence and jewelry store. His holdings included two acres on each side of the road "From the Main road to Shoemaker's Mills." He sold this property, Feb. 5, 1825, to his son, Abram Bird, and his son-in-law, Samuel Harding. In 1836 William Swetland bought the property at Sheriff's sale and subsequently sold it to Uriah Swetland, who sold it to Lewis G. Ensign.

John Bird was married to Rebecca, born Feb. 16, 1761, died March 17, 1818, daughter of John Montanye, of Kingston Township. Mrs. Rebecca (Montanye) Bird is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery, Luzerne Co., Pa., and her handsome, brown sandstone headstone bears the inscription: "Rebecca, wife of John Bird, died

*George Nace, born 1758, died March 26, 1814, (Forty Fort Cemetery), and his wife, Elizabeth, (living in 1817) had four children: 1, Thomas B., married to Polly, daughter of Isaac and Margaret Montanye; 2, Margaret, born Oct. 17, 1782, died Aug. 25, 1848, (Shupp's Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.), married to Peter Snyder, born March 3, 1779, died Feb. 1, 1850, (Shupp's); 3, Latura, married to Peter Shafer; 4, Phebe, a minor in 1817.

March 17, 1818, 55 years." John Bird died March 5, 1839, and is probably buried beside his wife. Their children were: 1, James, born Dec. 20, 1785, (see later); 2, Thomas, born Jan. 16, 1788, died July 7, 1828, (see later); 3, Derrick (Richard), born Aug. 21, 1789, died Aug. 22, 1831, (see later); 4, Sarah, born Sept. 7, 1781, died Sept. 5, 1872, married to Samuel, son of Elisha and Martha (Rider) Harding, (Family No. 992—Harding); 5, John, born July 25, 1793, said to have lived and died at Meshoppen, Pa.; 6, Margaret, born July 6, 1795, died Feb. 26, 1873, married to Eli, son of Belding and Sally (Gay) Swetland, (Family No. 3—Swetland); 7, Elizabeth, born Jan. 8, 1798, died Jan. 11, 1871, (see later); 8, Mary, born Feb. 1, 1800, married to Aaron Van Camp; 9, Jane, born Jan. 2, 1802, died Nov. 20, 1888, married, April 1, 1824, by Alvah C. Phillips, Esq., to Charles Phillips, of Litchfield, Conn., (see Family No. 1009—Durland-Phillips); 10, Abram, born July 16, 1804, (see later); 11, Rebecca, born Oct. 15, 1806, married to Alfred Goodale.

III. (1). James Bird, son of John and Rebecca (Montanye) Bird, was born Dec. 20, 1785. His name appears as a "gunner" on the muster roll of the Wyoming Matross, a Wyoming Valley Artillery Company, commanded by Captain Samuel Thomas, and a part of Colonel Reese Hill's Regiment of Pa. Militia, (organized at Erie, Pa., May 5, 1813.) (Bib.-20.) The company marched March 31, 1813, for Erie, Pa. In a letter written by General Samuel Thomas, Nov. 23, 1871, to the Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, and printed in Colonel Wright's Historical Sketches of Plymouth, Pa., there is a pathetic account of the enlistment of James Bird, in this company. In this same book, in the writings of Dr. Miner, Mr. Harvey, and many other Wyoming Valley writers there may be found, in detail, the thoroughly authentic story of the unyielding patriotism, the magnificent courage, the noble self-denial, the whole-hearted devotion of James Bird to his country and his country's flag. He with William Pace, Benjamin Hall and Godfrey Bowman, volunteered from the ranks of the artillery service for service in Commodore Perry's fleet on Lake Erie and were assigned to the Niagara. He was promoted on the Niagara for deeds of courage (Bib.-55) in the battle which enabled the American commander to thrill the whole continent with his message, "We have met the enemy and they are ours." Learning of the intended attack, by the British, on New Orleans, Bird, with some of his men left without orders, went to Pittsburgh and arranged with others to join General Jackson's Army. "He was overtaken, tried by Court Martial, condemned for desertion and shot to death, kneeling upon his coffin." (Bib.-55.)

II. (2). Thomas, son of John and Rebecca (Montanye) Bird, was born Jan. 16, 1788, and died July 7, 1828. He was married, Sept. 14, 1811, to Polly, daughter of Gamaliel and Christanti Hill.* March 19, 1814, Thomas Bird bought from Christian Miller one acre of land, part of Lot 38, Second Division, Kingston, which had been owned by the mother of his wife, Mrs. Christantie Hill-Hutchins, and was the location where she had been licensed to keep a tavern in Kingston Township, (1808-10), now, 1919, includes Seventh street on Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, the William Townsend and other properties). He sold this property to Peirce Smith and bought lands in Exeter from Benjamin Jenkins and Peirce and Adah (Jenkins) Smith. One of the children of Thomas and Polly (Hill) Bird was Elizabeth, born July 6, 1824, died Sept. 1, 1848. (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.) Another was doubtless Christie A. Bird, who was married, Jan. 3, 1856, to Amos B. Sands.

II. Derrick (Richard), son of John and Rebecca (Montanye) Bird, was born Aug. 21, 1789, and died Aug. 22, 1831. He was married to Elizabeth Space, born 1792, died Sept. 21, 1884, (Forty Fort Cemetery). One daughter of Derrick and Elizabeth (Space) Bird was Margaret, born Nov. 29, 1823, died Aug. 24, 1897, married to Moses De Witt Wilson, born March 14, 1821, died Dec. 27, 1890, on whose plot in Forty Fort Cemetery Mrs. Elizabeth (Space) Bird was buried Sept. 23, 1884. Sarah Bird, married Dec. 14, 1832, to Webster Stewart, and James Bird married Nov. 17, 1840, to Matilda Eyck, were probably their children.

II. (7). Elizabeth, daughter of John and Rebecca (Montanye) Bird, was born Jan. 8, 1798, and died Jan. 11, 1871. She was married, by David Perkins, Esq., Jan. 19, 1817, to Peter Shafer, Jr. (See Shafer family above.)

II. (10). Abram, born July 16, 1804, son of John and Rebecca (Montayne) Bird, was in his earlier years a carpenter and joiner. He was married to Mrs.

*Gamaliel Hill was born in 1770 and died Sept., 1796. His wife, Christanti, was born in 1769 and died Sept. 10, 1810, (Forty Fort Cemetery). She was married (2) to Henry Hutchins of Kingston Township. Gamaliel and Christanti Hill had two children: 1, Colonel Erastus Hill, born July 6, 1787, died Sept. 24, 1867, married to Lucy Pettebone, born Sept. 12, 1792, died Jan. 12, 1842, (Family No. 988—Pettebone) and Polly, married, Sept. 14, 1811, to Thomas Bird.

Eliza (Johnson) Fell, daughter of John and Clarissa Johnson* of Tunkhannock, Pa., and widow of Jacob Fell of Pittston, Pa. (Family No. 1334—Fell.) Abram Bird kept a tavern at Pittston, Pa. for many years and was familiarly known as Colonel Bird.

GERTRUDE (SHOEMAKER) WILLIAMS-CLANCY; FAMILIES NOS. 1218—(1217)

Gertrude, daughter of James M. and Elizabeth (Shafer) Shoemaker, was married (1), Jan., 1863, to Reuben Williams. Their daughter, Nellie, born Dec. 7, 1863, was married (1) (Family No. 1219), Feb. 27, 1885, to Charles Moon and their daughter, Anna, born June 15, 1886, was married (Family No. 1220), July 19, 1905, to Edward Elmling. Mrs. Nellie (Williams) Moon was married (2) (Family No. 1219A), June 30, 1888, to George Conrad. Mrs. Gertrude (Shoemaker) Williams was married (2) (Family No. 1218A) to Melvin Clancy, and lived in Lincoln, Neb. Mrs. Nellie (Williams) Moon-Conrad and her daughter, Mrs. Anna (Moon) Elmling, live in Scranton, Pa.

GEORGE SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 1221—(1217)

George, born Sept. 29, 1846, son of James M. and Elizabeth (Shafer) Shoemaker, was married to Susannah Corliss and lives at 331 South Main avenue, Scranton, Pa. Their children are: (1), James, born June 28, 1870, died in infancy; (2), Susie M., born Oct. 3, 1871, married (Family No. 1222), Oct. 22, 1891, to John S. Dennis, whose children are: (i), George, born Nov. 19, 1892; (ii), Helen, born Aug. 2, 1894; (iii), Maud, born Jan. 7, 1897; (iv), John, born May 25, 1900; (v), Ella, born June 3, 1903; (3), William, born Dec. 16, 1873, married (Family No. 1223), Dec. 16, 1897, to Mary Davis and their son, George W., was born Jan. 23, 1900, live in Raleigh, N. C.; (4), Maude E., born April 19, 1879, married (Family No. 1224), Nov. 30, 1899, to William D. Baldwin (now deceased), whose children are: William D., born March 1, 1901, and Susannah S., born March 25, 1902, lives at 331 South Main avenue, Scranton, Pa.

ISABELLA (SHOEMAKER) WARNER; FAMILIES NOS. 1225 (1217)

Their daughter, Josephine B., was born Nov. 9, 1848, and died Nov. 30, 1848. Mrs. Josephine B. (Shoemaker) Goodwin died Nov. 16, 1848, and is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery, Pa.

ROSANNA (SHOEMAKER) GOODWIN; FAMILIES NOS. 1230
(946)

Rosanna, daughter of Isaac and Catharine Elizabeth (Carpenter) Schumacher, was born in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., July 12, 1802. She was baptised in the Reformed Church of Easton, Pa., Sept. 5, 1802, John Lautz and Elizabeth Zimmerman (Carpenter), sponsors. Her name appears Rosina in the baptismal record. In 1807-8 she removed, with her parents, to Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was married there, about 1821, to Benjamin C., born March 12, 1792, died Sept. 26, 1877, son of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin, of Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. A few years after their marriage they removed to Tompkins Co., N. Y., where he was a resident in 1827. Sept. 2, 1827, he bought from Lydia Lusk, Lot 6 of subdivision 9 of the Town of Dryden, N. Y., but July 4, 1828, with his wife, Rosanna, he sold this lot to William Winters. They removed to Bradford Co., Pa., where he bought a 200 acre farm on Sugar Creek, about three miles west of Towanda, Pa. Apart from some flat lands lying along the creek the most of the farm was heavily timbered. George W. Goodwin, son of Benjamin C. Goodwin, wrote Jan. 29, 1914: "We had to clear what we had to cultivate and that was more stone than anything else. We all put in some pretty hard knocks on Sugar Creek, on that old place. I often think of the amount of rock or stone we handled there." A stone quarry was opened on this farm when the canal was built. The writer recalls with great pleasure the magnificence of the view down the valley from the vicinity of this old farm. Benjamin C. and Rosanna (Shoemaker) Goodwin remained on this farm until 1852 when they removed to Dixon, Lee Co., Ill. Mrs. Rosanna (Shoemaker) Goodwin died there, May 31, 1869. After the death of his wife, Mr. Goodwin removed to Vinton, Iowa, where he died, in his 86th year, Sept. 26, 1877. He and his wife are buried at Dixon, Ill. The children of Benjamin C. and Rosanna (Shoemaker) Goodwin were: 1, Isaac, born Oct. 19, 1822, died July 7, 1839; 2, Eliza, born May 31, 1824, died June 11, 1890; 3, Amos, born Aug. 29, 1826, died Sept. 19, 1909; 4, Mary A., born April 8, 1828, died July 7, 1850; 5, Charles Shoemaker, born June 19, 1831, died Sept. 9, 1901; 6, George Washington, born July 4, 1832, living 1915; 7, Caroline Matilda, born Nov. 19, 1836, living 1915; 8, Margaret Josephine, born Aug. 31, 1841, died July 10, 1846.

THE GOODWIN FAMILY

The Goodwin* family of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and Tompkins Co., N. Y., are descendants of a family that settled in Mount Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa. It is thought that the founder of this family was I, Abraham Goodwin, who had at least four sons: 1, Benjamin, born in 1746; 2, Richard, born Feb. 17, 1748; 3, Abraham, born in 1750, and 4, William, settled in Cayuga, now Tompkins Co., N. Y., after 1790. Abraham, in 1790, was living in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

II. (1). Benjamin (probably), son of I. Abraham Goodwin, was born in 1746, and was married, Jan. 4, 1769, to Mary Mack. He was a taxpayer in Mount Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1772, 1785 and 1786. In 1790 he lived in that Township and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and three females. Soon after 1790 he removed to what is now Tompkins Co., N. Y. Some of the children of Benjamin and Mary (Mack) Goodwin were: 1, Richard, born Dec. 25, 1769, married to Prudence Frances Hollister, born April 19, 1771, daughter of Elijah Hollister. Their children were: (1), Elijah Hollister, born Oct. 1, 1793, married (1) to Mrs. Lois Hastings, married

*Elijah Goodwin, of Sharon, Litchfield Co., Conn., settled in Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Jan. 16, 1793, he bought for £25 from Lemuel Kingsbury, of Canaan, same county, "One certain Lot No. 30, in Huntington Township, 100 acres, also all the undivided lands belonging thereto, which was formerly the original right of Captain Benjamin Stevens, of Canaan." (Bib.-281.) Abraham Nott and Hezekiah Goodwin signed the deed as witnesses. June 30, 1795, Elijah Goodwin gave a quit claim deed for this land to Jabez Williams, (Family No. 1041—Williams) and, in 1793, bought lands from Enos Seward. In 1800 he bought lands from Philip Goss. At the time of his decease he owned 305 acres of Huntington lands. His wife's name was Patty, and his surviving children were: 1, George; 2, James; 3, Richard; 4, Charles; 5, Aurelia (or Orilla), deceased in 1834, married to Charles Fritz; 6, Marilla; 7, Perthenia; 8, Daniel, born March 27, 1801, died Feb. 9, 1840, (Pine Grove Cemetery, Huntington Valley), married to Rebecca, born Jan. 7, 1811, died Jan. 13, 1840, daughter of Peter, born April, 1722, died Oct. 20, 1853, and Susanna Wiant, born Aug. 19, 1779, died Dec. 15, 1848. Daniel Goodwin's will was made Jan. 24, 1840, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre. His children were: (1), Marietta; (2), Mordecai; (3), Martha Susanna; (4), Martin James; 9, Obedience. Elijah Goodwin died before Aug. 26, 1805. Benjamin Fuller was named guardian for his sons, Richard and Charles, Tarball Whitney was guardian for Aurelia and Marilla, and Patty Goodwin, who was the second wife of Elijah Goodwin, was appointed guardian for Perthenia, Daniel and Obedience. Daniel Goodwin was a merchant in Huntington. Some of the children of Peter and Susanna Wiant, named above, were: 1, David, born Aug. 24, 1808, died March 8, 1850; 2, Rebecca, born Jan. 7, 1811, died Jan. 13, 1840, married to Daniel Goodwin; 3, Clarissa, born in 1815, died in 1859, married to Phineas Rood; 4, Huldah, born Sept. 7, 1816, died June 11, 1842, married to John Dildine, all of whom are buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Pa.

(2) to ———; (2), Rachel Mack, born June 10, 1795, married to Nathan Hall; (3), Charles Emmons, born Aug. 20, 1797, married to Maria Miller; (4), Daniel Freeman, born Aug. 22, 1799, married to Juliette Goodwin; (5), Ephraim Benjamin, born Jan. 20, 1802, not married; (6), Mary Ann, born June 7, 1804, married to Jonas Dodge; (7), Sylvester, born Aug. 6, 1806, married (1) to Mary Hinman, married (2) to Julia ———; (8), Clement Hinman, born March 3, 1808, married (1) to Jane Miller, married (2) to ———, married (3) to Sarah M. Burrell; (9), Nancy Ann, born March 6, 1810, married to Matthew Hanna; (10), William Henry, born June 12, 1812, married to Mary Biggs; (11), John Mack (twin), born June 12, 1812, married to Sarah Biggs; 2, Ann, married to ——— Smith; 3, John, born Nov. 19, 1776; 4, William, (twin) born Nov. 19, 1776, died July, 1777.

II. (2). Richard (probably), son of Abraham Goodwin, was born Feb. 17, 1748. He was a taxpayer in Mount Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1785 and 1786, and in 1790 was still a resident there, having in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, five males under 16, and four females. He removed to Cayuga, now Tompkins Co., N. Y., soon after 1790. Some of his children were: 1, Benjamin, born Feb. 19, 1776, married to Gertrude Bright; 2, Nicholas, born Jan. 20, 1778, not married; 3, Joseph, born Nov. 6, 1779, married (1) to Ruth Stout, married (2) to Lucinda Camp; 4, John, born Aug. 6, 1782, married to ———; 5, Susanna, born April 15, 1786, married to William Bright; 6, George, born March 10, 1788, married (1) to Christina Smith, married (2), to Cynthia Wiliston Gregory; 7, Mary, born April 10, 1791, married to William Hall; 8, Prudence, born Dec. 26, 1793, married to ——— Husten; 9, Sarah, born Oct. 7, 1796, married to ——— Bissell; 10, Wesley, born June 6, 1798, married to Jane Stewart.

II. (4). William (probably), son of Abraham Goodwin, was a boat builder by trade and was of Lower Smithfield Township, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1789-90, when, with his wife Ruth, he sold to William Deese of Nolton (Knowlton), Sussex Co., W. J., 108 acres of land in Mount Bethel Township. They removed, about 1791, to the town of Genoa, afterwards (1817) Lansing, Cayuga, now Tompkins Co., N. Y., and settled near the site of Asbury Church. He presented the land for the cemetery there. The marriage of his daughter to Colonel Henry Bloom, son of Ephraim Bloom, was the first marriage in the town. (Bib.-166 and Bib.-171.) He also had a son, Richard, who was married to a Miss Weyborn and had three children: (1), William; (2), Edwin Weyburn, born 1800, married (1) to Almira Ives, married (2) to Almira La Bar; (3), Ruth (Goodwin) Underwood. (Bib.-336 in part.)

II. (3). Abraham, (probably) son of Abraham Goodwin, born in 1750, the founder of the Goodwin family of Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., was a resident of Upper Mount Bethel Township, Northampton Co., Pa., March 14, 1778, when with his brother, Richard, he served as a private in Captain Alexander Forsman's Company of Colonel Jacob Stroud's Sixth Battalion of Northampton Co., Militia in the War of the American Revolution. He also lived there in 1781, when he served in Captain John Long's Company of the Fifth Battalion (Bib.-229) of Northampton Co. Militia. He was married in 1783 to Catharine, born in 1762, died Oct. 24, 1814, daughter of John and Lois King. In the spring of 1784 Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin, accompanied by her parents, John and Lois King, settled in the upper part of Kingston Township in Luzerne Co., Pa., on Pennsylvania claims. Their early experiences in the Wyoming Valley are graphically narrated on pages 991-3 of The Harvey Book. In May, 1794, he bought from Lebbeus Tubbs of Tioga Co., N. Y., an early New England settler in the Wyoming Valley, who fought in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, (Bib.-1) Lot No. 1, about 150 acres in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., adjoining the Kingston line. In 1790 the family of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin included five males under 16 and two females, (Bib.-10) doubtless five sons and one daughter. He died July 18, 1822, and he and his wife are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. Some of the children were, (order of birth not certain): (1), John, born Jan. 28, 1783; (2), Amos, born 1785, married to Abigail Kidder, lived at Kings Ferry, Cayuga Co., N. Y.; (3), Catharine; (4), David, born Nov. 16, 1788; (5), Abraham, Jr., born July 6, 1790; (6), Benjamin C., born March 12, 1792, married to Rosanna Shoemaker, (Family No. 1230); (7), William, born March 6, 1794; (8), Henry, born Dec. 18, 1796; (9), Maria (Polly), married to Elliot Whitney, lived at Wysox, Bradford Co., Pa., in 1827; (10), Isaac, married to Debora Kidder Robinson, lived at Kings Ferry, Cayuga Co., N. Y.; (11), Eliza, born March 23, 1802, married to David Ogden, removed from Exeter Township, Pa., to Kings Ferry, Cayuga Co., N. Y.; (12), Charlotte.

III. (1). John, son of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin, born Jan. 28, 1783, probably in Northampton Co., Pa., died in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., March 25, 1858. He was married to Sally Brown, born Sept. 6, 1784, died April 6, 1864. July 27, 1827, he bought from ten of his father's heirs their interest in the homestead, and March 22, 1828, he bought the interest of his sister, Eliza, from his brother-in-law. Josiah B. Marshall, John and Sally (Brown) Goodwin were early members of the Wyoming Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His will, made March 20, 1858, and probated March 29, 1858, refers to a contract of May 20, 1856, to sell the Goodwin farm to William S. Shoemaker and Benjamin S. Tripp. The homestead subsequently became the property of William S. Shoemaker and later of his son, William H. Shoemaker. It is now (1919) the rich truck and fruit farm owned by Barney Whitlock. The children of John and Sally (Brown) Goodwin were: 1, Maria, born Sept. 1, 1808, died March 25, 1886, married to David McConaghy, born May 11, 1813, died Jan. 15, 1866, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery); 2, Shepherd, born about 1811, died Feb. 3, 1889, married to Caroline, born about 1811, died Jan. 9, 1890, aed. 79 years, daughter of Abraham and Jane (La Bar) Johnsten of Kingston Township, some of whose children were: (1), Sarah Jane, married, July 3, 1860, by Rev. Meyers, born in Sussex Co., N. J., July 7, 1835, son of Jacob and Susan Myers. Their children were: Clarence E., Ida A., Mary G., Nellie A., Harry C., Jonathan E. and Willie.

In 1814 David Goodwin was assessed as a clothier in Kingston Township and Nov. 11, 1814, there appeared the following notice in the Wilkes-Barre Gleaner: "David Goodwin has taken the fulling mill formerly owned by Lot Breese, near Shoemaker's Mills, where he calculates to carry on the business in all its branches." He was Constable in Kingston in 1829. David and Sally (Chapin) Goodwin and their sons, Washington and William, and their daughter, Mrs. Mary (Goodwin) Gates, wife of John R. Gates, are buried in Forty Fort, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. Mrs. Rachel (Jenkins) Goodwin and some of her children are buried in the "Jenkins" Cemetery at West Pittston, Pa.

III. (4). Catharine, daughter of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin, was married to Shepherd Patrick, who was of Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1812, and owned extensive tracts of land there which he and his wife, Catharine, sold in 1812-13. Aug. 17, 1812, he bought a farm for $2,500, from Henry Strobe of Wysox, now Bradford Co., Pa. This land is described as lying in Claverack Township, and had been patented to John Penn Arndt, (see Family No. 1339—Arndt), May 31, 1808, and sold by Arndt to Strobe Aug. 6, 1809. Shepherd and Catharine (Goodwin) Patrick settled finally in Wysox, Bradford Co., Pa. Two of their children were: Sophronia, married, Jan. 29, 1828, to D. M. Bull, editor of Tioga Pioneer, and Mary F., married, May 15, 1836, to Samuel Owen.

III. (5). Abraham, Jr., or Abram, son of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin, born July 6, 1790, in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., was married, Nov. 8, 1812, by the Rev. Benjamin Bidlack, to Sarah, born Sept. 25, 1792, died March 4, 1867, daughter of Philip and Martha (Bennet) Myers, (see Family No. 1313—Bennet). They first established their home in Exeter Township. The smaller of the two houses (both standing 1916) on the Abraham Goodwin, Sr., homestead, was owned by Abram, Jr. June 12, 1816, he bought from Obadiah Smith the James F. Smith portion of the David Smith estate in Exeter Township, and Aug. 24, 1846, he bought the portion of Charles Smith in the same estate. March 16, 1818, he bought from Captain Samuel Breese the property lying between the Isaac Schumacher mill race, Abraham's Creek, the "Big Stone Bridge" and what is now West Eighth street, West Wyoming, (see sketch in Abraham's Creek Industries, Family No. 946). Nov. 6, 1821, he bought six acres of the lands of Samuel Shoemaker in Lot 35. In 1822 he had transferred his interest in a distillery in Kingston Township to Henry Breese, doubtless the distillery long known and still remembered as the Breese distillery. In 1827 Abraham Goodwin, Jr., was living in Sheshequin, Bradford Co., Pa., and in 1832 he was of the town of Ulster in that county. Their children were: 1, Charles J., born Dec. 30, 1857, married (Family No. 1251), Jan. 22, 1889, to Grace C. Childs, and their children are: (1), Charles, Jr., born Aug. 23, 1890, died Oct. 31, 1892; (2), William, born Aug. 20, 1892; (3), Frances, born March 1, 1894; (4), Rollin, born Aug. 24, 1897; (5 and 6), Clifton, born Sept. 7, 1899, died March 28, 1901, and Clinton, born Sept. 7, 1899. He was married (2), April 17, 1902, to Katy, daughter of James and Catharine (Kelly) McGuire, and their children are: (7), Louis J., born Jan. 5, 1905; (8), Charles, Jr., (2), born Feb. 9, 1906; (9), Hugh, born July 10, 1909; 2, William, born June 17, 1875, died July 25, 1883.

MARGARET

MARGARET SCHUMACHER CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1252
(1)

Margaret, daughter of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher, was born in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., Jan. 22, 1757, and was married to Baltzer, born Dec. 30, 1748, died Sept. 19, 1821, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter, of Greenwich, Sussex, now Warren Co., N. J., (Carpenter family later).

Baltzer, (Balzer, Bolsar, Balthazer) Carpenter, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter, was born at what is now known as Carpentersville, in Greenwich Township, Warren Co., N. J., Dec. 30, 1748. May 7, 1774, he bought from Robert Martin of Greenwich, N. J., for £600, a farm of 200 acres, which was part of the same 1,250 acre Stephenson tract, of which his father, Joseph Carpenter, with Balser Gehring, had bought 350 acres in 1746. This 1,250 acre tract was "Situated in the Western Division of the Province of New Jersey formerly in the County of Hunterdon, now (1774) in the County of Sussex, fronting upon the River Delaware at and near a brook commonly called Pohatconk, bound on the upper side by a tract of land, late Joseph Hilby's, on the lower side then unappropriated." The land was part of the estate of Thomas Stephenson, late of Bucks Co., Pa., who, by his will, empowered his administrators, Sarah, his wife, and Joseph Kirkbride, of Falls Township, Pa., to make sale of his lands and tenements. Feb. 18-19, 1732, they sold 900 acres to Benjamin Field and John Kirkbride and 350 acres to Benjamin Field. Dec. 19, 1732, John Kirkbride sold his interest to Benjamin Field, who by his will, Dec. 6, 1740, appointed his wife, Sarah Field, sole executrix. March 1, 1753, the title passed from Sarah Field, executrix, to John Boss and Michael Moyers, and the latter sold his interest, July 7, 1753, to John Boss, who, on the same day, conveyed title to Robert Martin. April 1, 1797, Baltzer Carpenter bought from James Hyndshaw and Peter Sharps, executors of the will of Brigadier General William Maxwell, 159 acres of the Maxwell homestead. This farm was part of a tract of 560 acres sold March 27, 1771, by Mary Masters of Philadelphia, Pa., to John Maxwell, the elder. John Maxwell's will of Sept., 1784, bequeathed the homestead to his wife, Ann Maxwell, during her lifetime and, after her decease, to William, John and Robert Maxwell. Aug. 10, 1795, John and Robert Maxwell, executors, sold it to William Maxwell, whose will was made June 4, 1784. This farm for which Baltzer Carpenter paid £1,188 5s 6d was bounded by lands of John and Robert Maxwell, Abraham Arndt and Valentine Beidelman. April 4, 1812, Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter sold it to their son-in-law, Samuel T. Stewart, for $6,360. April 2, 1816, Balser Carpenter bought from Jacob Sharps (see Family No. 988—Sharps) 80 acres adjoining lands of Abraham Carpenter and Christopher Melick for $5,085. He also bought for $5,055, 83 acres which, Sept. 3, 1814, Jacob and Margaret (Shafer) Sharps had sold to their son, John Sharps. This deed to Baltzer Carpenter was signed by John and Martha (Welch) Sharps.

Nov. 20, 1819, Baltzer Carpenter assigned his property to his brother, Abraham Carpenter, and his sons-in-law, Robert D. and Samuel T. Stewart, who, on May 1, 1822, sold 231 acres to Joseph B., son of Balser, for $7,000, and Jan. 24, 1831, Robert D. and Samuel T. Stewart, as trustees, deeded 214 acres free of debt to the heirs of Baltzer Carpenter. This latter tract was later sold to Robert D. Stewart, who with his wife, Sarah (Carpenter) Stewart, sold it to Peter Miller of Easton, Pa., May 16, 1831, for $4,996.

Baltzer Carpenter (Zimmerman in the records) was ordained Elder of the Reformed Church of Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., May 16, 1790, and was chosen Deacon in 1793. (Bib.-22.) He died Sept. 18, 1821, and is buried in the St. James (Straw Church) Lutheran Cemetery, near Phillipsburg, N. J. His wife, Mrs. Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, died Oct. 11, 1839. She is buried in the Greenwich Presbyterian Cemetery, near Phillipsburg. The children of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter were: 1, Mary C., born Oct. 17, 1774, died Oct. 1, 1825; 2, Isaac, born June 2, 1777, died Feb. 23, 1854; 3, Elizabeth, born Aug. 7, 1780, died June 10, 1860; 4, Catharine, born Sept. 20 (30), 1784, died Feb. 17, 1859; 5, Anna, born Aug. 10, 1787, died Oct. 12, 1866; 6, Sarah, born April 4, 1790, died May 1, 1855; 7, Joseph B., born Nov. 4, 1792, died June 30, 1879; 8, Samuel D., born Aug., 1794.

THE CARPENTER FAMILY—ZIMMERMAN

The pioneer of the Carpenter family in Greenwich, now Warren* Co., N. J., was Joseph Carpenter. The family is of German origin and the family name was, originally, Zimmerman, the German equivalent of the English name Carpenter. There is a well defined tradition, generally accepted among some of the descendants of Joseph Carpenter, that four brothers came from the German Palatinate to America. One of them went to Virginia, one settled near Middletown, N. Y., one settled in Greenwich, N. J., and the fourth returned to Germany. However, neither the name of Joseph Carpenter, nor that of Joseph Zimmerman appears in Rupp's 30,000 names of German Immigrants, nor in the lists of German Immigrants who qualified as British subjects, printed in the Pennsylvania Archives. It appears probable to the writer that Joseph Carpenter (Zimmerman) either came to America in his minority or was born here. There is a probability that he came to Greenwich from Lancaster Co., Pa., whence many of the early settlers of Western New Jersey came. There appears to be an abundance of proof that the family name was originally Zimmerman. At least there is evidence that the same members of the family were known both by the name Carpenter and the name Zimmerman. The names of several descendants of Joseph Carpenter appear in the records of the Reformed Church of Easton, Pa. (Bib.-22.) Almost invariably the name appears Zimmerman. In fact nearly, or quite all, of the persons named Zimmerman in Dr. Kiefer's "Some of the First Settlers at the Forks of the Delaware," were related to Joseph Carpenter. On page 399 appears the name of Baltzer Zimmerman, ordained in 1790, an Elder of the church at Greenwich, and under date of 1793-4 there are references to his services as Deacon. There are also references to Abraham Zimmerman, Deacon in 1794. Those two men were Baltzer and Abraham, sons of Joseph Carpenter. On page 257 there is a record of the baptism of William, born May 2, 1819, baptised June 20, 1819, son of Joseph and Maria Zimmerman. His sponsors were Isaac and Elizabeth Scheimer. The reference here is clearly to William, son of Joseph and Mary (Scheimer) Carpenter, who was born, according to the family record, May 2, 1819, and whose grandparents were Isaac and Elizabeth (Keichline) Scheimer, (Family No. 1—Scheimer). Jacob Zimmerman (page 316) was Jacob, son of Joseph Carpenter, Jacob Zimmerman (page 364) was Jacob, Jr., son of Jacob Carpenter and grandson of Joseph Carpenter. On the other hand the name of Zimmerman does not appear in any of the early land records of Sussex Co., N. J. The name Carpenter, referring to members of this family, appears frequently in those records. In series E, Volume 1, page 660, of Northampton Co., Pa., deeds, recorded at Easton, Pa., may be found a partition deed pertaining to the estate of Michael Schumacher, (Family No. 1). It names among the grantors and heirs of Michael Schumacher, Baltzer Zimmerman, yeoman, and Margaret, his wife. This Baltzer Zimmerman was Baltzer, son of Joseph Carpenter, and in signing this partition deed he wrote his name Baltzer Carpenter, while his wife signed her name, by mark, Margaret Zimmerman. The name of the wife of Joseph Carpenter was undoubtedly Elizabeth.* May 25, 1780, Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter were sponsors for Joseph, born May 23, 1780, son of Philip and Anna Maria Zimmerman. (Bib.-22.) This Philip Zimmerman may have been a brother of Joseph Zimmerman or a son, although the writer has found no reference to him in deeds pertaining to the estate of Joseph Zimmerman (Carpenter).

*Warren Co., N. J., was formed from Sussex Co. in 1824. Sussex Co. was formed from Hunterdon in 1738-9. Hunterdon Co., named for Governor Robert Hunter, was set off from Burlington Co. in 1713. Burlington Co. was organized in 1694, and its boundaries were definitely fixed in 1710. In 1774 the western section of New Jersey was known as the Western Division of the Province of New Jersey.

Joseph Carpenter was of Greenwich, then Morris Co., N. J., April 15, 1746, when with Balser Gehring† he bought from Benjamin Field 350 acres of the 1,250 acre Thomas Stephenson tract in Greenwich, fronting upon the River Delaware at and near a brook called Pohatconk. His son, Baltzer, bought 200 acres of the same tract in 1774. Joseph Carpenter and Balser Gehring owned this tract in common until March 2, 1774, when, for a consideration of £425, proclamation money of the Province of West Jersey, Balser Gering sold to Joseph Carpenter a full one-half undivided interest in the property. (Joseph Carpenter named one of his sons Balser.) Joseph Carpenter was deceased before June 17, 1786, when Balthazar and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, of Greenwich; Mrs. Freney Micksel, of Lancaster Co., Pa.; Jacob and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Everhart, of Upper Milford, Northampton Co., Pa., and Isaac and Catharine (Carpenter) Schumacher, of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., sold their interest in the Joseph Carpenter estate to Jacob and Abraham Carpenter. Simon and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Heller of Hamilton Township, Northampton Co., Pa., had previously sold their interest in the estate to Jacob and Abraham Carpenter, and Dec. 11, 1790, John Carpenter sold his interest to them, reserving his interest in the shad fishery. George Kunkle and his wife are also referred to in a deed of Jan. 10, 1806, Jacob Carpenter to Abraham Carpenter, as having also sold their interest in the estate to Jacob and Abraham Carpenter. The children and heirs of Joseph Carpenter, named in these various deeds, are: 1, Balser, born Dec. 30, 1748, died Sept. 18, 1821, married to Margaret, daughter of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher, (see above); 2, Elizabeth,‡ married to Simon Heller§ of Hamilton Township, Northampton Co., Pa., living there in 1790 with himself, two males under 16 and two females in family; 3, Freney (probably Veronica), married to ——— Meixel (or Micksel),

*The writer believes, although he cannot positively confirm his belief, that Elizabeth, wife of Joseph Carpenter, was a sister of Philip Meixel, Sr., of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and that both families came from Lancaster Co., Pa. Philip Carpenter (Zimmerman) was doubtless a son of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter and was deceased when his father's lands were sold. (Family No. 929—Meixsell.)

†A Baltes Gering came to America on the ship Mortonhouse, John Coulter, master, which sailed from Deal, June 15, 1728. He qualified by taking the oath of allegiance to the British Crown, Aug. 24, 1728. (Bib.-67 and 17.)

‡Elizabeth, married to Simon Heller, or Elizabeth, married to Jacob Everhart, was evidently a granddaughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter.

§Simon Heller, Sr., of Hamilton Township, Northampton Co., Pa., son of Christopher Heller, born about 1688, died in 1778, was born about 1721 and died in 1785. His will, made in Hamilton Township, May 18, 1785, was probated June 21, 1785, and names his wife, Margaret, and the following children: (1), Daniel; (2), Anthony; (3), John; (4), Jacob; (5), Abraham; (6), Michael; (7), Simon, Jr., probably married to Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter, of Greenwich, N. J.; (8), Veronica; (9), Elizabeth; (10), Margaret; (11), Sarah; (12), Caty; (13), Mary; (14), Lewis.

living in Lancaster Co., Pa., June 17, 1786; 4, Catharine Elizabeth, married to Isaac, son of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher, (Family No. 946); 5, daughter, married to George Kunkle; 6, perhaps Philip, married to Anna Maria, whose son, Joseph, born May 23, 1780, was baptised May 25, 1780, with Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter serving as sponsors; 7, Jacob, born Oct. 13, 1761, died Dec. 29, 1821, (see later); 8, Abraham, born in 1765, died May 18, 1824, (see later); 9, John, born Nov. 5, 1768, died Oct. 20, 1841, (see later); 10, Elizabeth, married to Jacob (probably son of Philip) Eberhard of Upper Milford, Northampton Co., Pa.

The Joseph Carpenter homestead is situated on the Delaware River, at Carpentersville, Warren Co., N. J., nearly opposite Raubsville, Northampton Co., Pa. The original stone house, which stands on a lot adjoining the station of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is owned by one of Joseph Carpenter's descendants and is still in use as a tenement. A stone set in the chimney, over the mantel, in this ancient dwelling, bears the date 1748. At an early date there was an important fishery on this property, reference to which is made in various deeds pertaining to the estate. The deed of John Carpenter to Jacob and Abraham Carpenter reserves his share of the fishery and "is not to sell it except to one of the company." A partition deed between Jacob and Abraham Carpenter, recites that Jacob Carpenter owns and reserves the one-fifth share of the shad fishery on the premises, with the privilege of selling his share to no person except to one of the owners of said fishery. The farm bought by Joseph Carpenter was said to consist of 350 acres more or less. Upon a subsequent survey it was found to contain 415 acres. In the division of the land, Jan. 10, 1806, between Jacob and Abraham Carpenter the former secured title to 206 acres and the latter to 208. According to the writer's notes the name of the wife of Simon Heller was Elizabeth and the name of the wife of Jacob Eberhard was also Elizabeth. They were both heirs of Joseph Carpenter, and if the names are correct one was probably a granddaughter. Jacob Eberhard lived in Upper Milford, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1790 and then had in family himself, one male under 16 and two females.

II. (7). Jacob, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Oct. 13, 1761, and died Dec. 29, 1821. He was married to Anna Maria Elizabeth ———, who was born in 1759 and died March 26, 1855, in her 97th year. They are buried in St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, near Phillipsburg, N. J. After the death of his father, Joseph Carpenter, Jacob Carpenter and his brother, Abraham, bought the interest of the other heirs in the homestead and on Jan. 10, 1806, they divided the farm. April 28, 1802, Jacob Carpenter bought from John Conrad Yeager and his wife, Barbara, of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., 201 acres of land in Greenwich Township, and May 17, 1817, sold it to his son, John. Aug. 1, 1818, he sold his part of the Joseph Carpenter homestead to his son, Jacob, for £2,000. His will was made Aug. 3, 1818, and was probated at Newton, N. J., Feb. 19, 1822. Some of the children of Jacob and Anna Maria Elizabeth Carpenter were: 1, John J., born June 3, 1788, died May 27, 1856, married to Margaret, born Sept. 9, 1792, died June 5, 1871, daughter of Isaac and Maria Magdalene (Fine) Shipman, (Family No. 1292—Shipman), whose children were: (1), Isaac Shipman, born Dec. 31, 1810, baptised Feb., 1811, died Oct. 16, 1893, married to Maria Bennett, born April 4, 1813, died Dec. 21, 1879, whose children were: i, John, born Aug. 27, 1832, died June 13, 1839; ii, Phebe Ann, born Sept. 22, 1834, not married, living on the John J. Carpenter homestead, Kennedy Station, Warren Co., N. J., in 1914; iii, Mary Margaret, born Nov. 12, 1836, married to David Huffman; iv, Isaac Bennett, born March 6, 1839, married to Margaret S. ———, born April 5, 1845, died April 7, 1882; v, Rachel, born Sept. 26, 1843, married to Samuel Stewart, (Family No. 1254—Stewart); vi, Allen, born Feb. 25, 1844, married to Annie Bennett; vii, Nathan, born Oct. 25, 1846, not married, died Oct. 9, 1888; viii, William Henry, born Dec. 2, 1849, died Aug. 19, 1851; ix, Abraham Eldredge, born May 2, 1852, married to Mary Abel; x, Robert, born June 2, 1855, not married, lives on the homestead; xi, Charles, born Jan. 2, 1859, died April 10, 1861; (2), Margaret, born June 11, 1811, baptised Sept. 29, 1811; (3), Sarah, born May 27, 1815, baptised Aug. 20, 1815; (4), Mary Elizabeth, born Dec. 21, 1821, baptised March 17, 1822, married to Joseph B., son of Isaac and Rachel (Gulick) Hughes, (Family No. 1414—Hughes); 5, William, born June 10, 1827, baptised June 10, 1827; 2, Jacob, born Aug. 3, 1796, died July 6, 1877, married, Nov. 22, 1814, to Anna, born Jan. 22, 1790, died Feb. 2, 1876, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth (Kichline) Scheimer, (Family No. 1—Scheimer), whose children were: (1), Charles C., born Feb. 3, 1823, died Dec. 13, 1872, married to Susan Crevelling, born June 19, 1826, died April 14, 1890;

(2), Jacob, married to Mary Calvin; (3), Eliza Ann, married, Dec. 18, 1834, to John N. Shimer, (Family No. 1—Scheimer); 3, Elizabeth, born June 10, 1784, baptised July 4, 1784, married, Dec. 18, 1806, to Abraham Young; 4, Mary, born April 30, 1791, died May 10, 1865, married to William, son of Philip and Catharine (Melick) Fine, (Family No. 1264—Fine); 5, Joe Jacob, born Aug. 12, 1796, probably married to Christianna, daughter of Christian and Maria Elizabeth (Winter) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps).

II. (8). Abraham, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., in 1765, and died May 18, 1824. With his brother, Jacob, he bought the Joseph Carpenter homestead and lived upon a part of it during his life. He was married to Ann Noyes, born in 1771, died July 6, 1842, and they are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery in Greenwich, Warren Co., N. J. He bought from Andrew Melick (Family No. 1531—Melick), 283 acres of land in Greenwich, N. J., for $14,000. This tract of land was made up of parts of three small tracts of land as follows: (1), Part of 409 acres which John Frederick Gaust, Dec. 11, 1747, sold to Johannes Melick, father of Andrew Melick; (2), part of 50 acres which Seth Pancoast sold, Oct. 3, 1749, to Godfrey Melick and which Godfrey Melick sold, Nov. 28, 1758, to John, father of Andrew Melick, and which Andrew Melick inherited under the will of his father; (3), part of 219 acres which William Hewling and Esther, his wife, sold April 23, 1771, to Andrew Melick. The 283 acres were bounded by lands of Jacob Sharps, Jacob Melick, the Pohatconk Creek and lands of Christopher Williams (or Melick). Abraham Carpenter, May 1, 1802, bought from Joseph Taylor 161 acres on the Pahatconk Creek. He died, intestate, owning three large tracts of land in Greenwich Township, one of which had been owned by Henry Raub. His son, Joseph A. Carpenter, bought the 208 acre Joseph Carpenter homestead, his son Isaac N. Carpenter bought the 283 acre tract referred to above and the third tract was bought by his son, George Carpenter. Abraham Carpenter was an Elder in the Greenwich, N. J., Presbyterian Church and was named by his brother Baltzer as one of his assignees. The children of Abraham and Ann (Noyes) Carpenter, named in deeds pertaining to the division of his estate, were: 1, Joseph A., born 1791, died May 11, 1858, married (1) to Sarah,* born in 1810, died July 4, 1850, daughter of Lieutenant Thomas and Rachel (De Wees) Stewart, (Family No. 1254—Stewart). He was married (2) to Elizabeth B. Carter, born Feb. 3, 1803, died Sept. 30, 1882. He and his wives are buried in the Greenwich, N. J., Presbyterian Cemetery; 2, Isaac N., born Oct. 3, 1793, died Aug. 12, 1871, (Easton, Pa., Cemetery), a leading merchant miller of Forks Township, Northampton Co., Pa., was married to Mary, born June 5, 1796, died Oct. 29, 1840, daughter of Philip and Catharine (Melick) Fine, (Family No. 1264—Fine). Some of their children were: (1), Isaac N., Jr., died 1865; (2), Mary C., born Dec. 26, 1813, died Jan. 22, 1891, married to Robert K., son of John Lerch and Susanna (Schweitzer) Shimer, (Family No. 1—Scheimer); (3), Philip E., born July 16, 1824, died April 2, 1885, married to Mary A. ———, born March 18, 1825, died Feb. 2, 1901; 3, Elizabeth, married to William B. Smith; 4, William, married to Mary ———; 5, George, married, June 1, 1830, to Margaret Emich; 6, Margaret, born March 31, 1806, baptised Oct. 31, 1806, married to Daniel Hulshizer, Jan. 16, 1823.

II. (9). John, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Carpenter, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Nov. 5, 1768, and died Oct. 20, 1841. He was married (1) to Margaret, born April 7, 1792, died April 1, 1822, daughter of Philip and Maria Magdalene Fine, (Family No. 1264—Fine). He was married (2), May 30, 1830, to Elizabeth Wilhelm. May 5, 1797, John Carpenter bought from John Howell and his wife, Mary, of Greenwich, a 150 acre tract of land called Gideon, situated on the bank of the Delaware River, in Greenwich Township, which John Frederick Emmett and Elizabeth, his wife, sold to John Howell, April 25, 1791. He also owned a 180 acre farm which he bought from Henry and Jane Kitchen, April 27, 1793. This farm is described as part of a 640 acre survey of land, situated at Pohatconk, Greenwich Township, owned in his lifetime by Henry Kitchen, Sr., late of Amwell Township, Hunterdon Co., N. J., and which Henry Kitchen, Sr., in his will, June 25, 1745, conveyed to his three sons, Samuel, Wheeler and Joseph Kitchen. Samuel Kitchen, the eldest son of Henry Kitchen, Sr., conveyed his interest, Dec. 10, 1766, to Henry Kitchen, who, with his wife, Jane, sold it to John Carpenter. John and Margaret (Fine) Carpenter are buried in St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, Greenwich, Warren Co., N. J. Some of their children were: 1, Thilir (Philip), born Oct. 1,

*Rachel, daughter of Joseph A. and Sarah (Stewart) Carpenter, was married to William Maxwell, son of Robert Dewees and Sarah (Carpenter) Stewart, (Family No. 1254—Stewart).

1796, baptised Dec. 2, 1796, married, March 4, 1819, to Sarah, daughter of Christian and Maria Elizabeth (Winters) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps). Their son, Christian Sharps, born Nov. 20, 1827, was baptised Feb. 14, 1828, and their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, born June 6, 1830, was baptised July 16, 1831; 2, John, Jr., born in Dec., 1799, died March 9, 1859, (Straw Church Cemetery), married, Dec. 18, 1822, to Rosanna, born April 12, 1803, died Feb. 3, 1888, (Raub Cemetery, Raubsville, Pa.), daughter of Dr. John Peter and Anna Margaret (Laubach) Seiler, (Family No. 3—Seiler), some of whose children were: (i), Mary Ann, born Oct. 27, 1823, baptised Dec. 11, 1823, died July 17, 1860, married to John S. Abel; (2), William Swetland, born Dec. 21, 1825, baptised Feb. 7, 1826, died in 1833; (3), Martin V., born Sept. 14, 1837, living in 1916, married to Mary Alice Zeller, whose daughter, Rose, is married to J. Howards Richards, and lives at Richards' Crossing, Easton, R. D., Pa.; 3, Nancy, born March 3, 1802, died Sept. 9, 1802; 4, Mary (?).

MARY C. (CARPENTER) BEIDELMAN; FAMILIES NOS. 1253 (1252)

Mary C., daughter of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Oct. 17, 1774, and was married to Abraham, born Nov. 17, 1772, baptised Nov. 23, 1772, son of Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman, of Greenwich. Abraham and Mary C. (Carpenter) Beidelman established their home near Green's Bridge, Phillipsburg, N. J., where the old stone house which was their home is still standing (1915), and is occupied by Mrs. William Draney, a daughter of John, Jr., and Susanna (Wagner) Howell, (see Beidelman—Wagner later). Abraham Beidelman was a tanner and a merchant miller. He was affiliated with the St. James (Straw) Lutheran Church and in 1807 his wife was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Greenwich. He served as a member of the Assembly in the New Jersey Legislature in 1816–17. He died Feb. 21, 1843. His wife, Mrs. Mary C. (Carpenter) Beidelman, died Aug. 11, 1821. They are buried in the Beidelman plot in St. James Lutheran Cemetery in Greenwich, N. J., near Phillipsburg. The children of Abraham and Mary C. (Carpenter) Beidelman were: 1, Margaret, born Dec. 11, 1795, died May 11, 1870; 2, Valentine, born April 21, 1800, baptised April 25, 1800, died March 26, 1825, married to Mary ———, whose daughter, Anna Maria, born Feb. 28, 1820, was baptised April 28, 1821, Abraham and Mary Beidelman, sponsors.

THE BEIDELMAN* FAMILY

II. (1). Valentine Beidelman, born in 1735, died Nov. 25, 1804, the eldest son of I. "Elias Beutelman (Beidelman) in Springfield," (probably Bucks Co., Pa.), was married, Dec. 5, 1758, (Bib.—23) to Maria Barbara, born March 4, 1739, died Oct. 28, 1812, daughter of Johannes George and Maria Barbara Raub, of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., (Family No. 947—Raub). Valentine Beidelman is said to have settled at what is now Phillipsburg, N. J., as early as 1770, and owned two early grist mills there. One of these was near the site of the R. K. Shimer Mill.

*Leonard Beidelman of Bethlehem Township, Northampton Co., Pa., was born in 1741 and died March 18, 1819. He was married to Elizabeth ———, born in Dec., 1740, died March 13, 1819. His will, made in Bethlehem, Dec. 4, 1816, was probated at Easton, Pa., March 20, 1819, and names his wife, Elizabeth, his brothers Hephams, Valentine, Jacob, David, Elias, his sister Elizabeth, and his sister Gertrude, wife of Isaac Rothrock. A Jacob Beitelman and his wife, Susannah, of Williams Township, had a daughter Elizabeth, born July 18, 1748, who was baptised July 24, 1748. (Bib.—23.) An Abraham Beidelman of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., made his will June 16, 1852, and it was probated Sept. 28, 1857. It names his wife, Catharine, and his children, Jonas, John, Abraham, Jr., Daniel, Elizabeth, Catherine, Susan, Lydia, and Ann Maria.

(Bib.-192.) The latter of these mills doubtless stood on the 23 acre parcel of land which Valentine Beidelman bought, after 1795, from John and Christiana (Van Over) Sharps, (see Family No. 988—Sharps). In 1772 Valentine Beidelman was one of the signers of the Articles of Faith in the St. James (Straw) Lutheran Church, near Phillipsburg, N. J. In 1791-2 he was a member of the Council in the New Jersey Legislature. His will, made Nov. 22, 1804, was probated at Newton, N. J., Dec. 24, 1804. It names all of the children in the following list. He and his wife are buried in the St. James (Straw) Cemetery, near Phillipsburg. The children of Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman were: 1, Elias, born Feb. 21, 1760, died Oct. 24, 1824; 2, Elizabeth, married to Christopher Reynolds, deceased in 1804, whose four children, Catharine, Mary, Elizabeth and George Reynolds, are named in the will of Valentine Beidelman; 3, Colonel George, born Dec. 6, 1765, died July 7, 1817; 4, Abraham, born Nov. 19, 1772, died Feb. 21, 1843, married to Mary C., daughter of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, (see above); 5, Rosanna, born Feb. 26, 1775, died Aug. 9, 1848; 6, Henry, born July 1, 1777, died Nov. 10, 1818; 7, Catharine, born Jan. 16, 1783, baptised Jan. 26, 1783, married to J. F. Ernst.

Valentine Beidelman of Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., bought, April 23, 1795, from Evan Owens and his wife, Jane, of Berwick, Northumberland Co., Pa., 162 acres of land in "Berwick Township," situated on the northeast branch of the Susquehanna River, and beginning at a corner of lands surveyed for Frances Stewart, late the property of James McClure, deceased. This farm was bounded by lands of McClure, Henry Allshouse and Mordecai Owens, and the signing of the deed was witnessed by Samuel Jackson and David Owen. Patented to Henry Allshouse, April 24, 1773, the land was sold to Evan Owens, Nov. 10, 1794. Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman sold it, April 18, 1803, to John Kinney. Sept. 26, 1803, Valentine Beidelman bought from Peter Huffman and his wife, Anna, of Bloom Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., a certain tract of land in Wyoming Township, near the Bloom Township line. This farm was part of three tracts of land: (1), a tract of 191 acres patented to Evan Owens, July 7, 1785, called Summer Hill, in Wyoming Township, which was sold Jan. 30, 1790, to Samuel Lee; (2), a tract of land described as a large tract, granted March 16, 1774, to George Miller, also in Wyoming Township, near Bloom Township, which was sold April 5, 1779, by George and Margaret Miller, his wife, to Peter Mealick (Family No. 1531—Melick), and was sold again Nov. 24, 1779, by Peter and Mary Mealick to Judah Bone, by whose administrators Thomas Charrington and Thomas Lee, it was sold Sept. 4, 1788, to Samuel Lee; (3), a tract of land in Wyoming Township called Leesburg, patented Nov. 11, 1789, to Samuel Lee and sold, May 20, 1797, by Samuel Lee and his wife, Margaret, to Joseph Long, whose administrators, John Long and Joseph Drake, Aug. 15, 1803, sold 91 acres to William McCarty, who, Sept. 17, 1803, with his wife, Elizabeth, sold it to Peter Huffman. This Wyoming Township farm Valentine Beidelman bequeathed to his son, Elias, and his grandsons, George and Valentine Beidelman, sons of Elias.

III. (1). Elias, son of Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman, was born Feb. 21, 1760, and died Oct. 24, 1824. He was married, Oct. 7, 1781, to Maria Guiney, born Sept. 10, 1760, died Nov. 24, 1820. They are buried in Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa. Previous to 1804 Elias Beidelman removed from Greenwich, N. J., to Bloom Township, now Columbia Co., Pa. Some of the children of Elias and Maria (Guiney) Beidelman were, (order of birth not certain): 1. Maria, born June 10, 1784, baptised July 15, 1784; 2, John George, born Sept. 12, 1786, baptised Oct. 15, 1786, died Oct. 5, 1840, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), married to Hannah Deemer, born May 10, 1795, died Feb. 21, 1884, some of whose children were: (1), Catharine Jane, born 1820, died 1912, married to Jacob K. Edgar, born 1816, died 1894; (2), Elisha B., married to Sophia Kurts, whose son, Deemer, born May 7, 1858, a printer by trade, lives in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and has been, for many years, a leader in Sunday School work; (3), a daughter, married to William Whitenight, who had a daughter, Hanna Rebecca Whitenight; (4), probably Deemer, born 1828, died 1906, married to Emily Whipple, born 1830, died 1905, (Sunny Side Cemetery, Tunkhannock, Pa.); 3. Margaret, born May 13, 1789, baptised June 21, 1789; 4, Rosanna, died July 11, 1858, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), married to Peter Van Atta,* born May 4, 1798, died Sept. 6, 1853; 5, Valentine,

*Peter Van Atta, Sr., (Van Natter), born May 31, 1768, died Aug. 2, 1831, and his wife Catharine, born in 1769, died March 10, 1853, are buried in Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa. He owned a 260 acre farm in Bloom Township, now Columbia Co., Pa., which five of his six heirs

III. (3). Colonel George Beidelman, son of Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman, was born Dec. 23, 1765, and died July 7, 1817. He was a merchant miller and owner of valuable real estate near the site of Phillipsburg, N. J. He served as Sheriff of Sussex Co., N. J., in 1800 and in 1805 was a member of the Council in the New Jersey Legislature. In 1810 he served as a member of the Assembly. With his wife, Elizabeth, born in Dec., 1767, died Nov. 12, 1855, he is buried in the Beidelman plot in St. James Cemetery, near Phillipsburg, N. J. Some of the children of George and Elizabeth Beidelman were, (order of birth uncertain); 1, Sarah, married, March 29, 1816, to Henry, son of Cornelius and Catharine (Kennedy) Cortright, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., (Family No. 35—Cortright); 2, Anna, born May 5, 1791, baptised Sept. 25, 1791; 3, Valentine, born Sept. 21, 1793; 4, Johannes, born Aug. 27, 1796, baptised April 23, 1797; 5, Mary, married, March 18, 1828, to William Pursell; 6, William A., born 1802, died 1843, married, Feb. 18, 1819, to Hannah Roseberry, born 1800, died 1890.

III. (5). Rosanna, daughter of Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman, was born Feb. 26, 1775, and died Aug. 9, 1848. She was married to David, Jr., born in Oct., 1770, died March 19, 1854, son of David, born in Silesia, Germany, May 24, 1736, died in Easton, Pa., May 9, 1796, and Susanna (Umsted) Wagner, born in Silesia, Germany, Feb. 2, 1834, died in Easton, Pa., April, 1815. All the above named persons are buried in the beautiful Easton, Pa., Cemetery, located on the David Wagner farm. Some of the children of David, Jr., and Rosanna (Beidelman) Wagner were: 1, Mary, born Feb. 9, 1797, died March 14, 1865, married to Joseph Herster; 2, Henry, born Oct. 13, 1798, died Jan. 18, 1841; 3, Valentine, born Oct. 27, 1804, died Sept. 2, 1836; 4, David, Jr., born Oct. 25, 1805 (?), died Oct. 4, 1808; 5, Susanna, born Jan. 15, 1807, died April 20, 1840, married to John Howell, Jr.; 6, Elizabeth, born 1809, died July 13, 1881, married to William Ricker, born 1811, died March 19, 1894; 7, Sabina, born May 30, 1811, died Jan. 27, 1868; 8, William, born Dec. 30, 1813, died Sept. 14, 1850.

III. (6). Henry, son of Valentine and Maria Barbara (Raub) Beidelman, was born July 1, 1777, and died Feb. 21, 1843. He was married, April 28, 1806, to Mary, born 1778, died Aug. 7, 1840, probably daughter of Jacob and Dorcas Fries, born 1745, died April 21, 1819, (St. James Cemetery, Beidelman plot), and some of their children were: 1, Catharine, born Nov. 25, 1806, baptised Dec. 26, 1806, married to Charles I. Ihrrie; 2, Elizabeth, born April 17, 1809, died Feb. 11, 1831, married to William Green; 3, Abraham, born Feb. 23, 1811, died Aug. 18, 1829; 4, Maria, married to James B. Staples, living in Mobile, Ala., in 1840; 5, Henry E.

MARGARET (BEIDELMAN) STEWART; FAMILIES NOS. 1254 (1253)

Margaret, daughter of Abraham and Mary C. (Carpenter) Beidelman, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Dec. 11, 1795. Her name appears in a list of the students of the Wilkes-Barre Academy in 1809, (Bib.-5) and she probably lived for a time with her aunt, Mrs. John Penn Arndt, (Family No. 1339), in order that she might attend that famous school. She was married, Jan. 21, 1813, to William, born Sept. 20, 1786, died May 7, 1851, son of Lieutenant Thomas and Rachel (Deweese) Stewart, (Stewart family later), and their children were: 1, Valentine Beidelman, born Nov. 4, 1813, died Jan. 19, 1887; 2, Abraham Beidelman, born Nov. 21, 1814, died July 7, 1888; 3, Jesse, born Dec. 14, 1815; 4, Elizabeth Arndt, born May 4, contracted, in Nov., 1831, to sell to Valentine Beidelman, son of Elias Beidelman. The children of Peter and Catharine Van Atta were: 1, Samuel, deceased in 1833, leaving a wife, Rachel, and four children, Catharine, married to Joseph Long; George, John and Henry. (Bib.-321); 2, Peter J., born May 4, 1798, died Sept. 6, 1853, married to Rosanna Beidelman; 3, probably Margaret, born Jan. 20, 1800, died Nov. 21, 1832, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), married to John Risewick, born Nov. 5, 1803, died May 21, 1849, (Rosemont Cemetery), two of whose sons were: (1), Jacob; (2), Peter, born May 7, 1829, died Jan. 22, 1872; 4, Elizabeth Van Atta; 5, probably a daughter, married to Valentine Beidelman.

1817, died Feb. 21, 1878; 5, William Dewees, born Sept. 11, 1819, died Nov. 10, 1888; 6, Thomas T., born April 30, 1824, died April 16, 1891; 7, John, born Jan. 14, 1827, died Aug. 4, 1850; 8, Mary Beidelman, born Aug. 27, 1829, died Nov. 30, 1901; 9, Charles Arndt, born April 10, 1832, died Nov. 17, 1904; 10, Margaret Beidelman, born June 10, 1834, died Dec. 6, 1877; 11, Lewis, born May 25, 1837, died March 23, 1839. The home of William and Margaret (Beidelman) Stewart was in Stewartsville, now Warren Co., N. J. His will was made March 5, 1864. He died May 7, 1871, in his 86th year. His wife died May 11, 1870. They are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich, N. J.

THE STEWART FAMILY

The ancestor of the Stewart* family in Greenwich, N. J., is said to have been born in Scotland, Nov. 11, 1691, and to have come to Bucks Co., Pa., in 1720. He died there leaving two sons, Charles and George.

II. (1). Charles Stewart, born in Scotland, May 9, 1714, died at Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa., June 11, 1789, leaving a son, III. Robert, who was born Jan. 9, 1732.

III. Robert, son of Charles Stewart, was born Jan. 9, 1732, and was married to Sarah ———, born in 1727, died April 28, 1794. They removed to Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., where Robert Stewart died July 22, 1809, in his 78th year. They are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery, in Greenwich. In the same cemetery there may be found, also, the grave of the widow, Rachel Stewart, born about 1731, died May 8, 1802, aed. 71 years. Some of the children of Robert and Sarah Stewart were: 1, Lieutenant Thomas, born March 9, 1752, in Bucks Co., Pa., died in Greenwich, N. J., Dec. 31, 1836; 2, Robert, born in 1759, died Oct. 28, 1809, married to Mary ———, born in 1767, died April 22, 1841, some of whose children were: (1), Robert, Jr., born in 1795, died Feb. 25, 1815; (2), Thomas G.; (3), William K.; (4), Sarah, born Oct. 26, 1801, died June 21, 1842, married to Jacob, son of Abraham and Ann (Hahn) Arndt, (Family No. 1339—Arndt); (5), Charles. The will of Mary, widow of Robert Stewart, made Dec. 19, 1840, names her four surviving children, also her grandchildren: Robert K. Stewart, Mary Isabella, the wife of John Strader, Margaret Ann Stewart, Samuel Beard Stewart, and her great-grandson, John Strader Johnson; 3, Margaret, born Feb. 4, 1759, died March 15, 1825, married to Thomas, born March 19, 1764, died Oct. 15, 1846, son of James and Jane (Maxwell) Kennedy, of Greenwich, N. J., some of whose children were: (1), James, married to Jane Clyde; (2), Sarah, married to Jane Kerr; (3), Jane, married to Alexander Innes, whose daughter, Mary Jane, born Oct. 2, 1825, died Dec. 19, 1882, was married to William, born May 2, 1819, died Sept. 29, 1885, son of Joseph B. Carpenter, (Family No. 1519); (4), Margaret, married to Adam Runkle; (5), Elizabeth, married to George Barber, (Family No. 1292—Barber); (6), Robert S., born Oct. 10, 1802, died March 20, 1879, a Lay Judge of the Warren Co., N. J., Courts and for two terms Lay Judge of the Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey. In 1850 served as a United States Marshal. He was married (1), Jan. 5, 1836, to Catharine S., daughter of John and Frances Strader, who died Jan. 21, 1868. Their children were: i, Thomas; ii, Mary; iii, Frances, married to Rev. James McWilliams; iv, Margaret Stewart, married to Rev. Charles T. Kellogg; v, John S.; vi, Henry Martyn; vii, Sarah Louisa, born Oct. 11, 1833, died Aug. 7, 1870, married to Samuel D. Carpenter, (Family No. 1529); viii, James S.; ix, Robert D. Robert S. Kennedy was married (2), Aug. 19, 1869, to Emma Melick. He died March 20, 1879; 4, Sarah, born 1762, died Feb. 7, 1841, married to William, son of James and Jane (Maxwell) Kennedy.

James Kennedy, who was married to Jane, daughter of John and Ann Maxwell,†

*A Thomas Stewart of Tinicum Township, Bucks Co., Pa., made his will Dec. 10, 1749, and it was probated, at Doylestown, Pa., March 22, 1749, (so recorded). It names his wife, Jean, Jean Wiggton, his granddaughter, Martha, daughter of his son, John Stewart, and his children as follows: Samuel, Robert, Thomas, William, Lilley, Jean and Elizabeth.

†John Maxwell, born about 1701, died Aug. 19, 1786, aed. 85 years, probably came to America from County Tyrone, Ireland. He was married to Ann ———, born about 1712, died May 15, 1790, aed. 78 years. They settled in Morris, later Sussex Co., N. J., and are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich, N. J. March 27, 1771, John Maxwell bought from Mary Mas-was probably a brother of Robert Kennedy, born March 28, 1732, died April 13, 1812, (Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich, N. J.), and they were doubtless sons of William, born in Londonderry, Ireland, in 1695, and Mary (Henderson) Kennedy, who settled, about 1730, in what was later Sussex Co., N. J. Four of the children of James and Jane (Maxwell) Kennedy were: (1), Thomas, born March 19, 1764, died Oct. 15, 1846, married to Margaret Stewart, (see above); (2), William, born Jan. 17, 1766, died May 29, 1851, married to Sarah, daughter of Robert and Sarah Stewart, some of whose children were: (1), Robert S., born Nov. 11, 1788, died Aug. 20, 1798; (2), Jane, married to Joseph Kerr; (3), James J., married to Margaret Cowell; (4), William M., born Sept. 23, 1795, died Sept. 25, 1839, married to Maria C. Kerr, born 1788, died March 28, 1851; (5), Stewart, married to Ann Ferguson; (6), Thomas, married to Jane C. Green; (7), Phineas B., married to Priscilla Kerr; (8), Sarah, married to George S. Green; 3, probably Maxwell Kennedy, married to Margaret, daughter of Lieutenant Robert and Eleanor (Sloan) Maxwell; 4, probably Ann, married to Phineas Barber, (Family No. 1292—Barber).

IV. (1). Lieutenant Thomas Stewart, son of Robert and Sarah Stewart, was born in Bucks Co., Pa., March 9, 1752, and died in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Dec. 31, 1836. In 1775 he enlisted in the Bucks Co., Pa., Militia and, May 10, 1780, was Lieutenant of Captain Jacob Shoup's Company, the Fourth of the Second Battalion, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel John Keller. May 12, 1783, he was Lieutenant in the Third Battalion of the same troops under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Robert Robinson. He was married, about 1778, to Rachel Farmer, born about 1760, died Aug. 27, 1815, daughter of William and Rachel (Farmer)

ters of Philadelphia, 560 acres of land in Greenwich. and at the time of his death lived on part of this land. In his will, made in Sept., 1784, he bequeathed the homestead to his wife, Ann, and, after her death, to his sons, William, John and Robert Maxwell. John and Robert Maxwell sold it to their brother, William, Aug. 10, 1795, and 159 acres of the homestead was sold by James Hyndshaw and Peter Sharps, executors of the will of William Maxwell, to Baltzer Carpenter, (Family No. 1252) April 1, 1797. In 1797 the Maxwell homestead farm was bounded by lands of John Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Abraham Arndt and Valentine Beidelman, and by the Delaware River. It was sold April 4, 1812, by Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter to Samuel Stewart for $6,360. Some of the children of John and Anna Maxwell were: 1, Brigadier General William Maxwell, born in 1734, died Nov. 4, 1796, (see later); 2, Jane, married to James Kennedy; 3, Captain John Maxwell, born Nov. 25, 1739, died Feb. 13, 1829, (see later); 4, Lieutenant Robert Maxwell, born 1745, died Sept. 26, 1798, (see later).

II. (1). Brigadier General William Maxwell, son of John and Anna Maxwell, was born in 1734 and died Nov. 4, 1796. He attained the rank of Colonel in the French and Indian War, having enlisted in the Provincial Troops and served under General Braddock and with General Wolfe, at the taking of Quebec. He was later attached to the Commissary Department, with the rank of Colonel and was stationed at Mackinaw. He resigned his commission in the British Army and returning to Trenton tendered his services to the Provincial Congress. He was commissioned Colonel, and authorized to raise a regiment for the taking of Quebec. He was Colonel of the First Regiment, Sussex Co. Militia, and was later commissioned Brigadier General in the Continental Army. He was assigned to the command of the First Brigade of Major General John Sullivan's Army, which crushed forever the power of Indian warfare in the east. In 1775 he was a member of the Sussex Co., N. J., Committee of Safety and served as chairman of an important meeting held Aug. 10-11, 1775. He was also a Deputy from Sussex Co., N. J., to the Provincial Congress, in 1775. (Bib.-187.) His will, naming neither wife nor child, was made June 4, 1794, was probated Dec. 6, 1796, and is filed in the office of the Secretary of State at Trenton, N. J. It names George, Nancy, Polly and William, children of his brother, John; and John, Polly, Ann and William, children of his brother, Robert. It also names Peggy Wilson, daughter of the Widow Martha Wilson, and Thomas M. and John Kennedy, who are described as neighbors. General William Maxwell is buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery in Greenwich, N. J. The marble slab which shelters his grave bears an inscription, written, it is said, by his friend, Governor Howell, of New Jersey, which voices a high tribute to the memory of General Maxwell.

II. (3). Captain John Maxwell, son of John and Anna Maxwell, was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, Nov. 25, 1739, and came, with his parents, at an early age, to America. He served as Lieutenant in the Sussex Co. Militia, and later as Captain of the Second Company, Hunterdon Co., N. J., Militia. He raised a company of 100 volunteers in 1777 and with them joined the Continental Army under General Washington. He took part in the battles of Trenton, Princeton, Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth and Springfield. Captain John Maxwell was married to Mary Anna Clifford, born in 1745, died June 9, 1804, in her 60th year, and some of their children were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, George Clifford, married to Rachel Bryan; 2, Elizabeth, born 1770, died April 24, 1789, married to Thomas Williams; 3, Anne (Nancy), married to Samuel Sherrerd; 4, Polly; 5, John, Jr., born April, 1783, died Feb. 19, 1787; 6, William, married to Sarah Dusenberry. Captain John Maxwell and his wife, together with some of their children, are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich, N. J.

II. (4). Lieutenant Robert Maxwell, son of John and Anna Maxwell, was born in 1745, and died Sept. 26, 1798. He served as Lieutenant in Captain John Maxwell's Company in the Second Regiment, Hunterdon Co., N. J., Militia, in the War of the American Revolution. He was married to Eleanor Sloan, born in 1751, died June 29, 1800, in her 50th year, and some of their children were: 1, John S., born May 29, 1776, died April 3, 1852, married to Mary ———, born April 13, 1788, died Jan. 26, 1834; 2, Margaret, married to Maxwell Kennedy; 3, Polly; 4, Ann; 5, William. Lieutenant Maxwell is buried with his wife and some of their children in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich, N. J.

Deweese.* They settled first in Bucks Co., Pa., where, in 1790, Thomas Stewart had in family, himself, two males under 16, three females and two other free persons. About 1793 they removed to Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., where Thomas Stewart was for many years a Justice of the Peace. He and his wife are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery in Greenwich, N. J. Some of the children of Lieutenant Thomas and Rachel Farmer (De Wees) Stewart were: 1, Robert De Wees, born Nov. 5, 1779, died May 10, 1848, married to Sarah Carpenter, (Family No. 1461); 2, Rachel, born Nov. 3, 1781, died Dec. 6, 1810, married to Morgan Long, (Family No. 1441—Long); 3, Samuel T., born Feb. 26, 1784, died Dec. 2, 1848, married to Catharine Carpenter, (Family No. 1394); 4, William De Wees, born Sept. 20, 1786, died May 7, 1871, married to Margaret Beidelman, (Family No. 1254); 5, Thomas F., born Oct. 2, 1788, died in 1883, married to Catharine Reynale; 6, Sarah, born April 10, 1791, died July 4, 1830, married to Joseph A. He became an apprentice in the paper mill of William Rittinghouse, at Germantown, and about 1710, built another paper mill there. In 1704 he was Sheriff of Philadelphia Co. He was married to Anna Christina Meels (or Mehls), who died about 1749. He died March 3, 1745, and, with his wife, was buried in the Concord Burying Ground, Germantown. Some of the children of Wilhelm and Anna Christina (Meels) de Wees were: 1, Garrett, married to Agnes Streeper; 2, Christina Elizabeth, married, Feb. 2, 1726, to Henry Antes of Hanover Township; 3, Margaret, married to Peter Knorr; 4, William, Jr., (see later); 5, Henry, born 1716, married to Rachel ———; 6, Cornelius, married to Maria Philippina Boehm; 7, Mary; 8, Philip, who went to South Carolina in 1760 and died in 1778. The will of Wilhelm de Wees, made Nov. 22, 1744, and proved July 13, 1745, names all of the above children.

III. (4). William, Jr., son of Wilhelm and Anna Christina (Meels) de Wees, was born about 1712-14 and died in 1777. He was married to Rachel, daughter of Edward Farmer. He built a large stone house at Whitemarsh which was standing in 1874. He dealt extensively in real estate. (The name of William de Wees appears as warrantee on a large tract of land in Dallas Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., adjoining the Kingston line.) He was appointed and "commissionated," by the Provincial Council, Oct. 4, 1773, Sheriff of Philadelphia Co., with William Contes, Joseph Potts and Joseph Mathers on his bond, (Bib.-15) and Oct. 6, 1774, and Oct. 5, 1775, he was again appointed and "commissionated." Some of the children of William, Jr., and Rachel (Farmer) de Wees were: 1, Lieutenant Colonel William de Wees, born about 1740, died in Montgomery Co., Pa., in 1792, who served under General Wayne in the War of the American Revolution. In 1773 he bought from Joseph Potts of Philadelphia an undivided moiety of the Mount Joy Furnace (Valley Forge), in Chester Co., Pa., which, with his home, was destroyed by the British in 1777. He was married (1) to Sarah Potts, (see the Joseph Potts, Jr., Memorial) and their children were: (1), Rachel, married to Benjamin Bartholomew; (2), Hannah, married to Rev. Mr. Boggs. He was married (2), Nov. 15, 1769, to Sarah Waters, and their children were: (3), Waters, married to Anna Bull; (4), Thomas W.; (5), George; (6), William; (5), Anna; 2, Thomas, married to Hannah Potts. CHARLES ARNDT STEWART; FAMILIES NOS. 1305—(1254)

Charles Arndt, born at Stewartsville, N. J., April 10, 1832, son of William and Margaret (Beidelman) Stewart, was married, Sept. 11, 1866, to S. Jennie, born Jan. 8, 1846, daughter of Andrew and Halana (Sharps) Hulshizer, (see Family No. 1255—Hulshizer and Family No. 988—Sharps). Charles Arndt Stewart was a dentist by profession, but later became a photographer and salesman. They first established their home at Stewartsville, N. J., but afterward removed to Newark, N. J., where he died Nov. 17, 1904. Mrs. S. Jennie (Hulshizer) Stewart lives at 395 Sussex avenue, Newark, N. J. They had two children: (1), Cora Alice, born June 18, 1872, who was married, Nov. 25, 1896, (Family No. 1306), to Frank B., born at Port Jervis, N. Y., March 9, 1862, son of John Burton and Martha Elizabeth (Tuttle) Moses. Audit Clerk, Home Office, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, New York; (2), Carrie Adelaide, born June 30, 1876, who was married (Family No. 1307), March 29, 1898, to Archibald G., born July 22, 1875, son of Alcide G. and Cecile Grand Guillaume-Perrenoud Wetach, Assistant Clerk to the Grand Juries of Essex Co., N. MARGARET BEIDELMAN (STEWART) CARTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1308—(1254)

Margaret Beidelman, born at Stewartsville, N. J., June 10, 1834, daughter of William and Margaret (Beidelman) Stewart, was married, Dec. 30, 1856, to Joseph, born Nov. 14, 1833, died April 18, 1890, son of John and Christianna (Welch) Carter, (Family No. 1319—Welch). Their home was at Stewartsville, Warren Co., N. J., where she died Dec. 6, 1877. They had one son, Charles Stewart Carter, born Nov. 7, 1857, who was married (Family No. 1309), Oct. 27, 1891, to Frances Martin, daughter of Jacob and Hannah (Seal) Walton, and they have one daughter, Margaret Stewart Carter, born Nov. 19, 1893. Charles Stewart Carter is engaged in the Transfer and Express business and his home is at 311 North Second street, Newark, N. J.

VALENTINE BEIDELMAN; FAMILIES NOS. 1310—(1253)

Valentine, son of Abraham and Mary C. (Carpenter) Beidelman, was born April 21, 1800, and died March 26, 1825, (Straw Church Yard, Phillipsburg, N. J.). He was married to Mary ———, and had at least one daughter, Anna Maria, born Feb. 28, 1820, baptised April 28, 1821, died

Dec. 19, 1875, (Straw Church Yard), married to James H. Goff, (Families No. 1310—(2)).

ISAAC S. CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1311—(1252)

Isaac S., son of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., June 3, 1777, and was married, in Greenwich, to Elizabeth, born Feb. 2, 1782, died Sept. 17, 1853, daughter of John and Christiana (Van Over) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps). They established their home in Wilkes-Barre about 1803. He is described as of Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., April 11, 1803, when, with John P. Arndt, of Wilkes-Barre, he bought Wilkes-Barre Town Plot Lot No. 2 from Arnold and Lucinda Colt. Town Plot Lots Nos. 1, 2 and 3, Wilkes-Barre, comprise the block formed by River, South Franklin and Northampton streets. Lot No. 1, adjoining River and South streets, was drawn, in 1772, by Harris Colt and was owned in 1803 by Rosewell Wells and John Paul Schott, Lot No. 3 was drawn by Zebulon Butler, in 1772, and was owned, in 1803, by Lord Butler. Lot No. 2 containing three acres and ninety-nine perches, was drawn by Thomas Stephens in 1772, and sold by him to Elijah Loomis of Harrington, Conn. Elisha Swift, of Kingston, bought it Feb. 22, 1773, from Elijah Loomis. It was part of the estate of Christopher Avery, Feb. 4, 1789, when Solomon Avery, administrator, sold it to Jacob Fridly. Timothy Pickering and Cornelius Atherton signed this deed as witnesses. Jan. 7, 1792, Jacob and Elizabeth Fridly sold it to Thomas Wright. Lot No. 1 at that time was owned by the heirs of Jabez Sill and by John P. Schott. Thomas and Mary (Dyer) Wright sold Lot No. 2 to Arnold Colt, April 1, 1800. Isaac Carpenter apparently sold his interest in Lot 2, to John P. Arndt previous to 1807. In 1806 Isaac Carpenter was licensed as an innkeeper in Wilkes-Barre. He probably kept the inn known as the Arndt Tavern or an inn which stood on Lot No. 2, (John P. Arndt was living in Philadelphia in 1805–6.) At about this time he bought at least one acre of Town Plot Lot No. 20, Wilkes-Barre, situated at the corner of Public Square and North Main street, part of which is now (1919) occupied by the Bennet building. This lot was drawn, in 1772, by Daniel Gore. A patent covering one acre of this lot was granted to Isaac Carpenter June 8, 1810. In 1807 Isaac Carpenter was assessed, in Wilkes-Barre, $100.00 on his trade as a hatter and $1,400.00 on his house. He apparently worked, at that time, at his trade. April 24, 1811, he sold 28 perches of Lot No. 20 to Daniel Collings, a clockmaker, which Daniel Collings sold, March 11, 1812, to Benjamin Drake, a merchant, and which Benjamin Drake and his wife, Susanna, sold, Nov. 22, 1813, to Mrs. Parthena (Atherton) Gordon, (Family No. 992—Atherton). Isaac Carpenter also sold part of this lot to Benjamin Drake, merchant, and April 24, he sold 32 perches of it, with 66 feet frontage on the Square, to Barnet Ulp, a hatter. The adjoining lot was described as "Now or later the property of Clark Beebe. Feb. 5, 1812, Isaac Carpenter sold to Jonathan Hancock, who, in 1807, was assessed as Postmaster and an innkeeper in Wilkes-Barre, (Family No. 948—Hancock), part of Lot 20 with a frontage of 99 feet on Main street and 14 perches frontage on Central Square, excepting the lands he had sold to Messrs. Collings, Drake and Ulp. In this deed the property is described as "Carpenter's Hall," but whether this name was given to the plot as a patent name or was applied to the property, as a whole, on account of a building standing upon it, the present writer is unable to determine. Feb. 5, 1810, Lawrence Myers, of Kingston, agreed, for a consideration of $11,600, to make a deed conveying to Isaac Carpenter and John P. Arndt 64 acres of land in Plymouth Township and 234 acres in Kingston; 55 acres of the Plymouth lands were described as the "Rural Felicity" patent and 150 acres of the Kingston lands were described as the "Myers' Delight" patent. This latter tract was the Lawrence Myers homestead, (Family No. 1313—Myers). In the agreement about eight acres were reserved "Lying on the south of the northwest side of the road through Kingston and Plymouth, beginning two feet west of the fence separating the dwelling house and barn on the aforesaid road. The reservation extended in a line parallel with the lines of the lot to a point back of the orchard. The deed was subsequently executed by Sarah, widow of Lawrence Myers, and Benjamin Bidlack, her second husband. Isaac Carpenter and John P. Arndt executed an agreement to make a deed conveying to Benjamin and Sarah Bidlack 35 acres of Lot 3, Third Division, Kingston, 10 acres of the back part of Lots 3 and 4, Kingston, and 27 acres, on the north bank of Island Creek, in Plymouth. In 1809 Isaac Carpenter was Tax Collector in Wilkes-Barre and in 1814 he was assessed as a farmer in Kingston. Oct. 26, 1810, he advertised for sale the "Hotel at the northwest corner of the Public Square, (Wilkes-Barre), occupied by Eliphalet Buckley as a tavern." This advertisement was dated Kingston, Oct. 1, 1810, and referred to the property sold, Feb. 6, 1812, to Jonathan Hancock. Aug. 19, 1814, Isaac Carpenter and Joshua Pettebone published the following notice in the Gleaner:

"Notice is hereby given to the Troop of Horse, formerly belonging to the 35th Regiment, Pa. Militia, to meet at the house of Naphtali Hurlbut in Kingston on the 28th instant, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, to ascertain whether they will be able to have the company organized. N. B. All well wishers of the company are particularly desired to be present."

Nov. 14, 1828, Isaac and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter released to John Sharps, of Greenwich, N. J., father of Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, for a consideration of $2,660, all their interest in his estate, and, Oct. 2, 1829, John and Jamima Sharps of Greenwich, N. J., agreed to sell to Isaac Carpenter 79 acres of Lot 17, Third Division, Kingston, and 45 acres of Lot 18 of the same division, which John Sharps bought, May 1 1824, from Jacob and Elizabeth Somers, of Germantown, Pa. Jesse Barber, William Kennedy, Jacob Sharps and James C. Helme signed the Sharps-Carpenter deed as witnesses and the signatures were attested, before James B. Coleman, Justice of the Peace. Lot 17 is described as situated along the main road through Kingston to Swetland's Mills, (now Bennet street), and the portion of 17 owned by John Sharps adjoined the John Bennet homestead lot (corner Wyoming avenue and Bennet street) on the north. The Isaac Carpenter house, in what is now Luzerne Borough, was burned in 1892-3. April 7, 1840, Isaac Carpenter sold this property to his son, John Sharps Carpenter, who sold it to his brother, Balser Carpenter. Isaac S. Carpenter removed from Kingston Township to Exeter Township, and lived the remainder of his life in a house, still standing, on the corner of Luzerne avenue and Tunkhannock street, West Pittston, Pa., where he died Feb. 23, 1854. His wife, Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, died Sept. 17, 1852. They are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. He was a member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M.,* Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and was initiated Nov. 18, 1805. The children of Isaac S. and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter were: 1, Christiana, born in 1804, died Aug. 7, 1840; 2, Balser, born May 19, 1807, and died March 10, 1849; 3, John Sharps, born Aug. 11, 1812, died Dec. 9, 1898; 4, Lucinda G., born Aug. 26, 1817, died Jan. 28, 1862.

CHRISTIANA (CARPENTER) HELME; FAMILIES NOS. 1312
(1311)

Christiana, daughter of Isaac S. and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, was born in 1804, and died Aug. 7, 1840. She was married, Sept. 14, 1824, to James Coon, born July 6, 1802, (family record), died Feb. 12, 1855, aed. 55 years, 9 months, 6 days, (tombstone inscription), son of Major Oliver and Cynthia Helme, of Kingston, Pa. Their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born Aug. 26, 1823, died, not married, May 1, 1871; 2, Oliver, born June 25, 1828, died in Pueblo, Mexico, July 25, 1848; 3, Mary, born Aug. 7, 1830, died Nov. 10, 1844.

THE HELME FAMILY (HELM)

Major Oliver Helme was born in Kingstown, R. I., Oct. 12, 1770, and doubtless came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Ballston, Saratoga, Co., N. Y. He is described as of Ballston, in a deed of March 6, 1747 by which Zerah Beach,† also of Ballston, conveyed to him, for a consideration of $100, one-half of one-half of a right of land in the Susquehanna Purchase, which John Orton, the original owner, sold to Asahel Buck. The lot situated on Bowman's Creek, Westmoreland, Conn.,

*See History of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, for interesting sketch of Town Plot Lot No. 20, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., pp. 385 and 526.

†Zerah Beach, Esq., was at Wyoming at the time the battle of Wyoming was fought, July 3, 1778, and his name appears in the list of the survivors of the battle. According to the statement of Colonel John Franklin the terms of capitulation, July 4, 1778, were committed to writing by Zerah Beach. With Colonel Nathan Dennison and Dr. Lemuel Gustin he also signed the terms. (See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, pp. 1031-4.) Zerah Beach lived in Amenia Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Sept. 8, 1787, and his sons, Zerah Beach, Jr., and Miles Beach signed, as witnesses, the deed, Beach to Helm referred to above. In 1790 Zerah Beach, living in Amenia, N. Y., had in family, living at home, himself, two males under 16 and six females, and, at that time, according to Smith (Bib.-161) was engaged in trade in South Amenia. He removed to Ballston, Saratoga Co., N. Y. He was married to Lucy Stevens (Bib.-179), and two of their sons were: Zerah, Jr., and Miles. Miles Beach was married, in 1807, to Cynthia, daughter of Captain John Warren, and granddaughter of Major Isaac Belknap, of Newburgh, N. Y. He was a merchant at Saratoga from 1809 to 1837, the year of his death. His widow, born in 1788, was living in 1874.

jurisdiction, was surveyed Nov. 6, 1777. Asaher (Asahel) Buck sold it to Zerah Beach (before Feb. 23, 1779) and Sept. 8, 1787, Zerah Beach, then of Amenia Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y., sold it to John Coon of Luzerne Co., Pa. John Coon reconveyed the lot to Zerah Beach, who took possession of the First Division, on said one-half right. Oliver Helme had removed to Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne Co., Pa., before March 27, 1798, when he informed the public by a card in the Wilkes-Barre Gazette and Luzerne Advertiser that he was about to commence a chairmaking and house painting business in Wilkes-Barre. He apparently removed to Kingston, within a short time, and, in 1801, he was assessed there as the keeper of a tavern and the operator of a ferry. This was doubtless the Abel Yarrington Tavern and Ferry located in Kingston, adjoining the Plymouth line, and, in 1801, owned by Ebenezer Bowman, Esq. In 1814 he was also assessed as a ferryman. Dec. 28, 1801, he bought from Samuel Lucas a one-half interest in a sawmill on Dry Creek, so called, between "Darius Williams' and Asahel Drake's now dwelling houses, in Plymouth," with all the water privileges. In 1817 he bought from John and Susannah (Shupp) Pierce and Elihu and Elizabeth (Pierce) Parrish 14 acres of Lot 1, Kingston, adjoining the Plymouth line, and March 18, 1818, he bought from Nicholas Delaplain and his wife, Lydia, nine acres of land in Plymouth adjoining the Kingston line, which had been patented to Sarah Hoyt, late Sarah Grubb. In 1819-20 he was assessed as a chair and cabinetmaker in Kingston. This industry was maintained in the family for a number of years and was bought by Peter V. Wambold from Frank Helme. The old factory stood in the rear of the land now occupied by J. Winfield Marcy on Wyoming avenue in Kingston. In 1801-2 he was recommended for license as a tavern keeper in Kingston, also in 1813. In 1824 and 1826 he was a licensed tavernkeeper in Wilkes-Barre. Nov. 12, 1832, he bought from Henry Pettebone, for $952, 100 perches of Lot 4, Third Division, Kingston, bounded southeast on the road, southwest on lands formerly Henry Buckingham, northwest by lands of heirs of Lawrence Myers, northeast by lands of Elijah Loveland. This piece of land, on which the old Helm Tavern still stands, had been a tavern stand for a number of years before Oliver Helm bought it. Henry Myers kept a tavern in Kingston in 1801, probably at this place. It also appears probable that the following tavernkeepers were all dispensers of hospitality, etc., at this stand: Conrad Sax, in 1807; Naphtali Hurlbut, in 1809; Archippas Parrish, 1812, 1813; Naphtali Hurlbut, 1817, 1819, 1822, 1824. It was owned by William M. Hart of Plymouth, and occupied by Naphtali Hurlbut, Feb. 24, 1825, when he sold it to Naphtali Hurlbut. Aug. 11, 1831, it was sold upon the suit of William M. Hart versus Naphtali Hurlbut, by Oliver Helm, Sheriff, to Henry Pettebone, who sold it Nov. 12, 1832, to Oliver Helm. With his wife, Sarah (Pease) Helm, he sold it, Oct. 10, 1838, to James C. Helm, Powell Helm, and Patrick Aher. Powell Helm sold his interest to James C. Helm, Dec. 14, 1839, and in 1841 the latter was a licensed tavernkeeper. H. W. Nicholson bought the property, Aug. 8, 1846, at Sheriff's sale and Oct. 20, 1846, with his wife, Maria R., sold it to Frank Helm. The latter, Oct. 21, 1846, sold a one-half interest to William Craver. March 12, 1850, Frank Helm and William Craver bought additional lands from Thomas and Elizabeth C. Myers and, Dec. 1, 1857, they bought from Myron B. Helm and his wife, Mary C., part of Lot 4, on the southeast side of College street, adjoining lands of W. W. Kitchen; which he had bought March 12, 1850, from Thomas and Elizabeth C. Myers. Oct. 10, 1838, Oliver Helm had removed to Bridgewater, Susquehanna Co., Pa., but he returned, later, to the Wyoming Valley and died there April 17, 1851.

Major Oliver Helme was married (1) to Cynthia (perhaps Beach). She was born about 1779 and died Oct. 11, 1806, in her 28th year. Their children were: 1, Myron Beach (1), born Aug. 8, 1798, died March 18, 1823; 2, Sarah, born July 15, 1800, died Oct. 8, 1884, married to William C. Hagaman, born May 31, 1792, died April 19, 1861, (Trucksville, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery), whose son, Henry M., born June 9, 1819, died June 16, 1883, son James H., born April 13, 1839, died in Lincoln United States Hospital July 15, 1863, and daughter Mary C., born June 10, 1836, died Feb. 25, 1876, (Trucksville, Pa., Cemetery); 3, James Coon, born July 6, 1802, (see later); 4, Cynthia (Helme) Peabody, born June 20, 1804, died Jan. 17, 1852; 5, Oliver, Jr., born March 11, 1806, married (1), by Rev. Dr. George Peak, June 8, 1828, to Sarah, born Nov. 25, 1810, died April 5, 1839, daughter of Benjamin and Susanna Drake of Wilkes-Barre. Some of whose children were: (1), probably John F., married, Feb. 13, 1850, to Eliza Gruver; (2), Mary, born May 23, 1830, died Dec. 13, 1848; (3), Ellen D., born Aug. 27, 1832, died April 12, 1877, married, Dec. 31, 1857, at Wyoming, Pa., by Rev. Henry Brownscomb, to Joseph, born Jan. 22, 1818, died April 30, 1890, son of Ebenezer and Susanna (Adams) Marcy, (Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.). Oliver Helme, Jr., was married (2) to Hannah ———, and they lived in Wilkes-Barre, March 6, 1848, when they sold to James H. Phinney a farm in Abington, Pa. He was in the furniture business in 1842-46. Major Oliver Helme was married (2) to Sarah, born March 14, 1784, died Nov. 17, 1843, daughter of Samuel Pease,* of what is now known as Ashley, Luzerne Co., Pa., and their chil-

*Samuel Pease was, for many years a tavern keeper in Hanover Township, now Ashley, Pa. He was born, according to Mr. Plumb (Bib.-541), in Connecticut in 1760, and died at Ashley in 1846. He was married to Lydia, widow of Clement Daniel, before June 15, 1795, when, in Orphans' Court proceedings at Wilkes-Barre, a petition was presented reciting that Lydia, the widow of Clement Daniels, was then the wife of Samuel Pease, and that Clement Daniels had two children, (1), Salmon; (2), Luseney, married to Joel Downing, (see Downing later†). Five of the children of Samuel Pease were, (according to Mr. Plumb): 1, David, married to Hannah Preston; 2, Samuel, married to Prudence Biddle; 3, Sally or Sarah, born March 14, 1784, died Nov. 17, 1843, probably married (1), in April, 1801, to Thomas Fish, married (2) to Captain Oliver Helm; 4, Lydia, married, March 23, 1806, to George Eicke; 5, Margaret, married to Hebbard Preston.

†Jonathan Downing was one of the settlers at Wyoming, June 17, 1770, was at Wilkes-Barre in 1771, and, about April 30, 1772, drew First Division Meadow Lot No. 25, Second Division House Lot No. 22, Third Division Back Lot No. 46, and Fourth Division Lot No. 46. An Ichabod Downing at Wilkes-Barre, June 29, 1770, drew Second Division Lot No. 45, and these lots were situated in Wilkes-Barre Districts (see Bib.-1, pp. 662, 727). The name of I. Daniel Downing appears on the Westmoreland Tax List for Wilkes-Barre District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was an Ensign in the First Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, James Bidlack, Jr., Captain, and Asa Stevens, Lieutenant; was wounded in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and was one of eight survivors of that company. He was a Tax Collector in Wilkes-Barre in 1789. (Bib.-11.) Daniel Downing, born about 1739, died June 9, 1813, aed. 74 years, was buried in the old Wilkes-Barre Cemetery, and his body, together with those of several members of his family, was removed to the Wilkes-Barre City Cemetery. He was survived by his wife, Hannah, and ten children, all of whom were named in Orphans' Court proceedings at Wilkes-Barre. Eleven of the children of Daniel and Hannah Downing were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, Reuben, born Feb. 19, 1766, died Oct. 7, 1842, (see later); 2, Aaron; 3, Eli; 4, Daniel, Jr.; 5, John; 6, (probably) Levi, born 1777, died Jan. 18, 1798; 7, Joel, married to Luseney, daughter of Clement and Lydia Daniels, (see above), who, with his brother-in-law, Asa Stevens, Jr., bought, April 5, 1796, from Azor, Abijah, and Noah Sturdevant, Lot 27, Braintrim, 300 acres, of land assigned to Captain Dethick Hewitt's heirs; 8, Jesse, living in Wilkes-Barre, March 28, 1825, when, with Hannah, widow and relict of Daniel Downing, he sold lands in Wilkes-Barre to Joel Rogers; 9, Mary, married to Samuel Casson; 10, Esther, married to Asa, Jr., son of Asa and Sarah (Adams) Stevens, (see later); 11, Olive, married, in May, 1802, to John Rosencrans. A William Downing was married, in Dec., 1809, to Lydia Downing. Mrs. Hannah Downing, widow of Daniel Downing, was living March 28, 1825.

II. (1). Reuben, son of Daniel Downing, born Feb. 19, 1766, died Oct. 7, 1842, was married to Hannah Arnold, born March 2, 1774, died June 7, 1842, (Wilkes-Barre City Cemetery). Their children, named in Orphans' Court proceedings, at Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 7, 1843, were: 1, Bateman, born Jan. 11, 1795, died May 24, 1879, at Edgerton, Wis., married to Sarah, born Feb. 14, 1767, died April 24, 1864, (Hanover, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Benjamin, born 1763, died Aug. 3, 1830, and Marcy (Abbott) Carey, born 1760, died Aug. 10, 1843, (Hanover Cemetery). He was Treasurer of Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1850 and later removed to Wisconsin. Some of the children of Bateman and Sarah (Carey) Downing were: (1), Burton, born March 28, 1815, died April 8, 1841, married to Hannah, born July 30, 1818, died July 15, 1878, daughter of George and Margaret (Hartzel) Kreidler, (Family No. 1292—Barber-Stroh). Mrs. Hannah (Kreidler) Downing was married (2), May 4, 1844, to Reuben M., born Aug. 24, 1815, died March 18, 1872, son of Valentine, born Jan. 11, 1769, died Aug. 1, 1847, and Anna C. II. (10). Esther, daughter of Daniel Downing, was married to Asa, Jr., son of Asa and Sarah (Adams) Stevens, of Wilkes-Barre.

II. Asa Stevens, Sr., son of I. Jonathan Stevens, was born in Plainfield, Windham Co., Conn., in May, 1734, and was married, Oct. 1, 1761, to Sarah Adams, who was born, in Canterbury, Conn., Jan. 17, 1738. He came to the Wyoming Valley in 1771 and, after Sept. 24, 1771, was admitted an inhabitant of Wilkes-Barre.

Thomas Stevens was admitted an inhabitant of Wilkes-Barre at about the same time and, about April 30, 1772, Thomas Stephens drew Wilkes-Barre lots as follows: First Division No. 36, Second Division (Town Plot) No. 2, Third Division No. 28 and Fourth Division No. 13. According to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1) Thomas Stephens sold the Wilkes-Barre lots to Elijah Loomis of Harrington, Litchfield Co., Conn., who, Feb. 22, 1773, sold them to Elisha Swift of Kingston. A Thomas Stephens, born about 1758, a soldier of the War of the American Revolution, resided dren were: 6, Mary, born Aug. 27, 1808, married, May 19, 1841, to Hiram R. Pease; 7, Rev. Samuel Pease, born April 8, 1810; 8, Rhoda, born Jan. 2, 1812; 9, Powel C., born Dec. 25, 1813, died Feb. 1, 1869, (Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.), married to Clarissa, born June 22, 1817, died Jan. 14, 1898, daughter of Henry, born March 2, in Huntington Township and was a Federal pensioner in 1840. Thomas Stephens of Luzerne Co., Pa., had in family, living at home, in 1790, himself, three males under 16 and one female. (Bib.-10 and Bib.-14.) John Stephens, perhaps son of Uriah Stephens, Sr., (see Family No. 1313—Stephens) also drew, about April 30, 1772, the following lots in Wilkes-Barre: First Division 47, Second Division 25, Third Division 38, and Fourth Division 23. (Bib.-1.)

Asa Stephens, Sr., was Lieutenant of the First Company (Wilkes-Barre) of the 24th Regiment, Conn., Militia, and was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. In 1790 his widow, Mrs. Sarah (Adams) Stevens, was living in Wilkes-Barre and then had in family, living at home, herself, one male over 16, one male under 16 and one female. There is recorded at Wilkes-Barre an interesting deed executed by Sarah Stevens, widow of Asa Stevens; Jonathan Stevens and Sarah Stevens, which reads about as follows: Whereas, Phebe Phillips, now Phebe Thompson, of Wilkes-Barre, did as she says, in the year 1778, buy from Asa Stevens a five acre lot, No. 3, which the said Phebe now lives on, for which lot Phebe says she did receive a deed from Asa Stevens in her own name, for which she, the said Phebe, did, as we suppose, make full payment; And as Phebe says the deed is lost, with a number of other papers at the time of the Indian battle; And, as we suppose, the said deed was executed but a little time before the bloody battle, the deed is not recorded and is lost," we, the undersigned, being convinced of the above facts, to-wit, Sarah Stevens, widow of Asa, and Jonathan Stevens and Sarah Stevens, heirs of Asa Stevens, deceased, do, by these presents forever quit claim, etc. May 15, 1797, Asa Stevens, Jr., then of Braintrim, Luzerne Co., Pa., sold to Thomas Wright, later merchant, for $100, his interest in Lot No. 7 of the Town Plot in Wilkes-Barre. This lot on which the Hotel Sterling now stands, at the corner of River and West Market streets, was, according to Mr. Harvey, (Bib.-1) the homestead lot of Asa Stephens, Sr. The lot is described in the deed of May 15, 1797, as adjoining the lot of Anderson Dana and extending five perches along the street leading from Yarrington's Ferry to the Court House, thence running back thirteen perches. Also another lot "allotted to me by the consent of the rest of the heirs of my late father, Asa Stephens, at and after the decease of my late mother, Sarah, being a part of what was allotted to her for a dower." Mrs. Sarah (Adams) Stephens died before May 15, 1797. Some of the children of Asa and Sarah (Adams) Stephens were: 1, Asa, Jr., (see later); 2, Jonathan, served nearly three years in the War of the American Revolution, having enlisted at the age of 17 years, in the Company of Captain Samuel Williams in the Conn. service, and was in his later years a Federal pensioner, (Bib.-14). He was born in Canterbury, Conn., in July, 1764. He removed from Wilkes-Barre to Braintrim and, in 1805, to Wyalusing, now Bradford Co., Pa. From 1812 to June, 1850, his residence was at Standing Stone, now Bradford Co., Pa. He died in June, 1850. He was a Justice of the Peace in 1800, in 1811 was elected a Representative to the Pennsylvania Legislature, in 1814 was Deputy, and later County Surveyor for Bradford Co., and from May, 1818, until 1840 was an Associate Judge of that county. (Bib.-1.) Hon. Jonathan Stevens was married, in Brooklyn, Windham Co., Conn., Oct. 20, 1785, to Eleanor, daughter of Captain Abner, born 1735, died 1814, and Abigail (Hubbard) Adams. (Bib.-94.) His son, Simon, was married to Harriet Theresa Homet, and his son, Asa, was married to Phebe Vought; 3, Sarah, born Jan. 17, 1766, died Aug. 14, 1823, married, in 1786, to Anderson Dana, Jr., (see later); 4, Lucy, (Bib.-94) or Abigail, married to Josiah Fasset, born Aug. 10, 1761, died Aug. 20, 1823, whose heirs, named in Orphans' Court proceedings at Wilkes-Barre, in Nov., 1823, were: His widow, Abigail, born March 11, 1771, died 1844, (second wife?), and the following children: (1), Jasper; (2), Sally, married to John Sturdevant; (3), John, married to Sally Ann Heverly, (Bib.-94); (4), Josiah, Jr.; (5), Fanny, married to Royal Robinson; (6), Hannah; (7), Lucy; (8), James, the last three minors; 5, Simeon, born after 1770 and before April 17, 1776, married to Jamima Young, resided in Braintrim, Luzerne Co., Pa., April 17, 1797, when he sold his interest in Town Plot Lot 7, Wilkes-Barre, to Thomas Wright; 6, Mary, born in May, 1778, died Nov. 16, 1860, married, in Oct., 1801, to Eleazer, son of Anderson and Susanna (Huntington) Dana.

III. (1). Asa, Jr., son of Asa and Sarah (Adams) Stevens, was married to Esther, daughter of Daniel Downing, and removed from Wilkes-Barre to Braintrim Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa. With his brother-in-law, Joel Downing, he bought from Noah, Abijah and Azor Sturdevant, sons of James Sturdevant, Lot No. 27, Braintrim, 300 acres, "including the mouth of Sugar Creek," which had been allotted to the heirs of Captain Dethick Hewitt, (Family No. 993—Searl). He evidently established his home on Lot 27. His will, dated at Windham, March 8, 1846, and probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., March 1, 1847, describes the homestead as situated on Lot 27, Braintrim, "On the road between Mehoopany and Towanda." His will names his wife, Esther, and his three sons, Damon, Myron and Martin. Some of the children of Asa and Esther (Downing) Stevens were: 1, Damon, born in 1799, died in 1884, married to Cynthia Taylor, born 1803, died 1861, lived in Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., and with their two daughters, Affa, born 1834, died 1908, and Agatha, born 1838, died 1868, buried in the Harding Cemetery, Eatonville, Pa.; 2, Myron, married to Polly Robinson; 3, Morton; 4, Abigail, married to Ebenezer, Jr., born Jan. 31, 1802, died April 14, 1868, (Clark Cemetery, Orcutt's, Pa.), son of Captain Ebenezer and Martha (Williams) Parrish, (Family No. 994—Williams, No. 994—Parrish); 5, a daughter, married to John A. Allen. (Bib.-56.)

III. Sarah, born Jan. 17, 1716, died Aug. 14, 1833, daughter of Asa and Sarah (Adams) Stevens, was married, in 1786, to Anderson, Jr., son of Anderson and Susanna (Huntington) Dana.

I. Richard Dana, born April 15, 1612, died at Cambridge, Mass., April 2, 1690, and his wife, Ann (Bullard) Dana, had twelve children, of whom their third son was Jacob.

II. (4). Jacob, fourth child and third son of Richard and Ann (Bullard) Dana, was born at Cambridge, Dec. 2, 1654, and was married to Patience ———. Their third son, Jacob, Jr., was born in 1698.

III. (7). Jacob, Jr., seventh child and third son of Jacob and Patience Dana, was born

1783, died March 25, 1861, and Elizabeth Lampman, born Oct. 16, 1784, died July 8, 1851, (Marcy Cemetery, Duryea, Pa.); 10, John Fowler, born Oct. 10, 1815, died April 15, 1829; 11, Frank, born Aug. 7, 1816, died June 6, 1897, married to Eliza Perigo, born 1820, died 1877; 12, Eunice Gruman, born April 27, 1818, married, Sept. 30, in 1698, and was married, about 1722, to Abigail ———. They lived at Pomfret, Conn., and removed to Ashford. tavern house, a two-story frame store house and a frame barn and shed. In 1841 James C. Helme was assessed in Kingston as the owner of a tavern, lot and shop. June 26, 1844, he bought from Caleb and Ann Atherton, of Plymouth, part of Lot No. 1, of the Lower Tier of House Lots in Plymouth, 98 perches of land. The survey is described as beginning at a corner adjoining lands of Chauncey A. Reynolds. The deed also conveyed the right to the full and exclusive privilege to use and control the stream of water running through said land (Whittlesey-Wadham's Creek) for the use of the tannery on the same, as well as to build artificial dams on the adjoining lot without any hindrance by said Caleb Atherton. This land was part of a larger tract conveyed by Moses and Ruth Atherton, July 11, 1836, to Caleb Atherton (Family No. 992—Atherton) and was a part of the estate of Samuel Roberts, Sr., of Plymouth, sold to Moses Atherton by Benjamin Roberts, (Family No. 988—Roberts).

James C. Helme was married (1), Sept. 14, 1824, to Christiana, born Aug. 8, 1804, died Aug. 7, 1840, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, and their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born Aug. 26, 1823, died, not married, May 1, 1871; 2, Oliver, born June 25, 1828, died in Pueblo, Mexico, July 25, 1848; 3, Mary, born Aug. 7, 1830, died Nov. 10, 1844. He was married (2), Nov. 4, 1841, to Azuba L. Gunn, born in Washington Township, Litchfield Co., Conn., July 24, 1810, died May 3, 1845, (City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), and their children were: 4, Alberther, born Aug. 7, 1842; 5, Henry, born Sept. 18, 1843, died Jan. 17, 1844, (City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre); 6, Ellen Scranton, born March 23, 1845; 7, Sarah, married to Joseph Greason. He was married (3), Oct. 9, 1845, to Fanny C. (Williams) Blanchard, born Aug. 19, 1800, died July 15, 1867, (Williams plot, Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Robertson) Williams, and widow of Jeremiah (3d), son of Jeremiah, Jr., and Martha (Hutchins) Blanchard, (Family No. 33—Williams, No. 33—Blanchard). James C. Helme was a Justice of the Peace in 1853. He died Feb. 12, 1855, and is buried beside his first wife and their children on the Isaac Carpenter plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

BALSER CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1313—(1311)

Balser, son of Isaac S. and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, was born May 19, 1807, and died March 10, 1849. He was married (1), Nov. 6, 1834, to Jane, born Feb. 14, 1817, died Sept. 9, 1839, daughter of John Bennet and his wife, Matilda (Buckingham) Bennet, (Bennet family later), and their children were: 1, Isaac, born Oct. 29, 1835, died June 25, 1885; 2, John Bennet, born March 26, 1839. He was married (2), May 12, 1842, to Jane Ann, born July 13, 1807, died in Sept., 1854, (church record) of cholera, in Peoria, Ill., daughter of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins. Their children were: 3, David Perkins, born Dec. 23, 1844, died Feb. 9, 1840; 4, Mary Jane, born May 29, 1849, died March 24, 1850. Balser Carpenter, his first wife, Jane (Bennet) Carpenter, and his children, David Perkins Carpenter and Mary Jane Carpenter, are buried in the Isaac Carpenter plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

Balser Carpenter and his brother, John Sharps Carpenter, Aug. 25, 1834, bought from Thankful Scovel, widow of James Scovel, of Exeter, Pa., (Family No. 1021—Scovel), 15 acres of land, part of the estate of James Scovell. This land was also part of the estate of Elifal Scovel, widow of Elisha Scovel, and had been set off to Maria Fuller, daughter of James Scovel, and wife of Charles Fuller. It was sold by Charles and Maria (Scovel) Fuller, June 15, 1833, to Mrs. Thankful Scovel. The old Scovel Tavern at the "Head of the Valley" stood on this plot of ground and was subsequently known as the Carpenter Tavern. On the same day Balser and John Sharps Carpenter bought from Lyman and Caroline (Scovel) Hurlbut 13 acres of land, also part of the James Scovel estate and including the Scovel burial plot. They also bought from them four acres, a part of the Elifal Scovel estate, bounded on the east by the Susquehanna River, on the northwest by the Turnpike road, and southerly on lands of Laton Slocum, deceased. July 18, 1836, they bought from John Kern (Family No. 1216—Kern), of Belvidere; N. J., 21 acres, parts of Lots 7 and 8 in Exeter, numbered 5 in the division of the real estate of Henry Kern, deceased. Jan. 17, 1840, Balser Carpenter sold his interest in part of these Exeter lands to his brother, John Sharps Carpenter, and, April 7, 1840, John Sharps Carpenter sold to Balser Carpenter his undivided half interest in the ten acre plot of land which included the Scovel Cemetery. Jan. 17, 1840, Balser Carpenter bought the interest of his brother, John Sharps Carpenter, in the lands, in Lots Nos. 17 and 18, Kingston, formerly owned by their father, Isaac Carpenter. July 1, 1848, Balser Carpenter sold 30 acres of these lands to John Bennet. After the death of Balser Carpenter John Bennet was appointed guardian of his children and Oct. 11, 1850, sold to Noah Pettebone the remaining 100 acres of the lands of Balser Carpenter. The land is described as bounded southwest by a road between Lots 16 and 17, northwest by the road over the Kingston Mountain, and lands of James Eley, northeast by lands of James Eley and Oliver Pettebone and southeast by lands of James Eley and John Bennet. Third Division Lot No. 17, Kingston, was owned by Aholiab Buck, (Family No. 946—Buck), and was sold by John and Debora (Buck) Taylor, May 30, 1796, to Lord Butler. It was later owned by Benjamin Dorrance, who sold it, May 31, 1814, to Thomas B. Nace. The latter sold five acres of it, Aug. 21, 1815, five acres Oct. 2, 1815, and twenty acres, May 31, 1817, to John Bennet. Thomas and Polly (Montanye) Nace sold 79 acres of Lot 17 to Jacob Somers, Nov. 7, 1817. Third Division Lot No. 18, Kingston, was owned by Captain Obadiah Gore. Part of it was willed by John Gore, in 1837, to his son, Jeremiah Gore, and part of it was sold, June 11, 1812, by John Gore, to George Nace, and was sold (45 acres), Nov. 17, 1817, by Elias Hoyt, executor of the will of George Nace, to Jacob Somers, of Germantown, Pa.

THE THOMAS BENNET FAMILY

I. Thomas Bennet, said to have been of Scituate, R. I., in 1708, was married to Mary Elliott and had at least three sons: 1, Solomon; 2, Rockwell; 3, Thomas, Jr., born in 1723, all of whom were born in Connecticut.

II. (3). Thomas, Jr., son of Thomas and Mary (Elliot) Bennet, born in 1723, removed to Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., where he established his home previous to 1769. He was admitted a member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and was one of the original settlers in the Wyoming Valley in 1762. His name appears in Mr. Harvey's list of the "First Forty" Settlers at Wyoming in 1769 and on the various Lists of Settlers and Proprietors, petitions for the erection of a county, etc., in 1769, 1770, 1771, 1772. He was an active Yankee in the Yankee-Pennamite controversy previous to the War of the American Revolution, escaped arrest at Mill Creek in 1769, but, in 1771, was arrested, taken to Easton, Pa., and then to Philadelphia, where he was placed in the city jail. (Bib.-1, pp. 478, 668, 675, 678, 681, 682, etc., which see for history of the Yankee-Pennamite War). Leaving their children at Shohola, now Pike Co., Pa., Thomas Bennet brought his wife to the Wyoming Valley in Oct., 1770. (Bib.-1, p. 672.) They settled in Kingston District. He was elected, March 2, 1774, Surveyor of Highways in Westmoreland, and his name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for that district in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was a private in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, on duty at Wyoming in the summer of 1778. He, doubtless, took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and in April-May, 1780, was a private in Captain John Franklin's Company at Wyoming. It is claimed, and has been for more than a century, by his descendants, that the terms of capitulation in connection with the surrender of Forty Fort were signed in the house of Thomas Bennet and that the table used on that occasion was preserved for many years, in the family. (Bib.-94.) Some of the real estate owned by Thomas Bennet in his later years were: (1), Back Lot No. 24, Third Division in Kingston, which he bought from Phineas Peirce, the original owner, who drew it, of which he sold about 90 acres, April 20, 1790, to Henry Tuttle, (Family No. 1174—Tuttle), and Nov. 26, 1791, about 100 acres to his son-in-law, John Tuttle. This lot adjoined the Nathan Denison homestead, on the southwest; (2), Back Lot No. 28, Third Division, Kingston, which adjoins the Belding Sweetland homestead, on the southwest, and which he sold, about 1788, to his son, Andrew Bennet, who, March 20, 1790, sold it to Philip Myers, his brother-in-law; (3), Back Lot No. 33, Third Division, Kingston, which he bought March 9, 1791, from John Dorrance, administrator of the estate of Colonel George Dorrance, and sold it later to his son, Andrew Bennet, who, Nov. 3, 1792, sold it to Gilbert Carpenter; (4), Meadow Lot No. 12, Second Division, Kingston, on which he lived, Aug. 3, 1791, when he sold half of it—the half on which he lived, to his son, Andrew Bennet, and of which he had previously sold one-half to his son, Solomon. At that time the Henry Tuttle Grist Mill stood on the bank of Abraham's Creek and on Meadow Lot No. 10. Meadow Lot 11, in two sections, adjoined Lot 10 on the southwest. Henry Tuttle bought the 34 acres of Lot 11 adjoining Lot No. 10 May 20, 1791, from Eliakim Roberts, (Family No. 988—Roberts), while the other 34 acres, part of the real estate of Colonel Thomas Dyer, was sold Oct. 5, 1797, by Thomas Dyer, Sr., of Windham, Windham Co., Conn., to his son, Thomas Dyer, Jr., who sold it Aug. 8, 1801, to Elihah Shoemaker. Meadow Lot No. 12 was owned by Zebulon Butler April 4, 1786, when he sold it to Lord Butler. It is described in a deed of Aug. 8, 1801, as lands of the Widow Martha Bennet. William Buck of Ulster, Pa., owned Meadow Lot No. 13, Sept. 29, 1787, when he sold it to Lord Butler. (Family No. 946—Buck.)

Thomas Bennett, Jr., was married, about 1749 (1753), to Martha Jackson, who was born in 1731 and died at Forty Fort, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1811. He died there in 1798. They are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery, the earliest burials in which are said to have been made on lands owned by Thomas Bennet and set apart by him for burial purposes. (Bib.-72.) Some of the children of Thomas, Jr., and Martha (Jackson) Bennet were: 1, Solomon, born about 1750, died in 1823, (see later); 2, Martha, born Jan. 15, 1763, died Jan. 3, 1851, married to Philip Myers, born about 1759, died April 2, 1835, (see later); 3, Andrew, born about 1764, died Nov. 20, 1821, (see later); 4, Mary, born Aug. 15, 1772, died Feb. 9, 1852, aed. 79 years, 5 months, 24 days, married to John, son of Henry Tuttle. (Family No. 1174—Tuttle.)

III. (1). Captain Solomon, son of Thomas and Martha (Jackson) Bennet, was born about 1750 and died in Canisteo, Steuben Co., N. Y., in 1823. He served as Corporal in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, for the term of two months and five days between June 28, 1778, and Oct. 1, 1778, fought in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and in April-May, 1780, was a private in Captain John Franklin's Company in the service of the United States at the Post of Wyoming (Bib.-1), March 23, 1787, then of Luzerne Co., Pa., he sold to William Branson, House Lot No. 19, five acres, "which Solomon Bennet drew in Kingston." July 16, 1787, William Branson sold this House Lot to Philip Myers. Early in 1788 he set out upon an exploring expedition along the western tributaries of the north branch of the Susquehanna River in the State of New York, and with Captain John Jamison, of Durham, Bucks Co., Pa., Uriah Stephens, Sr., and his sons, Uriah Stephens, Jr., and Colonel John Stephens, Colonel Arthur Erwin (or Irwin) of Bucks Co., Pa., but who owned lands in Pittston Township, Joel Thomas, Jedediah Stephens, Jr., of Athens, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 10, 1789, and previously of the Wyoming Valley, William Wynkoop, James Headley or Hadley, a private in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, at Wyoming in the summer of 1778, Benjamin Crosby and his son Richard Crosby,

Elisha Brown and Christian Kress bought two townships of what was then Ontario Co., and is now Steuben Co., N. Y. In 1790 Solomon Bennet lived in Erwintown, (doubtless named for Colonel Arthur Erwin, who was murdered by an ejected squatter in 1792), Ontario Co., N. Y., and had in family himself, two males over 16, two males under 16 and three females. He built the first grist mill and the first sawmill at Bennetsville, now Canisteo, N. Y., and also kept the first store there. He was Captain of the First Militia Company, at Canisteo, with John Stephens as Lieutenant and Richard Crosby as Ensign. He described himself as of Canisteo, Ontario Co., N. Y., June 22, 1791, where he sold to Andrew Bennet all his interest in a piece of land, (evidently half of Meadow Lot No. 12, Kingston) bounded west on the Main road, south by Elijah Shoemaker (Lot 13), east on the Susquehanna River, north by Thomas Bennet, "part of the lot occupied by Thomas Bennet running from the Great Road across Abraham's Plains." Captain Solomon Bennet was married to Mrs. Sarah (Stephens) Upson, widow of Asa Upson, and daughter of Uriah, Jr., and Martha (Rathbun) Stephens,* and granddaughter of Captain Uriah and Sarah

*Captain Uriah Stephens, who served in the French and Indian War in the Regiment of Conn. Militia commanded by Colonel Ebenezer Marsh in 1757, was a son of Thomas and Mary (Hall) Stephens, and a grandson of Henry and Elizabeth (Gallup) Stephens, (Family No. 1324—Gallup). The names of Thomas Stephens, Thomas Stephens, Jr., Zebulon Stephens, probably son of Thomas and Mary (Hall) Stephens, Captain Uriah Stephens, Uriah Stephens, (Jr.?), and Jedediah Stephens, son of Henry, Jr., and Elizabeth (Fellows) Stephens and grandson of Henry and Elizabeth (Gallup) Stephens, all appear as grantees, on the Indian Deed, of July 11, 1754, conveying the Wyoming lands to the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. A reference to Thomas Stephens may be found in the sketch of the Asa Stevens family in Family No. 1321.

Captain Uriah Stephens, born in Plainfield, Conn., June 2, 1708, was married, May 28, 1730, to Sarah Stevens of Stonington, Conn. He died Oct. 20, 1764. Their first son, Uriah, Jr., born about 1731, died Aug. 4, 1800, was a private in the Company commanded by his father in the French and Indian War, in 1757, and in 1762 he was one of the original settlers at Wyoming. He had a brother, Phineas, whose name appears in the List of Settlers at Wyoming in 1769. Uriah Stephens, Jr., was married to Martha Rathbun, born about 1731, died June 14, 1825. They apparently settled at some point on the Susquehanna River below the Wyoming Valley, probably in Lower Plymouth, later Huntington Township. March 1, 1774, he was elected Key Keeper of the Town of Westmoreland. Later it appears they removed into Northumberland Co., Pa. His name does not appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777 or 1778. He is said to have served as a soldier in the Northumberland County Militia and in the Pennsylvania Continental Line in the American Revolution. (Bib.-94.) After the Revolution they removed to Newton, N. Y., and, in the fall of 1789, to what is now Canisteo, Steuben Co., N. Y. In 1790 he lived in Erwintown, Ontario Co., N. Y., (now Canisteo, N. Y.) and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, three males under 16 and one female. Some of the children of Uriah, Jr., and Martha (Rathbone) Stevens were: 1, Benjamin, a private in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, in the summer of 1778, at Wyoming; 2, Sarah, married (1) to Asa Upson, married (2) to Solomon Bennet, (see above); 3, Mary, married to Daniel McHenry of Northumberland Co., Pa.; 4, Uriah, Jr., born in 1761, died in 1849, living at Erwin Town, Ontario Co., N. Y., in 1790, with himself, one male under 16 and three females in family, married to Elizabeth, born 1766, died March 30, 1849, daughter of Benjamin and Jemima (Delavan) Jones, (probably Family No. 1328—Benjamin Jones); 5, Colonel John, born about 1766, died in 1837, married to Olive, born about 1768, died in 1848, daughter of Lieutenant Roasel, born about 1740, died in 1792, and Jerusha (Hickok) Franklin. Lieutenant Roasel Franklin, formerly of Woodbury, Conn., served as Lieutenant in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn., Militia, in the summer of 1778, at Wyoming, and doubtless took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He also served as Lieutenant of Captain John Franklin's Company in the service of the United States at the Post of Wyoming in April-May, 1780. His wife, Mrs. Jerusha (Hickok) Franklin, was murdered by Indians April 8, 1781, after she and her children, Olive, about 13 years of age; Susanna, about 11; Stephen, about 4 years, and Ichabod, about 18 months of age, had been taken captives. Colonel John Stephens and his family settled at Erwin Town, Ontario Co., N. Y., before 1790; 6, Martha; 7, Phineas; 8, Elias; 9, Elijah, married to Abigail, daughter of Jedediah Stephens, (see later); 10, William.

Jedediah Stephens, born about 1716, son of Henry and Elizabeth (Fellows) Stephens, was married to Mary Rathbone at Stonington, Conn., April 4, 1743. (Bib.-113.) He was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and his name appears on the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754. He came to the Wyoming Valley from Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., and was a resident of Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778, his name appearing on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for those years. He owned lands in Kingston, Huntington and Tioga Townships. His homestead lot was probably Meadow Lot No. 4, Kingston, situated on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, and opposite the Payne Pettebone homestead, in Wyoming Borough, Pa. Feb. 13, 1786, Jedediah Stephens sold to his son, Joshua Stephens, of West Stockbridge, Berkshire Co., Mass., Lot No. 14, First Division, Huntington, situated on the east branch of Fishing Creek, "excepting so much as I want for my maintenance, equal to the rent of my sons, out of said lands as long as I live." He sold Lot No. 18, in Standing Stone, to his son, Jedediah Stephens, Jr., who, then of Athens, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 10, 1789, sold it to Robert Alexander. In a deed of Jan. 11, 1794, the lot, when sold by Robert Alexander of Athens to Louis M. De Noralles, was described as on Shufelt Flats on the west side of the Susquehanna River. Sept. 14, 1787, he sold all his Kingston lands, including Meadow Lot No. 4, Second Division, Back Lot No. 16, Third Division; Fourth Division Lot No. 2, and his interest in the public lands and commons, for a "Love, good will and affection" consideration to his son, Ira Stephens. About a year later, Sept. 20, 1788, Ira Stephens sold Lot No. 4, a River lot, improved with houses, barns and orchards, to Simeon Miller of Kingston. It was sold by Simeon Miller, May 17, 1790, to (Stephens) Stephens, and some of their children were: Captain William, born Feb. 17, 1782, died Dec. 6, 1840, married to Mary Van Scoter, whose daughter, Permelia Bennet, was married to William, son of Captain John and Nancy (McDuffy) Jamison*; 2, Major Thomas, born Sept. 22, 1804, married to Sylvia Rood; 3, Martha; 4, Sarah.

III. (2). Martha, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Jackson) Bennet, was born Jan. 15, 1763, and died Jan. 3, 1851. She was in Forty Fort, July 3, 1778, when the battle of Wyoming was fought, and nearly all the historians of the Wyoming Valley have paid high tribute to the value of her thrilling story of that tragic event. Dr. Charles Miner and the Rev. Dr. George Peck, two noted historians, have published, in their histories, extensive portions of her recollections. She was married, July 15, 1787, to Philip Myers, (Myers family later) who was born about 1759, and died April 2, 1835. They are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Elizabeth; 2, Sarah born about 1793, died March 4, 1867, married to Abraham, Jr.,

Philip Jackson and was owned later by John Messinger and still later by Christian G. Oehmig. Calvin Wadhams of Plymouth bought it Nov. 5, 1836. In 1840 David Baldwin, (Family No. 996) owned it and it was later sold by the administrator of his estate to William Sweetland and Company. Ira Stevens sold Back Lot No. 16, situated at Vaughn's Corners across Bennet street from the John Bennet homestead, Sept. 14, 1787, to Oliver Pettebone. He sold Fourth Division Lot No. 2, Nov. 16, 1787, to Benjamin Smith. Jedediah Stephens, Sr., died at Athens, Pa., in 1790. Some of the children of Jedediah and Mary (Rathbone) Stephens were: 1, Joshua, referred to above, whose name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1788; 2, Martha, married to Elijah Rood, Nov. 20, 1770; 3, Ann, born about 1753, married, at North Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., March 4, 1773, to Jeremiah Baker. He was born in 1747 and died about 1824. His name is on the Westmoreland Tax List for Kingston in 1776 and he served in Captain Simon Spalding's Company, Westmoreland Independent, in the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution. Jeremiah Baker removed from the Wyoming Valley to Tioga Point, N. Y., and, in 1790, to what is now Canisteo, N. Y. His son, Bazy Baker, was married to Anna (Stephens) Abbott, widow of James Abbott, (Family No. 35—Abbott) probably son of James Abbott, and daughter of Uriah (3d) and Elizabeth (Jones) Stephens. His son, Jeremiah, was married (1) to Eunice Powers and married (2) to Hilda, born April 13, 1796, daughter of Jedediah, Jr., and Abigail (Corey) Stephens and widow of Phineas, son of Colonel John and Olive (Franklin) Stephens; 4, Jedediah, Jr., born May 11, 1757, died in Canisteo, N. Y., Jan. 26, 1830, married, Jan. 1, 1778, to Abigail, died Aug. 28, 1825, daughter of Elnathan and Abigail (Green) Corey, (Family No. 946—Corey). They lived in Harderstown, N. J., Dec. 8, 1783, when their son, Nathan, was born and lived in Athens, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 10, 1789, when he sold to Robert Alexander, of Athens, Lot No. 18, in Standing Stone, Pa. They removed to Erwin town, Ontario Co., N. Y., now Canisteo, Steuben Co., N. Y., before 1790, and in that year had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and four females. He was an active local preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church and, about 1800, opened a "Methodist Tavern," the first inn in Canisteo, N. Y. (Bib.—171.) He was a soldier in the War of the American Revolution. Their daughter, Abigail, was married to Elijah, son of Uriah and Martha (Rathbone) Stephens. Their son, Nathan, was married to Rachel, daughter of Elisha Gilbert, May 14, 1804. Their son, Joshua, was married to Rhoda, daughter of Uriah (3d) and Elizabeth (Jones) Stephens. Their daughter, Hila (or Hilda), was married (1) to Phineas, son of Colonel John and Olive (Franklin) Stephens, and was married (2) to Jeremiah Baker, Jr.; 5, Ira, born July 18, 1759, served as a private in Captain Robert Durkee's Westmoreland Independent Company, and later in Captain Simon Spalding's Company in the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution. He was married, April 8, 1784, to Sybil, born Feb. 5, 1764, died April 10, 1826, daughter of Captain Samuel and Esther (Lawrence) Ransom, (Family No. 1010—Ransom). They lived in Kingston Township and before 1792 removed to Tioga, Luzerne Co., Pa. He later removed to New York and was murdered at Angelica, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1803. His widow, Mrs. Sybil (Ransom) Stephens, was married (2) to a Mr. Clapp. Ira and Sybil (Ransom) Stephens had four sons and six daughters; 6, Rufus, born in 1762, was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. Other children of Jedediah and Mary (Rathbone) Stephens were, Mary Thankful, Sylvia, Eunice, Nathan or Nathaniel and Cynthia, married to Francis Satterlee.

Captain Benjamin Stephens, son of Henry, Jr., and Elizabeth (Fellows) Stephens, was born April 17, 1713, and died in Canaan, Litchfield Co., Conn., about 1787. His wife, whose name was Elizabeth, was born about 1721 and died in Canaan, Conn., May 17, 1809. Captain Benjamin Stephens owned Lot No. 48, First Division, Huntington, Luzerne Co., Pa., at the time of his death and about 1788 certain of his heirs sold, for divers good causes, to Abiel Fellows of Huntington, all their interest in this lot. These heirs were Elizabeth Stephens, Gershom Hewitt, who was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Benjamin and Elizabeth Stephens. William Newell and his wife Mary (Stephens) Newell, daughter of Captain Benjamin and Elizabeth Stephens, and Obadiah Brown and his wife, Drusilla (Stephens) Brown, daughter of Captain Benjamin and Elizabeth Stephens, all of whom resided in Canaan, Conn., in 1788.

The name of Roasel Stephens appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston District in 1776. He served as a private in Captain Simon Spalding's Westmoreland Independent Company in the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the Revolution. The name of William Stephens is on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston in 1777 and 1778 and that of Peter Stephens on the Plymouth, Westmoreland, lists for 1777 and 1778.

*Daniel Jamison, born in Scotland, settled in Bucks Co., Pa., was married to Mary Magdalena Baxter and their children were: 1, Captain John, born in Durham, Bucks Co., Pa., Dec. 5, 1753, died, Canisteo, N. Y., May 23, 1826, married, in Philadelphia, to Nancy McDuffy; 2, Thomas; 3, Hugh; 4, Sally; 5, Anna Maria; 6, Jane; 7, Rachel; 8, Elizabeth.

born 1790, died May 15, 1880, son of Abraham and Catharine (King) Goodwin, (Family No. 1230—Goodwin); 3, Lawrence, born about 1794, died in Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, May 7, 1829, aed. 35 years; 4, Harriet, married, May 23, 1833, to her cousin, Madison F. Myers; 5, Mary, born in March, 1798, died July 31, 1881, married to the Rev. Dr. George Peck, a famous preacher and Presiding Elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a noted historian of the Wyoming Valley. They are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery; 6, William; 7, Thomas, born Feb. 15, 1802, died Dec. 3, 1887, High Sheriff of Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1835-8; 8, Henry.

III. (3). Andrew, son of Thomas and Martha (Jackson) Bennet, was born about 1764 and died Nov. 20, 1821. He enlisted and served in the Company of Captain John Franklin and was on duty in April-May, 1780, in the service of the United States at the Post of Wyoming. (Bib.-1.) He was assessed in Kingston Township in 1792 and 1796. He owned a sawmill in 1801, and in 1815 was assessed as the owner of a one-half interest in a forge in Kingston Township. The sawmill property stood on the site of Hefft's Mill in the Carverton Section. In various deeds pertaining to the transfer of land titles in that neighborhood the mill, then standing where the Hefft Mill now stands, was called Bennet's Mill. John Messinger also owned a one-half interest in a forge in Kingston in 1815. It is probable they were partners in a forge situated on Toby's Creek. D. Hefft was assessed as the owner of a sawmill in Kingston in 1815. Daniel Hefft, born Aug. 11, 1772, died Oct. 20, 1850, and his wife, Elizabeth, born Feb. 2, 1774, died March 21, 1855, are buried in the Carverton, Pa., Cemetery. Andrew Bennet bought and sold a number of lots in Kingston Township. He was appointed Fence Viewer in 1799 and in 1816 and 1817 was licensed as a tavern keeper. He was married (1), Dec. 18, 1787, to Mary Miller, born about 1765, died Oct. 4, 1804, in her 40th year, and their children were: 1, John, born April 25, 1790, died Feb. 10, 1863, (see later); 2, Monroe, born July 18, 1791; 3, Martha, born Nov. 8, 1792, died Nov. 27, 1837; 4, Thomas, born Dec. 3, 1800, died in 1801. He was married (2) to Abigail Kelley, born Jan. 13, 1776, died Oct. 28, 1838, and their children were, (order of birth not known to writer): 5, Andrew, Jr.; 6, Mary; 7, Elizabeth, born Sept. 20, 1812, died June 25, 1898; married to Henry, born Feb. 13, 1807, died Dec. 28, 1898, son of William and Christina (Winters) Polen, (Family No. 989—Polen); 8, George, born about 1815, lived at Montoursville, Pa., married to Martha, daughter of Daniel Strebeigh, whose son, Major Daniel Strebeigh Bennet, born Sept. 3, 1853, died Sept. 16, 1884, was married, in 1880, to Mary Margaret, daughter of Lawrence Myers. Mrs. Mary Margaret (Myers) Bennet was married (2) to John P. Yeager, (Bib.-53); 9, Mrs. Abigail (Bennet) Peck, born about 1818; 10, Harriet, born about 1820. An Andrew Bennet lived at Erwin Town, Ontario Co., N. Y., (Canisteo, N. Y.) in 1790 and had in family himself, one son under 16 and two females.

IV. (1). John, son of Andrew and Mary (Miller) Bennet, born April 25, 1790, died Feb. 10, 1863, was married to Matilda Buckingham, born Jan.-4, 1799, died Aug. 11, 1879. John and Matilda (Buckingham) Bennet, established their home on Lot 17, Third Division, Kingston, at what is now Vaughn's Corners. He bought five acres of 17 Aug. 21, 1815, from Thomas B. Nace. He bought another five acre piece of the lot Oct. 2, 1815, and May 30, 1817, he bought from Mr. Nace twenty acres of the same lot. Balser and Jane (Perkins) Carpenter also sold thirty acres of this lot to John Bennet. The writer recalls having heard it stated by an old resident of the Wyoming Valley that John Bennet died from shock induced by excitement when some of the buildings on his property burned. Some of the children of John and Matilda (Buckingham) Bennet were: 1, Jane, born Feb. 14, 1817, died Sept. 9, 1839, married, as first wife, to Balser Carpenter; 2, Charles, born Feb. 28, 1819, died Aug. 6, 1866, married to Sarah Sly, who died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 16, 1887, survived by two daughters, Martha and Sarah.

THE MYERS FAMILY

Lawrence Myers, Henry Myers, born about 1757, died March 3, 1816, and Philip Myers, who came from Frederick, Md., to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1785-6, are buried in Forty Fort, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery.

1, Lawrence Myers was born about 1754 and died in Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., Nov. 26, 1810, aed. 56 years. Sept. 26, 1787, he bought from Amos Draper two acres of Back Lot No. 3, Kingston, "Beginning at the southwest corner of a public lot, (Back Lot No. 4) and running with the road, (Wyoming avenue) southwest 10 rods and extending 32 rods in depth. Back Lot No. 3 was part of the estate of Major

Simeon Draper.* In 1788 Lawrence Myers was recommended to the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania as a suitable person to keep a house of public entertainment, and in 1788 and 1790 he was an inn or tavern keeper in Kingston Township. It was reasonably certain that the house in which Lawrence Myers "kept tavern" in Kingston stood on or near that corner at "Kingston Corners," which has been occupied for so many years by the stone building known for many years as "Myers Cocked Hat," and it may have been, and probably was, the Major Simeon Draper homestead. There is a reference to the house of Lawrence Myers in a road petition of Jan. 18, 1792, and in the report of the survey, April 6, 1792, "Beginning at a stake at the corner of James Atherton's lot (Meadow Lot 40, adjoining the Plymouth line) near the house he lately occupied, running N. 33½° W. 71 rods on the line of Kingston Township, which will intersect the road from L. Myers, Esq., to Plymouth, near Josiah Ives'." The petitioners objected to driving on the Plymouth road from the Kingston-Plymouth line to what is now Kingston Corners and then driving down to the Plymouth line and the road, leading to the Wilkes-Barre ferry, which lay along the Kingston-Plymouth line. Without any doubt the Lawrence Myers house stood on or near the "Myers Cocked Hat" corner in 1792. Lawrence Myers became a very extensive owner of real estate in Kingston and Plymouth Townships. Among his holdings were: (1), Back Lot No. 3, which he bought from the heirs of Major Simeon Draper 1787-1801; (2), Back Lot No. 4, which was laid out as a public lot, and for which he exchanged (3) Back Lot No. 5, which he bought Nov. 20, 1799, from Asa A. Gore, born June 30, 1778, son of Asa, born Feb. 28, 1750, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and Elizabeth (Avery) Gore, born July 31, 1756, of Preston, New London Co., Conn. At a meeting of the Proprietors of Kingston Township, held at the house of Philip Myers, Dec. 18, 1790, of which meeting Benjamin Smith was Moderator and Oliver Bigelow was Proprietors' Clerk, Benjamin Carpenter, Oliver Pettebone and Oliver Bigelow were authorized to make this exchange of lots with Lawrence Myers. (Bib.-281.) Deeds were exchanged between this committee and Lawrence Myers, in Dec., 1799, and Dec. 28, 1799, the same committee leased to Daniel Hoyt, for the term of 999 years, Back Lot No. 5, with an annual rental of $40.20 for six years and a payment of $710.20 at the end of the seventh year (without fraud or delay); (4), Back Lot No. 6, Kingston, which he bought June 9, 1791, from Arnold Colt of Wilkes-Barre, and which he sold March 20, 1793, to Benajah and Joshua Fuller, who, in March, 1797, sold it to Daniel Hoyt. These Back Lots extended along Wyoming avenue from a point about 52 rods east of the Plymouth line nearly to Pringle street, Kingston, perhaps midway between Hoyt and Pringle. They were each about 26 rods wide and about a mile and a half long. Main street, Kingston, running north from Wyoming avenue is on or near the line between Lots 3 and 4. It was opened through about 1857-59, at about the time the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad began operations. The two acre plot of Lot 3, bought by Lawrence Myers from Amos Draper, in 1787, adjoined Lot No. 4. Across what is now Wyoming avenue, Kingston, from Back Lot 4, lay Meadow Lot No. 35, owned by the estate of Simeon Draper and sold May 18, 1789, by Amos Draper and Catharine Harvey to Thomas Drake of Kingston, who, with his wife, Agnes, March 10, 1795, sold it to Daniel Cook† and Thomas Duane, merchants in Kingston. May 4, 1805,

*Major Simeon Draper died March 21, 1773, and his widow, Catharine, was married (2) to Benjamin Harvey, (Bib.-2). Major Draper apparently owned Kingston House Lot No. 18, which Amos Draper sold to Philip Myers, Sept. 26, 1787; Back Lot No. 3, sold by various of his heirs to Lawrence Myers; Meadow Lot No. 35, sold by Amos Draper and his mother, Catharine Harvey, May 18, 1789, to Thomas Drake, and Fourth Division Lot No. 6, sold, Sept. 10, 1794, by Amos Draper to Lord Butler. The children of Major Simeon and Catharine Draper were: 1, Amos, born about 1756, died May 20, 1808, married to Lydia Williams, of Kingston, and removed to Oswego, Tioga Co., N. Y. According to French (Bib.-171) Amos Draper built the first house in the village of Oswego, N. Y., and his daughter, Selecta, born June 19, 1788, was the first white child born there; 2, Joseph, of Union, Tioga Co., N. Y., Nov. 18, 1793, when he sold his interest in his father's estate to Amos Draper; 3, Phebe (Draper) Moore of Tioga Co., N. Y., May 26, 1801, when Joseph Draper, her attorney, sold her one-seventh interest in her father's estate to Lawrence Myers; 4, Ruth, married to Andrew Sinsabox, of Beekmans, Dutchess Co., N. Y., June 4, 1801, when she sold her interest in Lot 3, Kingston, to Lawrence Myers; 5, Eleanor, married to Benjamin Albro, and 6, Catharine, probably married to John Wightman, all of Beekmans, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Dec. 19, 1800, when John Wightman "By virtue of power vested in me by Benjamin Albro and Eleanore and Catharine Weight (?), dated Dec. 19, 1800, as lawful heirs of Simeon Draper," sold their interest in Lot 3, Kingston, to Lawrence Myers.

†Morgan and Cook were assessed as merchants in Kingston in 1792. Daniel Cook and Thomas Duane were partners in a store in Kingston in 1796. Daniel Cook died July 27, 1796, and was buried in the old Wilkes-Barre Cemetery. His remains were removed to the new City Cemetery. His will, made July 13, 1796, and probated Sept. 6, 1796, names his wife, Nancy; his Thomas and Hannah Duane sold to George Nace, (Family No. 1217—Nace) an undivided moiety of Meadow Lot No. 35 and the whole of Meadow Lots Nos. 36 and 37, Kingston. These same Lots 35, 36 and 37 were sold by Jacob Hart, Sheriff, as the property of Thomas Duane, April 4, 1810, to Matthias Hollenback. In April, 1816, a petition was presented to the Court of Quarter Sessions at Wilkes-Barre praying that a road be laid out between the lands of Daniel Hoyt and Matthias Hollenback and beginning on the river bank opposite the Borough of Wilkes-Barre. The report was presented in Aug., 1816, providing for a road 53 feet wide from the river bank opposite Wilkes-Barre and extending to the main road, near Henry Buckingham's. The road 50 feet wide and laid out on the lands of Matthias Hollenback was approved by the Court. This is now known as East Market street and was apparently laid out on Meadow Lot 36.

Lawrence Myers was appointed Justice of the Peace about 1791 and in 1790, 1791, 1792, 1805 and 1806, he served as a Supervisor for Kingston Township. In 1805 and 1806 he also served as Overseer of the Poor. In 1796 he was assessed as a merchant in Kingston. He was married, Jan. 3, 1782, to Sarah, born Nov. 14, 1755, died May 20, 1841, (Forty Fort Cemetery), daughter of Captain Obediah, born July 26, 1714, at Norwich, Conn., died at Kingston, Pa., Jan. 10, 1779, and Hannah (Parke) Gore, born at Preston, New London Co., Conn., July 3, 1721, died Aug. 14, 1804. His widow, Mrs. Sarah (Gore) Myers, was married (2) to Rev. Benjamin Bidlack,* born Feb. 23, 1762, died Nov. 27, 1845, a noted pioneer preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church. A portrait of Mr. Bidlack and an interesting sketch may be found in Colonel Hendrick B. Wright's Historical Sketch of Plymouth, Pa., (see Bib.-2).

2. Philip Myers and his wife, Martha (Bennet) Myers, established their home on a house lot, near the Forty Fort, which had been presented to them by Thomas Bennet. In 1788 he was recommended to the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania as a suitable person to keep a house of public entertainment and for nearly 50 years he was an inn or tavern keeper in Kingston, (see The Harvey Book). He, like his brother Lawrence, became the owner of extensive tracts of Kingston real estate. He was appointed Fence Viewer in 1806 and in 1830; served as Overseer of the Poor in 1814 and 1821, and on the Committee of Freeholders in 1817 and 1822. The homestead of Philip Myers may have been the Thomas Bennet, Jr., homestead. Thomas Bennet, Jr., evidently moved to Meadow Lot No. 12, after April 4, 1786, when Zebulon Butler sold that lot to Lord Butler. Thomas Bennet bought Lot 12, after April 4, 1786, and before June 22, 1791, when Solomon Bennet sold half of it to Andrew Bennet.

THE PERKINS FAMILY

I. John Perkins, probably of Plainfield, Windham Co., Conn., came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., with the company of settlers led by Major John Durkee in 1769. He owned two rights of land and settled in Kingston District of the Town of Westmoreland, and his name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777 and 1778, as a resident of that district. He and his son, Aaron, were privates in the Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, (on duty at Wyoming before Oct. 1, 1778), commanded by Colonel Zebulon Butler. They served one month and fifteen days after June 28, 1778, and before Oct. 1, 1778, (Bib.-1, pp. 1107, 1096) and doubtless participated in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He fled, with his family, after the battle of Wyoming, but returned to the Valley and, Nov. 7, 1778, was killed at Plymouth by Indians. According to the Ferrier Genealogy (Bib.-98), his wife remained in Connecticut and was married there (2) to a Mr. Griswold. The names of three sons of John Perkins appear in the early history of the Wyo-daughter, Nancy; his beloved brother, Serad Cook, and refers to the child of his sister, Asenath Burr. His widow, Mrs. Nancy Cook, of Luzerne Co., Pa., was married (2), at Lyme, Conn., in July, 1802, to William Peck. Thomas Duane was living in Broome Co., N. Y., Aug. 20, 1810. He died at Owego, N. Y., Oct. 15, 1821. His wife, Hannah, born about 1760, died at Owego, N. Y., Oct. 5, 1821, aed. 60 years. William and Nancy Peck, natural guardians of Nancy Cook, only heir of Daniel Cook, and Thomas Duane, surviving partner of Daniel Cook, are named in Orphans' Court proceedings at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 22, 1802.

*The Rev. Benjamin Bidlack was admitted on trial in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1799, was admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon in 1801, and was ordained Elder in 1803. His appointments were: 1799, Wyoming and Northumberland; 1800, Seneca, N. Y.; 1801, Delaware and Ulster, N. Y.; 1802, Herkimer-Mohawk, N. Y.; 1803, Herkimer; 1804, Otsego, N. Y.; 1805, Shenango, N. Y.; 1806, Pompey, N. Y.; 1807-8, Seneca, N. Y.; 1809-1810, Lyons, N. Y.; 1811, located. (Bib.-236.) He settled in Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., and with his wife is buried in Forty Fort Cemetery.

ming Valley: 1, John, Jr., born about 1754, who enlisted, as a private in Captain Robert Durkee's First Independent Westmoreland Company, in the Conn. Continental Line, in the War of the American Revolution, who died at Morristown, N. J., July 6, 1777; 2, Aaron, (see later); 3, David, born Jan. 1, 1769. According to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-1) letters of administration upon the estate of John Perkins, Sr., were granted at Wilkes-Barre, Aug. 6, 1782, by the Probate Court of Westmoreland to Samuel Cummins,* Captain Stephen Fuller being his surety on a bond of £400. It appears that Samuel Cummings probably died or removed from the Wyoming Valley, Pa., soon after his appointment as administrator of the estate of John Perkins, Sr. Sept. 12, 1787, "Timothy Pickering, Esq., Register for the Probate of Wills and Granting Letters of Administration in and for the County of Luzerne, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, appointed Benjamin Carpenter, Esq., of Kingston, administrator of the estate of John Perkins, deceased." March 25, 1789, Benjamin Carpenter presented to the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre, an inventory of the personal property of John Perkins, amounting to £2, 7s, 6d, a debt of £9, 10s, due from David Perkins, and debts against the estate amounting to £137, 6s, 1d and petitioned the Court for permission to sell the real estate. March 26, 1791, he sold to David, son of John Perkins, Town Lot No. 13, First Division; Meadow Lot No. 1, Second Division; Back Lots Nos. 40 (perhaps 38) and 27, Third Division, and Fourth Division Lots Nos. 26 and 35. John Perkins also owned the upper end of Monocknock Island, which, in 1790, his son, Aaron Perkins (see later), sold to Philip Jackson, (Family No. 1313—Jackson). June 30, 1791, Benjamin Carpenter, administrator of the estate of John Perkins, sold to Samuel Finch, (Family No. 14—Finch) Meadow Lot No. 5, Second Division, 33 acres, for £55. All of these lands of John Perkins were in Kingston Township. The name of the wife of John Perkins was apparently Zibiah _____. In Sept., 1790, Zibiah Perkins brought an amicable suit against Benjamin Carpenter, administrator of the estate of John Perkins, in the Luzerne Co., Pa., Court of Common Pleas, and the Court ordered that the deposition of William Phelps should be taken before Alexander Walcott of the town of Windsor, Hartford Co., Conn.

II. (2). Aaron, son of John Perkins, who is referred to by Dr. Charles Miner in his History of Wyoming, was born about 1763, and died in Nov., 1848. He was a private in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, in the summer of 1778. Jan. 5, 1821, his name was placed on the Federal Pension Roll, with pension dating from April 16, 1818, and he is credited with service in the Conn. Continental Line. (Bib.-13.) His name appears also in the Federal Census of Pensioners in 1840, living in his own home, and then 77 years of age. In 1801 Aaron Perkins was appointed Constable for Kingston Township, and in 1814 he was appointed Fence Viewer. In 1801 he was assessed as a tavern keeper, in Kingston. He owned the upper end of Monockonock Island, in the Susquehanna River, which he sold Jan. 5, 1790, to Philip Jackson, describing it as "The upper end of Monockonock Island, on one side bounded by lands of Samuel Carey and otherwise by the Susquehanna River, as fully as to John Perkins, late deceased, was surveyed." John Satterthwaite, Jan. 1, 1793, bought this part of Monockonock from Philip Jackson and, June 17, 1830, Lyman and Caroline (Scovel) Hurlbut, (Family No. 1021—Scovel), sold to Cornelius Cortright "a tract of land called Gaybrook, in Kingston, part of Lot 40, upper end of island," 15 acres, which had been patented by James Scovel. Aaron Perkins was assessed in Kingston Township in 1792, 1796 and 1801, the latter year as a tavern keeper. He probably lived in the house on Lot 33 (see later), which his brother, David Perkins, bought in 1793 from Gilbert Carpenter. He is buried in the Jenkins-Harding Cemetery, West Pittston, Pa. In a certain light the inscription on his headstone, which has almost entirely disappeared, may be read: "Aaron Perkins, a Soldier of the Revolution, died Nov. 1848."

*Samuel Cummings was a resident of Kingston District, Westmoreland, in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He served as a Sergeant in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, for the term of one month and fifteen days, after June 28, 1778, and before Oct. 1, 1778. The name of his son, Jedediah Cummings, and that of _____ Cummings are also on the same muster roll and served for the same length of time. They probably all took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. June 5, 1778, Samuel Commons sold to Benjamin Hatch for £120, "Part of Lot 23, Third Division, Kingston, which I bought of Timothy Rose." "Beginning at the northeast corner of the highway, thence westerly by Thomas Bennet to the place commonly called the Marsh, thence southerly by the Marsh till within two rods of a bridge now across the Marsh that Commons built, thence east two rods, thence easterly until within two rods of the lot Elijah Shoemaker bought of Pershall Terry: thence east to the highway within two rods of Shoemaker's line, thence by the highway to the first mentioned bounds, 60 acres." There is a reference to this ancient "Commings" Bridge in a road petition of Jan., 1794. (Bib.-318) Gilbert Carpenter made the survey, April 10, 1794. The petition has reference to the locating of the "Back road" in Kingston and the survey began "at a point N. 36° W. 14 chains from a bridge known by the name of Commings' Bridge." Lot 23 lies a short distance below the "Stone Bridge" (in front of the Dennison homestead), now in Forty Fort Borough. The Dennison homestead is on Lot No. 25. Jedediah Commons, son of Samuel Cummings, who was a private in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Detachment of the 24th Conn. Militia Regiment, in 1778, was of Charlotte, Chittenden Co., Vt., June 4, 1788, when he sold to Rosewell Smith of Windsor, Windsor Co., Vt., yeoman, one-half of great Back Lot No. 23, Kingston, estimated at 100 acres, the south half of the lot, conveyed by "My father to me by deed." Rosewell Smith of Windsor Co., Vt., sold this half of Lot 23, 70 acres, Sept. 20, 1788, to Lawrence Myers, naming the consideration as £30, and lands exchanged in the Boston preemption." Dec. 12, 1788, Lawrence Myers sold the property to Benjamin Smith, whose name appears as Warrantee on the whole of Lot No. 23. Captain Samuel Breese bought six acres of Lot 23, adjoining Lot No. 24, March 21, 1798. The line of this survey ran "Down (Joseph) Tuttle's line (Lot 24) until it comes to a ditch known by the name of "Old Tommie's Ditch." Captain Breese and his family lived on this six acre plot for a number of years. (Family No. 989—Breese.) Cummings Pond in Northmoreland Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa., was probably named for some member of his family. A Daniel Cummings lived in Exeter or Putnam Township in 1788, and signed a protest against a proposed road between Pittston and Putnam.

II. (3). David, son of John Perkins, was born July 1, 1769, and died Jan. 8, 1854. He was married (1) to Sarah, born Aug. 17, 1767, died June 1, 1845, daughter of Thomas and Hester (Lucky) Ferrier, (Family No. 1313—Ferrier), of Orange Co., N. Y. He was married (2) to Mrs. Sally (Tuttle) Pettebone, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Lee) Tuttle, (Family No. 1174—Tuttle), and widow of Payne Pettebone, Sr., (Family No. 988—Pettebone). June 30, 1790, he bought from Samuel Finch, administrator of the estate of Daniel Finch, (Family No. 14—Finch), for £55, Meadow Lot No. 2, Second Division of Kingston, 50 acres, and March 26, 1791, he bought from Benjamin Carpenter, administrator of the estate of his father, John Perkins, House Lot No. 13, Meadow Lot No. 1, Back Lot Nos. 40* and 27, and Fourth Division Lots 26 and 35. The only portions of his father's estate retained as permanent holdings by David Perkins were (perhaps) Lot 38, Third Division, and Meadow Lot No. 1, which adjoined Third Division Lot No. 38 on the northeast, and Meadow Lot No. 2, which he bought from Samuel Finch, administrator of the estate of Daniel Finch, on the southwest. If he ever owned Third Division Lot No. 40 he sold it between March 26, 1791, and June 2, 1791, to James Gardner, (Family No. 14—Gardner). He sold Back Lot No. 27, Third Division, June 9, 1792, to Peter Shales, (Family No. 1216—Shales), and before April, 1794, he sold Fourth Division Lot No. 35, to John Wort. Feb. 28, 1795, he sold Fourth Division Lot No. 26, to Wilmot Munson, Polly and Elizabeth Dennison signing the deed as witnesses. Dec. 25, 1792, he bought House Lot No. 25, Kingston, from John Wort and, Oct. 15, 1793, sold it to Timothy Morris. Feb. 17, 1795, he bought Hammock Island, lying below Monockonock Island, in the Susquehanna River, from Wilmot Munson, who had bought it from Benjamin Carpenter, May 31, 1792. This island he sold, April 3, 1856, for $150, to George Cooper, Jr., who sold it to the Pennsylvania Coal Company. He sold one acre of Third Division Lot No. 38,† to Henry Hutchins, who, Jan. 28, 1805, sold it to George Brown, a blacksmith, of Kingston. June 15, 1793.

*There is apparently some confusion in the records with reference to the lots numbered 38 and 40, Third Division, Kingston. The writer cannot determine, positively, from the available records, whether John Perkins owned Lot No. 38, (lying between Meadow Lot No. 1 and Third Division Lot No. 39), or his son, David, bought it from some person other than the administrator of his father's estate. David Perkins sold one acre of 38 to Henry Hutchins and Jan. 28, 1805, when Henry Hutchins sold this one acre to George Brown of Kingston, he described it as part of Lot No. 38, or 40. Benjamin Carpenter, administrator, described the Perkins lot he sold to David Perkins, March 23, 1791, as Lot No. 40. Lyman and Caroline (Scovel) Hurlbut described 15 acres, the upper end of Monockonock Island as part of Lot 40. On the other hand James Gardner had a ferry, established before June 2, 1791, on Lot 40 and, without much doubt, had owned Lot 40 before March 23, 1791, when David Perkins bought Lot No. 40 (?) from Benjamin Carpenter, administrator. There is a reference to the ferry in a petition of June 2, 1791, praying that a road be laid out "between Benjamin Carpenter's and John Rosencrans', thence between lands of David Perkins (Lot 38) and Benjamin Follett (Lot 39), to the bank of the river and thence up the river to the place known by Gardner's Landing." David Perkins owned Lot 38 as early as June 2, 1791, and it appears probable to the writer that John Perkins owned Lot 38 instead of Lot 40.

The statement appearing in the Ferris Genealogy that David Perkins "became in time the owner of a tract of land six miles along the Susquehanna River and one mile back to the mountain, nearly 4,000 acres, is, of course, a gross exaggeration, that borders on the grotesque. Such a tract of land would include all the land along the Susquehanna River in Kingston Township and a mile of river frontage in Plymouth or Exeter. He probably never owned Lot 40. He owned triangular Lot No. 38, Third Division, whose apex touched the river, and Meadow Lots 1 and 2, about 102 acres. Nor does it appear that he ever owned the site of the Wyoming Monument, which stands on Lot No. 3, Second Division, (see Family No. 43—Gay), as stated in the same publication.

†This purchase of one acre of Lot 38 by Henry Hutchins was one of the earliest purchases of small parcels of land, for building purposes, in the history of the Borough of Wyo-

David Perkins bought from Gilbert Carpenter (Family No. 14—Carpenter) 10 acres of Third Division Lot No. 33, extending the full width of the lot on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, and to a line ten feet beyond Abraham's Creek, at low water mark. Lot No. 33 was part of the estate of Colonel George Dorrance and was sold, March 9, 1791, by John Dorrance, administrator, to Thomas Bennet, for £29, who sold it to his son, Andrew Bennet, Aug. 3, 1791, by whom it was sold, Nov. 3, 1792, to Gilbert Carpenter. On Lot No. 33 there stood, until a few years ago, a very old house, apparently one of the oldest houses in Upper Kingston Township. It was situated on Wyoming avenue and was undoubtedly the home of Aaron Perkins, brother of David Perkins. He doubtless lived there in 1801 when he was assessed as a tavern keeper. It was owned by Payne Pettebone, March 31, 1837, when he sold it, with four acres of land, to Daniel Van Scoy. It was owned later by Abraham Hover and the site on which it stood is now (1919) occupied by the modern residences of Ira De Witt and his adopted son, Jack Phillips De Witt. Aug. 27, 1849, David Perkins sold to James F. Atherton and to Thomas F. Atherton and James P. Atherton two plots about 208 feet deep extending along Wyoming avenue from Institute Lane, the line between Lot No. 33 and Lot No. 34, about 20 rods. It appears that the Rev. P. E. Stevenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, owned a lot adjoining, on the northeast, the four acre plot Payne Pettebone sold to Daniel ming, Pa. The plot is described in the Hutchins-Brown deed as extending from the southwest corner of lands of Jonathan Hutchins (Lot 39), 19 rods along the road (Wyoming avenue) through Kingston. Henry Hutchins was a tavernkeeper in Kingston in 1801, and probably his tavern stood on this lot. It also appears probable that the plot of ground on which Colonel Erastus Hill and his mother, Mrs. Christiana Hill-Hutchins, wife of Henry Hutchins, built the house referred to in Orphans' Court proceedings in 1811, occupied 13 perches of the 19 perches frontage, on the road, of the Hutchins lot, and that in this house Mrs. Christiana Hill-Hutchins was a licensed tavernkeeper in 1808-10. It was undoubtedly this same lot which Christian Miller sold to Thomas Bird March 19, 1814. Thomas Bird was married to Polly Hill, daughter of Gamaliel and Christiana Hill, and sister of Colonel Erastus Hill. The Thomas Bird frontage extended along Wyoming avenue from the present southwestern corner of Seventh street and Wyoming avenue and included Seventh street, the site of the Townend store, and the Henry Polen homestead. Thomas and Polly (Hill) Bird sold this property Feb. 27, 1819, to Peirce Smith and (having sold the property verbally to Dr. John Smith), Oct. 15, 1839, Peirce and Adah (Jenkins) Smith and John and Mehitabel (Jenkins) Smith sold the plot to Dr. George F. Wurts, (see sketch of Christian Miller in Family No. 988). The deed from Christian Miller to Thomas Bird recites that the survey began "at the corner of David Perkins' lands," (Seventh street and Wyoming avenue). This corner lot, owned by David Perkins in 1814, was bought by Dr. John Smith, (Family No. 1324—Smith) and became his homestead while he lived at New Troy (Wyoming). He sold it to Dr. George F. Wurts, and it was later owned by Jesse B. Schooley, who sold it to William, born about 1795, died April 8, 1871, son of John Carey, June 1, 1847, who, Dec. 26, 1848, sold it to his wife, Mrs. Frances Carey, born about 1793, died Sept. 7, 1870, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery). The property is now owned by Mrs. George M. Stark, (Family No. 1016—Stark) and Dr. Charles P. Knapp. The plot adjoining the Dr. John Smith homestead extended eight perches along the road (Wyoming avenue) and was sold by David Perkins to Thomas B. Curtis and was sold successively by Jacob Bedford, July 21, 1818, to Fisher Gay and Harris Jenkins, they to Solomon Frantz, who to Adam Frantz, who to Theophilus Larned, who, Sept. 4, 1837, sold it to Cornelius Courtright, who, Dec. 10, 1837, deeded a life interest in the property to his son, Benjamin Courtright, in trust for his other son, Henry Courtright, and his wife, Sarah. Benjamin and Henry and Sarah Courtright sold half of the plot, Sept. 25, 1841, to Jesse B. Schooley and Thomas F. Atherton, who, April 8, 1848, sold it to the Rev. Jacob D. Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, who sold it Jan. 20, 1854, to Mrs. Sarah Maria Sharps, whose son, Stephen J. Sharps, sold it Dec. 30, 1889, to Mrs. Jennie M., wife of Samuel R. Shoemaker. The other half of the Thomas B. Curtis lot was later owned by Mrs. C. R. Laycock and is now owned by her daughter, Mrs. Chapin. Adjoining the Curtis lot David Perkins sold four rods frontage to Cornelius Atherton from whom Sheriff Isaac Bowman sold the plot to Solomon Brown of Pittston, who Feb. 13, 1822, sold it to John Benedict by whose estate (William Tompkins, administrator) it was sold April 22, 1840, to James Jenkins, who sold it for parsonage purposes to the Wyoming Methodist Episcopal Church. It is now owned by heirs of William Hancock. Adjoining the Cornelius Atherton plot on the southwest was a plot of about 10 perches frontage. This plot was doubtless the site of the store of Perkins Sons and Atherton, who were assessed in 1815 as shopkeepers, and, in 1826, of the store of Atherton and Jenkins. The Atherton and Schooley store was on the same plot in 1840. The writer understands that John R. Coudry, a son-in-law of Colonel Harris Jenkins, removed his tin and sheet iron factory from its location on what is now West Sixth street in Wyoming to this plot of land and adjoining the James Jenkins store on the northeast. In 1841 James Jenkins owned the store house and lot of Coudry. Judge William Hancock and James Jenkins were joint owners of part of this plot July 16, 1844, when William and Laura (Smith) Hancock sold to James Jenkins a one-half undivided interest in land nearly eleven perches along the road (Wyoming avenue) and about 10 perches deep. James Jenkins then owned land lying in the rear of the Jenkins-Hancock plot. The James Jenkins store with a lot, with 46 feet frontage, was owned by Stephen J. Sharps, in 1867, and the Coudry store and residence with a frontage of 78 feet was owned, in 1867, by James D. Green. About four perches of this plot were deeded to the Methodist Episcopal Church (see sketch Methodist Episcopal Church in Family No. 987). The John Perkins Tavern lot began four inches from the store house of James Jenkins and in 1867, then owned by Dr. Alfred Brace, had 100 feet frontage on Wyoming avenue. Part of the lot is at the present time occupied by Eighth street, Wyoming, and part of it by the First National Bank of Wyoming, Pa.

Van Scoy in 1837. Nov. 15, 1799, David Perkins bought from Elisha Matthewson of Athens, Luzerne Co., Pa., Back Lot No. 32, Third Division of Kingston, which had been part of the estate of Winchester Matthewson* of Kingston. April 4, 1840, he sold to Giles Slocum 38 acres lying along the river and 44 perches wide on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, Pa. This tract adjoined Lot 3, owned by Fisher Gay (The Wyoming Monument Lot) and was part of Meadow Lot No. 2. He also sold to Giles Slocum, the same day, 51 acres of Back Lot No. 32, adjoining Back Lot No. 31 (owned by Fisher Gay), excepting two acres on the "back road" which he had sold to Gamaliel Hill (probably son of Colonel Erastus Hill) Sept. 6, 1832. June 3, 1848, he sold to Eli Swetland for $508, 34½ acres of Lot 32, and June 25, 1852, he sold to Mrs. Margaret (Bird) Swetland, wife of Eli Swetland, 35 acres of Lot 32. This latter tract lay along the "back road" and the tract purchased by Eli Swetland, in 1848, adjoined it on the north. The deed to Mrs. Margaret Swetland stipulated that the coal was to be owned jointly and that either party might "work the same." The Westmoreland Colliery, now owned by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, is on this tract, which was sold by Sheriff Abram Dunn to Warren I. Woodward, April 10, 1856. Aug. 14, 1846, he sold eight acres of 32 adjoining lands of Giles Slocum to Shepherd Goodwin, (Family No. 1230—Goodwin) and 14 acres to John Johnsten. He bought Dec. 14, 1805, from James Wheeler, Sheriff, 300 acres in Roaring Brook (Providence Township), which he sold Feb. 4, 1806, to Jacob Bedford. He also bought 58 acres of Lot No. 38, Exeter, owned by the estate of Solomon Chapin, which he sold April 18, 1818, to Rosewell Smith, son of David Smith, of Exeter. May 17, 1850, he sold to Henry Hice, Robert R. Rupel, Thomas F. Atherton and Steuben Jenkins, Trustees of the Presbyterian Church of Wyoming, part of the land now owned as a parsonage or manse lot by that church at Wyoming, Pa. Thomas F. Atherton of Wyoming, Pa., and John C. Grier of Peoria, Ill., the administrators of the estate of David Perkins, May 12, 1855, sold to Mrs. Sarah Ann Crawford two acres on what is now Wyoming avenue and adjoining on the northeast lands of James W. Perkins. This became known as the Dr. Crawford property. He owned half of Back Lot No. 28, Kingston, which had been bought by James Atherton, Jr., from Aaron Roberts, April 27, 1801, and which the former had probably sold to his son, Elisha Atherton (2d) and David Perkins. David Perkins sold this half of Lot 28, about 80 acres, March 24, 1821, to Thomas Parker Oakley, *Winchester Matthewson, who probably came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., as early as 1775, and whose name appears in the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778, was married, April 18, 1742, at Gloucester, R. I., by Richard Steere, Justice, to Mercy Herendsen. Their children, all born in Gloucester, R. I., excepting Sylvanus and Constant, who were born in Smithfield, R. I., were: 1, Susanna, born Sept. 7, 1742; 2, Mary, born March 18, 1743; 3, Tabitha or Sabatha, born March 29, 1746-7; 4, Rao (Nero), born Oct. 1, 1748, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, leaving heirs and for whose estate his brother, Elisha, was appointed administrator. His name appears as New Matthewson on the Wyoming Monument; 5, Anny or Anna, born Jan. 25, 1749-50; 6, Sylvanus, born May 27, 1751, married, at Gloucester, R. I., June 19, 1774, by Jonathan Harris, Justice, to Bethiah, daughter of Joseph Shippee, of Gloucester; 7, Hannah, born Jan. 4, 1753; 8, Marcy, born April 10, 1755; 9, Major Elisha, born Sept. 8, 1756, served as private in Captain Samuel Ransom's Second Independent Westmoreland Company, in the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution, and afterwards in the Company of Captain Simon Spalding, in the same service. June 11, 1788, he bought from Rosewell Wells, Back Lot No. 6, Third Division, Kingston, 80 acres, and 104 acres of Lot 36, Fourth Division. He became a Major in the Luzerne Co. Militia. April 25, 1799, he bought the interest of the other heirs of his father, Winchester Matthewson's, estate, agreeing to pay to each of the heirs £13, 8s. His attorney, Rosewell Wells, presented his petition, of Dec. 18, 1789, as administrator of the estate of his brother, Nero Matthewson, praying the Orphans' Court for permission to sell the real estate. He was assessed as a resident of Tioga Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1792, and died at Athens, Pa., April 10, 1805. He was married to Elizabeth Satterlee, born 1760, died 1851; 10, Constant, born Jan. 25, 1758, signed the Forty Fort petition of March 6, 1776, (Bib.-1, p. 870) with his brother, Elijah (Elisha) Matthewson, volunteering to enlist as soldiers in the defense of liberty; enlisted and served as private in Captain Samuel Ransom's Second Independent Westmoreland Company in the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution, and was killed by a cannon ball at Fort Mifflin in Nov., 1777. His name appearing in the list of heirs of Winchester Matthewson, April 25, 1799, in Orphans' Court proceedings, he doubtless left heirs; 11, Rosanna, born Aug. 6, 1760; 12, Sabra, born July 29, 1767; 13, Sara, born May 24, 1762, married to Abraham Dutcher, who, April 25, 1799, sold to David Perkins of Kingston all their one-eleventh interest in the estate of Winchester Matthewson. Elizabeth Dutcher, who was married to Samuel Raub, (Family No. 947) was probably a daughter of Abraham and Sarah (Matthewson) Dutcher. Susanna and Marcy Matthewson, daughters of Winchester and Mercy (Herendsen) Matthewson, probably died before April 25, 1799, their names not appearing in the list of heirs named in Orphans' Court proceedings. Dec. 28, 1798, the real estate owned by the estate of Winchester Matthewson included House Lot No. 26, which Elisha Matthewson sold, to Malachi Shoemaker; Meadow Lot No. 36, which Elisha Matthewson sold Nov. 16, 1799, to Thomas Duane, merchant of Kingston, and Back Lot No. 32, Third Division, which Elisha Matthewson sold Nov. 15, 1799, to David Perkins.

(see family No. 1025—Hutchins—Oakley). It was later the homestead of the Rev. Thomas P. Hunt. May 30, 1797, David Perkins bought from Jonathan Hutchins, ten acres of Monockonock Island, bounded northeast by lands of Samuel Carey and southwest by the Hammock. A narrow private road across Meadow Lot 5, owned in 1810, by Belding Swetland, afforded means of access from the main road through Kingston to the bank of the river opposite Monockonock Island. April 1, 1811, a survey made by Isaac Carpenter, Daniel Hoyt, Henry Buckingham, Charles Chapin, Elisha Atherton and John Gore changed the course of this road, and laid it out on the line between Meadow Lots Nos. 5 and 6 for a distance of 80 perches, and thence by several turns and twists, due no doubt to soil conditions, the line reached the "landing place" on the river, opposite the Island of Manoccony." David Perkins retained possession of this portion of Monockonock Island until April 18, 1837, when he sold it to Benjamin Courtright, Benjamin Carpenter, David Perkins, David Smith, Philip Jackson. Benjamin Smith and Gilbert Carpenter were appointed, in April, 1796, as viewers to lay out a road from Carpenter's Mills to the River Susquehanna nearly opposite Jeremiah Blanchard's ferry and subject to the swing gate at the head of the same. In April, 1798, John Jenkins, David Smith, James Gardner, Jonathan Hutchins and Jeremiah Blanchard, Jr., were appointed viewers to lay out a road from near the home of David Smith, in Exeter, thence by the house of James Gardner, (Lot 40, Kingston), and Jonathan Hutchins, (Lot 39) to the lands of David Perkins, subject to the "swing gate." In April, 1801, a petition praying that a road be laid out to begin at or near the school house (corner Eighth street and Wyoming avenue).....and from the school house on a straight line to the Susquehanna River was presented to the Court of Quarter Sessions, and Henry Stark, Cornelius Courtright, William Slocum, Philip Myers, Benjamin Dorrance and Daniel Hoyt were appointed viewers. John Rosencrans, Philip Jackson, David Boice, Isaac Gilbert, John Gee, Lewis Mullison, James Love, James Love, Jr., Joseph Hazard, Samuel Finch, William Slocum, Henry Tuttle and Abraham Van Gorden petitioned, June 2, 1791, for a road between the lands of David Perkins (Lot 38) and lands of Benjamin Follet, deceased, (Lot 39) to the bank of the Susquehanna River, thence up the river to Gardner's Landing.

David Perkins was recommended and licensed as a tavern keeper in Kingston Township in 1794, 1796, 1797, 1799, 1800, 1802, 1803, and 1804. He was appointed Justice of the Peace in 1808, probably succeeding Judge Carpenter, and served until about 1817. He served as Overseer of the Poor in 1814 and 1819. In 1815 "Perkins Son and Atherton" were assessed as shopkeepers in Kingston Township. The will of David Perkins was made July 30, 1850, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 14, 1854. He died Jan. 8, 1854, and with his wife, Mrs. Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins, is buried in the Perkins plot in Forty Fort Cemetery. His second wife, Mrs. Sally (Tuttle) Pettebone-Perkins, is buried on the Pettebone plot in the same cemetery. The children of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins were: 1, Ziba, born Aug. 21, 1790, died Aug. 4, 1825, married, Oct. 10, 1810, to Elisha, son of James and Lydia (Washburn) Atherton, (Family No. 992—Atherton); 2, John, born July 11, 1792, died April 23, 1828, married to Eunice Miller, (see later); 3, Thomas, born about 1793, died Sept. 24, 1810, aed. 17 years, buried in the older part of Forty Fort Cemetery, and near Wyoming avenue; 4, James, born about 1796, died in New York, July 16, 1844, married, Aug. 22, 1826, to Clarissa Hasbrouck Brown, born Nov. 21, 1801, died Aug. 10, 1854, daughter of Jonathan, born July 23, 1761, died Dec. 17, 1807, and Eusebe (Persil) Brown, born Dec. 21, 1777, died Nov. 19, 1801, (Bib.-98); 5, Esther, married to Dr. Renselaer Wells and removed to Illinois; 6, Sarah, born April 23, 1800, died July 27, 1845, married, March 9, 1826, to Giles Slocum, born May 4, 1801, died May 10, 1878, son of William and Sarah (Sawyer) Slocum, (Family No. 1001—Slocum); 7, Mary, born July 20, 1802, died Dec. 22, 1844, married, Dec. 25, 1828, to James, born July 16, 1805, died July 16, 1880, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.), son of Jonathan and Martha (Young) Hancock, (Family No. 948—Hancock); 8, child died in infancy; 9, Captain David, born 1805, (see later); 10, Jane Ann, born July 3, 1807, died at Peoria, Ill., between April 21 and Oct. 14, 1854, dates of the making and the probating of her will, married, May 12, 1842, as second wife to Balser, son of Isaac and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, (Family No. 1252—Carpenter); 11, Sophronia, born about 1810, drowned June 20, 1815, (older part Forty Fort Cemetery); 12, Elizabeth, born March 5, 1812, died Jan. 3, 1892, married, June 24, 1834, to John Cooper Grier, born Feb. 2, 1808, died July 27, 1891, son of the Rev. Isaac and Elizabeth (Cooper) Grier, removed about 1851 to Peoria, Ill.

III. (2). John, son of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., July 11, 1792, and died April 23, 1838. He was married to Eunice, born Sept. 3, 1804, died Jan. 2, 1880, daughter of Christian and Sarah Miller, (Family No. 988—Miller). They are buried on the Perkins plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. March 30, 1824, David Perkins deeded to John Perkins part of Third Division Lot No. 38 and part of Lot 1, Second Division, in Kingston Township, about 80 acres. This tract of land, extending 85 rods on what is now Wyoming avenue, from the southwestern side of Seventh street to the southwestern side of Ninth street in the Borough of Wyoming, Pa., had a frontage of 67 rods on the Susquehanna River. It appears probable to the writer that this tract was the homestead both of John Perkins, Sr., and David Perkins, grandfather and father of John Perkins (2d), and that the David Perkins Tavern stood on the site or near the site now occupied by the First National Bank of Wyoming. John and Eunice (Miller) Perkins established their home on Lot No. 38 and on the present site of the First National Bank of Wyoming, Pa. In 1828 John Perkins was licensed as a tavern keeper and, until his death, he conducted a hotel at New Troy, now Wyoming, Pa. "Troy Corners" appears to have been the name by which the section in the vicinity of Eighth street and Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, was known at an early day. The land lying southwest of the present Eighth street and south of the present Wyoming avenue was all farm land, in 1828, from Eighth street at least as far as the site of the Wyoming Monument and probably as far as the Swetland store. It appears that one of the earliest purchasers of a building lot on the south side of Wyoming avenue, Wyoming, below Eighth street was Charles M. Orr, a blacksmith, who was married to Sarah, a daughter of Belding and Sally (Gay) Swetland. He is described, in a deed of Jan. 22, 1833, conveying to E. D. Whiston, his brother-in-law, title to six rods frontage on what is now Wyoming avenue, from John Perkins, as the owner of land adjoining the plot Whiston bought, on the northeast. The Orr title doubtless reverted to John Perkins, who sold the Orr plot to George Wingard, born Dec. 29, 1811, died April 11, 1843, a blacksmith, July 7, 1834, (see sketch Methodist Episcopal Church, for subsequent history of these plots, in Family No. 987, also Family No. 3—Swetland). John Perkins also sold to Samuel Derrah, born Sept. 21, 1808, died Aug. 23, 1855, (Carverton, Pa., Cemetery), a plot six rods wide and adjoining the Whiston plot. March 30, 1839, Sheriff Thomas Myers sold the Derrah plot to James Jenkins, who, in the same year, sold it to Dr. Alfred Brace. After the death of John Perkins, the administrators of his estate, Thomas F. Atherton and Andrew Miller, exchanged the John Perkins Tavern House and one acre of land with Dr. Alfred Brace for the Derrah property. Two buildings on the plot were consolidated, thus providing a home for Mrs. Eunice (Miller) Perkins and her children. Her children, April 16, 1870, deeded the property to her.

John Perkins was appointed Fence Viewer in 1817, Overseer of the Poor in 1832 and 1833, and served as a member of the Committee of Freeholders in 1828. He died April 23, 1838. His widow, Mrs. Eunice (Miller) Perkins, survived him 42 years and died Jan. 2, 1880. They are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. The heirs of John Perkins sold, Jan. 29, 1870, to William S. Shoemaker, (Family No. 1005), 70 acres of Lots Nos. 38, Third Division, and Lot 1, Second Division, for $30,000. This land was plotted into building lots and became the W. S. Shoemaker addition to Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. The coal underlying it is leased by the Mount Lookout Coal Company. The children of John and Eunice (Miller) Perkins were: 1, Sarah (Elizabeth, born 1824, died 1886, married, 1841, to Thomas Ferrier, born 1816, died April, 1870, son of Elisha and Zibia (Perkins) Atherton; 2, Mary Jane, born 1826, died 1886, married, in 1844, to Elisha Atherton, born 1822, died 1909, son of David and Rebecca (Atherton) Corey, (Family No. 946—Corey); 3, David, born Feb. 29, 1828, died Dec. 10, 1893, married, Dec. 20, 1865, to Christine, born about 1835, died 1918, daughter of Isaac Lewis, whose son, (1), John Lewis, born April 5, 1871, died Nov. 24, 1907, was married to Effie Barber and had two sons, David, born 1892, and Lester Smith, born 1894, and whose daughter, (2), Sarah Atherton, was baptised Sept. 2, 1876, and was married to Harry Williams. Mrs. Sarah Atherton (Perkins) Williams is the only lineal descendant of an original proprietor of lands in Wyoming Borough, who is living today (1919) on lands in Wyoming which were owned by an ancestor who was an original proprietor of those lands. She lives on the David Perkins (2) homestead on Lot 1, Second Division, Kingston. The lot was owned by John Perkins, Sr., who was killed in 1778 by Indians, and has been continuously in the possession of the Perkins family; 4, Esther, born 1832, married, July 25, 1852, to Reuben Albright Henry; 5, Zibia, born July 19, 1834, died Aug. 30, 1878, not married; 6, Caroline Ann, born Jan. 4, 1837, married, July 15, 1858, to Robert Thompson Black, who died May 25, 1900. The residence of Mrs. Eunice (Miller) Perkins was later bought by Dr. Charles P. and Josephine (Knapp) Knapp, who removed the old Perkins house and built the commodious residence now (1919) owned by Dr. A. B. Smith.

III. (9). Captain David Perkins, born about 1805, died Dec. 19, 1848, son of David and Sarah (Ferrier) Perkins, entered the United States Military Academy, at West Point, N. Y., as a cadet, July 1, 1823, and was graduated and promoted Brevet Second Lieutenant July 1, 1827. On the same day he was appointed Second Lieutenant of the Fifth United States Infantry. He was on frontier duty at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1827-28, at Fort Snelling, Minn., in 1828-29, at Fort Howard, Wis., in 1829-30, and at Fort Winnebago, Wis., in 1831-32. He was on recruiting service in 1832-33, and Nov. 4, 1833, was promoted First Lieutenant of the First Dragoons. He served on garrison duty at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1833, on frontier duty at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, in 1833-34, and Nov. 4, 1833, was promoted Captain of the First Dragoons. He was on the expedition to Tow-e-ash Village in 1834, at Fort Gibson, I. T., in 1834-35, on the expedition to the Canadian River in 1835, at Fort Gibson in 1835-36, and at Nacogdoches, Texas, in 1836. He served in the Recruiting Service in 1837-38 and was also on Paymaster duty in 1837. He resigned Feb. 2, 1839. He became a merchant at Tampico, Mexico, and served as Captain of the Citizens' Guard at Tampico. He died in New Orleans, La., Dec. 19, 1848, aed. 43 years. (Bib.-111.)

THE FERRIER FAMILY

I. Thomas Ferrier, born of French Protestant parentage, about 1705, came to America from Ireland about 1727 and settled in Ulster, now Orange Co., N. Y. He died there April 1, 1792. He was married to Hester Lucky, who died March 17, 1796. Some of the children of Thomas and Hester (Lucky) Ferrier were: 1. Mary, (perhaps Mary Hester), born March 11, 1752, died in Delaware Co., Ohio, March 11, 1836, married to Judge Benjamin, son of Benjamin and Mary Carpenter, of Orange Co., N. Y., (Family No. 14—Carpenter); 2. Jane, died in Genoa, Cayuga Co., N. Y., in March, 1814, married to Rev. Anning Owen, (see later); 3. Robert, born Oct. 9, 1762, died in Warwick, Orange Co., N. Y., Jan. 6, 1822, married to Mary Wilcox, born Sept. 3, 1764, died at Dundee, Yates Co., N. Y., March 2, 1836; 4. Sarah, born Aug. 17, 1767, died Jan. 1, 1845, at Troy, now Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., married to David Perkins, son of John Perkins, (see Perkins Family and the Ferrier Genealogy).

II. (2). Jane, daughter of Thomas and Hester (Lucky) Ferrier, was born in Orange Co., N. Y., and was married to the Rev. Anning Owen, the pioneer Methodist preacher of the Wyoming Valley, Pa. (Bib.-968.) He bought Lot No. 14 of the Third Division of Lots in Kingston Township and there they established their home. A record of his ministerial service in the regular ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church may be found in Family No. 987. Four of the children of the Rev. Anning and Sarah (Ferrier) Owen were, apparently: 1. Benjamin, died early; 2. Sarah, died early; 3. Christiana, married, Jan. 18, 1807, to Anglehart, (probably Englehart) Hartsough of Kingston, presumably son of Zachariah Hartsough, a noted early mill man of the Wyoming Valley; 4. Betsey, married, Feb. 23, 1806, to John Shaw. In 1813 Anning Owen became a superannuated member of the Genesee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and established his home in the town of Genoa, Cayuga Co., N. Y. In March, 1814, Zachariah Hartsough and his wife died there, victims of an epidemic then prevalent. Anning Owen is said to have contracted the same disease and to have died in March, 1814, his wife's death occurring the following day. (Bib.-72, Vol. 8, p. 362.) According to Dr. George Peck, Anning Owen and his brother-in-law, Benjamin Carpenter, took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and were eyewitnesses of the deliberate murder of Lieutenant Elijah Shoemaker, (see Schoonmaecker family following). Further reference to Rev. Anning Owen in sketch of Methodist Episcopal Church in Family No. 987.

SCHOONMAECKER

Captain Jockom Henderixen Schoonmaecker (Bib.-242), then a young man, went from New Albanien, (Albany) N. Y., to Wiltwyk, (Esopus, Sopus, Kingston), Ulster Co., N. Y., and was married there, Aug. 31, 1679, to Pieterneletie Slecht. (Bib.-242.) He served as a Captain in the Ulster Co., N. Y., Militia, was a Magistrate, and, in 1728, was a freeholder in Rochester, Ulster Co., N. Y. He was wounded in his own house in the "Esopus War" and one of his children was carried away prisoner. (Bib.-138.) He was born about 1655 and died after Dec. 4, 1729, and before Nov. 7, 1730. The children of Jockom (Jochem) and Pieternelletie (Slecht) Schoonmaecker* were: 1, Cornelius, baptised Jan. 15, 1682, Cornelius Slegt and Wyntie Bos, sponsors, married, Dec. 19, 1711, to Engeltjen Rosa, was a freeholder in "Shawengough," Ulster Co., in 1728; 2, Hendrick, baptised Aug. 17, 1683, married to Heyltie Gerritse Dekker, banns published Nov. 25, 1704; 3, Tryntie, baptised Nov. 22, 1684, married to Jacobus Bruyn, banns published Nov. 18, 1704; 4, Elsie, baptised Dec. 12, 1685, married to Joseph Hasbroeck, banns published Oct. 27, 1706; 5, Jacomyna, baptised April 29, 1687, married, Sept. 22, 1726, to Johannes Miller. Jockom Henderixen Schoonmaecker, described as the widower of Pieterrella Sleckt, was married (2), April 28, 1692, to Antje Hussey, and their children were: 6, Frederick, baptised Jan. 28, 1693, married (1), May 1, 1712, to Anna De Witt, (Family No. 1334—De Witt), married (2), Feb. 6, 1717, to Eva Swartwout, was a freeholder in Rochester in 1728. A Frederick Schoonmaecker was Corporal in Captain Johannes Ten Broeck's Company of Troopers, Ulster Co. Militia, in 1738, and a Frederick Schoonmaecker was a private in Captain Daniel Broadhead's Company of Ulster Co. Militia, at Marbletown, in 1738. A Frederick Schoonmaker of Marbletown made his will Oct. 25, 1775, and it was probated Dec. 15, 1778. It names his sons, Thomas and Frederick, his daughters, Antje, married to Harmanus Rosenkrans; Rachel, married to Samson Sammis; Lydia, married to Benjamin Hasbroeck; Maria, married to Andrew Roosa; Sara, married to Johannes Rosenkranz; Testinte, married to William Wood, and his grandson, Jacob D. De Witt; 7, Jan, baptised June 3, 1694, married to Margreetjin Hoornbeck, a freeholder in Kingston in 1728; 8, Margaret, baptised Dec. 15, 1695, married, Feb. 14, 1716, to Moses, Jr., son of Moses and Maria (Wynkoop) DuPuis, (Du Puis family later); 9, Jacobus, baptised May 8, 1698, married, Oct. 15, 1729, to Maria Rosenkranz, a freeholder in Rochester, in 1728; 10, Elizabeth, baptised Feb. 18, 1699, married, Sept. 3, 1719, to Benjamin, son of Moses and Maria (Wynkoop) Du Puis; 11, Benjamin, baptised April 19, 1702, (see later); 12, Antje, baptised Aug. 11, 1706, married to Cornelius Wynkoop, banns published Oct. 12, 1729; 13, Sarah, baptised Zarah, June 20, 1707, married, Aug. 20, 1725, to Jacobus, son of Moses and Maria (Wynkoop) Du Puis, whose daughter, Antje, was married, April 23, 1752, to Benjamin, Jr., son of Benjamin and Catharina (Du Puis) Schoonmaecker; 14, Jochem, Jr., baptised Nov. 12, 1710, married to Lydia Rosenkranz; 15, Daniel, baptised Feb. 22, 1713, married, Oct. 26, 1733, to Magdalena Jansz, some of whose children were: (1), Thomas, baptised Nov. 17, 1734; (2), Jochem, baptised Feb. 13, 1737; (3), Hendrickus, baptised Aug. 12, 1739; (4), Cathrina, baptised Jan. 27, 1745; (5), Annatje, baptised Dec. 25, 1747. He settled in Smithfield, Bucks, later Northampton, Co., Pa. He was a member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and his name appears on the Indian Deed of 1754. His will was made, "This second day of Feb., in the thirteenth year of our Sovereign Lord, King George the Third, and in the year of our Lord God, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three." It was probated at Easton, Northampton Co., Pa., June 4, 1787, and describes him as of Lower Smithfield, Northampton Co., Pa. It names his wife, Ann, probably second wife, as living. It also names his son, Henry, his daughter Hannah Emmens, and his two younger daughters, Ann and Sarah Shoemaker. It also refers to Elizabeth Van Campen and Mary Van Campen, daughters of Moses Depue, deceased, and to Cornelius Van Campen, husband of Wenefred Van Campen. It also names his younger son, Samuel, evidently a minor, and made some provision for his education. Nicholas, son of Samuel Depue and Mrs. Ann Shoemaker, were named executors. R. Lockerby, Benjamin Shoemaker and James Brink were witnesses.

II. (11). Benjamin, son of Jockom (Jochem) Henderixen and Antje (Hussey) Schoonmaecker, was baptised at Rochester, Ulster Co., N. Y., April 17, 1702, and was married (1), May 10, 1722, to Catharine (3), baptised Nov. 30, 1701, daughter of Moses and Maria (Wynkoop) Du Puis of Rochester. He was a freeholder in Rochester in 1728, but removed later to Smithfield, formerly Upper Milford, Bucks, later Northampton Co., Pa., where he died about 1775. He was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and previous to July 18, 1753, with his brother, Daniel, had paid his assessment of $2.00, to Jedediah Elderkin. (Bib.-16.) Describing Benjamin and Daniel Schoonmaecker (Shoemaker) as of "The Government of Pennsylvania," the names of Daniel Shoemaker and Benjamin Shoemaker appear on the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754. He was one of the original settlers who came to the Wyoming Valley in 1762, and he and his son, Elijah, were members of the "First Forty" Settlers at Wyoming in 1769 (Bib.-1.) Some of the children of Benjamin and Catharine (DuPuis) Schoonmaecker were: Zusanna (Susanna), baptised Sept. 23, 1722, probably married to Johannes Rosenkranz; 2, Antjen, baptised Jan. 19, 1723; 3, Jacobus, baptised May 2, 1725; 4, Maria, baptised Feb. 12, 1727, perhaps married, April 15, 1750, to Johannes Brnyn; 5, Daniel, baptised May 11, 1729, probably died early; 6, Benjamin, Jr., died before May 20, 1757, married, April 23, 1752, to Antje, daughter of Jacobus and Zarah (Sarah) (Schoonmaecker) Du Puis, (Du Puis later). She made her will May 20, 1757, describing herself as the "Widow of Benjamin Shoemaker, Jr., of Rochester." It was probated Oct. 12, 1761. It named her son Benjamin, born in 1753, and her sisters, Elizabeth, Catharina, Susanna and Sarah, and appointed her brother, Jacobus Du Puis, Jr., and her brother-in-law, Joseph Schoonmaker, executors; Benjamin and Cornelius Du Puy and Johannes Vander Merker signed the will as witnesses; 7, Joseph, baptised Jan. 14, 1733, named as brother-in-law and executor in the will of Antje, widow of Benjamin Schoonmaker, Jr.; 8, Johannes, baptised Feb. 2, 1735; 9, Moses, baptised Nov. 5, 1738. Benjamin Schoonmaker was married (2) to Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas and Wynte (Roosa) DuPuis, and three of their children were: 10, Elizabeth, baptised Oct. 19, 1743, (Bib.-240); 11, Daniel (2d), born about 1751, married to Ann, daughter of John and Hannah (Du Puis) McDowell, removed from Smithfield, Northampton Co., Pa., to Luzerne Co., Pa., where he bought a number of lots in Kingston Township, which he later sold to his nephew, Colonel Elijah Shoemaker,* Jr., and removed to the vicinity of Owego, N. Y., where his son, Robert, born 1785, died Sept. 11, 1802. Daniel Shoemaker was a taxpayer in Kingston in 1796; 12, Elijah, born about 1752, who went to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., with his father, and settled there. He is named in Mr. Harvey's list of the "First Forty" Settlers in 1769. (Bib.-1.) He was Lieutenant of Captain Aholiab Buck's Company, the Kingston Company, and took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. After the battle and while seeking to escape from the field he was treacherously murdered by a Montgomery Co., N. Y., Tory named Windecker, (Family No. 471—Windecker), whom he had previously befriended. See Dr. Peck's History of Wyoming, and Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, (Bib.-8 and 1.) Elijah Shoemaker was married to Jane, daughter of John and Hannah (DuPuis) McDowell of Smithfield, Northampton Co., Pa. Their only child, Colonel Elijah Shoemaker, born May 20, 1778, died July 14, 1829, was married, May 28, 1800, to Elizabeth, born March 7, 1777, died Oct. 15, 1831, daughter of Colonel Nathan and Elizabeth (Sill) Dennison. See Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre for sketch of the family of Colonel Elijah Shoemaker and that of Colonel Nathan Dennison. Mrs. Jane (McDowell) Shoemaker was married (2) to Laban Blanchard, (Family No. 33—Blanchard).

*Another family of Schoonmaeckers lived in Kingston, Ulster Co., N. Y., at the same time. This appears to have been the family of Hendrick Henderixen Schoonmaecker. Eghbert Schoonmaecker, a Justice in Kingston, Tjerick Schoonmaker, a Hiskiag (Hezekiah) Schoonmaker, Captain Hendrick H. and Johannes H. Schoonmaecker were freeholders in Kingston in 1728. (Bib.-138.)

*Malachi Shoemaker, perhaps a son of Daniel Shoemaker, was a resident of Kingston Township for at least 23 years. In 1804 he was assessed as a hatter. Aug. 26, 1802, then of Kingston, he bought from Isaac Dow Trip, House Lot No. 25, five acres, in Kingston. He also bought House Lot 26 from Elisha Matthewson. March 8, 1803, with Daniel Stroud of Northampton Co., Pa., he bought from Elijah Shoemaker four acres of House Lots Nos. 35 and 36. These lands Malachi Shoemaker and Daniel Stroud sold Oct. 18, 1803, to Jacob Stroud of Northampton Co., Pa. June 23, 1823, Samuel Carver and John Smith, Trustees for the Proprietors of Kingston Township, sold to Malachi Shoemaker, 54 acres of Public Lot No. 5. Malachi Shoemaker was married, in Kingston, by David Perkins, Esq., in Dec., 1808, to Susan Shaver, probably daughter of John Adam and Elizabeth (Swartwood) Shaver of Kingston. An infant child of Malachi Shoemaker was drowned in Hartsoff's (Toby's) Creek, in July, 1814.

Thomas Swartwood of Upper Smithfield, Bucks Co., Pa., and Elizabeth Ennes were married, at Marbletown, Ulster Co., N. Y., June 4, 1754. Among their children were: 1, Alexander, baptised May 13, 1764, died July 26, 1825, (Swartwood Cemetery, Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.), married, July 23, 1787, (Bib.-240) to Caty Shoemaker, born 1766, died July 6, 1832, (Swartwood Cemetery). He bought, Feb. 28, 1792, 15 acres of Lot 34, Third Division, Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa., from Isaac Corey. He sold this lot to Jacob Bedford and removed to what has since been known as the Swartwood section, on the Susquehanna River, in Exeter Township. The printed stories of his extensive holdings of Kingston Township lands are, apparently, not founded on fact; 2, Joseph, baptised May 24, 1766; 3, Elizabeth, born Oct. 14, baptised Nov. 20, 1768, married to John Adam Shaver. Their daughter, Sara, born April 24, 1786, was baptised April 30, 1786, Thomas and Elizabeth (Ennes) Swartwood, sponsors; 4, Marie, baptised June 15, 1775. (Bib.-240.)

THE DU PUIS FAMILY

(DU PUY, DU PUYS, DE PUY, DE PU, DE PUIS, ETC.)

I. Nicholas Du Puis,* said to have been of French ancestry, was married to Catalyna Du Vois and, upon coming to America, apparently settled in New York. He was a resident of that city in 1669 when his daughter, Susanna, was baptised and still resided there Oct. 13, 1685, when his will was made. It was written in Dutch and was proved July 14, 1690. Letters of administration upon his estate were granted Sept. 5, 1691, to his widow, Catalyna DuPuis. He gave to his wife, Catalyna, the use of all his property during her lifetime and provided that after her death it should be divided between his four children, Jan, Moses, Susannah and Nicholas. Of the children of Nicholas and Catalyna (Du Vois) Du Puis. Susannah was baptised April 7, 1669, and Nicholas, Jr., was baptised July 11, 1670. (Bib.-241.)

II. (2). Moses, son of Nicholas and Catalyna (Du Vois) Du Puis, was married (1) to Maria Wynkoop. They lived in Rochester, Ulster Co., N. Y., where all their children were baptised. Their children were: 1, Marytyen, baptised April 24, 1681, Johannes Wincob and Light Artsen and Nicholas De Put and Catrinten De Put, sponsors; 2, Nicholas, baptised Dec. 3-5, 1682, (see later); 3, Cathrina, baptised April 6, 1684, Nicholas De Puy and Catalyna (de Vos) De Puys, sponsors; 4, Magdalena, baptised March 14, 1686; 5, Cornelius, baptised Jan. 1, 1688, married, May 6, 1713, to Catryngen Van Aken; 6, Catrina (2), baptised May 25, 1690; 7, Moses, Jr., baptised Sept. 27, 1691, married, Feb. 14, 1716, to Grietjen (Margaret), daughter of Jockom Henderixen and Antje (Hussey) Schoonmaecker; 8, Benjamin, baptised Oct. 13, 1695, married, Sept. 3, 1719, to Elizabeth, daughter of Jockom Hendrixen and Antje (Hussey) Schoonmaecker; 9, Susanna, baptised Jan. 9, 1698; 10, Catharine, baptised Nov. 30, 1701, married, May 10, 1722, to Benjamin, son of Jockom Henderixen and Antje (Hussey) Schoonmaecker, as first wife; 11, Jacobus, baptised Sept. 19, 1703, married, Dec. 25, 1725, to Zarah (Sarah), daughter of Jockom Henderixen and Antje (Hussey) Schoonmaecker; 12, probably Johannes, married, Dec. 25, 1725, to Zara Van Steenberg. Moses Du Puis, described as the widower of Marya Wynkoop, was married (2), Oct. 17, 1724, to Mrs. Peterneltjen De Pree, widow of Marinus Van Aken. A Marytjen Du Puis, doubtless the first child of Moses and Maria (Wynkoop) Du Puis, was married, Dec. 11, 1713, to Alexander Rosenkrans, (Family No. 946—Rosencrans).

Mr. Moses De Pue, listed among the old men was a freeholder in Rochester, N. Y., in 1728. Moses De Pew, Jr., and Johannes De Pew were also freeholders in Rochester in 1728. Benjamin De Pew was a freeholder in Marbletown, Ulster Co., N. Y., in 1728. (Bib.-138.)

III. (2). Nicholas, son of Moses and Maria (Wynkoop) Du Puis, was baptised at Rochester, N. Y., (Ulster Co.), Dec. 3-5, 1682. He was married to Wyntje Roosa, their banns having been published March 22, 1707. Some of their children were: 1, Maria, baptised June 20, 1708, perhaps married, Dec. 15, 1728, to Henderickus Rosenkrans of Rochester; 2, Cathrina, baptised Nov. 12, 1710, perhaps married, Feb. 1, 1730, to Ary Tack; 3, Moses, baptised Feb. 1, 1713, Moses Du Puis and Maria (Wynkoop) Du Puis, sponsors; 4, Ariaan (Aaron), baptised Feb. 27, 1715, was a member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., probably lived in Smithfield, Bucks Co., Pa.; 5, Zamuel (Samuel), baptised Dec. 23, 1716, was a member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., lived in Smithfield, Bucks Co., Pa., and was married before July 5, 1742, to Jenny McDowell, probably sister of John McDowell, of Smithfield, (Family No. 1313—McDowell); 6, Zusanna (Susanna), baptised May 31, 1719, Ary Roosa and Johanna de Hooges, sponsors; 7, Hannah, baptised May 31, 1719, Moses De Pue and Maritje De Lange, sponsors, married to John McDowell; 8, Elizabeth, baptised Aug. 6, 1721, Benjamin De Pue and Elizabeth Schoonmaecker, sponsors, married, as second wife, to Benjamin, son of Jockom Henderixen and Antje (Hussey) Schoonmaecker; 9, Daniel, baptised Dec. 25, 1723, married to ———, had a son, Daniel, Jr., married to Annatje Westbroeck; 10, Magdalena, baptised June 26, 1726, Susanna, daughter of Nicholas and Wyntje (Roosa) Du Puis, was probably married to Abraham Van Campen. Moses, son of Abraham and Susanna (Du Puis) Van Campen, was baptised May 3, 1743. Moses and Marritje (De Pree) Du Puis, sponsors.

*Another Nicholas Du Puis of New York was married to Catharine Reynolds and three of their children were: 1, Aaron, baptised Nov., 1664; 2, Magdalena, baptised Feb. 16, 1667; 3, Paulus, baptised Aug. 11, 1675.

THE McDOWELL FAMILY

I. Robert and Jane McDowell, of Upper Milford, later Smithfield, Bucks, later Northampton, Co., Pa., had at least two children: 1, Jennie, who was married to Samuel, son of Nicholas and Wyntje (Roosa) Du Puis, and 2, John, born May 20, 1714, died Sept. 7, 1779.

II. (2). John, son of Robert and Jane McDowell, was married to Hannah, baptised May 31, 1719, daughter of Nicholas and Wyntje (Roosa) Du Puis. In 1776 he was Ensign of Captain Peter Rundio's Company of Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, part of Washington's Flying Camp, in the War of the American Revolution. He was one of the Proprietors of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., and owned lands in Kingston and Providence Township. Eight of the children of John and Hannah (Du Puis) McDowell were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Robert, of Kingston in 1798, a member of the Grand Jury of Luzerne Co., Pa., in March, 1788, sold, Sept. 26, 1798, to Philip Jackson two-tenths of a full right of land in Kingston, part under improvement of Philips Jackson, and also River Lot No. 3; 2, Daniel, of Chemung, Montgomery Co., N. Y., Dec. 3, 1789, sold to Philip Jackson, a weaver, all tracts or parcels of land formerly claimed by my father, John McDowell; 3, Winty, married to Abraham Miller of Tioga, N. Y., April 28, 1791, sold to Philip Jackson a one-tenth interest in land formerly owned by John McDowell, deceased, situated in Kingston and known as the Jesse Lee lot; 4, Jane, married (1) to Lieutenant Elijah, born about 1752, killed after the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Du Puis) Schoonmaker, married (2) to Laban Blanchard, (Family No. 33—Blanchard); 5, Sarah, married (1) to Jesse Lee (Family No. 1174—Tuttle, No. 994—Lee), married (2) to Philip Jackson. She was born Jan. 31, 1749, and died Feb. 25, 1809. Philip Jackson was born about 1757, and died May 26, 1851, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), (Family No. 1313—Jackson); 6, Elizabeth, baptised 1743, (Bib.-240), married to Colonel Jacob Stroud, Northampton Co. Militia in the War of the American Revolution; 7, Ann, married to Daniel, born about 1751, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Du Puis) Schoonmaker, served as Lieutenant in the Northampton Co., Pa., Militia in the War of the American Revolution, and from March 4, 1831, a pensioner of the Federal Government, living in 1832. Removed to the Wyoming Valley, but went from there to the vicinity of Elmira, N. Y.; 8, Hannah, born April 15, 1752, died July 8, 1812, married, about 1770, to John Shaw.

THE JACKSON FAMILY

I. Asa Jackson,* according to Colonel Wright (Bib.-55) was drowned in the great ice flood in the Susquehanna River March 13-14, 1784. This author describes Asa Jackson as of Abraham's Plains.

II. (1). Philip Jackson, born in 1757, died in Kingston Township, May 26, 1851, was probably a son of an Asa Jackson. Philip Jackson was married, about 1786, to Sarah, born Jan. 31, 1749, died Feb. 25, 1809, daughter of John and Hannah (Du Puis) McDowell, of Smithfield, Northampton Co., Pa., and widow of Jesse Lee of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1790 Elizabeth Jackson and Philip Jackson were residents of Luzerne Co., Pa. Elizabeth Jackson then had in family herself and one other female. Philip Jackson then had in family himself three males under 14 and four females. His family doubtless included the children of Jesse Lee, of whom there were at least two. Some of the children of Philip and Sarah (McDowell) Lee-Jackson were: 1, Anny, born about 1787, baptised† Oct. 29 or Nov. 4, 1788, (Bib.-240) died at Newton, Tioga Co., N. Y., Dec. 4, 1806; 2, Asa, born Jan. 8, 1789, baptised July 8, 1789, (Bib.-240), married to Mrs. Phebe (Tuttle) McVickers, widow of James McVickers, and daughter of Henry Tuttle, Jr., (Family No. 1174—Tuttle); 3, Philip, who removed to a Western State. Philip Jackson was married (2) to Margaret Space, born 1787, died March 9, 1867, and some of their children were: 4, Sarah Ann, born June 3, 1810, died March 29, 1883, married to Daniel Roat of Kingston, born June 3, 1803, died March 1, 1857, (Forty Fort Cemetery; 5, Ellen, married to Charles, son of Henry Hay, removed to Ohio; 6, Jane A., married (1) to Oliver, born Oct. 18, 1826, died Oct. 16, 1849, son of William and Rhoda Culver of Kingston, Pa., married

*Another Asa Jackson (according to Dr. Miner, Bib.-4) was killed by Indians in 1779. He was a son of William Jackson.

†A number of Wyoming Valley children were baptised at about this time, some of them, and probably all of them, by a pastor of the Deer Park, N. Y., Reformed Church, who was, apparently, upon a visit to some of his former parishioners in the Wyoming Valley. These baptisms may be found in the records of the Deer Park Church. (Bib.-240.)

(2) to Mr. Updyke; 7, John S., born Aug. 24, 1815, died March 17, 1899, married (1) to Anna Allabach, born May 5, 1815, died Nov. 18, 1873, married (2) to Sally A. Dreher, born Sept. 13, 1827, died June 9, 1890. His children were: (1), Sarah Ann, born June, 1836, died Aug. 26, 1851; (2), Matilda, born Nov. 5, 1838, died July 10, 1842; (3), John, born June, 1841, died Aug. 17, 1842; (4), Charles, born 1843, died 1893, married to Catharine, born 1848, died 1912, daughter of Benjamin Stroh; (5), Eliza, born June 28, 1848, married to Adam Heisz, born Nov. 19, 1846, living in Forty Fort, Pa., 1919; (6), Mary, married to Joel Walp, lives in Kingston, Pa.; 8, Mary (Polly), born Oct. 24, 1817, married, Nov. 5, 1837 to Charles Lapha, born July 19, 1815.

The first wife of Philip Jackson was apparently an ardent Methodist and their home was a famous "meeting place." One of the most remarkable meetings ever held in Kingston under the auspices of the Methodists was a quarterly meeting held in the home of Philip Jackson. See "Chaffee's History of the Wyoming Conference." Philip Jackson was appointed Supervisor of Kingston in 1795 and from 1802 to 1808 served as Constable. In 1809 he was licensed as an innkeeper. In 1798 he was described as a weaver by trade. The home of Philip and Sarah (McDowell) Lee-Jackson was on Third Division Lot No. 31. It was later the home of Fisher Gay, (Family No. 50—Gay) and he sold it to Payne Pettebone. In his later years he lived in what is now Forty Fort borough. As a young man Philip Jackson was a very active participant in the real estate transactions of his day, and owned, at various times, valuable real estate in Providence, Pittston and Kingston Townships. His name appears frequently in this work in this connection. He, both of his wives, and a number of his descendants are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery.

ISAAC CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1314—(1313)

Isaac, son of Balser and Jane (Bennet) Carpenter, was born Oct. 29, 1835, and was married, June 2, 1870, to Mary F., daughter of Jedediah and Cornelia (Belding) Schooley. He built his home in Exeter Township, near the site of the Scovel burying ground, from which all the bodies were removed, many of them to Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre. Their children were: 1, John Willard, born July 29, 1871, died Sept. 13, 1877; 2, Lulu Cornelia, born Dec. 19, 1872, died June 4, 1885; 3, Rollin Gorman, born May 13, 1874; 4, Bennet Belding, born Sept. 24, 1877; 5, Baltice J., born Aug. 22, 1883; 6, Marion, born Oct. 25, 1884, died Dec. 28, 1884; 7, Alice, died Aug. 28, 1882. Isaac Carpenter died in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., June 25, 1885. His wife, Mrs. Mary Frances (Schooley) Carpenter, born Dec. 9, 1845, died Jan. 2, 1915. They are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

THE SCHOOLEY FAMILY

The early Schooley families of Burlington Co., N. J., were descendants of: 1, John; 2, Thomas, and 3, Robert Scholey, natives of England, and members of the Society of Friends or Quakers.

I. John Scholey, who is described in a deed of Jan. 11, 1687-8, as late of Angh-ton, Parish of Aston, County of York, Great Britain, is thought to have come to America about 1680. He apparently settled near Chesterfield, Burlington Co., N. J., and Jan. 11, 1687-8, sold to William Watson, late of Farmsfield, Nottingham Co., England, 100 acres, "a plantation now occupied by him on Doctor's Creek," adjoining lands of the grantee. The will of John Scholey was made March 29, 1695, and was probated April 7, 1696. It names his wife, Isabel, and their two sons, John and Thomas. The inventory of his estate, all personal, made by Thomas Scholey, John Murfin, Matthew Champion and William Bustill, was filed Jan. 8, 1695-6, and letters of administration were granted, April 7, 1696, to his widow, Isabel Scholey, with Matthew Champion and Daniel Smith on her bond. Some of the children of John and Isabel were: 1, John, Jr.; 2, Thomas; 3, (probably) Katharina, married (1) to _____ Beard, married (2) to Matthew Champion*; 4, daughter, married to John

*Matthew Champion of Oneanickon, Burlington Co., N. J., and Katharine, "his now wife, formerly Widow Beard," June 1, 1697, sold to Gervis Pharo, late of Drayton House, Burlington

Murfin, had a son, William; 5, daughter, married, as first wife, to Thomas Ridgway; 6, daughter, married to Gervis (Jarvis) Pharo, had a son, James Pharo, and a daughter, Mary (Pharo) Holywell, and perhaps others. (See will of Matthew Champion below):

II. (1). John, Jr., son of John and Isabel Scholey, born in England, was married (1) to Rebecca Bennet, in 1696, and was married (2) to Mrs. Frances (Taylor) Nicholson, widow of Joseph Nicholson, of Burlington, N. J. This John Scholey, July 10, 1691, sold 50 acres of land to his sister (?), the widow Katharine Beard, at Ononickon. He also sold, June 18, 1697, to Gervas Pharo, late of Nottingham, probably his brother-in-law, 50 acres of land adjoining lands of Matthew Champion, (Oneanickon). Described, Nov. 16, 1694, as of Oneanickon, Burlington Co., N. J., he bought from George Hutcheson, distiller, of Burlington Co., 125 acres, to be surveyed out of lands bought of Thomas Hutcheson and Mahlon Stacy, July 1, 1687. He was of Springfield, Burlington Co., N. J., Jan. 15, 1731-2, when his will was made. It was probated Feb. 8, 1735. The will of his second wife, Frances, of Springfield, Burlington Co., N. J., was made April 4, 1744, and was probated April 23, 1750. The children of John Scholey, Jr., probably all children of his second wife, were: 1, Anna, married to Thomas Scattergood; 2, Susanna, married to Michael Newbold, Jr., whose children in 1744, were: John, Ann, Clayton, Rebekah, Mary and Michael Newbold; 3, John (3); 4, Thomas, died early; 5, Mary, married to Jonathan Barton, had a son, Jonathan Barton, Jr., in 1744; 6, Isabel, married to Jacob Ridgway; 7, Samuel; 8, Rebecca, married to Joseph Wright; 9, Sarah, married to Joseph Horner; 10, Jonathan, married to Mary Wright.

II. (2). Thomas, son of John and Isabel Scholey, was probably the Thomas Scholey referred to in a number of the deeds to which reference is made in the sketch of Thomas Scholey following.

2. I. Thomas Scholey came to America, according to Dr. Chambers (Bib.-189) on the ship "Willing Mind" in Nov., 1677, and, according to the same authority April 12, 1680. Robert and Thomas Scholey of Crewcurn, (in some deeds Crookhorn, Bucks Co., Pa.) petitioned that no liquor be sold to Indians. (Bib.-189.) He is described as a clothmaker and a planter, and it is probable that for him Schooley's Mountain, a famous landmark in what is now Warren Co., N. J., was named. Nov. 13, 1680, a return of a survey, to Robert and Thomas Scholey, was made, describing 200 acres of land on the Delaware River, between the lands of John Rogers and Crosswick Creek. A resurvey of this same tract to Robert Scholey was returned Sept. 21, 1682, which described the tract as containing 205 acres adjoining the dwelling house of Robert Scholey. A Thomas Scholey described as of Mansfield, Woodhouse, Burlington Co., N. J., March 3-4, 1684-5, bought from Roger Hawkins of Crookhorn, Pa., "one-half and one-fifteenth of a share" excepting 62 acres sold to William Black and a lot in Burlington Town. Sept. 27-28, 1681, William Black, late of Mansfield Woodhouse, a stuffmaker, bought from George Hutcheson "one-thirty-second share" and sold the same, March 19, 1684-5, to Samuel Taylor of Crosswick Creek, stuffmaker. June 11, 1689, William Black, a stuffmaker, executed a deed, to replace a conveyance which had been burned with Hawkins' house, conveying to Roger Hawkins of Crookhorn, Bucks Co., Pa., title to one-half and one-fifteenth of a share excepting 60 acres. Feb. 12, 1685-6, a return of a survey, to Thomas Scholey, was made, for 340 acres between lands of George Hutcheson, Michael Newbold, Eliakim Higgins and William Biddle, (probably in Oneanickon). July 1, 1685, William Emley of Nottingham, near the Falls of the Delaware, sold to Thomas Scholey 100 acres of land to be surveyed in the First Yorkshire, Tenth. March 28, 1688, Thomas Scholey of Oneanickon, husbandman, sold to Nicholas Young, late of Burlington, a surveyor, formerly a servant of Roger Hawkins of Pennsylvania, whose estate said

Co., 200 acres of land of which 100 acres was sold to Katharine Beard, widow, by George Hutcheson, 50 acres by John Scholey, July 10, 1691, and 50 acres sold to Matthew Champion by Thomas Budd, Feb. 2, 1696-7. The will of Matthew Champion of Burlington Co., N. J., was made Dec. 18, 1733, and was probated Oct. 21, 1735. It names several members of the Burlington Quarterly and Monthly Meeting of Friends, providing a bequest for each, and names three of Matthew Champion's cousins, (a), James Dent of Thorne, Co. of York, Great Britain; (b), Hannah Knight of Winteringham, near Thelby, Lincolnshire; (c), Rachel, wife of Thomas Major, of Yorkshire. The will recites that, in a former will, Matthew Champion had bequeathed a considerable estate to his wife, who was now (Dec. 18, 1733) deceased, and now gave the estate to her friends and relatives as follows: 1, Garvis Pharo and his son, James; 2, her kinsman, John Scholey, and his children; 3, her kinsman, Thomas Ridgway's children by his first wife; 4, her kinsman, William Murfin's children; 5, her kinsman, James Pharo, and his sister, Mary Holywell's children; 6, John Butcher, Jr., wife and children; 7, May, wife of Daniel Smith, and her children; 8, her brother-in-law, John Murfin; 9, John Syke's children.

Scholey bought, 100 acres to be surveyed in West Jersey. June 20, 1696, Thomas Clark of Burlington Co. sold to Thomas Scholey 200 acres on "The Old Indian Purchase" at Oneanickon. How many of these transactions were those of Thomas Scholey, Sr., and how many of them were those of Thomas, son of John Scholey, the present writer cannot determine.

Thomas Scholey was married, in 1686, to Sarah Parke or Parker*. The will of Thomas Scholey of Chesterfield, Burlington Co., N. J., was made Feb. 6, 1723-4, and was probated April 21, 1724. It names his wife, Sarah, and the following children: 1, Mary, married Feb. 6, 1710, to Thomas Wright, (Bib.-323); 2, Sarah, married April 4, 1718, to Samuel, born Feb. 15, 1695, son of Thomas and Mary (Stockton) Shinn, (Bib.-323 and 324); 3, Alice; 4, Elizabeth; 5, John, (see later); 6, Samuel, married March 27, 1725, to Avis Holloway of Chesterfield, (Bib.-323). They also had a son, Thomas, Jr., not named in the will, who was married March 5, 1720, to Hannah, daughter of John and Rose Fowler of Monmouth Co., (Bib.-323). Thomas and Sarah Scholey, William Scholey and Elizabeth Scholey were among the witnesses present of the marriage of Thomas Scholey, Jr. Sarah, Thomas, John, Elizabeth and Hannah Scholey were among the witnesses at the marriage of Samuel Scholey. The inventory of the estate of Thomas Scholey, which included 350 acres at the "Mountains," was made by Asher Cleayton, Richard Brown and William Wood.

A marriage license was issued Sept. 14, 1727, to John Scholey and Mary Wilson of Burlington Co. This John Scholey was doubtless John, son of Thomas and Sarah (Park or Parker) Scholey. John Scholey of Chesterfield, a weaver, made his will April 18, 1748, and it was probated May 10, 1748. It names his wife, Mary; one child, Jehoshada, and refers to other children not named. A marriage license was issued Aug. 26, 1759, to Jehoshabah Scholey and John Thompson, of Burlington.

3. I. Robert Scholey is said to have come to America from England on the ship "Shield," Oct., 1678, accompanied by his wife and children. April 12, 1680, then living at Crewcurn (Crookhorn), Bucks Co., Pa., on the Delaware River, with Thomas Scholey, he petitioned for the prohibition of the sale of liquor to the Indians. Nov. 13, 1780, the return of a survey of 200 acres of land, in Burlington Co., N. J., was made to Robert and Thomas Scholey. These lands, which were described as lying between lands of John Rogers and Crosswick Creek, were resurveyed to Robert Scholey and a return of the survey was made Sept. 21, 1682. They were described, in the return, as adjoining the dwelling house of Robert Scholey. (Bib.-325). The will of Robert Scholey, who was a clothmaker by trade, was made in Nottingham Woodhouse, Burlington Co., N. J., March 19, 1688. It names his wife, Sarah, and his youngest son, Robert. His widow, Mrs. Sarah Scholey was married (2), Oct. 10, 1696, to Caleb Wheatley (Bib.-323). Sept. 29, 1690, as widow and executrix of the estate of Robert Scholey, with Mahlon Stacey, tanner, of Bellfield, Burlington Co., N. J., and Thomas Lambert, tanner of Nottingham, Trustee, she sold to John, the younger son, (a bachelor) of Thomas Lambert, a mansion house and 200 acres in Nottingham, Woodhouse. Her name appears as a creditor in the inventory of the estate of Thomas Lambert, (will Nov. 23, 1693, probated Dec. 8, 1694). The inventory included the Scholey plantation. Caleb Wheatley, described as a lining weaver, and his wife, Sarah, formerly the Widow Scholey, May 18, 1697, sold to Matthew Grange, certain lands the Widow Scholey bought May 28, 1691, from Abraham Senior. Two of the sons of Robert and Sarah Scholey were, (probably) William and Robert, Jr. William and Robert Scholey are named, as debtors, in the inventory of the estate of John Severus of Trenton, Hunterdon Co., N. J., March 4, 1722-3. Robert Scholey, Jr., was probably the Robert Scholey for whose estate his wife, Katharine, was appointed, June 19, 1732, administratrix. She was married (2), before March 20, 1735, to Thomas Williams and on this latter date they presented a report of the administration of the estate of Robert Scholey.

II. (1). William, (probably) son of Robert and Sarah Scholey, was doubtless the William Scholey who was named as a cousin of Joseph Pancoast, Jr.,† in the will of the latter. William Scholey owned a tract of land near Draketown, Washington Township, N. J., and about 1740 he had sold this property and had bought from the Kirkbride family about 600 acres of land in Randolph Township, about three miles southeast of Dover, N. J. His son, Robert, built there the first grist mill erected in that section. (Bib.-189.) William Scholey was probably married to Mary, daughter of Andrew Smith* of Hopewell Township, Burlington Co., N. J., and some of their children were: 1, William, of Greenwich Township, later Sussex Co., N. J., (see later); 2, Joseph, to whose estate reference is made in the will of his brother, William; 3, Robert, to whose son reference is made in the same will; 4, daughter, married to Richard Dell; 5, daughter, married to Henry Brotherton; 6, daughter, married to Richard Brotherton. (Bib.-189.)

*Sarah Scholey is named as a daughter of Sarah Parker in her will, made in Nottingham Township, Burlington Co., N. J., June 25, 1720. The inventory was filed May 31, 1722. Sarah Parker is described as the widow of George Parker of East Jersey, and their children are named in the will, George, William, Joseph, sons, and Sarah Scholey and Elizabeth Brown, daughters.

†The will of Joseph Pancoast, Jr., of Mansfield, Burlington Co., N. J., was made Oct. 19, 1731, and was probated June 3, 1732. It names his cousin, William Scholey. It also names Joseph Pancoast, father of Joseph Pancoast, Jr.; John, Thomas and Benjamin Pancoast, brothers of Joseph Pancoast, Jr., and Mary Thompson, Elizabeth, Ann, Susannah and Phebe Pancoast, own sisters of Joseph Pancoast, Jr.

III. (1). William Schooley, Jr., son of William (and probably Mary (Smith) Scholey), lived in Greenwich, now Warren, Co., N. J., about two miles from the Easton, Pa., Ferry. His name appears in the minutes of the General Sessions Court of Sussex Co., N. J., as a member of a committee, appointed May 30, 1754, to divide the county into precincts, and also in 1754, 1755, and 1757, as a member of the Grand Jury. He probably was the William Schooley who was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Richard and Mary French.† of Mansfield, Burlington Co., N. J. The will of William Schooley, Jr., was made in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., April 9, 1761, and names his son, John, as heir to his farm on Marvel Hill. It also refers to his brother, Robert's, son, and to his brother, Joseph's, estate. Reference is also made to other sons and three daughters, none of whom are named in the will. John Schooley and Alexander White were named as executors. Some of the children of William and (probably Elizabeth) (French) Schooley, were: 1, John; 2, Andrew; 3, William (3); 4, Jedediah; 5, Richard, and 6, 7, 8, three daughters.

IV. (1). John, son of William, Jr., and (probably) Elizabeth (French) Schooley, lived in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J. His will, made there Dec. 17, 1807, to which a codicil was added Dec. 22, 1807, was probated Feb. 16, 1808. It names his wife, Elizabeth, and the following children: 1, Emeline, married to Leffert Haughawont‡; 2, Theodosia, married to Michael Minnier; 3, Sarah, deceased in 1807, married to John Barber, (Family No. 1292—Barber); 4, Ann, married to Herbert Hyner; 5, Rachel, married to John Hyner; 6, Mary; 7, Abigail; 8, Elizabeth, married to Samuel McNeal; 9, Nathaniel; 10, John. It also names Jonathan Robins. George and Abraham Beidelman and John Sharps were witnesses and Thomas Stewart and Peter Sharps were named executors. In Greenwich, N. J., Presbyterian Cemetery, may be found the grave of Ann Schooley, wife of John Schooley, (perhaps son of John and Elizabeth Schooley or of Jedediah and Elizabeth Schooley). She was born Feb. 9, 1779, and died Feb. 9, 1848. Their daughter, Sarah Jane, born Nov. 5, 1816, died May 31, 1846. In the same cemetery is the grave of Henry J. Schooley, born April 19, 1818, for 40 years sexton of Greenwich Church, and those of his two wives: (1), Sarah, born Sept. 27, 1820, died Sept. 28, 1860, and (2), Mary, born Dec. 26, 1826.

V. (7). Nathaniel, son of John and Elizabeth Schooley, removed from Greenwich Township, Sussex Co., N. J., to Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., about 1817. He bought, March 1, 1817, from Joseph Horsfield of Bethlehem, Pa., 100 acres of land in Exeter Township adjoining lands of John De Witt. This farm was described in 1837, as bounded by lands of George Dennison, Ezra Olds, and the Joseph Horsfield tract. The name of the wife of Nathaniel Schooley has not been discovered by the writer. He was deceased before March 20, 1837, when his son, William, sold his interest in the estate of Nathaniel Schooley to Abram S. Honeywell and Ziba Hoyt, both of Kingston Township. Isaac and Laffert Schooley, sons of Nathaniel, bought this interest and, Oct. 14, 1837, they also bought the interest of the other nine children in the estate. The children of Nathaniel Schooley were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, Isaac, born July 25, 1796, died 1872, (see later); 2, Lefford or Laffert, married to Mrs. Jane (Devens) Johnson, daughter of Benjamin, born Dec. 11, 1789, died Aug. 18, 1863, and Anna Devens, born Dec. 5, 1781, died June 17, 1815, (Shupp's

*The will of Andrew Smith of Hopewell, yeoman, was made Jan. 16, 1703-4, and was probated March 7, 1703-4. It names his children, Andrew; Elizabeth, Mary, wife of William Scholey; Sarah, wife of John Parke, and appointed "My only son, Thomas, and daughter, Elizabeth, executors.

†The will of Richard French of Mansfield was made Sept. 24, 1745, was probated Nov. 9, 1745, and names his wife, Mary, and the following children: Richard, Thomas, Benjamin, Jonathan, William, Elizabeth, wife of William Scholey, Mary wife of Preserved Brown, Rebekah wife of Benjamin Shreve, Sarah wife of William Morly and Abigail wife of Jacob Taylor.

IV. (2 and 3). Andrew and William Schooley, sons of William Schooley, of Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., were sympathizers with, and supporters of, the British cause in the American Revolution. Their names appear in a list of 63 names of residents of Sussex Co., N. J., against whom inquisitions were found June 20, 1778. They were charged with having joined or aided the Army of the King of Great Britain. Their names also appear in a list of 61 names of residents of that county advertised Dec. 10, 1778, and calling for persons having claims against them to present such claims. The property of Andrew and William Schooley, thus seized, consisted of a two-sixth interest in 150 acres of land "whereon John Schooley now lives and situated within two miles of Easton Ferry in a pleasant and wholesome part of the country." It was thus advertised in the New Jersey Gazette of April 11, 1781, to be sold, at a vendue, for cash, Friday, May 11, 1781. William Bond and George Warne were Commissioners for Sussex Co. in the matter. (Bib.-185.)

IV. (4). Jedediah, son of William, Jr., and (probably) Elizabeth (French) Schooley, also lived and died in Greenwich Township, Sussex Co., N. J. He died before April 11, 1805. His wife's name was Elizabeth (probably Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Parks). A deed of April 11, 1805, recorded at Newton, Sussex Co., N. J., recites that Jedediah Schooley died seized of an equal undivided part of 100 acres of land in Greenwich, N. J. . . . devised to him by his father, William Schooley, and refers to the will of William Schooley, of Greenwich, executed April 9, 1761. The deed names the heirs of Jedediah Schooley, participating in the conveyance, as his widow, Elizabeth, and his children: 1, John; 2, Samuel; 3, William*; 4, Ann, married to Thomas Cox; 5, Andrew; 6, Mary. They conveyed their interest in the property to John Schooley, the elder, of Greenwich, doubtless the brother of Jedediah Schooley; 7, (?), Joseph Park Schooley, said to have been a son of Jedediah and Elizabeth (Park) Schooley, born in Sussex Co., N. J., Aug. 17, 1785, died in Exeter, Pa., Jan. 28, 1875, was probably a younger son of this Jedediah and Elizabeth Schooley.

V. (2). Samuel, son of Jedediah and Elizabeth Schooley, was probably the Samuel Schooley of Briar Creek Township, Columbia Co., Pa., whose wife's name was Elizabeth ———. Thomas Cox was appointed administrator of his estate Nov. 16, 1827, with bonds in $250.00.

V. (5). Andrew, doubtless son of Jedediah and Elizabeth Schooley, removed to Fishing Creek Township, Northumberland Co., Pa. He and Joseph Hendershott were of Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., March 1, 1801, when they bought from the administrators of the estate of Jonathan Jones, deceased, (Susannah Jones, widow of Jonathan, of Whitemarsh Township, Abraham Yerkes of Springfield Township and Isaac Jones, all of Montgomery Co., Pa.) for £1,600, 310 acres of land. Aug. 24, 1805, Joseph Hendershott, of Bloom Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., sold to Andrew Schooley, of Bloom, his interest in this land, situated on the northeast branch of the Susquehanna River. Andrew Schooley and Martha, his wife, were of Derry Township, when on the 18th of April 1814, they sold to Ferdinand Ritter of

*A William Schooley of Sussex Co., N. J., born March 3, 1786, died Feb. 21, 1860, buried at Rochester, Mich., was married, as her second husband, to Mrs. Elizabeth (Shoemaker) Lommason, widow of Peter Lommason, of Sussex Co., N. J., and daughter of Peter and Elizabeth Maur Schumacher, (Family No. 619). She was born Jan. 16, 1781, and died at Rochester, Mich., June 23, 1852. The writer has been unable to identify this William Schooley. A Benjamin Schooley, Aug. 16, 1786, bought from Philip Livingston 71 acres of land in Newton Township, Sussex Co., N. J. Schooley's log house is named as a landmark.

An Andrew Schooley, born July 12, 1777, died Sept. 7, 1851, aed. 74 years. John C. Schooley, born June 9, 1800, died Aug. 2, 1850, and Jane Schooley, born March 25, 1810, died Aug. 2, 1850, and Jane Schooley, born March 25, 1810, died Aug. 3, 1878, are buried in City Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre.

Derry Township, 200 acres of land which they had bought, April 30, 1809, from John Fruit and wife, "excepting the lot upon which the school house had been erected." Martha M. Schooley and Isaac Hendershott were appointed administrators of the estate of Andrew Schooley, late of Derry Township, Aug. 4, 1814, with bonds in $10,000. Martha Schooley was also appointed administratrix of the estate of William Schooley (probably her son), late of Derry Township, June 3, 1815, with bonds in $1,000. The children of Andrew and Martha M. Schooley were: 1, (probably) William, born before 1794, died before June 3, 1815; (2), Mary, born after 1795, and before 1802, living in 1816; (3), Hannah, born before 1802, and after 1795, living in 1816; (4), Andrew, born after 1802; (5), Martha, born after 1802; (6), Jedediah, born after 1802.

V. (7). Joseph Park Schooley was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Aug. 17, 1785, and was married there, Dec. 10, 1809, to Margaret, born Nov. 25, 1792, died June 7, 1865, daughter of Jesse and Joannah (Shipman) Barber of Greenwich, N. J., (Family No. 1292—Barber). They removed to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and settled in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co. He was a prosperous farmer and owned valuable real estate. He died in Exeter, Jan. 28, 1875, and, with his wife, is buried in the Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Jesse Barber, born April 1, 1811, died Dec. 15, 1884, (see later); 2, Jedediah, born April 10, 1812, died July 24, 1847, (see later); 3, Mary Ann, born Jan. 14, 1814, died April 1, 1889, married, Dec. 5, 1833, to Jacob, born Nov. 8, 1807, died June 19, 1886, (Forty Fort Cemetery), son of John and Martha (Welch) Sharps of Wyoming, Pa., (Family No. 988—Sharps); 4, William, born Feb. 16, 1816, died June 28, 1887, married to Sarah, born Dec. 6, 1819, died May 28, 1900, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of John and Martha (Welch) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps); 5, Elizabeth, born Sept. 3, 1818, died Dec. 4, 1903, married to John Sharps, born Aug. 11, 1812, died Dec. 9, 1898, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), son of Isaac and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, (Family No. 1318); 6, Mehitabel, born Aug. 15, 1821, died July 6, 1860, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), married, March 24, 1848, to Dr. Charles R. Gorman, died April 3, 1877, who was married (2), in 1861, to Annette, born Feb. 12, 1823, daughter of Colonel Harris and Mary (Booth) Jenkins, (Family No. 988—Jenkins); 7, Joanna, born July 3, 1823, not married, died Nov. 27, 1899, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); 8, Joseph Park, Jr., born May 13, 1825, died Oct. 3, 1891, married, Nov. 16, 1853, to Charlotte, died March 4, 1880, daughter of Gilbert and Charlotte (Watley) Laird*; 9, Margaret, born Feb. 16, 1828, died in Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 28, 1853, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery), married, Sept. 13, 1848, in Exeter, Pa., by the Rev. Jacob D. Mitchell, to George M. Hollenback Breese, son of John and Jerusha (Johnsten) Breese, (Family No. 989—Breese).

VI. (1). Jesse Barber, son of Joseph Park and Margaret (Barber) Schooley, was born April 1, 1811, and died Dec. 15, 1884. He was married to Eliza Jane, born Aug. 1, 1816, died Aug. 18, 1902, daughter of John and Jerusha (Johnsten) Breese. Jesse Barber and Eliza Jane (Breese) Schooley are buried in Forty Fort Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Fannie, born July 20, 1839, died July 12, 1867, married, by Rev. Henry H. Wells, Oct. 31, 1861, to James Dean, born April 26, 1834,

*James Laird and his wife, Ann (Cashore) Laird, came to the United States about 1800 and settled in Forty Fort, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was born in Scotland and died at Forty Fort, Pa. His wife was born in Ireland, about 1754, and died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 18, 1836, (Hollenback Cemetery). JOHN BENNET CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1317—(1314)

John Bennet, son of Balser and Jane (Bennet) Carpenter, born in the Wyoming Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa., March 26, 1839, was married, Jan. 6, 1870, at Boston, Mass., to Alice Plumer. July 30, 1860, he was admitted to membership in Lodge 61, F. and A. M., at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He was a member of Royal Arch Chapter, No. 151, at Lima, Peru, of Dieu Le Veut, Commandery No. 45, Masonic Knights Templar at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and of Mount Moriah Council, No. 10, Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa.

John Bennet Carpenter enlisted in the United States Navy in 1860. Circular No. 17, Series 1888, of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, issued from Headquarters of the State of New York and dated at New York, Dec. 14, 1888, reads:

"At a stated meeting of this Commandery held at the Metropolitan Hotel, 582 Broadway, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 5, 1888, the following was adopted as the report of a committee appointed to draft resolutions relative to late Companion Chief Engineer John B. Carpenter, U. S. N., (Retired), (Insignia No. 2056), who died, at St. Louis, Mo., July 22, 1888, aged 49 years.

REPORT

Your committee appointed at the October meeting of the Commandery to draft resolutions respecting the death of Companion John B. Carpenter, beg leave to report:

He entered the Navy in 1860 and served with great credit and efficiency during the war, attaining the grade of Chief Engineer June 11, 1874. He was retired Dec., 1883.

During the War of the Rebellion he served on board the U. S. S. "Mystic" and "Marblehead," on the North and South Blockading Squadrons, and in the Monitor "Patapsco" off Charleston, S. C.

After the war he was assigned to duty on board the U. S. S. "Powhattan" (Pacific Station); Monitor "Dictator" (North Atlantic Station); U. S. S. "Narragansett" (Pacific Station); Monitor "Ajax," (North Atlantic Station), and at the Navy Yard, New York. His last duty was on board the U. S. S. "Ranger" on the Pacific Station.

Chief Engineer John B. Carpenter, U. S. N., died at the residence of Mr. Julius Moulton, St. Louis, Mo., July 22, 1888, in his fiftieth year. His remains were forwarded to Newburyport, Mass., for interment beside his wife.

Chief Engineer Carpenter was a man of strict integrity, close and lasting friendship, and a high minded, genial gentleman. He was thoroughly familiar with all branches of his profession and was a most capable and efficient officer, receiving the highest testimonials during the war and throughout the period of his active service.

Your committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Commandery has received with profound regret and sorrow, intelligence of the death of Companion Chief Engineer John B. Carpenter, U. S. A.

Resolved, That we tender to his family and relatives assurance of our deep sympathy for the loss they have sustained.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the records of the Commandery and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased. (Signed.) George W. Magee, Chief Engineer U. S. N.; Theodore Cooper, late First Assistant Engineer, U. S. N.; J. B. Lockwood, late Paymaster U. S. Vols. By order Major General John M. Schofield, U. S. A., Commander. L. Farragut, Recorder."

Mrs. Alice (Plumer) Carpenter died Oct. 1, 1872. She was born Aug. 18, 1842. Among the relics prized by the Carpenter family is a leather bound book containing the certificate of his membership in various Masonic organizations. These certificates bear endorsements, with signatures of officers and seals of lodges, to his presence, as a visitor, to Masonic Lodges in many distant lands.

JOHN SHARPS CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1318—(1311)

John Sharps, son of Isaac S. and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 11, 1812, and died in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Dec. 9, 1898. He was married to Elizabeth, born Sept. 3, 1818, died Dec. 4, 1903, daughter of Joseph Park and Margaret (Barber) Schooley, of Exeter. He, his wife and children are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Margaret, born March 21, 1853, died Jan. 18, 1885; 2, Jesse B., born Jan. 23, 1840, died Jan. 12, 1906; 3, I. James, born July 25, 1841, died May 7, 1858; 4, Joseph, born April 14, 1848, died June 17, 1850. In 1834 and 1836, with his brother, Balser Carpenter, he bought lands in Exeter Township which had been parts of the estates of James Scovel and Henry Kern, (see sketch Balser Carpenter, Family No. 1314). Jan. 17, 1840, Balser Carpenter sold his interest in part of these lands to John Sharps Carpenter, who, April 7, 1840, sold to his brother, Balser, his undivided half interest in ten acres of land in Exeter, including the Scovel burial plot. Included in the Exeter Township lands of John Sharps Carpenter was the site of the famous Scovel Tavern, which subsequently, and until its destruction by fire a few years ago, was known as the Carpenter Tavern. April 7, 1840, John Sharps Carpenter bought from his father, Isaac Carpenter, the Isaac Carpenter homestead, about 125 acres of Lots 17 and 18, Third Division, Kingston, and sold these lands to his brother, Balser Carpenter.

MARGARET (CARPENTER) WELCH; FAMILIES NOS. 1319—(1318)

Margaret, daughter of John Sharps and Elizabeth (Schooley) Carpenter, was born in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., March 21, 1853, and was married to Joseph, born Dec. 9, 1843, died Jan. 11, 1913, son of William and Hannah A. (Alpaugh) Welch. She died Jan. 18, 1885. Some of their children were: 1, Thomas, died Sept. 28, 1874; 2, Jessie May, born Sept. 11, 1875, died Dec. 7, 1882; 3, William M.; 4, Stella M., born July 10, 1880, died Nov. 25, 1895; 5, Thomas (2), died in infancy, Jan. 13, 1885. William M. Welch, their son, was married (Family No. 1320) to Dorothy Martin, and lives in West Pittston, Pa.

J., Nov. 21, 1854, and Martha Welch, born April 29, 1781, died June 26, 1844, who was married to John, son of Jacob and Margaret (Shafer) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps) were, probably, children of Jacob Welch, of Greenwich, who, in 1786, and again in 1793, was an Elder of the Reformed Church of Greenwich, Sussex, now Warren Co., N. J. Joseph Welch was married, May 1, 1809, to Sarah, born Oct. 19, 1785, died Nov. 25, 1841, daughter of John and Christiana (Van Over) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps). Some of their children were: 1, William S.; 2, John S., born Feb. 18, 1818, died Oct. 2, 1819; 3, Martha, born May 20, 1823, died Aug. 13, 1825. Joseph and Sarah (Sharps) Welch and their children, John S. and Martha, are buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Greenwich, Warren Co., N. J.

III. (1). William S., son of Joseph and Sarah (Sharps) Welch, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., and was married (1) to Elizabeth, born Jan. 30, 1818, died Dec. 11, 1838, daughter of William and Anna Miller, (Presbyterian Cemetery, Greenwich, N. J.). He was married (2) to Hannah A. Alpaugh and two of their seven children were: 1, Joseph, born Dec. 9, 1843, and William M.

IV. (1). Joseph Welch, born in Bethlehem, Pa., Dec. 9, 1843, grew to manhood on a farm in Greenwich, N. J., and attended school in Easton, Pa. In 1865 he engaged in the drug business with his brother, William M., in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1867 he removed to Washington, N. J., and later was in the employ of the Lackawanna Railroad, at New Hampton Junction. In 1869 he entered the service of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company at Coxton Pa., and was for many years Weighmaster for that company in Coxton, Pa., yards. (Bib.—57.)

JESSE B. CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1321—(1318)

Jesse B., son of John Sharps and Elizabeth (Schooley) Carpenter, was born in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., Jan. 23, 1840, and was married (1), June 13, 1872, to Charlotte E., daughter of James D. and Patience (Jackson) Laird, (Family No. 1314—Laird). He was married (2), June 13, 1904, to Mary A., daughter of John B. and Mary A. Kern of Port Jervis, N. Y., and natives of Germany. The children of Jesse B. and Charlotte (Laird) Carpenter were: 1, Fanny, who died in infancy; 2, John Sharps, born July 9, 1877, died Oct. 6, 1892; 3, Elizabeth; 4, Jesse B., Jr.

Jesse B. Carpenter was educated in the public schools and at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa. He enlisted in Company N, 28th Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., and served 18 months in the Civil War. In 1865 he succeeded his father in the management of the homestead farm in Exeter and developed it into a valuable truck farm. In 1888 he established himself as a florist. He served Exeter Township as auditor. He was a member of I. O. O. F.,

No. 314, Pittston, Pa.; St. John's Lodge, F. and A. M., Pittston; Pittston Chapter No. 242, R. A. M.; Wyoming Valley Commandery, No. 57, Masonic Knights Templar; Nugent Post, Grand Army of the Republic. He died, Jan. 12, 1906, and, with his first wife, is buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

ELIZABETH (CARPENTER) KENNEDY; FAMILIES NOS. 1322 (1321)

Elizabeth, daughter of Jesse B. and Charlotte (Laird) Carpenter, was married to William Kennedy, a graduate of Lehigh University, and engaged in the greenhouse business, in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Their home is in West Pittston, Pa.

JESSE B. CARPENTER, JR.; FAMILIES NOS. 1323—(1321)

Jesse B., Jr., son of Jesse B. and Charlotte (Laird) Carpenter, was born in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., and was married, Dec. 9, 1914, to Emma Kintz. He is a florist and their home is in West Pittston, Pa.

LUCINDA G. (CARPENTER) SMITH; FAMILIES NOS. 1324—(1311)

Lucinda G., daughter of Isaac S. and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, was born in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 26, 1817, and was married, Oct. 17, 1839, to Amos York, born Oct. 19, 1817, died Dec. 20, 1881, son of Dr. John and Mehetable (Jenkins) Smith, of Wilkes-Barre, (Family No. 988—Jenkins), by the Rev. E. H. Snowden. She died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 28, 1862. They are buried in the Carpenter plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery, (see Smith family later). The children of Amos York and Lucinda G. (Carpenter) Smith were: 1, Mary E., born Nov. 30, 1840, married (Family No. 1325) to William Traxler; 2, Helen M., born Dec. 21, 1842, married (Family No. 1326) to Harry Robinson. They had one son, Harry; 3, Millard Fillmore, born Jan. 21, 1845, died June 4, 1845, (Jenkins Cemetery, West Pittston, Pa.); 4, Isaac Carpenter, born July 3, 1846, died ———, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), a soldier in the Civil War, married (Family No. 1327) to ———, lived in the West; 5, Sophia Jane, born Sept. 30, 1848, (see later); 6, Amos York, Jr., born Feb. 17, 1851, died Oct. 7, 1852, (Jenkins Cemetery, West Pittston, Pa.); 7, infant, born June 5, 1852, died June 5, 1852; 8, Rosanna, born May 17, 1853, (see later); 9, Willie, born Oct. 30, 1854, died Feb. 10, 1855; 10, Walter, born Dec. 31, 1855, died June 10, 1857; 11, Mehetable S., born Sept. 14, 1857, (see later).

Amos York Smith was born at New Troy, now Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1844 he was captain of the packet boat John Martin, plying between Pittston and Northumberland on the North Branch Canal. In April, 1848, he became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at New Troy, and remained an active and efficient member of the Official Board of that church until he removed from Exeter Township to the South, a few years before the Civil War. He was an ardent supporter of Wyoming Seminary, Kingston and, in 1853, with Isaac C. Shoemaker and Payne Pettebone furnished the funds for the building of Union Hall. He was one of the active promoters of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad Company and a member of its first Board of Directors. The first trains were run on this now important division of the Lackawanna Railroad, in 1856. He bought a tract of land, part of the Thomas Jenkins estate, and situated in what is now West Pittston, Pa., now (1919) compactly built. This land he plotted and sold as building lots. York avenue, West Pittston, bears the name of his maternal grandmother's family. He also bought a number of farms in Exeter Township in Oct. and Nov., 1855, which, Nov. 17, 1855, he sold to Charles Stewart, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Jerome B. Simpson and Egbert Starr of New York City for $294,350.00. These lands, comprising 850 acres, he bought from Stephen B. Jenkins, Daniel Jones, William Jacobs, Richard A. and Frances (Scovel) Oakford, his wife, and Lyman and Caroline (Scovel) Hurlburt, his wife. A number of these farms are now owned by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company.

Amos York Smith became a railroad contractor, engaged in the construction of new lines, and, in 1861, was thus employed in Texas. Owing to his devotion to the Union cause he was compelled to return to the North, and nearly all his possessions were confiscated by the Confederates. He then resided, for a time, in Wilkes-Barre. From 1867 to 1870 he was a Federal agent in Texas and, upon his return to the Wyoming Valley, again made his home in West Pittston. He died at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. Olin F. Harvey, in Wilkes-Barre, Dec. 20, 1881. His wife, Mrs. Lucinda G. (Carpenter) Smith, died at Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 28, 1862. They are buried on the Isaac Carpenter plot in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery.

THE JOHN SMITH FAMILY OF PLAINFIELD, CONN.

I. John Smith, a Deputy to the General Assembly of Connecticut in Oct., 1748, May and October, 1750, and May and Oct., 1751, was married, at Plainfield, Conn., June 25, 1699, to Susanna, daughter of Stephen Hall. Some of their children were: 1, Susanna, born at Plainfield, Oct. 15, 1700; 4, Elizabeth, born July 30, 1706, married, as first wife, to the Rev. Samuel Dorrance, (Family No. 1007—Dorrance); 5, John, born at Plainfield, Dec. 18, 1708; 6, Lemuel, born 1710, died 1760.

II. (5). John, Jr., son of John and Susanna (Hall) Smith, born at Plainfield, New London Co., Conn., Dec. 18, 1708, was married there, Nov. 24, 1736, by Judge Timothy Peirce, to Phebe, born at Plainfield, Feb. 19, 1714, daughter of Judge Timothy Peirce and his second wife, Hannah (Bradhurst) Peirce.* John Smith, Jr., was an early member of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn. His name appears as John Smith, Esq., on the Indian Deed of July 11, 1754. The name of Lemuel Smith, presumably his brother, also appears as that of a grantee in that document, and some Lemuel Smith was one of the Proprietors of the Five Townships at Wyoming, June 17, 1770. John Smith, Jr., was one of the original settlers at Wyoming in 1762, and was at Wyoming again May 12, 1769. He signed the petition for the erection of a county Aug. 26, 1769, and his name appears on the List of Settlers

*Judge Timothy Peirce, son of Thomas (3) and Eliza Peirce, was born at Woburn, Mass., Jan. 25, 1673, and was married (1), May 27, 1696, to Lydia Spaulding, who died March 23, 1705. He was married (2), Oct. 12, 1709, to Hannah Bradhurst, born Dec. 14, 1682, died April 2, 1747. Two of his children by his second marriage were: 1, Ezekiel, born Jan. 8, 1712, died about 1779-80, married to Lois Stevens, born 1718, died June 25, 1762; 2, Phebe, married to John Smith. An interesting sketch of the Peirce family may be found in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, p. 170.

in May, 1772. He was an early Justice of the Peace at Wyoming and held that office, March 24, 1772, when Ezekiel Peirce of the Township Forty, on the Susquehanna Purchase in the Colony of Connecticut, in New England, acknowledged a deed before him, conveying to Jacob Anguish,* now in the Forty Township, one-half share of a Proprietor's Right and one-half of the lands that shall be drawn. This deed was signed in the presence of John Smith and Peregrine Gardner and was acknowledged at "Wilkes-Barre Fort." The name of John Smith appears in "A list of ye persons admitted into ye town (Wilkes-Barre) above, ye 24th of Sept., (1771), who were in ye seige." In 1772 he drew lots in Wilkes-Barre as follows: First Division Meadow Lot No. 45, Second Division House Lot No. 48, (owned by Nathan Wade in 1778), Third Division Back Lot No. 21, Fourth Division, 5 acre Lot No. 19. John Smith, Jr., died in Aug. or Sept., 1772, his widow, Mrs. Phebe (Peirce) Smith, surviving him. The children of John, Jr., and Phebe (Peirce) Smith were: 1, John (3d), born Sept. 4, 1737, died in 1762; 2, Susanna, born March 28, 1739, died 1739; 3, Timothy, born April 28, 1740, died in 1776, (see later); 4, Hannah, born March 23, 1742; 5, Ruth, born March 19, 1744, died in Nov., 1776; 6, Susanna (2), born June 23, 1746; 7, Abel, born Aug. 31, 1748; 8, Jedediah, born 1750, died 1752; 9, Phebe, born April 23, 1752, married, May 3, 1789, to Thomas Dixson; 10, Zurviah, born 1754.

III. (3). Captain Timothy, son of John, Jr., and Phebe (Peirce) Smith, was born at Voluntown, Conn., April 28, 1740. He was one of the original settlers of the Wyoming Valley in 1762, and his name appears in Mr. Harvey's list of the "First Forty" in 1769. (Bib.-1.) He was a prominent Yankee in the Yankee-Pennamite controversy and was among those for whose arrest Judge Gordon, March 15, 1769, issued a warrant. He was named by Charles Stewart as among those who were at Wyoming May 12, 1769. He signed the petition of Aug. 26, 1769, praying for the erection of a county, and was one of the Proprietors of the Five Townships. June 17, 1770, he was indicted by the Northampton Co. Grand Jury. Jan. 21, 1771, he settled in Kingston District and owned (1) House Lot No. 2, situated near the lower end of the Kingston House Lots and containing slightly more than two acres, adjoining on the northwest Meadow Lot No. 17, owned by Peter Harris, Sr., (Family No. 1021—Harris); (2), Meadow Lot No. 7, lying between what is now Wyoming avenue and the river and opposite Third Division Lot No. 27, in the Borough of Wyoming, Pa., about thirty-seven acres; (3), Third Division Lot No. 21, now in Forty Fort Borough; (4), Fourth Division Lot No. 7, about 200 acres. Timothy Smith was married, in 1758, in Connecticut. The name of his wife is not available. His wife died in 1760 or 1761 leaving one son, Benjamin, born in 1759. Timothy Smith, who is frequently mentioned in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, died in Kingston in the spring of 1776, in the 37th year of his age. He was a member of that company of patriots who met at Forty Fort March 6, 1776, and volunteered to "engage in the common cause as soldiers in the defense of liberty, under the direction of the Honorable Continental Congress, or Colony to which we belong." (See Bib.-1, p. 870.) This company chose Lieutenant Lazarus Stewart, Captain; Timothy Smith, First Lieutenant; Dethick Hewett, Second Lieutenant, and Phineas Peirce, Ensign. (Bib.-1 p. 871.) His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax List for Kingston District in 1776.

IV. (1). Captain Benjamin, son of Timothy Smith, was born in 1759. He grew to manhood in Connecticut and came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., about 1783-4. He was appointed administrator of the estate of his father, Timothy Smith, Sept 12,

*Jacob Anguish (or English), a prominent Tory in the Wyoming Valley, (Bib.-1, pp. 960-1), had the following heirs living Feb. 11, 1800, presumably his children: 1, Jacob; 2, Henry; 3, Barbara, married to Frederick Garrison; 4, Hannah, married to Henry Putnam; 5, Elizabeth, married to Peter Law (or Low), all of whom lived in Lincoln Co., Canada, Feb. 11, 1800; 6, John; 7, Maria, married to Peter Eigenbrodt, John and Maria living in Montgomery Co., N. Y., Feb. 11, 1800. These heirs of Jacob Anguish, on the later date, executed a deed conveying to Joseph House, of Minden, N. Y., one-half of a Proprietor's right in the County of Luzerne, Pa., late the property of Jacob Anguish, late deceased, also 300 acres of land on the Shawnee Flats in Plymouth, Pa. The Canadian heirs acknowledged the deed at Fort Erie, July 2, 1800, before John Warren, J. P., one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for Niagara District, and the New York heirs acknowledged it before Judge Christian Nellis of the Montgomery Co., N. Y., Court of Common Pleas, Feb. 11, 1800. Jacob Anguish, in 1777, enlisted in the notorious Butler's Rangers and fought as a Tory at Fort Stanwix and at Oriskany. In attempting to return to his home in the Wyoming Valley he was arrested and taken to Hartford, Conn., and placed in prison. Returning later to the Wyoming Valley he found his home destroyed and then enlisted a second time in Butler's Rangers. According to his own story he fought against his old neighbors in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He was born about 1725. His petition, addressed to Lieutenant Colonel DePeyster, commanding (Fort) Niagara, is printed in Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, p. 961.

1787, and, as administrator, he conveyed title to Lots Nos. 2, 7 and 21, Kingston, to John Tuttle, Aug 26, 1791. On the following day John Tuttle conveyed the title to Benjamin Smith. Fourth Division Lot No. 7, Benjamin Smith, administrator of the estate of Timothy Smith, sold Aug. 22, 1803, to Gideon Underwood, describing it as a lot he had found. Benjamin Smith was a prominent land owner in Kingston and other townships in Luzerne Co. He owned three lots in Athens, First Division Lot No. 38, Second Division Lot No. 21, and Third Division Lot No. 28, which he sold Nov. 16, 1787, to Ira Stephens, (Family No. 1313—Stephens). On the same day he bought from Ira Stephens, Fourth Division Lot No. 2, Kingston, seventy-six rods wide and one and one-fourth miles long. This lot, together with one-half of Lot 33, Fourth Division, Kingston, he sold June 18, 1801, to Thomas Allenton. He is named as Warrantee on Third Division Lot No. 23, of which he bought one-half, Dec. 12, 1788, from Lawrence Myers and of which he sold to Captain Samuel Breese six acres, May 10, 1798. He owned 300 acres of land, in what is now Dallas Township, which he bought, Dec. 13, 1794, from Job Terrill, Jr., administrator of the estate of Parker Wilson.* Jan. 5, 1816, he agreed to sell to Isaiah Loomis of Lebanon, Windham Co., Conn., Lots Nos. 9 and 10, Northmoreland Township, 300 acres, and, Feb. 26, 1816, Zerviah Smith and John Smith, executors of his will, executed to Isaiah Loomis a deed for Lots Nos. 9 and 10, Fourth Tier, Northmoreland. These lots Isaiah Loomis sold to Sherman Loomis, Sept. 4, 1818, (Family No. 988—Loomis). Benjamin Smith also owned Lots Nos. 5 and 6, Northmoreland, which John Smith, Jonathan and Phebe (Smith) Fellows of Huntington Township and Leed Gaylord and his wife, Olive (Smith) Gaylord of Bradford Co., Pa., heirs to the estate of Benjamin Smith sold to Isaac Harris, March 26, 1821, (Family No. 988—Isaac Harris). Andrew Bennet bought Third Division Lot No. 21 from Benjamin Smith Nov. 14, 1792.

Captain Benjamin Smith enlisted Aug. 1, 1779, in the Second Regiment of the Conn. Continental Line in the War of the American Revolution. He was appointed Supervisor of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa, in 1788 and 1789, and served on the Committee of Freeholders in 1801-2-3-4-7-8-13. He was appointed Fence Viewer in 1807 and 1810. He was commissioned Captain, Nov. 19, 1787, of the Seventh Company of the First Battalion of Luzerne Co., Pa., Militia, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Matthias Hollenback. He is said by Dr. Miner (Bib.-4) to have been a very efficient nurse of the sick and according to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-2) he was a practicing physician. He was assessed in Kingston as a shoemaker in 1807, and as a farmer in 1814.

Captain Benjamin Smith was married (1) in 1787 to Welthea Ann, born at Voluntown, Conn., Nov. 30, 1759, died at Kingston, Pa., Sept. 27, 1804, daughter of Amos and Lucretia (Miner) York. (York family later), and their children were: 1, Dr. John Smith, born Nov. 4, 1789, (see later); 2, Olive, born in 1791, married to Lodovick, son of Justus Gaylord, living in Bradford Co., Pa., in 1821; 3, Amos, born 1793, died Sept. 27, 1804, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); 4, Peirce, born Dec. 15, 1794, died Oct. 25, 1884, (see later); 5, Phebe, born in 1797, married to Jonathan, Jr., son of Jonathan and Betsey Fellows,† living in Huntington Township, Pa., in 1821. Captain Benjamin Smith was married (2) to Zerviah, born at Groton, Conn., Jan. 4, 1758, died in Kingston, May 18, 1840, daughter of Captain William and Judith (Reed) Gallup, of Kingston, (Gallup family later). His will was made in Kingston, Jan. 19, 1816, and was probated at Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 29, 1816. He died Jan. 19, 1816, and is buried beside his two wives in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. The will of his second wife, Zerviah (Gallup) Smith, made in Kingston, May 9, 1838, probated at Wilkes-Barre, June 30, 1840, names her sister, Hannah and Hannah's two daughters,

*The name of Parker Wilson appears in the list of those who were killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. Dec. 23, 1793, Job Terrill, Jr., (see York family later) was appointed administrator of the estate of a Parker Wilson of Kent, District of New Milford, Conn. This Parker Wilson had a grant of 600 acres of land in Luzerne Co., Pa., of which his administrator sold 300 acres each to Benjamin Smith and Isaac Montanye, Dec. 13, 1794. Feb. 13, 1778, Parker Wilson sold to Timothy Rose about 8 acres of land situated in the Susquehanna Purchase, about one mile west of Kingston and about the same distance from the Proprietors' Town of Parktown and about one and one-half miles from the Proprietors' Town of Bedford. "Land I have built upon in 1776." April 29, 1778, Benjamin Skiff sold to Timothy Rose land lying on the "south of the improvement made by Parker Wilson."

†The estate of Jonathan Fellows of Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., was appraised March 31, 1813, and his heirs were his widow Betsey and their children, Laura Fellows, Chloe Fellows; Elizabeth, married to Joseph, son of Peters Steel, (Family No. 1010—Steel); Jonathan, Erastus, Henry, Charles and Simon, the latter three minors in 1813. Jonathan Fellows, Sr., was doubtless a brother of Colonel Abiel Fellows, Jr., of Canaan, Conn., Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and later of Michigan, (Family No. 1010—Abiel Fellows).

Zerviah and Hannah; her three nieces, Lucy Swetland, Trumenda Pettebone and Judith Oehmig; Christian G. Oehmig, her brother-in-law, and George Oehmig, her nephew. She appointed Peirce Smith and Judith Oehmig, executors.

V. (1). Dr. John Smith, son of Captain Benjamin and Wealtha Ann (York) Smith, was born Nov. 4, 1787, and died Aug. 24, 1869. He was married in 1814, to Mehetable, born March 18, 1796, died July 6, 1862, daughter of Captain Thomas and Eleanor (Shontz) Jenkins, of Exeter, Pa., (Family No. 988—Jenkins). Dr. John Smith settled in Kingston Township and began the practice of medicine there, having had an office in the house of Captain Samuel Breese in New Troy, now Wyoming, Pa. He was doubtless the first resident physician at New Troy. He later bought a building lot, at what is now the southwest corner of Wyoming avenue and Seventh street, Wyoming, from David Perkins and on this lot built the house which was his residence during his stay at New Troy. May 11, 1838, he bought from Isaac, Jr., and Betsey (Chapin) Shoemaker seven acres of Lot 37, Third Division, Kingston. This tract with 30 perches frontage on Wyoming avenue and a depth of 38 perches, adjoined lands now owned by the Wyoming Cemetery Association. He sold it Jan. 9, 1840, to Dr. Alfred Brace. In 1836 Governor Ritner of Pennsylvania appointed Dr. John Smith Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, Clerk of the Courts of Quarter Sessions, and Oyer and Terminer and Clerk of the Orphans' Court, of Luzerne Co., and about 1838 he removed to Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He later sold his residence at New Troy to Dr. George F. Wurts. He served as a member of the Wilkes-Barre Borough Council, and, in May, 1850, served as President. In 1858 he became a member of the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, and, April 17, 1861 a member of the Luzerne County Medical Society. With his wife and several of their children he is buried in the Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. The children of Dr. John and Mehetable (Jenkins) Smith were: 1, Harriet, born Sept. 30, 1815, married, in Feb., 1835, to George, born in Dec., 1803, died Nov. 16, 1841, son of John and Elizabeth (Ross) Gore, (Family No. 1010—Ross). Their children were: (1), Mehetable, born 1836, and (2), William J., born Nov. 20, 1838, died July 27, 1854, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery); 2, Amos York, born Oct. 19, 1817, died Dec. 20, 1881, married, Oct. 17, 1839, by the Rev. E. H. Snowden, to Lucinda G., born Aug. 26, 1817, died Jan. 28, 1862, daughter of Isaac S. and Elizabeth (Sharps) Carpenter, (see Family No. 1311); 3, Thomas Jenkins, born Oct. 8, 1819, died July 11, 1825; 5, Esther Ann, born May 2, 1824, died Oct. 6, 1871, married to Gould Phinney Parrish, born May 1, 1822, died Nov. 6, 1875, (Forty Fort Cemetery); 6, Thomas Nelson, born July 24, 1826, married to Catharine Kelley; 7, Mary, born Aug. 28, 1828, died June 19, 1863, married, as first wife, to Thomas B. Blake, born April 29, 1822, died Dec. 31, 1885, (Forty Fort Cemetery); 8, Frances, born Nov. 23, 1830, married to James H. Blake; 9, Miner, born Feb. 11, 1833, died Sept. 5, 1833; 10, Caroline Augusta, born July 11, 1839, married (1) to D. Yarrington, married (2) to A. Lyman Richardson.

V. (4). Peirce Smith, son of Captain Benjamin and Wealtha Ann (York) Smith, was born Dec. 15, 1794, in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and died Oct. 25, 1884, in Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich. He was married, March 5, 1817, to Adah, born May 21, 1794, in Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., died, Aug. 24, 1866, in Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich., daughter of Captain Thomas and Eleanor (Shontz) Jenkins, (Family No. 988). They are buried in the Walled Lake Cemetery, Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich. They lived for many years in what is now Maltby, formerly Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., and about 1857 removed to Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich. Mrs. Adah (Jenkins) Smith was a member of the New Troy Methodist Episcopal Church previous to 1848. Feb. 17, 1817, Peirce Smith bought from Thomas and Polly (Hill) Bird one acre of Lot No. 38, Third Division, Kingston, (described in sketch Family No. 988). He subsequently sold this plot, verbally, to his brother, Dr. John Smith, and later, with his wife, and Dr. John and Mehetable (Jenkins) Smith he deeded the property to Dr. George F. Wurts. Some of the children of Peirce and Adah (Jenkins) Smith were: 1, Wealtha Ann, born in Jan., 1818, died Oct. 19, 1876, (Walled Lake, Mich., Cemetery), married to Lee, born Jan. 6, 1816, died July 28, 1861, son of Joseph and Mary (Lee) Tuttle, of Kingston Township. Lee Tuttle was living in Huntington Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., April 13, 1841, when Jonah and Mary Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers) sold him 17 acres of Lot No. 47, Huntington. (Family No. 1174—Tuttle). They removed to Commerce, Oakland Co., Mich.; 2, Benjamin, born April 2, 1820, died July 26, 1904, married to Minerva, born Jan. 26, 1820, died April 1, 1908, daughter of Theophilus and Betsey (Smith) Larned, (Family No. 35—Smith-Larned) of Exeter, both of whom are buried in the Walled Lake, Mich., Cemetery. One of their sons, George P. Smith, was born Oct. 8, 1851, and died June 18, 1891; another, Wrighter Tubbs Smith, was married to Alice, daughter of Burton and Lucy Ann (Larned) Cortright, (Family No. 35—Cortright, No. 35—Smith—Larned), and lives in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; 3, John J., living, 1919, in Novi, Mich., married to Celinda, born Dec. 24, 1825, died May 1, 1893, (Walled Lake Cemetery) daughter of Abiel and Celinda (Atherton) Abbott, of Kingston, Pa., (Family No. 35—Abbott).

THE YORK FAMILY

I. James York, born in England, in 1608, was married, in 1646, at Braintree, Mass., to Joanna ———. II. James, Jr., son of James and Joanna York, born at Braintree, Aug. 14, 1648, died at Stonington, Conn., Oct. 26, 1676, was married, Jan. 17, 1669, by Thomas Miner, Commissioner, to Deborah, daughter of Thomas and Anna Bell. III. Thomas, youngest child of James, Jr., and Deborah (Bell) York, was born Oct. 14, 1676, and was married, Jan. 19, 1704, to Mary Brown. IV. (1). William, eldest child of Thomas and Mary (Brown) York, was born Oct. 3, 1705, and was married, May 1, 1727, to Comfort Burdick, who died July 22, 1728. He was married (2), Feb. 22, 1730, to Hannah Palmer. V. Amos, eldest child of William and Hannah (Palmer) York, was born at Stonington, Conn., Oct. 15, 1730, and was married, Nov. 8, 1750, by Jeremiah Kinne, Esq., to Lucretia, born Feb. 16, 1773, second daughter of Manasseh and Keziah (Geer) Miner of Voluntown.

V. Amos and Lucretia (Miner) York, settled in Voluntown, Conn., and remained there until 1773, when they removed to what is now Mehoopany Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. and settled on a 300 acre tract of land situated nearly opposite the mouth of Meshoppen Creek, (see later). When the town of Springfield, on the Susquehanna River, at the mouth of Wyalusing Creek, was allotted, Amos York drew, on the right of his father-in-law, Manasseh Miner, 600 acres of lands in that town and in 1774 he removed his family to what is now Wyalusing. In Feb., 1778, he was taken prisoner by a party of Tories and Indians and was taken to Fort Niagara and thence to Montreal. Later he was taken to New York and liberated. He went to Voluntown, Conn., and died there. Mrs. Lucretia (Miner) York, after the rifling of their home, went to Friedenshutzen, the Moravian Mission village, and in the spring went down the river to Kingston, where her daughter, Lucretia (York) Buck, then lived. They were in Forty Fort when the battle of Wyoming was fought, July 3, 1778, and after the surrender of the fort started on foot down the Susquehanna River. Securing a canoe at Wilkes-Barre they went to Paxtang, Pa., where Amos, the youngest child of Amos and Lucretia (Miner) York, died. Early in Oct., 1778, Mrs. York came to Wilkes-Barre and went back, on foot, to her old home in Conn., arriving in Voluntown nine days after the death of her husband. Dec. 8, 1778, Manasseh Miner of Voluntown conveyed to Mrs. Lucretia (Miner) York and her nine children title to the 600 acre tract of land on Wyalusing Creek, (compiled from The Harvey Book, Bib.-2). June 1, 1780, David Whittlesey of Washington, Litchfield Co., Conn., sold to Lucretia York one full settling right, or share of land in Westmoreland, which Lucretia York, widow, of Springfield, Luzerne Co., Pa., conveyed back to David Whittlesey, describing it as "rights in lands laid out in Braintrim." Isaac Hancock and Miner York signed the latter deed as witnesses. May 10, 1780, John Whittlesey of Washington, Litchfield Co., Conn., sold to Lucretia York a certain settling right containing 300 acres of land, in the Susquehanna Purchase, "of which I am one of the Proprietors." May 18, 1780, Martin Whittlesey sold to Lucretia York one full settling right in the Susquehanna Purchase. Aug. 24, 1781, Benjamin Buckingham of New Milford, Litchfield Co., Conn., sold to Lucretia York, from Susquehanna, now in New Milford, the whole right and a half of land in the Susquehanna Purchase, for which I have sufficient title as being one of the first Proprietors in said Purchase. Mrs. Lucretia (Miner) York was appointed administratrix of the estate of Amos York, and, July 4, 1791, as administratrix, sold to John Tuttle of Kingston, Pa., 300 acres of land, part of the Horseshoe Flats, situated on the west side of the river nearly opposite the mouth of Meshoppen Creek, bounded on the upper side by part of the town of Braintrim and on the lower side by Keller's land. July 5, 1791, John Tuttle of Kingston, Pa., conveyed these lands to Lucretia York. Dec. 1, 1792, Lucretia York sold to Job Terrell all her right in certain lots of land laid out for me in the Township of Braintree by virtue of three half proprietor's rights conveyed the 10th and the 18th days of May, 1780, by John and Martin Whittlesey of Washington, Conn. Dec. 22, 1792, Lucretia York of Springfield, in consideration of her love and good will for her son, Miner York, conveyed to him 1,200 acres of land adjoining Braintrim. Feb. 11, 1786, Lucretia York, Welthea York, Lucretia Buck and Kezia Terrell, proprietors of a tract of land situated in the Township of Springfield, on the east bank of the Susquehanna River, of lands laid out for Amos York, sold to Job Terrill of New Milford, Conn., 100 acres for £30. Mrs. Lucretia (Miner) York died at Wyalusing, Pa., Oct. 30, 1818, in the 86th year of her age. The children of Amos and Lucretia (Miner) York were: 1, Welthea Ann, born Nov. 3, 1753, died Oct. 11, 1758; 2, Esther, born Nov. 13, 1754, married, in Oct., 1779, to William Smith of Brooklyn, Conn.; 3, Lucretia, born April 21, 1757, married (1), in 1777, to Captain Aholiab Buck, (Family No. 946—Buck), born 1752, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, married (2), Oct. 2, 1786, to Justus Gaylord, Jr., who was assessed in Wyalusing Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1792; 4, Welthea Ann (2), born Nov. 30, 1759, died Sept. 27, 1804, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married to Benjamin, son of Captain Timothy Smith; 5, Keziah, born Jan. 1, 1762, married, before Feb. 11, 1786, to Job Terrell, of New Milford, Conn.; 6, Sarah, born May 4, 1764, married, before 1791, to Robert Carr of Kingston, Pa.; 7, Temperance, born May 1, 1766, married, before 1791, to Daniel Terrell, who was assessed in Wyalusing Township in 1792; 8, Rev. Manasseh Miner, born Oct. 11, 1768, became a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 6, 1807, was married, in 1792, to Betsey Arnold, was a school teacher and minister of the gospel for twenty years in Luzerne and Bradford Cos., Pa., and in Tompkins Co., N. Y. He was pastor of the church at Wyalusing from 1809 to 1818 and died at Wysox, Bradford Co., Pa., Jan. 2, 1830, (Bib.-3); 9, Berinthia, born Sept. 27, 1770, married, before 1791, to William Sherman Buck, who was assessed in Wyalusing Township in 1792; 10, Hannah, born April 27, 1773, married to Stephen Beckwith, who was assessed in Wyalusing Township in 1792; 11, Amos, born June 27, 1777, the first white child born in Wyalusing, Pa., died in Paxtang, Pa., in July, 1778. (From The Harvey Book and Land Records at Wilkes-Barre, Pa.)

THE GALLUP FAMILY (GALLOP, GOLLOP)

I. Captain John Gallop, born in England about 1590, was of the Parish of Mostern, County Dorset, England, March 20, 1630, when he sailed from Plymouth, England, on the ship Mary and John. He was made a freeman of Boston in April, 1634, and was admitted to the First Church, Boston, Jan. 6, 1634. He was married to Christobel ———, who, June 22, 1634, was also admitted to the membership of the First Church. Captain John Gallop became a sea captain, trader, and an owner of valuable real estate. He died, in Boston, Jan. 11, 1650. His wife, Mrs. Christobel Gallup, died there Sept. 27, 1655. Four of their children were: 1, Captain John, Jr., (see later); 2, Joan married in 1637, at Boston, to Thomas Joy; 3, Samuel, married, Nov. 20, 1650, at Boston, to Mary Phillips. He died before 1670; 4, Nathaniel, married, April 16, 1652, at Boston, to Margaret Eveley. He also died before 1670.

II. (1). Captain John Gallup, Jr., son of Captain John and Christobel Gallup, was born in England, and was married to Hannah, daughter of John and Margaret (Read) Lake. He removed to Stonington, Conn., about 1652-3 and was a member of the General Court in 1665-1667. He commanded a company of Mohegan Indians in the British Colonial service in King Philip's War and was killed in the battle at Narragansett (now South Kingston, R. I.) Dec. 17, 1675. The children of Captain John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup were: 1, Hannah, born at Boston, Sept. 14, 1644, married, June 18, 1672, as second wife to Stephen Gifford of Norwich, Conn. He was born in 1641 and died in 1724. She died about 1724; 2, John (3d), born 1646, married, in 1675, to Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Lake) Harris, of Ipswich, Mass., (see later); 3, Esther, born at New London, Conn., March 24, 1653, married, Dec. 17, 1674, to Henry Hodges of Taunton, Mass. He died Sept. 30, 1717; 4, Ben Adam, born at Stonington, Conn., in 1655, died Aug. 2, 1727, (see later); 5, Lieutenant William, born 1658, died May 15, 1731, married, Jan. 4, 1687, to Sarah Cheeseborough, of Rehoboth, Mass.; 6, Samuel; 7, Christobel, married, Dec. 31, 1677, to Peter Crary, of Groton, Conn.; 8, Elizabeth, married to Henry Stevens of Stonington, Conn., (Family No. 1313—Stevens); 9, Mary, married to John Cole, of Boston; 10, Margaret, married to Joseph Culver of Groton, Conn.

III. (1). John, Jr., son of Captain John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, was born in 1646, and was married, in 1675, to Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Lake) Harris, of Ipswich, Mass. They had six sons and two daughters. Their eldest child, IV. (1). Captain John, was born in 1675-6, and died Dec. 29, 1755. He was married to Elizabeth Wheeler of Stonington, born May 22, 1683, died April 14, 1735. Their second child and son, V. (2). Captain Isaac Gallup, was born Feb. 24, 1712, and died Aug. 3, 1799. He was married to Margaret, daughter of Nathaniel and Margaret (Gallup) Gallup, March 24, 1749. She was born Oct. 12, 1730, and died Dec. 9, 1817. They had six sons and three daughters, of whom Ben Adam, VI. (5), their fifth child and third son, was born Nov. 17, 1761, and died March 30, 1850. He was married (1), at Voluntown, Conn., March 31, 1785, to Elizabeth, died Sept. 28, 1810, daughter of Colonel George Dorrance, (Family No. 1007—Dorrance) and their children were: 1, George, born Dec. 22 (21), 1786, died Aug. 13, 1864, married to Electa Dean, born Jan. 24, 1785, died June 17, 1857, who removed to Northmoreland, now Wyoming Co., Pa., and, with his wife and some of their children, is buried in the Centermoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery. Some of their children were: (1), George N., born Oct. 21, 1812, died Feb. 24, 1881, (Lehman, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery), one of whose sons, Ira, born 1844, died 1885, was married to Jane, born 1847, daughter of Clark and Althea (Goss) Wolfe; (2), probably Mary E., born April 27, 1816, died Jan. 11, 1896, (Centermoreland Cemetery); (3), James D., born Nov. 5, 1821, died May 26, 1897, (Centermoreland Cemetery), married to Mahala Gordon; (4), William Henry, born July 4, 1824, died June 9, 1864, (Centermoreland Cemetery); 2, James, born Feb. 22, 1788, married, March 19, 1815, to Pamela Winsor; 3, Margaret, born Jan. 11, 1790; 4, Betsey, born Nov. 19, 1792, married to Noah Briggs; 5, John A., born April 6, 1795, died June 16, 1875, in Illinois, married, Nov. 26, 1818, to Polly Barber, born Aug. 6, 1801, died Oct. 23, 1863; 6, Nathaniel, born Aug. 19, 1798, died May 2, 1856, married, May 14, 1817, to Sally Barber, who died Nov. 11, 1885; 7, Chester, born April 10, 1801, died Nov. 15, 1886, married, Sept. 22, 1822, to Mary Barber, who died at Wilmington, Ohio, their home, Oct. 30, 1885; Ben Adam Gallup was married (2) to Mary Wilson, Sept. 22, 1811. She died March 28, 1858.

III. (4). Ben Adam, son of Captain John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, was born at Stonington, Conn., in 1655, and died Aug. 2, 1727. He was married to Esther, daughter of John and Esther Prentice, of New London, Conn. She was born July 20, 1660, and died May 18, 1751. Their children were: 1, Hannah, born May 22, 1683, died 1754, (see later); 2, Esther, born 1685, died 1752, married, Jan. 5, 1705, to Joseph Stanton; 3, Mercy, born 1690, died 1725, married, May 10, 1710, to William Dennison; 4, Ben Adam, born 1693, died Sept. 30, 1755, (see later); 5, Captain Joseph, born 1695, died Dec. 22, 1760, married, Feb. 24, 1720, to Eunice Williams; 6, Margaret, born 1698, died March 2, 1761, married, June 4, 1717, to Nathaniel, born 1692, died April 3, 1739, son of John and Elizabeth (Harris) Gallup; 7, Lucy, born Jan. 12, 1701, died 1793, married, June 4, 1717, to George Dennison.

IV. (1). Hannah, daughter of Ben Adam and Esther (Prentice) Gallup, born May 22, 1683, died in 1754, was married, May 30, 1710, to William, baptised Dec. 18, 1681, son of Isaac and Martha (Park) Wheeler. Their first child, Hannah Wheeler, V. (1), born Jan. 5, 1712, was married, March 10, 1731, to Simeon, born May 4, 1708, son of Lieutenant Ephraim Miner. Their first child, Hannah Miner, VI (1), born Dec. 10, 1731, was married, at North Stonington, May 16, 1751, to Constant Searl, born June 17, 1728, killed in the battle of Wyoming, Pa., July 3, 1778, (Family No. 993—Searl).

IV. (4). Lieutenant Ben Adam Gallup, son of Ben Adam and Esther (Prentice) Gallup, was born in 1693, and died Sept. 30, 1755. He was married, Jan. 11, 1716, to Eunice Cobb, born in 1696, died Feb. 1, 1759. Their children were: 1, Colonel Ben Adam, born Oct. 26, 1716, died May 29, 1800, married, Aug. 11, 1740, to Hannah Avery of Groton, Conn.; 2, Esther (Gallup) Miner, born Feb. 24, 1718; 3, Eunice (Gallup) French, born March 29, 1721; 4, Lois Gallup, twin sister to Eunice, born March 29, 1721; 5, William, born July 4, 1723, (see later); 6, Henry, born Oct. 5, 1725, died Nov. 11, 1811, married Oct. 4, 1750, to Hannah, daughter of Nehemiah and Zerviah (Stanton) Mason; 7, Colonel Nathan, born in 1727, died Jan. 19, 1799, married, May 25, 1749, to Sarah Giddings, born 1730, died Sept. 18, 1778. Colonel Nathan Gallup of Groton, Conn., owned one-half a right of land, about 300 acres, in Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa., which he sold for £5, April 29, 1793, to his son, Jacob, described as then of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Jacob, the fifth child and third son, of Colonel Nathan Gallup, was born July 26, 1761, and died in 1798. He was married, Jan. 11, 1784, to Rebecca Morgan of Groton, Conn. She was married (2) to Ephraim Allyn and died July 3, 1834; 8, Ebenezer; 9, Thomas P., born July 28, 1734, married, Jan. 20, 1757, to Prudence Allyn; 10, Hannah, married, Jan. 23, 1755, to Robert Allyn; 11, Sarah.

IV. (5). Captain William Gallup, son of Ben Adam and Eunice (Cobb) Gallup, was born July 4, 1723, and was married, June 9, 1752, by the Rev. Jabez White, to Judith Reed, born April 7, 1733, died Jan. 1, 1815, aed. 81 years, 8 months, 25 days. A part of her tombstone was standing, about 1917, in the barbarously desecrated Gallup Cemetery, in Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa. The tombstone of Captain William Gallup, in that horribly blasphemed God's acre, has been broken off and destroyed. Captain William Gallup came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., with Major John Durkee in May, 1769. He settled in Kingston District, and his name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777 and 1778. He established his home near the Plymouth line and on Third Division Lot No. 2. The vandalized Gallup Cemetery is a part of his homestead lot. With his son, Hallet, he fought in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, and part of his family found a refuge in Forty Fort. Following the surrender of the fort the family fled to Connecticut and, it appears, remained there for a number of years. In 1790 William Gallup was a resident of Kingston and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16 and six females. He died in Kingston April 4, 1803. His estate included Third Division Lot No. 2, Kingston, part of Third Division Lot No. 1, and he had owned at least part of Second Division Lot No. 39. Some of the children of Captain William and Judith (Reed) Gallup were: 1, Lydia, born Feb. 14, 1754, no further record; 2, Hallet, born Jan. 1, 1756, died Oct. 5, 1804, (see later); 3, Zerviah, born Jan. 4, 1758, died May 18, 1840, married, as second wife, to Captain Benjamin Smith, born 1759, died Jan. 19, 1816, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), (Smith family above); 4, Lucy, born Feb. 7, 1760, died Nov. 30, 1821, married (1), at East Haddam, Middlesex Co., Conn., Feb. 3, 1788, to Nathaniel Gates, born March 4, 1753, died Nov. 7, 1793, (Gallup Cemetery), (Gates family later); Mrs. Lucy (Gallup) Gates was married (2), as second wife, to Aaron Dean, and probably had one son, John R. Dean. In 1917 her tombstone had escaped the general Hun-pillage inflicted upon the Gallup Cemetery in Kingston, Pa.; 5, Eunice, born in 1767, died Nov. 8, 1795, married, as first wife, to Aaron Dean. Their son, Barzillai Hallet Dean, was later known as Hallet B. Dean, and was living, May 30, 1817, in Benton, Ontario Co., N Y., when with his wife, Polly, he sold part of Lot No. 2, Third Division, Kingston, to Elisha Stewart, and Gilbert Lewis of Kingston, and when they also sold to Elijah Loveland, of Kingston, part of Lot 39, Second Division, Kingston, and part of Third Division Lot No. 2. Elijah Loveland had a brickyard on one of these lots in 1817; 6, Esther, born Oct. 28, 1768, died May 18, 1817, married to Christian G. Oehmig, (see later); 8, Mary C., twin sister to William, Jr., born in 1769-70, died before 1804, married to Henry Barney.* They had one daughter, Zerviah Barney, living in 1804; 9, Sarah, born March 4, 1772-3, died at Norwalk, Ohio, in 1858, married (1) to Peter Grubb, (see later), married (2) to Agur Hoyt, with whom she removed to Connecticut, and thence to Norwalk, Ohio, where he died Nov. 30, 1836; 10, Hannah, twin sister to Sarah, born March 4, 1772-3, died Feb. 2, 1864, married (1) to Israel Skeer, born about 1758, died Aug. 14, 1804. They had at least one son, Albert Skeer, who, in 1814-15, was assessed as a blacksmith in Kingston Township. Israel Skeer was buried in the Gallup Cemetery, where about 1917 his tombstone had been broken off and was used as "third base" on a miniature baseball diamond in Gallup Cemetery. At the same time the broken off tombstone of the son of a highly honored early Methodist preacher was used as "first base." Mrs. Hannah (Gallup) Skeer was married (2) to Asaph Jones, who, in 1814, was assessed as a shoemaker, in Kingston. She died in her 92d year and her remains "rest" (?) in the Gallup Cemetery, although her tombstone has been ruthlessly smashed by the barbarians. Albert, son of Israel and Hannah (Gallup) Skeer, was born April 17, 1796, and died March 5, 1872. He was married to Johanna J. Orr, (Family No. 1174—Orr), born Nov. 26, 1796, died Jan. 26, 1839. They are buried in Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery. Mrs. Hannah (Gallup) Skeer-Jones had two daughters, Zerviah and Hannah, named in the will of her sister, Mrs. Zerviah Smith. The writer is not informed whether they were by the first or second marriage.

V. (2). Captain Hallet Gallup, so described in the records of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, of which he became a member Nov. 21, 1798, was born Jan. 1, 1756. He was a soldier of the American Revolution and fought in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He was married to Mary, born in 1759, died Oct. 6, 1804, daughter of Ichabod and Desire (Otis) Bartlett. Her parents were married at Colchester, New London Co., Conn., Oct. 29, 1748. The name of Hallet Gallup appears in the list of that company of Yankees who attempted to make a settlement on the west branch of the Susquehanna River, at Warrior Run, in 1775, but who were overcome by a force of Northumberland Co., Pa., Militia and despoiled of "their horses and all their furniture." This list appears on page 843 of Harvey's History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. His name also appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Kingston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. He was married and living in Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1790. In Dec., 1791, he was appointed Constable of Plymouth Township, succeeding Lemuel Gaylord, and, in 1793, he was Ensign in the Fourth Company, Captain Ebenezer Parrish, of the 3d Regiment, Luzerne Co., Militia. He and his wife, who survived him only one day, were probably victims of an epidemic then prevalent in the Wyoming Valley. He died Oct. 5, 1804, and they are buried in Gallup Cemetery. No children survived them. Hallet Gallup was a licensed tavern keeper in Kingston in Jan., 1796.

*The will of Charles Barney of Plymouth, who was doubtless a brother of Henry Barney, made Feb. 16, 1831, and probated Jan. 5, 1846, names his wife, Elizabeth, and their children: 1, Henry; 2, Warren, (probably) born 1803, died April 20, 1867, married to Abigail J. ———, born 1797, died April 15, 1885, (Huntsville, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery); 3, Charles, (probably) born 1805, died March 10, 1881, a well known cabinetmaker at what is now West Wyoming, Pa., married to Nancy, born March 21, 1818, died Nov. 10, 1849, daughter of Richard and Nancy (Montanye) Mullison-Newman, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery), (Family No. 1217—Montanye, No. 992—Mullison); 4, Elizabeth (Barney) Ives; 5, John; 6, Cynthia; 7, Peggy; 8, Jacob.

V. (6). Esther, daughter of Captain William and Judith (Reed) Gallup, was born Oct. 28, 1768, and died May 18, 1817. She was married to Christian Gotloop Oehmig, born Aug. 4, 1764, died Feb. 5, 1839. Christian Gotloop Oehmig was of Kingston, May 15, 1792, when he sold to Jonathan Hancock one acre, part of Lot 20, Wilkes-Barre Town Plot, next adjoining the main road from Wilkes-Barre to Lackawanna and then in the tenure of Laughlin McCartney. This plot of ground situated at the corner of North Main street and Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, was doubtless, in 1792, the site of the tavern kept at about that time by Laughlin McCartney. It was owned later by Isaac Carpenter, (Family No. 1311). It was described in 1792 as consisting of one acre, a smith shop, dwelling house and stable. Peter Grubb and George Sytz witnessed the signing of the deed. At about the same time Christian G. Oehmig and his wife, Esther, sold to Stephen Tuttle, Jr., all their interest in Lot 21, of the Town Plot of Wilkes-Barre, bounded by lands of Solomon Johnson, the Rev. Jacob Johnson, John P. Schott, Esq., and the public road. Lot 21 adjoined Lot 20 and was also situated on North Main street. In 1813, 1814 and 1815 Christian G. Oehmig was assessed as a merchant in Kingston Township. His store was doubtless at what is now Wyoming, Pa., and was probably one of the first if not the first store at Troy Corners. Without much doubt it occupied the site on Lot 34, Third Division, adjoining the present Schooley building. Dec. 21, 1815, Captain Samuel and Hannah (Pierson) Breese conveyed to Benjamin Smith, in trust for Esther Oehmig, a plot of land with eleven perches frontage on what is now Wyoming avenue, Wyoming. Adjoining this piece of land on the west was the William Love homestead with eight perches frontage on the present Wyoming avenue, which William Love sold Nov. 28, 1820, to Mrs. Zerviah Smith, widow of Benjamin Smith. The latter property was willed by Mrs. Zerviah Smith to her niece, Judith Oehmig. The children of Christian G. and Esther (Gallup) Oehmig were: 1, Adam; 2, John George, born Jan. 12, 1793, died Oct. 8, 1849; 3, Judith M., born Feb. 28, 1799, died Oct. 10, 1868. Miss Judith M. Oehmig kept a private school in her home, at New Troy, for many years and, although her death occurred more than 50 years ago, the older people at Wyoming still speak of Judy Oehmig and her school. Christian G. Oehmig, his wife, Esther (Gallup) Oehmig, and two of their children, John George and Judith M., are buried near the church in Forty Fort Cemetery. June 18, 1788, he bought from Peleg Comstock, Kingston House Lots Nos. 27 and 28, which he sold Dec. 4, 1792, to Laban Blanchard. He probably came to the Wyoming Valley as early as 1787-8.

V. (7). William Gallup, Jr., son of Captain William and Judith (Reed) Gallup, was born in 1769-70, and died March 13, 1807. He was married to Freeloove, daughter of Caleb Hathaway, of Philadelphia, Pa., who was a merchant in that city in 1817, and is also said to have been a sea captain. William Gallup, Jr., inherited from his father's estate two and one-half acres of Third Division Lot No. 2, lying the full width of the lot along Wyoming avenue, also a five acre wood lot, part of Lot No. 2. He also owned, at the time of his death, 171 acres of land in Exeter Township. Aug. 4, 1808, Daniel Hoyt, Henry Buckingham and Freeloove Gallup, administrators of the estate of William Gallup, Jr., sold all these lands to Caleb Hathaway, of Philadelphia, Pa. Dec. 27, 1817, Caleb Hathaway, merchant, of Philadelphia, sold to William Gallup of Huron Co., Ohio, 171 acres of land in Exeter, and the five acre wood lot referred to above. He, apparently, also sold to William Gallup, Jr., the two and one-half acre pieces of Lot 2, which Thomas W. and Hannah Hathaway and Caleb, Jr., and Rachel Hathaway sold, Aug. 4, 1833, to Abiel Abbott, (Family No. 35—Abbott), describing it as sold to Thomas W. Hathaway and Caleb Hathaway, Jr., (who were doubtless brothers of Freeloove (Hathaway) Gallup, by William Gallup, Sept. 27, 1820. Mrs. Freeloove (Hathaway) Gallup died April 25,

1835. She is described erroneously as the relict of Hallet Gallup, in the collections of the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, Vol. IV, copied from a Wilkes-Barre newspaper. The children of William, Jr., and Freelove (Hathaway) Gallup were: 1, William (3d), born Feb. 3, 1795, married, at Norwalk, Ohio, May 2, 1819, to Sarah Boaldt; 2, Hallet, born May 1, 1796, served as a private in the "Wyoming Matross," commanded by Captain Samuel Thomas, which marched from Luzerne Co., Pa., March 31, 1813, to Erie, and May 5, 1813, was incorporated in Colonel Reese Hill's Regiment of Pa. Militia. This company took part in several engagements of the War of 1812. Hallet Gallup was married, April 9, 1820, at Norwalk, Ohio, to Sallie Benedict; 3, James D., born in 1798, not married, died at Mauch Chunk, Pa., March, 1856. He was initiated a member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 2, 1825; 4, Caleb Hathaway died at Norwalk, Ohio, Sept. 20, 1827. William Gallup, Jr., born 1769-70, was initiated a member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 1, 1816. (Bib.-3.)

V. (9). Sarah, daughter of Captain William and Judith (Reed) Gallup, was born March 4, 1772-3, and was married (1) to Peter Grubb, who was born in 1754, and died Jan. 23, 1807. He was doubtless a son of Peter Grubb, Sr., who came to the Wyoming Valley from Northampton Co., Pa., and in 1790 was a resident of Luzerne Co. and had in family himself, and two males over 16 years of age. Peter Grubb, Jr., was a Corporal in Captain Joseph Fry's Company of the First Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia, commanded by Colonel George Hubner, and was also a signer of the petition of Northampton Co., Pa., patriots protesting against the attitude of the Moravians in the War of the American Revolution. In 1792 a Peter Grubb was assessed in Plymouth Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., as the owner of a distillery, and a Peter Grubb was assessed as a Justice of the Peace in Kingston Township, in the same year. March 1, 1798, Peter Grubb paid to William Gallup $10 for the privilege of conveying water "where it is now conveyed" through Lot No. 2. This water privilege was doubtless secured for use in connection with a grist mill and sawmill owned by Peter Grubb and situated on a lot adjoining the Plymouth line. In 1794 Peter Grubb was a private in Captain Ebenezer Bowman's Company of Luzerne Co. Militia and served in the "Whiskey Insurrection" of that year. He was a charter member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, and was the first Junior Warden of the lodge and the Treasurer in 1798. (Bib.-2.) In 1793 he was one of the County Commissioners of Luzerne Co. He died Jan. (or July) 23, 1807, and was buried in Gallup Cemetery. A tombstone, placed to mark his resting place, has been destroyed. One of the children of Peter and Sarah (Gallup) Grubb was doubtless Lydia, the wife of Nicholas Delaplaine, who, with her husband, lived in New York, March 7, 1818, when they sold to Oliver Helm nine acres of land in Plymouth, extending 40 perches along the road between Kingston and Plymouth lines, and 32 perches wide. This land had been patented to Sarah Hoyt, late Sarah Grubb. (Bib.-281.) Mrs. Sarah (Gallup) Grubb, widow of Peter Grubb, Jr., was married (2), May 29, 1809, to Agur Hoyt, as noted above. An Elizabeth Grubb, perhaps the mother of Peter Grubb, Jr., died July 28, 1796, and was buried in Gallup Cemetery. (Bib.-56.) (Compiled from the Gallup Genealogy, The Harvey Book, Land Records at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and cemetery inscriptions.)

THE GATES FAMILY

I. Sergeant Nathaniel Gates,* born March 4, 1753, died Nov. 7, 1793, came to

*The names of Nathaniel Gates† and David Gates appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777 and 1778 as residents of Lackaway District, now Pike Co., Pa. This Nathaniel Gates had a daughter, a young girl, who, about Sept., 1777, discovered eighteen men lurking in the "Great Swamp," as the bottom land along the Wallenpaupack was called. She gave notice to Lieutenant Jonathan Hascall, (see below) who collected the force of the settlement and succeeded in capturing them. They proved to be Tories and were taken by Lieutenant Hascall to Hartford, Conn. Sergeant Nathaniel Gates of the Wyoming Valley was probably a son of Nathaniel Gates of Lackaway and a brother of this young girl. (See Bib.-1, p. 949, Bib.-4, p. 469.)

The name of Jonathan Hascall appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Lackaway District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. A Jonathan Hascall was married, June 8, 1758, at Thompson, Windham Co., Conn., to Tamer Morphot. A Jonathan Hascall was married, Oct. 13, 1766, at Canterbury, Windham Co., Conn., to Anna Lathrop. The heirs of Lieutenant Jonathan Hascall, on the 28th day of June, 1802, executed a power of attorney to Isaac Baldwin of Tioga Co., Pa. This document names Anna Bishop, late Anna Hascall, the widow of Jonathan Hascall, and the following children of Jonathan Hascall: 1, Nancy, married to Levi Stevens; 2, Jonathan Hascall, Jr.; 3, Alice, (also named Elsie), married to Isaac Baldwin and living in Tioga Co., Pa., in 1802; 4, Sarah, married to Silas Baldwin; 5, Hannah Hascall.

†A Nathaniel Gates, living in Luzerne Co., Pa., about 1820, was a Federal pensioner for services rendered as a Mariner on the ship Confederacy. (Bib.-13.)

the Wyoming Valley, Pa., before the fall of 1777. He enlisted in the Company of Captain Dethick Hewitt, who was commissioned, in Oct., 1777, Captain of the Second Company of the 24th Regiment, Conn. Militia, but who was, shortly afterwards, appointed and commissioned Captain to raise and command a company for the Continental service. This was the Third Independent Westmoreland Company, whose Captain, Dethick Hewitt, was killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. Nathaniel Gates served as a Sergeant in this company and his name as Sergeant Gates appears in the list of the survivors of the battle of Wyoming. He was married, Feb. 3, 1788, at East Haddam, Middlesex Co., Conn., to Lucy, daughter of Captain William and Judith (Reed) Gallup, (see above). They settled in Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., where he was assessed in 1792. He died there, Nov. 7, 1793, and, a few years ago, his tombstone was standing in Gallup Cemetery. No trace of it now remains. The children of Sergeant Nathaniel and Lucy (Gallup) Gates were: 1, Lucy, married to Daniel, son of Joseph and Salome Swetland, (Family No. 3—Swetland); 2, Nathaniel, Jr., born Feb. 12, 1791, died Sept. 23, 1827, (see later); 3, Trumenda, born about 1793, married (1) to Oliver, Jr., born Sept. 9, 1784, died Dec. 6, 1813, son of Oliver and Martha (Payne) Pettebone, (Family No. 988—Pettebone), whose son, Oliver Gates Pettebone, was married, Dec. 15, 1835, to Elizabeth, daughter of Joshua and Eleanor (Gay) Pettebone, (Family No. 50—Gay, No. 988—Pettebone). Mrs. Trumenda (Gates) Pettebone was married (2), as second wife, to Freeman Thomas, (Family No. 988—Freeman Thomas).

II. (2). Nathaniel, Jr., son of Sergeant Nathaniel and Lucy (Gallup) Gates, was born Feb. 12, 1791, and died Sept. 23, 1827. He was assessed as a carpenter in Kingston in 1814. He was married to Ruth, born Nov. 22, 1792, died Aug. 26, 1851, (Hanover, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery), daughter of David and Susanna (Dilley) Richards, (Family No. 5—Richards), and their children were: 1, Sarah, born March 21, 1816, married, Jan. 9, 1844, to John Waller Horton, born Nov. 22, 1814, died April 1, 1876, whose children were: (1), Emily; (2), James, married (1) to Mary Hall, married (2) to Fanny Spare; (3), Harriet; (4), John C., married to Jennie Gundry; (5), Harry, married to Ida Fry; (6), Sallie, married to Theodore Wolfe, of Roosevelt, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 2, John R., born Nov. 17, 1818–19, died June 6, 1894, (Forty Fort, Pa., Cemetery), married, Feb. 24, 1842, to Mary, born Nov. 16, 1819, died April 27, 1890, daughter of David and Sally (Chapin) Goodwin, (Family No. 1230—Goodwin), and some of their children were: (1), Nathaniel, born Dec. 1, 1843, died June 27, 1844; (2), Dr. William R. Gates, born May 12, 1845, died Aug. 31, 1900; (3), Horatio C., born Dec. 22, 1847, died Oct. 13, 1850; (4), Eliza Jane, born April 17, 1850, died Aug. 17, 1852; (5), Frank, married to Loretta Barney; 3, Courtland N., born July 27, 1822, married, May 7, 1846, to Margaret Swaim, whose children were: (1), Sally, married to Dr Ayers; (2), Harry O., married to Alice Elliot; (3), Mary; (4), Ruth; (5), Elizabeth; (6), William L.; (7), F. Courtland, married to Mary Snyder; (8), David, married to Margaret Acey; 4, Horatio Carlisle, born Oct. 21, 1826, died June 22, 1902, (Forty Fort Cemetery), initiated a member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 6, 1872, for a number of years engaged in the foundry business in Wilkes-Barre, married to Jane A., died Jan. 2, 1882, daughter of John and Mary (Roberts) Hunter of Kingston Township, whose children were: (1), Grizzie Gilchrist, born April 15, 1857, married, July 27, 1873, to James M. Norris of Wilkes-Barre; (2), Charles Stanley, born Jan. 11, 1860, died Aug. 1, 1865; (3), Frederick Horatio, born Sept. 20, 1866, married to Lillie Rhineheimer, initiated a member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 21, 1896; (4), Stella Shoemaker, born June 6, 1868, married, Aug. 23, 1892, to Philip E. Staufer; (5), Mary Carlisle, born April 2, 1873.

SOPHIA JANE (SMITH) HARVEY; FAMILIES NOS. 1328—(1324)

Sophia Jane, daughter of Amos York and Lucinda G. (Carpenter) Smith, was born Sept. 30, 1848, and was married to Dr. Olin F., son of Elisha Boanerges and Phebe Maria (Frisbie) Harvey, (Harvey family later), and their children were: 1, Chauncey York, born April 29, 1874, died Oct. 29, 1874; 2, Hume, born Sept. 28, 1876, died Aug. 13, 1877; 3, Lieutenant Colonel Olin Frisbie, born Sept. 27, 1880; 4, Carol, born Nov. 25, 1884.

Dr. Olin Frisbie Harvey was born Sept. 28, 1846. In June, 1861, he accompanied his father, Captain, later Colonel, E. B. Harvey, to Camp Wayne, West Chester, Chester Co., Pa., and in July, 1861, went with him to the Regimental Camp at Washington, D. C. He returned to Wilkes-Barre in Sept., 1861, and attended the Alexander J. Pringle School. In Aug., 1862, he entered the Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, and, in 1865, having studied for some time under his father's teaching, he entered the New Haven College of Business. He entered Lafayette College in Sept., 1867, and was graduated in June, 1871. In Oct., 1871, he entered the University of Pennsylvania, and was graduated, March 13, 1873, with M. D. May 1, 1874, he opened an office in Wilkes-Barre. In that year he was the attending physician at the Wilkes-Barre City Hospital. Feb. 28, 1898, he became a member of the consulting staff of Mercy Hospital, Wilkes-Barre. At the time of the Spanish War he was appointed Examining Surgeon and served at Wilkes-Barre. He was a member of the Luzerne County Medical Society, the Lehigh Valley Medical Association, the Medical Society of Pennsylvania, and of the American Medical Association. He was also a Fellow of the Academy of Medicine. He was initiated, Aug. 17, 1868, member of Lodge 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, and served as Worshipful Master in 1875. He was also a member of Shekinah Chapter, No. 182, R. A. M., and served as High Priest in 1880. March 28, 1878, he became a member of Mount Horeb Council, No. 34, of Plymouth, Pa., and, in Dec., 1880, was elected T. I. Grand Master. In March, 1876, he was admitted to membership in Dieu le Veut Commandery, No. 45, Masonic Knights Templar of Wilkes-Barre. In 1890 Dr. Harvey was appointed a member of the Board of Trustees of the State Asylum at Danville, Pa. In Dec., 1875, he served as Assistant Surgeon of the Old Ninth Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, and Aug. 30, 1879, as Surgeon of the new Ninth Regiment, he was commissioned Major. In Feb., 1876, he was elected to represent the Fourth Ward, Wilkes-Barre, on the Board of School Directors and was elected Treasurer. June 27, 1876, he was elected President of the Board and served until Aug., 1882.

THE HARVEY FAMILY*

I. Thomas Harvey, who died in Somersetshire, England, previous to 1647, the name of whose wife has not been preserved, had at least four children: 1, a daughter, born about 1610; 2, James, born about 1612; 3, William, born about 1614, died in 1691, who came to America in 1636 with his brother, Thomas, and settled at Dorchester, Mass.; 4, Thomas, Jr., born in 1617, died 1651.

II. (4). Thomas, Jr., son of Thomas Harvey, of Somersetshire, England, born in 1617, came to America, with his brother, William, in 1636, and in 1638 was settled at Cohannet. He was married, about 1642, to Elizabeth, born in England in 1614, daughter of Henry Andrew of Taunton, Mass. He died at Taunton, Mass., in 1651, aed. 34 years. His widow, Mrs. Elizabeth (Andrews) Harvey, was married (2) to Frances Street of Taunton, and was married (3) to Thomas Lincoln. The children of Thomas, Jr., and Elizabeth (Andrews) Harvey were: 1, Thomas (3d), born 1643, died 1726, married, in 1668, to his cousin, Experience, daughter of William

*From The Harvey Book, by Oscar Jewel Harvey, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., with some minor details by the writer.

Harvey; 2, William, born 1645, lived in Taunton, Mass.; 3, John, born 1647, died Jan. 18, 1705.

III. (3). John, son of Thomas, Jr., and Elizabeth (Andrews) Harvey, born in Taunton, Mass., in 1647, died in Lyme, New London Co., Conn., Jan. 18, 1705, was married to Elizabeth ———, who died at Lyme, Conn., Jan. 9, 1705. Their children were: 1, John, Jr., born 1676, died Dec. 23, 1767; 2, Thomas, born 1678, died in 1725, married, Nov. 25, 1702, to Abigail Smith; 3, Elizabeth, born 1680, died 1752, married, in Oct., 1698, to John Willey, (Family No. 211—Willey); 4, Mary, born in 1682, died Jan. 10, 1705; 5, Sarah, born in 1682, died Jan. 13, 1705.

IV. (1). John, Jr., son of John and Elizabeth Harvey, was born in 1676, and died at North Lyme, Conn., Dec. 23, 1767. His wife, Sarah, born in 1684, died Oct. 2, 1754. Their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born March 30, 1708, died March 25, 1767, not married; 2, Abigail, born May 4, 1710; 3, Sarah, born April 1, 1712; 4, John (3d), born April 7, 1716, died July 4, 1776; 5, Joshua, born March 3, 1718, died March 20, 1807; 6, Joseph, born April 6, 1720, died in Oct., 1799; 7, Benjamin, born July 28, 1722, died Nov. 27, 1795.

V. (7). Benjamin, son of John, Jr., and Sarah Harvey, was born July 28, 1722, and was married (1), in 1745, to Elizabeth, born in 1720, died Dec. 3, 1777, daughter of John and Jemima Pelton. He was married (2), in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., in 1786, to Catharine, widow of Major Simeon Draper, late of Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. Benjamin Harvey came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., from Lyme, New London Co., Conn., and, in 1772, settled in the lower end of Plymouth Township. His name and that of his son, Silas, appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Plymouth District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. March 1, 1774, he was elected one of the Surveyors of Highways for the Town of Westmoreland. He became one of the most prominent and most influential men among the pioneer settlers of the Wyoming Valley. Dr. Charles Miner, in his History of Wyoming, expresses a high estimate of his ability and standing. He died at Plymouth, Pa., Nov. 27, 1795, and his widow, Catharine, died there May 6, 1800. The children of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Pelton) Harvey were: 1, Mary, born in 1746, not married, died Oct. 27, 1767; 2, Benjamin, Jr., born 1747, died in March, 1777; 3, Seth, born 1749, not married, died Dec. 10, 1771; 4, Abigail, born 1752, not married, died Nov. 22, 1769; 5, Silas, born 1754, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 6, Lois, born 1756, died 1808; 7, Elisha, born 1758, died March 14, 1800; 8, Lucy, born 1760.

VI. (7). Elisha, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Pelton) Harvey, born in North Lyme, Conn., in 1758, came to the Wyoming Valley with his parents and was married, March 27, 1786, to Rosanna, born Dec. 24, 1758, died Jan. 17, 1840, daughter of Robert and Agnes (Dixon) Jameson* of Hanover Township, Luzerne

*I. John Jameson and his wife, Rosanna (Irwin) Jameson, came to America about 1718 from Omagh, County Tyrone, Ireland. He was of Scottish parentage, was born about 1680 and died in 1734. His wife died about 1726-1734. They settled in Boston.

II. (5). Robert Jameson, second son and fifth child of John and Rosanna (Irwin) Jameson, was born Dec. 25, 1714, and died May 1, 1786. He was married at North Stonington, Conn., Nov. 24, 1748, to Agnes, born in 1723, died Sept. 24, 1804, (in Salem, Luzerne Co., Pa., buried in Beach Grove Cemetery), daughter of Captain Robert Dixon. They removed from Voluntown, Conn., about 1775, to Hanover District in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., and the names of Robert Jameson, and John and William Jameson, his sons, appear on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for that District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. Robert Jameson died May 1, 1786, and is buried in Hanover, Luzerne Co., Pa., Cemetery. The inscription on his tombstone, in that cemetery, may still be read, in a favorable light. The children of Robert and Agnes† (Dixon) Jameson were: 1, Lieutenant John, born June 17, 1749, killed by Indians, July 8, 1782, (see later); 2, Mary, born March 12, 1751, not married, died at Salem, Pa., Sept. 19, 1834; 3, Anne, born April 26, 1752, died Jan. 25, 1808; 4, William, born Dec. 19, 1753, killed by Indians at "Buttonwood," Luzerne Co., Pa., Oct. 14-16, 1778; 5, Robert, Jr., born June 10, 1755, killed in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778; 6, Elizabeth, born Aug. 5, 1757, not married, died at Salem, Pa., April 23, 1818; 7, Rosanna, born Dec. 24, 1758, died Jan. 17, 1840, married, Nov. 27, 1786, to Elisha Harvey, (see above); 8, Samuel, born March 13, 1760, took part in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778, drowned in the Susquehanna River in Hanover Township in 1787; 9, Hannah, born Dec. 29, 1761, died early, married to William Reed; 10, Joseph, born May 23, 1763, died April 7, 1854, (assessed in Hanover Township in 1792); 11, Alexander, born Sept. 10, 1764, died Feb. 17, 1859; 12, Agnes, born April 25, 1766, died in 1791, married, about 1790, as first wife, to John Alden; 13, Benjamin, born Aug. 15, 1768, died in Hanover in 1789.

III. (1). Lieutenant John Jameson, born June 17, 1749, was killed by Indians July 8, 1782. He fought in the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He was married to Abigail, born in 1750, died in 1795, daughter of Major Prince and Mary (Fitch) Alden, of Hanover Township, and their children were: 1, Samuel, born Aug. 29, 1777, died March 27, 1843, married to Hannah, born July 11, 1779, died March 6, 1851, daughter of Jonathan Hunlock, Sr., (Family No. 992—Hunlock), †In Bailey's "Early Connecticut Marriages," Vol. I, North Stonington," Robert Jameson of Voluntown and Nancy Dixon were married, Nov. 24, 1748.

Co., Pa., and their children were: 1, Benjamin, born Aug. 10, 1787, died March 18, 1788; 2, Sarah, born March 4, 1789, died Oct. 11, 1832, married, May 31, 1810, to Rev. George, born April 13, 1784, died May 6, 1859, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre), son of Nathan, born at Attleboro, Mass., March 20, 1750, died at Lanesboro, Pa., March 17, 1817, and Dorcas (Muscroft) Lane, born March 1, 1757, married, in 1772, died Sept. 8, 1839. The Rev. George Lane was admitted on trial in the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1805, was admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon in 1807 and was ordained Elder in 1809. His early appointments were: (a), 1805, Scipio, N. Y.; (b), 1806, Pompey, N. Y.; (c), 1807, Accomack, Delaware District, Philadelphia Conference; (d), 1808, missionary to the Holland-Purchase and Caledonia, N. Y.; (e), 1809, Wyoming Circuit, Susquehanna District, Philadelphia Conference. In 1810 he located and settled in Plymouth Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., where he engaged in general merchandising. Later he again entered the ministerial ranks of the Methodist Episcopal Church, served as Presiding Elder of the Susquehanna District, and was elected Book Agent, thus becoming one of the heads of the publishing interests of the church at the Methodist Book Concern in New York. An interesting sketch and a good portrait of the Rev. George Lane may be found in the "Historical Sketches of Plymouth, Luzerne Co., Pa., by Colonel Hendrick B. Abram Nesbitt* was a student in Wyoming Seminary and has been a lifelong friend and benefactor of that institution. (Wyoming Seminary in Family No. 987.)

*The genealogy of the Nesbitt family and that of the Dixon family, together with a valuable fund of information pertaining to individual members of these families may be found in The Harvey Book.

VIII. (2). Elisha Boanerges Harvey, son of Benjamin and Sarah (Nesbitt) Harvey, was born Oct. 1, 1819, and died Aug. 20, 1872. He was a native of Harveyville, Luzerne Co., Pa., and when about 18 years of age entered the Grammar School at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. Later he continued his studies at Franklin Academy, Harford, Susquehanna Co., Pa., and at the Academy of Deacon Dana in Wilkes-Barre. In Aug., 1841, he entered the freshman class at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., and was graduated with A. B. in 1845. In Sept., 1845, he was appointed Professor of Latin and Greek in Wyoming Seminary at Kingston, Pa. In June 1846, he took up the study of law and, Nov. 4, 1847, was admitted to the Bar of Luzerne Co., Pa. In 1849 he was elected Secretary of the Wilkes-Barre School Board and in 1854 he was one of the incorporators of the Wilkes-Barre Female Institute and one of the first of its Trustees. In 1863 he opened a Classical and Mathematical Institute, for both sexes, in Wilkes-Barre.

Elisha B. Harvey was initiated a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 6, 1854, and served as Secretary in 1855 and 1863, as Worshipful Master in 1857 and as Treasurer in 1861. He was also an active member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, E. B. Harvey Lodge, I. O. O. F., Wilkes-Barre, bearing his name. Dec. 3, 1855, he became a member of Perseverance Chapter, No. 21, Royal Arch Masons, of Harrisburg, Pa., and he was a charter member and First High Priest of Shekinah Chapter, No. 182, Wilkes-Barre. Sept. 19, 1856, he became a member of Palestine Commandery, No. 14, Masonic Knights Templar, at Carbondale, Pa., and in 1869, transferred his membership to Coeur de Lion Commandery, Scranton, Pa.

Colonel Harvey served the Borough of Wilkes-Barre in various offices. From 1850 to 1861 he was Clerk of the Borough Council. He was Collector of Taxes from 1852 to 1860, Clerk of Markets and Sealer of Weights and Measures, 1857 to 1860; Chief of Police in 1856, the first incumbent of that office in Wilkes-Barre; Burgess in 1865; Justice of the Peace, 1866 until his death. In 1850 he was Deputy Attorney General for Luzerne Co. and in 1854 he was elected Register of Wills. He was Secretary of Wilkes-Barre and Providence Plank Road Company, a Director of the Wyoming Bank in 1859 and 1861, and a member of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society, the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society, the Wilkes-Barre Law and Library Association.

In 1839 Elisha B. Harvey was Captain of the Huntington Rifle Company and in 1844 he was commissioned Lieutenant Colonel in the Pa. Militia. June 4, 1854, he became Brigade Inspector of the Second Brigade, Ninth Division, Pa. Militia. In May, 1855, he was elected and commissioned Captain of the Wyoming Artillerists of Wilkes-Barre. In 1861 he raised a company known as the Wyoming Bank Infantry, which in June, 1861, at Camp Wayne, West Chester, Chester Co., Pa., became part of the newly organized 7th Regiment, Pa. Reserve Corps, and which, July 27, 1861, was mustered into the United States Service. Captain Harvey was elected Colonel of the Regiment and continued in command until July 4, 1862, when, owing to injuries received in the hard fighting, which reduced the Regiment from 863 to 353 men, he resigned and returned to his home in Wilkes-Barre.

Colonel Elisha Boanerges Harvey was married (1), Oct. 8, 1845, to Phebe Maria, born Jan. 16, 1821, died June 7, 1849, daughter of Chauncey and Chloe (Howard) Frisbie, of Orwell, Bradford Co., Pa. He was married (2), July 8, 1850, to Sarah Maria, daughter of Stephen and Mary Ann (Urquhart) Garretson, of Lambertville, N. J. Colonel Harvey died in Wilkes-Barre, Aug. 20, 1872. The family burial plot is in Hollenback Cemetery in that city. The only child of Colonel Elisha B. and Phebe Maria (Frisbie) Harvey was Olin Frisbie Harvey, born Sept. 28, 1846, married to Sophia Jane, daughter of Amos York and Lucinda G. (Carpenter) Smith. The children of Colonel Elisha B. and Sarah Maria (Garretson) Harvey were: 2, Oscar Jewell, born Sept. 2, 1851; 3, Ella, born Oct. 7, 1853; 4, Elizabeth, born Aug. 31, 1855; 5, Caroline Arista, born Sept. 10, 1857, died Jan. 8, 1867; 6, Benjamin Nesbitt, born Nov. 15, 1859, died May 16, 1867; 7, Edith, born July 13, 1862; 8, Charles Elisha, born Jan. 23, 1865, died Nov. 7, 1869; 9, Gilbert Alexander, born Jan. 9, 1869.

IX. (2). Oscar Jewel Harvey, son of Elisha B. and Sarah Maria (Garretson) Harvey, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 2, 1851, and took his college preparatory course in the school taught by his father. In Sept., 1867, he entered the freshman class of La Fayette College at Easton, Pa., and in June, 1871, was graduated, receiving the A. B. degree. In 1874 he received his A. M. degree from the same institution. From 1872 to 1882 he was the Secretary of the Alumni Association. In July, 1872, he was elected Professor of Mathematics and Higher English at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston. The next year he took up the study of law, passed the examinations for admission to the Luzerne County Bar in 1875, and, in May, 1876, after returning from a visit to Europe, he was admitted to the Bar. In April, 1879, he was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. He was initiated a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, May 25, 1873, and served as Worshipful Master in 1879. He became a member of Shekinah Chapter, No. 182, R. A. M., in 1877, and in the same year also became a member of Dieu le Veut Commandery, No. 45, Masonic Knights Templar. In 1873 he was a charter member of E. B. Harvey Lodge, No. 839, I. O. O. F., and has served two terms as Noble Grand. He was the first Captain of the Wilkes-Barre Fencibles, a Company of Militia, organized Nov. 28, 1878, which became the nucleus of the Ninth Regiment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. In June, 1879, the Wilkes-Barre Fencibles became Company B of the 9th Regiment. In the recent World War this splendid Infantry Regiment, converted into an Artillery Regiment, became the 109th United States Field Artillery, and under the command of Colonel Asher Miner shared gloriously in the winning of the war.

Captain Oscar Jewel Harvey has devoted his splendid abilities, during recent years, almost exclusively to literary pursuits, specializing in historical research, genealogy, and kindred lines of study. He has published a number of histories including the "History of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre," "The Harvey Book," and "The History of Wilkes-Barre, Pa." He is also the author of various minor historical papers dealing with the Ecclesiastical, the Industrial and the Art history and development of the Wyoming Valley, Pa. He is a member of the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society of Wilkes-Barre, and has served in the Luzerne County Courts as an expert on land titles, etc.

Oscar Jewel Harvey was married, June 23, 1880, to Fanny Virginia, born at Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 11, 1859, daughter of Eben B. and Martha Phedora (Smith) Holding, and their children are: 1, Thorndyke, born May 19, 1881; 2 and 3, Ethel and Helen, born Sept. 18, 1883; 4, Ernest, born June 2, 1886; 4, Walter, born Oct. 31, 1887, died Aug. 18, 1888.

THE BENEDICT FAMILY

I. Thomas Benedict, born in Nottinghamshire, England, in 1617, came to America in 1638 and settled in the Massachusetts Bay Colony, where he was married to his step-sister, Mary Bridgum. They removed to Southold, Long Island, where, May 20, 1663, he was appointed Magistrate by the Dutch Governor Peter Stuyvesant. Dec. 3, 1663, he was appointed Lieutenant of the Town. In 1665 he removed to Norwalk, Conn., where he died Nov. 20, 1689.

II. Deacon John Benedict, son of Thomas and Mary (Bridgum) Benedict, was married to Phebe Gregory, and their sons, James, was born Jan. 5, 1685. III. James, son of Deacon John and Phebe (Gregory) Benedict, born Jan. 5, 1685, was married, in 1709, to Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Mary Hyatt, of Norwalk, Conn., and settled at Ridgefield, Fairfield Co., Conn., where their son, the Rev. James Benedict, was born Feb. 19, 1720. IV. Rev. James Benedict, son of James and Sarah (Hyatt) Benedict, born in Ridgefield, Conn., Feb. 19, 1720, was a Baptist preacher in Stamford, Conn., and removed to Warwick, Orange Co., N. Y., where he was ordained Nov. 17, 1766. He came to the Wyoming Valley and returned to Warwick, N. Y., after the battle of Wyoming, July 3, 1778. He is said to have organized the first Baptist Church in Pittston.

V. John Benedict, son of the Rev. James Benedict, was born April 24, 1747, and was married, in 1771, to Hannah Wisner, born in Dec., 1746, died in Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Sept. 9, 1827. He served as Ensign in the Continental Army in the War of the American Revolution and about 1791 removed to Pittston, Luzerne Co., Pa. Feb. 1, 1793, he bought from Stephen Wilcox (Family No. 1362—Wilcox), Lot No. 28, Second Tier, Pittston, about 100 acres, and, on the same day, he bought from Roger Searle, Lot No. 27, adjoining it. Oct. 2, 1795, he bought, from John Davidson, Meadow Lot No. 11, Pittston, including the small island on the west end, 20 acres, and the west end of Lot No. 47, bounded on the north by lands of Abraham Harding, on the east by lands of Roger Searl and on the south by the "Fort Lots,"* 43 acres. April 25, 1796, he bought, from Roger Searl, one-half of Lot No. 46, of the hundred acre lots and one-fourth of a Pine Lot, No. 26, together with one-fourth of the undivided land to be drawn. He sold Lot No. 27, Second Tier, Nov. 16, 1797, to Dr. Nathaniel Giddings. This lot adjoined Lot No. 26, owned by Jesse Gardner, (Family No. 14—Gardner). The will of John Benedict, made in Pittston, Pa., May 3, 1816, was probated Aug. 7, 1816. It names his wife, Hannah, and their children: 1, Sarah, (see later); 2, George Washington, born 1778, died at Pittston, Pa., Dec. 24, 1844, married to Clarissa ———, who, Jan. 2, 1845, was appointed administratrix of his estate, with Joseph Doty and Jacob Lance on the bond in $300. In the cemetery at Trucksville, Luzerne Co., Pa., is the grave of George Washington Benedict, born June 24, 1817, died Nov. 12, 1906, who was married (1), Feb. 8, 1841, to Mary Ann, born April 6, 1820, died April 13, 1849, daughter of Hiram Drake, (Family No. 1010—Drake), and was married (2) to Tacy R. ———, born June 7, 1826; (3), Thomas, (see later); (4), John, (see later); (5), Nancy, born July 9, 1782, died July 12, 1863, married to Stephen Tripp, born July 19, 1775, died Sept. 10, 1841, (Family No. 1001—Tripp); (6) Mary (Benedict) Allsworth.

*It appears that the Fort Lots, in Pittston, lay along the Susquehanna River, beginning at the sharp bend of the river nearly a mile above Wintermute Island, and at about the site of the present Ferry Bridge, and extending to the mouth of the Lackawanna River. The plot extended back from the Susquehanna River about 125 rods, thus cutting off the river end of Lots 45 to 49, inclusive.

VI. (1). Sarah, daughter of John and Hannah (Wisner) Benedict, was born April 20, 1775, and died Feb. 18, 1850, aed. 75 years. She was married to Lewis, son of Benjamin Jones, Jr., of Exeter, Luzerne Co., Pa., (see later). Lewis Jones bought part of the Hadsell farm on Sutton's Creek, in Exeter Township, and in 1806, according to the tax list, was keeping a store and tavern there. He was born Oct. 25, 1771, and died Feb. 22, 1848. The children of Lewis and Sarah (Benedict) Jones were: 1, Ira, born Dec. 14, 1795; 2, Frances, born Aug. 8, 1797, married to Elijah Sturdevant; 3, Hannah, born Aug. 22, 1799, (probably) married to Joseph Wheeler, son of Josiah and Mary Rogers, (Family No. 988—Rogers). July 6, 1825, Lewis and Sarah (Benedict) Jones sold to Joseph Wheeler Rogers, 110 acres of Lots 14 and 15, First Tier, Exeter, on which Joseph Wheeler Rogers then lived. Aug. 1, 1836, James, Jr., and Mary Nesbitt sold to Joseph W. Rogers, a five acre island and other lands in Exeter, adjoining lands of Lewis Jones. Oct. 6, 1840, John W. and William White and their wives, Mary and Lydia, sold to Joseph W. Rogers 96 acres of Lot 35, Huntington, and Joseph W. Rogers, removed to Huntington Township; 4, Isaac D., born March 7, 1801, married, Feb. 25, 1824, to Martha Coleman, of Exeter, Pa.; 5, Eliza, born April 19, 1803; 6, Lord, born July 9, 1805, a noted carpenter and joiner in Exeter Township, married to Phebe, daughter of Major Ezekiel and Margaret (Thompson) Goble, (Family No. 35—Goble, No. 14—Thompson). They removed, about 1848, to Paw Paw Grove, Ill., and raised a family of ten children, eight of whom were living in 1881; 7, Lewis, Jr., born Aug. 28, 1807; 8, Gilbert Wheeler, born June 6, 1809, died Sept. 30, 1846, married to Phebe, born Nov. 17, 1809, died June 16, 1889, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Joseph and Phebe (Goble) Armstrong, (Family No. 35—Armstrong); 9, John Benedict, born Aug. 13, 1811, died Oct. 23, 1882, married to Lydia Frothingham, born July 12, 1824, died Feb. 4, 1906, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery); 10, Mary Ann, born Sept. 17, 1813; 11, Sally Ann, born Dec. 25, 1815, died Feb. 4, 1890, married to Houten, born April 19, 1808, died Dec. 7, 1864, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery), son of Henry and Rachel (Gore) Cortright, (Family No. 35—Courtright); 12, Benjamin, born Jan. 17, 1820, married, March 6, 1842, to Caroline Arista, born May 13, 1822, died Nov. 7, 1846, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah (Nesbitt) Harvey, (Harvey and Nesbitt families above).

Benjamin Jones, Sr., of Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., according to Mr. Harvey (Bib.-2), was a native of Connecticut and bought of Caleb Baldwin one-half a share in the lands of the Susquehanna Company of Hartford, Conn., which had been laid out to Caleb Baldwin, July 5, 1773. These lands, consisting of 267 acres and including two small islands, in the Susquehanna River, were situated in Exeter Township. In Sept., 1777, as a member of the Susquehanna Company, Benjamin Jones acquired 50 acres of land situated about one mile south of Buttermilk Falls. His name appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for 1776, 1777 and 1778 as a resident of the North District, (Exeter and Providence). The name of Justus Jones appears on the list for 1777. The names of Benjamin Jones, Sr., Benjamin Jones, Jr., and Justus Jones appear on a petition, presented to the Court of Quarter Sessions at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 3, 1788, protesting against the location of a certain road from Pittston to Putnam. Benjamin Jones, Sr., had in family, living at home, in 1790, himself and one female. Benjamin Jones, Jr., then had in family, living at home, himself, two males over 16, four males under 16 and four females. Justus Jones had in family, himself, one male over 16, three males under 16, and two females. In 1792 Benjamin Jones, Sr., and Benjamin Jones, Jr., were assessed in Lackawannock District, and Justus and John Jones were assessed in Tunkhannock. In 1788 Benjamin Jones brought suit in the Luzerne Co., Pa., Court of Common Pleas against Peter and Mary Harris, administrators of the estate of Peter Harris, Sr., (see Family No. 988—Nathan Jones). March 13, 1795, Benjamin Jones, Sr., of Exeter, sold to Levi Townsend and Rebecca Townsend, his wife, (Family No. 994—Townsend), 100 acres of land in Exeter Township, adjoining lands then owned by Benjamin Jones, Jr. April 4, 1795, he sold to Benjamin Jones, Jr., 150 acres lying "on the bank of a brook that empties into the Susquehanna River, about one and one-half miles above the mouth of Buttermilk Falls Creek." May 10, 1798, he sold to Major Jones 117 acres of land for $100.

Benjamin Jones, Sr., was married to Jemima Delevan and some of their children were: 1, Benjamin, Jr., who died at Buttermilk Falls, now Wyoming Co., Pa., Feb. 7, 1802, for whose estate Lewis Jones was appointed administrator March 12, 1803, with John Benedict and Constant Searl on his bond in $1,000. Among his children were, Lewis, born Oct. 25, 1771, died Feb. 22, 1848, married to Sarah Benedict; (probably) Betsey, married, as first wife, to Daniel, son of Samuel and Mary Sterling, (Family No. 12—Sterling); Benjamin (3d), married, Dec. 13, 1804, by Elder Davis Dimock, to Keziah Shaw of Exeter; 2, Elizabeth, married to Uriah, Jr., born 1761, died 1849, son of Uriah Stevens, (Family No. 1393—Stevens); 3, Rebecca, married to Levi Townsend, (Family No. 994—Townsend); 4, Justus, who was in Exeter in 1777, and owned a mill on Buttermilk Falls Creek as early as 1791, to which a reference is made in a petition for a road through Tunkhannock Township, filed in Jan., 1792. His name appears frequently in the early Luzerne Co. Court records; 5, perhaps Major.

VI. (3). Thomas, son of John and Hannah (Wisner) Benedict, was deceased before May 3, 1816. He was married to Sabra, daughter of David and Susannah Brown, (Brown family later). Nov. 13, 1816, Sabra Benedict, widow of Thomas, was appointed administratrix of his estate with Barzillai Brown and Isaac Bowman on the bond in $1,000. She was deceased Jan. 14, 1833, when Jacob Lance was appointed administrator of her estate with Peter Winter, and Dr. Nathaniel Giddings and Samuel Saylor were on their bonds in $1,000. Some of the children of Thomas and Sabra (Brown) Benedict were, (order of birth uncertain): (1), Andrew E., born before 1808, married (1), Feb. 10, 1831, to Mary Ann Neeley of Exeter, married (2) to Abigail, born Nov. 29, 1814, died June 20, 1854, (Centermoreland, Pa., Cemetery), daughter of Lewis and Polly Whitlock; (2), John, born before 1812, married to Sally Ann, daughter of James and Catharine (Wagner) Stark, (Family No. 1016—Stark); (3), Asenath, born 1802, died 1835, married to Jacob Lance, born 1792, died 1877, whose children were: i, Elizabeth, married to Samuel R. Williams, born Dec. 16, 1827, died July 29, 1901, (West Pittston Cemetery); ii, Sarah B., born 1827, died 1874, married, Nov. 29, 1853, to George W. Cleaver; iii, Amelia B., born 1829, died 1903, married to Jeremiah B., born 1825, died 1899, son of Jacob and Polly (Blanchard) Shiffer, (West Pittston Cemetery), (Family No. 990—Shiffer); iv, Julia Ann, married to William H. La Bar, living in Lake Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., in 1850; v, Thomas B., born 1832, died 1904, married to Eliza Bynon, born 1837, died 1908, (West Pittston Cemetery); vi, Jacob; (4), Captain Samuel, married to Helen H. ———, whose daughter, Evelyn M., born 1823, died May 19, 1849, was married, Dec. 14, 1843, to Davis Alton (Presbyterian Cemetery, Pittston, Pa.) and whose daughter, Jannette, was married, Jan. 14, 1849, to Lewis Crawford.

VI. (4). Captain John, son of John and Hannah (Wisner) Benedict, was born about 1782 and died Aug. 30, 1830, aed. 48 years. He was married (1), Sept. 22, 1811, to Betsey, died March 16, 182—, in her 30th year, (West Pittston Cemetery, removed from Fell Cemetery), daughter of David and Susannah (probably Halstead) Brown.*

*James Brown, Sr., one of the first settlers of Pittston Township, whose fortified house was known as Fort Brown in the American Revolution, had at least two sons, James, Jr., and David. The James Brown family owned extensive tracts of land in Pittston Township. James Brown, Jr., lived on Lot No. 43, probably the James Brown, Sr., homestead, and David Brown is said to have lived on what was known for many years as the Mosier farm, in the vicinity of the Mosier Cemetery in Pittston. The name of David Brown appears in the "List of Settlers" in the Wyoming Valley in 1772 and on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Pittston District for 1776. He served as a private in Captain Robert Durkee's First Westmoreland Independent Company of the 24th Regiment of Connecticut Militia, and later in the company commanded by Captain Simon Spalding. The name of James Brown is on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Pittston District in 1776, 1777 and 1778. James Brown, Jr., also served in the Companies of Captain Robert Durkee and Captain Simon Spalding in the War of the American Revolution. James Brown, Sr., came to the Wyoming Valley before June 2, 1773, when by a vote of the Susquehanna Company at Hartford he was appointed with Captain Caleb Bates and Lemuel Harding to serve as Directors in the town of Pittston. At a Town Meeting held at Wilkes-Barre, March 1, 1774, he was appointed a Tithing Man. He was assessed in Pittston in 1802.

James Brown, Jr., was married to Silence, daughter of Captain Caleb and Huldah (Bowen)

The children of Captain John and Betsey (Brown) Benedict were: (1), Almeda, born March 22, 1814, died Feb. 16, 1826; (2), Eliza, (named in the will of David Brown); (3), Martha (Patty), a minor over 14 in 1831; (4), Thomas, born Jan. 2, 1817, who in Jan., 1833, appeared in the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre and stated that he was "anxious to be bound to Richard H. Brown to learn the trade of a blacksmith." He was married (1), Sept. 3, 1840, to Lydia, daughter of Josiah and Anna (Fish) Wright and was married (2), Feb. 22, 1866, to Sarah, daughter of Christian and Rosanna (Rissinger) Freiburger. He died July 10, 1880, (Marcy Cemetery, Bates of Pittston, (see later). He, his father, James Brown, Sr., and his brother, David Brown, were assessed in Pittston Township in 1802. March 15, 1817, described as of Greenfield Township, James and Silence (Bates) Brown sold to Zenus Barnum Lots 61 and 62, 233 acres, in Pittston, and May 13, 1817, described as of Abington Township, they sold to him Lot 43, First Division, Pittston, and part of Meadow Lot No. 12. They settled finally in Scott Township, Brown Hollow having been named for James Brown, Jr. Mrs. Silence (Bates) Brown was in Forty Fort at the time of the British-Indian-Tory invasion of the Wyoming Valley in July, 1778, and an interesting article giving some of her reminiscences may be found in Johnson's Historical Record, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Vol. V, p. 96.

Captain Caleb Bates served as Captain of the Second Company of Coventry, Kent Co., R. I., Militia, in May, 1763, under the command of Colonel John Waterman. He was of Coventry, May 4, 1769, when he was married, by Elder Joshua Clark, at Hopkinton, Washington Co., R. I., to Huldah, daughter of Charles Bowen of Hopkinton. (Bib.-257-258.) He was probably a son of Caleb (son of John) Bates of Smithfield, Providence Co., R. I., who was married at Smithfield, Oct. 27, 1739, by the Rev. Henry Waterman, to Mrs. Mary Manthrope, daughter of William Russell, of Mendon, Mass. Captain Caleb Bates came to the Wyoming Valley, Pa., Aug. 15, 1771, was in the valley Oct. 4, 1771, and returned to his home Oct. 11, 1771, but came again to Wyoming, Dec. 15, 1771. At a Town Meeting held at Wilkes-Barre a settling right was voted to him, in "Lackawanna" District, and in 1771 he drew lots by William Hopkins in that district. He was in the valley April 14, 1772, and his name appears on the List of Settlers in May, 1772. In this latter year he drew lots on the south side of the Lackawanna River. The name of Caleb Bates appears on the Westmoreland Tax Lists for Pittston in 1776-7. The name of Caleb Bates, Esq., is on the list for 1778. (The Caleb Bates whose name appears on the Indian Deed of the Wyoming lands, July 28, 1754, is described as of the Colony of Conn., in New England. He paid two dollars on account of his Susquehanna Company right to Captain J. Fitch, about July 18, 1753.) Captain Caleb Bates was one of the most extensive owners of real estate in Pittston, "The Gore" and in Putnam Township. Among his holdings were: Lot 19 of the First Hundred acre lots, which he probably sold to Asa Chadwick, who, Aug. 14, 1788, sold it to Jesse Gardner, (Family No. 14—Gardner). A lot in Pittston District of 100 acres "Laid out to Caleb Bates, for and in order to build mills, the lot butts westwardly on a highway and northerly on land laid out to Ebenezer Marcy, to build mills, on the Great Falls of the Lackawanna River, and so running.....until you come to a white oak standing a little way from the stream of water whereon Miller's sawmill now (1776) stands, and from said oak to the bank of the Lackawanna River to a yellow pine and thence up the Lackawanna to the mouth of Spring Brook." Miller's sawmill evidently stood on what was later known as Mill Brook, lying along the boundary line between Old Forge Township and Moosic. This land, including a sawmill and all privileges Caleb Bates sold, July 5, 1778, for £36 to Samuel and William Miller of Westmoreland. (Family No. 1009—Miller). July 6, 1778, he also sold to them 50 acres of land in the same vicinity. Barnabas Carey and John Carey signed these deeds as witnesses. The home of Captain Caleb Bates in Pittston, May 30, 1786, was on Lot No. 33 of the Fourth Division of 100 acre lots, which he drew, and which he sold, June 3, 1793, to Jonathan Newman, a blacksmith, of Northumberland Co., Pa., together with seven acres of Lot 38, which had been drawn by Elisha Wilcox. Reference is made to Jonathan Newman in connection with the sketch of "Old Forge" in Family No. 50. Captain Caleb Bates, Colonel John Durkee and Francis Phillips owned extensive tracts of land in the famous "Gore" of land that lay between Pittston, Providence and Exeter Townships. This "Gore" of land is described, in a petition of April 16, 1798, praying the Court of Quarter Sessions for a separation of Providence from Pittston, as being "about three miles in breadth and five miles in length." Aug. 11, 1791, Captain Bates, then of Putnam Township, to which he had removed from Pittston, sold 300 acres of the Gore to Thomas Smith of Hanover. (Family No. 988—Smith).

At a Town Meeting held at Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 13, 1772, it was "Voted that there shall be built a good Block House at ye east end of ye Fort for ye guard to keep in and to place ye cannon in." "Voted. That Captain Fullet, Captain Bates, Timothy Smith, Daniel Gore, and Mr. Allen are appointed as overseers to see ad. house is built according to ad. vote of ye company." (Bib.-1). At a Town Meeting held May 6, 1773, at the fort in Wilkes-Barre it was "Voted, that Obadiah Gore, Jr., Timothy Smith and Captain Caleb Bates, be appointed committee men to attend an adjourned meeting of ye Susquehanna Company, to be held at Hartford ye 2d day of June next, etc. (Bib.-1.) At this meeting of the Susquehanna Company a code of laws, for the government of the settlement, was adopted and Captain Caleb Bates, James Brown and Lemuel Harding were elected directors of the town.

In the Town of Putnam, later Tunkhannock. Captain Caleb Bates owned Lots Nos. 16, 17, and 48, about 900 acres, in addition to certain lands (Lots Nos. 2 and 3, on Tunkhannock Creek), he sold, Jan. 31, 1795, to Comfort Shaw, of Kingston. He was deceased before Aug. 15, 1798, and his widow, Mrs. Huldah (Bowen) Bates, and Elisha Harding were named administrators of his estate. Aug. 15, 1798, these administrators executed a deed conveying to James Brown, Jr., title to Lots 31, 28 and 7, about 80 acres in the last division of Pittston, in accordance with a contract made by Caleb Bates with James Brown, Jr. Oct. 19, 1800, a petition was presented to the Orphans' Court at Wilkes-Barre which names his widow and all of the children included in the following list. The children of Captain Caleb and Huldah (Bowen) Bates were: 1, Silence, married to James Brown, Jr.; 2, Charles, born in Hopkinton, Washington Co.,

Duryea, Pa.); (5), Sally; (6), Pamela, born after 1817; (7), William, born after 1817. Captain John Benedict was married (2), Sept. 10, 1824, to Sally, daughter of Joseph and Phoebe (Goble) Armstrong. (The writer is unable to state which, if any, of the above children were fruits of the second marriage). Mrs. Sally (Armstrong) Benedict was born April 25, 1800, died May 14, 1880, and is buried in the South Eaton Cemetery in Wyoming Co., Pa.

April 13, 1811, John Phillips and Mary Hewitt, administrators of the estate of Isaac Hewitt, (Family No. 993—Searl-Hewitt) sold to William Searl, the lot on

R. I., Dec. 25, 1772, was married to Hannah ———, who, Dec. 29, 1801, was married (2), at Wilkes-Barre, to Jude Goodale, who, about 1811-12, was an innkeeper in Tunkhannock Township. He died there before June 2, 1819. The children of Charles and Hannah Bates were: (1), Sarah, married to Caleb Brown; (2), Juna, married to John, son of Lewis and Nancy (Montanye) Mullison, (Family No. 992—Mullison), both of whom were living in Tunkhannock Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Jan. 20, 1824, and June 2, 1819, bought from Elisha Harding and David Osterhout, administrators of the estate of Jude Goodale, about 145 acres of land in Tunkhannock Township; 3, Polly (Mary), married to John Safford, before July 17, 1811; 4, John, living in Putnam Township in 1811, who bought the interests of several of the heirs in the estate of their father and sold them, with his own interest, to Elijah Barnum and John Harding, Jr., in 1811; 5, Joshua, whose will was made in Tunkhannock Township, Aug. 27, 1842, and was probated Feb. 12, 1850, and names his nephew, Solomon G. Bates; his niece, Sabra Ann Kelly, and her daughter, Lovina Kelly; 6, Solomon; 7, Ruth, probably married to James Osborne, living in Tunkhannock Township, June 5, 1811; 8, Sabra, married to Eliakim Laughlin, living in Tunkhannock Township, Dec. 7, 1812, when they sold part of Lot 17 to Cornwell Phillips of Tunkhannock; 9, Mehetable.

David Brown, son of James Brown, Sr., came to the Wyoming Valley as early as 1772. He was married to Susanna (probably daughter of Richard Halstead, Sr., Family No. 14—Halstead). His will, made in Pittston, Feb. 25, 1815, was probated in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 28, 1816. It names his wife, Susannah; his sons, Solomon, Barzillai, and Aaron; the heirs of his son Eleazer; his daughters, Sarah, Sabra and Anna, and his granddaughter, Eliza Benedict. His son, Richard, is named in a deed of Oct. 18, 1852, conveying lands from Sarah (Brown) Searl to John Searl. The children of David and Susannah Brown were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Solomon, (see later); 2, Eleazer, who died before Feb. 25, 1815, two of whose children were Augustus P. and Mary Ann, both of full age April 8, 1831; 3, Barzillai, born Dec. 6, 1788, died Aug. 12, 1844, (Mosier Cemetery, Pittston, Pa.), married to Mary ———; 4, Betsey, died March 16, 182—, in her 30th year, (West Pittston Cemetery, removed from Fell Cemetery), married, Sept. 22, 1811, to Captain John, son of John and Hannah Benedict, (see above); 5, Aaron, married, in Dec., 1809, to Rebecca Avery, married (2) to Hannah ———, who March 30, 1819, signed a deed, with her husband, conveying 146 acres "Scott's Delight" to Richard H. Brown. Aaron Brown was of Palmyra, Pike Co., Pa., March 30, 1819, and of Arkansas in 1852. Two of his daughters were: (1), Mary J., born Oct., 1817, died Sept. 6, 1852, married to Benjamin S. Tripp, (Family No. 1001—Tripp), born April 13, 1812, died May 12, 1889, (Forest Hill Cemetery, Dunmore, Pa.); (2), Henrietta, married Aug. 20, 1836, to Edward B. Fellows. (An Aaron Brown, born Jan. 3, 1821, died Oct. 9, 1885, and his wife, Esther A., born Nov. 27, 1825, died June 26, 1891, are buried in Harding Cemetery in Exeter, Pa.); 6, Richard Halstead, born in 1793, married (1) to Isabella McNally, born Feb. 27, 1795, died April 25, 1836, (Mosier Cemetery, Pittston, Pa.), married (2) to Elizabeth, born 1800, died 1877, (Mosier Cemetery). Two of the children of Richard Halstead Brown were: (1), Phebe Ann, died Aug. 6, 1883, married, as second wife, to Rev. Abel Gunn Barker, (Family No. 1023—Gunn), and (2), Morton, who died in Iowa before April, 1863, leaving a widow, Parmelee, and three minor children, Phebe Ann, William M. and Franklin A.; 7, Sarah, married to Miner Searle, (Family No. 993—Searle), living at Sunbury, Delaware Co., Ohio, Oct. 18, 1852; 8, Sabra, married to Thomas, son of John and Hannah (Wisner) Benedict, (see above). Jacob Lance and Peter Winters were appointed administrators of her estate, Jan. 14, 1830, with Nathaniel Giddings and Samuel Saylor on the bond in $1,000; 9, Anna.

Solomon, son of David and Susannah Brown, was married (1), in June, 1820, to Elizabeth, born Feb. 18, 1800, died in Exeter, Pa., Aug. 26, 1854, daughter of Roger and Catharine (Scott) Searle, (Family No. 993—Searle). He was married (2) to Hannah ———, who survived him and was living in Lee Co., Ill., Nov. 22, 1865. Solomon Brown was one of the active men in the business of his day and was prominent in the real estate transactions of Pittston Township. He lived in Kingston Township in 1819, but later returned to Pittston. He bought the Isaac Harding homestead, part of Lots Nos. 16 and 17, Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Sept. 5, 1839, and removed there. He died in Exeter Township, Wyoming Co., Pa. His will, made April 3, 1863, was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., and named Abel C. Thompson executor. The children of Solomon Brown were: 1, Daniel S., living in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., in 1865; 2, Catharine S., married to Abel Carpenter, born Aug. 6, 1818, died Sept. 23, 1890, at Paxton, Ill., son of John and Mary (Gardner) Thompson, (Family No. 14—Thompson, No. 14—Gardner); 3, Sarah Elizabeth, married to Elijah Swartwout, living in Lee Co., Ill., Nov. 22, 1865; 4, Rasselas S., living in Northmoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Nov. 22, 1865; 5, Clarissa D., living in Pittston, Pa., Nov. 22, 1865; 6, J. Lawrence, born about 1827, died June 28, 1852, aed. 25 years; 7, Myron, living in Exeter, Wyoming Co., Pa., Nov. 22, 1865; 8, Eve Anna, a minor, living in Lee Co., Ill., Nov. 22, 1865.

Sarah Elizabeth, daughter of Solomon Brown, was married, Dec. 25, 1848, to Elijah, born Aug. 16, 1820, son of Joshua and Elizabeth (Van Loon) Swartwout, of Exeter Township. They removed to Paw Paw Grove, Lee Co., Ill., where she died Sept. 11, 1881. Some of their children were: 1, Frank, born 1858, died 1880; 2, Catharine J., married to James H. Thompson; 3, Clarissa, married to B. J. Wheeler; 4, Rasselas; 5, Solomon Brown. (Bib.—327.)

The Aaron Brown born 1821, died 1885, and buried with his wife, Esther, born 1825, died 1891, in the Harding Cemetery, Exeter, may have been a son of Solomon Brown. (See reference above).

which Mary Hewitt then lived in a log house, described as one acre bounded on the west by the highway leading from Benedict's Tavern to Wright's Forge. This Benedict Tavern was probably kept, at that time, by John Benedict, Sr.

ROSANNA (SMITH) EDGAR; FAMILIES NOS. 1329—(1324)

Rosanna, daughter of Amos York and Lucinda G. (Carpenter) Smith, was born May 17, 1853, and died in 1913, (West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery). She was married to James D. Edgar, born in 1848, died in 1909, and they established their home in West Pittston, Pa. Some of their children were: 1, Stella, married (Family No. 1330) to Charles Tench, has one daughter, Ruth; 2, Blanche, married (Family No. 1331) to Alexander Bryden, has two children, Pauline and Donald; 3, Hattie, married (Family No. 1332) to Gordon Keim, has one son Edgar; 4, Sophia, married (Family No. 1333) to Charles Schley.

MEHETABLE S. (SMITH) KYTE; FAMILIES NOS. 1334—(1324)

Mehetable S., daughter of Amos York and Lucinda G. (Carpenter) Smith, was born May 17, 1853, and was married, March 21, 1877, to Frank H., born March 4, 1856, deceased, son of Halsey and Hannah (De Witt) Kyte. He was a merchant and later a salesman and their home was in West Pittston, Pa. Their children were: 1, Walter H., born Feb. 4, 1878, married (Family No. 1335) to Lillian Schofield, have two daughters, Helen and Catharine; 2, Olin York, born Feb. 7, 1881, married (Family No. 1336) to Emma Feehly; 3, Sophia J., born March 11, 1883, married (Family No. 1337) to Dr. I. V., son of Rev. Dr. Oscar L. Severson, lives in Scranton, Pa., and have two children, Wendell and Dorothy; 4, Helen M., born Nov. 22, 1885, married (Family No. 1338) to Howard Lutz.

THE KYTE FAMILY (KYTTE)

I. Thomas Kyte, with Benjamin Dupuy, Esq., and Philip Swartwout, Esq., constituted the first Committee of Safety for the Town of Deer Park, Orange Co., N. Y., in the American Revolution, and he was also, June 26, 1775, one of the signers of the Associator's Pledge in Deer Park. He was probably of English parentage and was apparently a school teacher and scrivener. He was married to Leah Keter (or Keator) and six of their children were baptised in the Deer Park Dutch Reformed Church of which he was a Deacon in 1785. He probably removed from Orange Co., N. Y., to Sussex Co., N. J. On the 16th day of Oct., 1795, he was allowed £1, 5s 9d in the Donation account of the Minisink Corporation, "to go to Trenton to advocate a petition for a church lottery, before the Assembly, to pay the arrears of the church building and parsonage, etc." Six of the children of Deacon Thomas and Leah (Keter) Kyte were: 1, Elizabeth Hoornbeck, born July 2, 1767, baptised July 22, 1767, Jacob Hoornbeck and Elizabeth Hoornbeck, sponsors; 2, Anna, born about 1769, baptised March 19, 1769, Samuel Dupuy and Antje Swartwout, sponsors, married, Nov. 16, 1794, to Samuel Cortright; 3, Johannes Hardenburgh, born Jan. 29, 1772, baptised April 28, 1772, Johannes J. (or G.) Hardenburgh and Cornelia Du Bois, sponsors, (see later); 4, Jacob Hornbeck, born Nov. 16, 1775, baptised June 1, 1777, Jacob Hoornbeck and Elizabeth Dupuy, sponsors, married to Mary Cortright, and some of their children were, (all baptised in the Minisink Church): (1), William, born Feb. 17, 1807, baptised Feb. 6, 1808; (2), Peter, born Jan. 31, 1810, baptised June 16, 1811; (3), Thomas, born May 12, 1813, baptised Nov. 18, 1813; (4), Elizabeth, born June 13, 1815, baptised Nov. 14, 1815; 5, Rachel, born Aug. 31, 1778, baptised Nov. 1, 1780, married to Robert Killgore, two of whose children, baptised in the Minisink Church, were: (1), Ann, born June 20, 1799, baptised Oct. 14, 1807;

(2), Polly Melford, born Nov. 29, 1801, baptised Oct. 2, 1802. John and Mary Hasbrunch were sponsors at the baptism of Rachel Kyte; 6, Thomas, Jr., born Aug. 25, 1781, baptised in Aug., 1784, (see later).

II. (3). Johannes Hardenburgh (later known as John H), son of Thomas and Leah (Keter) Kyte, born Jan. 29, 1772, was married, Jan. 8, 1795, to Leah Van de Mark, and three of their children, baptised in the Minisink Church, were: 1, Esther, born April 9, 1798, baptised Oct. 14, 1807; 2, Maria Dingman, born Dec. 2, 1800, baptised March 28, 1801, Daniel W. Dingman and Maria Westbrook, sponsors, (see later); 3, Jeremiah, born March 17, 1803, baptised April 21, 1803.

III. (2). Maria Dingman, born Dec. 2, 1800, daughter of Johannes Hardenburgh and Leah (Van de Mark) Kyte, was married, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., by the Rev. George Lake, Dec. 26, 1823, to Samuel, born Nov. 17, 1801, died Dec. 19, 1839, son of George and Sarah (Cowdrick) Fell.* She died in Wilkes-Barre, March 11, 1864, and with her husband and several of her children is buried in Hollenback Cemetery.

*I. Joseph Fell, born in Longlands, Cumberland Co., Eng., Oct. 19, 1668, came to America, with his wife and two children, in 1705, and settled in Bucks Co., Pa. He was a carpenter by trade. His first wife, to whom he was married in 1698, was Bridget Wilson, and two of their children, (1), Joseph, and (2), Benjamin, were born in England! Their two daughters, (3), Tamar, and (4), Mary, were born in Bucks Co., Pa. He was married (2) to Elizabeth Doyle and their children were, (5), John; (6), Isaac; (7), Titus; (8), Thomas; (9), George; (10), Sarah, and (11), Rachel. Joseph Fell was a member of the Provincial Assembly of Pennsylvania in 1721, 1723 and 1733, and May 12, 1725, was commissioned Justice of the Peace for Bucks Co., Pa.

II. (8). Thomas, eighth child of Joseph Fell and fourth child of Joseph and Elizabeth (Doyle) Fell, was married, in Bucks Co., Pa., to Jane Kirk, and three of their sons: (1), Jesse, born April 16, 1751; (2), Samuel, born about 1752, and (3), Amos, born Nov. 1, 1762, came to the Wyoming Valley after 1780.

III. (1). Hon. Jesse Fell, son of Thomas and Jane (Kirk) Fell, born in Bucks Co., Pa., April 16, 1751, was married, in Bucks Co., Pa., Aug. 20, 1775, to Hannah Welding, born about 1751, died March 7, 1816. He was married (2) to Hannah ———, born about 1763, died Feb. 2, 1844, in her 82d year, who is described, in the published notice of her death, as the widow of Jesse Fell. (Bib.-76.) Jan. 12, 1780, Jesse Fell was a private in Captain Henry Darroch's Company, the Third Company of the Third Battalion of Bucks Co., Pa., Militia, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel William Roberts. Dec. 21, 1787, then a resident of Wilkes-Barre, but described in the deed as of New Britain, Bucks Co., Pa., Jesse Fell bought from Jonathan Avery, of Wilkes-Barre, one acre of land, in the Wilkes-Barre Town Plot, improved with a dwelling, a barn and a well. Jonathan Avery had bought this property from John Hyde, who had bought it from Captain Martin Dudley. This land was part of Town Plot Lot No. 30, drawn by James Stark, in 1772, and owned by him in 1778. This Lot 30, in Wilkes-Barre, lies along South Main street just north of Northampton and extends to Washington street. The portion of it bought by Jesse Fell became the site of the famous "Old Fell House" tavern property. In Dec., 1788, Jesse Fell was recommended as a suitable person to be licensed as an innkeeper in Wilkes-Barre and his house became a popular place of entertainment for travelers and of resort for the townspeople. In an upper room of the inn, Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., was organized and constituted in 1794, and in 1808, in this same famous old house, Jesse Fell made the first demonstration, in the Wyoming Valley, of the practicability of burning anthracite coal, in a grate, for domestic purposes. He became a very prominent and influential citizen of Wilkes-Barre and served in public office as follows: Commissioned Sheriff of Luzerne Co., Oct. 21, 1789; commissioned as Lieutenant of Luzerne Co., with rank of Colonel, Jan. 10, 1792; Brigade Inspector of Pa. Militia, April 11, 1793; Associate Judge, Luzerne County Court, Feb. 5, 1798; Town Clerk, Wilkes-Barre, 1798; Assistant Clerk, County Commissioners, 1804; Chief Clerk County Commissioners, 1819; Clerk to the Land Commissioners, appointed under the "Compromise Act of 1799," Burgess of Wilkes-Barre, 1806; Member and President of the Borough Council. He was also a member of the first Board of Trustees of the Wilkes-Barre Academy, incorporated March 19, 1807, and served three years as President. He became a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, March 31, 1794, and served as Worshipful Master in 1798, 1799, 1803, 1808 and 1813. He was a Director of the Wilkes-Barre branch of the Philadelphia Bank and was prominently connected with various of the early Luzerne County Turnpike Companies. Fell Township, erected in 1845, then in Luzerne Co., was named for Jesse Fell. He died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 11, 1830, and with his wife, Hannah (Welding) Fell, is buried in Hollenback Cemetery. The children of Judge Jesse and Hannah (Welding) Fell were: 1, Frances, born June 7, 1776, died Nov. 29, 1841, married (1), in 1799, to John Milroy, married (2), in 1801, to ——— Johnson, married (3), in 1812, to Lyman Sholes, and lived in Danville, Pa.; 2, George, born Aug. 28, 1779, married to Sarah Cowdrick, born about 1783, died Sept. 9, 1855, aed. 72 years, (Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre), two of whose children were: (1), Samuel, born Nov. 17, 1801, (see later), and (2), Jesse A., born Oct. 25, 1803, (probably) married, April 10, 1829, to Julia Ann B. Davison; 3, Sarah, born July 25, 1781, died Feb. 23, 1828, married, in 1800, to Joseph, born April 9, 1776, died Sept. 27, 1855, son of Jonathan and Ruth (Tripp) Slocum. (Family N. 1001—Tripp-Slocum); 4, Deborah, born Oct. 19, 1783, married to Edwin Tracey; 5, Thomas, born June 16, 1786, died Dec. 8, 1791; 6, Dr. Samuel W., born March 26, 1788, died, at Belvidere, N. J., July 16, 1824, aed. 36 years, married to Lydia Dusenberry; 7, Abi Kerk, born Feb. 2, 1792, died March 7, 1847, married to Colonel Jacob John Dennis, Jan. 7, 1811, who was born in Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 24, 1783, and died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Dec. 17, 1847; 8, Nancy Ann, born April 1, 1794, died Jan. 15, 1834, at Catawissa, Pa., married to Dr. Isaac Pickering.

V. (1). Samuel, son of George and Sarah (Cowdrick) Fell, and grandson of Jesse and Hannah (Welding) Fell, was born Nov. 17, 1801, and died Dec. 19, 1839. He was married, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., by the Rev. George Lane, Dec. 26, 1823, to Maria Dingman, born Dec. 2, 1800, died March 11, 1864, daughter of Johannes Hardenburgh and Leah (Van de Mark) Kyte, (see

II. (6). Thomas, Jr., son of Thomas and Leah (Keter) Kyte, was born Aug. 25, 1781. He was probably married to a daughter of Daniel, Jr., and Maria (Westbrook) Westfall* and settled in Montague Township, Sussex Co., N. J., on land conveyed to him by Daniel Westfall, Jr. Some of the children of Thomas Kyte, Jr., were: 1, Joseph, married to Julia Carr, whose children were: (1), Robert Carr, born April 1, 1830, died April 21, 1896, married to Sarah E. Owen; (2), George; (3), Thomas; (4), Asa W., born 1837, died in Dec., 1902; (5), Euphemia, married to John Bedell; (6), Mrs. Mary (Kyte) Case; (7), Charles Cooper, born 1843, died in Oct., above). They are buried in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre. Their children were: 1, Hannah W., married to J. B. Dow; 2, Sally Ann, born Nov. 26, 1827, died June 25, 1912, married to Benjamin Gardner, son of Samuel and Nancy (Gardner) Carpenter, who was born July 2, 1827, and died Nov. 11, 1889, (Hollenback Cemetery, Family No. 14—Carpenter); 3, Charles R., born Sept. 21, 1830, died July 3, 1878, married to Jane E., born Aug. 11, 1835, died May 11, 1901, daughter of Samuel and Agnes Seibert; 4, Theodore H., born Dec. 30, 1832, died Oct. 18, 1872, married to J. E. ———; 5, Mary D., born Oct. 9, 1837, deceased. Married May 15, 1866, to Henry H. Derr, born July 5, 1839, died Oct. 12, 1888; 6, Samuel G. (or C.), born July 1, 1839, died July 25, 1870. (See Bib.-58 for extended sketch of the Derr family.)

III. (2). Samuel, son of Thomas and Jane (Kirk) Fell, was born in Bucks Co., Pa., about 1752, and died at the home of his grandson, John G. Fell, of Pittston, Pa., in July, 1845, or 1846, aed. 94 years. He was married to Tamer, born about 1752, died at Pittston, Pa., March 8, 1828. In 1790 they resided in Bucks Co., Pa., and Samuel Fell then had in family himself, three sons under 16 years of age, his wife and one daughter. Samuel Fell and his wife, Tamer, were buried in the Fell Cemetery, Pittston, but a number of years ago their bodies were removed to the West Pittston Cemetery. Three of their sons were: 1, Edwin; 2, Joseph, born about 1780, died July 21, 1855, aed. 75 years, whose body, with that of his wife, Eleanor, born about 1779, died May 11, 1834, aed. 55 years, was removed from Fell Cemetery to the West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery; 3, probably Hugh, born 1782, died Dec. 25, 1851, aed. 69 years, married to Sarah, born about 1793, died Nov. 12, 1845, aed. 52 years, probably daughter of Ishmael Bennet, Jr., (Family No. 1016—Bennet). With their son, Edwin, born Dec. 8, 1816, died Aug. 3, 1884, and his wife, Ruby, born April 24, 1831, died April 28, 1905, Hugh and Sarah Fell are buried in Mosier Cemetery, Pittston, Pa.

III. (5). Amos, son of Thomas and Jane (Kirk) Fell, was born in Bucks Co., Pa., Nov. 1, 1762. He was married to Elizabeth Jackson and in 1790 lived in Bucks Co., Pa., and had in family, himself, three sons under 16, his wife and two daughters. March 28, 1790, he bought from John Phillips, David Dimock, James Brown, Jr., Nathaniel Giddings and David Brown, a committee appointed by the freeholders of Pittston Township, 200 acres of land in Pittston adjoining lands of James Gardner, Ezekiel Goble, Cornelius Nephew, Enos Brown, William Slocum and Thomas Wright. The committee reserved to the freeholders of Pittston Township one-half an acre of land "At the place now occupied as a burying ground." This one-half acre of land, used before 1790 as a burying ground, was doubtless a part of the land now included in Mosier Cemetery. Feb. 19, 1798, Amos Fell bought from Waterman Baldwin for $80, the "southeast corner of the lot I bought of Colonel Hogeboom adjoining the old parade or fort lots." This piece of land, containing one acre, lay along the Susquehanna River in Pittston. Oct. 4, 1798, he bought from Waterman Baldwin, (Family No. 988—Baldwin) three-quarters of an acre of land, bounded by lands of Jacob Wright, the Susquehanna River, lands of John Benedict and Roger Searles. In 1797, 1798, 1800, 1801, etc., Amos Fell was licensed as a tavern keeper in Pittston. His tavern, which doubtless stood near the Pittston end of the present Ferry Bridge, was probably the same building in which Abraham Bird, who was married to Eliza (Johnson) Fell, second wife and widow of Jacob Fell, son of Amos Fell, kept a tavern for a number of years. It was probably the same tavern kept by Captain Waterman Baldwin. Amos Fell also owned a lot of 117 acres in Pittston which had been patented by James Gardner, (Family No. 14—Gardner). He died in Pittston, Feb. 1, 1826. His wife, Mrs. Elizabeth (Jackson) Fell, died before 1838. The children of Amos and Elizabeth (Jackson) Fell were: 1, Jacob, born March 15, 1791, died Sept. 1, 1831, married (1) to Mary Ackley, whose children were: (1), Elizabeth; (2), Daniel Ackley, born May 29, 1817, died in 1897, married, Jan. 16, 1855, to Elizabeth Gray; (3), Sarah; (4), Mercy B., married, March 22, 1843, to John Behee, of Wilkes-Barre; (5), Mary. He was married (2) to Eliza, daughter of John and Clarissa Johnson of Tunkhannock, Pa., and their children were: (6), Mary A.; (7), William; (8), Jacob, Jr. Mrs. Eliza (Johnson) Fell was married (2) to Abram, son of John and Rebecca (Montanye) Bird, (Family No. 1217—Montanve. No. 1217—Bird); 2, Aaron, died before 1838. (see will of John Johnson, Family No. 1217—Bird); 3, Thomas, died before 1838, leaving a widow, Hetta, but no children; 4, Jesse; 5, Joseph; 6, William, died before 1838, leaving two children; 7, Nancy, died before 1838, married to Zenus Barnum, leaving one son, Amos Fell Barnum, (Family No. 1001—Barnum); 8, Jane, married to Wells Bennet.

A highly interesting and comprehensive sketch of Judge Jesse Fell may be found in the History of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, by Oscar Jewell Harvey. Upon this sketch the present writer has drawn very freely, adding a few minor details.

*Daniel Westfall, Sr., and Maria Westbrook were married April 8, 1748. (Bib.-146) and four of their children were: 1, Abraham, baptised Jan. 29, 1749, Abraham Chambers (Shimer. Family No. 1—Shimer) and Lena Westbrook, sponsors; 2, Margaret, baptised March 30, 1752, Jan and Maritje (Westfall) Van Etten, sponsors; 3, Aeltje, baptised Oct. 10, 1754, Anthony and Aeltje (Van Etten) Westbrook, sponsors; 4, Daniel, Jr., married, Dec. 21, 1785, to Maria Westbrook, some of whose children were: (1), Cherk, born March 15, 1787, baptised April 22, 1787; (2), Benjamin, born May 25, 1789, baptised June 11, 1789; (3), Abraham Westbrook, born Dec. 8, 1790, baptised June 1, 1791; (4), Sarah, born March 11, 1793, baptised April 21, 1793; (5), Janneck, born Feb. 4, 1795, baptised March 25, 1795; 6, Cornelius, born Oct. 7, 1797, baptised Oct. 29, 1797; (7), Jacobus, born or baptised July 3, 1799; (8), Janey, born or baptised Jan. 11, 1803.

1902, married to Amelia Cox; 2, Halsey, born July 6, 1812, died July 28, 1867, (see later); 3, Thomas; 4, Mary.

III. (2). Halsey, son of Thomas Kyte, Jr., was born in Sussex Co., N. J., July 6, 1812, and removed, about 1840, to Exeter Township, Luzerne Co., Pa. He was married to Hannah Stoddard, born Oct., 1816, died April 11, 1887, daughter of Evi and Prudence (Stoddard) De Witt, (De Witt family later), and their children were: 1, Henry De Witt, born Nov. 13, 1836, died Aug. 21, 1916, (Wyoming, Pa., Cemetery), married to Mary McCarrick, whose children were: (1), Myrtle B.; (2), Evi D.; (3), daughter, married to Newman Brown; (4), Theodore; (5), Thomas Wilbur (2d), married to Gertrude M., daughter of Charles Clearwater and Carrie May (Brobst) Tripp, (Family No. 1046); 2, Joseph Ritner, died March 22, 1801, married to Anna, daughter of Thomas Benedict, (Family No. 1328—Benedict); 3, Prudence Experience, married, Oct. 9, 1876, to Gideon Cadman; 4, Hannah Jane, married to George L. Hadsall; 5, Thomas Wilbur, born Feb. 7, 1849, died Oct. 17, 1919, merchant in West Pittston, Pa., married, Sept. 19, 1871, to Elizabeth J., daughter of Henry and Jane Brenton, whose children are: (1), Minnie Brenton, married, Sept. 19, 1890, to Sela H. Van Ness, and (2), Edith Louisa; 6, Mary Arminda, married to William H., son of Rev. George M. and Sarah Louisa (Butler) Peck, a prominent banker in Scranton, Pa.; 7, Frank Halsey, born March 4, 1856, died March 27, 1917, merchant and later a salesman, married, March 7, 1883, to Mehetable, daughter of Amos York and Lucinda (Carpenter) Smith, (Family No. 1334 above); 8, Clarence Evi, born Sept. 21, 1858, died Sept. 4, 1913, not married. Halsey and Hannah Stoddard (De Witt) Kyte are buried in the West Pittston, Pa., Cemetery. Sketches of Thomas Wilbur Kyte and William H. Peck appear in the History of Wyoming and Lackawanna Valleys.

THE DE WITT FAMILY

I. Tjerck Claessen De Witt probably came to America from Saterland, a district of Westphalia. His sister, Emmerentie, was married to Martinus Hoffman, at New Amsterdam, in 1662, and his brother, Jan Claetz De Witt, died, not married, at Kingston, N. Y., in 1699. Tjerck Claessen De Witt was married, April 24, 1756, to Barbara Andriessen, according to the records of the Reformed (Collegiate) Dutch Church of New York, and, in 1657, they removed to Albany, whence they went to Wiltwyck, now Kingston, N. Y. He died there Feb. 17, 1700. His will was made March 6, 1698. His widow died July 6, 1714. They had thirteen children.

II. (1). Captain Andrees, the oldest child of Tjerck Claessen and Barbara (Andriessen) De Witt, was born in New York in 1657 and died July 22, 1710. He was married, March 7, 1682, to Jannetje, baptised in New York, Jan. 11, 1664, died Nov. 23, 1733, daughter of Egbert Meindertse and Jaepe (Jans) Egbertson. They had twelve children and lived, for a number of years, at Marbletown, Ulster Co., N. Y. Prior to 1708 they removed to Kingston, N. Y.

III. (6). Jacob, sixth child and third son of Captain Andries and Jannetje (Egbertson) De Witt, was born Dec. 30, 1691, and was married, May 9, 1731, to Heyltje, baptised Oct. 6, 1700, daughter of Jan and Tietje Janse (Decker) Van Kampen.

IV. (2). Jacob, Jr., second child and son of Jacob and Heyltje (Van Kampen) De Witt, was baptised at Rhinebeck Flats, N. Y., Aug. 22, 1736, and was married to Leah Cortright. Their son, Moses, was born Oct. 23, 1761.

V. (1). Captain Moses, son of Jacob, Jr., and Leah (Cortright) De Witt, was born Oct. 23, 1761, and died at Deckerstown, Sussex Co., N. J., Dec. 8, 1842. He served as a Captain in the War of the American Revolution. He was married to Margaret ———, born July 17, 1762, died at Deckerstown, N. J., May 19, 1845, and their children were: 1, Hiram, born Nov. 9, 1783, not married, killed by a falling tree; 2, Olivia (?), born Jan. 7, 1785, married to Anna Titsworth; 3, Jezreel, born Sept. 1, 1786; 4, Charick, born April 19, 1788, died March 28, 1852, (see later); 5, Evi, born June 11, 1789, died in Feb., 1852, (see later); 6, Moses, Jr., born Sept. 1, 1790; 7, Mary, born April 20, 1792; 8, Aaron, born Jan. 24, 1793; 9, Elizabeth, born Jan. 20, 1796, married to Edward Lewis; 10, Margaret, born Oct. 13, 1797, died Feb. 5, 1884, married to Samuel Gail Smith, later of Northmoreland Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., (Family No. 1009—Smith); 11, John, born Jan. 18–20, 1799, died April 30, 1869, (see later); 12, Naomi, born March 23, 1801, married to John B. Decker; 13, Jacob W., born Nov. 27, 1804, married, Feb. 3, 1830, to Phebe Fuller; 14, Catharine, born March 23, 1806, married to Peter Swartz and removed to Illinois.

VI. (4). Charick, son of Captain Moses and Margaret De Witt, was born in Sussex Co., N. J., April 19, 1788, and was married, Nov. 25, 1810, to Esther Decker, born Nov. 5, 1793, died Aug. 10, 1889. They removed from Sussex Co., N. J., and settled in Eaton Township, now Wyoming Co., Pa. His will was made in Eaton, Feb. 8, 1852, a codicil was added, May 25, 1852, and it was probated at Tunkhannock, Pa., Oct. 21, 1857. It names all the children in the following list. He died March 28, 1852, and, with his wife and several of their descendants, is buried in the South Eaton, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery. The children of Charick and Esther (Decker) De Witt were: 1, John C., born Aug. 12, 1813, died March 9, 1847, married and had at least one son, Moses T. De Witt, who is named in the will of Charick De Witt. John C. De Witt is buried in the South Eaton Cemetery; 2, Sally, born Aug. 4, 1815, died Jan. 20, 1882, married to Samuel, Jr., born June 27, 1819, died June 24, 1869, son of Samuel and Sarah (Morehouse) Roberts, (Family No. 988—Roberts); 3, Moses W., born 1817, died Oct. 26, 1881, aed. 64 years, (South Eaton Cemetery), married to Margaret, born 1823, died Sept. 20, 1898, aed. 75 years, daughter of John and Jemima (Westfall) De Witt. Alexander Lord was the Drummer in the "Wyoming Matross" in the expedition to Lake Erie in the spring of 1813 in the War of 1812. The first wife of Stephen B. Lord, Phebe Ann Hallock, born Sept. 27, 1809, died Aug. 7, 1848; 4, John, Jr., born Dec. 27, 1826, died Sept. 18, 1888, married to Olive ———, born in April, 1833, died Oct. 27, 1877; 5, Catharine, born Sept. 28, 1828, died Feb. 18, 1912. The burial plots of the John De Witt families are in Mount Zion Cemetery, Franklin Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.

ELIZABETH (CARPENTER) ARNDT; FAMILIES NOS. 1339—(1252)

Elizabeth, daughter of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, was born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Aug. 7, 1780, and died at Green Bay, Wis., June 10, 1860. She was married, March 7, 1803, by the Rev. William B. Sloan, pastor of the Greenwich, N. J., Presbyterian Church, to John Penn, born Nov. 19–25, 1780, died June 11, 1861, son of Philip and Mary (Little) Arndt (Arndt family later), and their children were: 1, Philip, born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., March 16, 1804, baptised in the First Reformed Church at Easton, Pa., Feb. 12, 1805, was a student in the Wilkes-Barre Academy in 1809, and was drowned in the Susquehanna River, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 29, 1812, aed. 8 years; 2, Alexander Hamilton, born Oct. 1, 1805, died Oct. 10, 1847; 3, Balser, died aed. 6 weeks; 4, Mary Beidelman, born Oct. 31, 1809, died Sept. 6, 1896; 5, Charles Coatesworth Pinckney, born Oct. 31, 1811, died Feb. 11, 1842; 6, John Wallace, born Sept. 15, 1815, died in Jan., 1897; 7, Elizabeth Margaret, born Dec. 27, 1822. The burial plot of the John Penn Arndt family is in Green Bay Cemetery, Wis. A sketch of John Penn Arndt's career appears in the sketch of the Arndt family later.

Elizabeth Smith Martin, in describing a visit to Fort Howard, in 1836, referred to "The friendly, good grace of that most capable and thrifty Holland (?) housewife, Madame John Arndt, wife of the Pennsylvania Justice of the Peace, whose table had always a superlative menu of Dutch (?) concoctions and other excellent edibles." (Bib.-212.)

THE ARNDT FAMILY (ORNDT)

I. Hans Arndt was a farmer in the Bailiwick of Coswig, in the Principality of Anhalt Zerbsts, in Germany. His son, II. Martin Arndt, was married to Maria, daughter of Hans Sager, a citizen of Zerbsts. They had a son, III. Martin Conrad Arndt, who settled in the Dukedom of Zweibrücken. He was the father of IV. Bernhard Arndt, and also of a daughter, who was married to a Mr. Conrad.

IV. Bernhard Arndt, son of Martin Conrad Arndt, was married to Anna Maria, daughter of Andreas Decker, a native of Coburn, in Zweibrücken, and they settled in the Borough of Baumholder in the Bailiwick of Lichtenburg. At Zweibrücken, Feb. 12, 1717, Bernhard Arndt purchased the manumission of his wife, prior to their removal to Baumholder. In the latter part of April or early in May, 1731, with his wife and three children, Abraham, Jacob and Catharine, he embarked at Rotterdam on the ship Pennsylvania, Captain Stedman, for America. Henry, the fourth child, was born on the voyage. They landed in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 11, 1731, and settled there. Bernhard Arndt was a shoemaker and taught the same trade to his sons. The children of Bernhard and Anna Maria (Decker) Arndt were: 1, Abraham, who died before Dec. 24, 1795; 2, Jacob, born March 24, 1725, died Aug. 3, 1805; 3, Catharine; 4, Henry, born between April and Sept. 11, 1731. (Bib.-83 and 34.)

V. (1). Abraham, son of Bernhard and Anna Maria (Decker) Arndt, born in Baumholder, Lichtenburg, Germany, came to America with his parents in the summer of 1731. He was married, Dec. 29, 1753, at Goshenhoppen, now Montgomery Co., Pa., by the Rev. George Michael Weiser, to Mary Catharine, daughter of John Philip Reed.* They settled first near Soudertown, now Montgomery Co., Pa. Dec. 29, 1755, Abraham Arndt bought from John Kressman a farm in Franconia Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa., and lived there until 1761, when he sold it to Henry Schlechter and removed to Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa. Nov. 8, 1777, the Council of Safety of Pennsylvania, ordered:

"That the persons hereinafter named, in the respective counties, be authorized and required to collect without delay, from such of the inhabitants of the said respective counties as have not taken the Oath of Allegiance and Objuraton, or who have aided or assisted the enemy, arms and accoutrements, blankets, woolen and linsey woolen cloth, linen, shoes, and stockings, for the army. That they appraise the same when taken, according to their quality, allowing the following rates: For a new single blanket, 3 pounds, and in proportion for inferior kinds; strong, large well-made shoes, 25 shillings per pair; good yarn stockings, 22 shillings 6 pence, per pair; good well-manufactured cloth, three-quarters wide, 30 shillings per yard; good linsey woolsey, yard wide, 15 shillings per yard; good, yard wide, linen for soldiers' shirts (about an 800), 15 shillings per yard; good tow linen, 8 shillings per yard; and that the same be delivered, when so taken, to the Clothier General, or his agent, with whom they are to correspond in the discharge of the duties of this business. Also that the Commissioners be allowed, for every day they shall be employed in this business, the sum of 20 shillings per day each." (Bib.-15.)

*John Philip Reed, born Jan. 26, 1698, came to America from Manheim, Germany, arriving at Philadelphia, Pa., on the ship Friendship, of Bristol, John Davis, Master, which sailed from Rotterdam, last from Cowes. He was married about 1727 to Feronica Berckysin (Bergey), who was born in the Canton of Berne, Switzerland, about 1702. John Philip Reed died in Marlborough Township, Montgomery Co., Pa., Sept. 3, 1783. His wife died Dec. 13, 1792, aed. 90 years. They are buried in the New Goshenhoppen, Reformed Church, Yard. Their children were: 1. Michael, born March 16, 1728, married to Anna Maria Mowery, and their son, John Philip Reed, had a son, Michael Reed, born Sept. 18, 1788, who was married to Elizabeth, born Jan. 4, 1794, died April 20, 1854, daughter of John, Jr., and Elizabeth (Hillegas) Schell, (Family No. 1368—Schell); 2. Colonel Jacob, born June 30, 1730, died Nov. 2, 1820, married in 1755, to Magdalene Leidy, Colonel in the American Revolution; 3. Catharine (probably Mary Catharine), born in Salford Township, Montgomery Co., Pa., married, Dec. 29, 1755, to Abraham, son of Bernard and Anna Maria (Decker) Arndt; 4. Margaretta, married to Theobold Wink; 5. Elizabeth, married to Joseph Eberhard; 6. Anna Maria, married to Michael Welker; 7. Eva, married (1) to Theobold Dickinscheld, married (2) to Joseph Kooker; 8. Captain Andrew, born Aug. 25, 1743, married to Anna Maria Leidy.

Thomas Sellman, Robert Lattimore, Nicholas Karn, Abraham Arndt, Henry Alles, John Camblers, Peter Trexler, Sr., Peter Keller and Jacob Woods were appointed Commissioners for Northampton Co. (Bib.-15, Vol. 11, p. 339). In 1790 Abraham Arndt was a resident of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and then had in family living at home, himself, one male over 16, and one male under that age. His wife, Mrs. Mary Catharine (Reed) Arndt, was, apparently, then deceased.

May 31, 1774, Abraham Arndt, of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., bought from Philip Livingston, merchant, New York City, Lot No. 13, 400 acres of land, lying on the south side of the Mohawk River, in what is now Montgomery Co., N. Y., for £240, New York money. May 27, 1777, Abraham Arndt, the elder, of Williams Township, and Mary, his wife, sold 200 acres of this tract to Abraham Arndt, the younger, of the District of Canajoharie, County of Tryon, (now Montgomery), N. Y. Title to at least a portion of the remaining 200 acres of this land passed to Philip Arndt, another son of Abraham Arndt, Sr., who, June 24, 1788, sold about 100 acres of it to George Ransier, of Canajoharie, N. Y. Part of Lot No. 13, Canajoharie, N. Y., was owned by Henry J. Failing in 1803, (Family No. 494—Failing). In 1805 Peter Westerman owned 151 acres of Lot 13, having prior to that date sold 55 acres of it to Nicholas Westerman, (Family No. 357—Westerman). April 18, 1805, Peter Westerman sold 151 acres of Lot 13, to William Wohlgemuth, (Family No. 357—Wohlgemuth).

The will of Abraham Arndt, of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., was probated Dec. 24, 1795, and names his children then living, Abraham, Catharine, Philip, Elizabeth, married to Jacob Hager, and Jacob. Some of the children of Abraham and Mary Catharine (Reid) Arndt were: 1, Abraham, Jr.; 2, Catharine; 3, Philip, baptised Jan. 27, 1754; 4, Ann Elizabeth, baptised June 13, 1756, married to Jacob Hager; 5, Jacob, born Feb. 11, 1758, baptised March 5, 1758; 6, John, baptised Feb. 10, 1761, a Drummer in Captain John Arndt's Company of Colonel Baxter's Battalion, Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, in the War of the American Revolution, was wounded and taken prisoner in the battle of Fort Washington and is said to have died on a prison ship in New York harbor.

VI. (1). Abraham, Jr., son of Abraham and Mary Catharine (Reid) Arndt, went to Montgomery Co., N. Y., as early as 1774, and was of Canajoharie, District of Tryon Co., N. Y., May 27, 1777, when he bought from his father 200 acres of Lot 13, Canajoharie. He early identified himself with the cause of the American Revolution in Tryon Co., N. Y. He enlisted and served as Ensign in the First Battalion of the Canajoharie, N. Y., Regiment of Tryon Co., N. Y., Militia, and was promoted First Lieutenant in Captain Henry Diefendorf's Company of Colonel Samuel Clyde's Regiment, Tryon Co., N. Y., Militia. He took part in the battle of Oriskany, N. Y. In 1786 he was elected State Senator and served until 1791. He served as Supervisor of Canajoharie in 1792. His will was made Sept. 2, 1823, and was proved April 30, 1826. It names his wife, Anna, and their children, John, Nancy, Betsey, Caty, Maria, Abraham, Jacob, Eve, Peter and Henry. He died about 1825.

Abraham Arndt, Jr., was married to Anna Van de Werker, who was born in 1772 and died in Oct., 1847. She is buried in Mount Hope Cemetery, Ford's Bush, Montgomery Co., N. Y., and her name appears (Nancy Arndt) on the monument of her son, Dr. Abraham Arndt. The children of Abraham, Jr., and Anna (Van de Werker) Arndt were: 1, John, born Aug. 11, 1792, lived in Herkimer Co., N. Y.; 2, Anna (Nancy), born Jan. 16, 1794, baptised in the Geisenberg Lutheran Church at Hallsville, N. Y., Jan. 26, 1794, Johannes and Magdalene Weber, sponsors, married to Andrew Moyer, born March 12, 1777, died July 29, 1867, whose children were: (1). Solomon; (2), Jacob A., born June 5, 1818, married to Amelia, daughter of H. C. F. Moyer; (3), Anna Maria, married to Jacob Sanders; (4), Catharine, died early; (5), Abraham; (6), Helen; 3, Elizabeth, born Feb. 6, 1796, baptised, Geisenberg Church, Feb. 14, 1796, Alfred and Barbara Elizabeth Van de Werker, sponsors, died Feb. 23, 1852, married to Abram H. Moyer, born May 22, 1796, died July 21, 1878, whose children were: (1), Mary Ann, born Dec. 31, 1815, married, Feb. 19, 1840, to John Hesler; (2), Eliza Ann, born Feb. 6, 1818, died Oct. 15, 1844; (3), Lucinda, born Sept. 12, 1820, married, June 23, 1853, to John Jarvis; (4), Byancy, born Sept. 12, 1823, died Dec. 23, 1856, married to John Shall; (5), Sylvester, born Aug. 3, 1826, married, Aug. 11, 1851, to Irene Gramps; (6), Simon, born July 22, 1828, married (1), Dec. 27, 1849, to Lanie Eygabrodt, married (2) to Isadore Ball; (7), Almira, born Aug. 15, 1831, married to James Miller; (8), Nancy, born Nov. 6, 1834, married, July 18, 1856, to Catharine Cornelius; 4, Catharine, born Feb. 28, 1798, baptised, Geisenberg Church, April 18, 1798, married to Henry Nellis; 5, Maria, born Sept. 25, 1799, married to Peter Nellis; 6, Magdalene, born Sept. 9, 1801, probably died early, not named in her father's will; 7, Dr. Abram (3d), born Nov. 18, 1803, died Oct. 1, 1864, lived on the Arndt homestead, was married to Mary Walrath, and their children were: (1), Maria, married to Henry Sanders; (2), Minerva, married to David Elwood; (3), Alfred, born June 1, 1831, baptised, Geisenberg Church, Aug. 10, 1831, married, June 22, 1870, to Adaline, daughter of John Diefendorf of Minden, N. Y.; 8, Jacob W., married, and lived at Grand Rapids, Mich.; 9, Eve, born Oct. 24, 1807, married to H. C. F. Moyer; 10, Peter, born Jan. 23, 1810, married to ——— Adams, lived in Grand Rapids, Mich.; 11, Henry, born July 21, 1812.

VI. (2). Catharine, daughter of Abraham and Mary Catharine (Reed) Arndt, was born near Soudertown, Montgomery Co., Pa., removed with her parents to Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., and was married to ——— Heist (Hyst-Hice). She was evidently a widow in 1790 and then lived in Williams Township and had in family herself and two males under 16 years of age. Deacon Henry Hice, born Oct. 17, 1784, died Feb. 17, 1865, who was married to Edith, daughter of Jacob and Margaret (Shafer) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps) and who removed from Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., to Kingston Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., may have been a son of Mrs. Catharine (Arndt) Heist, (see Family No. 988—Henry Hice). She was named in the will of her brother, Jacob Arndt, which was made Feb. 15, 1821.

VI. (3). Philip, son of Abraham and Mary Catharine (Reed) Arndt, was born, probably, near Soudertown, Montgomery Co., Pa., and was baptised in the Indian Creek German Reformed Church, Jan. 27, 1754. In the War of the American Revolution he served as Sergeant in Captain John Arndt's Company under the command of Colonel Hart. This Company was incorporated in Colonel Baxter's Battalion and fought in the first battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776, and in the battle of Fort Washington, Nov. 16, 1776, (Bib.—19), (see sketch of Captain John Arndt later). Philip Arndt owned part of Lot No. 13, Canajoharie, Montgomery Co., N. Y., title to which he doubtless secured from his father, and June 24, 1788, sold 100 acres of this land to George Ransier, of Canajoharie, N. Y. He became interested in various financial and commercial enterprises at Easton, Pa., and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in some of which he was associated with his son, John Penn Arndt. The present writer is unable to determine either the place or the exact date of his death. He was living in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1790 and had in family himself and one male under 16 years. He was living and in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 11, 1803, when, with Ezekiel Hyde, he signed, as a witness, the deed conveying title to what was later known as the Arndt Inn property in Wilkes-Barre, from Arnold Colt and his wife, Lucinda, to John P. Arndt and Isaac Carpenter. Sept. 2, 1802, Jacob Arndt, Jr., shopkeeper, of Easton, Pa., executed a power of attorney to his "Trusty and loving cousin, Philip Arndt, now or late of Williams Township," which is recorded at Wilkes-Barre. The reference, in Colonel Bradshy's History of Luzerne Co., Pa., to Philip Arndt as a brother of John P. Arndt is erroneous. John P. Arndt was the only son of Philip Arndt.

Philip Arndt was married to Mary Little, who died at Durham Cove, Northampton Co., Pa., soon after Nov. 25, 1780, but she was probably living Jan. 2, 1781. Their only child, John Penn Arndt, was born Nov. 19 or 25, 1780. Mary Little was doubtless of the same family (perhaps a daughter) as James Little of Mansfield, Sussex Co., N. J., who, July 13, 1805, bought from James and Euphemia Reeder of Newport, Luzerne Co., Pa., Lot No. 36, Second Division, Newport, "beginning at a stone corner on Hog Back Hill and running thence to the Susquehanna River," etc., and which James Little and his wife, Hannah, sold to John P. Arndt for $1,500, March 12, 1817. In this deed the survey begins "at a stone corner on Stag Bank Hill and runs 316 perches to the river," etc. They also sold to John P. Arndt, the same day, 80 acres of land.

VII. (4). John Penn Arndt, son of Philip and Mary (Little) Arndt, was born at Durham Cove, Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., Nov. 19 or 25, 1780, was baptised Jan. 2, 1781, Johannes Arndt, with Conrad Zattel and Maria Magdalene, sponsors, and was married, in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., March 7, 1803, by the Rev. William B. Sloan, pastor of the Greenwich Presbyterian Church, to Elizabeth, born Aug. 7, 1780, died June 10, 1860, daughter of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, (Family No. 1339—which see for sketch of his family). John Penn Arndt came to Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne Co., Pa., about 1801-2, and April 11, 1803, with his brother-in-law, Isaac S. Carpenter, then of Greenwich, N. J., bought from Arnold and Lucinda Colt for $2,733.00 Lot No. 2, of the Town Plot of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. This lot, containing three acres and ninety-nine perches of land, was situated on Bank (now River) street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., near the Northampton street intersection, and was the site of the famous Arndt Inn, owned by John Penn Arndt for a number of years. Before 1807 he sold about one-quarter of an acre of this lot to Isaac Shoemaker of Kingston Township, (Family No. 946). This portion of Lot No. 2 is described as "The Flower Garden" lot. Sept. 10, 1808, John P. Arndt, merchant, sold forty perches of the lot to Leonard Beatty. (For further reference to this lot see sketch of Isaac S. Carpenter, Family No. 946.) It appears probable that, soon after he purchased this lot, John Penn Arndt opened the Arndt Inn, for many years one of the most popular houses "for the entertainment of the public" in Wilkes-Barre. In 1805 John Penn Arndt was residing in Philadelphia, Pa., and on Feb. 6, of that year, describing himself as an innkeeper of Wilkes-Barre, now residing in Philadelphia, he executed a power of attorney to Henry R. Wright. April 25, 1806, he likewise appointed John Evans his attorney. However, he soon returned to Wilkes-Barre and, in 1807, was licensed as an innkeeper. It appears probable to the writer that Isaac Carpenter kept the Arndt Inn in 1806. In 1809 it was kept by Captain George Taylor, (Family No. 1055—Taylor), a son-in-law of Isaac Schumacher of Kingston Township. The writer has in his possession the day book kept by Captain George Taylor in 1809, while conducting the inn. John Penn Arndt undoubtedly kept the inn in 1807, 1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1814, 1816, and 1817, when he was licensed as a tavernkeeper. He is variously described in the Wilkes-Barre Tax Lists as innkeeper, merchant, farmer. He was associated with John W. Robinson in the operation of a stage line between Wilkes-Barre and Easton. This partnership was dissolved Oct. 25, 1808. (Bib.-81.) John W. Robinson, born in Norwich, Conn., April 5, 1779, died Dec. 16, 1840, and his wife, Ann Butler, born in 1787, died in 1856, are buried in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre. In 1807 he was assessed as the owner of the Arndt Inn and lot, four horses and seven houses. In 1809 he owned, in Wilkes-Barre, the Arndt Inn and lot, a distillery and a one-half interest in a sawmill located at Bear Creek. Early in 1809 he installed a "New Double Wool Carding Machine in his still house in Wilkes-Barre," and June 16, 1809, announced that it would be ready for operation June 20, 1809. (Bib.-81.) June 16, 1809, he was serving as administrator of the estate of Peter Sailor, (Family No. 3—Sailor). April 20, 1810, he announced, through the Gleaner, to his friends and the public generally, that he had recommenced keeping a House of Entertainment at his old stand on Bank street, and hoped, by his attention to the business, to receive a share of the public patronage. He was a leading spirit in the Luzerne Shipbuilding Company and, Oct. 13, 1809, with Peleg Tracy, the Treasurer of the Company, issued a call, in the Gleaner, for a meeting to be held at the house of George Taylor (Arndt's Inn), to elect a manager in place of Arnold Colt, who had removed from the county. He probably also introduced the famous Durham Boats to the waters of the Susquehanna River. July 10, 1810, the Wilkes-Barre Council took favorable action upon his proposition tendering to the public the use of his weigh scales at a charge of 25 cents for weighing, one-half of which should be paid to the weigher and the other half to Mr. Arndt. (Bib.-75.) At a meeting of the Constitutional and Federal Republicans of Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 14, 1810, he was nominated for Sheriff. Oct. 12, 1801, the "Wyoming Blues," Zeb. Butler, Captain, were ordered to meet on the next Tuesday at the Public Green, before the house of John P. Arndt. (Bib.-75.) Aug. 23, 1811, Charles Miner and John P. Arndt extended an invitation to Federal Republicans to meet at the Court House to elect two delegates to meet delegates, from the other townships, at Tunkhannock, to form a ticket for the ensuing year. (Bib.-75.) In the convention, held at Tunkhannock, he was named as the candidate for County Commissioner. July 16, 1813, he announced that he would pay cash for young cattle, at $4 per cwt. at Wilkes-Barre. (Bib.-75.) Jan. 8, 1813, Benjamin Dorrance, William Myers, John P. Arndt, Parley Coburn and Theron Darling announced in the Gleaner the opening of books for subscription to the new Baltimore Turnpike Company. July 8, 1814, he advertised that he had for sale 150 barrels of Lake Salt, 120 tons of Lake Plaister and 2,000 gallons of Whiskey, for sale, cheap for cash. It appears that he was also a contractor in the construction of a State road. March 17, 1815, in a list of Luzerne Co. expenditures, these items appear: (1), balance on contract of State road, to J. P. Arndt, $30.37; (2), John P. Arndt, damage by road through property, $150. April 24, 1815, he announced, as one of the managers of the Smithfield Turnpike Road, that on the 15th, 16th and 17th of May, from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. books would be open, at his house, for subscription to the stock of the company. John P. Arndt and Company, May 19, 1815, advertised a Mail Stage line leaving the house of William White, in Easton, Pa., Monday and Friday, and leaving the house of John P. Arndt, in Wilkes-Barre, Wednesday and Saturday. The fare from Wilkes-Barre to Easton was $4.00 with rate of seven cents per mile for lesser distance. (Bib.-75.) Nov. 17, 1815, John P. Arndt respectfully informed his friends and the public that he had opened, at his old stand, first door above his hotel, and nearly opposite the ferry in Wilkes-Barre, an extensive assortment of new goods suited to the present and approaching season, among which are: Bottle Green, Navy Blue, Black, Drab, Brown and Mixed, Superfine, Fine and Coarse Broad Cloths; Ladies' Pelisse Cloths in Light Green, Bottle Green and Cinnamon colors; a General Dry Goods Store; Men's Coarse and Fine and Woman's Calfskin and Morocco Shoes; Crockery and Glass Ware; Hard and Tin Ware; Steel and Iron; Brandy, Gin, Rum, Wine, Whiskey, Twist and Roll Tobacco, etc.; all kinds of country produce taken in exchange. (Bib.-75.) March 25, 1814, John P. Arndt offered $10.00 reward, through the columns of the Gleaner, reciting that on the evening of the 17th instant there was stolen, from the house of the subscriber, one superfine Broad Cloth, straight-bodied, blue coat; one pair of Boots, with the name of the owner and Lewis Ryan, the maker of the boots, written therein; one pair of shoes, and some other light articles. "Whoever shall apprehend the felon and lodge him in some prison or other safe place and give notice to the subscriber, so that he may bring the said felon to answer, shall receive the above reward." The name of John P. Arndt appears among those of the Incorporators of St. Stephen's (Protestant Episcopal) Church of Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 9, 1817, and Feb. 15, 1819, he became a member of Lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He dealt very extensively in real estate and owned lands in Providence, Pittston, Kingston, Wilkes-Barre, Newport and Hanover Townships, in Luzerne Co., Pa.

In the summer of 1819 John P. Arndt removed from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., to Buffalo, N. Y., where he remained two years. He bought a vessel and engaged in the fish and fur trade, on the Island of Mackinac, and, about 1822, removed his family to the Island. In 1823 he visited the site of the present city of Green Bay, Wis., and, in the following year, removed his family to Green Bay. The journey, made on a sailing vessel, the schooner "Supervisor," required fourteen days of a tempestuous voyage, and the party landed Sept. 24, 1824. The new Arndt home was established in one of the old Langlade houses, one of the first built by white men in Wisconsin. This was a famous old house and was remodelled into an inn, by Mr. Arndt. It was built of square hewn logs so nicely adjusted that it seemed one solid block with never a touch of paint, stucco, or whitewash, but always retaining its soft gray color. It was barely a story and a half high, while its length was quite 100 feet. On the west side a long low roofed piazza, twelve feet wide, supported by columns worked out of red cedar logs, extended the entire length of the building. (Bib.-216.) The combined dining-room and kitchen, with its fireplace, that took in four-foot logs, filled with cranes and irons and hooks to suspend the kettles, had back of it another kitchen, where the old brick oven, built at the side of the fireplace, stood and did service for many years.

There was also a large tray for mixing bread, a machine for making crackers and implements for making molded and dipped candles. The last of the old buildings was torn down in 1903. (Bib.-212.)

In 1825 John Penn Arndt secured a license to establish and operate a ferry across the Fox River and in the same year he built, with his own hands, the first Durham boat used on the Fox River. In 1827, associated with Colonel Ebenezer Childs, later of La Crosse, Wis., he secured from the United States Government the right to build and operate a grist mill and a sawmill. The title to this concession was vested in John Penn Arndt. The deed from certain chiefs of the Menominee Indians is printed in the collections of the Wisconsin Historical Society, together with many interesting items pertaining to the activities of Mr. Arndt. The deed was executed Aug. 25, 1826, and was signed by Oaskash, alias the claw; Ok-ko-me-ne, alias Great Wave, and Sthai-ke-tok, alias Scare All, and by Hy. B. Brevoort, Indian Agent. In 1825 the first movement was made toward the improvement of the Fox and Wisconsin Rivers. At a meeting held at the Arndt Inn, in the fall of 1825, it was agreed to petition Congress for an appropriation of $500,000, to improve those rivers by a series of locks and dams. In 1834 John P. Arndt had the first decked schooner built. This pioneer schooner, the first to sail in Wisconsin waters, bore the name Wisconsin. March 10, 1834, the Portage Canal Company was incorporated and Feb. 17, 1841, the Fox and Wisconsin Steamer Boat Company was granted a charter. John P. Arndt was an original stockholder in both of these companies. Among his other early enterprises at Green Bay Mr. Arndt secured the contract for furnishing beef to the troops at Fort Howard. Some of the cattle were bought in Illinois and Missouri. One of Mr. Arndt's sons was associated with an expert buyer in the purchase of the cattle. On one expedition they bought 262 head for $2.00 per hundred pounds and paid from $5 to $7 for cows. An important Indian Treaty was negotiated at Green Bay in 1836, and a temporary "Indian Council Chamber" was built adjoining the Arndt Inn. Mr. Arndt had the contract to furnish all needed supplies of food, etc. He also signed the Treaty as a witness. In 1836 William Dickinson, Charles Fuller, and John P. Arndt were authorized, by an Act of the Legislature, to build a dam across the Fox River at De Pere. The first dam was built in 1836-37, and in 1837 the company was authorized to issue bills to pass as money. In 1829 Christ Episcopal Church of Green Bay was organized and John P. Arndt was elected a vestryman.

Brown Co., Mich., was organized in 1834 and in 1835 delegates were elected to form a State Constitution for Michigan. This action left the region West of Lake Michigan, formerly a part of the Territory of Michigan, to be organized into the Territory of Wisconsin. The new territory was organized July 4, 1836. At the first election held, for members of the Territorial Legislature, Henry S. Baird and John P. Arndt were elected to represent Brown Co. in the Territorial Council. John P. Arndt was also a member of the Council in 1837 and 1838. In 1842, then a Justice of the Peace, John P. Arndt was elected Judge of the Probate Court of Brown Co., an office he held for several years.

The building of Durham boats under the supervision of John Penn Arndt became an important industry at Green Bay. These he built for his own use, for the American Fur Company, for Daniel Whitney and others. Born, where the idea of the Durham boats was conceived, Mr. Arndt later built these boats in Wilkes-Barre and still later at Green Bay. The Delaware, the Susquehanna and the Fox Rivers, all shallow streams, were successfully navigated by Durham boats and the transportation of freight in these boats is said to have become a vital means to the development of the commerce of a large section about Green Bay. John Penn Arndt and two of his sons, Alexander Hamilton and John Wallace Arndt, were very successful as pioneers of water transportation through their use. An interesting description of these boats, written by John Wallace Arndt, may be found in the Collections of the Wisconsin Historical Society, where also an excellent portrait of John Penn Arndt may be found.

John Penn Arndt commanded a company, enlisted for service in the Black Hawk War, and was, thereafter, popularly known as Captain Arndt. In the census of 1830 his homestead was returned as consisting of 25 persons, including one alien and two free colored persons. In the Territorial Census of 1836 it was returned as consisting of 74 persons. The explanation of these figures seems to be that "He had extensive fur trade connections and these numbers doubtless included all his wandering crew of clerks and voyageurs." The city of Green Bay, Wis., was organized Feb. 27, 1854. Mr. Arndt was a member of the first City Council, and May 6, 1854, was elected chairman. Throughout his life John Penn Arndt maintained his interest in the Protestant Episcopal Church and in Free Masonry. He was Treasurer of the F. and A. M. at Green Bay for many years. He died at Green Bay, Wis., June 11, 1861, was buried with Masonic rites "and among the impressive features of his funeral service at the grave was the singing of a solemn funeral hymn in the language of his fathers." (Bib.-216-212-211-214.)

VI. (5). Jacob, son of Abraham and Mary Catharine (Reed) Arndt, was born Feb. 11, 1758, and died Sept. 19, 1831. He was married to Mary Morrison, born Aug. 1, 1761, died Dec. 30, 1845. They are buried in Raub's Cemetery, Raubsville, Northampton Co., Pa. His will, made in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., Feb. 15, 1821, and probated at Easton, Pa., Oct. 31, 1831, names his wife, Mary; his sister, Catharine, and the following children: John, Abraham, Samuel, Anna, Elizabeth, wife of John Reiley; Rebecca, wife of Thomas Williams; Mary; Catharine, wife of Peter Stem, and Susannah. The children of Jacob and Mary (Morrison) Arndt were: 1, John, born Nov. 24, 1785, died June 20, 1865, (see later); 2, Anna, born Aug. 25, 1787, died May 4, 1865, married to Joseph Bryan, born May 4, 1781, died Dec. 13, 1856. Their daughter, Mary, was married to Philip Carpenter; 3, Elizabeth, born Sept. 20, 1789, died Sept. 2, 1868, married, in 1809, to John Reiley, born Feb. 13, 1784, died Sept. 12, 1863, (Greenwich, N. J., Presbyterian Cemetery). Their children were: (1), William; (2), Burroughs; (3), Mary; (4), John Arndt; (5), Dennis; (6), Asher; (7), Elizabeth; (8), James; 4, Jacob, born Aug. 25, 1791, died Sept. 1, 1805; 5, Rebecca, born Jan. 5, 1794, died Oct. 10, 1861, married to Thomas B. Williams, born April 1, 1781, died Feb. 2, 1838. Their children were: (1), Hiram A.; (2), Sarah; (3), Anna Maria; (4), Samuel R.; (5), Margaret; (6), Thomas Elwood; 6, Mary, born in 1796, died July 2, 1833, married, April 4, 1825, to Jacob Keller, born about 1789, died Dec. 18, 1865, had a daughter, Mrs. Mary E. (Keller) Reiley; 7, Catharine, born Feb. 25, 1798, died March 4, 1834, married to Peter Stem, born Feb. 2, 1791, died April 1, 1861, (Easton, Pa., Cemetery). Some of their children were: (1), Rebecca; (2), Amanda; (3), Frank D.; (4), Celinda; 8, Abraham, born Feb. 25, 1800, died Oct. 8, 1865, married (1), Oct. 1, 1836, to Evalina Pursell, born May 9, 1809, died Sept. 26, 1849, married (2), Oct. 28, 1851, to Sarah Deemer, born July 8, 1817, died Sept. 15, 1898, (Raub Cemetery, Raubsville, Pa.). Some of the children of Abraham and Evaline (Pursell) Arndt were: (1), Zaccheus Pursell Arndt, M. D., born Aug. 23, 1842, died Feb. 28, 1870, (Raub Cemetery); (2), Abraham Morrison Arndt, born July 20, 1844, a school teacher for nearly 40 years, lived in Williams Township; (3), Mary Catharine, born Aug. 8, 1846, married to the Rev. W. R. Kiefer of the Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; 9, Samuel, born Aug. 31, 1802, died April 18, 1862, (see later); 10, Susannah, born Sept. 26, 1804, died Nov. 13, 1866, married to David Eilenberg, born Oct. 26, 1806, died Nov. 7, 1878, whose children were: (1), Theodore; (2), Mary Elizabeth; (3), Rebekah; (4), Matilda; (5), Evalina; (6), Cyrus Arndt; (7), Guy Morrison; (8), David Andrew.

VII. (1). John, son of Jacob and Mary (Morrison) Arndt, was born Nov. 24, 1785, and died June 20, 1865. He was married, Dec. 26, 1816, to Ann Stover, born March 27, 1796, died June 24, 1859. Their children were: 1, Catharine, born Feb. 18, 1818, died Sept. 11, 1820, (Raub Cemetery); 2, Jacob, born Sept. 19, 1819, died May 19, 1893, married, Feb. 25, 1844, to Sarah A. Shields, born Aug. 11, 1822. Their son, Cyrus, was born Aug. 15, 1846; 3, Cyrus Arndt, M. D., born Oct. 6, 1821, died Oct. 20, 1845; 4, Mary, born March 1, 1824, died March 8, 1825, (Raub Cemetery); 5, Rev. Ralph Stover Arndt, member of Newark Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, born June 4, 1826, died Aug. 7, 1892, married, Feb. 12, 1856, to Sarah W. King, born Dec. 4, 1834, three of whose children were: (1), Elizabeth King; (2), John Stover, born Aug. 21, 1860, married, Dec. 15, 1887, to Jessie W. Stephens, born Jan. 14, 1861, live in Philadelphia; (3), Emily Warren; 6, John Arndt, Jr., born Feb. 21, 1830, died March 30, 1895, married to Angeline Shields, born May 23, 1832, died March 3, 1895.

VII. (9). Samuel, son of Jacob and Mary (Morrison) Arndt, was born Aug. 31, 1802, and died April 18, 1862. He was married to Elizabeth Frutchey, who died Dec. 26, 1893. Their children were: 1, Mary Elizabeth, married to Peter Lattig; 2, Matilda Jane, born Feb. 4, 1833, married to Plato Stout; 3, Peter Frutchey Arndt, M. D., married to Diana Bachman, born Oct. 29, 1832. He was born Feb. 4, 1833, and died Jan. 15, 1890, and some of their children were: (1), Mary Sylvania Isadora, born July 30, 1857, died in 1866; (2), Oliver Elmer Ellsworth Arndt, M. D., born Aug. 30, 1864, married, July 9, 1897, to Clara Evans, born Feb. 22, 1873; (3), Samuel Sherman Sheridan Arndt, born Dec. 4, 1866, died early; (4), Lillie Flora Bell Arndt, born Dec. 5, 1873, died in childhood; 4, Rebekah, born in Sept., 1835, married to Mahlon McAtee, lived in Freeport, Ill.; 5, Guy Morrison Arndt, at the time of his death, a medical student; 6, Oliver Perry Arndt.

V. (2). Major Jacob Arndt, son of Bernard and Anna Maria (Decker) Arndt, was born in Baumholder, Lichtenburg, Germany, March 24, 1725, and came to America, with his parents, in the summer of 1731, landing at Philadelphia, Pa. Sept. 11, 1731, he was married to Anna Elizabeth, born at Ittengen, Bailiwick of Brotton, in the Upper Palatinate, Sept. 20, 1726, daughter of Jacob Gieger. Soon after his marriage Jacob Arndt bought a farm in Rockhill Township, Bucks Co., Pa., where he worked at his trade, shoemaking, in connection with farming.

In the French and Indian War Jacob Arndt enlisted in the Pa. Provincial Militia and was early commissioned Captain. He was at Gnadenhutten in 1755 and, April 19, 1756, was commissioned Captain in the First Battalion of the Pa. Regiment, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Conrad Weiser and Major William Parsons.

Jan. 14, 1756, Franklin wrote to the Governor of Pennsylvania: "I have ordered Orndt to come up from Rockhill, in Bucks Co., to strengthen this part of the province." His company served first in Northampton Co. in the building of forts and afterward did garrison duty. It was first stationed at Fort Norris and then numbered 21 men. Oct. 8, 1756, the company was ordered to Fort Allen on the Lehigh. In Dec., 1757, Captain Arndt was at Fort Augusta, near the present site of Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pa., and in 1756-7-8, he and his company were stationed for service at Fort Allen, one of the most important forts on the frontier. (Bib.-68.) June 2, 1758, Captain Jacob Arndt was promoted, for merit, and Commissioned Major in the Pa. Regiment, under the command of Hon. William Denby, Lieutenant Governor and Colonel-in-Chief. He was subsequently placed in command of the eastern frontier with headquarters at Easton, Pa. Feb. 21, 1758, he was at Reading, Pa., on a tour of inspection of the frontier forts, under orders from General Forbes. In 1759 he was again at Fort Augusta and was frequently commended for efficiency. In 1756-7, then a Captain and stationed at Fort Allen, he prepared a list of the inhabitants of Northampton Co., Pa., who had been killed or taken prisoners by the Indians, from the beginning of hostilities until the middle of Dec., 1757. According to this statement 114 men, women and children had been slain and fifty-two persons had been taken captive. Of the latter number, seven were returned by the Indians or effected their escape. In 1763 Major Jacob Arndt was elected Captain of a company which volunteered for service in the Pontiac War. In the Pennsylvania Colonial Records many of the letters written by Major Jacob Arndt (usually signed Orndt) may be found. These letters contain interesting details pertaining to his activities and the relations he sustained to the stirring events of the years he was engaged in military service. After the close of the French and Indian War Major Arndt returned to his home at Rockhill, Bucks Co., Pa.

Jan. 26, 1760, Jacob Arndt of Rockhill Township, Bucks Co., Pa., bought, from John Jones and his wife, Ellinor, "148 acres of land, with a grist mill and appurtenances," situated on the Bushkill, in Forks Township, Northampton Co., Pa. This land had been sold, Aug. 13, 1739, by the Hon. John Penn and Thomas and Richard Penn, to William Allen, a merchant of Philadelphia. May 14, 1741, William Allen and his wife, Margaret, sold it to Daniel Worms, who, May 17, 1748, sold it to Jacob Mauer. Jacob Mauer and his wife, Mary Katharine, sold it, Dec. 2, 1754, to John Jones. Jacob and Maria Catharine Mauer (Maurer) had a son John Jacob, born Sept. 29, 1746, who was baptised in the old Lutheran Church at Easton, Oct. 5, 1746. The grist mill standing on this farm when it was bought by Major Jacob Arndt, Jan. 26, 1760, was, probably, one of the oldest mills in that section. It was operated by Major Arndt and afterwards by his son, Captain John Arndt. This mill, known as Arndt's Mill, gave the name Arndt's Mills to the neighborhood. It appears probable that a new mill was built by Major Arndt about 1763 and that this was the mill which was destroyed about 1865. At about this latter date Jacob Walters built the mill now standing on the property. This mill is near Walter's Station, Northampton Co., Pa.

Nov. 19, 1764, March 15, 1766, and March 9, 1774, Major Jacob Arndt was commissioned Justice of the Peace, and, in 1774, when the Northampton County Committee of Safety was organized he was elected as the member from Forks Township. July 17, 1774, he served as a Deputy, representing Northampton Co., in the Provincial Convention and served in 1774, in the convention called to frame a Constitution for the State of Pennsylvania. He was also a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1776, of which Dr. Benjamin Franklin was President. He was a member of the First Pa. Assembly in 1776 and in 1777 succeeded George Taylor as a member of the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania. At Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 17, 1777, a proclamation was issued, by order of the General Assembly, constituting a Council of Safety for the State of Pennsylvania, Major Jacob Arndt was named as a member and served until the Council was dissolved in Dec., 1777. The members of the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania, who served with Major Jacob Arndt, were Thomas Wharton, Jr., President; George Bryan, Vice President; Jacob Morgan, James Edgar, John Hambright, Thomas Urie and Thomas Scott. Major Arndt served as a member of this highly important Council until Oct. 14, 1780. An interesting side light is thrown upon the financial conditions in Pennsylvania and, of course, throughout the infant Republic, by the orders passed by the Supreme Executive Council to remunerate Major Arndt for his services as a member of the Council, the vast "raise in salary" and increased allowance for expenses being due, without any doubt, to the depreciation of the currency. Nov. 24, 1779, he was allowed £3 per day for 34 days, from Feb. 1 to March 6, and the mileage was 2 shillings and 6 pence, for 120 miles. From April 19 to Nov. 23, the rate was £7, 10d, and the mileage 5s, 5d. From Feb. 1 to March 24, 1780, the rate was £12 per day, and for 129 days, from June 4, 1780, the rate was £50 per day and the mileage £2, 1s, 8d. April 5, 1779, Major Jacob Arndt was appointed Commissioner of Excise for Northampton Co., Pa., and in 1782 and 1784 he was again elected a member of the Pennsylvania Assembly. Following his retirement from public life he remained at his home at Arndt's Mills until the death of his wife. He then found a welcome in the home of his daughter, Elizabeth, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Jacob Schumacher (Family No. 2), and, after her death, he made his home with his son, Captain John Arndt, at Easton, Pa.

Sept. 21, 1773, Major Jacob Arndt bought from Philip Livingston of New York, for £240, Lot No. 12, in the District of Canajoharie, then Tryon, now Montgomery Co., N. Y. This tract of 393 acres lay on the "South side of the Mohawk River," and adjoined the lot bought by his brother, Abraham Arndt, of Williams Township. Feb. 28, 1785, describing himself as a "Miller of Forks Township, Pa.," for a consideration of 5 shillings and "Love and affection which he bears toward his said son, and for his better advancement in the world," he conveyed this tract to his son, Abraham Arndt; 134 acres of this lot were owned by John C. Ehle, of Canajoharie, who, in 1795, sold 134 acres of Lot 12, to Philip and Henry I. Failing of Palatine, N. Y., (Family No. 494—Ehle, No. 494—Failing). Nov. 4, 1773, Major Jacob Arndt bought from Will Livingston of Elizabeth, N. J., for £226, 15s, 378 acres of land, adjoining his previous purchase in Canajoharie, and, Feb. 28, 1784, he and his wife, Elizabeth, conveyed this tract to their son-in-law, Jacob Schumacher. It was subsequently conveyed by the will of the latter, to his two sons, Jacob and Abraham Schumacher, (Families Nos. 54 and 357).

Some of the children of Major Jacob and Anna Elizabeth (Gieger) Arndt were: 1, Captain John, born June 5, 1748, died May 6, 1814; 2, Elizabeth, born Sept. 29, 1750, died July 4, 1797, aed. 47 years, 9 months, 28 days, married to Lieutenant Colonel Jacob Schumacher, son of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher (Family No. 2); 3, Margaret, born July 29, 1752, died in 1768; 4, Jacob, born May 14, 1756, died Oct. 29, 1812; 5, Abraham, born Jan. 31, 1759, died Dec. 2, 1845. Mrs. Anna Elizabeth (Gieger) Arndt died March 17, 1797. Major Jacob Arndt died, at Easton, Pa., Aug. 3, 1805, aed. 80 years, 4 months, 10 days. The story of his eminently useful, and thoroughly patriotic, career, is modestly, yet eloquently, told by the inscription upon his plain headstone in Arndt's Cemetery, Arndt's Mills, Northampton Co., Pa.: "Here are deposited the remains of Jacob Arndt, who, in his lifetime, faithfully served his God, his King, and, in and after the Revolution the Republic." Major Jacob Arndt and his family were identified with the First Reformed Church of Easton, Pa. His will was proved Jan. 10, 1806, and named his sons, John, Jacob and Abraham, and his daughter, married to Jacob Schumacher. It also named his granddaughter, Mary Shoemaker, to whom he bequeathed a chest of drawers, a bedstead, a milch cow, a saddle, a bridle, a spinning wheel and £50 when she became of age. He also provided that his mulatto slave, Gifford, should have his manumission and be set at liberty. His son, Abraham Arndt, and his son-in-law, Jacob Schumacher, were named as executors. (Bib.-1, 15, 16, 19, 22, 24, 27, 28, 29, 34, 38, 68.)

VI. (1). Captain John Arndt, son of Major Jacob and Anna Elizabeth (Gieger) Arndt, was born June 5, 1748, and died at Easton, Pa., May 6, 1814. He removed, with his parents, about 1760, from Rockhill Township, Bucks Co., Pa., to Forks Township, Northampton Co., Pa. At the beginning of the American Revolution he was commissioned Captain in the Northampton Co. Militia. His Company was part of the First Battalion of Northampton Co. Associators and of Washington's Flying Camp of 10,000 men. The Battalion was commanded by Colonel Hart. The Company was incorporated in Colonel Baxter's Battalion and was engaged, Aug. 27, 1776, in the battle of Long Island, suffering a loss of two officers and 19 privates. It was also engaged in the battle at Fort Washington, suffering the loss of two officers, a fifer, a drummer, (John Arndt, son of Abraham and Mary Catharine (Reed) Arndt) and 34 privates. Captain Arndt was seriously wounded, by a small cannon ball, in the battle of Long Island, and, as a result, lost the use of one of his hands throughout his life. He was taken prisoner and, after his release, returned to Easton, Pa. He conducted the Arndt Grist Mill for many years. March 25, 1777, he was appointed Register of Wills and Recorder of Deeds for Northampton Co., Pa., and, there being, at that time, no public office building providing for their care, the records were kept in the Arndt Mill. June 3, 1777, he was commissioned Justice of the Peace, and May 22, 1778, he was appointed Clerk of the Orphans' Court.

Feb. 19, 1778, he was appointed Commissioner of Purchases for Military Supplies, and Oct. 20, 1783, he became a member of the Board of Censors. He was also a member of the Northampton County Committee of Safety, and Dec. 16, 1777, was appointed by the General Assembly of the State to solicit subscriptions for the Continental Loan. Sept. 9, 1783, when Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa., was incorporated, he was elected a Trustee. He was one of the Electors of the First Electoral College of Pennsylvania, and cast his vote for George Washington for President of the United States. About 1796 Captain John Arndt removed to Easton, Pa., and engaged in business as a shopkeeper. An echo of some of his experiences in business is suggested by the following notice, which was published in the Wilkes-Barre Gleaner of July 20, 1810.

"Former customers of John Arndt, Easton, Pa., are notified that he will attend in person or by an agent, at the house of John P. Arndt in Wilkes-Barre, during the first Court week in Wilkes-Barre in Aug. next."

July 4, 1807, Captain John Arndt, in a deed, in which he described himself as a shopkeeper, conveyed title, in trust, to his son, George Washington Arndt, and his nephew, John Shoemaker, (Family No. 86) for the land occupied by Arndt Cemetery, at Arndt's Mills. April 26, 1805, Philip Shrawder conveyed to John Arndt, shopkeeper of Easton, Pa., title to 408 acres of land at Phillipsburg, being on Bowman's Creek in Luzerne Co., Pa. In the will of Captain John Arndt which was probated at Easton, Pa., he gave to Philip Shrawder, described as Captain Philip Shrawder the "Silver headed cane and the corkwood cane" given to Captain Arndt by Hon. Timothy Pickering. The consideration named in the deed from Philip Shrawder to John Arndt is described as a "lifelong friendship and one dollar."

Captain John Arndt was married (1) to Elizabeth, born May 4, 1758, died Jan. 31, 1776, daughter of John Feit.* Their only child, 1, a daughter, who died Jan. 18, 1776, was the first person buried in Arndt's Cemetery. The second burial there was that of Mrs. Elizabeth (Feit) Arndt. Captain John Arndt was married (2) to Elizabeth, born April 8, 1756, died Dec. 25, 1811, daughter of Conrad Ihrle, and their children were: 2, Maria, born May 6, 1779, married to the Rev. John Faber; 3, Susannah, born Feb. 2, 1781, married, Dec. 26, 1802, to John B. Miles; 4, Elizabeth, born Feb. 14, 1783, baptised April 27, 1783, married, July 12, 1801, to William Ennis (Innes?); 5, Jacob B., born April 27, 1785, baptised June 5, 1785, died Aug. 8, 1806; 6, Sarah, born Feb. 27, 1787, baptised April 8, 1787, married, Dec. 25, 1807, to John Slaytor; 7, John, Jr., born May 21, 1789, died Oct. 30, 1806; 8, George Washington, born June 25, 1791, married, May 29, 1813, to Henrietta Byllesby; 9, Ann, born March 15, 1794, baptised June 6, 1794, married to Charles Lambert; 10, Benjamin Franklin, born June 23, 1796, Justice of the Peace and Postmaster at Easton, was a soldier in the War of 1812, married (1) to Elizabeth ———, born Aug. 21, 1799, died Dec. 23, 1820, married (2) to Sarah Raeder, born April 19, 1805, died March 21, 1871; 11, Samuel, born Aug. 17, 1798, died June 30, 1817. Captain John Arndt and his family were affiliated with the First Reformed Church at Easton, Pa., where the children indicated above were baptised. He died at Easton, Pa., May 6, 1814. His second wife, Mrs. Elizabeth (Ihrle) Arndt, died Dec. 25, 1811. They are buried in Arndt Cemetery. Captain John Arndt performed an invaluable service for the Arndt family by writing a sketch of the family history in his family Bible. Very many interesting details pertaining to the early history of the family are included in the sketch. It was published in the Easton Free Press by Mr. E. A. Weaver, the historian, and also may be found in the publications of the Pennsylvania German Society.

VI. (4). Lieutenant Jacob Arndt, Jr., son of Major Jacob and Anna Elizabeth (Gieger) Arndt, was born in Rockhill Township, Bucks Co., Pa., May 14, 1756, and died, at Easton, Pa., Oct. 29, 1812. He removed, with his parents, to Forks Township, Northampton Co., Pa., about 1760. He was married to Elizabeth, daughter of Zachariah Nyce, who, before May 30, 1815, was married (2) to Francis Swain. He was a member of Captain Jacob Buss' First Company of the Fifth Battalion of *John Feit, a native of Alsace-Lorraine, was born March 16, 1714, and died April 19, 1790. He was married to Anna Maria Bender, born Nov. 26, 1715, died Sept. 29, 1790. His will, made April 27, 1789, and probated May 17, 1790, names his step-daughter, Mary, daughter of Jacob Minier; his only son, Daniel, and his daughter, Catharine. Some of the children of John and Anna Maria (Bender) Feit were: 1, Magdalene, born July 4, 1742, baptised Aug. 24, 1742; 2, Daniel, born Jan. 22, 1745, married, March 6, 1770, to Mary Kuhl, some of whose children were: (1), Rebecca, born Jan. 17, 1774; (2), John, born Dec. 8, 1777; (3), Elizabeth, born Feb. 16, 1780; (4), Paul, born Sept. 4, 1782, married to Catharine Oberly; (5), Anna, born July 8, 1785; (6), Daniel, Jr., born Oct. 17, 1787; 3, Catharine, born Dec. 24, 1750, married to Henry Deslau; 4, John, born Sept. 8, 1756; 5, Elizabeth, born May 4, 1758, died Jan. 31, 1776, aed. 17 years, 8 months, 27 days, married to Captain John Arndt.

Northampton Co. Militia, July 30, 1778, when this company was ordered to march, and June 6, 1780, and May 22, 1781, was a Lieutenant in the same Company, then in the Second Battalion. In 1790 Jacob Arndt, Jr., lived in Easton, Pa., and had in family, living at home, himself, two females and one other free person. In 1783 he was Treasurer of Northampton Co., Pa., and in 1802 he was a shopkeeper in Easton, Pa. April 25, 1802, describing himself as a shopkeeper, he executed a power of attorney to his "Trusty and loving cousin, Philip Arndt, now or late of Williams Township, (Northampton Co., Pa.). This document is recorded at Wilkes-Barre. In 1809 he was assessed as the owner of a 202 acre farm in Hanover Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., formerly a Hitchcock property, (Family No. 1174—Tuttle-Hitchcock). His will declared valid, by the Supreme Court of the Eastern District of Pa., in the March term, 1813, and was filed at Easton, Pa., March 12, 1813. It names his wife, Elizabeth, his brother Abraham, Elizabeth the wife of John Horn of Williams Township, Pa., and her children, (see family of Catharine (Arndt) Leidrich, later), his niece Margaret Saylor, widow of Peter Saylor, (Family No. 3), his niece Mary Saylor (wife of Adam Saylor, Family No. 493); Mary Faber, wife of Rev. John Faber; Anna Arndt, daughter of (Captain) John Arndt. He provided that $1,000 should be invested and $60.00 should be paid "Every year to the German Reformed Congregation of Easton, Pa., as long as the Word of God shall be preached in German and no longer."

VI. (5). Abraham, son of Major Jacob and Anna Elizabeth (Gieger) Arndt, was born Jan. 31, 1759, and died, in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., Dec. 2, 1845. He served as a private in the Company of Captain Jacob Buss in the Second Battalion of Northampton Co., Pa., Militia, in 1780 and 1781. This battalion was commanded by Lieutenant Colonel William Roup (Raub) (Family No. 947—Raub). Abraham Arndt was married to Ann, born Aug. 2, 1764, died Aug. 15, 1843, daughter of William and Anna Maria (Sharpenstein) Hahn*, and settled in Greenwich Township, Sussex Co., N. J. They died there and are buried in the St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, near Phillipsburg, N. J. Some of their children were, (order of birth uncertain): 1, Captain Jacob, born Sept. 2, 1788, died May 28, 1852, married to Sarah, born Oct. 26, 1801, died June 21, 1842, daughter of Robert and Mary Stewart of Greenwich Township, Sussex Co., N. J., (Family No. 1254—Stewart). They are buried in the Greenwich, N. J., Presbyterian Cemetery. Some of their children were: (1), Abraham S., born Nov. 15, 1820, died April 21, 1853, married to Alvirah Winters, born Dec. 8, 1823, died Aug. 10, 1909, (Greenwich Presbyterian Cemetery); (2), William Hahn, born Nov. 25, 1823, died Sept. 4, 1850; (3), Charles Thomas, born May 1, 1835, died Feb. 3, 1850; (4), Sarah, born June 30, 1837, died June 14, 1884, married to Samuel, born July 16, 1830, died June 29, 1893, son of John and Margaret (Stewart) Drake, (Family No. 1396), (Easton, Pa., Cemetery); 2, Abraham, born April 30, 1797, died May 31, 1850, married to Margaret (probably Margaret Johnson), June 15, 1820, born Oct. 24, 1801, died Feb. 27, 1856, (St. James' Cemetery, Straw Church, Phillipsburg, N. J.); 3, Mary; 4, Diana, married to John Meixel, (Family No. 939—Meixel), two of whose children were: Jacob Arndt Meixel, born Feb. 17, 1817, and Eliza Ann, born Oct. 15, 1814, married to William Smith.

V. (3). Catharine, daughter of Bernard and Anna Maria (Decker) Arndt, was married to George Leidich. One of her daughters, Catharine, was married to Michael Kolb. Jacob and Elizabeth Arndt were sponsors, Dec. 10, 1787, for Philip and

*William Hann (Hahn or Henn), born about 1704, died in 1794, and his wife, Elsie, born about 1701, died in 1791, had among their children: 1, Joseph, born Jan 23, 1734; 2, William, born about 1738, died Feb. 1, 1809; 3, Jacob, married to Catharine, daughter of Robert Colver. II. (2). William, son of William and Elsie Hann, born about 1738, died Feb. 1, 1809, was married to Anna Maria, born about 1746, died July 20, 1827, daughter of John Peter and Anna Sharpenstein, of Roxbury Township, Morris Co., N. J., (see later). Some of their children were: 1, Ann, born Aug. 2, 1764, died Aug. 15, 1843, married to Abraham Arndt, (see above); 2, Lawrence, born about 1765, married to Mary, daughter of John Hann, who died Nov. 20, 1849; 3, Mary, born Jan. 10, 1771, died Feb. 9, 1865, married, as second wife, to the Rev. H. W. Hunt; 4, Elizabeth (Hahn) Johnson; 5, Catharine, born Oct. 10, 1774; 6, Peter, born March 28, 1776. (Bib.-189, in part.)

John Peter Sharpenstein, of Roxbury, Morris Co., N. J., bought, Dec. 8, 1749, 210 acres of the Logan tract in the German Valley for $100. Letters of administration upon his estate were granted, June 2, 1760, to Ann Sharpenstein. Some of the children of John Peter Sharpenstein were: 1, Morris, born May 25, 1739, died June 30, 1827, (Hackettstown, N. J., Cemetery); 2, Maria Catharine, born Feb. 2, 1741, married, March 3, 1757, to Lawrence, son of John Hager; 3, John Peter, Jr., born 1746, died Feb. 5, 1826, married to Anna Catharine Freese, born 1753, died May 13, 1823; 4, Anna Maria, born 1746, died July 20, 1827, married to William, Jr., born 1738, died Feb. 1, 1809, son of William and Elsie Hahn; 5, Jacob, born 1747, died March 21, 1843, married to Bathsheba Nunn, born 1768, died Feb. 1, 1826; 6, George, born 1748, died Jan. 4, 1826, married to Anna Mary ———, born May 30, 1753, died March 12, 1831; 7, Antonius, married, Sept. 7, 1776, to Susannah Sweezey. (Bib.-189.)

Elizabeth Leidich, twin children of Leonard and Catharine Leidich. In his will Jacob Arndt, Jr., nephew of Catharine (Arndt) Leidich, named Elizabeth, wife of John Horn of Williams Township, and referred to her children. Probably this was Elizabeth Leidich, who was married, March 30, 1806, to John Horn, four of whose children were: (1), Elizabeth, born July 23, 1807; (2), Edmund Jacob, born Dec. 16, 1811; (3), Susanna Catharine, born March 16, 1813; (4), Adam Lewis, born Dec. 21, 1815.

V. (4). Henry Arndt, son of Bernard and Anna Maria (Decker) Arndt, was born on the ocean, in the summer of 1731, when his parents were enroute to America. A Henry Arndt was Ensign in the Pa. Militia at Fort Allen in the French and Indian War. Henry Arndt was married to a Miss Bender. Two of the sons of Henry Arndt were apparently: (1), Bernard, born Aug. 9, 1754, died at "Dryland" Feb. 14, 1827, aed. 72 years, 6 months, 5 days, and (2), Jacob. Bernard Arndt was a private in Captain George Rondenbush's Company of the Fourth Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia, commanded by Colonel John Siegfried, May 14, 1778, and, in April, 1782, was a private in Captain Jacob Klader's Company of the Third Battalion. A Henry Arndt served in Captain John Gregory's Company of the Fourth Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia, commanded by Colonel John Sherred, and Lieutenant Colonel Nicholas Kern. Philip Shupp, (Family No. 994—Shupp) was a musician ("fife or drum") in this same Company. A Henry Arndt of Chestnut Hill Township, Northampton Co., Pa., had in family in 1790 two males under 16 and two females.

In the day book of Lieutenant Colonel Jacob Schumacher, son-in-law of Major Jacob Arndt, and administrator of Major Arndt's estate, Henry Arndt is given credit with having paid £42, 11s, 10d to Jacob Arndt's estate, Feb. 6, 1806, and Dec. 25, 1805, and April 6, 1806, Bernard Arndt is credited with having paid the amount of a bond £40 and interest £2, 11s, 10d. These entries doubtless relate to the same transaction. Bernard Arndt lived in Nazareth Township, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1790 and then had in family, living at home, one male under 16 and two females.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON ARNDT; FAMILIES NOS. 1340—(1339)

Alexander Hamilton, son of John Penn and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Arndt, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 1, 1805. He removed with his parents to Green Bay, Wis., in 1824, and was later identified with some of the business enterprises of his father. He was married at New Troy, now Wyoming, Luzerne Co., Pa., Aug. 30, 1836, to Caroline M., daughter of George M. and Mary (Sharps) Albright, (Family No. 988—Sharps-Albright). He was a Sutler's Clerk at Point Isabel, Texas, and died there, a victim of yellow fever, Oct. 10, 1847. His wife died at Green Bay, Wis., and is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MARY BEIDELMAN (ARNDT) COTTON; FAMILIES NOS. 1341 (1339)

Mary Beidelman, daughter of John Penn and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Arndt, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 31, 1809, and died at Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 6, 1896. She was married, May 6, 1825, to Captain John Winslow Cotton of the United States Army. She accompanied her husband to the various posts to which he was assigned during his military career and after he resigned in 1845 they established their home in Green Bay, Wis. July 6, 1861, Mrs. Mary B. (Arndt) Cotton enlisted as nurse in the Fourth Wis. Vol. Inf., and served one year. She is buried, with her husband, in Woodlawn Cemetery, Green Bay, Wis.

Captain John Winslow Cotton was born in Plymouth, Mass., March 29, 1800, and died in Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 10, 1878. He was appointed Cadet, from Massachusetts, in the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., June 24, 1819, and was graduated July 1, 1823, with promotion to Brevet Second Lieutenant, Fifth Infantry, United States Army. On the same day he was appointed Second Lieutenant in the Third United States Infantry. He served as Second Lieutenant on frontier duty at Fort St. Anthony, Minn., in 1823-4; at Fort Howard, Wis., in 1824-5; on recruiting service in 1825-6; on frontier duty at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1826-7. He was promoted First Lieutenant of the Third United States Infantry, Oct. 4, 1827, and served at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1827-8; at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., in 1828-9; at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1829-30; in the Choctaw Nation campaign of 1830-31; at Fort Jessup, La., 1831-5. He was granted "sick leave" of absence from 1835 to 1837, and Nov. 15, 1836, was promoted Captain in the Third Infantry. He was on frontier duty at Fort Towson, Indian Territory, in 1837-39; on recruiting service in 1839-42; on garrison duty at Fort Stansbury, Fla., in 1842-3; at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1843-4, and at Fort Jessup, La., in 1844-5. He resigned Nov. 3, 1845. He was Sutler to the Third Infantry in 1845-7; Superintendent of Schools at Bellevue, Wis., in 1855; President of the Brown Co., Wis., Agricultural Society in 1858. Further reference to the career of Captain Cotton may be found in "Historic Green Bay" and Wisconsin Historical Society publications.

Some of the children of Captain John Winslow and Mary Beidelman (Arndt) Cotton were: 1, John Rossiter, born at Plymouth, Mass., July 6, 1826, died at Chicago, Ill., Dec. 24, 1899, married (Family No. 1342), Feb. 23, 1858, to Carrie Augusta Redfern, born at Moline, Ill., May 9, 1858, died at Chicago, Ill., Dec. 31, 1900, whose children were: (1), Robert Anderson, born at Chicago, Ill., July 28, 1861, married (Family No. 1343) to ———; (2), Frank Hathway, born Sept. 6, 1864, died Nov. 25, 1875; (3), John Cotton, born Feb. 16, 1874, died Nov. 26, 1875; 2, Elizabeth Arndt, born in 1829, died July 29, 1880, married (Family No. 1344) to Charles Royal Tylor, born about 1822, died Aug. 7, 1872, some of whose children were: (1), Augusta Ellis; (2), Louis; (3), Winslow Cotton, born Dec. 23, 1851, married (Family No. 1345), April 11, 1877, at Milwaukee, Wis., to Mary Parker, born at Peru, Ill., Sept. 23, 1853. He died at Sioux City, Iowa, March 29, 1892. Some of their children were: i, Charles Royal, born at Fort Howard, Wis., Feb. 23, 1878; ii, Mary Parker, born at Redwood Falls, Minn., Feb. 10, 1880; iii, Elizabeth Dean, born at Kasota, Minn., Sept. 17, 1887; (4), James Howe, born 1854, died Dec. 29, 1879; (5), Priscilla Cotton, born 1862, died Sept. 12, 1878; (6), Julia Beaumont; (7), Deane, married (Family No. 1346) to Walter B. CHARLES COATESWORTH PINCKNEY ARNDT; FAMILIES NOS. 1356—(1339)

Charles Coatesworth Pinckney, son of John Penn and Elizabeth (Carpenter) Arndt, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 31, 181—, and was shot and instantly killed, in the Wisconsin Council Chamber, by James R. Vineyard, Feb. 11, 1842. He accompanied his parents, when they removed to Buffalo, N. Y., about 1819, later to Mackinac Island and finally, in Sept., 1874, to Green Bay, Wis. He was a student in Lafayette College at Easton, Pa., for some time, and while there was President of one of the College Debating Societies. Later he was a student at Rutgers College, where he was graduated, in 1832. He engaged in the study of law in the office of Attorney Jones in Easton, Pa., and was admitted to the Northampton Co., Pa., Bar. In 1834 he had returned to Green Bay, Wis., and was associated with A. G. Ellis in the ownership of The Intelligencer. In Sept., 1841, he became the editor of the Green Bay Republican. He was admitted to the Bar of Brown Co., Wis., in 1837, and, in 1838, served as Register of the Court of Probate. In 1839-40-41 and 1842 he was a member of the Wisconsin Legislative Council. It was while he was a member of this body, having succeeded his father as the member from Brown Co., that he was shot by Vineyard, supposedly as a result of a political altercation. Full details of the tragedy which terminated the unusually promising public career of Charles Coatesworth Pinckney Arndt may be found in the publications of the Wisconsin Historical Society. He was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Green Bay, Wis.

Charles Coatesworth Pinckney Arndt was married, by the Rev. Joseph H. Jones, at New Brunswick, N. J., June 5, 1835, to Catharine A. Vol. Inf., and after eighteen months' service was discharged on account of disability. In 1865 he re-listed and remained in the service until the close of the Civil War. About 1867 he removed from Green Bay to De Pere and engaged in the milling business as a member of the firm of Wilcox and Tyler. The firm name became Tyler and Arndt in 1872 and Arndt Brothers and Company in 1880, Randal Wilcox Arndt becoming a member of the later firm. In 1879 Edward Wilcox Arndt was Secretary-Treasurer of the Novelty Manufacturing Company of De Pere, Wis. Later Edward Wilcox Arndt became a member of the firm of Arndt, Thompson and Company, wholesale flour merchants, with offices at 830 Board of Trade Building, Boston, Mass. He is now (1919) retired from active business. Edward Wilcox Arndt was married, June 9, 1869, at Fond du Lac, Wis., to Mary Ulm, born at Waverly, N. Y., in 1844, daughter of Edmund and Phebe Ann Delaney, and their son, Walter Tallmage Arndt, was born Oct. 11, 1872. They were living, in 1916, in Haynes City, Fla.

WALTER TALLMAGE ARNDT; FAMILIES NOS. 1364—(1363)

Walter Tallmage, son of Edward Wilcox and Mary Ellen (Delaney) Arndt, was born Oct. 11, 1872. He is a graduate of Harvard University and, for several years, was identified with the publishing house of Dodd, Mead and Company, first as one of the editors of their Year Book and also as one of the office editors of their International Encyclopedia, contributing more than 1,500 articles, nearly all of which were biographical sketches, to that publication. He was also on the staff of the latest edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica. For a number of years he served as Political Editor of the New York Evening Post and, in 1913, was Executive Secretary of the "Municipal Government Association of New York," and one of the Secretaries of the New York Constitutional Amendment Convention, held in Albany, the same year. He was married, June 9, 1904, to Ethel, daughter of James Quay Howard, of Washington, D. C., and they have one son, Howard Wilcox Arndt, born Feb. 22, 1906.

ELCEY MORGAN (ARNDT) LAWTON; FAMILIES NOS. 1365
(1362)

Elcey Morgan, born in Green Bay, Wis., Nov. 27, 1846, daughter of Captain John Wallace and Mary Catharine (Wilcox) Arndt, was married, Sept. 5, 1866, to Charles Augustus, born in Pottsville, Pa., Dec. 16, 1844, son of Joseph Grellet, born Feb. 14, 1822, died Nov. 2, 1896, and Ellen Ver-genia (Baird) Lawton, born Nov. 19, 1823, died March 4, 1898. He served in the 47th Regiment, Wis. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War and was President of the Novelty Manufacturing Company of De Pere, Wis. He died at Nas-sau, Bahama Islands, in March, 1917, and is buried in De Pere, Wis. The children of Charles Augustus and Elcey Morgan (Arndt) Lawton are: 1, Edward Wallace, born Aug. 2, 1867, married (Family No. 1366), Sept. 9, 1900, to Helen, born in Menasha, Wis., March 25, 1878, daughter of Ira Wadleigh and Laura Barlow (Shepard) Davis, and their son, Charles Augustus, was born July 25, 1904; 2, Ellen Baird, born April 9, 1869, married (Family No. 1367), Dec. 29, 1906, to Francisco Henry, son of William Henry and Massey (Givens) Wilson. They lived at Fort Worth, Texas, where Francisco H. Wilson was engaged in the cotton business. He died there Feb. 14, 1916. He was born in Brandywine, Pa., in 1864.

EMILY HAYES (ARNDT) LOY; FAMILIES NOS. 1368—(1363)

Emily Hayes, daughter of Captain John Wallace and Mary Catharine (Wilcox) Arndt, born in Green Bay, Wis., March 26, 1848, died Aug. 2, 1909, at her home, 831 North First street, Alhambra, Calif. She was married, Sept. 7, 1869, to Peter Schell Loy, born June 10, 1846, son of David M. and Ann Rebecca (Schell) Loy, (Loy-Schell families later).

Peter Schell Loy was born in Schellsburg, Bedford Co., Pa., and, in Sept., 1847, removed, with his parents, to De Pere, Wis. He attended various schools, some public and some private, in De Pere, and, at intervals, when not attending school, packed and jointed shingles. June 23, 1862, he hired out to work as a clerk in Merrell's general store and, Aug. 20, 1863, he entered the employ of John I. Black in Minneapolis, Minn., as a clerk in his store. Returning to De Pere, he attended Lawrence University, at Apple-ton, Wis., for a short time and then hired out to learn the tinner's trade with Theodore C. Bromley. In about two years he opened a shop of his own in connection with the general store owned by his brother, Elwood Loy. He continued this business until Elwood Loy and Company bought the Stephen Burrows sawmill and site on the Fox River dam and built a three-story factory building on the site, when he entered their employ. He then started a hardware, tinware and farming implements business and continued in that line until 1888. In 1886-7 he bought lands on the Pike and Wausaukee River and engaged in lumbering. In Jan., 1888, in connection with his lumbering enterprises, he began his career as a railroad and general contractor. His first railroad contract was for the construction of five miles of track for the Milwaukee Northern Railway Company. He continued these lines of activity in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan until 1904. Among the railroad companies for which he did construction work were the following: Milwaukee Northern, Abbotsford Northeastern St. Paul Railway Company, Port Edward, Centralia and Northern Milwaukee, The Rapid Transit Company, Milwaukee Motor Line Company, Waukesha Beach Railway, Waukesha Electric Railway, Wisconsin Central, Wisconsin and Michigan, Soo Railway, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, De Pere, Wisconsin Electric, and Wrightstown, Wis., Electric. He also did the grading on several new subdivisions of the city of Milwaukee and the excavating for a number of large manufacturing plants. After more than 50 years' residence in De Pere, Wis., Mr. Loy removed with his family to Milwaukee, Wis., and in Dec., 1904, went to Phoenix, Ariz., where he remained, with his family, during the winter. On the 17th of March, 1905, they arrived in Los Angeles, Calif., and there established their new home. Since his arrival in California Mr. Loy has continued in the contracting business, carrying on the grading of streets, construction of sewers, building of fences, laying of gas and water pipes, etc. He built all the fences around the Exposition grounds in Los Angeles. Mr. Loy has been an earnest and tireless searcher for data pertaining to the history of the various families from which he is descended. To him the present writer is indebted for many courtesies and for practically all the information he has pertaining to the Loy, Schell and related families. The Peter Schell Loy Scrap Book, the gathering of the material for which has been the work of a lifetime, is a priceless family treasure. The children of Peter Schell and Emily Hayes (Arndt) Loy are: 1, Charlotte Watson, born in De Pere, Wis., Sept. 14, 1871, married, Aug. 13, 1899, at Eastman Springs, Benton Harbor, Mich., (Family No. 1369), by the Rev. William J. Cady, of the Congregational Church, to Jacob Edward, son of Jacob John and Mary Drescher, Superintendent of the Conway Calumet Company of Milwaukee, Wis. They live at 3710 Park Hill avenue, Milwaukee, Wis.; 2, Mary Wilcox Arndt, born at De Pere, Wis., March 10, 1873, married (Family No. 1370), May 9, 1902, at the home of her parents, 96 Eleventh street, Milwaukee, Wis., to Dr. Vet S., son of John and Mary (Whitehead) Baird of Monroe, Wis. He was graduated by the Milwaukee Medical College April 14, 1902, and began practice at Waterford, Wis., in 1903. They now live at 221 Ninth street, Milwaukee, Wis., and have two children: (1), Loy Schell, born Jan. 6, 1903, and (2), Charlotte Annah, born Feb. 23, 1916. Dr. Vet S. Baird was transferred, May 14, 1898, from the Wisconsin State Militia to Company H, First Regiment, Wis. Vol. Inf., for service in the Spanish War. He was honorably discharged Oct. 19, 1898; 3, Annah Rebecca, born at De Pere, Wis., Dec. 31, 1878, married (Family No. 1371), at San Gabriel Mission Church, San Gabriel, Calif., April 22, 1908, to Charles David, born in Savannah, Los Angeles Co., Calif., July 27, 1873, son of J. C. and Elizabeth (Carr) Hannah of San Gabriel. They live at Beaumont, Calif., where Charles David Hannah is a rancher, and have one child, Cherril Loy, a son, born Nov. 24, 1911.

THE LOY FAMILY

I. Martin Loy was born in Baden, Germany, about 1752, and came to America about 1774, where he settled in Bucks Co., Pa. He was married, in 1782, to Margaretta Hoffman and, in 1788, removed from Bucks Co., Pa., to Woodbury Township, Bedford Co. At about this time he bought from the Hon. Charles Cox, who died at Sidney, Hunterdon Co., N. J., two large tracts of land known as the "Joshua Fisher" and the "Joseph Sims" tracts. The original deed to these tracts was lost and, June 6, 1826, a release, to Martin Loy, or to his heirs, was executed by the heirs of Charles Cox. Martin Loy first settled in what was then called Morrison's Cove, on Clover Creek, and at the base of the Cove Mountain. He later removed to the portion of the Joseph Sims tract upon which the town of Loysburg was subsequently built. This tract included the lands where Yellow Creek and Beaver Run unite near, or in, the gap of Tussey Mountain. After the decease of Martin Loy the Joshua Fisher tract, of 479 acres, and about half of the Joseph Sims tract became the property of his son, David, while the portion of the latter tract upon which Loysburg stands was owned by his son, Martin, Jr. Soon after his removal to his second location Martin Loy, Sr., erected a grist mill on his property and, in addition to farming and milling, conducted a store, before 1820. The old store room was small and built of hewn logs. It was subsequently moved across the road and was occupied as a store as late as 1831. In 1820 Martin Loy, Sr., retired from active business and the property, at Loysburg, was bought by his son, Martin, who, in 1837, tore down the old mill and built a new one on the same site. Martin Loy, Sr., died in 1826, aged about 72 years, buried beside his wife, Margaretta (Hoffman) Loy, who died Jan. 9, 1800, aged 46 years, in the Cemetery at Loysburg. Their children were: (1), Martin, Jr., born April 28, 1784, died Jan. 1, 1847; (2), Christina, born about 1786, married to Martin Bowser, lived at Kittanning, Pa.; (3), Catharine, born about 1788, married to ——— Stineman of Brush Valley, Indiana Co., Pa.; (4), David, born about 1790, married to Elizabeth, born Feb. 11, 1795, died at Loysburg, Pa., March 14, 1840, daughter of William and Isabella (Ferguson) Davis, buried in the Loysburg Cemetery. David Loy removed about 1844 to Davenport, Iowa, married (2) to Keziah Robison.

II. (1). Colonel Martin, Jr., son of Martin and Margaretta (Hoffman) Loy, was born in Bucks Co., Pa., April 28, 1784, and removed with his parents, in 1788, to Morrison's Cove, Bedford Co., Pa. He was married, Oct. 28, 1808, at the home of the bride, in Snake Creek Valley, Bedford Co., Pa., to Elizabeth, born Jan. 21, 1790, in Snake Creek Valley, daughter of John and Annie (Mortimer) Ferguson.* Martin Loy, Jr., was a farmer, miller and merchant at Loysburg. He was also the first Postmaster there and served until 1838, when he was succeeded by his son, John F. Loy, appointed Nov. 23, 1838, who served until 1843, when he removed to

*I. Hugh Ferguson, who died in 1810, in the Snake Spring Valley (now Providence Township), Bedford Co., Pa., was married to Elizabeth ———, and their children were: (1), John, (see later); (2), Ilean, married to William Rider or Riddle; (3), Mary (Ferguson) Moore; (4), Anna (Ferguson) Gilson; (5), Rebecca (Ferguson) Lafferty; (6), Joseph; (8), Isabella, married to William Davis, whose daughter, Elizabeth, born 1790, died March 14, 1840, was married to David Loy, (see above). Hugh Ferguson made his will June 8, 1805, and it was probated April 4, 1810, in Bedford Co., Pa.

II. (1). John, son of Hugh and Elizabeth Ferguson, was married to Annie Mortimer, sister of James Mortimer, who was married to Elizabeth Ferguson. She was born in 1751 and died in 1826, (Loysburg Cemetery). Their children were: Joseph; William; John, married to Hannah Stutzman; James, lived near Canton, Fulton Co., Ill., died in 1851; Samuel; Jane, married to Peter Newman, lived in Sewickley, Pa., in 1848; Elizabeth, born Jan. 21, 1790, died Sept. 18, 1861, at New Castle, Pa., (buried there), married, Oct. 28, 1808, to Martin Loy, Jr.; Isabella, born 1800, married to Daniel Davis, lived and died near Loysburg, Pa.; Mary, not married.

Bedford, Pa. Martin Loy, Jr., was also a Colonel of the Bedford County Militia, and represented Bedford Co. in the Pennsylvania Assembly in 1838-40. In 1844 he removed to Schellsburg and died there Jan. 1, 1847. He is buried at Bedford, Pa. His widow, Mrs. Elizabeth (Ferguson) Loy, removed with her family to New Castle, Lawrence Co., Pa., where she died Sept. 8, 1861, and was buried. Martin Loy, Jr., made very extensive improvements upon the Loysburg property. In 1837 he built a new mill upon the site of the old one, built by his father. Referring to the improvements in 1822-33, John F. Loy, his son, wrote, in 1886, "The brick house was built in 1822. The bricks were made on the farm, near the house, by John Bridahan and Michael Herring of Bedford. Eli Fluck was the stonemason who built the foundation. Obadiah Blair was the bricklayer, and Captain George Fore was the carpenter. He also did the carpenter work of the frame house and also of the store house which was built in 1832-3."....."The Loysburg property was sold in 1844 to James Patton and Colonel John Bingham. James Patton changed the name of the community from Loysburgh to Pattonville."

The children of Martin, Jr., and Elizabeth (Ferguson) Loy were: 1, John Ferguson, born Jan. 31, 1810, died at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 8, 1889, merchant and Postmaster at Loysburg, Pa.; 1838, removed to Bedford, Pa., 1843, later to Pittsburgh, Pa., where, for 30 years, associated with White, Orr and Co., married, April 18, 1832, to Mary Abby, born at Bedford, Pa., Feb. 16, 1810, died at Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 23, 1894, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth (Churchman) McDowell; 2, Mary, born Sept. 5, 1812, died at New Castle, Pa., Jan. 19, 1888, married (1), April 18, 1839, to James Burns, born at Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 22, 1812, died at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 21, 1847, son of Samuel and ——— (Burns) Frampton, married (2), in 1857, as second wife, to Thomas McCleary of New Castle, born June 23, 1814, died March 13, 1889; 3, Martin Bowser, born Jan. 26, 1814, died at Springfield, Ohio, March 26, 1893, served in the 44th Regiment, Ohio Vol. Inf., in the Civil War. III. (4). Major David M., son of Martin, Jr., and Elizabeth (Ferguson) Loy, was born at Loysburg, Pa., Nov. 13, 1816, and died in De Pere, Wis., Aug. 30, 1873. He was, for a number of years, a merchant in Bedford, Pa., and, April 21, 1848, became a member of Bedford Lodge, No. 202, I. O. O. F., of Bedford. He was also a member of the Washington Monument Association, his membership certificate carrying the signature of Z. Taylor, President. He was appointed Captain of the Third Company, First Regiment, First Brigade, Twelfth Division, by Colonel William Ferguson, and his commission was signed by John Sipes, Brigadier General. March 19, 1847, he was commissioned by Governor Francis R. Shunk, of Pennsylvania, Major of the Schellburg Battalion, First Brigade, Twelfth Division, Pa. State Militia, comprising troops from Bedford, Somerset and Cambria Cos. In 1847 David M. Loy removed with his family to De Pere, Wis., where he became one of the leading spirits in the development of the resources of that section. He was connected with various enterprises in and about De Pere. He was a successful railroad contractor and among his undertakings was the building of the Milwaukee and Horicon Railroad. He also placed a line of steamers on the lake and for a number of years successfully operated them. He was married, June 2, 1842, to Ann Rebecca, born July 7, 1819, died March 12, 1903, at De Pere, Wis., daughter of Peter and Eleanor (Statler) Schell, (Schell-Statler later), and their children were: 1, Elwood, born at Somerset, Pa., Nov. 3, 1843, for some years a merchant at De Pere, Wis., died at Springtown, Benton Co., Ark., Dec. 5, 1894, married to Mrs. Sarah E. (Yarbough) Jones* of Selma, Ala., Sept. 21, 1873; 2, Peter Schell, born at Schellsburgh, Pa., June 10, 1846, married, at De Pere, Wis., Sept. 7, 1869, to Emily Hayes, daughter of Captain John Wallace and Mary Catharine (Wilcox) Arndt, (Family No. 1368); 3, Edwin Thompson Cox, born Oct. 18, 1849, died June 15, 1856; 4, William Alonzo Slote, born March 17, 1851, accidentally killed on the steamboat Morgan L. Loy family burial plot is in Woodlawn Cemetery, De Pere, Wis.

I. Michael Schell was born in the German Palatinate in 1675 and came to Philadelphia, Pa., via Rotterdam, in 1732. He settled near Goshenhoppen, Philadelphia, (now Montgomery) Co., where he purchased 100 acres of land, in Hanover Township, in the same year. It appears that he returned to his native land and came again to America, in the ship Nancy, and qualified Sept. 20, 1738. He was married to Veronica ———. His will, made May 27, 1768, probated Feb. 19, 1770, names the following children: (1), Jacob, of Virginia; (2), Michael, Jr., of Berks Co., Pa.; (3), Mary, married to Henry Sell of Northampton Co., Pa.; (4), John Michael Schell, died in Goshenhoppen in 1770.

II. (4). John, son of Michael and Veronica Schell, was born in the German Palatinate Jan. 22, 1729, and died in Goshenhoppen prior to 1782. He was married, in 1753, to Veronica, born 1732, died Feb. 8, 1815, daughter of Jacob and Sophia Maurer. His son, John, Jr., and his son-in-law, Jacob Leidy, were appointed administrators of his estate with Peter Hillegas on their bond. The inventory of his estate describes personal property valued at £1,404, 19s, 1d, and was filed in May, 1782. In the same year a petition was filed in the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia Co. praying for a distribution of property valued at £1,261, 16s. The children of John and Veronica (Maurer) Schell, who survived him, were: (1), John, Jr., born 1754, died March 30, 1825, (see later); (2), Maria, married, Feb. 20, 1776, to John Mack; (3), Veronica, married to Jacob Leidy; (4), Catharine, married to Michael Huffman; (5), Susannah, married, April 15, 1788, to Peter Hollobush. Michael Schell deeded to his son, John Schell, part of the 147 acres he bought in 1732. John Schell is named as a trustee in 1749, in a deed conveying lands to the Goshenhoppen congregation for a burial lot.

III. John, Jr., son of John and Veronica (Maurer) Schell, was born Nov. 30, 1754, in Philadelphia Co., Pa., and was married to Elizabeth, born Oct. 17, 1763, died July 10, 1842, daughter of George Peter and Anna Barbara (Hornecker) Hillegas,†

*Mrs. Sarah E. (Yarbough) Jones was a daughter of T. H. Yarbrough (or Yarbough), who was born in 1817, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elwood Loy, Oct. 24, 1898. He is said to have been a classmate of Alexander H. Stevens. He was a lawyer and a teacher and served in the Confederate Army. He was Superintendent of Public Instruction in Dallas Co., Ala., and, in 1893, removed to Arkansas.

†John Frederick Hillegas, born in Alsace, Nov. 24, 1685, with his wife, Elizabeth Barbara, sailed for America in the ship "William and Mary," and, at Philadelphia, Sept. 21, 1727, took the oath of allegiance. They settled at Goshenhoppen, now Montgomery Co., Pa. He died Jan. 6, 1765. His will was made June 25, 1759, translated and probated July 31, 1765, and named Matthew Reichard and George Peter Hillegas executors. The surviving children of John Frederick Hillegas were: (1), Leopold, who came to America Sept. 5, 1730, served three years in the American Revolution, and settled finally at Esopus, N. Y.; (2), John Adam, born 1719, died 1779, married to Anna Catharine Bitting, born 1728, died 1810; (3), Frederick, settled finally at Esopus, N. Y.; (4), George Peter, born Feb. 2, 1735, died Sept. 24, 1810, (see later); (5), Conrad; (6), Eva Elizabeth; (7), Ann Margaret; (8), Ann Regina; (9), Elizabeth Barbara, (order of birth not known to writer).

George Peter, born Feb. 2, 1735, died Sept. 24, 1810, son of John Frederick and Elizabeth Barbara Hillegas, was married to Anna Barbara Hornecker, who was born in 1737 and died March 14, 1812. They are buried in the German Reformed Church Yard at New Goshenhoppen. Their children were, (order of birth not known): (1), Eva, married to Abraham Levy; (2), John; and their children were: (1), John, born Oct. 30, 1782, died April 11, 1859, married to Margaret Michaels; (2), Peter, born Aug. 1, 1784, died Oct. 28, 1862, (see later); (3), Abraham, born Feb. 23, 1787, died April 11, 1859, married (2) to Jane Calvin; (4), Jacob, born May 28, 1789, died Oct. 10, 1834, married to Maria Dannaker; (5), George Michael, born Nov. 20, 1791, died July 3, 1811, not married; (6), Elizabeth, born Jan. 4, 1794, died April 20, 1854, married to Michael Reed; (7), Henry, born March 22, 1797, married to Louisa Koontz of Somerset Co., Pa.; (8), Joseph, born Sept. 4, 1799, died July, 1863, married, Dec. 3, 1839, to Sarah Hazzard Perry, buried at West Liberty, Iowa; (9), Catharine, born Nov. 24, 1801, died June 13, 1809; (10), Maria, born March 30, 1804, married to Peter Levy; (11), Eve, born April 4, 1807, married, May 29, 1827, to Benjamin Blymer. She died at Mansfield, Ohio.

John Schell, Jr., removed from Montgomery Co., Pa., to Bedford Co., Pa., erected from Cumberland, March 1771, about 1800. He purchased about 1,500 acres of land in Bedford Co., June 1, 1801, which was known as the "Nine Mile Tavern," and was so described in the patent to James Anderson, dated 1776. He also bought a 500 acre tract known as "Pekin." On the first named tract, situated on the old state road from Bedford to Pittsburgh, he laid out the town of Schellsburg, Nov. 9, 1808. He had built his large house, with accommodations for an inn and a store, soon after June, 1801, and in 1803 was a licensed innkeeper. Three years later he removed to his farm and mill property, a short distance west of Schellsburg, where he died June 30, 1825. He gave to the town of Schellsburg several lots of land to be devoted to religious and educational purposes. He also donated several acres for a church lot and cemetery, March 17, 1807. The deed names as the consideration "as well for and in consideration of the marked respect and veneration which I have for the Christian religion, as of the sum of $1.00.....to me in hand paid by the Lutheran and Calvinistic congregations, on the waters of Shawanese Cabin Creek." This cemetery and church lot were a part of the "Pekin" tract. The old log church on the lot was "under roof" in 1806, and the cemetery has been used since that year. Mrs. Veronica Schell, mother of John Schell, Jr., is buried there, together with representatives of four generations of her descendants, including John Schell, Jr., and his wife Elizabeth (Hillegas) Schell. He died in Philadelphia Co., Pa., March 30, 1825, and she also died there July 10, 1842.

IV. (2). *Casper Statler, of the Conococheague settlement, in what is now Franklin Co., Pa., was born about 1740. He served as Ensign in Captain Ward's Company, First Battalion, Pa. Regiment, Colonel Armstrong in command, at Fort Bedford in April, 1759. The regiment accompanied General Forbes' Army in the reduction of Fort Du Quesne in 1758. In 1762 he went to a tract of land lying along the military road over which he had passed as soldier, and a few years later erected his house and established his home there, on the western slope of the Allegheny Mountain, in Shed's or Shade Township, now Somerset Co., Pa. He was located there prior to 1770 and in 1778 was granted a license as an innkeeper on recommendation by the Court of Quarter Sessions of Bedford Co. He owned extensive tracts of land in Bedford and Somerset Cos. He was married, about 1762-3, to Rebecca Walter. She was born about 1745 in the Conococheague settlement, and was a daughter of Joseph Walter, who arrived in Philadelphia Dec. 30, 1740, on the ship "Robert and Mary," and who, in 1751, was one of the taxables at Conococheague, Antrim Township. With several members of his family, Joseph Walter was killed by Indians, who raided the settlement, early in Nov., 1755. Mrs. Walter was attending services at the White Church, in which the Rev. John Steele, Presbyterian; was conducting Divine Worship at the time of the invasion. Joseph Walter, with some of his own and some of the neighbor's children, had remained at his home. Rebecca Walter and others of the children were made captives. Later Rebecca was scalped, but through the kindly ministrations of a squaw her life was saved. She remained in captivity from the Sunday in Nov., 1755, until Thursday, Aug. 13, 1762, when she was surrendered, with other captives, to Lieutenant Governor James Hamilton at Lancaster, Pa., (see Colonial Records, Pa., Vol. 8, p. 728). THE ROSEBERRY FAMILY (ROSENBERGER, ROSENBERRY)

The Roseberry family was represented in Greenwich Township, Morris, now Warren Co., N. J., as early as 1745, and probably for some time previous to that year. Some of the pioneers of the family there were: 1, Michael; 2, Johannes Yost, and 3, Johannes Rosenberger. It is claimed by some of their descendants that the family came from England. The above named pioneers of the family, however, were all affiliated with the original Lutheran Church (Bib.-23) at Easton, Pa. Michael and Johannes Jost Rosenberger were members and supporters of this early church.

1. Michael Roseberry, one of the pioneers of the family in Greenwich, N. J., was probably the Michael Roseberry, who died, intestate, in Greenwich, for whose estate Robert Campbell and Mary Roseberry were appointed administrators Jan. 23, 1775. His name appears as that of one of the early supporters of the original Lutheran Church of Easton, Pa. Another Michael Roseberry, of Greenwich, N. J., who may have been Michael, the pioneer, made his will Oct. 30, 1772. It was probated Jan. 29, 1780, and is filed at Trenton, N. J. It names his brothers, Joseph and Michael, the son of Joseph; Catharine (Maurer) Phillips, wife of William Phillips; Mary Mannon, wife of William Mannon of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa.; Philip, Johannes, Elizabeth, John, Lydda and Margaret, children of William Phillips of Greenwich. A third Michael Roseberry lived in Moore Township, Northampton Co., Pa. His will, made May 14, 1770, was probated at Easton, Pa., July 31, 1773, refers to his wife as living, and names his children, John, Michael, Philip, Henry Marischa and Elizabeth.

2. I. Johannes Jost Rosenberger was, apparently, married twice. His first wife was Agnetta _____ (or Antoinette W. _____), and their son: 1, Hans Michael, born Sept. 25, 1745, was baptised Aug. 10, 1746, (Bib.-23). His second wife was Hannah Sarah _____, and some of their children were: 2, Johannes, born July 6, 1747, baptised Aug. 9, 1747, Johannes and Maria Sarah Bartholomew, sponsors; 3, Elizabeth, born Nov. 1, 1749, baptised July 1, 1750; 4, Maria Matilda, born Nov. 1, 1749, baptised July 1, 1750; Adam Smith and Catharine Pens; Jacob Pens and his wife; the grandmother of Catharine Pens; Elizabeth Leders and the wife of Michael Leders; Peter and Ann Maria (Faber) Moehlich, sponsors; 5, Hannah (or Anna) Catharine, born Nov. 13, 1756, baptised Nov. 20, 1756, Ludwig Ditman and Catharin Lantz, sponsors.

The will of a Joseph Roseberry, perhaps Johannes Jost Roseberry, was made in Bloom Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., and was probated, at Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 19, 1799. Andrew Melick and Peter Van Natter signed the will as witnesses. It names his son, Joseph; his daughter, Mary, married to Edward Crawford; his daughter, Hannah, apparently a widow; his daughter, Deborah, married to John Davis; his grandson, Joseph Roseberry; his granddaughter, Sarah (Stockley) Cooper, wife of Cornelius Cooper. He provided that his Negro, Sampson, and his wife, Hannah, should be set free if they chose. Aug. 5, 1808, Samuel Boone and Gabriel Lount, executors of the will of Joseph Roseberry, late of Bloom Township, sold to Andrew Melick of Bloom Township, for £478, the farm on Big Fishing Creek, where Andrew Melick lived, and the farm then occupied by Edward Crawford.

II. (2). Johannes, born July 6, 1747, son of Johannes Jost and Hannah Sarah Roseberry, was married to Margaret, daughter of William and Catharine (Maurer) Phillips, (see footnote later), and some of their children were: 1, William, probably William, born July 10, 1767, died March 16, 1810, married to Mary Mackay; 2, Michael, born July 26, 1775, (see later); 3, Catharine; 4, Hannah, married to Henry Winters; 5, John; 6, Joseph; 7, Henry.

III. (2). Michael, son of Johannes and Margaret (Phillips) Roseberry, born July 26, 1775, baptised Aug. 27, 1775, Michael and Margaret Roseberry, sponsors, died Aug. 17, 1849, was married (1) to Elizabeth Feit, and (2), May 13, 1799, to Margaret Mackey, born Feb. 7, 1780, died Nov. 17, 1816. (Straw Church Cemetery), and their children were: 1, Mary, born July 18, 1800, died Oct. 15, 1851, married to Jesse, born Sept. 9, 1793, died Nov. 25, 1882, son of Lieutenant Thomas and Rachel (DeWees) Stewart, (Family No. 1254—Stewart-DeWees); 2, John M., born March 16, 1802, died Nov. 13, 1874, married to Sarah Klein, born Jan. 12, 1805, died May 30, 1832, (Straw Church Cemetery); 3, Joseph M., born Oct. 5, 1804, baptised Nov. 30, 1804, died Aug. 24, 1887, (Belvidere, N. J., Cemetery), married to Sally Ann De Pue, born Jan. 31, 1815, died May 30, 1886; 4, Elizabeth, married (1) to John Kline, married (2) to Jacob Lovell; 5, Michael, Jr., married to Rachel Young; 6, Jeremiah; 7, Margaret, married to Henry Seip; Michael Roseberry was married (3) to Elizabeth Runyan and their children were: 8, Isabella, married to John Allshouse; 9, Martha Valeria, born July 19, 1825, married to Samuel Abel, born April 13, 1821, died Oct. 11, 1865; 10, Henrietta, born July 17, 1827, died Oct. 8, 1858, married to William Sharps (Family No. 988—Sharps), born Feb. 18, 1827, died June 6, 1857; 11, Robert; 12, Charles E.; 13, Louisa. Michael Roseberry and his second wife, Margaret (Mackey) Roseberry, are buried in St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, near Phillipsburg, N. J.

3. I. Johannes Rosenberger and Maria Margaret Maurer* were married, March 28, 1749, and some of their children were: 1, Johannes, Jr., born July 29, 1750, baptised Sept. 2, 1750, (see later); 2, Hannah, born Aug. 16, 1752, baptised June 21, 1753, Johannes Jost and Hannah Sarah Rosenberger, sponsors; 3, Catharine, born July 25, 1757, baptised Nov. 20, 1757, Peter Lantz and Catharine Phillips, sponsors; 4, William, to whose estate reference is made in the will of Johannes Rosenberger, Jr., made Dec. 21, 1821, and probated Nov. 9, 1835; 5, Joseph, probably Joseph, born April 23, 1762, died April 12, 1847, who with his wife, Fanny, born in 1766, died July 14, 1849, is buried in St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, Phillipsburg, N. J. Two of the children of Joseph and Fanny Roseberry were: (1), John P., born in 1785, died in 1841, married, Oct. 5, 1808, to Anna, daughter of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, (Family No. 1453); (2), Mary, married to John P. Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps); 6, Michael; 7, Sally.

II. (1). Johannes, Jr., son of Johannes and Maria Margaret (Maurer) Roseberry, was born July 29, 1750, was baptised Sept. 2, 1750, and died Nov. 19, 1827. He was married to Hannah ———, born in 1756, died Dec. 1, 1818. They are buried in St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, Phillipsburg, N. J. His will was made in Greenwich, N. J., Dec. 22, 1826, and was probated Nov. 9, 1835. It is also recorded in Easton, Pa. It names his sons, Jacob, William, John and Godfrey; his sons-in-law, William Miller and Jacob Hinkle, and his granddaughter, Marietta, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Meixell, (Family No. 929—Meixell). It also refers to the estate of his brother, William. He owned a farm on Shamokin Creek in the Susquehanna River section of Pennsylvania, which he gave to Marietta Meixell. The children of John and Hannah Roseberry were: 1, Jacob, born March 12, 1775, died Oct. 21, 1845, married to Margaret ———, born Nov. 8, 1780, died Dec. 21, 1851, (St. James Cemetery); 2, William, born Jan. 23, 1777, baptised (Reformed Church, Easton), Nov. 16, 1777; 3, Margaret, born Dec. 21, 1779, baptised April 2, 1780, (Straw Church); 4, Johannes (3d), born Jan. 12, 1782, baptised April 7, 1782; 5, Catharine, born Jan. 4, 1784, baptised Jan. 25, 1784, (see later); 6, Isaac, born May 6, 1786, baptised July 9, 1786, died Feb. 11, 1787; 7, Michael, born Jan. 13, 1788, baptised March 2, 1788; 8, Elizabeth, married to Daniel Meixell (Family No. 929—Meixell); 9, a daughter, married to Jacob Hickel; 10, Godfried, born April 1, 1796, baptised Oct. 9, 1796, died Aug. 6, 1845.

SARAH (CARPENTER) STEWART; FAMILIES NOS. 1461—(1252)

Sarah, daughter of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, born in Greenwich, Sussex Co., now Warren Co., N. J., April 11, 1790, was married, Oct. 20, 1807, to Robert De Wees, born Nov. 5, 1779, son of Lieutenant Thomas and Rachel (De Wees) Stewart, (see Family No. 1254—Stewart).

Robert De Wees Stewart was a farmer and store keeper in Greenwich Township, Sussex, now Warren Co., N. J. May 16, 1831, he sold a 214 acre farm on the Pohatcong Creek to Peter Miller of Easton, Pa., for $4,996.00. In 1836 he removed, with his family, to De Pere, Brown Co., Wis. For a year or two after arriving there he operated a farm owned by his brother-in-law, John Penn Arndt. He then took up land on the west side of the Fox River and was the first white settler in that section. In connection with his farm he operated a ferry. Mrs. A. H. Hall, writing a series of articles on the history of that section, for a local newspaper, had this to say about the ferry: "‘Boat ahoy’ a merry girl used to call when some one sought passage in the Stewart ferry. In the absence of father and brothers these girls welcomed the chance to thus add to their store of pin-money. But the charming maidens were destined to row into the happy haven of matrimony. Nov. 5, 1846, occurred a wonderful event for those days—a double wedding. Guests, riding behind horses bedecked with gay tassels, arrived at the ferry and were taken in ferry boats to the home of Robert Stewart, the first white resident of the West Side. The brides, two of his daughters (Elizabeth Rachel and Caroline M.) looked very fair in their white gowns, made with full skirts and long pointed waists, prescribed in those days by Dame Fashion. The grooms were Wyman Mathew and Godfrey Miller, and the clergyman, the Rev. Jeremiah Porter, of Green Bay." The same writer also states: "The first church (Presbyterian) was organized in 1849 and held its meetings in the Court House. The choir, composed almost exclusively of Stewarts, sang from the prisoner's bar and the faithful sisters sometimes donned their husband's boots in order to get through the mud to church."

The children of Robert De Wees and Sarah (Carpenter) Stewart were: (1), Sarah Ann, born April 25, 1808, died Sept. 4, 1822; (2), William Maxwell, born April 22, 1810, died Sept. 21, 1881; (3), Abraham Beidelman, born April 13, 1812, died April 3, 1822; (4), Elizabeth Rachel, born Jan. 14, 1815, died March 21, 1850; (5), Caroline M., born June 4, 1817, died June 16, 1913; (6), Mary C., born Nov. 14, 1819, died July 3, 1892; (7), Rob-

SAMUEL D. CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1529—(1518)

Samuel D., son of Joseph B. and Mary M. (Shimer) Carpenter, born at Greenwich, Warren Co., N. J., Aug. 13, 1827, was married, in 1863, to Sarah Louise, born Oct. 11, 1833, died Aug. 7, 1870, daughter of Hon. Robert S. and Catharine (Strader) Kennedy, (see Family No. 1254—Kennedy). Their children were: (1), Willie, born Jan. 17, 1865, died Sept. 26, 1865; (2), Cora, died April 2, 1868. Samuel D. Carpenter was married in July, 1895, to Matilda, daughter of Jacob S. and M. Elizabeth (Smith) Hawk. Samuel D. Carpenter is living (1915) on the Baltzer Carpenter homestead, which is on the Alpha, N. J., Rural Route. At the age of 88 years, when the writer last visited him, he was very active and maintained a keen interest in current events throughout the world.

III. SAMUEL D. CARPENTER; FAMILIES NOS. 1530—(1252)

Samuel D., son of Baltzer and Margaret (Schumacher) Carpenter, born at Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., now Warren Co., Aug. 1, 1795, was married to a Miss Crevelling. He was with his brother-in-law, John Penn Arndt, (see Family No. 1339) at Mackinac, Mich., and went with the Arndt family to Green Bay, Wis., Sept. 10, 1824. He located at Galena, Ill., where he kept hotel for many years. He was appointed Town Inspector of Galena, Ill., Nov. 15, 1836. Among the papers of Mrs. Caroline M. (Stewart) Miller (Family No. 1478) is a note stating that after the death of Samuel D. Carpenter, his widow was married to the Governor of the State, presumably Illinois.

ABRAHAM

ABRAHAM SCHUMACHER; FAMILIES NOS. 1531—(1)

Abraham, son of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher, was born in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., June 10, 1758, and died in Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa., July 2, 1845. He was married (Bib.—200) in Greenwich Township, Sussex Co., N. J., by the pastor of St. James (Straw Church) Lutheran Church, Feb. 22, 1785, to Margaret, daughter of Captain Andrew and Catharine Melick (Melick family later) of Greenwich, N. J. She was born in Greenwich, April 10, 1765, and was living in Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa., April 3, 1846, when her application, to the Federal Government, for a pension, was executed.

Abraham Schumacher was a private in the War of the American Revolution and his name also appears in the list of names of citizens of Northampton Co., Pa., who signed a vigorous protest against the spirit and attitude of the Moravians in the War of the Revolution. Nov. 1, 1777, he enlisted as a private in Captain Stover's Company of Colonel Sigfried's Regiment, and served two months and four days. In Sept., 1778, he enlisted and served two months and seven days in the Company of Captain Frederick Kleinhantz of Colonel George Hubner's Regiment. In Nov., 1780, he enlisted in the Company commanded by Captain Peter Hays and served two months. (Bib.—239.) Oct. 17, 1833, then a resident of Greenwood Township, Columbia Co., Pa., he applied to the Federal Government for a pension, which was granted to him.

Following the trade of his father, Michael Schumacher, Abraham Schumacher was a weaver by trade, and it appears that he was a farmer and weaver throughout his life. In the spring of 1785, or earlier, he settled in Oxford Township, Sussex, now Warren, Co., N. J., and, May 10, 1785, he bought from John McMurtrie, Esq., and his wife, Sarah, 128 acres of land in that township. This farm was part of a 230 acre tract which Abraham Hewlings of the city of Burlington, N. J., yeoman, granted, Feb. 25, 1726, to Joseph Hewling, cordwainer, of the same city, and which was conveyed, May 4, 1774, by Abraham Hewlings, son of Joseph Hewlings, to John McMurtrie. March 26, 1792, Abraham Schumacher sold this farm for £315, New Jersey money, to his brother, Peter Schumacher, (Family No. 619), who had removed to Oxford Township, N. J., from Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Pa., about 1785-7. Dec. 6, 1793, Abraham Schumacher bought another farm, in Oxford, from William Coxe, Esq., of Bucks Co., Pa., and July 31, 1794, sold 35 acres of it for £61 5s, hard money, to his brother, Peter Schumacher. This 35 acre lot adjoined lands of Jacob Albright, "The new place of George Titman and Hixson's lands." Soon after the sale of the latter of these two farms Abraham Schumacher removed from Oxford Township, Sussex Co., N. J., to Northumberland, now Columbia Co., Pa., where, it appears, he settled first in Greenwood Township and later near Buckhorn, Hemlock Township. He apparently bought land in Greenwood Township and in his day book there appears under date of 1797 the record of the purchase of 1,125 feet of boards from Samuel and John Eves. In the same book there is an entry under date of the year of 1799, "Sold land to Peter Eveland." In the spring of 1809 he executed a contract for the purchase of from Elias Smith of 81½ acres of land in Hemlock Township and, May 4, 1809, Elias Smith signed a receipt, written in the day book of Abraham Schumacher, acknowledging the payment of $40.00 on this contract. Jan. 3, 1811, Elias Smith and Ann, his wife, of Catawissa, Pa., executed a deed conveying title to this farm to Abraham Schumacher of Hemlock Township. This property was a part of Union Tract, which had been surveyed to Alexander Johnson, by virtue of a warrant dated July 1, 1784, and it had been sold, Jan. 28, 1796, by Alexander Johnson to Andrew Barnet, who, March 5, 1796 sold it to Benjamin Stors and Aaron Van Cleaves. They sold it, April 18, 1796, to William Bonham, who, with his wife, Elizabeth, conveyed it to Elias Smith. Peter Rees owned 20 acres of land which was originally a part of the same tract. On this farm Abraham Schumacher erected a small grist mill, operated by water power taken from Hemlock Creek. It appears that this mill was raised "Satter Day, 13 of Aug., 1815," according to a note in the day book. It also appears that "4 hands" worked eleven days "skoring Dimber" from the 11th to the 22d of July. The names of John Lilly, Samuel Mertz and ——— Hopper appear in connection with the building operations. Aug. 30, 1816, Abraham Schumacher and his wife, Margaret, sold to John Hopper of Chillesquaque Township, Columbia Co., Pa., for $499.99, about two acres of the farm together with the mill race 28 feet wide "from the waters of Hemlock." John Hopper is described in the deed as a millwright, (see Family No. 1011—Hopper). Abraham Shoemaker reserved the right to build a wagon bridge "over the said mill race" at any time. Henry Ohl and Andrew Ohl were witnesses. April 19, 1819, Abraham and Margaret Schumacher sold to Valentine Houck, a carpenter, 49 acres in Hemlock Township, and Dec. 16, 1830, they sold to Issachar Morris of Madison Township, a merchant, for $515, 68 acres of their Hemlock Township lands. This latter farm was part of the 81 acre farm bought from Elias Smith and the deed refers to "John Hooper's mill race, two acre lot belonging to John Hopper," "lands of Lebright Wagner," "The State Road," "Water right of John Hopper's Mill." In May, 1813, according to his day book, Abraham Schumacher sold two acres of land to Mary Keens, a spinner.

In the possession of Miss Kate Shoemaker of Columbia Co., Pa., a daughter of Seth Shoemaker, and great-granddaughter of Abraham Schumacher, Sr., the writer found the Abraham Schumacher day book. This old book tells nearly the whole story of his business career. Some portions of it are written in German and other portions were evidently written with watered ink and are now illegible. The first entries were made in 1782, and the first account is that of John Shaver (Family No. 43—Shaver), in the year 1783. The second account is that of Peter Sharps, dated in the year 1782. The third account is that of Andrew Maelich (Melick) in the year 1783, and Jacob Sharps (Family No. 988—Sharps) has an account dated 1785. Balser Carpenter (Family No. 1252), James Blayer (Blair), James Clifford, John Freeman, Michael Kress, Isaac, Conrad and Peter Schumacher, Philip Meixell (Family No. 929—Meixel), Richard Mackey, Henry Shaver, William Welch, Stofel Smith, Thomas Hays, Jacob Appet, Joseph Copelen (Copeland?), John Smith, George Titman (Family No. 1532—Titman), Leonard Appleman, Peter Maisner, John Bails, Morris Easter, and John Coleman are names that appear in the old book and nearly all of them in connection with weaving. Some of the prices charged for weaving, 1782–5, were: "Hemp linen," 8 pence per yard; "Streak," 9 pence to 1 shilling; "Flax linen," 8–10 pence; "All hemp," 8 pence; "Teck," 15 pence to 2 shillings; "Tow broadcloth," 1 shilling; "Broadcloth," 1 shilling; "Linen," 7–9 pence; "Tow cloth," 6 pence; "Hemp with tow filler," 7 pence; "Tow linen," 6–7 pence; "Linsey," 7–10 pence; "Linen streaks," 1 shilling; "Two coverlets," 18 shillings, 9 pence. Under date 1784, these two items appear: "Cutting grass for Conrad Shoemaker, 3 days, 9 shillings," and "cutting grass for Andrew Malich, 4 days, 12 shillings." A number of promissory notes are written in the book, one of which reads, "Promis to pay or cause to be paid unto Jacob Sharps, or his order, the just and full sum of Fory pounds, good and lawful money of the State of West New Jersey, Township of Oxford, at or before the first day of Jan. next ensuing hereof, for full value received. Given under my hand and seal this 20th day of Oct., 1792."

In this old day book there also is recorded a number of items of general family interest and copies of letters addressed to various persons. The birth of Abraham Shoemaker is recorded, "Abraham Shoemaker was born in the year of Our Lord, 1758, the 10th day of June, in Northampton Co., Williams Township." The birth of his wife is recorded, "Margaret Mealick, daughter of Andrew Mealick, and Catherein Mealick, was born April 10, 1765, was born in Greenwich, N. J." Some of the letters, copies of which appear in the book, are as follows:

"To Peter Shoemaker."

"We are all in good held (health) as long as Got blesses, hoping this few lines may find you in the same. I like the contre werry well, so far. The Crane (grain?) is very dere and carse (scarce?), but fine crops to be expected. I axpect to be out in the fall."

"To Jacob Shoemaker."

"Dear Brother and Sister:

"Having an opportunity Imbraced by which I would inform you that through Divine Mercy we enjoy a tolerable good state of health at present, hoping these may find you and your family in the same situation. I would be glad if you could pay us a visit this summer and, in the meantime, must request your answer if opportunity offers, as nothing on this side the grave can give us greater satisfaction than the knowledge of your well being. Nothing material to mention only to request you to accept our best respects to your self, wife and family. So remain dear brothers and sister your most affectionate well wisher. (Signed.) Abraham Shoemaker." Dated April 6, 1796.

"To Andrew Mealich."

"Dear Father and Mother, Sisters and Brothers:

"Having an opportunity, imbracet, by which I would inform you that through Divine Mercy we enjoy a tolerable good state of health at present, hoping these may find you and your family in the same situation. Although Margaret has a son born the 14th of March, lieken to to well. I sent a letter down to May land Lord, concerning my place. If you would come up early this spring, I would be glad if you could send me a letter, for the land is selling fast. Having nothing material to mention only to request you to accept of our best respects to your self and family, in which my wife and family unanimously join me, and so remain, dear father and mother, your most affectionate well wisher. (Signed.) Abraham Shoemaker."

Dated March 14, 1795.

"Mr. Peter Sharps of Sussex Co., State of N. J.:

"Please to let the bearer, John Shoemaker, have what's due to us on Andrew Melick's estate, dissesased, and in so doing you will oblige your humble friends.

"1823—Margaret and Abraham Shoemaker."

Abraham Shoemaker* died in Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa.,

*Various other Shoemaker families are represented in the land records of Northumberland and Columbia Cos., Pa. Among these are: 1, Charles Shoemaker, a tanner, of Berks Co., Pa., and his brother, Henry Shoemaker; Charles, residing in Windsor Township, and Henry in Bethel Townshp about 1773-4; 2, Jacob Shoemaker of Reading, Berks Co., Pa., an inn holder, who bought several extensive tracts of land in 1775 which, in 1779, he and his wife, Mary, sold to Samuel Mifflin; 3, Jacob Shoemaker, of East Buffalo Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., about 1803; 4, Jacob Shoemaker of Fishing Creek Township, Oct. 19, 1808, when he bought from Henry McHenry of Alfred Township, Allegheny Co., N. Y., with Elan R. Albertson, 66 acres of land known as the "Manor Cunningham," in Fishing Creek Township. June 1, 1820, he bought from David Montgomery of Danville, Pa., 320 acres in Fishing Creek, and Nov. 26, 1827, he bought from Jacob Swisher, Esq., and his wife, Sarah, of Madison Township, two lots of land in Orangeville, Columbia Co., Pa. In 1827 he was described as an innkeeper when he bought from William and Elizabeth Raber the lot at the corner of Main and Market streets, Bloomsburg, Pa. In 1831, he bought from Clement G. Ricketts, merchant, Philadelphia, and his wife, Mary, of Orangeville, Pa., two acres of land in Orangeville. He was of Bloom Township, Feb. 16, 1836, when his will was made. It was probated Sept. 9, 1836, and names his wife, Elizabeth; his daughter, Abigail, to whom he gave the farm and tavern, adjoining lands of Jacob Mosteller and Thomas Robins; his daughter, Mary, to whom he gave the farm adjoining lands of John Albertson, Thomas McHenry, and Matthias Kline; and his daughter, Agnes, to whom he gave the tavern stand in Orangeville. He was probably the father, also, of Andrew Shoemaker of Madison Township, (see footnote Family No. 1582); 5, Jonathan Shoemaker, Esq., of Abington Township, Montgomery Co., Pa., April 10, 1795, when he bought from Anthony Musgenung, for £1,200, one full moiety of "One certain corn mill and sawmill called Cattawissa Mills," and three contiguous tracts of land with the mill race, etc. He was of Catawissa April 27, 1803, when he executed, with his wife, Hannah, a power of attorney to Joseph Sinton of Sunbury, Pa.; 6, Daniel Shoemaker, of Turbitt Township, for whose estate Magdalene Shoemaker and Peter Noecker were appointed administrators Aug. 22, 1829; 7, Henry Shoemaker of Williamsport, Lycoming Co., Pa., whose will, made Sept. 27, 1796, named his wife Barbara, his three sons, Henry, Benjamin and Jacob, and his son-in-law, Henry Antes; 8, Conrad Shoemaker of Bucks Co., Pa., who, April 1, 1833, bought 91 acres of land in Briar Creek Township from Thomas Cawley; 9, Jacob Shoemaker of Easton, Northampton Co., Pa., a cooper, who bought Lot No. 25, Bloomsburg, Pa., from Ludwig Oyer, attorney for John Adam Oyer, of Hamilton Township, Northampton Co., Pa.

July 2, 1845, and is said to have been buried with military honors in one of the cemeteries in Bloomsburg, Pa. His wife, Mrs. Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, was living in 1846 and enjoyed the benefits of a Federal pension during the remainder of her life. The date of her death is not known by the writer. Some of the children of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher were: 1, Mary, born about 1786; 2, Andrew, born about 1788; 3, (probably) Peter; 4, Jacob, born July 14, 1789, died Sept., 1867; 5, Isaac, born Nov. 9, 1792, died July 13, 1858; 6, John, born March 18 (14?), 1795, died April 3, 1854; 7, Catharine, born Aug. 10, 1797, died March 26, 1887; 8, Abraham, Jr., born 1800, died in Jan., 1889; 9, Margaret, born Dec. 29, 1803, died March 14, 1890; 10, Michael.

THE MELICK FAMILY* (MOELICH)

I. John Wilhelm Moelich, of Bendorf, on the Rhine, Germany, and his wife, Anna Catharine, had twelve children, among whom were: 1, Johannes, born Feb. 26, 1702; 2, Johan Peter, who came to America in 1728; 3, Maria Christina, born 1710; 4, Johan David, born 1712; 5, Anna Gertraut, born Jan., 1714; 6, Maria Catharina Christina, born Feb., 1716; 7, Anna Sybylla, born May, 1718; 8, Elizabeth Gerdrutta, born Aug., 1720; 9, Johan Gottfried, born July 14, 1724.

II. (1). Johannes, son of Johan Wilhelm and Anna Catharine Moelich, was born at Bendorf, on the Rhine, Feb. 26, 1702, and was married, Nov. 1, 1723, at Bendorf, to Maria Catharine, born 1698, daughter of the Burgomaster Gottfried Kirberger. In 1735 they came to America and settled in Bedminster, Somerset Co., N. J. Their children were: 1, George Wilhelm, born Aug. 12, 1724, died Aug. 20, 1724; 2, Aaron, born Oct. 17, 1725, died April 7, 1809, married to Charlotte Miller, born May 14, 1734, died March 13, 1802; 3, Veronica Gerdrutta, born Dec. 19, 1727, married, about 1749, to Johan Jacob Kline; 4, Andrew, born in Dec., 1729, died June 29, 1820; 5, George Anthon, baptised April 6, 1732, died June 25, 1732; 6, Maria Catharine, born Dec. 5, 1733, married to Simon Ludewig Himroth; 7, Philip, born Oct. 9, 1736; 8, Peter, born Dec. 5, 1739, married to Maria Magdalene King.

III. (4). Captain Andrew Melick, son of Johannes and Maria Catharina (Kirberger) Melick, was born at Bendorf, on the Rhine, in Dec., 1729, and was baptised Andreas, Dec. 17, 1729. He came, with his parents, to America in 1735 and grew to manhood on the "Old Farm" in Bedminster, N. J. He was married to Catharine, born in 1741, died Oct. 27, 1804. They established their home in Greenwich, Sussex Co., N. J., on lands bequeathed to Andrew Melick by his father, Johannes Melick. Dec. 11, 1747, John Frederick Ganst (or Garret) sold to "Johannes Melick, father of Andrew Melick," 409 acres of land in Sussex Co., N. J. Oct. 3, 1749, Seth Pancoast sold to Godfrey Melick, uncle of Andrew Melick, 50 acres of land in Pohatcong, then in Morris Co., N. J., and Nov. 28, 1758, Godfrey Melick sold this tract to "John, the father of Andrew." Title to these lands passed to Andrew Melick under the will of his father. April 23, 1771, Andrew Melick bought from William Hewling and Esther, his wife, 219 acres of land in Greenwich, N. J. Upon his 400 acre tract of land Andrew Melick built a massive stone house and there established his home. May 5, 1810, he sold to Abraham Carpenter for $14,000, 283 acres of land, which included parts of each of the three tracts referred to above, and which are described as bounded by lands of Jacob Sharps, Jacob Melick, Christopher Melick, and the Pohatcong Creek, (Family No. 988—Sharps, No. 1252—Carpenter). July 4, 1776, Andrew Melick was commissioned Captain of a Company in the First Sussex Co. Regiment of N. J., then under the command of Colonel, afterwards Brigadier General, William Maxwell. He was one of the organizers of St. James (Straw Church) Lutheran Church, near Phillipsburg, N. J., and his name appears (Andrew Malick) on the roll of the Signers of the Articles of Faith, in that church, in 1772. He died June 29, 1820, and, with his wife, Catharine, is buried in St. James (Straw Church) Cemetery, near Phillipsburg, N. J. They had at least six children, viz.:

*For the genealogy of the Melick family see "The Story of an Old Farm," by Andrew D. Melick, (Bib.-195) one of the principal sources of information of the present writer. Mr. Melick makes no reference to Margaret, daughter of Captain Andrew Melick.

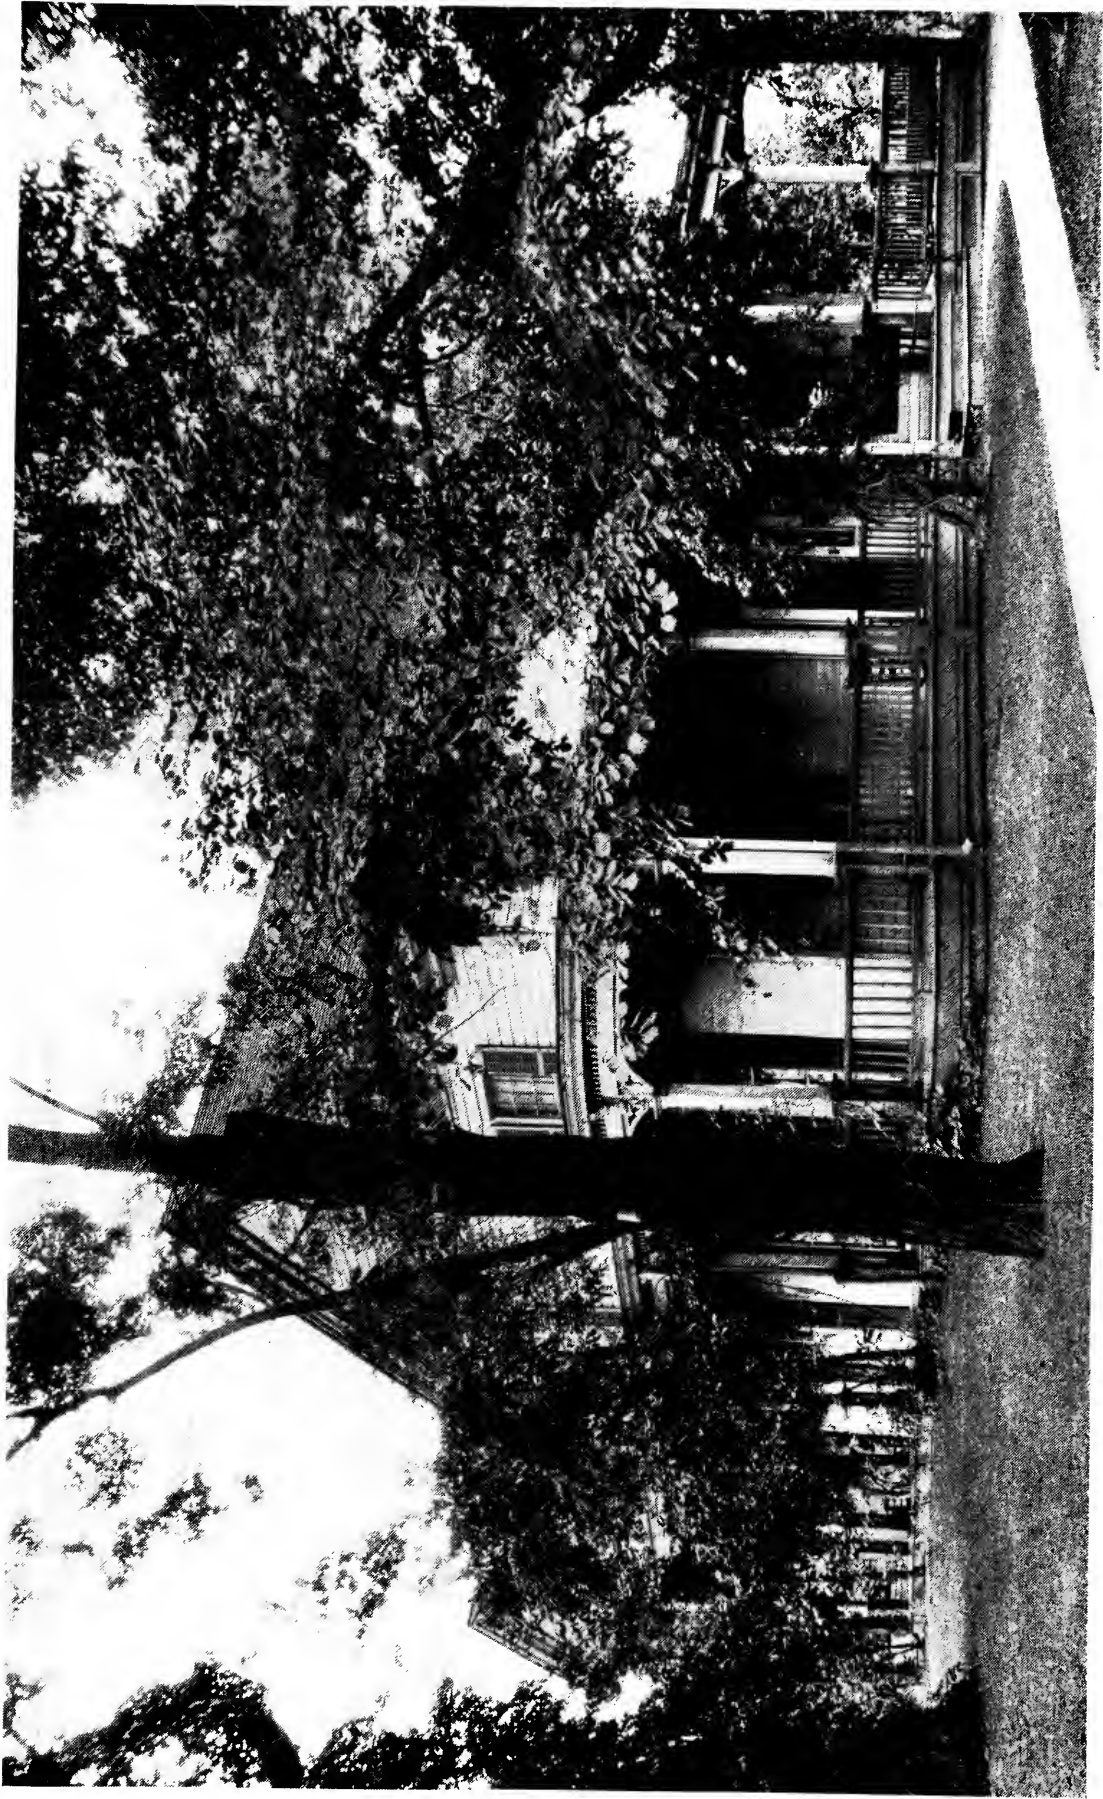

1, Margaret, born April 10, 1765, living in Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa., April 3, 1846, married, Feb. 22, 1785, (Bib.-200) to Abraham, son of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher, (Family No. 1531); 2, Catharine, born April 4, 1770, baptised in St. James Church, June 3, 1770, died May 8, 1831, married to Johannes, born in June, 1768, died May 1, 1826, son of Philip and Maria Magdalena Fine, (Family No. 1266—Fine); 3, Rebecca, born May 13, 1776, baptised July 20, 1776; 4, Johannes, born June 29, 1778, baptised in St. James Church, July 28, 1778, died Nov. 21, 1863, married (1) to Anna, daughter of Jacob and Margaret (Shafer) Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps), whose three children were: (1), Catharine, died in infancy; (2), Elizabeth, married to William Stewart, (Family No. 1254—Stewart); (3), Hannah, married to James DePuy. Johannes Melick was married (2), Feb. 16, 1809, to Sarah, born Jan. 30, 1787, daughter of Christopher and Mary (Shipman) Melick, and granddaughter of Godfrey Melick. He was married (3) to Esther, born Jan. 4, 1788, died Oct. 13, 1861, daughter of George Cyphers; 5, Jacob, born Aug. 14, 1783, died April 1, 1819; 6, Hannah, born Feb. 27, 1785, baptised May 1, 1785, married May 22, 1806, to Matthias, born June 6, 1778, died March 5, 1819, son of Christopher and Mary (Shipman) Melick, and grandson of Godfrey Melick.

II. (9). Johan Gottfried Melick, commonly known as Godfrey Melick, son of Johan Wilhelm and Anna Catharine Melick, was born at Bendorf, on the Rhine, Germany, July 14, 1724, and came to America with his brother, Johannes, in 1735. He was married, by the pastor of the early Lutheran Church of Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa., (Bib.-23) May 20, 1748, to Margaret, born Feb. 2, 1733, died Sept. 26, 1799, daughter of Christopher and Margaret Falkenburg.* Godfrey Melick was living in Greenwich Township, now Warren Co., N. J., as early as 1747 and was affiliated with the early Williams Township Lutheran Church. He owned lands there which had been bought for him before he became of age. (Bib.-195.) Oct. 3, 1749, he bought 50 acres at Pohatcong from Seth Pancoast, and Nov. 28, 1758, sold this tract to Johannes Melick. He died Sept. 11, 1776. His widow, Mrs. Margaret (Falkenberg) Melick, was married (2) to Mr. Tomer. The children of Godfrey and Margaret (Falkenburg) Melick were: 1, Godfrey, born March 24, 1749, baptised May 14, 1749, (Bib.-23) Gottfried Kline and Maria Catharine Melick, sponsors, married, and one of his sons was Samuel Willet Melick; 2, Christopher, born Dec. 1, 1750, (see later); 3, William, born March 9, 1753, baptised March 26, 1753, (Bib.-23) William Moelich and Barbara, wife of George Raub, (Family No. 947—Raub), sponsors, died April 27, 1808, married to Zeruiah Kent. William Melick was a Tory and a soldier in the British Army in the War of the American Revolution. He removed to St. Johns, New Brunswick. His interest in the estate of his father was confiscated; 4, Jacob, born Jan. 3, 1755, (see later); 5, Maria Margaret, born Aug. 20, 1757, baptised Nov. 20, 1757, Christopher and Maria Margaret Falkenburg, sponsors, married to John Martin Hulshizer, (Family No. 1255—Hulshizer), born Jan. 18, 1717, died April 9, 1810; 6, Heinrich, (Henry Melick), born Dec. 3, 1759, baptised May 14, 1760,† Andrew and Catharine Melick, sponsors, married to Rebecca, born March 10, 1762, died Jan. 27, 1835, daughter of James Stewart; 7, Andrew, born Dec. 3, 1759, (or about 1761), (see later); 8, John, born April 15, 1762, died May 6, 1816, married to Mary, daughter of Joseph Beck, who was born Jan. 31, 1777, and died April 19, 1857; 9, Catharine, born Jan. 17, 1765, died Jan. 29, 1846, married, Sept. 5, 1784, to Philip Fine, Jr., born April 18, 1763, died Aug. 14, 1834, (Family No. 1226—Fine).

III. (2). Christopher, son of Godfrey and Margaret (Falkenburg) Melick, was born Dec. 1, 1750, and was baptised Jan. 6, 1751, Christopher and Margaret Falkenburg, sponsors. (Bib.-23.) He was married to Mary, born Sept. 22, 1754, died Feb. 11, 1836, daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Matthias Shipman, (Family No. 1292—Shipman), and their children were: 1, Godfrey, born May 2, 1774; 2, William, born Dec. 13, 1775, died Feb. 24, 1841, not married; 3, Matthias, born June, 1778, died March 5, 1819, married, May 22, 1806, to Hannah, daughter of Andrew and Catharine Melick, whose children were: (1), Catharine, born April 7, 1809; (2), Margaret, born June 27, 1811; 4, Margaret, born June 6, 1780; 5, Jacob, born July 17,

*According to the notes of the writer, made while engaged in a study of the records of the Williams Township Church, "Gottfried Melich was married to Margaretha Catharine Amberger, May 20, 1748.

†The writer's notes show this entry in the records of the Early Lutheran Church of Williams Township as Andreas Heinrich, perhaps representing twin children, Andreas and Heinrich. His notes made in Vanderslice Cemetery, near Bloomsburg, Pa., read "Andrew Melich, died Nov. 15, 1843, aed. 82 years."

Mrs. Margaret (Sharps) Melick was married (2) to Sherman Loomis, born at Lebanon, Conn., May 17, 1787, died March 18, 1867, (Centermoreland, Wyoming Co., Pa., Cemetery), (see Family No. 988—Sharps—Loomis); 6, John, born Nov. 5, 1784, died July 30, 1855, not married; 7, Sarah, born in Jan., 1787, married, Feb. 16, 1809, to Johannes, son of Captain Andrew and Catharine Melick; 8, Christopher, born May 14, 1789, died in infancy; 9, Mary, twin sister, born May 14, 1789; 10, Samuel, born April 13, 1793, died May 11, 1832, married, Jan. 3, 1816, to Sarah Hunt; 11, Elizabeth, born April 20, 1796; 12, Isaac, born Dec. 11, 1798, died April 26, 1863.

III. (4). Jacob, son of Godfrey and Margaret (Falkenburg) Melick, was born Jan. 3, 1755, and died Feb. 20, 1832. He was married, July 30, 1781, to Sarah Laycock, born May 27, 1760, died March 17, 1812. He was of Bethlehem Township, Hunterdon Co., N. J., April 1, 1811, when Elizabeth Pringle, widow; Ann Pringle, John Pringle, Eliza Pringle, Mary Pringle and William Pringle, heirs of John Pringle, and all of Germantown, Pa., sold to him 314 acres of land on a branch of Fishing Creek, in Northumberland Co., Pa., for $2,990.00. This farm had been sold to John Pringle, late of Philadelphia, Pa., a merchant, Sept. 28, 1784, by Philip Wilson of Philadelphia, and was called the Phillips farm. It was bounded by lands of Robert Wilson, William Youngs and James Bartram. At about this time Jacob Melick removed to Bloom Township, Northumberland Co., Pa. His will, made in Bloom Township, Aug. 19, 1830, was probated at Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa., March 3, 1832, and names his children, Elizabeth, Daniel, Jacob, Margaret, Gilbert. The children of his son, John, and his daughters, Catharine Bright and Mary Agler, are also referred to. The children of Jacob and Sarah (Laycock) Melick were: 1, Jacob, born Nov. 19, 1781, died Nov. 21, 1847, (see later); 2, Elizabeth, born Dec. 11, 1783, died Dec. 22, 1858, not married; 3, John, born April 9, 1786, died Feb. 7, 1827, letters of administration granted to Daniel Melick and Isaiah Salmon, at Bloomsburg, Pa., Feb. 17, 1827, married to Hannah, born May 12, 1790, died, in Ohio, Dec. 17, 1876, daughter of Peter Van Buskirk; 4, Margaret, born Nov. 29, 1788, died 1832, married to George Gilbert; 5, Mary, born Feb. 7, 1791, married, Aug. 24, 1815, to Jonathan Aglar; 6, Catharine, born May 24, 1793, died Feb. 25, 1818, married to Samuel Bright; 7, Rebecca, born April 23, 1795, died Nov. 21, 1815, married to William, son of Abram Willit; 8, Henry, born July 13, 1797, died Oct. 25, 1798; 9, William, born Sept. 2, 1799, died Nov. 23, 1829, not married; 10, Daniel, born Nov. 28, 1801, died Aug. 2, 1866, married (1), Feb. 13, 1823, to Mary Magdalene, daughter of Philip Miller, who was born Oct. 3, 1802, and died Aug. 30, 1847, married (2), Oct. 17, 1848, to Margaret, born 1808, died 1890, daughter of Josiah McClure. His will, made in Scott Township, Columbia Co., Pa., and dated Light Street, July 18, 1866, was probated at Bloomsburg, Pa., Aug. 6, 1866. It names his wife, Margaret, and refers to his six children: (1), Philip W.; (2), Sarah, married to Joseph Eves; (3), Jacob D.; (4), William D.; (5), Mary Elizabeth, married to N. Stocker; (6), ———.

IV. (1). Jacob, son of Jacob and Sarah (Laycock) Melick, was born Nov. 19, 1781, and died Nov. 21, 1847. He was married, Oct. 10, 1811, to Lydia, daughter of Jesse and Joanna (Shipman) Barber, (Family No. 1292—Barber). They lived and died in New Village, N. J., and their children were: 1, Sarah, born Jan. 22, 1812, married to Jerome Hartpense; 2, Elizabeth, born Oct. 22, 1813, died March 17, 1876, married, Oct. 12, 1836, to Thomas Wright. A record of this marriage appears in the Republican Farmer and Democrat Journal of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in which Thomas Wright is described as formerly of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Elizabeth Melick is described as the daughter of Jacob Melick. According to this announcement of the marriage they were married at New Village, N. J., July 4, 1837, (see Family No. 35—Wright); 3, William Barber, born April 6, 1815, (see later); 4, Joanna, born June 3, 1817, married, Oct. 18, 1838, to William King Hulshizer; 5, John, born Feb. 3, 1819, died May 30, 1884, married (1) to Elizabeth, daughter of William Pinsell, married (2), Oct. 30, 1849, to Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel Hart; 6, George B., born Jan. 11, 1821, died Dec. 18, 1840; 7, Amanda, born Dec. 19, 1822, not married; 8, Mary Catharine, born Nov. 19, 1824, died March 31, 1854; 9, Margaret, born Jan. 17, 1827, died May 9, 1853; 10, James H., born July 25, 1829, (see later); 11, Emma M., born April 23, 1831, died July 1, 1881, married, Aug. 19, 1869, to Hon. Robert S. Kennedy, born Oct. 10, 1802, died March 20, 1879, (Family No. 1254—Kennedy); 12, Jane, born July 3, 1833, married, Oct. 25, 1855, to John S. Beers, lived at Newtown, Pa.; 13, Jesse, born Oct. 18, 1835, died April 2, 1837; 14, Annie, born Jan. 3, 1837, died Sept. 25, 1837; 15, Lydia W., born April 27, 1838, died April 12, 1879.

V. (3). William Barber, son of Jacob and Lydia (Barber) Melick, was born April 6, 1815, and died April 5, 1885, at Albany, N. Y. He was married to Margaret Matilda Sharps, born July 8, 1821, died March 30, 1885, and their children were: 1, Emma, born July 8, 1843, married, Jan. 15, 1861, to Charles B. Heyden; 2, Martha, born Oct. 4, 1845; 3, James Redford, born Oct. 12, 1849, married, Dec. 23, 1869, to Margaret E., daughter of Benjamin Kirtland; 4, Elizabeth Sharps, born July 18, 1852, married, Oct. 5, 1875, to Daniel P. Reed.

V. (10). James H., son of Jacob and Lydia (Barber) Melick, was born July 25, 1829, and died at Fort Edward, N. Y., Feb. 12, 1908. He was married, at Wyoming, Pa., Oct. 23, 1855, to Ruth Ann, born Dec. 27, 1830, died April 10, 1902, daughter of Lot and Fally (Jenkins) Breese, (Family No. 989—Breese, No. 988—Jenkins), and their children are: 1, Anna, born Jan. 1, 1858, died Feb. 25, 1870; 2, Dr. William B., born Oct. 19, 1859, graduated at Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1881, and by Albany, N. Y., Medical College, in 1884, and since 1885 a practicing physician at Fort Edward, N. Y. He was married, Sept. 5, 1888, at Fort Edward, N. Y., to Rose L., daughter of Michael and Rosanna (Alwell) Mory, of Fort Edward. Their daughter, Ruth Ann, born June 22, 1889, was married, Oct. 10, 1912, to Clarence C. Collins; 3, Ella B., born Feb. 10, 1861, not married, lives at Glens Falls, N. Y.; 4, Matilda Sharps, born Aug. 26, 1864, lives at Glens Falls, N. Y. James H. Melick removed to Albany, N. Y., in 1846, and was for a long term of years engaged there in the manufacture of agricultural implements. About 1894 he removed to Fort Edward, N. Y., where he was for some years employed by the State of New York in connection with the operation of the Champlain Canal. He and his wife, Ruth Ann (Breese) Melick, both died at Fort Edward, N. Y.

III. (7). Andrew, son of Godfrey and Margaret (Falkenburg) Melick, was born Dec. 3, 1759, baptised May 14, 1860, Andrew and Catherine Melick, sponsors, and died Nov. 18, 1843, (or born about 1761, died Nov. 18, 1843, aed. 82 years, tombstone inscription). He was married, Dec. 11, 1785, to Catharine Crumline, born Dec. 1, 1764, died July 11, 1839. They are buried in Vanderslice Cemetery, near Bloomsburg, Pa. Aug 5, 1808, Andrew Melick bought from Samuel Boone and Gabriel Lount, executors under the will of Joseph Roseberry, (Family No. 1453—Roseberry), the farm where Andrew Melick then lived and 119 acres then occupied by Edward Crawford, on Big Fishing Creek, in Bloom Township, Northumberland Co., Pa. Andrew Melick was a resident of Bloom Township before Oct. 19, 1799, and signed, as a witness, the will of Joseph Roseberry, which was probated Oct. 10, 1799. July 22, 1816, he bought from the heirs of George Laubach, (Family No. 585—Laubach) 403 acres of land in Mount Pleasant Township, Northumberland Co., (described in the warrant of June 20, 1792, as situated in Fishing Creek and Mahoning Township) for $1,600.00. He also bought 25 acres, in Mount Pleasant Township, from John Mordan, and owned another farm of 330 acres in that township. In his will, which was made in Mount Pleasant Township, Aug. 29, 1839, and was probated at Bloomsburg, Pa., Nov. 30, 1843, he left these farms to his six sons, John, Andrew, William, (the Mansion House), Stephen, Godfrey and Henry. The will also names his daughters, Elizabeth, married to Joseph Crawford, and Catharine, married to John Heister Vanderslice. His sons, John, Andrew and Stephen, were named executors. He apparently operated a tannery, there being a reference in the will to the payment of a legacy "As soon as the executors can turn leather out of the tanyard." He built a massive stone house on his homestead, in the Fishing Creek Valley, in 1811. This building, carrying his initials and the date in the gable, is apparently "as good as new." (1916.) The children of Andrew and Catharine (Crumline) Melick were: 1, Elizabeth, born Aug. 8, 1786, died April 6, 1870, (Canby Cemetery, Millertown, Columbia Co., Pa.), married, in 1803, to Joseph, born July 13, 1782, died Sept. 9, 1844, son of Edmond and Mary (Roseberry) Crawford*; 2, John, born March 13, 1788,

*Edward Crawford of Mount Pleasant Township, Columbia Co., Pa., lived in Northumberland, now Columbia, Co., Pa., in 1790, and had in family, living at home, himself, two males over 16, four males under 16 and four females. His will, made March 7, 1823, and probated Jan. 31, 1826, and names his wife Esther, and his children: 1, Joseph; 2, John; 3, Elijah, and his daughter, Hetty; 4, Isaac, born Sept. 5, 1790, died May 13, 1859, with his wife Mary M., born in 1791, died Jan. 9, 1855, buried in Vanderslice Cemetery, near Bloomsburg, Pa.; 5, Hannah (Crawford) De Long; 6, Nancy (Crawford) Fox; 7, Elizabeth (Crawford) Peer. Mrs. Esther (or Easter) Crawford, widow of Edward Crawford, was born about 1754, died Sept. 21, 1849, aed. 95 years, and is buried in the Melick plot in Vanderslice Cemetery.

I. Edmond Crawford also lived in Northumberland, now Columbia, Co., Pa., in 1790, and had in family, living at home, himself, three males under 16 and four females. He was mar-died Aug. 31, 1847, married to Sarah Connor, born June 6, 1791, died Aug. 23, 1843; 3, Andrew, Jr., born March 28, 1790, died March 11, 1865, (Vanderslice Cemetery), married, Jan. 5, 1816, to Sarah Best, born Aug. 27, 1794, died Aug. 3, 1851; 4, William, born Oct. 13, 1792, died Oct. 20, 1865, (Canby Cemetery), not married; 5, Stephen, born May 27, 1800, died April 30, 1859, (Waterton Cemetery, Huntington Valley, Luzerne Co., Pa.), lived at Town Line, Luzerne Co., Pa., married (1) to Sarah, born Nov. 16, 1802, died Feb. 10, 1848, daughter of Peter Melick, married (2) to Jane, born March 16, 1803, died Oct. 31, 1868; 6, Catharine, born Dec. 25, 1802, died Oct. 5, 1865, married, May 1, 1824, to John Heister, born Aug. 9, 1805, died Oct. 26, 1874, son of Joseph, born 1780, died Feb. 6, 1828, and Rebecca Vanderslice, born Aug. 17, 1782, died Aug. 19, 1867, are buried in Vanderslice Cemetery; 7, Godfrey, born Dec. 31, 1805, died in Feb., 1878, (Canby Cemetery), married (1) to Susan, born Oct. 2, 1802, died March 12, 1849, daughter of Harman Kline, Jr., married (2), in 1850, to Caroline, born April 1, 1825, died March 18, 1885, daughter of Jacob, born Dec. 22, 1800, died Dec. 11, 1883, and Lydia Jacoby, born March 3, 1803, died April 8, 1875, (Canby Cemetery), (Family No. 1536—Jacoby); 8, Henry, born Nov. 11, 1808, died July 7, 1877, married, April 12, 1832, to Christina, daughter of William Roseberry.

I. Peter Melick of Wyoming Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., was born at Bensdorf, on the Rhine, Germany, Oct. 12, 1715, and was a son of Hans Peter Moelich. He came to America and apparently was living in Greenwich Township, Hunterdon, now Warren, Co., N. J., or in the vicinity of Easton, Pa., before 1746. He was married (1), May 16, 1746, (Bib.-23) to Mrs. Maria Sophia (Raub) Abel, daughter of Peter Raub, (Family No. 947—Raub), and widow of Jacob Abel. She had been married (1), Jan. 11, 1742, to Jacob Abel (Bib.-23), who was doubtless a son of Jacob Abel, who, in 1758, was Constable for Forks Township, Northampton Co., Pa. Peter Melick, a widower, was married (2), May 23, 1749, (Bib.-23) to Anna Maria Faber, doubtless a daughter of Johannes and Anna Christina Faber. He was affiliated with the original Lutheran Church at Easton, Pa. He removed, before 1776, to Northumberland Co., Pa., and settled near Espy, then in Wyoming Township. In 1776 he served with James McClure and Thomas Clayton, representing Wyoming Township, in the Northumberland County Committee of Safety. April 5, 1779, he bought, from George and Margaret Miller, 322 acres of land in Wyoming Township and, Nov. 24, 1779, sold 225 acres of the tract to Judah Bone of Exeter, Bucks Co., Pa. June 1, 1779, he bought from George Miller, Jr., of Windsor, Bucks Co., Pa., 364 acres of land lying between Fishing Creek and the Northeast Branch of the Susquehanna River, in Wyoming Township. Lands of Michael Hollenback and John Smith are named as boundaries in the deed. The will of Peter Melick of Wyoming Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., was made March 26, 1789, and was probated at Sunbury, Pa., June 25, 1789. It names his wife, Mary, and the following children: 1, John (by first marriage), born March 16, 1747, baptised April 5, 1747, John Moelich and Anna Margaret Raub, sponsors (Bib.-23), married to Catharine Scholler, and about 1800, removed to North East, Erie Co., Pa., (Bib.-195); 2, Anna Christina (by second marriage), born May 22, 1750, baptised May 28, 1750, (Bib.-23), Johannes and Anna Christina Faber, sponsors, married to William Gingles, and living, June 2, 1811, in Derry Township, Northumberland Co., Pa.; 3, Peter, Jr., born April 2, 1753, (see later); 4, Michael, born Oct. 9, 1754, baptised Oct. 25, 1754, Michried to Mary, daughter of Joseph Roseberry, (Family No. 1453—Roseberry), and their son, II. Joseph, was born July 13, 1782, and died Sept. 9, 1844, (Canby, Millertown, Cemetery). He was married, in 1803, to Elizabeth, daughter of Andrew and Catharine (Crumline) Melick, and their children were: 1, Edmond, born Oct. 3, 1806, (see later); 2, Andrew, born Feb. 25, 1809, died Feb. 14, 1876; 3, John, born Feb. 13, 1811, died Feb. 20, 1892; 4, Mary, born Dec. 3, 1813, married to Joseph Kline, (Family No. 1522—Kline); 5, Hannah, born July 27, 1815; 6, Joseph, born Sept. 25, 1818, died Aug. 5, 1905, married to Catharine, born June 22, 1822, died June 19, 1875, (Canby Cemetery), daughter of Harman Labour; 7, Catharine, born Aug. 8, 1821, married to John Johnson; 8, Elizabeth, born July 15, 1824, married to Richard Bright; 9, Stephen, born May 9, 1829, married to Susan Shafer; 10, Sarah Ann, born March 22, 1830, married to William Omans.

III. (1). Edmund, born Oct. 3, 1806, died April 9, 1897, son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Melick) Crawford, was married to Mary Jones, born about 1807, died March 21, 1886. They are buried in Canby Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Elizabeth, born Dec. 12, 1827, married to Abraham Thomas; 2, Anna, born Nov. 2, 1830, married to Frederick Hoover; 3, Catharine, born Dec. 18, 1832, married to Josiah Gibson; 4, Rebecca, born Nov. 10, 1834, married to Ramsy Hagenbach; 5, Mary, born Aug. 14, 1837, married to John Beagle; 6, Joseph J., born Nov. 23, 1840; 7, Martha, born Feb. 11, 1842, married to Clark Smith; 8, John; 9, Edmund, Jr., born Dec. 31, 1845, married to Aldine Albertson; 10, Evan Manuel, born Nov. 22, 1847, married to Emma J., born May 26, 1847, daughter of John H. and Margaret (Shoemaker) Wilson, (Family No. 1766); 11, Sarah, born June, 1852, died Feb. 11, 1865.

Edward Crawford was of Mahoning Township, in 1778, 1780. Edmund Crawford was of Wyoming Township in 1785. (Bib.-16.)

ael Raub and Maria Elizabeth, sponsors (Bib.-23), died in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1818; 5, David, lived near Sunbury, Pa., died about 1836, married (1) to ———— Conrad, married (2), before April 22, 1831, to Mrs. Elizabeth Kiekly. David Melick, Jr., of Augusta Township, died before Sept. 8, 1833, when letters of administration were granted to Jacob and Peter Melick; 6, Henry, (see later); 7, Charity, married to George Easterly, died before May 22, 1813, living in Catawissa, Pa., May 22, 1813, one of whose children was Elizabeth, born before 1802; 8, Margaret, married to Conrad Metzger, living in Allegheny Co., Pa., Oct. 16, 1813; 9, Elizabeth, probably an invalid, for whose support Peter Melick bound all his other children in his will.

II. (3). Peter, Jr., son of Peter and Anna Maria (Faber) Melick, was born April 2, 1753, and was baptised April 22, 1753, (Bib.-23), Peter Seiler and Catharine Hess, sponsors. He was married to Rachel, born April 3, 1759, died Sept. 2, 1841, daughter of John Klingman. John Klingman lived in Ohio previous to 1825. The will of Peter Melick, Jr., was made in Bloom Township, Pa., Sept. 16, 1828, and was probated at Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa., Feb. 12, 1830. He died Feb. 11, 1830. The will of his widow was made Dec. 6, 1839, and was probated Oct. 8, 1841. *Peter Appelman, Sr., who lived in the Northwest precinct of Somerset Co., N. J., made his will May 27, 1742. It was probated Aug. 6, 1745, and is registered at Trenton, N. J. He referred to his wife as living, gave to his son, Baltus, the "Land whereon he liveth," to his son John the "Loom whereon he worketh," and the Large Bible, and named his obedient sons John and Matthias executors and trustees. The will is signed by mark, "Peter the Appelman." The inventory, made Nov. 6, 1745, totaled £210. Some of the children of Peter Appelman, Sr., of Somerset Co., N. J., were: 1, Baltus (John Balthazar), born March 15, 1714; 2, Johnnas, born May 3, 1716; 3, Johannes (2), born April 5, 1718; 4, Matthias; 5, Andreas. (Bib.-189, in part.)

Peter Appelman and Matthias Appelman, grandsons of Peter Appelman, of Somerset Co., N. J., and probably sons of John Balthazar (Baltus) Appelman, settled in Columbia Co., Pa. The will of Peter Appelman, of Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa., was made Dec. 6, 1816, was probated June 21, 1817, and names: (1), his wife; (2), Mary Thomas, "now living with us;" (3), Peter Appelman Farley, son of Minard Farley; (4), Mary Farley, daughter of Minard Farley; (5), Sarah Farley, daughter of Minard Farley; (6), Ann Farley, daughter of Minard Farley, and (7), his grandson, Minard Farley, son of Caleb Farley of Flemington, N. J., who was married to a daughter of Peter and Rhoda Appelman, (Family No. 1583—Farley). Some of the children of Matthias Appelman of Hemlock Township, now Columbia Co., Pa., were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Philip; 2, Baltus, born April 10, 1778, died June 9, 1854, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), married to Mary, daughter of Peter and Rachel (Klingman) Melick, (see above); 3, Matthias, Jr.; 4, Anna Barbara, married to Jacob Girton, (Family No. 1582—Girton); 5, Peter, born July 7, 1784, died Feb. 12, 1862, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), whose wife, Hannah, born Dec. 25, 1795, died June 22, 1879; 6, Mary Magdalene, married to William Aton; 7, Sarah, married to Samuel White. Hannah, wife of Peter Appelman, born July 7, 1784, was a daughter of James and Mary (Sheip) Harris, (Family No. 1840—Harris)

1887, married (1), in Feb., 1820, to Sarah Brown, born Feb. 2, 1795, died Nov. 6, 1861, married (2), in 1863, to Lavinia Mosteller, born 1824, died 1911, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.); 3, John, born Jan. 22, 1799, died Oct. 11, 1875, married to Martha Crevelling, born Feb. 1, 1799, died Dec. 2, 1853, (Light Street Cemetery, Columbia Co., Pa.) His will, made at Light Street, Columbia Co., Pa., Sept. 2, 1871, was probated Nov. 1, 1875, and names his children: (1), Justice A.; (2), Emma D., born Feb. 15, 1844, died Jan. 25, 1890, married to J. M. C. Ranck, Esq., of Scranton, Pa., born April 19, 1831, died Aug. 30, 1896, (Light Street Cemetery); (3), Harriet, married to James M. Sankey; (4), Martha Jane (Melick) Shade; (5), Nelson; (6), Henry; 4, Susan, married to George B. Sloan; 5, Rachel, born Nov., 1794, died Sept. 19, 1875, married to Chester Smith, born Sept. 30, 1794, died Aug. 19, 1865; 6, Daniel, born Jan. 1, 1806, married, May 14, 1829, to Sarah, daughter of John Hazlett; 7, Sarah, married to Asa Evered.

MARY (SHOEMAKER) LEMON; FAMILIES NOS. 1532—(1531)

Mary, daughter of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, was born, about 1786, in Oxford Township, Sussex Co., N. J., and, about 1794–5, removed, with her parents, to Greenwood Township, Northumberland Co., Pa. She was married to John, Jr., son of John and Elizabeth (Titman) Lemon of Greenwood Township, (Lemon family later). John Lemon, Jr., who lived on a farm, which was part of his father's estate in 1811, was deceased in Aug., 1832, when his widow, Mary Lemon, presented a petition, relating to her minor children, to the Aug., 1832, term of the Columbia Co. Court at Bloomsburg, Pa. His widow, Mrs. Mary (Shoemaker) Lemon, was living in 1836. The children of John, Jr., and Mary (Shoemaker) Lemon were: 1, Abraham, not married, died about 1866; 2, Isaac, married (Family No. 1533), to ———; 3, Jacob, born July 3, 1810, died Oct. 6, 1889, not married; 4, John, married to Mahala, lived near Little Fishing Creek; 5, James, probably died before 1837; 6, Russell, born Aug. 15, 1816, died March 10, 1895; 7, Catharine, born Jan. 4, 1819, died May 10, 1907; 8, Margaret, born June 4, 1821, died March 5, 1904, not married; 9, Joseph, born Nov. 15, 1823, died Feb. 28, 1892, not married; 10, Jane, not married; 11, Amelia Emily, born Dec. 26, 1826, died Dec. 22, 1868. In a petition of April, 1833, addressed to the Orphans' Court of Columbia Co., it appears that John Lemon, Jr., left a widow and eleven children, all but three of the children being minors, and that he owned 99 acres of land, a frame dwelling and log barn. The farm adjoined lands of Jonathan Lemon, Robert Mather, the heirs of Nehemiah Rees and John McCarty, and was sold, about 1835, to Philip Rees.

THE LEMON FAMILY (LEMMOND)

I. John Lemon, Sr., of Sussex Co., N. J., was married to Elizabeth Titman, who was probably a daughter of George Titman (Titman family later) of Oxford Township, Sussex Co., N. J. In 1790, or a little later, he removed with his family to Greenwood Township, Northumberland, now Columbia Co., Pa., and was a resident there in 1795. He is said to have been a wagonmaker by trade and to have served in that capacity with the New Jersey troops in the War of the American Revolution. He was deceased in 1809, and was survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth (Titman) Lemon and 13 children, five of whom were minors. The will of his widow was made June 1, 1829, and it was probated at Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., Pa., Aug. 3, 1829. It names four sons, Joseph, William, Jonathan and Isaac, and two grandchildren, Sarah and Rachel Lemon, children of her son, William. According to three petitions presented to the Orphans' Court in the August Term, 1809, the children of John Lemon who survived him were: 1, Joseph, married to Mary _____, appointed administrator of the estate of John Lemon, Sr., with John Parker, Michael Shoemaker and Harmon Kline on his bond; 2, Catharine, married before Aug., 1809, to James Connor; 3, Michael, of Greenwood Township, Columbia Co., Pa., Feb. 20, 1831, when his will was made. It was probated at Bloomsburg, Pa., March 23, 1831, and names his children: (1), Amy; (2), Michael, Jr.; (3), Sally Ann; (4), Jonathan; (5), Thomas; (6), John; (7), Mary; (8), Joseph; (9), Elizabeth; 4, John, Jr., married to Mary, daughter of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, (Family No. 1532); 5, George; 6, William, married to Elizabeth, daughter of William Parker, whose children were: (1), Sarah; (2), George; (3), Elijah, born Dec. 10, 1818, married to Eleanor, daughter of Amos Parker; (4), Elisha; (5), Malinda; (6), Samuel; (7), Lucinda; (8), Elizabeth; (9), William; (10), Frank; 7, Elizabeth, married, before 1809, to William, son of Michael Shoemaker*; 8, Jacob, died before 1809, leaving children named Jonathan, Isaac, Sarah, Baltzer and James; 9, Jonathan, born in 1790, died Oct. 26, 1852, (see later); 10, Isaac, born Aug. 3, 1791, died Feb. 4, 1835, (Lemon Cemetery, Greenwood Union Church), survived by his widow, Elizabeth, born Oct. 13, 1794, died Jan. 22, 1871, and their children: (1), Rebecca Elizabeth, married to Aaron Reese; (2), John, married to Elizabeth, born March 24, 1821, died Nov. 21, 1851; (3), Theodore, born 1833, died 1912, whose wife, Mary A.,

*I. Michael Shoemaker is said to have gone to Greenwood Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., from the vicinity of Philadelphia. His name appears in a number of accounts in the day book of Abraham Schumacher beginning in 1796, when he bought rye flour and Ention (Indian) meal from the latter. In Feb., 1808, Michael Shoemaker was credited in the old day book with blacksmith work done for Abraham Schumacher, Andrew Shoemaker, whose name appears on the Hanover Township, Luzerne Co., Pa., Tax Lists in 1813, and William Shoemaker, whose name appears on these lists in 1804, 1807, etc., were doubtless members of the family of this Michael Shoemaker. June 25, 1806, Michael Shoemaker, described as a shoemaker, of Greenwood Township, bought from Samuel Kitchen two parcels of land, one of 266 acres and one of 17 acres. His will, made April 7, 1827, and probated June 27, 1827, names his son, William, and his daughters, Catharine, Elizabeth and Susannah. William inherited the homestead of 17 acres.

II. William, son of Michael Shoemaker, died about 1860, in Greenwood Township: He was married (1) to Elizabeth, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Titman) Lemon, and was married (2) to Rachel Girton. Some of the children of William and Elizabeth (Lemon) Shoemaker were: 1, Michael, born June 16, 1816, died March 28, 1901, a gunsmith and millwright, married (1) to Lavina, born Jan. 10, 1820, died Oct. 27, 1862, daughter of Josiah and Jane Heacock, of Greenwood Township, married (2) to Mary Ann Dalby, (Heacock and Dalby later). His children, by his first marriage, were: (1), Jane, born Sept. 4, 1842, married to Albert Shields; (2), William H., born May 31, 1844, living in 1917, served in 1863 in Company C, 28th Regiment, Pa. Emergency troops, and from Feb. 24, 1864, to May 22, 1865, in Company D, 188th Regiment, Pa. Vol. Inf., in the Civil War, and was wounded in the battle of Cold Harbor, June 3, 1864. He was married, Sept. 4, 1869, to Frances Ebert, born 1846, died 1915, (New Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), and their children were: i, Michael Ellsworth, born April 23, 1871, died Jan. 14, 1910, (New Rosemont Cemetery), married to May Pettitt, Sept. 20, 1904, whose son, James Harris Shoemaker, was born Nov. 27, 1906; ii, Bertha, born May 3, 1875, married, July 12, 1900, to William J. Harris, Berwick, Pa.; (3), Joseph, born Jan. 10, 1846, died Dec. 6, 1846; (4), Hannah, born Sept. 17, 1848, died in 1916, married to Harvey Bates; (5), Isaac L., born Sept. 23, 1850; (6), Elizabeth, born Sept. 17, 1852, married to Webster W. Parker; (7), Eli, born May 5, 1854, died Dec. 31, 1873; (8), John N., born Dec. 17, 1856, died June 28, 1858; (9), Sarah Ann, born Sept. 5, 1858, married to Albert Bloom; (10), Rosanna, born June 7, 1860, married to Alvin Stayer; 2, John, married to Penniah, daughter of Josiah and Jane Heacock, (see later); 3, Philip, born Feb. 27, 1806, died April 22, 1889, will made in Pine Township, Columbia Co., Pa., Sept. 8, 1883, and was probated May 16, 1889. He and his wife are buried in Lemon Cemetery at Greenwood Union Church. He was married to Sarah Albertson, born Feb. 14, 1807, died Feb. 24, 1892, and their children were: (1), Moriah, born 1835, married, Oct., 1856, to Emanuel, born May 18, 1828, son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Moyer) Bogart. Emanuel Bogart, who died in 1910, served in the New York Volunteer Infantry or Artillery in the Civil War. He and his wife are buried in the Friends Cemetery at Millville, Pa.; (2), Elizabeth, married to Richard, born Sept. 18, 1840, son of Simon and Sally (Kisner) Whitmyer; (3), David C., married, Oct. 28, 1861, to Euranah C. Barclay; (4), Emeline, married to Abraham, son of Isaac and Beulah (Kline) Titman, (Titman family later); (5), Elijah, married (1) to Leah Long, married (2) to Samantha Shultz; (6), Abraham, born Nov. 30, 1848, died Dec. 5, 1880, (Lemon Cemetery), not married; 4, Joseph, born Feb. 12, 1809, died Feb. 23, 1887, (Lemon Cemetery), married to Jane E. Chamberlain, born Sept. 21, 1826, died March 2, 1903; 5, Sarah, born Aug. 6, 1810, died May 31, 1905, married, Dec. 29, 1832, to David C. Albertson, born March 18, 1805, died April 3, 1885; 6, Catharine, married to Matthias McHenry.

The will of Josiah Heacock of Greenwood Township, Columbia Co., Pa., was made May 27, 1847, and was probated Oct. 18, 1847. It names his wife, Jane, and the following children: 1, Joseph, Jr.; 2, Jeremiah; 3, Jesse; 4, Enos; 5, Richard; 6, Penniah, married to John Shoemaker; 7, Hannah; 8, Sarah (Heacock) Cragg; 9, Maria; 10, Rosanna (Heacock) Kester; 11, Lavina, married to Michael, son of William and Elizabeth (Lemon) Shoemaker.

The heirs of Abel Dalby, Feb. 5, 1881, were: 1, Michael Shoemaker, and his second wife, Mary Ann (Dalby) Shoemaker, then living in Dorrance Township, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 2, Martha Hicks of Beach Haven, Luzerne Co., Pa.; 3, the heirs of Hannah Enke of Nanticoke, Pa., Alfred A., Joseph, and John W. Enke; 4, Jason R. Clarke and his wife, Sarah E., of Williamsport, Pa.

was born in 1837, and died in 1898, (Lemon Cemetery); (4), Sarah; (5), Isaac, Jr.; 11, Sarah; 12, Balthis; 13, James, born Sept. 17, 1798, died April 8, 1879, married to Mary ———, born May, 1813, died Nov. 25, 1891, (Lemon Cemetery).

II. (9). Jonathan, son of John and Elizabeth (Titman) Lemon, was born in 1790 and died Oct. 26, 1852, (Lemon Cemetery). He was married (1) to Catharine, daughter of Harmon and Diana Kline*. Their children were: 1, William; 2, Ann, married to John Black; 3, Maria, married to Johnson N. Ikeler†; 4, Diana, married to William Edgar; 5, Almira, married to Benjamin Hayman; 6, Rebecca, married to Virgil M. Ikeler. He was married (2) to Margaret Lochard, born June 4, 1820, died March 5, 1904, (Lemon Cemetery, beside her husband), and their children were: 7, Harriet, married to Thomas Rees; 8, Jane, married to Lorenzo Mendenhall; 9, Eliza, not married; 10, John, married to Mary Kitchen; 11, Jacob, married to Sarah Ann McEwan; 12, Jonathan, Jr., not married; 13, Margaret, married to Nehemiah Kitchen. The will of Jonathan Lemon was made in Greenwood Township, Oct. 20, 1852, and was probated Nov. 3, 1852. It names all the above named children and also refers to another son, Lowrey Lemon.

THE TITMAN FAMILY (DITMAN)

I. Lodewick Ditman of Oxford, Sussex Co., N. J., whose wife's name was Mary, made his will Sept. 20, 1772, and it was probated Nov. 23, 1772. It names his children: 1, George; 2, Philip; 3, John; 4, Christina. (Bib.-189.)

II. (1). George, son of Lodewick and Mary Ditman, born in 1726, died in 1792, was married to Elizabeth (probably Chitney). Their home was in what is now Blairstown, N. J. His will was made Feb. 13, 1792, and was probated Aug. 21, 1792. It names his children: 1, George; 2, Baltus; 3, Mary Chitney, (Bib.-189). Elizabeth Titman, who was married to John Lemon, was, doubtless, also a daughter of George and Elizabeth (Chitney?) Ditman, (see above).

III. (1). George, Jr., son of George and Elizabeth (Chitney?) Titman (Ditman), was born March 4, 1750, and died Sept. 4, 1796. He was married to Lena

*Abraham Kline, of New Jersey, removed to Northumberland Co., Pa., and, in 1790, was a resident of that county and had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16, two females and one slave. His son, Harmon, also resided there in 1790, and had in family, himself, four males under 16, and three females. (Bib.-10.) Abraham Kline settled in Fishing Creek Township, where his will was made Sept. 2, 1819. It was probated Sept. 13, 1819, and names his wife, Ann Charity, and the following children: 1, Harmon, (see later); 2, Abraham, Jr., (see later); 3, Matthias; 4, George; 5, Isaac; 6, Elizabeth, (see later). It also names his granddaughter, Annie Emory.

II. (1). Harmon, son of Abraham and Ann Charity Kline, died before March 22, 1833, and at the time of his death owned a tract of land in Mount Pleasant Township. The name of his wife was Diana and their children were: 1, Abraham; 2, Hanna (or Annie), married to William Emory; 3, Harmon, Jr., married to Susanna Gilbert, whose son, Joseph, was married to Mary Crawford, (Family No. 1531—Crawford), and whose daughter, Elizabeth, was married to William G. Girton, (Family No. 1881); 4, Jacob; 5, Thomas, whose wife's name was Rebecca; 6, John; 7, William, born May 29, 1784, died April 7, 1868, married to Lydia or Elizabeth, born June 24, 1790, died May 5, 1869, (Rohrsburg, Pa., Cemetery); 8, Morris, married to Elizabeth; 9, Catharine, married to Jonathan, son of John and Elizabeth (Titman) Lemon, (Family No. 1532—Lemon); 10, Rebecca, married to Jacob Johnson; 11, probably daughter, married to James McMichael; 12, Sarah, married to Isaac Welch; 13, Isaac.

II. (2). Abraham, Jr., son of Abraham and Ann Charity Kline, lived in Fishing Creek Township, Columbia Co., Pa., and his will was made there June 2, 1838, and was probated June 18, 1838. It names the following children: 1, George, probably born April 30, 1772, died Sept. 26, 1853, married to Catharine Johnson, born June 18, 1782, died Oct. 30, 1854, buried in Orangeville, Pa., Cemetery; 2, John; 3, Abraham; 4, Jacob; 5, Isaac, married to Elizabeth Willet, some of whose children were: (1), Charity; (2), Sarah, married to Jacob McCollum, (see Family No. 1019); (3), Hiram; (4), Lovina; (5), Peter; (6), Elizabeth; (7), Aramenta; (8), Abraham; (9), Mary. Isaac Kline lived at Orangeville, Pa., and died there, aed. 67 years; 6, Samuel; 7, Matthias; 8, Anna, married to John Laubach; 9, Mary, married to Peter Crevelling; 10, Elizabeth.

II. (3). Elizabeth, daughter of Abraham and Ann Charity Kline, was married to Thomas Robins, born about 1757, served as a private in the N. J. Militia in the War of the American Revolution and, in 1835, was a Federal pensioner. (Bib.-13.) Some of their children were: 1, Charity; 2, William; 3, Abraham; 4, Thomas; 5, Daniel; 6, Matthias; 7, John; 8, Isaac. Thomas Robins lived in Northumberland Co., Pa., in 1790, and then had in family, living at home, himself, two males under 16 and three females. Joseph Robins also resided there in 1790, and had in family, himself, one male over 16 and two males under 16. (Bib.-10.)

†William Ikeler (Eichler) and his wife, who before her marriage was a Miss Barnhart, had at least four children: 1, Andrew, born April 18, 1772; 2, William; 3, Elizabeth; 4, Barnabas.

II. (1). Andrew, son of William Ikeler, was born April 18, 1772, and died Nov. 24, 1850. He was married to Christina, born 1770, died Dec. 29, 1865, daughter of Isaac Johnson, and some of their children were: 1, Elizabeth, married to Daniel McCarty; 2, William J., married to Sarah Kitchen; 3, Margaret, married to Elijah Albertson; 4, Isaac, married to Mary Taylor; 5, Andrew J., married to Mary Ann Titman, (Family No. 1532); 6, Johnson H., born Feb. 5, 1813, married, Oct. 31, 1834, to Maria, daughter of Jonathan and Catharine (Kline) Lemon.

Albright and their home was at Bridgeville, N. J. Their children were: 1, Margaret, born in April, 1775, died Jan. 26, 1850, married to William Hile, born April 30, 1775, died Jan. 26, 1848; 2, George (3d), born in 1777, died Oct. 13, 1813, married, Sept. 5, 1798, to Agnes Morgan, born in 1772, died July 15, 1842; 3, Jacob, born April 4, 1781, died Feb. 25, 1864, married, April 11, 1802, to Elizabeth Mayberry; 4, John, married, two of whose children were: (1), Michael B., and (2), Margaret, married to Stephen Shimer; 5, Lanah, married to Jeremiah Mackey; 6, Catharine, married to John Raub, (Family No. 947—Raub); 7, Elizabeth, married to Jacob Sharps, (Family No. 988—Sharps). (Bib.—189.)

III. (2). Baltus Titman, son of George and Elizabeth (Chitney?) Titman, was born in 1751, and died in 1796. He was of Knowlton, Sussex Co., N. J., when he contracted with Owen Biddle, druggist, of Philadelphia, for the purchase of 337 acres of land in Greenwood Township, Northumberland Co., Pa. He was married to Magdalene ———, who died about 1842. She was named sole administratrix of her husband's estate and March 11, 1802, appointed John Lemon of Greenwood Township, Northampton Co., Pa., her true and lawful attorney. May 31, 1797, James Bringhurst, Richard Wells and John Field, merchants of Philadelphia, and trustees for the creditors of Owens Biddle, executed a deed conveying title for the Greenwood lands to Magdalene Titman, administratrix. Oct. 31, 1818, all of the children of Baltus and Magdalene Titman, with the exception of Philip, who died in Aug., 1812, executed a power of attorney to their brother, Abraham Titman, of Knowlton, Sussex Co., N. J., who, Nov. 20, 1818, executed deeds to them dividing the Baltus Titman lands between them. The children of Baltus and Magdalene Titman, all named in Orphans' Court proceedings in the Aug. term, 1843, Columbia Co., Pa., were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, George, deceased in Aug., 1843, married to Mary Teeter, whose children, living in Aug., 1843, were: Elias, John, Baltis, George, Jr., Philip, William, Abraham, Mary Ann, Isaac and Jacob; 2, Catharine, married to Conrad Keen, both deceased in Aug., 1843, survived by their children, Baltis, Abraham; Magdalene, married to William Wintermute, of Sussex Co., N. J.; Catharine, married to Anchen Staley of Sussex Co., N. J.; Margaret, married to Charles Wintermute, of Warren Co., N. J., and Mary Keen, of Sussex Co., N. J.; 3, John, married to Elizabeth Teele, living in Pike Co., Pa., in Aug., 1843, whose children were, Jacob, Catharine, Jeremiah, John, Maria and Charles; 4, William, married to Juda Hill, lived in Sussex Co., N. J., in Aug., 1843, had three sons, Baltus, George and William, Jr.; 5, Abraham, removed to Greenwood, Columbia Co., Pa., married to Jane Robbins, probably born June 5, 1797, died April 19, 1851, (Greenwood, M. E. Cemetery). Their son, Isaac B., born about 1822, died June 8, 1844, was married to Beulah Kline, born Feb. 14, 1827, died Dec. 26, 1872. Their daughter, Mary Ann, was married to Andrew J., son of Andrew and Christiana Johnson Ikeler, (Family No. 1532—Ikeler). Abraham Titman, living in 1837, and appointed guardian of the children of Jonathan and Catharine (Kline) Lemon, died before Aug., 1843; 6, Magdalena, married to Isaac Blackford, living in Warren Co., N. J., in Aug., 1843; 7, Margaret, married to George Crouse, living in Sussex Co., N. J., in Aug., 1843; 8, Philip, (see later); 9, Anna, married to Isaac France, both deceased in Aug., 1843, survived by their children, Jacob, George, Elizabeth and Mary of Warren Co., N. J.; Sarah of Sussex Co., N. J., and Baltis, of Columbia Co., Pa.; 10, Elizabeth, married to Barnet Siple.

IV. (8). Philip, son of Baltus and Magdalene Titman, lived in Greenwood Township, Columbia Co., Pa., when his will was made, Aug. 11, 1812. He died in Aug., 1812, and his will was probated Sept. 18, 1812. It names his wife, Mary, and three sons: 1, Baltis; 2, John, and 3, Elisha. William Mather and Abner Mendenhall were named executors. In a petition presented to the Orphans' Court, in March, 1813, by Mary Titman, widow of Philip Titman, only Baltis and John are named. Elisha probably died in 1813-14. In the Orphans' Court proceedings of Aug., 1843, only the children of Baltis Titman are named as heirs of Philip Titman. John probably died not married.

V. (1). Baltis, son of Philip and Mary Titman, was married to Jane, daughter of Issachar and Elizabeth Morris.* He was deceased before July 3, 1838, and

*Issachar Morris, who was a merchant in Greenwood Township, Columbia Co., Pa., in 1830, was born Aug. 18, 1778, and died June 27, 1835. With his wife, Elizabeth, born in March, 1779, died Jan. 24, 1853, he is buried in Greenwood Methodist Episcopal Cemetery. His will, made June 7, 1835, names his wife, Elizabeth, his sons: (1), Dr. Benjamin C., and his son, Issachar C.; (2), John; (3), Joseph R.; (4), George M., his daughter, Jane, married (1) to Philip Titman, married (2) to ——— Fox, and his grandsons, Issachar Evans, Issachar Titman, Issachar Kudor and Issachar Blaker, and refers to three children not married. A petition presented to the his widow, Mrs. Jane (Morris) Titman, was married (2) to a Mr. Fox. The children of Baltis and Jane (Morris) Titman were: 1, Mary, married to James Hampton; 2, Elizabeth; 3, Issachar, who was married to Mary Kinney. Henrietta, daughter of Issachar and Mary (Kinney) Titman, was married to Martin Luther, son of Marshall G. and Rebecca (Welliver) Shoemaker, (Family No. 1601).

RUSSEL LEMON; FAMILIES NOS. 1534—(1532)

Russel, son of John and Mary (Shoemaker) Lemon, was born Aug. 15, 1816, and died March 10, 1895. He was married to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of William and Sarah Mather, (Mather family later), Dec. 3, 1837, by Caleb Thomas, Esq. She was born Jan. 13, 1820, and died April 26, 1876. James, Thomas and Sarah McCarty, apparently all members of one family, were early residents of Bucks, later Northampton Co., Pa. Sarah McCarty was married, July 31, 1753, to Joseph Bacor (probably Baker), in the Minisink Valley. (Bib.-240.)

James McCarty, a young man, born in London, was married, Jan. 13, 1746, to Elizabeth May (or Mayer). They lived in Smithfield Township, Bucks Co., Pa., and some of their children were: 1, William, baptised Sept. 7, 1746, married to Sarah Swartwood, and their son, James, was baptised Aug. 16, 1782; 2, Maria, baptised April 10, 1748, married, Aug. 12, 1768, to Christopher Dekker, four of whose children were: (1), Andries, baptised April 29, 1772; (2), Jacobus, baptised July 9, 1777; (3), Polly, baptised Oct. 29, 1780; (4), Maria, baptised Sept. 6, 1781; 3, John, baptised June 24, 1750, married to Susanna Keator, four of whose children were: (1), Nicholas, baptised Feb. 9, 1773, married to Helena Dekker, two of whose children were: John, born Feb. 4, 1798, and Lea, born Jan. 20, 1800; (2), Elizabeth, baptised Nov. 16, 1774; (3), William, baptised Jan. 24, 1778; (4), Josephat (or Josephus), born April 22, 1780, baptised Aug., 1784, married to Jane Van Aken, whose daughter, Maria, was baptised June 16, 1801; (5), John, Jr., born Aug. 16, 1782; (6), Abraham, born Nov. 26, 1785, baptised Jan. 22, 1786, (Bib.-240); 4, Lizabeth, baptised March 29, 1752; 5, Philip, baptised June 20, 1754, Philip and Maria Juliana (Hover) Wintermute, sponsors, married, Jan. 22, 1788, to Polly Van de Merke, whose son, Philip, Jr., was married to Rachel Van Etten, son Frederick was married to Phebe Cole, daughter Maria was married to Aaron Van Aken, and son, James (2), was married to Jane Van Aken; 6, probably, Jacomyntie, married to Peter Brink, Jr., and son, Dennis, born Aug. 1, 1796, baptised Oct. 2, 1796. (Bib.-240.)

I. Thomas McCarty settled in Mount Bethel Township, Bucks, later Northampton Co., Pa., and his name appears as Thomas Carty in the Horse and Wagon Census of 1758 as a resident there. Some of his children, apparently, were: 1, James, born in 1744, died Feb. 14, 1804, (see later); 2, William, who served in the Northampton Co., Pa., Militia in the War of the American Revolution, and May 1, 1782, was a private in Captain John Long's Mount Bethel Company. He was assessed as a blacksmith in Mount Bethel Township, in 1785; 3, Daniel, born about 1754, served in Captain Peter Campbell's Company of the Fifth Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia, April 29, 1782; who was assessed as a carpenter in Mount Bethel, in 1786, and later removed to Northumberland Co., Pa., and who, in 1835, was living in Columbia Co., Pa., 81 years of age and was a Federal pensioner, (Bib.-12); 4, probably, Anna, born about 1754, died Jan. 11, 1823, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), married to Elisha Barton (Family No. 1671—Barton).

II. (1). James McCarty, probably son of Thomas McCarty, was born in 1744, and died in Northumberland Co., Pa., Feb. 14, 1804, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.). He was doubtless the James McCarty who was assessed as a single Freeman in Easton, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1772. He returned to Mount Bethel Township and in the War of the American Revolution, Dec. 10, 1776, served as Sergeant in Captain John Nelson's Company of Colonel George Taylor's Battalion of Northampton Co. Militia. Later he served as Sergeant and Ensign of Captain John Lysle's Company. He removed to Mahoning Township, Northumberland Co., now Columbia Co., Pa., about 1785, and in 1786 was assessed there. In 1790 he had in family, living at home, himself, one male over 16, two males under 16 and five females. He was probably buried in the old Presbyterian Cemetery in Bloomsburg, Pa. His tombstone and probably his remains were removed to Rosemont Cemetery. Some of the children of James McCarty were: 1, John, born Nov. 8, 1773, (see later); 2, James, Jr., of Bloom Township, for whose estate Mary McCarty and James Hutchison were appointed administrators, Nov. 4, 1823; 3, Alexander C., (see later); 4, perhaps Michael, born 1788, died May 20, 1828, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.).

III. (1). John, son of James McCarty, was born Nov. 8, 1773, and died Oct. 1, 1844. In his will, made in Greenwood Township, April 5, 1843, he describes himself as an "Old Man." His will, probated at Bloomsburg, Pa., Oct. 12, 1844, names his wife, Sarah, born May 31, 1775, died June 26, 1870, aed. 94 years, 26 days, his son, James, his daughter-in-law, Catharine, wife of his son, Samuel McCarty. John McCarty, Sarah, his wife, and several of their children are buried in the Rohrsburg, Columbia Co., Pa., Cemetery. Some of the children of John and Sarah McCarty were: 1, James, born March 11, 1809, died Nov. 25, 1848, (Rohrsburg Cemetery); 2, probably Emily, married to Robert Campbell; 3, Samuel, born April, 1814, died Jan. 25, 1876, (Rohrsburg Cemetery), married to Catharine, daughter of John and Mary (Shoemaker) Lemon, March 25, 1838, (see above); 4, Sarah, born Nov. 20, 1817, died July 10, 1872, (see later); 5, Lydia, born April 16, 1821, died Oct. 6, 1871; 6, Margaret (McCarty) Shively; 7, Phebe (McCarty) Terry, deceased in 1872; 8, Rhoda (McCarty) Robins.

III. (4). Sarah, daughter of John and Sarah McCarty, was born Nov. 20, 1817, and died July 10, 1872. She apparently owned the John McCarty farm, and in her will, provided that it should be sold. Her will, made July 8, 1872, was probated July 19, 1872, and names her niece, Miranda Shively; Alfred C. McCarty, not 21 years of age; the children of her deceased sister, Phebe Terry; her sister-in-law, Catharine McCarty; her sister, Rhoda Robins; her sister, Margaret Shively; her brother, Samuel, to whom she gave the large Bible; her cousin, Margaret Ruckel, who was evidently a daughter of Alexander McCarty of Bloom Township, (see later). She provided that tombstones should be placed to mark the graves of her father, mother, her brother James, her sister Lydia and her own grave, and named her friend, Thomas Mather, executor.

II. (3). Alexander C. McCarty, of Bloom Township, Columbia Co., Pa., probably a son of James McCarty, was married (1) to a daughter of John Emmett (or Emmettrice). She was deceased in 1828, leaving the following children, named in a petition filed in the Orphans' Court of Columbia Co. in that year, by Alexander C. McCarty: 1, Melissa; 2, John; 3, James; 4, Lemuel; 5, Jane. He was married (2) to Elizabeth ———, and their children were: 6, Margaret; 7, Alexander, Jr.; 8, William Canon. Melissa McCarty was doubtless the M. McCarty who, Feb. 8, 1853, by renunciation, consented to the appointment of Eli Crevelling as administrator of the estate of William C. McCarty. John McCarty apparently lived in Scott Township, and Eli Crevelling was appointed administrator of his estate Dec. 5, 1855. James McCarty also lived in Scott Township, and Harriet McCarty was appointed administratrix of his estate Oct. 2, 1862. Lemuel McCarty lived in Bloom Township, and Eli Crevelling was appointed administrator of his estate Feb. 22, 1854. Jane McCarty was married to ——— Abbott and, as Jane Abbott, consented Feb. 8, 1853, to the appointment of Eli Crevelling as administrator of the estate of William C. McCarty. Margaret McCarty was married to ——— Ruckley (or Ruckel), and Feb. 8, 1853, consented to the appointment of Eli Crevelling as administrator of the estate of William C. McCarty. Her name appears Margaret Ruckel in the will of Sarah, daughter of John McCarty, as that of a cousin of Sarah McCarty. Alexander McCarty, Jr., was living Feb. 8, 1853. William Canon McCarty lived in Bloom Township and was deceased before Feb. 8, 1853, when John McCarty, James McCarty, Alexander McCarty, Lemuel McCarty, M. McCarty, Margaret Ruckley and Jane Abbott consented to the appointment of Eli Crevelling as administrator of his estate. All of the above named children of Alexander C. McCarty of Bloom Township, Columbia Co., Pa., are named in his will, which was made, April 27, 1848, and was probated Dec. 13, 1849.

AMELIA EMILY (LEMON) BOGART; FAMILIES NOS. 1578—(1532)

Amelia Emily, daughter of John and Mary (Shoemaker) Lemon, was born Dec. 26, 1826, and died Dec. 22, 1868. She was married to Samuel Bogart, born Oct. 8, 1820, died Sept. 2, 1892. They are buried in the Rohrsburg Cemetery. Their children were: 1, Henderson Lee, born Nov. 5, 1849, died March 25, 1874; 2, William, married (Family No. 1579) to ———; 3, Almeda, married (Family No. 1580) to Charles H. Dildine, lives at Orangeville, Pa.; 4, Isaac E., born July 29, 1856, died May 20, 1871; 5, John W., born Nov. 5, 1860, died Nov. 6, 1868; 6, J. Franklin, born Nov. 19, 1861, lives at Eaglesmere, Pa., (1916) married (Family No. 1581), March 15, 1887, to Ella L. Morris, whose children are: (1), Henry Morton, born Dec. 5, 1888, a Normal School graduate and engaged in teaching; (2), William Frederick, born Sept. 5, 1893, deceased; (3), Harold Reed, born Jan. 19, 1896, in the confectionery business at Eaglesmere, Pa., in 1916; 7, Emily L., born Aug. 28, 1868, died Nov. 25, 1880.

ANDREW SHOEMAKER;* FAMILIES NOS. 1582—(1531)

Andrew, son of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, was born about 1788, and was married to Catharine, daughter of Marshall and Ellen (Kinney) Girton, and some of their children were: 1, Marshall Girton, born Feb. 6, 1811, died March 2, 1881; 2, Elizabeth; 3, Mary Ellen, died Jan. 10, 1895; 4, Amzy; 5, Lucinda; 6, William G., born Oct. 17, 1822, died March 13, 1905, (incomplete).

THE GIRTON FAMILY†

II. John Girton, said to have been a son of I. George Girton, an English immigrant, who settled in New Jersey, had, among his children, seven sons: 1, Stephen; 2, George; 3, William, (probably) married to Martha, daughter of John Kinney, (Kinney family later); 4, Jacob; 5, Marshall, born Feb. 9, 1767, died Nov. 19, 1831; 6, Esau; 7, John, born July 14, 1774, died June 3, 1835.

III. (4). Jacob, son of John Girton, settled near Buckhorn, Northumberland, now Columbia, Co., Pa. He was married (1) to Anna Barbara, daughter of Matthias Appleman, (Family No. 1531—Appleman), and (2) to Catharine Lilly. He was deceased in Sept., 1852, when his son, Philip, presented a petition to the Orphans' Court. He owned lands in Madison Township, Columbia Co., Pa., where his mansion house stood, and also owned lands in Montour Co., Pa. The petition names his children: 1, William, deceased, and his children, (1), Anna; (2), John; (3), Matthias; (4), Rosetta, married to Jacob Girard; (5), Mary M.; (6), Catharine Louise; (7), Hetty I.; (8), William Boyd. He was born Nov. 3, 1793, died April 12, 1847, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa., and was married to Catharine, daughter of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, (Family No. 1809); 2, Matthias, born Feb. 3, 1796, died Nov. 8, 1852, with his wife, Esther, born 1793, died April 4, 1846, buried in New Columbia, Columbia Co., Pa., Cemetery; 3, Elizabeth, married to Charles Hartman, living near Schoolcraft, Kalamazoo Co., Mich., in 1852; 4, Lena, born March 15, 1800, died Oct. 11, 1875, married to Isaac, born July 7, 1798, died Jan. 17, 1884, probably son of Paul, born March 8, 1760, died March 21, 1831, and Charity Leidy, born in 1764, died Aug. 23, 1829, all buried in New Columbia Cemetery; 5, Esau, born Jan. 6, 1803, died Jan. 23, 1886, with his wife, Sarah E., born April 24, 1816, died Nov. 8, 1896, buried in Dutch Hill Cemetery, Columbia Co., Pa.; 6, Mary (Girton) Flick, living in Lycoming Co., Pa., (1852); 7, Philip; 8, Baltus; 9, Harriet, married to Charles Sterling; 10, Sarah Ann, married to Daniel Wagoner. Philip Girton was married to Jane Force, who, after the death of her husband, was married (2) to Abraham Shoemaker, Jr.

III (5). Marshall, son of John Girton, was born Feb. 9, 1767, and died Nov. 19, 1831. He was married to Ellen (or Elena), daughter of John Kinney, and was, for a number of years an innkeeper in Madison Township, Columbia Co., Pa. His will, made in Madison Township, Columbia Co., Pa., Nov. 10, 1831, was probated Nov. 30, 1831, and names his wife Elena, his son William, his son John, and his daughters Catharine†, married to Andrew, son of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, (Family No. 1582), and Margaret. His son William was married to Elizabeth ———, born Jan. 2, 1805, died Dec. 25, 1839, (Dutch Hill Cemetery), and their children were: (1), Andrew; (2), Marshall; (3), Ellen; (4), John Wesley.

*Another Andrew Shoemaker, who lived in Madison Township, Columbia Co., Pa., was deceased Sept. 8, 1860. His widow's name was Mary and their children were: 1, Jacob; 2, Abraham; 3, Charles; 4, Catharine, married to Peter Housen; 5, Elizabeth, married to Peter Maxel; 6, Sarah, married to Joseph Hendershott; 7, Mary, married to Samuel Shafer. These are all named in Orphans' Court proceedings in 1860.

†John K. Girton and his three wives are buried in Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa. His first wife, Mary E., born July 2, 1816, died July 10, 1846. His second wife was Eleanor, born Oct. 11, 1818, died Feb. 26, 1858. His third wife was Ruth Hopkins Girton, born Oct. 18, 1812, died Jan. 19, 1873, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Huffman) Girton, (see later). This John K. Girton was born Aug. 11, 1811, and died Feb. 17, 1890. (Bib.-80.) He was probably a son of Marshall and Ellen (Kinney) Girton.

In the same cemetery is the grave of John K. Girton, born March 10, 1805, died May 27, 1875, and that of his wife, Margaret (Shoemaker) Girton, born Dec. 29, 1803, died March 14, 1890. He was probably a son of William and Martha (Kinney) Girton.

‡The writer has not been able to determine positively whether Catharine Girton, who was married to Andrew Shoemaker, was daughter of Marshall Girton or of William Girton.

born 1821, died 1877, married to Hannah Flick, born 1821, died 1913; (5), Euphemia; (6), Elizabeth; (7), Ira; (8), Anna; (9), William L.; (10), Shepherd.

III. (6). Esau, son of John Girton, died intestate and his son, James Girton, presented a petition to the Aug. term of the Orphans' Court in 1839, pertaining to his estate. He owned 100 acres of land in Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa. He was married to Susan, daughter of Henry and Margaret Ohl, (Family No. 1787—Ohl). The children named in the petition were: 1, James, married (1) to Elsey Kinney, born May 2, 1798, died June 3, 1839, (Dutch Hill Cemetery), married (2) to Mrs. Elizabeth (Ernest) Farley, widow of Minard Farley (?); 2, Sarah; 3, Lidy; 4, Lena, married to John Campbell*; 5, Hannah, married to Henry Everett; 6, Rebecca, married to Abraham, Jr., son of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Shoemaker; 7, Jacob; 8, Mahala; 9, Lavina; 10, Lewis. Mahala, Lavina and Lewis were minors, and in a petition to the Orphans' Court by their uncle, Andrew Ohl, in Jan., 1839, are described as children of Susan Girton and under 14 years of age.

III. (7). John, Jr., son of John Girton, was born July 14, 1774, and died June 3, 1835. He was married, Jan. 17, 1798, to Elizabeth (probably Kinney), born Sept. 20, 1780, died March 28, 1847, and they are buried in the Dutch Hill Cemetery in Columbia Co., Pa. His will, made in Madison Township, Columbia Co., Pa., May 12, 1830, and probated June 20, 1835, names his wife Elizabeth and his daughter Ruth and refers to other heirs. The children of John, Jr., and Elizabeth (Kinney?) Girton were: 1, Lanah, born Jan. 20, 1799, married, Sept. 23, 1819, to ———; 2, Peter Kinney, born March 4, 1801, died Sept. 4, 1814; 3, Sarah, born June 17, 1803, married, in Aug., 1821, to ———; 4, Anna, born April 20, 1805, died May 27, 1847, (Dutch Hill Cemetery), married, in March, 1826, to Daniel, born May 2, 1802, died June 23, 1877, probably son of Christian and Mary Ernest, born about 1786, died March 20, 1866, in her 81st year, (Dutch Hill Cemetery); 5, Rachel, born April, 1807, died Feb., 1808; 6, Mary, born in 1808, died Aug. 26, 1822; 7, Elizabeth, born Sept. 9, 1810, married, Sept. 20, 1832, to ———; 8, Ruth Hopkins, born Oct. 18, 1812, died Jan. 19, 1873, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.), married, Feb. 3, 1859, as third wife, to John K. Girton; 9, William, born Oct. 6, 1814, married, in Feb., 1835, to ———; 10, Rebecca, born Nov. 15, 1816, died Feb. 13, 1817; 11, Josiah, born Jan. 17, 1819, died Dec. 12, 1893, married March 18, 1841, to Sarah Ann, born March 17, 1814, died April 25, 1897; 12, Martin, born Sept. 22, 1820; 13, Cephas, born Sept. 7, 1822, died July 26, 1876.

III. (3). William Girton, son of John Girton, lived in Derry Township, Northumberland Co., Pa., July 4, 1796, when he bought from William Colt, a blacksmith, of Mahoning Township, for £1,100, two tracts of land in Derry Township. The first of these is described as containing 164 acres, including a mill seat and the other as containing 326 acres. William Girton was married to Martha, daughter of John Kinney. Catharine Girton, who was married to Andrew Shoemaker, (Family No. 1582); Margaret Girton, who was married to Isaac Shoemaker, (Family No. 1719), and John K. Girton, who was married to Margaret Shoemaker, (Family No. 1875), may have been his children. Also Peter Girton, born April 14, 1804, died Nov. 16, 1884, with his wife, Margaret, born March 1, 1812, died Nov. 19, 1873, buried in Lemon Cemetery.

THE KINNEY FAMILY

I. John Kinney, born in 1738, died Feb. 11, 1814, and his wife, Mary, (perhaps second wife), born in 1762, died Sept. 24, 1828, are buried in Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa. His will, made in Bloom Township, Feb. 23, 1814, was probated March 11, 1814. It names his wife Mary, his seven sons Peter, John, James, Richard, Philip, Isaac and David and refers to eight daughters not named. He divided his homestead between his sons Isaac and David. Some of the children of John Kinney were, (order of birth not known to writer): 1, Peter, who was probably Peter Kinney of Greenwood Township, Columbia Co., Pa., whose will, made Aug. 7, 1815, was probated May 27, 1819, and names his children: (1), David; (2), Peter; (3), Abraham; (4), Aaron; (5), Rebecca; (6), Mary; (7), Sarah; (8), Hannah (Kinney) Knausche; (9), Elizabeth; 2, John, Jr.; 3, probably Ellen or Elena, married to Marshall, son of John Girton, (see Girton above); 4, James, married to Elizabeth, daughter of Philip Huffman*. She was born in May, 1773, and died Jan. 11, 1842, (Dutch Hill Cemetery). He was deceased in Jan., 1840, and his heirs, named in Orphans' Court proceedings, were, his widow Elizabeth and their children: (1), Rev. John C. Kinney; (2), Marsy (Martha?), married to Jacob, son of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Shoemaker; (3), Elcey, born May 1, 1798, died June 3, 1839, (Dutch Hill Cemetery), married, as first wife, to James, son of Esau Girton; (4), Mary Ann, born 1800, died Aug. 20, 1860, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg), married to John Brugler, born March 24, 1795, died May 8, 1874; (5), Susan, probably born Aug. 30, 1803, died Oct. 11, 1875, (Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg, Pa.); (6), Michael; (7), Elizabeth, born 1806, died Sept. 12, 1890, married to John K. Robins, born May 20, 1803, died Oct. 27, 1873, (Rosemont Cemetery); 5, Richard, born Feb. 15, 1774, died Oct. 7, 1851, married to Hannah, born in Jan., 1784, died Sept. 15, 1839, (New Columbia, Columbia Co., Pa., Cemetery). His will, made in Hemlock Township, Columbia Co., Pa., March 6, 1851, was probated Oct. 15, 1851, and names his children: (1), Jacob; (2), Sydney, born Nov. 3, 1814, died April 8, 1853; (3), Rebecca, an invalid; (4), Eleanor; (5), Hannah M.; (6), Marshall G., born Aug. 12, 1807, died Dec. 21, 1880, with his wife Hannah, born Dec. 31, 1813, died April 26, 1873, buried in Rosemont Cemetery, Bloomsburg. Sidney Kinney, born Nov. 10, 1839, died Feb. 20, 1910, and Martha J. Lazarus, born Aug. 10, 1837, died March 22, 1898, are buried in the same plot; (7), Elijah; 6, Philip; 7, Isaac, born 1781, died April 28, 1831, (Rosemont Cemetery); 8, David, born 1792, died May 26, 1826, (Rosemont Cemetery); 9, Ruth, born Feb. 23, 1792, died Feb. 13, 1835, married to John Deitrich, born April 15, 1791, died June 6, 1867, (Rosemont Cemetery); 10, probably Martha, married to William, son of John Girton; 11, Lena, born Jan. 19, 1799, died Feb. 12, 1869, married to John, born Oct. 13, 1791, died Oct. 7, 1855, son of Henry and Margaret Ohl, (Family No. 1787—Ohl), (Rosemont Cemetery); 12, probably a daughter, married to ——— Robins; 13, probably Elizabeth, married to John Girton, Jr.

*John Campbell was probably a son of Alexander Campbell, who died intestate, in Columbia Co., Pa., about 1822. His children were: Jane, married to Eli Everett; Mary, married to Thomas Osborn; Margaret, married to Amos E. Kitchen; Obediah, McDonald, Alexander, Jr., John and Robert, the last three minors.

MARSHALL GIRTON SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 1583—(1582)

Marshall Girton, son of Andrew and Catharine (Girton) Shoemaker, was born in Columbia Co., Pa., Feb. 6, 1811. He was married, Dec. 20, 1831, to Rebecca, born Dec. 2, 1807, died June 11, 1883, daughter of Jacob and Nancy Williver. In 1832 he removed to Pottsville, Pa., and established himself as a merchant on West Market street, near Fourth street. He remained there about two years and then returned to Columbia Co. and became a merchant, conducting stores at New Columbia, Rohrsburg and Buckhorn. Oct. 7, 1841, Marshall G. Shoemaker and James Harris, (Family No. 1840—Harris), were merchants at Buckhorn, to whom William Gillaspay, a house carpenter, sold lands in Hemlock Township. In 1849, 1850, 1854, 1857 and 1859 respectively, he bought Hemlock Township lands from John McReynolds, born April 3, 1788, died March 14, 1880, Rosemont Cemetery), then of Hemlock Township, and his wife, Nancy McReynolds; Agnes McHard McReynolds, born April 17, 1789, died May 14, 1874, (Rosemont Cemetery); from Isaac Wagner, Jr., and his wife Susannah, of Madison; John Miller and his wife Sophia; John and Margaret Gruber and William McKelvey and his wife Elizabeth. He served as Postmaster at Buckhorn for about 25 years (1843—1867), and, about 1867, removed to Shenandoah, Pa., where he established a general store. He died there March 2, 1881. The children of Marshall Girton and Rebecca (Welliver) Shoemaker were: 1, William Henrie, born Oct. 17, 1832, died Nov. 9, 1907;

*The heirs of Philip Huffman, living April 13, 1826, were, his widow, and: (1), Martin Huffman; (2), ——— Huffman; (3), William Huffman; (4), Jesse Bowman; (5), James Kinney; (6), Elizabeth Kinney; (7), Dorcas Freas.

WILLIAM HENRIE SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 1584—(1583)

William Henrie Shoemaker, son of Marshall Girton and Rebecca (Welliver) Shoemaker, was born in Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 17, 1832, and died in Shenandoah, Schuylkill Co., Pa., Nov. 9, 1907. He was married, in 1857, to Effie, born Nov. 10, 1833, died Feb. 11, 1911, daughter of Peter Appleman and Sarah Farley, of Massillon, Stark Co., Ohio. Their children were: 1, Edward W., born Dec. 14, 1872; 2, Sanford Wellington, born Feb. 2, 1876. William Henrie Shoemaker attended the common schools of Columbia Co., Pa., Bradley's Select School at Bloomsburg and Wyoming Seminary at Kingston, Luzerne Co., Pa. After serving for some time as a clerk in his father's store he, in 1857, was admitted to a partnership in the business. He succeeded his father as Postmaster at Buckhorn, Columbia Co., Pa., and served until 1877. He removed to Shenandoah, Pa., about 1877, and was a member of the Borough Council from 1879 to 1883. In the spring of 1883 he was elected Justice of the Peace, an office to which he was re-elected for many terms. He was a partner, with his father, in the general store of the latter at Shenandoah.

THE FARLEY FAMILY

According to Dr. Chambers (Bib.-189) the Farley family, of Columbia Co., Pa., were descendants of Mindert, baptised at Somerville, N. J., Sept. 17, 1720, and Barbara (Van Dieren) Farley, died 1808. The will of Mindert Farley, of March 1, 1790, names his wife Barbara, and the following children: 1, Caleb, married to Gertrude, removed to Columbia Co., Pa.; 2, John; 3, Isaac; 4, Joshua; 5, Mary; 6, Mindert; 7, Margaret, (see Dr. Chamber's work for further reference to this family.)

Caleb, son of Mindert and Barbara (Van Dieren) Farley, was married to a daughter of Peter and Rhoda Appleman, (Family No. 1531—Appleman). Dr. Chambers gives her name as Gertrude. Two of the sons of Caleb and Gertrude (?) (Appleman) Farley were: 1, Peter, who was married to Sarah, born June 17, 1803, daughter of John and Elizabeth Girton (?), and 2, Minard, who was married (1) to Effie, born July 27, 1774, daughter of John, born Jan. 8, 1752, and Ann Green, born June 7, 1751, who were married, Dec. 23, 1771. It appears from some papers among the effects of Mrs. Effie (Farley) Shoemaker that Minard Farley was probably married (2) to Elizabeth Ernest, sister of Daniel Ernest of Columbia Co., Pa., and that after his decease his widow became the second wife of James Girton, son of Esan Girton. The children of Minard and Effie (Green) Farley were, apparently: 1, Ann (Farley) Woodley; 2, Polly (Farley) Lavison; 3, Sarah (Farley) Painter; 4, John, and if Minard Farley was married (2) to Elizabeth Ernest their children were apparently, 5, Peter Appleman; 6, Ursulina, born after 1817; 7, Effie (Farley) Kreiss, married to Frederick Kreiss, who was also born after 1817. In the will of Peter Appleman of Hemlock Township, made Dec. 6, 1816, and probated June 30, 1817. Minard Farley is described as his grandson and Peter Appleman Farley, Mary Farley, Sarah Farley and Ann Farley are named as children of Minard Farley. In Orphans' Court proceedings of April, 1831, Effie and Ursulina Farley are described as minor children of Minard Farley and under 14 years of age.

Peter Appleman Farley, son of Minard Farley, was married to Sarah ———, probably Ohl, (Family No. 1787—Ohl), and they removed to Massillon, Stark Co., Ohio. Some of their children were: 1, John, who lived at Stryker's, Ohio; 2, William, who lived at Spartansburg, Pa.; 3, Effie, born Nov. 10, 1833, died Feb. 11, 1911, married, in 1857, to William Henrie, son of Marshall Girton and Rebecca (Welliver) Shoemaker, (Family No. 1584); 4, Elizabeth, married to Luson Smith, lived at Millville, Iowa; 5, Melinda, married to William Clark, lived in Iowa.

EDWARD W. SHOEMAKER; FAMILIES NOS. 1585—(1584)

Edward W., son of William Henrie and Effie (Farley) Shoemaker, was born Dec. 14, 1872. He was graduated by Dickinson College and is an attorney at law, living in Shenandoah, Schuylkill Co., Pa. He was married, Sept. 20, 1906, to Sarah Alnerta, born April 20, 1876, daughter of Thomas E. and Mary C. (Heller) Sands, and their son, Donald Sands, was born April 20, 1908.

THE SANDS FAMILY

John Sands, son of Daniel and Catharine (Levring) Sands, born Aug. 20, 1749, died Jan. 4, 1800, was married to Hannah Eck. Their son, Joseph E. Michael, son of Abraham and Margaret (Melick) Schumacher, is said to have been married to a Miss Hazeldine. No further record available to writer.

ELIZABETH (SCHUMACHER) KNAUSS; FAMILIES NOS. 1902—(1)

Elizabeth, daughter of Michael and Mary Catharine (Scheimer) Schumacher, was born Aug. 15, 1764, died March 20, 1835, and was buried in Williams Township, Northampton Co., Pa. (Bib.-22.) She was married, about 1784, to Ludwig, Jr., born Feb. 28, 1760, son of Ludwig and Elizabeth Knauss of Easton, Pa., (Knauss family later).

Ludwig Knauss, Jr., born Feb. 28, 1760, was baptised April 5, 1760, and his baptism is the earliest recorded in the records of the Reformed Church of Easton, Pa. He served as a private, from Nov. 18, to Dec. 13, 1780, in Captain Lewis Stacker's Company, of Northampton Co., Pa., Militia. This Williams Township Company formed part of the Battalion commanded by Major John Nelson, and was, in the fall of 1780, in the service of the United States. Ludwig Knauss, Jr., learned the trade of a saddler, undoubtedly in the shop of his father in Easton, and in 1785 he described himself as a saddler, living with his wife, Elizabeth, in Tinicum Township, Bucks Co., Pa. May 15, 1787, with his wife, Elizabeth, he served as a sponsor for their niece, Sarah, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (Arndt) Schumacher. He was living in 1808. Four of the children of Ludwig*, Jr., and Elizabeth (Schumacher) Knauss were: 1, Johannes,† born Dec. 29, 1785, baptised Jan. 14, 1786, Ludwig, Sr., and Elizabeth Knauss, sponsors; 2, Elizabeth, born June 30, 1790, baptised Aug. 22, 1790, her grandmother, Schumacher, sponsor; 3, Mary; 4, Margaret, who may have been the Margaret Knauss, married, April 13, 1822, to Henry Stem. (Bib.-22.)

In 1821 a Betsey Knause (Knauss)‡ was apparently at the home of Isaac Schumacher at New Troy, now Wyoming, Pa., her name appearing in the old day book of Jacob I. Shoemaker, (see Family No. 986). This may have been Elizabeth, born June 30, 1790, or it may have been her mother.

THE KNAUSS FAMILY (KNOUSE, KNOWS, CANOUSE)

Ludwig Knauss, Sr., born Feb. 17, 1731, died, in Easton, Pa., in June, 1810, was a saddler in Easton, Pa., in 1772, his name appearing in the list of payers of Proprietary Tax. He was married to Elizabeth ———, born in Nov., 1724, died in Easton, Pa., June 5, 1794, (Bib.-22). In 1790 they had in family, living at home, Ludwig Knauss, Sr., one male over 16, one male under 16 and two females. Three of their children were: 1, John, (see later); 2, Ludwig, Jr., born Feb. 28, 1760, baptised April 5, 1760, Philip Gressie and Anna Margretha, sponsors; 3, Annie Elizabeth, born Aug. 9, 1763. The will of Ludwig Knauss, Sr., was made in Easton, Pa., Nov. 24, 1808, and was probated July 20, 1809. It names his sons, John and Lewis, and his grandchildren, John, Elizabeth, Mary and Margaret Knauss, children of his son, Lewis. He bequeathed the residue of his estate to his son, John.

*His name appears in various records as Lewis Knauss, Lewis Knauss, Jr., Ludwig Knauss, Jr., and John Ludwig Knauss.

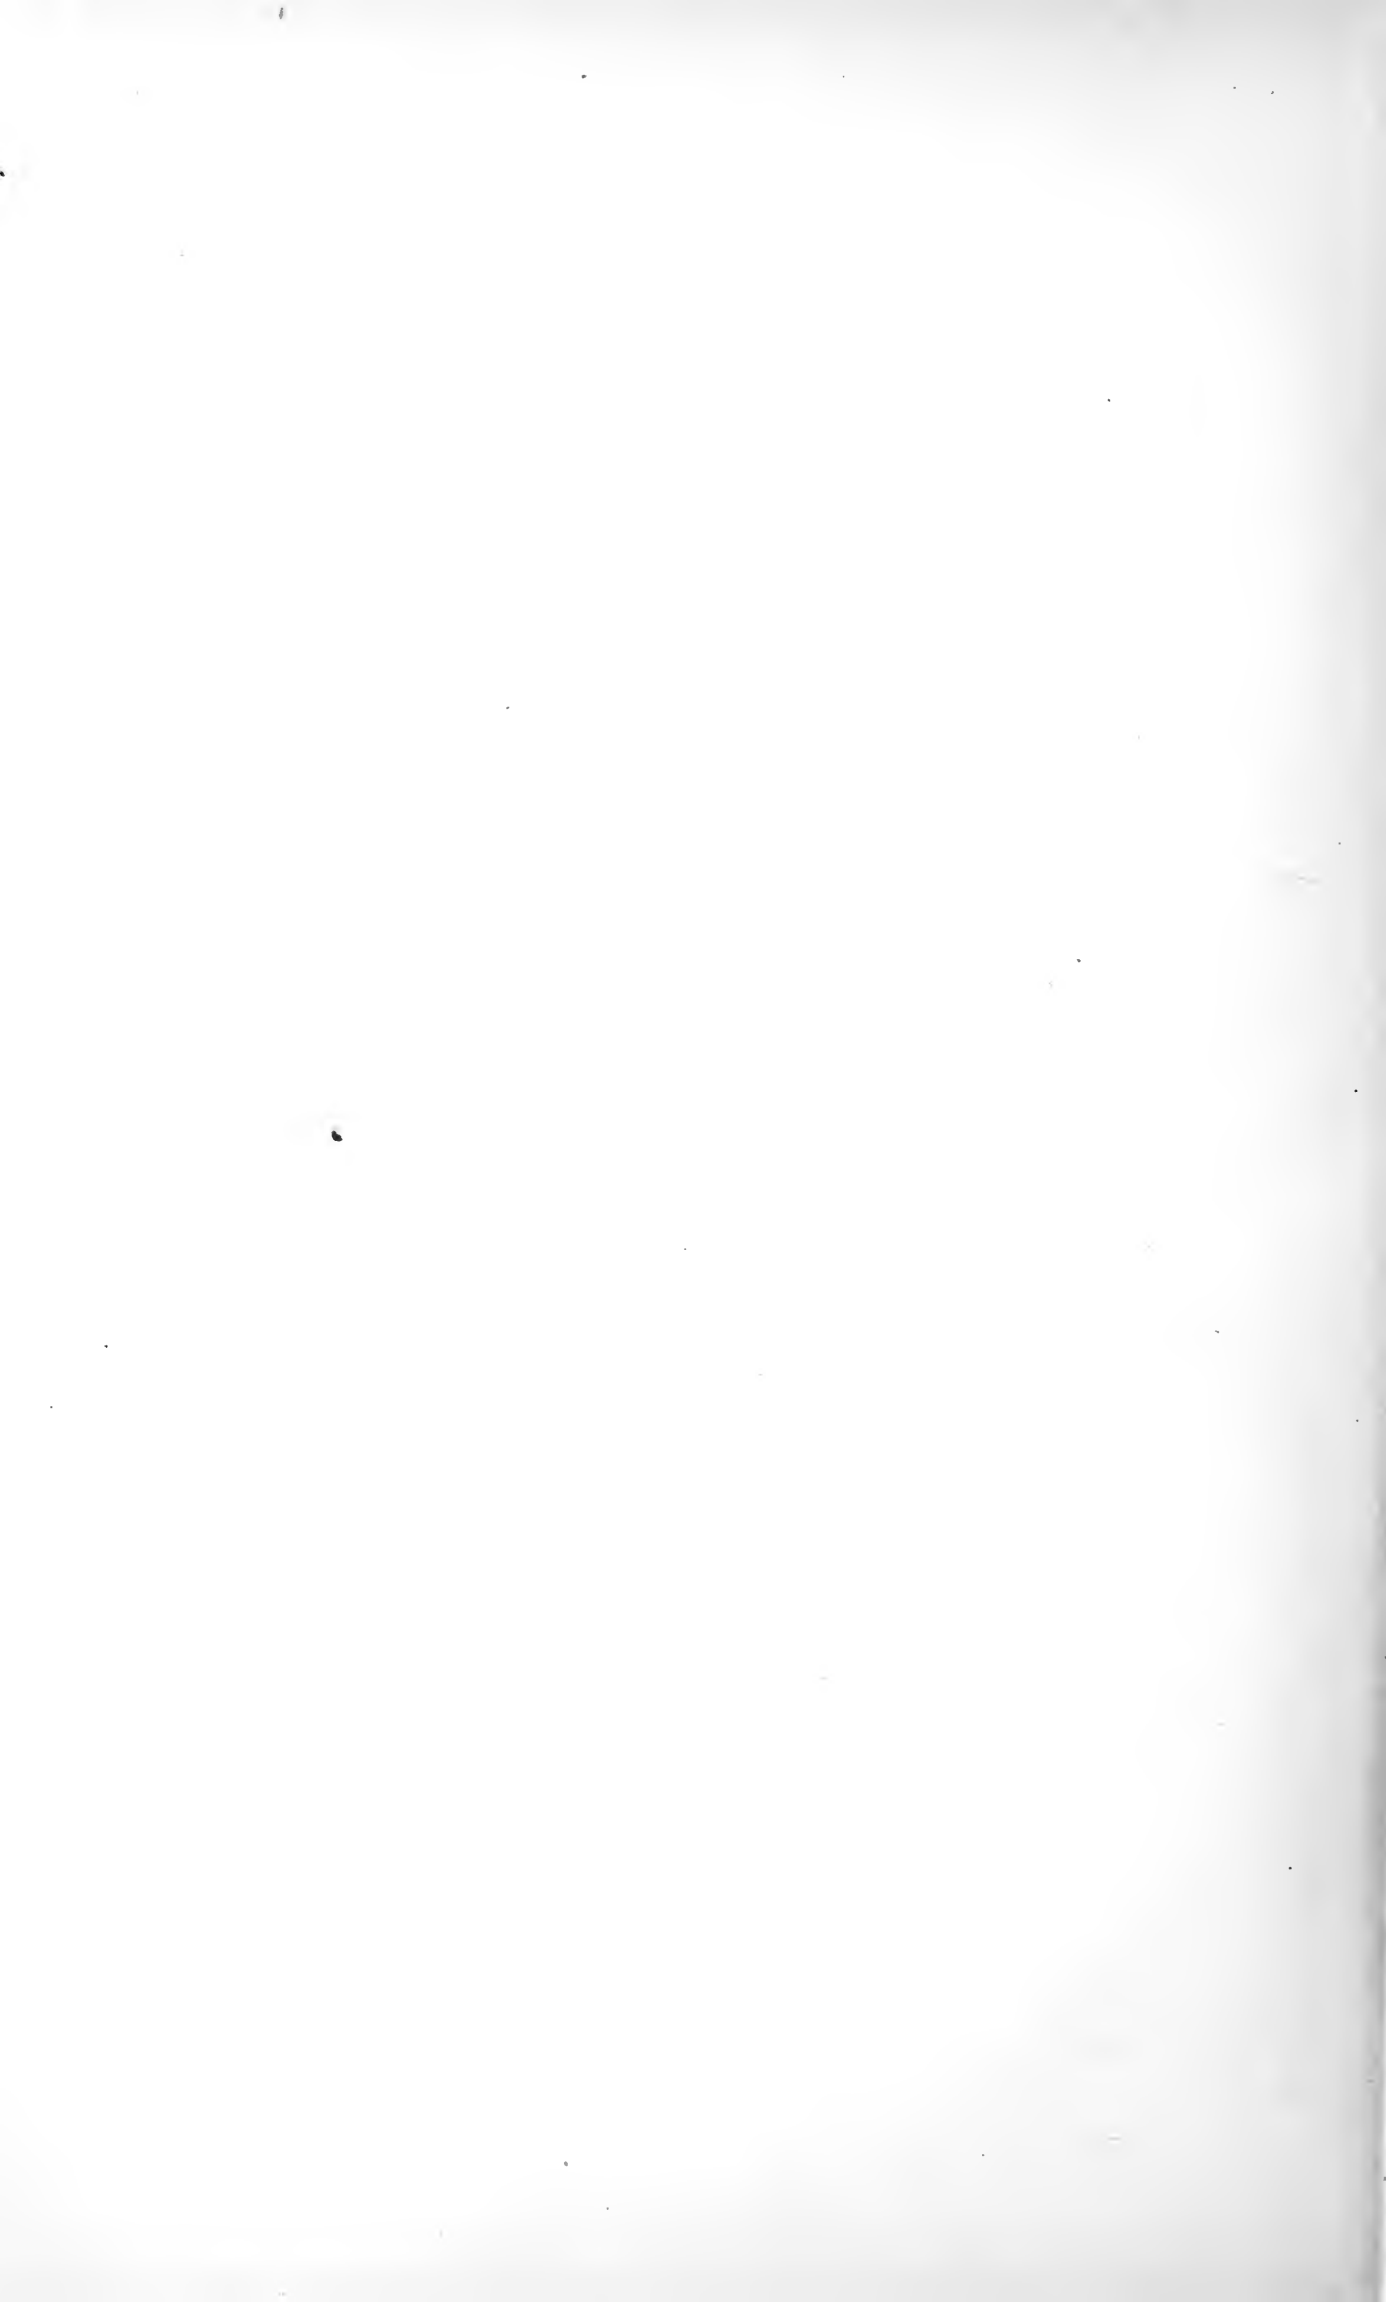

†A John Knauss of Easton, Pa., probably Johannes, born Dec. 29, 1785, son of Ludwig, Jr., and Elizabeth (Schumacher) Knauss, was married to Regina ———, and four of their children were: 1, Regina, born Jan. 2, 1809, baptised Feb. 18, 1809, died Dec. 14, 1827; 2, Captain Thomas William, born Oct. 3, 1812, baptised Jan. 3, 1813; 3, Anna Elizabeth, born Oct. 1, 1815, baptised Dec. 30, 1817; 4, Catharine, born Dec. 23, 1819, baptised Nov. 17, 1821, Conrad Kresge and Catharine Sax, sponsors. (Bib.-22.)

‡A John Henry Knows (Knauss) of Nescopce, Luzerne Co., Pa., was deceased before April 24, 1828, when, in Orphans' Court proceedings, at Wilkes-Barre, his children were named as: (1), Samuel; (2), Tessie, or Jessie; (3), Polly, married to George Boyer; (4), Doyer?, married to Joseph Solschik; (5), Ann, married to Philip Lampblack; (6), Joseph; (7), Levi; (8), Henry; (9), John, and (10), Betsey, the last four named minors. For Elizabeth Knouse, minor above 14 years of age, Benjamin Smith was appointed guardian, June 4, 1830.

John, son of Ludwig, Sr., and Elizabeth Knauss, was married (probably, April 21, 1789, to Elizabeth Hay). He was appointed by President Thomas Jefferson, Postmaster at Easton, Pa. He was Easton's fifth Postmaster and served for 10 years. He died before Dec. 31, 1822, when his widow, Elizabeth, and his daughter, Mary, wife of David D. Wagner, sold to Daniel Wagner several tracts of land in Easton, Pa. Mary Knauss, described Dec. 31, 1822, as the one child left by John Knauss, who died intestate, was born in Nov., 1797, and died Feb. 15, 1833. She was married to David D., born Oct. 11, 1792, died in Oct., 1860, son of Daniel and Eva (Opp) Wagner. Their son, Daniel, was born Aug. 8, 1822.
